

Marie Buford Collection (SC129)

Introduction

Marie Buford was born on May 17, 1922 to John W. and Verna L. Buford. At the age of seventeen, Marie Buford was admitted as a patient at the Kansas City Tuberculosis Hospital from about 1939-1941. Originally known as the Kansas City Tuberculosis Sanitarium, the hospital opened in December 1915. Built in response to the need for specialized tuberculosis care, it was located on a section of the Municipal Farm in Leeds. This collection contains 17 Wheezer newsletters published by the Hospital from 1929-1942, an issues of The Spark, and two scrapbooks.

Scope and Content Note

This collection is divided into two series: Newsletters and Scrapbooks. The Newsletter series contains 17 issues of The Wheezer, a publication distributed by the staff and patients of the Kansas City Tuberculosis Hospital and one issue of The Spark, a publication by the employees of the War Battery Company in Kansas City, Mo. The newsletters are arranged chronologically in each folder. The Scrapbook series contains two scrapbooks that Marie Buford created while a patient at the hospital. The first scrapbook contains personal materials including greeting cards, clippings and photographs. The second scrapbook is a collection of movie stars' head shots from the WWII era.
