Historical Sketch

Named after educator, councilman, and businessman Frank A. Faxon, Faxon School was located on the southwest corner of 37th and the Paseo. Temporary buildings were first constructed at that site in February 1907 to relieve overcrowding at other public schools in the area. By 1910, enrollment at Faxon had increased by almost 45% and a new, permanent building was necessary. The cornerstone for this building was laid in the fall of 1910 and it was ready for occupancy in September 1911. The school closed on June 30, 1997, and the building sold a decade later to Prime Real Estate Development for $76,000. A neighborhood school named Faxon Elementary now serves Kindergarten through 6th grade at the southwest corner of Linwood and the Paseo. As of the 2014-2015 school year, Faxon also offers two preschool classrooms and a Success by 6 family educational resource center.

Scope and Content Note

This collection consists of an enrollment book for Faxon School covering the school years 1906-07 through 1912-13. The book lists the following information for each student in 1st through 7th grades: name; age (in years and months); date of admission; previous school; grade; class; name of parent or guardian; occupation of parent or guardian; residence; birthplace of student; if and when they left during the school year; for what reason they left; number of days belonged, attended, absent, and tardy for each term and for the entire school year. Kindergarteners' records appear for later years. Students' vaccination status was included for the 1906-07 school year. Parent/guardian's birthplace was noted in records for the 1912-13 school year. Entries are separated by gender and by class. Teachers' names are listed with classes in some cases and the principal's name, Belle Harrison, appears on all pages.
