The year of 1979-80 was a year of numerous crises.

- In November 1979, Iranian militant students siezed the United States Embassy in Iran, keeping 63 hostages for over 100 days.

- Russia sent many of it's troops to Cuba, only 80 miles away from the United States.

- Towards the end of the year the Russians invaded Afghanistan placing, the Moscow Summer Olympics in jeopardy; the United States was faced with the choice to participate or withdraw from the Summer Olympics.

- The inflation rate grew to an incredible high, forcing many middle and lower class people in debt.

- Gas prices rose to a record high, putting the price of gasoline over $1.00 a gallon.

Instead of seeing only the negative points of the year, we would like to remember one of our finest moments, when America at her best competed for the gold, pushed for excellence and found harmony with the entire world at the 1980 Winter Olympics, held in Lake Placid, New York.

The theme of the Winter Olympics is parallel in many ways with the goals of the students and staff here at Bishop Hogan High School. The athletes in the Olympics are full of determination and the desire to win. They all want to achieve that special goal, an Olympic medal. The students at Hogan have the same desire as the athletes; however, their goal is to do their best and achieve that special award of a fine education.

The five Olympic rings linked together represent friendship and togetherness of all the fine athletes in the world. Here at Hogan we all came from different schools, and backgrounds. To form a whole set of circles all our own. We work towards our goal with the support of our friends.

Our spirit at Bishop Hogan shines through our friends, activities, sports, fundraisers and through our education. School spirit is a part of our school; that spirit is shared by the students and faculty of Bishop Hogan High School.

"Pursuit of Excellence" . . .

In the Beginning— Orientation

The school year started out with a surprising increase in enrollment. Hogan's student body grew from 440 students last year to 520 students for the 1979-80 school year. Orientation, August 23 and 24, began with welcomes from Sister Vickie and Machele Hayes. This was followed by a prayer service, where students and teachers lighted candles to show the unity of the school. Students proceeded to the cafeteria to pay for their books and fees, and left school anticipating the start of the new year.

The Junior class gathers together to celebrate the beginning of the school year.

Opening Ceremonies

Proclaiming that "We are the future," Bishop Sullivan and Hogan students celebrated Opening Mass on August 31, at Saint Peter's Church. Students showed their pride and unity by participating in the Mass. The students listened closely as Bishop Sullivan said that the future is in the hands of the young people of America, and it is up to us to make it better for everyone.

Students stand respectfully as the Bishop begins Mass.

"You are the future!"

Teachers and students alike celebrate Mass.

Cross-Country

The Cross Country team had a most successful season. Headed by Coach Bill Capotosto, the boys went on to win many medals in the sport. Cross Country at Bishop Hogan is a relatively new sport and is becoming more and more popular in our school each year. We wish the team and Mr. Capotosto continued success in the future.

Action with The Pigskin

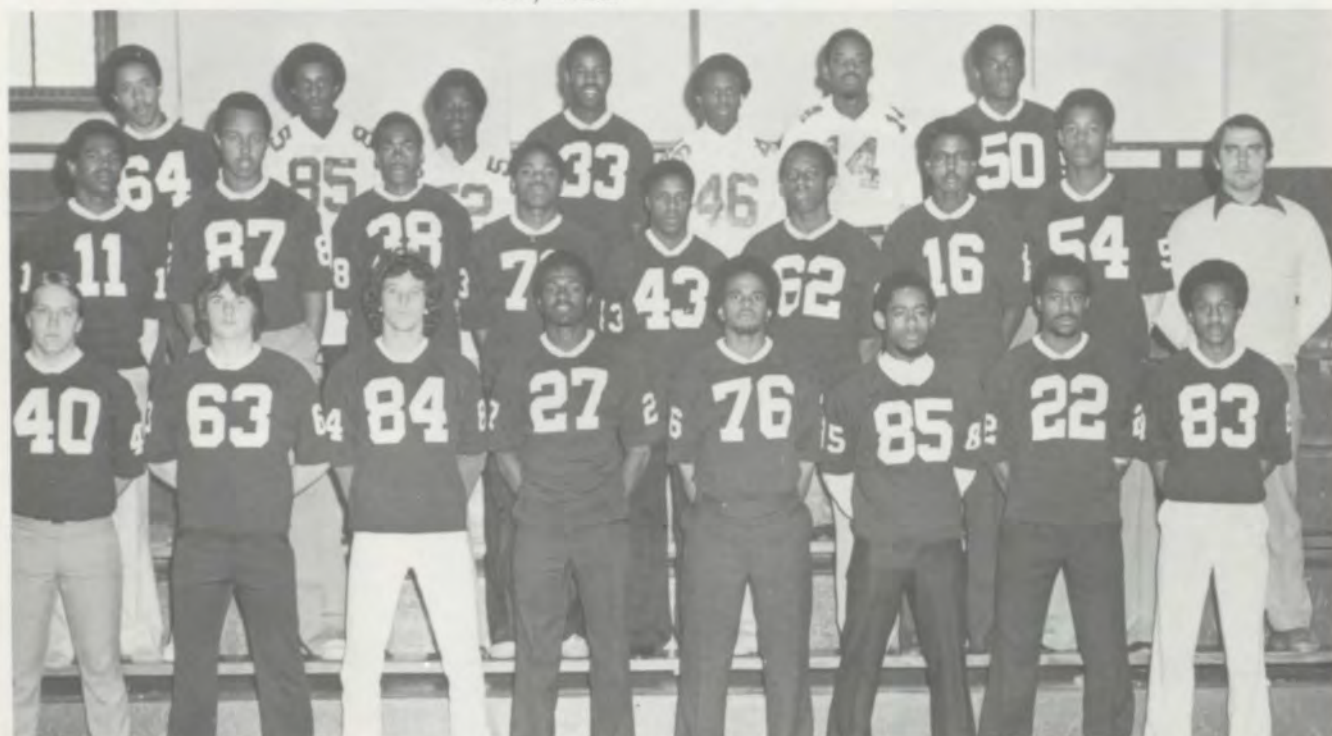

The Varsity football team was led by Coach Dorr and Coach Lewis. Looking at different strategies they decided to use the running system, because the men were well equipped with speed and agility. Leading the running game was Cebron Robinson (senior tailback). This was a rebuilding time for the Rams, however, they had a good season--one of the best ones in recent years. They had a final record of five wins and four losses.

Homecoming 1979

Homecoming activities this year followed the theme, "You Are Special". The day began with the Mass, celebrated by Father Jack McClure. A Pep Rally got everyone into the spirit of Homecoming with the announcement of the fifteen candidates. There was an exciting parade preceding the game where Northeast handed the Rams their first defeat. Queen Carla King was crowned Homecoming Queen at the dance on September 22 where music was provided by a KJLA disc-jockey. The fifteen candidates were as follows. . .

Nadine Bush
 Sharon Clark
 Selena Fellows
 Valerie Franklin
 Tina Harris
 Machelles Hayes

Fall Variety Festival

The 1979 Fall Variety Festival was sponsored by Sister Catrina Ann and Sister David Marie. The following participated: Delana Smith and Betty Johnson sang a duet, and each sang a solo. Dancing was done by Valerie and Rose Marie Franklin, also Debbie Al-pough and Cheryl Fisher. La-tonia Marshall did a monologue; sign language was performed by Donna Shumate. Pantomime was done by Teresa Johnson and Gi-brette Martin; Gibrette also sang a solo. A vibrant ending was provided by the Bishop Hogan Jazz Band. The evening proved to be very exciting and entertaining for everyone.

Gregory Smith and Ardena Layne tied the show together by providing introductions to the acts.

Games

Night

The first games night of this year, September 28, was sponsored by the athletic department. It was the first athletic fundraiser of the year. The activities available to the students attending were basketball and volleyball in the gym, dancing in the cafeteria, pool in the halls, cards and games in Room 201, and television in the library. Enthusiastic students partied the night away, contributing to the athletic fund.

An Olympian Effort

This year's Candy Drive got off to a flying start on Nov. 17. The candy that was up for sale was M&M's and Reese's Peanut Butter Cups. The students' interest was bagged by the prize for the highest seller...a ride in a hot-air balloon to take off from Hogan's own field! Ulonda Oliver came out the winner, but takeoff was delayed due to weather conditions. The students raised between $9,000 and $10,000. What a lift for the school!

8th Grade Day

On November 6, 1979, seventh and eighth graders from area elementary schools spent the afternoon visiting Hogan. First they gathered in the gym to listen to Sister Vickie and Mabelle Hayes talk about the qualities of Hogan and welcome them to the school. From there the students divided into groups led by Hogan students, and visited different classrooms in the school. They ended the day in the gym where the Jazz Band played and refreshments were served. The seventh and eighth graders seemed enthusiastic about their first taste of high school.

Joe Cameron, a drummer in the Jazz Band, drew quite a crowd while playing for the visiting 7th and 8th graders.

Sister Vickie spoke to our visitors about the qualities of Hogan.

Dawna Shumate sang a solo to the accompaniment of Muriel Ragan.

Christmas at Hogan

Christmas was celebrated in different ways here at Hogan. Many students got together with their friends and chose Kris Kringles. The Faculty got into the spirit by exchanging names for 'Secret Santas'.

The entire school joined together in preparation for the birthday of our Lord by praying Advent prayers together every morning. During these prayers, a member of each homeroom lighted the Advent candle symbolizing the coming of the Light of the World.

Mrs. Cavanaugh's Secret Santa knew just what to give her at the Faculty party.

Hogan students light the traditional Advent candle.

Mr. Capotosto's homeroom reads an Advent Prayer together.

The spirit of Christmas even spread to Terry Schierhoff and Ramona Reyes' locker.

The men's Basketball team was equipped with 12 very skillful players. The Rams were on a very big winning streak, with head coach Carl Jenkins busy planning new strategical moves and plays; it was getting harder for any other high school team to bring down the Rams. As of February 4, 1980, the Rams were ranked in the Kansas City Star's top 10, rated no. 8.

Coach Jenkins and the entire Bishop Hogan staff and students were behind the team 100%.

This year the J.V. & Freshmen Basketball teams were headed by new coaches and new ideas. The Junior Varsity Basketball team was lead by Mr. Andrew Jackson who brought with him new tactics and ideas. Coach Jackson helped the team develop their skills and next year should be more promising. Mr. Robert Yockel headed the Freshmen team this year. Coach Yockel brought the team through trying times and helped them develop and mature. Both teams are full of enthusiasm and determination.

Christmas Concert

Chorus members and Choristers close the annual Christmas program by singing 'Hallelujah Chorus.'

Sister David Marie accepts a token of gratitude from all of the students who took part in the program.

Band Members

Friends of Hogan were treated to the annual Christmas Concert on December 11, at 7:30p.m. in the gym. The evening began with a solo sung by Kerry Parson. He was then joined by the Chorus members and the band in 'Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord'. Other soloists were Tony Lopez and Torean Walker. One of the more stirring performances was given by Joe Cameron as he played a drum solo. The evening ended with a breathtaking presentation of Handel's 'Hallelujah Chorus'. Groups participating in the concert were Chorus, Mixed Chorus, Jazz Band, and Concert band. The entire group was under the direction of Sr. David Marie.

Enrollment

Enrollment day was a day where the students of 1980-81 chose the courses they needed and wanted to take for the following year. The students had a certain number credits they needed to obtain to graduate, and, working with faculty advisors, they planned their classes to fulfill requirements for the 1980-81 school year.

Hogan is a pioneer in modular schedule. Classes range from 40 min. to two hours. Each day of classes is different because of the six day cycle.

The students wait in line to get their cards checked.

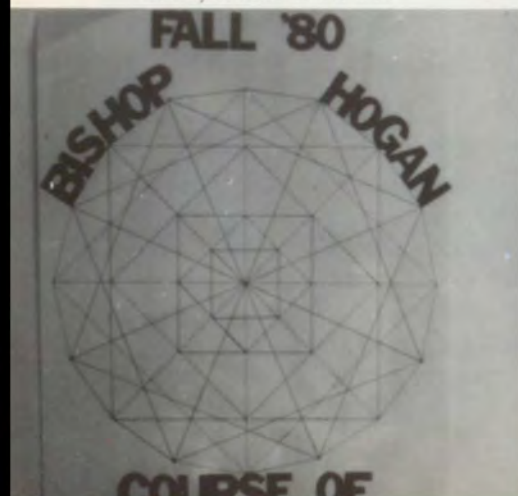

Before leaving, the students must have the card checked by a teacher.

The student's name must be on next year's class list, for him to be in that class.

This is the 1980-81 catalog book of courses, which contains classes the students might like to take.

Cultural Assemblies

The faculty and students were presented with two cultural assemblies this year. In late November, the Fine Arts Department of UMKC performed segments of "Kiss Me Kate" to the attentive audience here at Bishop Hogan.

The month of February brought the talented musicians of the entire Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra to our school to share their music with us.

Mr. Marc Gottlieb, director of the Philharmonic, introduces the next section.

The "Kiss Me Kate" cast shows off for the audience.

Faculty's Valentine's Day

February 13th was full of surprises here at Hogan. The day started with Valentines from the faculty in homeroom. An unexpected assembly was planned, where Sister Constance introduced Mr. Yokel and Mrs. Couture who read Valentine poems that were created by the teachers. Some of the faculty formed a band and entertained the students with their rendition of "Old MacDonald" and "When the Saints go Marching In." These "band members" were joined by the rest of the faculty and ended the assembly with the B.H.H.S. cheer. Later on in the day, there was a dance during which a dance contest was held. All in all, the day was a great success.

Mr. Lewis and Benita, are you two practicing for the dance contest?

Spaghetti Dinner

The Annual Alumni Spaghetti Dinner, held Sunday, February 17, turned out to be a huge success as many parents and students contributed their time and talents to this fundraiser. Everyone seemed to enjoy the spaghetti, prepared by Mr. Paul Sterner of Washington Street Station. The money that was raised will be used for the operation of the school.

1979-'80 Rampage Staff. . .

Under the new sponsorship of Sister Rita McGinnis, the 1980 Rampage staff was filled with fresh ideas and new faces. This year's editors were Rachel Hurtado and Renee Reyes. Experienced staff members headed the various sections in developing the Rampage. Everyone worked hard to meet the four deadlines and spent a lot of extra time making sure the 1980 Rampage was the best!

CLASSES

Religion

Hogan's religion department included Ms. Berney, Brother Steve, and Sister Constance. Brother Steve and Sister Constance, new additions this year, gave a new look to the religion department.

'Bene'

Sister Constance shows this freshman an important phrase from the New Testament.

Father Doebel leads the students in a prayer service for unity.

Students take notes as Brother Steve lectures.

Ms. Berney keeps her Religion II students busy.

English

The head of the English department this year was Mr. Day. The department offerings for the 1979-1980 school year included: Ms. Berney--Science Fiction; Mr. Day--English II; Ms. Raye--General English; Mrs. Brinsa--Mass Media and College English; Mr. Duschen--World Literature and Afro-American Literature; Sister Paulmarie--English I and II, and Creative Writing; Mrs. Couture--English I, Advanced Literature and Honors English.

Advanced Literature students prepare materials for class presentation.

Debbie Elliott and the Honors English class give their attention to Mrs. Couture's lecture.

Mrs. Couture guides the freshmen through a study of literature.

Mr. Day introduces new material to his sophomore English class.

Ms. Raye explains a writing assignment.

Math

Hogan's mathematicians had a variety of choices in the Math department. Mr. Capotosto taught Algebra I for area 8th grade students; he also taught Consumer Math, Geometry A, and Introduction to Computer Programming. Head of the department, Mr. Duschen, taught Algebra II. A new teacher at Hogan, Ms. McClaran, taught Algebra I, Introduction to Analysis and Trigonometry first semester and Probability and Statistics in the second semester. Mr. Yockel, in his second year at Hogan, taught General Math I and II, Geometry B and Math Concepts.

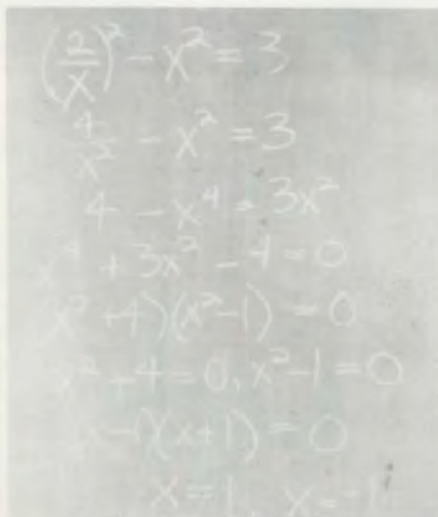

Mr. Capotosto keeps a watchful eye on his students.

Mr. Duschen lectures to his Algebra II class.

Ms. McClaran demonstrates a concept of math to her algebra class.

Steve Ballance can't believe his eyes!

This math class looks very interested in what is on the board.

Lou Ann Bender enjoys this science class.

Science

This year the science department had a variety of courses. The department was headed by Sister Charlotte White, new to Hogan, who taught General Science, Chemistry B, and Earth Science. Mrs. Sandoval taught Biology A and B, Advanced Biology and Chemistry A, and Mr. Dorr taught Biology C.

These students look for the correct answers.

Mrs. Sandoval shows her class Simple Probability.

Charlie Wirtz watches to see how it is done.

One of the more exciting moments in Mr. Dorr's lecture.

History

This year, courses offered in Social Studies were American History, Ancient Civilizations, Medieval History, American Government, Criminology, and Psychology. The History staff, Mr. Read, Mr. Lewis Mr. Jenkins, Sister Michael Delores and Mrs. Epp, help us to understand where we come from, in order to know where we are going.

Debra Hunter gives an oral report.

Ancient Civilization class is so interesting.

The American Government class learns about the Constitution.

Mr. Jenkin's class is really studying hard.

Men's P.E. class learns, by experience, the hardships of volleyball.

Physical Education

Physical Education gives the students a chance to learn the basic skills and rules of many different sports. It also gives them a break from the hard routine of study.

Tamara Grayson concentrates on that big basket in the sky.

Ms. Fischer counts the layups made in her P.E. class.

Mr. Jackson keeps his class pushin'.

Practical Arts

Practical Arts at Hogan included Drafting, Crafts, Typing, Sewing, Homespun Highlights, Cooking, and business courses. Ms. Masso and Mrs. Danuser, two new additions to the faculty, along with Sister Elizabeth Marie, Mrs. Brentano, Sister Margaret Dolores and Mrs. Cavanaugh educate students in these areas.

Timed writings take deep concentration.

Pam Chambliss and Tina Harris strive for accuracy.

The crafts class is busy at work.

Together, talent and a pattern complete a product.

Karen and Clint try their hand at painting.

Fine Arts

The Art department, headed by Sister Rita Magrath, and the Music department, headed by Sister David Marie Solomon, both had a successful year. Art students ventured into new areas with wire designs. Sister David Marie's students performed at basketball games and a very successful Christmas Concert.

Choristers listen attentively to Sister David Marie.

Speech & Drama

The Speech and Drama department was headed by Sister Catrina again this year. The speech students learned various speech techniques, while the drama students performed 'The Toy Shop' for area grade schools.

The Speech II class listens and learns from fellow classmates.

The Drama class performed the updated version of Little Red Riding Hood.

The Drama class performed for tiny audiences.

Andre Morris expresses his views in a Speech debate.

Sister Catrina's section of Fundamentals of Communication studied the importance of speech making.

Rosemarie Franklin and Tom Becker listen to Mrs. Maersch.

Miss Ott prepares for her Latin seminars.

Languages

Mrs. Maersch, a newcomer at Hogan, joined the language department teaching Spanish and French and leading her students to an appreciation of the language and culture of other peoples. Miss Ott continued to prove that Latin was not necessarily a dead language at Hogan.

The Latin II students often work together as a class.

These students must answer all their questions in French.

A foreign language becomes easier to understand as the year goes on.

After the last notebook is thrown away
 I shut my locker and turn.
 Standing alone in the empty hall
 I think of things I've learned.
 But more important than a grade
 Are the times spent with friends I've made.
 I'll often think of mod change halls,
 205, Student Union walls,
 Musicland, the gym, homeroom,
 Lectures, lunches, Rams, maroon,
 And all those weekends that finally came.
 But these times will never be the same.
 I realize now, while standing
 On this seldom silent tile,
 The memories that I will always hold
 Will always make me smile.

Friendship: Spirit of the Olympics. . .

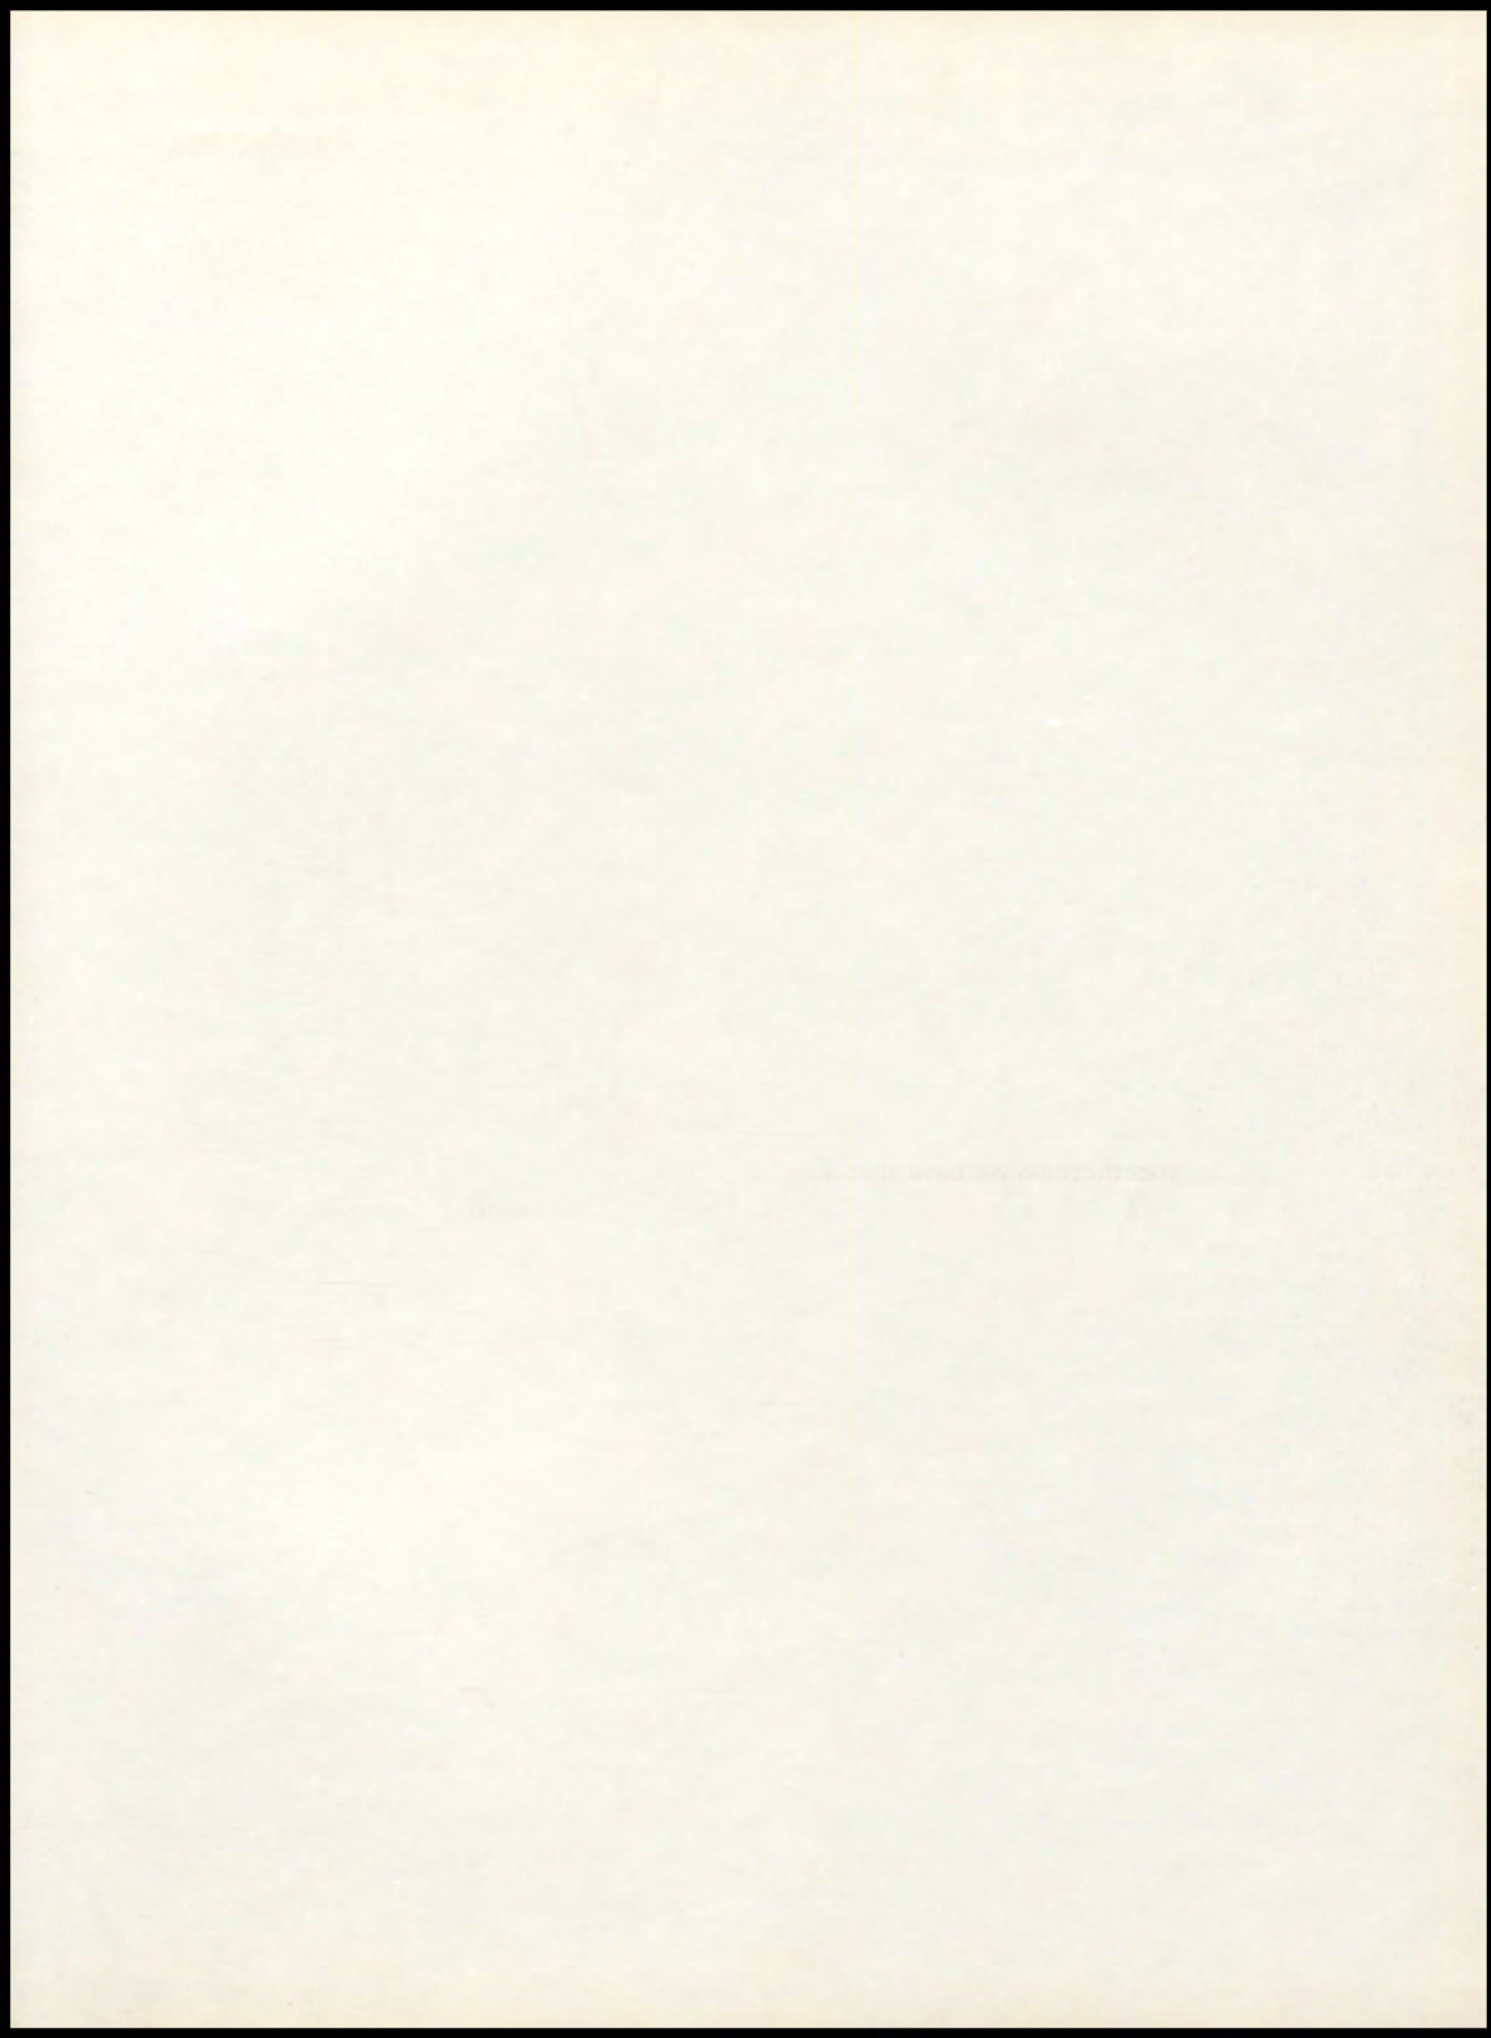

...Spirit of Hogan

We form ever widening circles of friendship that grow stronger and deeper as the years pass. We hope this record of memories, of friendships and of achievements will hold together this year of 1979-1980. In closing we wish for future students and teachers the unique harmony we felt at Hogan.

This year the Rampage staff came together as one to complete the 1980 RAMPAGE. We would like to thank the staff for all the work they did: Maureen Kennedy for the artwork she contributed, and the student and faculty for their cooperation. We would like to thank the K.C. Fitness Center for letting us use their facilities for our group picture, DeCloud Studio for their pictures of royalty and teams, and Sister Rita McGinnis for all her help and tolerance.

As this year comes to a close, we shall always remember the togetherness we have shared, and all the special friends we have made. We would like to thank all the people who share the goal of making Bishop Hogan High School one of the finest educational institutions in Kansas City.
