ENTER THE

ART -
IT'S BFN
A Great Year. GOOD
I GOT BALL Games. Fall
NEXT YEAR! GOOD

Here they come. . .

*Some are walking, some are riding
And some are flying, some just gliding
Released after years of being kept in hiding
They're climbing up the ladder rung by rung*

Enter the young. . .

*Well, they've learned to think
More than you think they think
Not only learned to think but to care
Not only learned to think but to dare*

Here they come. . .

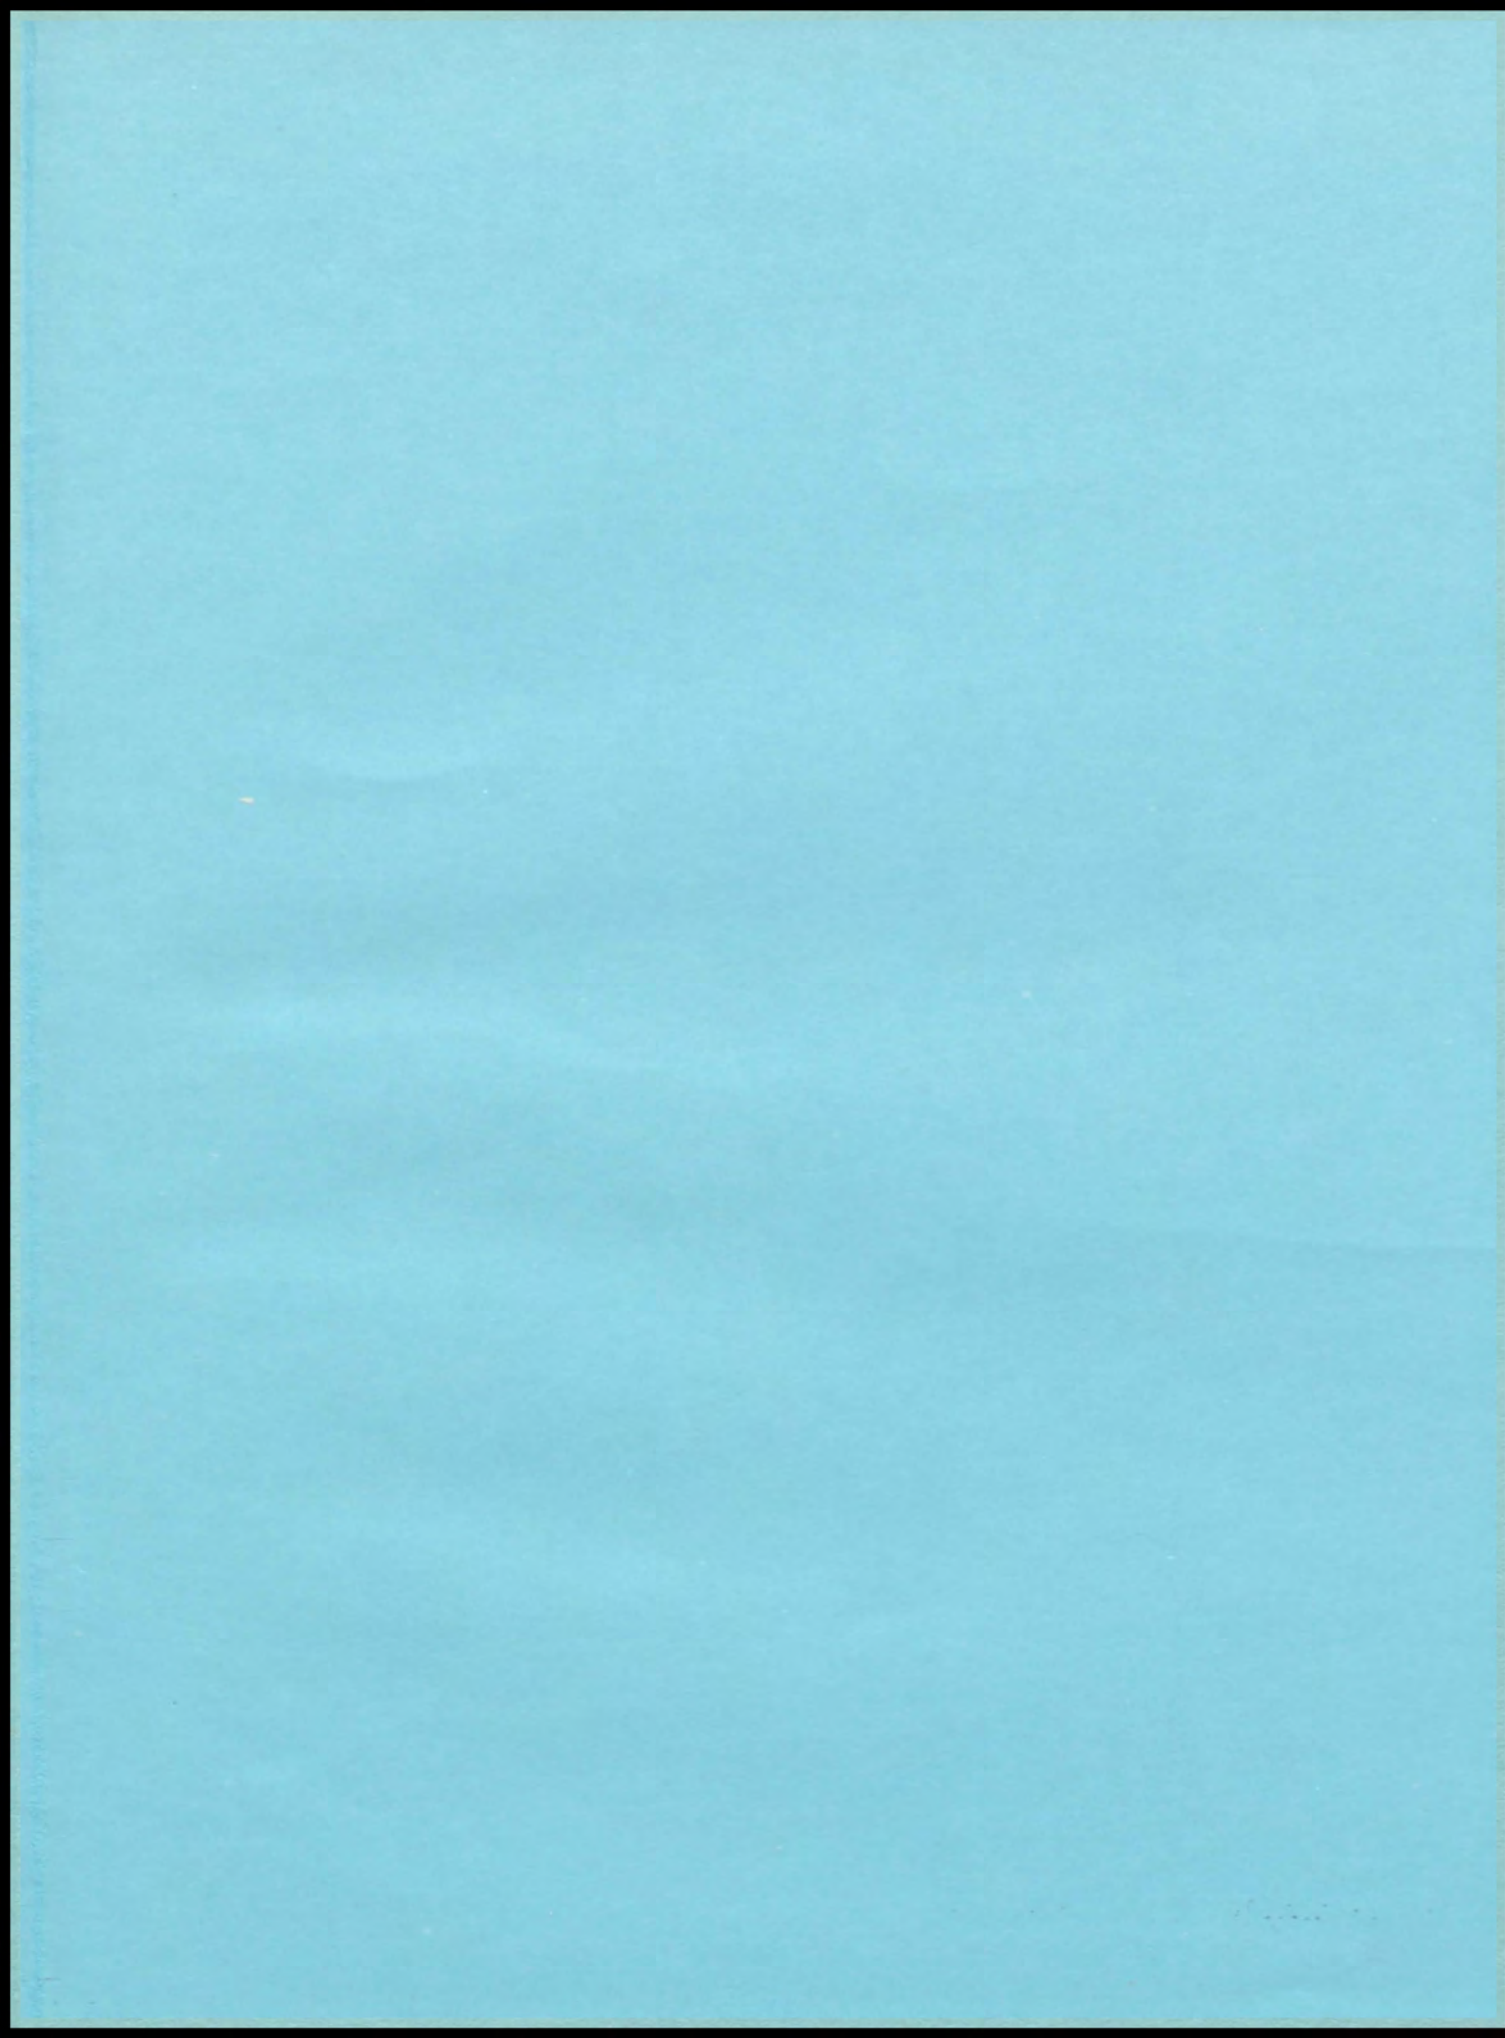

*Some with questions, some decisions
And some with facts and some with visions
Of a way to multiply without the use of divisions
To win a prize that no one's ever won*

Here they come. . .

*Some are laughing, some are crying
Some are doing, some are trying
Some are selling, some are buying
Some are living, some are dying
But demanding recognition one by one.*

Enter the young.

Here we are. . .

. . .all of us!

. . . climbing up the ladder rung by rung. Each class makes us reach for knowledge and truth.

Library

Sister Mary Judith, librarian, is always on hand to help.

The library is a place of "quiet" study!

Sally Parsons finds the library a peaceful spot.

Students make good use of the copying machine.

Vickie Mingori and Rick Alvarez concentrate on assignments.

Freshman students study with Father Monahan.

Sister Helen leads a Religion I seminar.

Religion

Students of Comparative Religion do work in the Religion Resource Center.

Sister Helen consults with Religion coordinator, Father Frame.

Through headlines, Marilyn McCarthy expresses her ideas in a Christian Woman class.

Father Frame's Christian Conscience seminar enjoys discussion.

Art

Sister Mary Cecilia explains the use of the power saw for woodburning.

Nick Owens manipulates the power saw.

Chris Palmer, while sanding, uses a vise to hold his medallion.

Two eager art students: Mike Conklin and Tom Wright.

Debbie Crockett plans a stencil design.

Jim Callahan completes a silk screen process.

Drafting

Dave Lickteig concentrates on perfecting each line.

Chris Stockard finishes a plate.

Business

Connie Craft works at transcribing her shorthand notes.

Mrs. Royer supervises Secretarial Practice II class.

Personal typing students Jr. Gilis, D. Van Hecke, A. Anello and P. Giudicessi work to complete an assignment.

Mrs. Murphy, our enthusiastic business department chairman, directs students in Secretarial Practice I.

Free Mods!

Peace in the lower hall!

"I simply must start studying!"

"Sure, we have time for a picture!"

SOME students REALLY study!

Sister Agnes Virginia comes to the rescue!

That junior corner!

English

Chris Cassidy checks the assignment bulletin board in the English Resource Center.

Annejee Gleeson receives individual assistance from Mrs. Sullivan.

Mr. Campbell conducts a small group discussion on "The Great Gatsby."

English IV students concentrate on Miss Russell's lecture.

Mrs. Dowell supervises English I students at work.

Sister Rita and Mr. Day pause to exchange ideas.

Mrs. Dowell holds students' attention in a large group lecture.

Martha Musser, Bridget Beier, and Judy Schaeffer enjoy working with Miss Russell in Advanced Placement English.

Mr. O'Hagan directs a Literature study group.

Diane Byrd and Fred Park lead discussion in Mrs. Ochoa's Literature I seminar.

Sister Rita teaches skills in a Writing I seminar.

Latin

Sister Mary Columba teaches new constructions in a lab-lecture.

In a Latin I seminar, students read Roman history.

Latin II students Carleen Bullard, Jim McInerney and John Johnson work on composition.

Louis Graham and Sue Grindley have fun taking parts in a Roman play during a Latin II seminar.

Latin III students Janice Jackson, Alice Helin and Linda Herll read St. Augustine's "Confessions" in the original.

French

French I students utilize tape equipment in a lab session.

Ed McGeehan and Terry Lancaster work on French II comprehension drills.

Spanish

Sister Mary Clare directs Janet Sellmeyer, Vicki Sizemore and Tim Murphy in composition.

Mr. Michler's Spanish I class learn vocabulary with film strips.

Practice with tapes helps Spanish II students.

T. Byrne, M. Hart and T. Hermelink check sentence construction at the board.

Mr. Michler and Sister Mary Clare plan the Spanish program.

Speech

Jan Havey vividly portrays characters from "Life with Mother Superior."

Dazarine Ellis dramatically interprets "The Waltz."

Mary Hill delights her small audience with the narrative "Custard the Dragon."

Sister Rita prepares for speech and debate classes.

Algebra II students observe Sister Mary Erwin teach graphing.

Mr. Fortin gives Paul Wer-kowitch individual help in Geometry.

Mark Heimer learns how to solve an Algebra I problem with Sister Barbara's direction.

Mathematics

Freshman practice math problems in Algebra lab.

Ann Neenan obtains assistance from Rita Jedlicka, Math III student.

An Algebra II lab listens as Sister Barbara explains a new concept.

The Math Resource Center provides a good study spot for all math students.

Girls' Physical Education

Freshmen enjoy basketball.

Mrs. Brentano tests the girls' skill and balance.

As you've seen
us. . .

coming and going.

Moods and Views

"Oh Happy Day!"

Quiet, please!

Thank you, Lord.

Cheese!

Who said smiling doesn't hurt?

You mean me?

Ss-s-sh!

Not me!

The Wild Bunch!

I'll never tell!

How do you think I feel?

Decisions, Decisions... Confusion!

Foods

Sister Rosella Mary demonstrates salad preparation.

After the work's done, Sherry Super and Maria Garcia enjoy their dinner.

"It's a bit lumpy, Anita."

The "Bachelor's" trust their own cooking!

Students are busy in History Resource Center. Sister Mary Rose is on duty to assist them.

Mr. Fiorella and American History students hold an animated discussion.

Sister Mary Rose leads a World History seminar.

Physics

Dr. John Hill demonstrates a simple math problem in physics.

Bill Vanatta learns his physics via the film projector.

Physics requires study.

Mary Breen enjoys lab period.

Chemistry

Chemistry lab periods require concentration.

Science students use the Resource Center to complete assignments.

Physical Science

Bobby Wilson and Tom Gray experiment with the pendulum.

Biology

Microscope exploration excites Beth Spencer and Heather Shinn.

Measuring solutions, Steve Duethman and John Johnson complete an experiment.

Sister Ann Margaret demonstrates techniques of dissecting to the sophomore boys.

Happenings. . .

"The Junior rings are here!"

"Can't you find it?"

"Is it too late to turn in my grade points?"

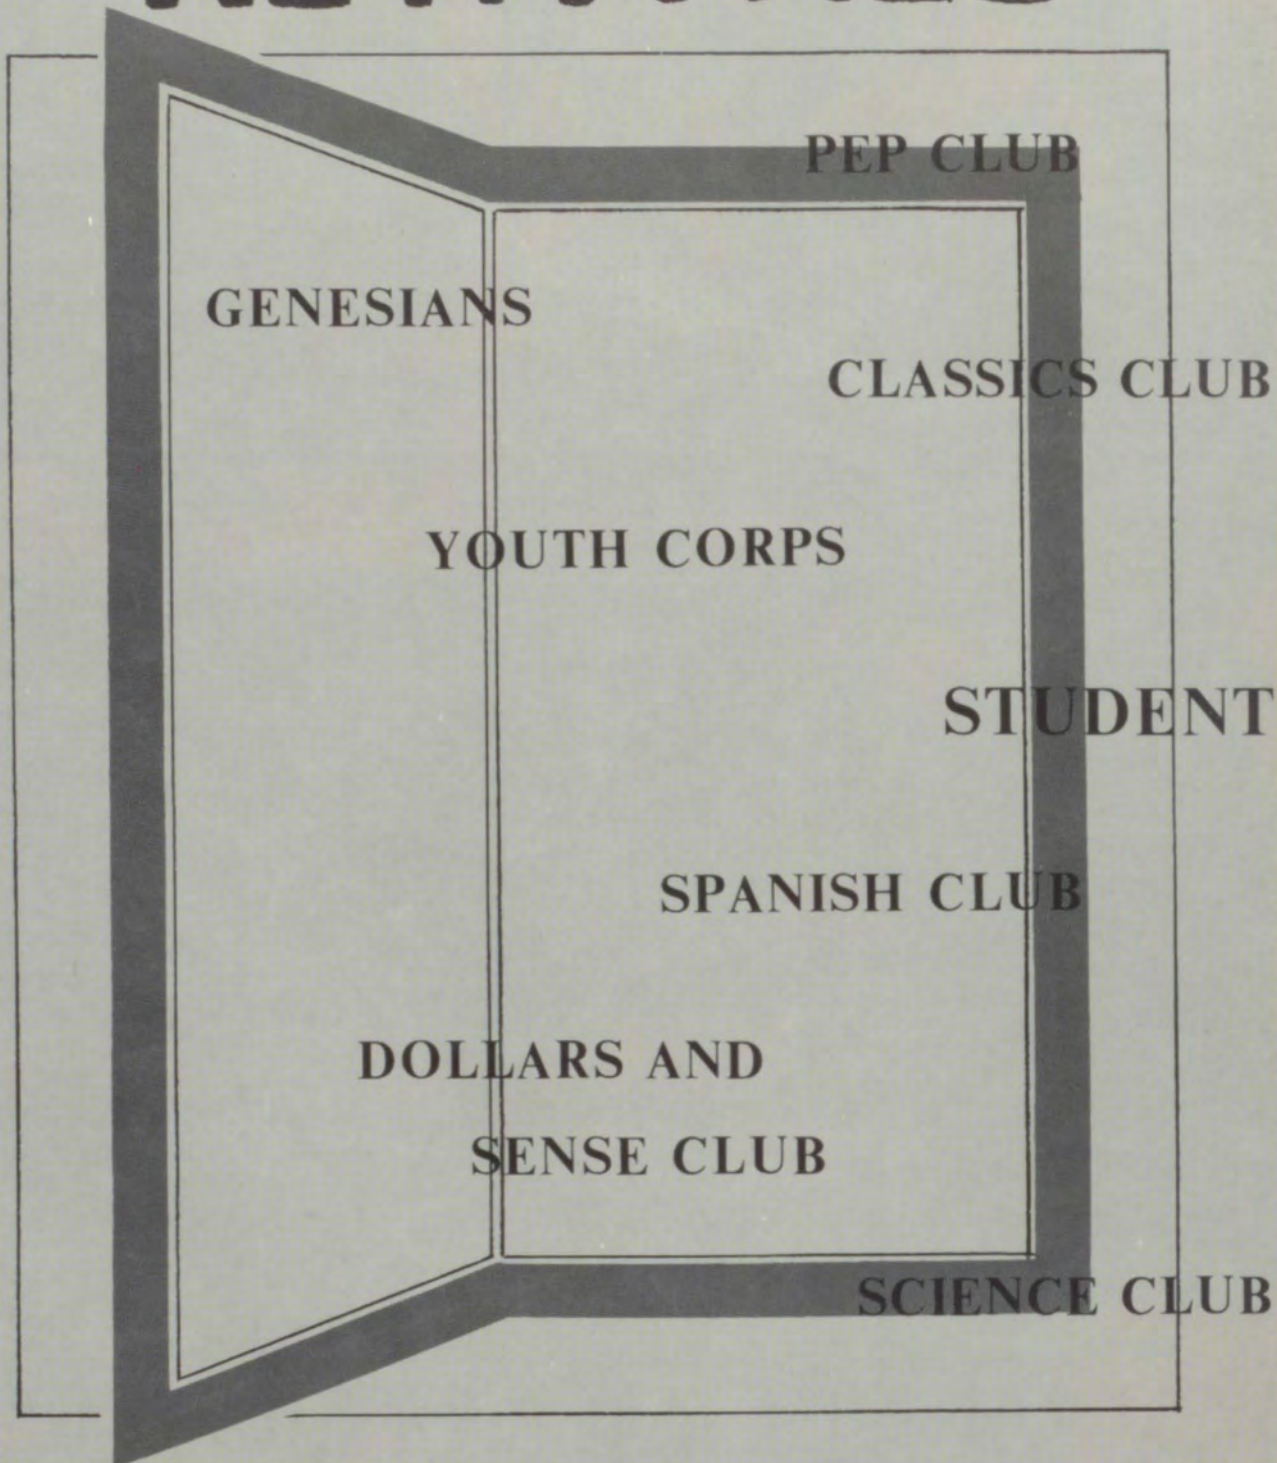

"Remember the cast party!"

Hold it!

Hogan debaters: Patty Breen, Jan Julison, Debbie Foster, and Alice Helin prepare materials for the Rockhurst Meet.

The Fall Play

Aunt Augusta accepts Cecily as a social possibility.

The charms of Cecily and Gwendoline entrap Algy and Jack.

Oscar Wilde's sparkling comedy, THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST, came to life for Hogan audiences November 21, 22, 23. The Genesian fall play concerned the plight of two young ladies, Cecily Cardew and Gwendoline Fairfax, whose childhood dreams made them both determined to marry a man named Ernest. Confusion results when they fear they are both engaged to the same Ernest, but the play is happily resolved after identities are revealed and all characters learn the importance of being earnest.

"Jack, don't eat the cucumber sandwiches; they're for Aunt Augusta."

Pat Phelan promotes ticket sales.

Champions 1969-1970

Coach Fortin congratulates Chris Stockard who made All State and Mike Gredell who rated honorable mention on the All State team.

The team displays awards won during the season:

- Regional Tournament: 1st place
- Catholic League: 1st place
- Blue Springs Tournament: 1st place
- Catholic League Tournament: 1st place
- Belton Tournament: 2nd place

Rams on Top Again

The '69 and '70 Hogan basketball team played another successful season. Carrying on a tradition, Coach Duane Fortin's roundballers won 19 and lost only 6. The Rams reached their season high point by capturing the Regional Tournament at Kearney, Mo. This victory took a team to the State Tournament for the first time in Hogan's history.

Other highlights of the year included:

- capturing the Catholic League championship for the sixth consecutive year;
- winning the Blue Springs Tournament for the sixth year;
- earning second place trophies in both the Catholic League and Belton tournaments.

For excellent play this year, four Rams received post-season honors: Chris Stockard, junior, became the second player in the school's history to be chosen for the 1st team All State. He also made 1st team on the Catholic League All Star Team.

Mike Gredell, senior, made honorable mention on the All State Team and rated 1st team Catholic League All Star Team.

Jim Dougherty, senior, and Rick Alvarez, junior, earned honorable mention on the Catholic League All Star Team.

These players, along with seniors Dan McGrath and John Johnston; juniors, Tim O'Donnell and Dan Whited; and sophomores, Jamie Houston and Randy Clarke, all helped to give Hogan another championship year.

Life is for entering and living. 1969 saw young Americans enter the lunar orbit. Hogan students and faculty also orbited into their 1969-70 environment, learning to live together in a Christian atmosphere, to experiment and to discover new ideas.

They have shared their talents. Supporting one another, they have experienced achievement and defeat.

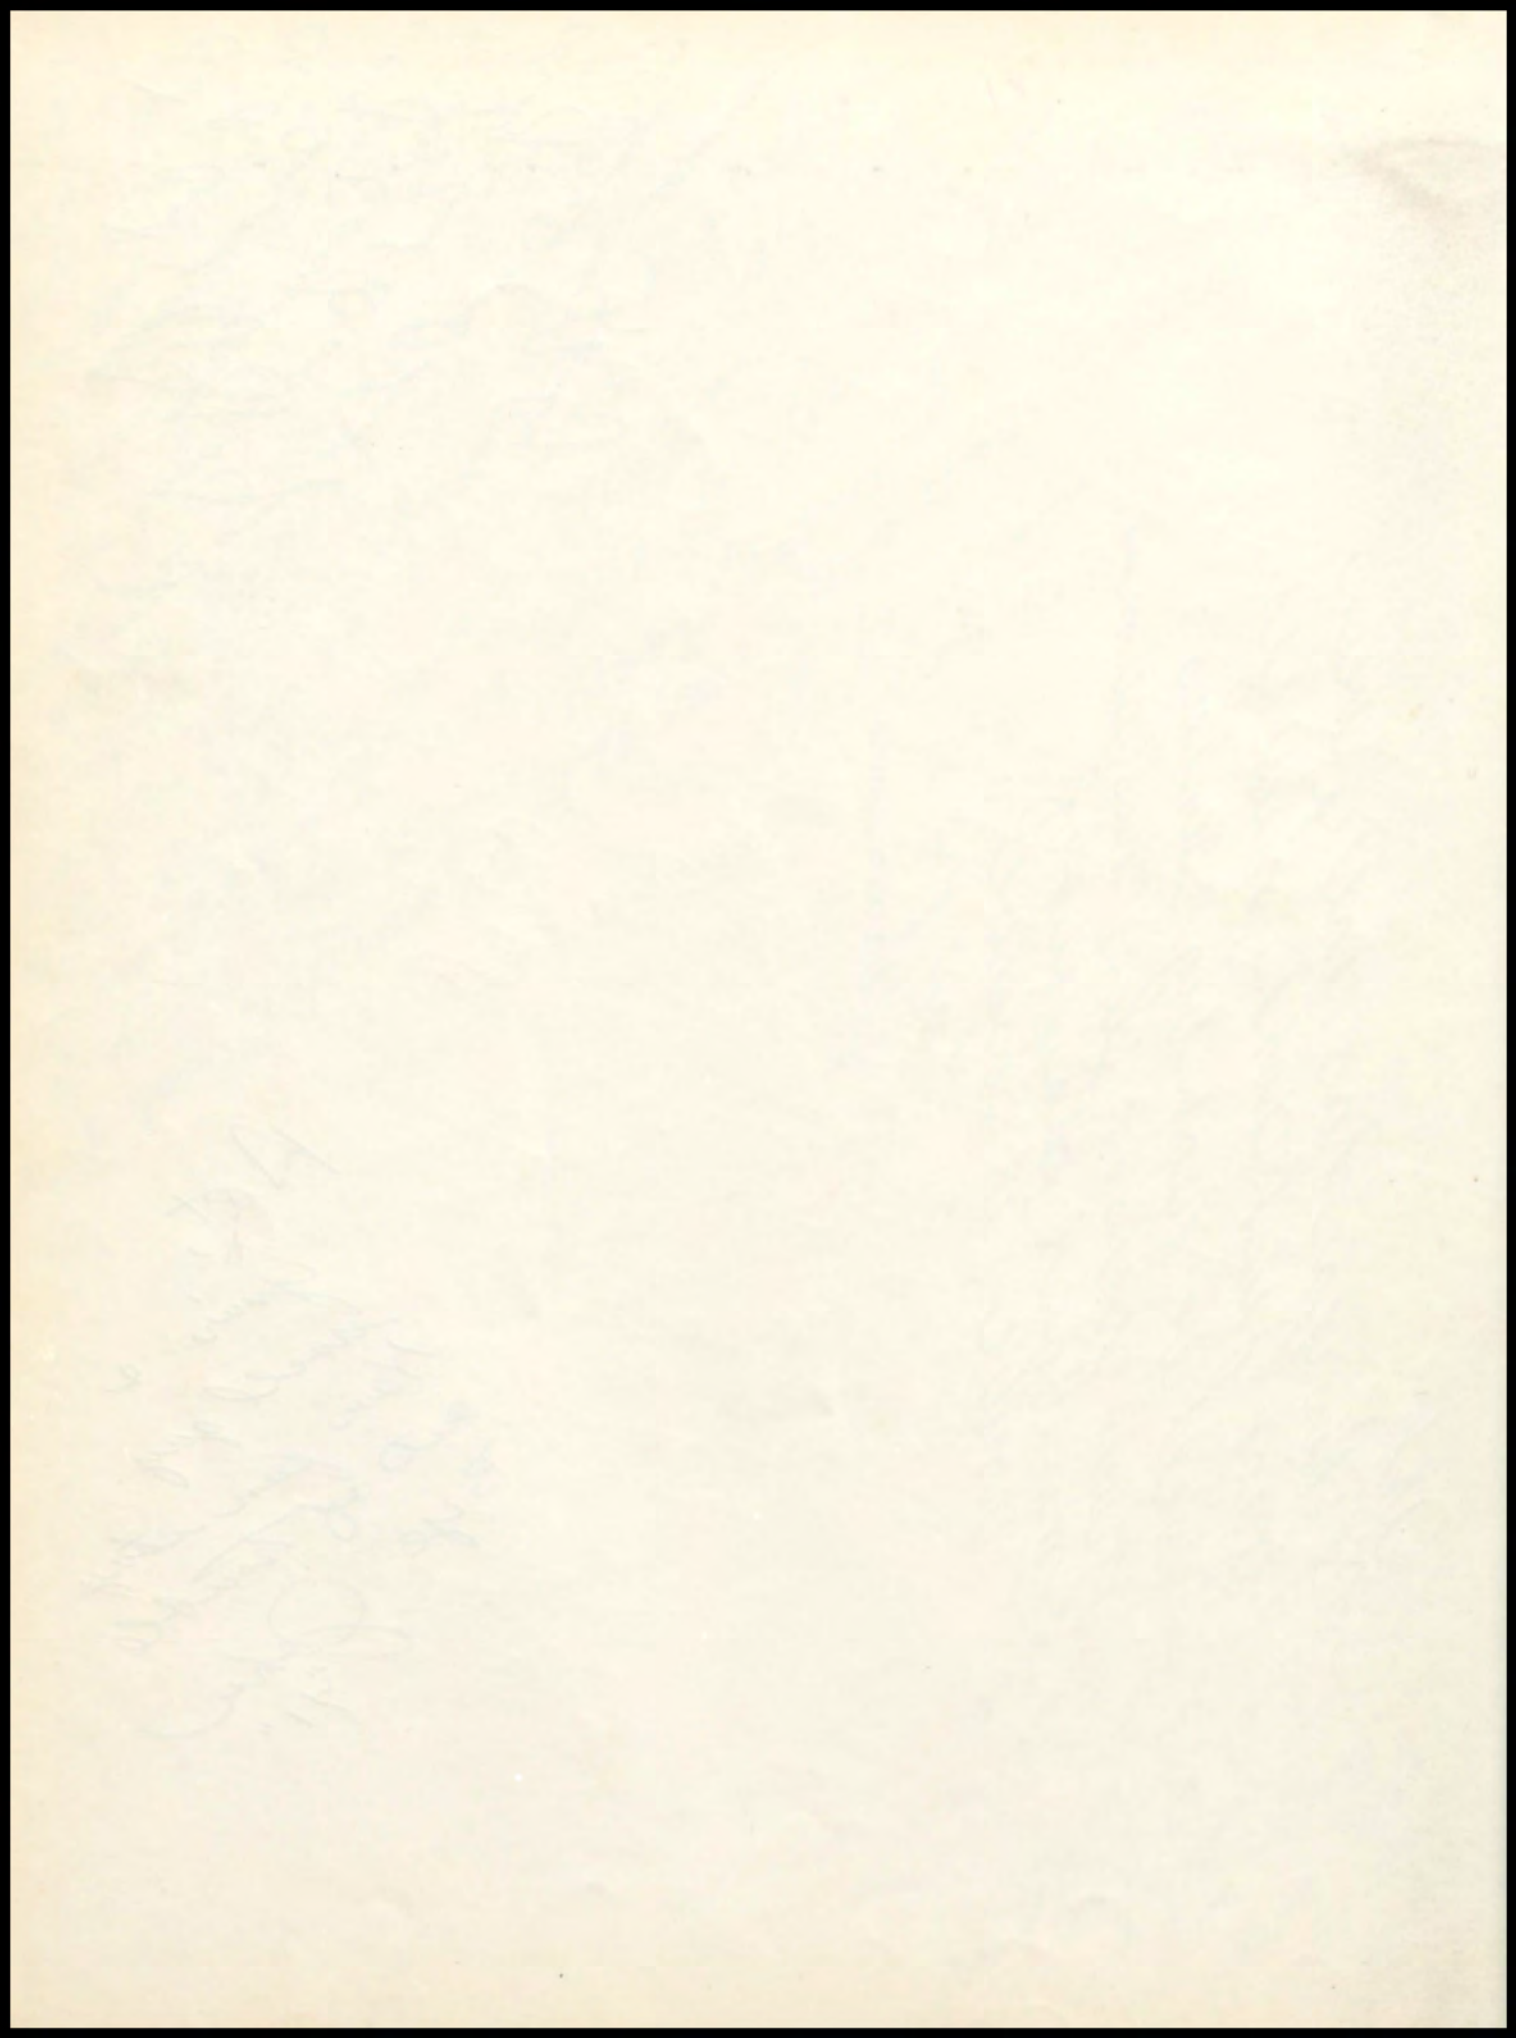

The 1970 RAMPAGE reflects Hogan life and activities as they revolved through the school year.

Get there? Don't forget to forget this past school year; memories are sometimes tragic. Here they come... Wayne always the vodka episode

Some are walking, some are riding
And some are flying, some just gliding
Released after years of being kept in hiding
They're climbing up the ladder rung by rung
Enter the young... you keep the faith because

Well, they've learned to think
More than you think they think
Not only learned to think but to care
Not only learned to think but to dare
Here they come... Beautiful.

Some with questions, some decisions
And some with facts and some with visions
Of a way to multiply without the use of divisions
To win a prize that no one's ever won
Here they come... Jan let it be

Some are laughing, some are crying
Some are doing, some are trying
Some are selling, some are buying
Some are living, some are dying
But demanding recognition one by one.
Enter the young.

out to the Fisherman home
from this summer and stay out of trouble. Remember 221-2222
It pays off sometimes. Take it easy hope to see you this summer. Love.
