One Body

One Spirit

Hogan symbolizes a living body of many parts: the students, faculty, and administration, all drawn together by the Christian Spirit, working side by side in unity.

One Body-
One
Spirit

Expressions of kindness-
a warm smile,
a kind word,
a simple,
spontaneous effort
to help
another person-
these form
Hogan's spirit.

Activities

Sister Ann and the Student Board leaders unite all school events.

Officers of junior class help workout activity plans.

Activities bring out Hogan's personality. Students and faculty join, through their fun and accomplishments, toward developing the Hogan spirit.

K. McBratney and J. Heschmeyer participated fully in the Student Boards "Fun Day."

Senior leaders add strength and enthusiasm to carry out school activities.

The Advent wreath high-lighted the weeks before Christmas.

Hogan's spirit speaks through its student body, the Pep Club and the cheerleaders.

Annual Friendship Day

Freshman girls and Junior boys pull for their class.

Steady, Mary and John!

The bags have it!!!!

Sarah! You're positively creamed!

Enrollment Day

"Be ready in a minute, Sister."

"Can you sing?"

"I hope you guys are about the last."

"You're not taking all these classes, are you?"

A. Bellante and S. Blomster appear in the Spanish program.

J. Meyer receives her poster contest award from the American Legion officers.

D. Stallman and M. Brink break the "Pinata".

Happy Days

P. Mosley rides in the American Royal parade.

Eager juniors finally get their rings.

The coat-of-arms of the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth, founders of Hogan, symbolizes the spirit of our school--unity in charity.

Christ and His Word remain the basis of our curriculum, the inspiration of our activities and association with one another.

This year's RAMPAGE, we hope, portrays some of Hogan's true spirit.

Hogan, our Alma Mater,
To you we'll be loyal and true.
Shout hip, hip, hurrah for Hogan!
Guard her faith and honor, too.
We will fight for the right to be Hoganites,
'Neath the flag of maroon and the white.
Shout hip, hip, hurrah for Hogan!
She's the best school of them all!
