Dedication

To you, Mary, the senior class of 1949 dedicate this issue of the Lillislog. Armed with a fighting spirit and a zeal for souls, we 49ers face a hostile world. But we know that youth and enthusiasm will not be enough. When we become weary and the ardor of our hearts grows cold, then will we need an ideal to whom we may turn for comfort and inspiration.

It is in you, Mary, that we find perfectly fulfilled the virtues of purity, humility, and fidelity which we need so desperately now in order to combat the prevailing vices of the world today. With our eyes upon you, our ideal and our leader, we stand ready for battle. Lead us onward till victory is ours.

Foreword

NORMAN WISWELL
Senior Class President

National Honor Society; Religion Contest Winner 3; Homeroom Leader 2; Letterman, Football 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Operetta 3, 4; Amateur Hour 2, 3, 4. Plans to make a career as radio and television technician.

1949—The 49ers, rivaling their historical counterparts of the last century, will blaze the trail of Catholic Action through the wilderness of atheism, will defy the plains of indifference, will surmount the “Rockies” of hatred, and achieve their goal—not by digging for gold, but by planting the Kingdom of God in a world of paganistic materialism.

Not unlike the adventurers of one hundred years ago, the 49ers’ endurance will be tested by manifold vicissitudes. Unlike their enterprising exemplars, the Lillis 49ers launch a different kind of search—they seek to find the treasure of true happiness by spending themselves in spreading Christ and His Kingdom.

1849—Westward wagons blazed trails across the Great Plains of the Mid-West, dared dangerous paths over the Rockies, and forged on to the “land of gold.” Countless times did these pioneers encounter the perils of hunger and thirst, and of warlike Indians; very frequently they contended with mutiny from within their own bands. The 49ers paid the price of pain, torture, and multiple hardships in their determination to reach their goal and in their emulation to realize the object of their treasure hunt—gold.

Springtime! Maytime! Promtime!

The committees in charge were determined to make the prom a memorable night for the 49ers. They found that into three short hours went the work of three weeks, the plans of three months, the anticipation of three years, and memories that will live on.

Apostles See, Judge and Act

Under the direction of Father Francis M. McAuliffe, meetings are held each week to promote Catholic Action. Projects undertaken by the various groups are the Catholic Workshop, correction of careless language, adherence to mutual respect and general publicizing of the idea of better young Catholic men and women. The effect on the student body has been so great that the lay apostles are justly so called.

Chairmen appointed for the senior divisions are: Ann Savage, Margie Fitzgerald, and Tommy Walsh. Junior leaders are Mary Pat Richardson, Louise Sullivan, Charles Ballard, and Tom Sobbe.

Sir George --- "That's Me"

Cries of "That's me!" floated through the halls the night of October 11 as Homeroom 207 set the stage for Sir George to win first place in the amateur hour of 1948.

From the ingenuity of Homeroom 207, the ancient tale of the struggle between Sir George and the Dragon came to life. In the story, conceived and written by Pat Schaaf and Mary Pat Richardson, Sir George, played by Carol Latz, heroically saved the fair Lady Ellen, portrayed by Bill Danaher, with tragic results for the Dragon, Buddy Arensberg.

The action took place in a forest of rocks and trees, which were caricatured by persons shown below.

SEMIWASTLE

49ers Blaze New Trails

Lillis 49ers with scholastic endeavor have sought and found golden nuggets which will enrich their lives with priceless grains of knowledge and achievement.

Prospecting on the mountain of Art, four won keys to success in the Scholastic Art Exhibit and two others received honorable mention.

Bright and shiny was the loving cup which the four novice debaters secured through their oratorical efforts. As they plunged into the depths of world problems, the varsity, novice, and freshman teams alike gained the core of worthwhile experience.

"It Pays to be Smart" according to the Lillis six top scientists who delved into problems of physics, chemistry, and general science.

The crowning achievement for Lillis 49ers was admission to the National Honor Society, which symbolizes for them the lasting, golden worth of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

HOW THEY DOTE ON DATES!

Dates are important in American History, but equally so are movies and the study of current events. In a democratic discussion, Bill Ireland as leader appears to have command of the situation.

Knowledge - A Timeless Treasure

49ers point with pride to their gold mine of knowledge and information, the complete and well-stocked library of the school, containing over 3700 books. Whether they be in search of a valuable nugget of information for a term paper, or bent on discovering the secret treasure of wisdom and understanding of fellow men, the students learn that on these shelves lies an enormous wealth ready to serve any adventurer who will put it to use.

The 49ers know that for the bewildering present in which they live, an abundant store of ancient wisdom and abiding truth is their most valuable weapon. From a lively, attractive literature display that varies from week to week, the students observe and acquire Catholic principles of thought and action.

Language

Each day the intelligentsia of the underclassmen meet Father Daniel as teacher to enjoy the adventures of ancient Roman life in Latin I class.

Masters

Spanish students learn about their South American neighbors in song and story. There's more to this language study than Si, si. Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the class, would be most pleased to note the studious attitude of her clients.

From King Tut to Truman

From prehistoric days to modern times is a long step but this World History class appeared to know all the answers to the test they were busily writing when the camera caught them.

Getting Along with the World

"To make better citizens for a better world" was the theme of the course in Sociology. To impress upon the minds of the seniors the importance of living in the modern world there were studies of the Encyclicals, current problems, and the Missouri Constitution.

Bookkeepers' Budgeting Pays Off

Their spirit of adventure brought the prize nugget to the bookkeeping students standing in the above picture. Father Daniel is shown presenting the certificates of Superior Achievement awarded by The Business Education World for the students' third outstanding solution of a problem in bookkeeping.

These bookkeepers think they know all the trials of the real 49ers. They have faced bankruptcy on their profit and loss statements; they have dared to work frantically and frenziedly for hours, yes, even days, for the nugget that would bring them "out of the red".

Enjoying English

This English II class is typical of the nineteen English classes in which Lillis students are enrolled.

The various poses indicate that some know their lessons while others bow respectfully to their books.

Debaters' Nuggets

Doing research on the proposition, "Resolved: That the United Nations now be revised into a Federal World Government," the members of the National Forensic League are pictured below.

The novice debaters, seated, are B. Tabery, E. Overaker, M. P. Richardson, and L. Farr, who won the CYC trophy.

Varsity debaters, standing, are D. McNamara, F. Rhodes, H. Wiggins, S. Conran and R. Fitzsimmons. P. Lillig was missing from the picture.

Caught in the act of learning the painstaking task involved in publishing the Lillistrator is the journalism class shown in the lower picture.

M. Koch and S. Geil cast critical eyes on a back issue as S. Conran works on a copy. In the second row, C. Payton, T. Walsh, D. Warren, and A.

Willoughby are reading galley, as are L. Sullivan and R. Houston, while M. Sandy, B. Gormly and F. Connelly read copy.

New Horizons

"Music inspires" is the theme of the art classes as they create to a musical accompaniment. Pencils, charcoal, pen and ink, linoleum, crayons, chalk are the favorite mediums of the three Art I classes and the advanced class.

With pictures entered in the Scholastic Awards Contest, J. Cosgrove, C. Kroupa, S. Chambers, and N. Flannery, were key winners while J. Cosgrove, N. Flannery, D. Maleney, and V. O'Connell received merit certificates.

Fussin', Feudin' 'n Fightin'

Learning how to put their freedom of speech to good use seems to be a pleasant task for this group of speech students as Frank Whitaker demonstrates the art of gesturing.

Oratory, interpretation, dramatics, radio, panel discussions and debate were the various fields in which students tried their hands, hearts, tongues, and talents.

Woody Woodpeckers

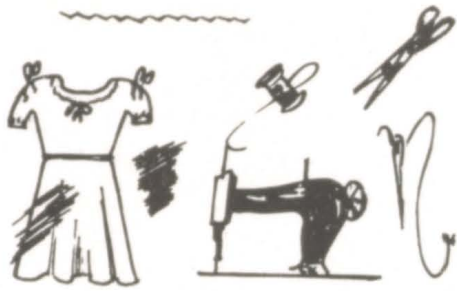

Buzzing, hammering, sawing, and other sounds come forth from the shop as Coach Tom Glennon directs the boys in their work. Here we see Jerry Eccher sawing a 45° angle with the mitre saw while Bo Brown surfaces a future coffee table. Pat McManus is at work at the band saw while Antony Weibel uses the emery wheel.

Printing 'Prentices

The printers are responsible for publicity in many social, athletic, and scholastic events. Bill Torrey is setting type at the left; Bob Loschke is locking up a form; Tom Delaney and Ed Schmidt are working at machines. Le Roy Barrett and Harold Schleicher are checking programs.

As the shift changes, new jobs and new noises start. Distributing masterpieces is Bill Daniel's incentive for making the wheels "go round". Dan Connelly "catches eyes" with his attractive posters. Welhoelter, Ballard and Buckley are proficient typesetters. LeRoy Coulter is handyman in the print shop.

Foods and Finery For 49ers

It is with a great deal of enthusiasm that the members of the clothing class put in their stitches because they are endeavoring to dress as practically and cleverly as their budget allows.

Evelyn Johnson and Gloria Legate work at the machines while Janet Meiners tries her creation on the dress form. Mary Pipes is being fitted as Sally Ann Cutler, Gloria Findlay, Margie Fitzgerald, Betty Mahannah, Melba Leubbert, and Rita Kiefer do a bit of hand work.

Norma Flannery and Marilyn Coghill carefully remove a jar of beans from the pressure cooker as Irene Graham, Mary Bensing, Beverly O'Connor, Patricia Neff and Mary Campbell make jelly. Katherine O'Brien, Eileen Powers and Judy Hawk label the finished product.

of Mrs. Moser, the classes carried on a variety of activities from dancing to intramural volleyball.

One—Two—Three—Four

Below: It's not as easy as it looks, but the boys in the physical education classes enjoy these healthful, invigorating exercises as Coach Minter puts them through their paces.

The Proof's in the Lab

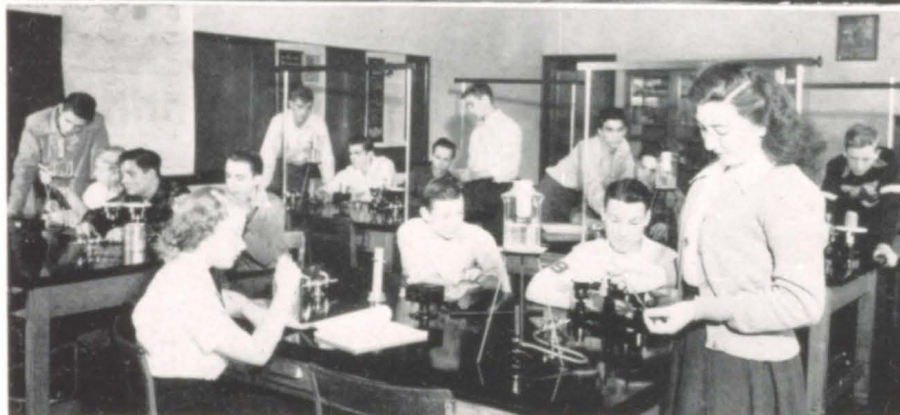

TESTS AND TUBES

David Griffith and Jerry Schuh are coloring the lab atmosphere with their nitrogen peroxide. The other chemists are: M. Bauman, J. Biritz, J. Bolin, T. Ferguson, R. Fitzsimmons, W. Gormly, V. Gross, J. Haefling, W. Johnson, J. Kelleher, C. Kroupa, W. McCarthy, L. Merrigan, E. Overaker, E. Schmidt, W. Welch, J. Williams, R. Zahner.

UNRAVELING MYSTERIES OF MATTER

Preparation of nitric acid captivates the interest of this all-boy class. Perhaps they expect to use the product in the further synthesis of nitroglycerine, or TNT!

These physicists can find the specific heat of copper in their textbook but they seem bound to prove that their book is correct by actually finding the number through experimentation.

Biologists Are Convinced

Ask Margaret Moeller, Barbara Meyer, Louise Sullivan, and Charlotte Rogers if a frog has a heart! They have no doubt about it since the scissors displayed the marvel! Dolores Kenning, Darlene Meier, Virginiann Stratton, and Marilyn Ocheskey believe the microscope holds all kinds of wonders. Rosemary Collins, Shirley McNamara, Ann Dore, and Peggy Foley are convinced that the paramecium is a slipper-shaped animal.

It Pays To Be Smart

Rulers, Protractors and Compasses

Below, future architects and mechanical engineers work away at the rudiments of their trade. Second and third year draftsmen supply advance wood-workers with drawings for objects to be made by shop students.

Above are pictured the people who are line, angle, curve, and circle conscious. Day by day, they pursue their course in logical reasoning and answer to the roll-call of the geometry class. Above, the class is attentive to the solutions on the blackboard presented by Franklin Bicklmeier, Joseph Cosgrove, Jo Anne Lathy, and Barbara Meyers.

Typing Away

Tap-tap-tap—This is just one of the five classes who patiently persist in mastering with the required speed, the clean, neat, accurate pieces of work from day to day. Some look forward to a business career, others want typing as a personal asset. But whatever the aspiration or daily assigned problem may be, there's nothing like laying it aside for that one period and "typing this for Sister".

Secretarial Practice

Future business women of America are these 34 girls who do the many little tasks of a secretary. Besides the daily dictation and transcription, they mimeograph letters and address envelopes for the Lillis Dads' and Lillis Mothers' Clubs — yes, the Mount Alumnae, too. And sh-ssh—they frequently are trusted with the stenciling of some of the quarterly exams. A full time job is theirs with Friday's call for "clean up the office" which includes cleaning the typewriter, dusting the tables—and they like it!

"Take a letter please."

Spiritual Peaks

School officially opened September 17 when the Most Reverend Joseph M. Marling, C.P.P.S., auxiliary bishop of the Diocese of Kansas City celebrated a Dialogue Mass in honor of the Holy Spirit. In his address to the students, His Excellency urged them to make the most of their opportunities to become Catholic leaders.

Retreat Masters

The first day of recollection on December 7 was under the direction of Rev. George Spiegelhalter, O.S.B. of Seneca, Kansas. "Think correctly, choose wisely, and act resolutely" was the theme of his conferences.

Rev. Phillip Kellett, S.J. of Rockhurst College conducted the exercises of the spring recollection day, April 13. In keeping with the Passiontide was Father Kellett's theme, "He came unto His own and His own received Him not."

Sodality Officers

"Mother Mary, we come to you, for
We know what your love can do.
You can't say you can't, and
You won't say you won't. So you
Will, Mother Mary, won't you?"

Living Rosary

The Marian spirit that pervades Lillis daily student life found joyful culmination in the Living Rosary offered to Our Blessed Mother on October 7, by Sodality and Holy Name members on behalf of the entire student body.

Memories of Aves before classes and during tense moments at games, of the quiet daily recitation of the rosary during October, of the inspiring and beautiful plays on the feasts of the Immaculate Conception and Christmas, and of the final May tribute when Mary was crowned Queen—these memories will cause future thoughts of 49ers to instinctively turn Maryward in petition, thanksgiving, and simple love.

The special devotion Lillis students bear toward Our Lady has been stimulated and strengthened by the presence of the Sodality in the school. Affiliated with the "Prima Primaria" the Sodality has given a new zeal to its members and a stirring example to other Lillisites to sanctify themselves, to help others, and to defend the Church.

Counseling The Doubtful

Father Daniel O'Shea, Vice-Principal of Lillis, has endeared himself to all Lillisites. Every morning he teaches Religion. During the day he teaches Latin, keeps study hall, gives any doubtful boy or girl the correct answer, is the prime mover in getting volunteers to Adoration on Wednesday night at Rockhill Road, emanates Lillis Spirit and—"Makes Announcements."

Who quiet keeps the study hall . . . As up and down he trods? . . . Who is it that is helpful there . . . When we need aid from God? . . . Who is the one that helps a lad . . . With his Latin all he can? . . . It's the grandest Priest in all the world . . . Our own dear Father Dan! . . . He will always be remembered as one we revere the most . . . And now in earnest tribute . . . Let's propose a worthy toast! . . . We ask that God may bless him and see him through each day . . . Because his kindly cheerfulness . . . Brightens our carefree way.

Boys At Prayer

"I will go unto the Altar of God
Unto God the joy of my youth.
Our help is in the name of the Lord
Who hath made Heaven and Earth.
Show us, Oh Lord, Thy Mercy
And grant us Thy salvation."

The Chapel will forever be remembered by all Lillisites as a quiet place for meditation, and for the comfort of spending a moment there with God.

Any hour of the day finds Lillisites slipping in from study halls to say a few words to their Divine Friend. What is prayer for? Games! Dates! Exams! Parents! Clothes! Jobs! Money! And God is thanked for His gifts and is adored, not for His goodness to the one praying, but because He is God!

After dances, girls and their escorts may be seen going in to tell Him "Good Night" and to ask Him to take care of them. No couple could have a better blessing!

The Lillis chapel, gift of the class of '47, has been the haven where many students have laid their requests, and found peace and strength at the feet of their Lord.

If homecomings are made memorable and gala by the big end of the score, then the homecoming of '48 is a never-to-be-forgotten one by the Lillis 49ers. The Fighting Irish struck pay dirt four times to down the Hogan Rams, 26-6.

The festivities of the weekend began with a spirited pep rally on Friday afternoon. A colorful parade highlighted the celebration. Under police escort, the lengthy parade consisting of pep club, cheer leaders, L-club, majorettes, and homerooms followed by the float carrying the queen and her attendants, wended its way up Troost Avenue and down Forest.

Determined to strike it rich the entire student body, spirited by the 49ers, shared in the team's rousing victory. The queen and her attendants reigned over jubilant hearts as Lillis students and alumni gathered at the coronation dance. The Lillis-ites' joy was completed by the presence of former principals and chaplains, Sister Jerome and Sister Ambrose, Father Francis and Father Anthony, and Coach Readecker, who were guests at the reception preceding the dance.

The Pause

Here Lillisites are refreshed in body and mind. The weight of an intellectual atmosphere is lifted and the Lillis spirit effervesces. Friendships that have been broken for all of three hours are renewed and life becomes very pleasant, very gay and free of responsibility.

Coins are flipped and glasses spun to determine the one who will dispose of papers. When the bell is rung all leave quietly, fortified to face the seige of Troy, the anguish of a sudden exam, or just the weight of time until 3:30.

Coach Tom Glennon

Asst. Coach Joe Mintner

The Two Power Thrusts

Moving up from assistant coach to take over the post of head of Lillis athletics vacated by Coach Readecker, Tom Glennon, a recent alumnus and basketball star of Warrensburg State Teachers' College, and a well known figure in sports circles, continued the record of his predecessor. With only two starters returning from last year's varsity, Coach Glennon, with the help of his assistant, took a bunch of green reserves and moulded for himself a ball club that didn't lose a game in the league.

He even bettered the situation by developing a championship basketball team with a nucleus of only two reserves from last year's squad.

Coach Glennon and his '49 edition of Lillis basketballers won twenty-eight and lost four to post the best record ever made on the hardwood at Lillis. Traveling far and wide to compete in games and tournaments, Coach and his boys managed to hang up this enviable record against some of the finest competition in the state. The squad traveled first to Greenwood where they were victors in that tournament. The Irish then journeyed all over Kansas City, Kansas, and around town playing the Interscholastic League teams. In the De La Salle tournament, Lillis netted seven wins and one loss. With this record, the team was enabled to go to Springfield, Missouri, for the Tournament of Champions, where they won one and lost one. Coming back to Kansas City, the boys won ten straight games in the Catholic League. A little jaunt to the Sub-Regional play gained them three more victories. In conclusion, the Regional tournament added two more games to the victory column before the team suffered its fourth and final loss of the season.

In addition to doing just as well in the rest of the fields of sports endeavor, Coach also set up a new high in equality and fair play, with each individual boy being given a chance to play ball if he had the ability or if it could be developed in the course of the season.

Helping this year in capacity of assistant coach was Joe Mintner, another recent graduate of Warrensburg, where he had an outstanding record in sports, being named the "most valuable linesman" on the State Teachers' squad in 1946. Loved affectionately by many of the boys, he was one of the "big wheels", who helped the teams hustle to their splendid records.

The 1948 football season began with a bang as Lillis defeated Rockhurst to the tune of 7-0 in the C. Y. C. Extravaganza, Bob McMullen going over for the Irish. McMullen, who should have had one of his best seasons, was hampered by an ankle and knee injury for the greater part of the season. However, Mac was still going strong till after the Pem-Day game, as he scored the only touchdown against the Raiders in a thrilling 7-0 victory. Responsible for the two extra points was Charley Hogan who was known as the boy with the "golden toe". Chuck was probably the best place kicker in Kansas City schools.

Hayden came down from Kansas and beat the cocky Irish 6-0 at C. Y. C. In the third game of the schedule, the highly-favored Lillis eleven just squeezed past the high-spirited De La Salle 7-0 on the banks of the C. Y. C. Rain had poured onto the field for three days. LeRoy Coulter scored in the second period on his famous line "squash". The next affair was the Glennon tilt which saw the Irish push the Eagles everywhere but in the grandstands and still not score. One touchdown was called back, however, on an off side penalty. This cut the Irish chances to a possible tie for the championship.

Springfield and Lee's Summit were right in order for the Irish but they dropped a thriller to the Springfield Bears. The Irish went down to a 6-0 default early in the contest but the Lillis gridsters came back and tied it on Charley Hogan's end run. Hogan again put the pigskin through the crossbar for a 7-6 halftime lead. Harold Schleicher blocked a punt in the third quarter and Bob Loschke fell on it to increase the lead to three points. Fighting fiercely to the end the Green and White held the Bears.

Lee's Summit fell before the strong Irish 19 to 13 as the two ends accounted for all the points, LeRoy Coulter having a great day with the throwing arm. Bob Loschke brought down 13 points and Harry Schleicher 6.

Hogan was the next victim, bowing 26 to 6, as LeRoy Coulter had another good day in running up 12 points and passing for two more, one T. D. flip to Schleicher and the other toss to Loschke. Hogan booted two for four. By tying the Irish, Rockhurst handed the first place Catholic League trophy to Glennon.

The Irish line held the opponents to a mere 37 points in nine games for a four point average per game. This line was one of the biggest and probably the best forward wall that ever represented Lillis on the gridiron.

Honors for the season went to Dave Griffith and Bob Zahner who made first team Catholic All Star. Bob McMullen, Bob Loschke, and LeRoy Coulter pulled down second team honors.

Grid Glances

Harold Schleicher snares a pass and almost gets away in the Glennon game. John Whalen, Glennon halfback, makes the tackle 17 yards from pay dirt in the exciting third quarter.

Bob McMullen (45) takes out around end in the closing minutes of the first half to set up the first Irish touchdown. He is being ably assisted by blockers, Bob Loschke and Jerry Glenn.

Wilfred Schmitt snaps the ball to LeRoy Coulter, right foreground, as Lee decides to take to the air in the Eagle affair. The pass was successful, but the Irish just couldn't go all the way in their fifth drive late in the third quarter.

Upper Right: LILLIS-DE LA SALLE

The Fighting Irish rush back to the huddle after making 14 yards in their only long drive of the day against Rockhurst. However, there wasn't enough spirit to go for the six points as the game ended in a scoreless tie.

LeRoy Coulter skirts end against a strong Hogan defense in the first quarter of the Homecoming tilt. Buddy Arensburg (34) moves in to make the path safe for Coulter.

"C" League

The Freshman-Sophomore division could not boast too proudly of the season, winning four, losing four. In their five league games they came out victorious three times and dropped the other two affairs to produce a second place record.

Victories were over De La Salle, Redemptorist, and Glennon in the league, and over Rosedale in out-of-the-circuit competition. Hogan and Rockhurst salvaged victories over the small Irish as did Pem Day and Southeast.

The starting line-up: Eccher, Rennèr, Ganaden, Thornton, Burasco, Fierst, McManus, Roberts, Scanlon, O'Leary, McNamara.

The Hardwood Greats

Jim Gladbach, "Big Jim," 6' 6" senior, played the post, elected first team Catholic League All Star, third high scorer of the League.

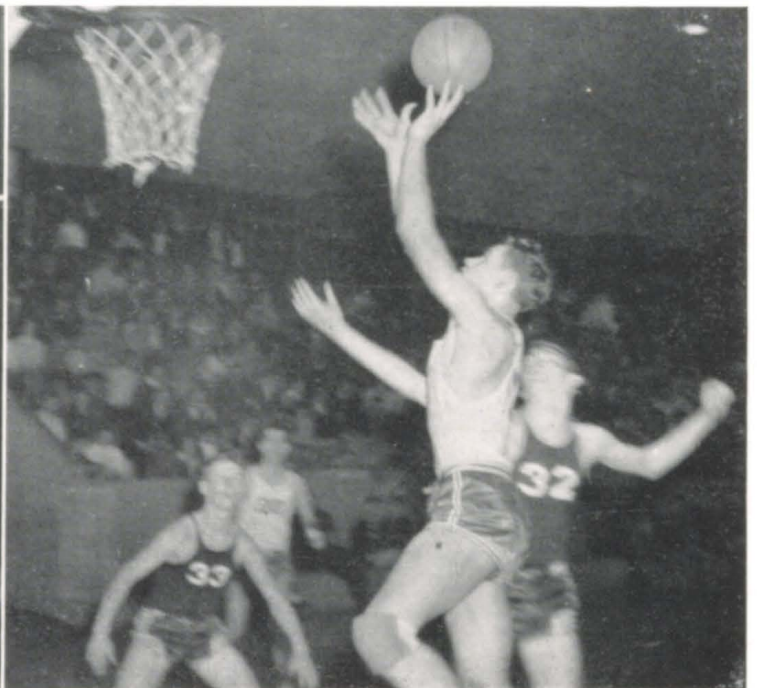

Bob Loschke, senior, forward, the best shot on team, great hustler, first team Catholic League All Star, second high scorer of the league.

Starting with only two reserves from last year's varsity, and a group of B-team boys who had seen no varsity competition, Coach Tom Glennon moulded a squad that went undefeated in the Catholic League to take sole possession of the championship crown. In addition, this same squad, with 28 wins and 4 losses, produced the finest record of any team in the history of Lillis High. They also can be credited with minor achievements in hauling in trophies for first place in De La Salle subregional tournament, second place in the Greenwood and De La Salle pre-season tournaments, second place in the Regionals at Rockhurst and second place in the Springfield Tournament of Champions, a mid-season invitational tournament of the sixteen strongest high school teams in the state. In the last tournament, the Irish were the only team in Kansas City to get an invitation.

In the Catholic League the "Fighting Irish" romped through their 10 game schedule without difficulty. The Rockhurst Hawklets, sporting a red-hot fast-break, afforded the only competition; but the Irish dumped them twice by four point margins.

McMullen hits on the run for the Irish against Rockhurst.

Gladbach pivots and splits the nets to increase the lead over the Hogan Rams.

Harold Schleicher, senior, guard, good ball handler, at his best on defense, received honorable mention Catholic All Star.

Bob McMullen, senior, guard, good team man with lots of spirit. Second team All Star.

Ollie O'Toole, senior, played forward and guard, good little fighter, always hustler and willing to play.

Jack Eskew, senior, forward, accurate shot but had to be begged to shoot. Good team man, received honorable mention Catholic League All Star.

After winning the De La Salle subregionals, the hustling Irish hit a cold night and were defeated at the hands of Rockhurst by a two point margin. With this loss, went the Lillis hopes of going to Springfield for a crack at the state championship.

Jim Gladbach, starting center, and Bob Loschke, forward, hustled themselves berths on the Catholic League's first team All Star, while Bob McMullen, guard, got a second team position. The two remaining starters, Jack Eskew and Harold Schleicher, received honorable mention All Star awards.

Loschke jumps and scores in an Irish victory over Southeast.

Gladbach fights gravity for the tip in the Maur Hill Contest.

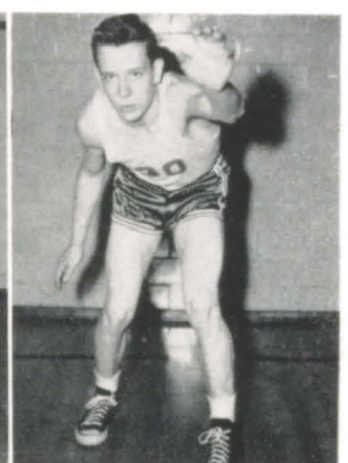

Irish Scramble in Hawk Loss

Jim Gladbach tips to Bob Loschke in the second Irish victory over the Hawks. Both scores were by the same tune, 41 to 37. These two outstanding victories enabled the fine Lillis team to go undefeated in the Catholic League. In the background one may see the Lillis cheering section. In uniform are the "Green Peppers."

Lucien Anthony, senior, forward, set shot artist. A team man.

Bob Watkins, senior, center, always hustling on defense and offense. Never complaining.

Frankie Yurchak, sophomore, guard and forward, has two years to go and is improving steadily.

Danny Connelly, junior, guard and forward, one year to go and with hustle he'll go places.

Members of the varsity with the five trophies won this year.

Dan Connelly, right, awaiting ball. Ray Shepherd, 18, Le Roy Barrett 16, take action in the Central affair.

Lillis Champs of "Tomorrow"

After dropping two league games by one basket margins, this hustling B-team squad put on a wee bit of speed in the home stretch to end up in a first place tie with Rockhurst in the Catholic League. Their two defeats were at the hands of Hogan 28-29 and an overtime game with Rockhurst 33-35.

Due to a heavy varsity schedule this ball club was sent to represent Lillis in both the Pleasant Hill and Blue Springs Tournaments, both of which were Class A Tournaments. Although they won their initial contests in both tournaments they were defeated in the semi-finals. In these tournaments the boys got their first taste of varsity competition and at Blue Springs the team won a sportsmanship trophy that will aid them greatly next season. B-Team starters were: Tom FitzGerald, Raymond Shepherd, Danny Connelly, Frank Yurchak, and Al Heider. These boys also suited out as third string varsity reserves.

"B" team players: First Row: F. Yurchak, B. Schleicher, T. Sobbe, D. Connelly, B. Stevenson. Second Row: A. Heider, R. Shepherd, Coach Glennon, T. Fitzgerald, T. JoRay.

A championship squad after their second triumph over De La Salle.

Finishing first in the league, along with Rockhurst, these sophomores displayed a fine spirit of teamwork, an essential factor in the winning of many close games. Much future talent is recognized on this squad which was under the tutelage of Coach Mintner. The starting five were: Martin O'Brien, Bill Schleicher, Richard Bowers, Steve Hayde and Roger Fister.

The freshmen finished second in the league and came home with a trophy from the Sugar Creek tournament. The starting quintet for this group included John Seiber and Eddie O'Leary as forwards, Carl Campion at the center slot, and Larry Scanlon and Don Roberts at the guard positions.

Freshmen cheerleaders: M. A. Parks, M. P. Rogers, P. Ireland and M. Breitenstein.

Intramural Champs -- 1949

The 1949 Intramural basketball tournament was an elimination event. One loss automatically dropped a team from the tournament. Of the 16 Homerooms 202, 204, 406, and 402 survived the endurance test to win the Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen championships respectively. Room 406 in the semifinals defeated the Freshies of 402 hardily after a dangerous first half which netted only a 17-15 lead of intermission. The mighty seniors of 202 escaped the sophomores by the score of 24-16. Yurchak and Schleicher kept it close all the way, but the Seniors' experience finally tipped the scales in their favor.

The Championship contest saw the seniors emerge victorious over the underclassmen 32-26. Schleicher and Coulter led the champs in the grueling contest that attracted 650 students. Connelly and Stevenson connected consistently for the losers in the well played game.

First Row: T. JoRay, E. Schmidt, J. Cannon, J. Britcher, G. Livingston, R. Fister, B. Schleicher.
 Second Row: Coach Glennon, F. Yurchak, A. Heider, B. McMullen, R. Watkins, B. Loschke, H. Harrison, J. Hindlie.

Batters Up!

Once again the Yearbook was forced to jump the gun on the baseball team in order to insure delivery on time. Therefore, for the most part, we can only forecast the outcome of the season.

Bob McMullen

Bob Loschke

In all probability, we should have a better than average squad, with six returning Lellis lettermen and one Redemptorist two-year man. There is Gene Livingston who will be behind the plate and form the bulk of the hustle. On the mound in his third year for the Irish is Bob Loschke. He is one of the three who received American Legion Missouri All Star honors. Bob also pitched for Milgrams of the Ban Johnson League who are currently state champions. Bob McMullen, in his second year up, is an outstanding flycatcher and powerful hitter. He is the second of the three players to receive All Star honors. Frankie Yurchak is the third of these players picked for the Missouri team. Frank is an excellent fielder as well as a potent hitter. Bill Ireland, a pitcher, who spent two years chucking for Redemptorist is now going to try the Irish luck. Ed Schmidt will round out the pitching staff and should have a good year with his new assortment of pitches. Paul Boyd, a great team player, will bolster the infield and add some scoring punch with the bat. If these seven hold up and the newcomers come through, Coach Glennon should have a winning diamond squad this year for Lillis.

Cinder Expectants

Elrod Wilson runs the hurdles.

Dave Griffith hurls the discus.

Cunningham clears the bar.

The cinder men, although not as promising as last year's group, are ready to take on all opposition. From last year's team Coach Glennon has Eugene Kane, the fastest man in the school, who will run the 100 yd. dash, the 220, and the relays. Bob McMullen, the best conditioned athlete, will compete in the 880 and 220 clashes, the relays, and throw the discus. An excellent hurdler, also back from last year, is Elrod Wilson. He'll also run the 440 yd. dash. Iron man on the squad will be Bob Watkins, competing in five events each meet. His events are the 220, 440, relays, high and broad jumps. Dave Griffith will throw the shot put and discus. McCarthy will handle the pole vault and Jim Gladbach will take in the mile. Dick Diebold will also run the hurdles along with the relays, and Billy Schleicher, specializing in the high jump, completes the number of returning lettermen.

The underclassmen and seniors coming out for the first time join the other members in an effort to bring home the first Catholic League Track Trophy.

Association

The G.A.A., with fifty-five "letter girls" and one hundred four new members, was organized for its year's activity under the direction of Ann Savage.

The activities of the year centered around the hike and picnic at Loose Park, the volleyball tournament, and the G.A.A. formal dance.

The volleyball tournament was the main in-door activity. Freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior teams entered. The games were played after school
