LILLIS HIGH SCHOOL

dedication

What is a Lillis Student?

A Lillis student is industry and an algebra problem, a hundred throbbing hearts at the Big Game, a crew cut and a class ring.

A Lillis student is a mixture of chalkdust, pigskin, a semester exam, and a chain prayer.

He's glory covered with mud, and the despair of English 4.

She's the loudest voice in the pep club and the smallest voice in class.

The Lillisite is a symbol of Things to Come. World Peace, and a Greater Love of God.

To Youth reaching for a handful of stars, to the Lillis student, we dedicate this book.

LILLIS JOINS IN RECOGNITION OF TRIPLE JUBILEE

THE MOST REV. EDWIN V. O'HARA
Archbishop of Kansas City, Missouri

As the students of a diocesan school, Lillisites this year share in celebrating the centennial of their diocese, the golden sacerdotal jubilee of their prelate, and his silver episcopal anniversary.

To the papal honors and national recognition accorded the newly-named Archbishop O'Hara, Lillis students add their grateful respect and proud congratulations.

To Auxiliary Bishop Marling the Lillisites offer an appreciative vote of thanks for his consistent interest in their welfare.

THE MOST REV. JOSEPH MARLING
Auxiliary Bishop of Kansas City

RELIGION

FIRST IN A SERIES OF MONTHLY MASSES

Father William offers Requiem Mass, served by Mike McNamara, Bill Kalmus, Bob Wagner and Mike Dillon.

From the opening Mass down through the months Lillis students adore God at the divine sacrifice.

Archbishop O'Hara gives last blessing to the students, Father William and Father Miller assist, and John McLaury and Gerry Daly serve.

The Rev. M. F. McAuliffe prays as Terry Toman and D. J. Powers serve Father William.

Jim McAuliffe and Pat Healy stand at the empty "tomb" of Christ.

T H E

L I V I N G

Junior and Senior members of the Sodality form the "Living Rosary" in the school gym in honor of Mary during the Rosary month of October.

R O S A R Y

Mary Joan Gray, Judy Haglund, Geraldine Murphy, and Janet Curran, honor "Mary", Nola Stafford.

Lillstrator editor
Diane Johnson, sets out to bite dog and make news.

Mike McNamara, being close pals with the basketball captain, finds sports editing a snap.

Tom Lyndon, Mike Dillon, Bill Badgett, and Margie Comeau scan a page layout for the paper.

THE POWER OF

Trying to look intelligent are
John Waller, Vincent (Flash)
Heegn, Jim Farris, Marlene
Sherwood, and Cecilia Meyers.

Co-editor Chardell Buckles (C. B.) decides to kill time instead of herself.

Gerry Daly, editor of the Lillislog, procrastinates as usual.

Keeping track of wedding bells, college diplomas, and stork flights, keeps Bernadine Abbott, Alumni editor, busy.

"Could this be an ad possibility?" wonders Beverly Raynor, Business Manager of the yearbook and paper.

THE PRESS
