Dedication

To you, Sister Fabiola, the Class of 1961 respectfully dedicates this edition of the Lillislog. Our principal and advisor during our high school years, you have furnished the steady hand and understanding heart that have helped to keep our purpose "that in all things God may be glorified." May our lives show our gratitude for all you have done for us.

*His Holiness
Pope John XXIII*

His Holiness Pope John XXIII is pictured bestowing his blessing on the eve of his second anniversary as Holy Father. It is under his fatherly protection that the work of Lillis contributes its share to the work of the Universal Church.

Bishop John P. Cody

His excellency John P. Cody, Bishop of Kansas City-St. Joseph, has often spoken to Lillis students, reminding them that "in youth lie the hopes of the diocese and the Church."

May the lives of the Graduates of 1961 reflect fidelity to the Christian principles taught at Lillis. May they ever be men and women of the Church--Christians faithful to their trust.

Benedictine Sisters

"But there are also some who desire knowledge, that they may build up the souls of others with it, and that is charity".
St. Bernard.

On behalf of all Lillis students, the staff of the Lillislog extends prayerful thanks to these Sisters and to their predecessors who together have made the fulfillment of twenty years of prayer and work a "happy anniversary" for us all.

1941-1961

An excellent teacher and counselor, the Rev. Kieran McInerney, O. S. B., is ready to retire to his quiet room after a long strenuous day of teaching. Father Kieran does an exemplary job as Spiritual and Athletic Director.

Religious Faculty

Father Roger Miller and Father James Nugent, C. S. S. R. make many sacrifices so that they can teach religion to the students of Lillis. Father Nugent is new to the faculty staff and students but Father Miller is well acquainted with them after several years of teaching here.

Father Kieran blesses the congregation during Mass. He is in the Lillis chapel on second floor.

By being irreproachable in all respects, the Lillis lay faculty has always given only the best examples for the students to follow. This year is no exception. Lillis again has a most competent and capable lay faculty on the teaching staff.

Lay Faculty

Coach Joseph Mintner, who has been on the Lillis lay faculty longer than anyone else, writes out detention slips for tardy students while Coach Jerry Letourneau sets up a defensive play for his basketball team. Besides coaching the varsity football team, Coach Mintner teaches drafting, shop, and physical education. Coach Letourneau teaches American History and physical education.

Seated in her office, Miss Dorothy Kennedy lines up assignments for her Social Science and English classes.

Mr. Eugene Propp starts home after a long hard day with his freshman homeroom and science and math classes.

Mrs. Robert Green looks satisfied as she glances over the grades of her freshman and sophomore girls' gym classes.

With the coming of 1961, Lillis High School completes its twentieth year. To us students, this has been a lifetime, and the Lillis cornerstone with its 1941 inscription may seem part of a distant past.

Yet this anniversary bears witness to the successful planning directed not only toward the educational needs of students then attending school, but also to the demands of later times. And each student- and then- has found it possible for his life to be enriched through the warm family relationship that has become a Lillis tradition.

Providing an atmosphere of mutual love and respect, this tradition of Christianity in action has helped us to find and build a confidence in a loving God. It is in the assurance that our world rests securely in His protecting Hands that we find the courage to challenge the future. We, the "Fighting Irish" of 1961, are grateful for the opportunities provided us by our very special instructors to strengthen our faith and in ourselves and in our American way of life, and to develop this abiding trust in God's Providence.

As we seniors leave, we know we shall often have occasion to remember Lillis and all that it has come to mean to us. The 1961 Lillislog is our attempt to share some of these highlights with you. For the staff, this endeavor has been a rich and rewarding experience.

Good training for future responsibilities is provided by membership in the Lillis Student Council. All student activities are planned and inaugurated by this group under the direct supervision of Sister Fabiola.

Father Kieran presents the gavel to Student Council President, Mike Fahey, and gives his blessing for a successful tenure.

Student

A worthy activity sponsored by the Student Council is the collection of food and gifts by each homeroom for distribution to needy families during the Christmas season. Helping to sort the various items in homeroom 200 are LEFT TO RIGHT: Sandy Franssens, Kay Singleton, Jerry Hueser, Janet Massey, Jack Watson and Richard Nolan.

The instructions pointed out on Registration Day should be quite familiar to upperclassmen. Edith McClurg, John Werkowitch, Vanessa Dunn, Richard Perkins.

"One more time," says Anna Maria Borsierine as she tries to master the tricky locker combination. This is old stuff to Anita Wheeler. Have patience, Sharon (Baker), your turn is coming next.

Interrupted in their enjoyment of noon-day refreshment by our roving photographer are Tom Willey, George Liggins, John Vaughn, Tom Finch, John McFall, and Bob Van Bruwaene.

Welcome, all

"They didn't have this kind of service in grade school," remarks Mary Boyd as she takes advantage of the new paper machines. Carmen Guerra (LEFT) and Cathy Combs admiringly agree. Jack Dold (in background) doesn't seem too impressed.

Fr. Deem, the Retreat-Master for the juniors and seniors, waits for everyone to be seated before he begins the conference.

to the Lillis Family

Freshman early become acquainted with Mrs. Ruth Leslie, the school nurse.

Leading the Los Posados procession in the annual Christmas program are Elizabeth Vargas as Mary and Richard Perkins as Joseph.

Surrounded by fellow upperclassmen, Sharon Rossato breaks the pinata.

Mr. Bachman sponsors the Marching Band for several away home projects.

One of the services that the Lillis Band gave was to play at the Ozanam Boys' Open House.

Joan Lang chooses Judy Redmond as drum majorette to lead the Lillis Band.

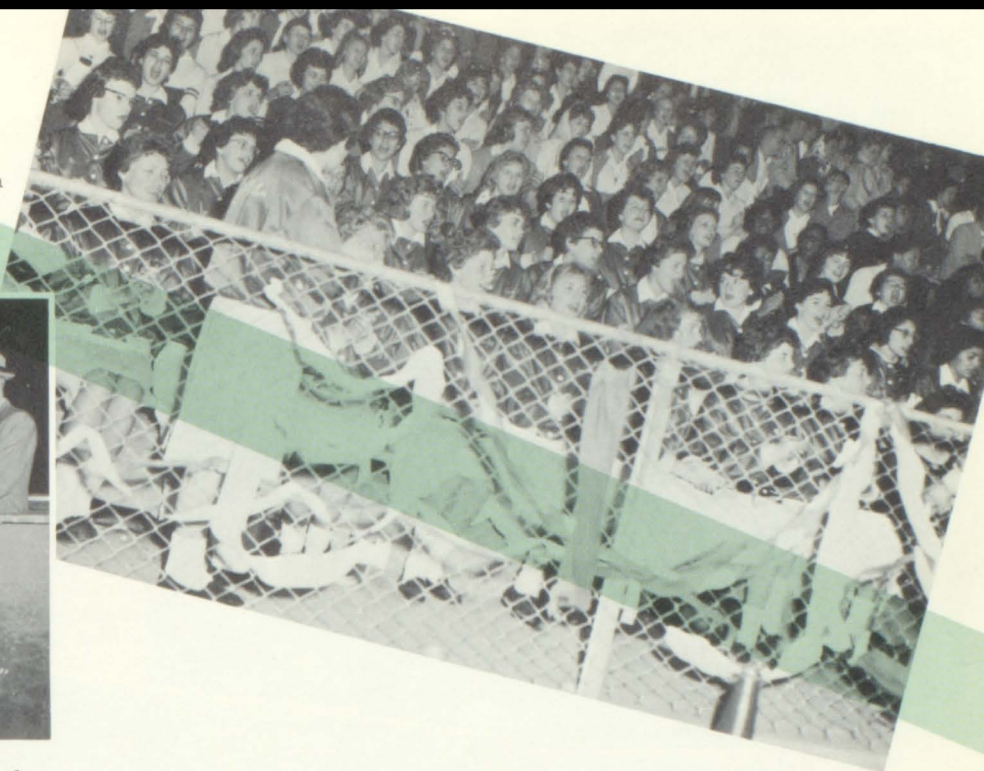

Lillis teachers welcome the opportunity to meet parents of Lillis students at the annual faculty tea. Miss Kennedy is hostess to Mrs. Raymond Bernal and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Page.

Lillis At Home

During the presidential campaign two of John F. Kennedy's most enthusiastic backers were Margaret Pipes and Vivian Callahan.

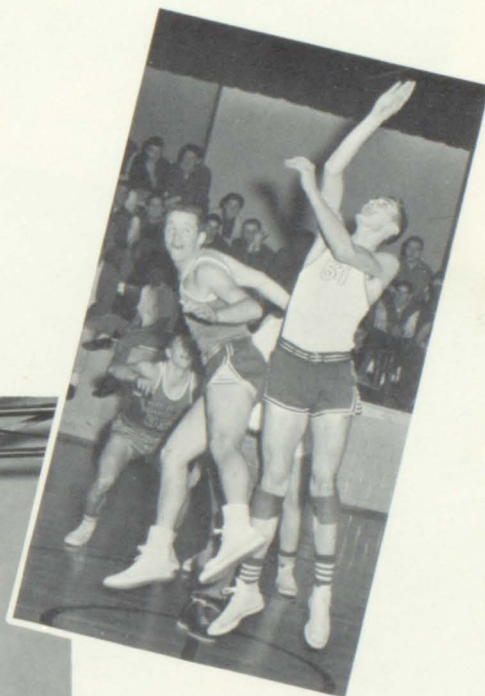

The Lillis Pep Club reacts excitedly following another Irish touchdown at O'Hara stadium.

Mr. Stitz (LEFT) and Mr. Cook are two of the many Lillis dads who volunteer their services for such activities as taking tickets at football and basketball games.

And Away

Split-second expectancy before action resumes. This particular game was a height contest between the tall Varsity players (in white) and the shorter players (in green). The entire school attended this unusual contest of Lillis vs. Lillis as a pre-Christmas treat.

"Is it a bird? Is it a plane?" gasps Don Dee. "No, it's Superman" answers Mike Fahey, taking off. "Think I'll join him!" Jim Audley (background) can't seem to get off the ground.

Sodality

Re-enacting the Annunciation for the Living Rosary, Mary Pat Barden portrays the Angel Gabriel and Shirley Mueller, the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Preparing for the induction of Sodality candidates, Shirley Mueller, Prefect, arranges flowers on the altar in preparation for the coming induction of Sodality candidates. Janice Curls, Secretary; Janet Maher, Treasurer; and Judy Theis, Vice-President; are supervisors.

The morning of the Living Rosary finds the Sodalists in the gym getting ready for the ceremony.

Lady

During the second week of Advent, the juniors have the privilege of lighting two candles on the wreath. Mary Ann Schoen, Prefect, is lighting the candle. The other officers of the junior Sodality, Barbara Hamilton and Nancy Ronan, in the center, join in the singing of the Advent hymn.

The candidates go to Father Kieran, Director of the Sodality, to be received as permanent members of the Sodality.

Climaxing May devotions, Prefect Shirley Mueller crowns Mary Queen of Heaven and Earth.

Lillis Chapter

UPPER RIGHT: Eight upperclassmen were made members of the National Honor Society in a very impressive ceremony on Marcy 8. Rev. Phillip Gannon, pastor of St. Patrick's in St. Joseph, Missouri, addressed the Lillis student body with a touching speech at the induction ceremony.

In order to become a member, a student must have four qualities: character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Honor Students

Maeve Hope
Valedictorian

Edward Burch
Salutatorian

Religion

Jack Dold, the only boy finalist of the entire religion contest, earned the first place and will receive a gold medal at this year's graduation. Susan Holmes and Marilyn Hamilton tied for second place and Anita Wheeler captured third place. The other freshman-sophomore finalists were Mary Locascio and Rebecca Cramer.

From the six junior and senior finalists, Maeve Hope received second place, Janice Curls merited first place, and Nancy Ronan took third place. Erline Wheeler, Carol Long, and Edith McClurg were also finalists.

Contest

English

Social Studies

Conducting a discussion on social problems of the world are four freshmen. Seated is Dorothy Griffen; around her are Ralph Bax, Bill Swaney, and Anthony Raya.

A forum on education is carried on in Father Kieran's sociology class. Father asks questions and the panel tries to come up with the correct answer. SEATED, LEFT TO RIGHT ARE: Alicia Aguilar, Carol Cady and Jean Goff. Joe Kupneski and Mike Howe seem to have found the right answer already.

A "coming together of two forces" is effected as Democrats Joe Arnone and Carole Long, the Kennedy debaters, exchange congratulations with the Republican partisans Emmett Ryan and Maeve Hope.

Prepared to leave for the speech meet at Redemptorist High School are these upper-classmen. LEFT TO RIGHT ARE: Ellen Harte, Janice Curls, Kathleen McAnany, Maev Hope, Bill Bauer, and Rocky Ryan. MISSING ARE: John Jones and Carole Long, who also participated.

Five students from Lillis took part in the speech meet at Kansas City University. THEY WERE: Janice Curls, John Jones, Kathi Nolan, Tom Dodge, and Rocky Ryan. Janice received a perfect rating for her public speaking and John got excellent for his dramatic reading.

Speech

Three events climaxed Lillis speech activities. Twenty-four speakers participated in advanced and novice divisions at the St. Joseph, Shawnee tournament.

Lillis featured three poems by Robert Frost in the National Theatre Conference meeting at Loretto Academy. Lillisites portrayed "Home Burial" in readers' theatre, "The Death of the Hired Man" in chamber theatre, and "Birches" in dance-drama. Choreography for the latter was directed by Mrs. Gladys Hannay.

Delegates from Lillis attended the second mock UN meeting of the Diocesan Speech League at Hogan.

At the freshman-sophomore speech meet held at Lillis in January, Lillis students made an almost clean sweep in taking prizes. In the duo-acting category, sophomores Pat Straley and Joan Smith took first place; Tom Ventola and Mary Locascio, second; and David Sanford and Rose Ann Soligo, third.

Contests

Speech

SEATED are the winners in the book review contest. LEFT TO RIGHT ARE: Diane Duncan, second place; Carolyn Stebbins, first; and Anita Sebus, third place. Carolyn holds the school's first place trophy in this tournament. Flanking Janie Shumate, who took third place in broadcasting, are Bill O'Sullivan and Tom Jumps who won first and third in oratory.

D E B A T E

Latin II

Cantamus por la Navidad

Spanish I

Spanish II

French I

"Sur le pont d'Avignon," a French folksong, is dramatized by the French II class. "Que votre barbe est superbe!" "Que votre mustache est bien frisée!" "Que votre chapeau est beau!" "Les musiciens" "Les soldats"

French II

Jeanne Hoskins adjusts the microscope in the Biology lab while Margaret Pipes and Mark Werkowitch seem to be more interested in the hedge ball and sweet potato plant.

In the General Science class Frank Hernandez, John Quinn, Joe Laughlin, Bill Miller, Dan Rouchka, and John Birmingham are completely absorbed by David Childs' experiment designed to produce free oxygen.

Two sides of the same experiment: serious chemists Bert Layde and Paul McGilton; the lighthearted, fun-loving chemists Jim Page and Bob O'Sullivan.

MATH

Ronnie Drimmel prepares to run off some copies on the job press.

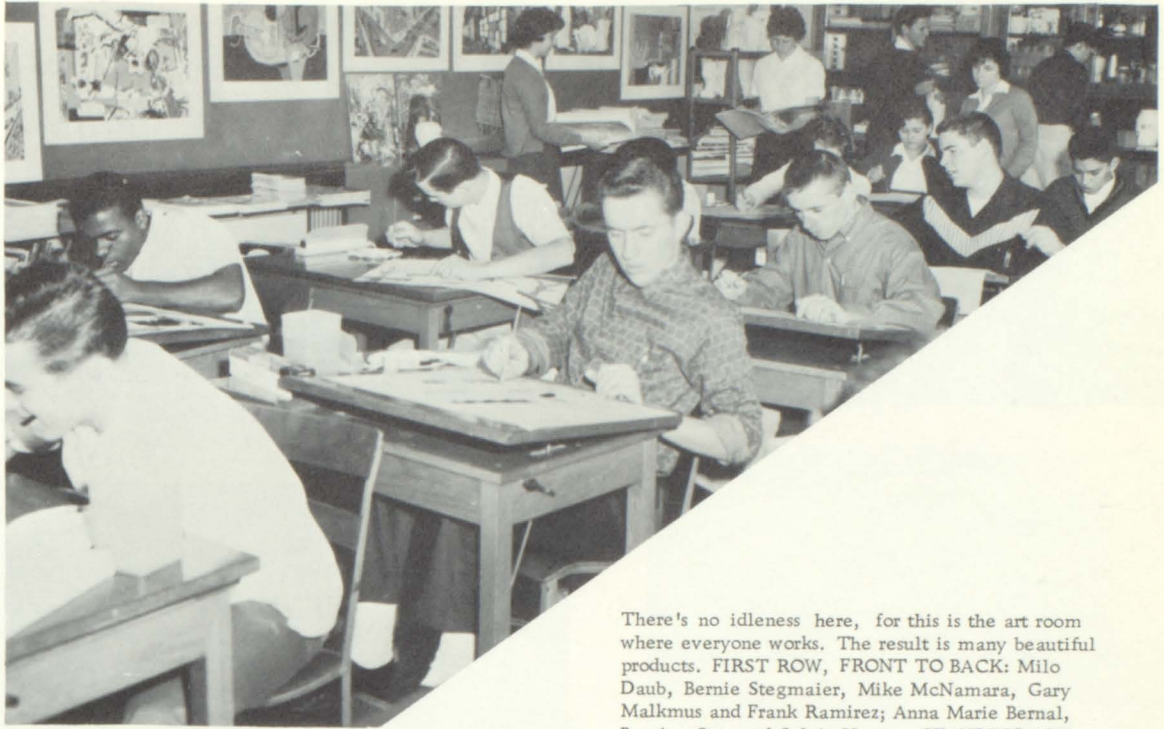

Setting up type for the press in the first year printing class are George Dupree and Mike McNamara.

Practical Arts

Carefully weaving luncheon mats are three boys in Sister Gratia's artcraft class. IN THE FOREGROUND are Ronald Cutting and Mike Ganaden. IN THE BACK is Jim Bush.

Fine Arts

In clothing, girls learn to sew their own clothes, an experience which well proves invaluable to them in future years.

At the table, Judy Theis cuts her material from the pattern as Roseann Infranca (seated) puts the finishing touches on her dress. In center, Mary La Scala offers a suggestion to Ann Schnepf (back to camera).

Fine Arts Festival 1960

Before the show goes on, the right beginning.

"Music Makers Around the World" pauses in Ireland for folk songs and dances by sophomore girls.

This year's senior girls entertained with American melodies.

Sophomore boys' chorus practices a rousing number from HMS Pinafore.

As the yearbook goes to press, operetta practice occupies many free moments of Lillis students and instructors. ABOVE, leads Sharon Rossato, Mary Cecilia Raynor, and Ed Burch engage in a little preliminary, "Oh, promise me that you will take my hand."

John Jones (CENTER) receives a definite reaction from Jim Bartlett and Janice Curls as he begins his operetta solo.

Junior mixed glee, shown here as they appeared in the National Honor Society induction ceremony, gave vigor to the operetta chorus.

Future

Practical training and experience are given to Lillis students by the business courses that are taught: typing, shorthand, clerical practice and bookkeeping.

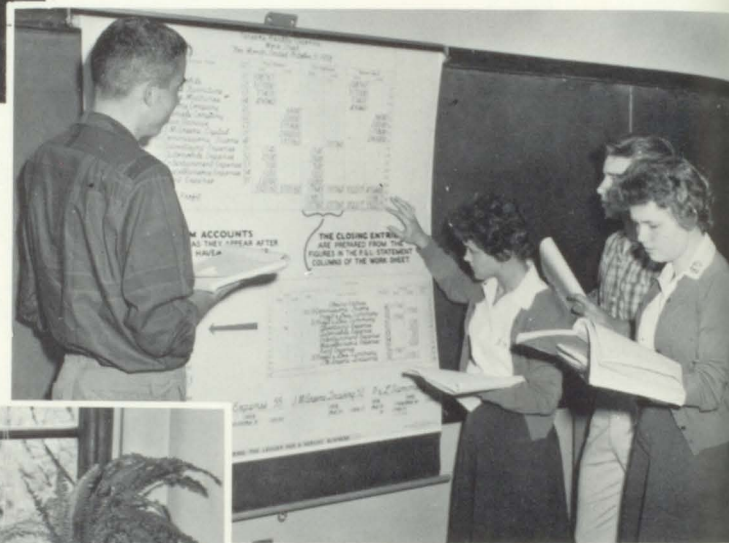

Writing dictation in shorthand on the board are Cheryl Depford and Mary Pat Barden. Linda Laut and Rosalie Maloney are checking on their work while Judy LaScala does her homework practices.

Business World

Christine Infranca and Peggy Jenkins file papers in the large file cabinet so Rita Wasmer and Joan Welch won't have to take time from their work.

With a simple story of the beauty of family living, a double cast of seniors and their director, Sister Mary William, O.S.B., succeeded in giving Lillis a play to remember with Nels (Joe Reid) and Dagmar (Ellen Harte) enjoy listening to Papa (Bernie Stegmaier) tell of the latest doings of Uncle Chris.

"Mr. Holmes, they were the footprints of a gigantic hound!" reads Mr. Hyde (John Jones) to the Hanson family. Clockwise around the table are Christine (Kathleen McAnany), Papa, Mr. Hyde, Nels (Ed Burch), Katrin (Sharon Rossato), Mama (Joanne Healey), and little Dagmar (Teresa Scanlon).

Assistant Director Mary Pat Barden supervises the dramatic technique of Trina (Shirley Mueller) who is talking to Peter Thorkelson despite the eavesdropping of Sigrid (Mary Cecilia Raynor).

Bellhop (Erline Wheeler) interrupts Mama's conversation with Florence Dana Moorhead (Janice Curls). Hotel guests (Joan Welch and Cheryl Kepford) admire the famous author.

Day

Remember Mama'

BELOW RIGHT: Katrin and Mama end a memorable chat with a special soda treat served by Judy Theis.

Peter Thorkelson (Bill Bauer) emphatically tells his wife Trina (Jean Goff), "You shall have a waitress!"

To impress his nieces, Uncle Chris demonstrates his "frightening" technique on the aunts, Sigrid (Kathi Nolan) and Jenny (Maeve Hope).

Preparing for a play within a play Janet Maher recites her lines from the play Merchants of Venice while Rita Wasmer and Kathy Maloney put the make up to good use.

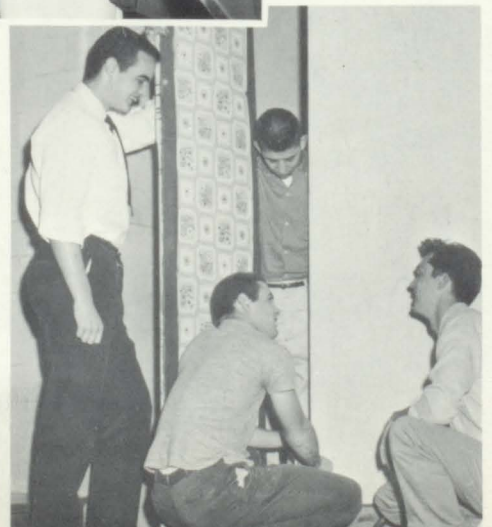

"What a way to save space," remarks Joe McNerney, chief stagehand, as he looks in on the others. Ronald Cutting, Joe Kupneski, Frank Lyons, Vince Bertrand, John Werkowitch are thoroughly enjoying their antic. Squashed but happy, Bob Wuckowitsch is in the folding cot.

"Shall we sew them in for good?" offers Christine Infranca as she fixes Alicia Aguilar's costume. Linda Reno is checking the hem on Peggy Jenkin's dress.

"Yes Ma'am, this is the very capable hospital staff," answers Janet Massey into the telephone.

"If Mike Muehlberger would get his head out of the way maybe we could get started," says Jack Sublette to Bob Morris. John Hacker laughingly agrees.

"Most Popular"

Two of the most deserving students of Lillis were awarded with the title of "Most Popular." The reigning King and Queen are Mike Lewis and Teresa Scanlon.

Margaret Wenzel, Shirley Farrell, Jackie Brown, Joe Ciro, Charles Carter, and David Frank display their favorite booths.

Carnival

Frank Lyon seems attracted to the tiger an Alumnus Jim Sullivan has won. Frank Gonzales' eye has been caught by some of the work in the art room.

"All right, try once more," says Coach Letoureau to Rudy Wichmann. Jacob Daub, Eddie Boyd, and Virgil Jones await their turn at the basketball throw.

Headed by good editors and replete with competent reporters from each class, the Lillistrator staff for 1960-61 produces a good finished product. Each editor lays out the make up for his page and gives it to moderator, Sister Pierre, for approval. Then assignments are given to the reporters for either news or features.

Lillistrator

Sports editor Bill Bauer is on scene in the locker room to collect inside information on Lillis' chances for the next game.

Senior Richard Perkins demonstrates to Freshman Paul Harrison and Junior Rocky Ryan the final steps in developing a picture. All three boys take photos and develop them for the newspaper and yearbook.

Straightening out the position of the copy are Maeve Hope, copy writer; Teresa Scanlon, chief typist; Viola Haidusek, and Violet Haidusek, assistant typists.

"Doesn't this picture tell a good story?" Jean Goff asks Joanne Healey, editor. Shirley Mueller thinks of the copy that will tell the story of Lillis in the '61 Lillislog. Ed Burch business manager, looks up from ad planning to share his approval with that of Judy Theis and Patty Grunden, paste-up.

Lillislog

Kay Singleton, who did much of the early layout planning, here turns her mind to art preparation with Erline Wheeler.

Setting up the display table with books on Asia, Africa, and South America are Susan Brucken, Rose Ann Soligo, and Bennie Foster. These three girls have charge of all library displays.

The Lillis library is cared for by the Lillis Libs. This club, working under the leadership of Sister Hildegarde, helps to keep the library running efficiently.

Lillis Libs

Behind the fine blocking of the Irish squad, Audley SCORES AGAIN.

Can Tell We're the Irish

Close to paydirt, three Wentworth players cause a pause in the Lillis march as Larry Sweeney is tackled.

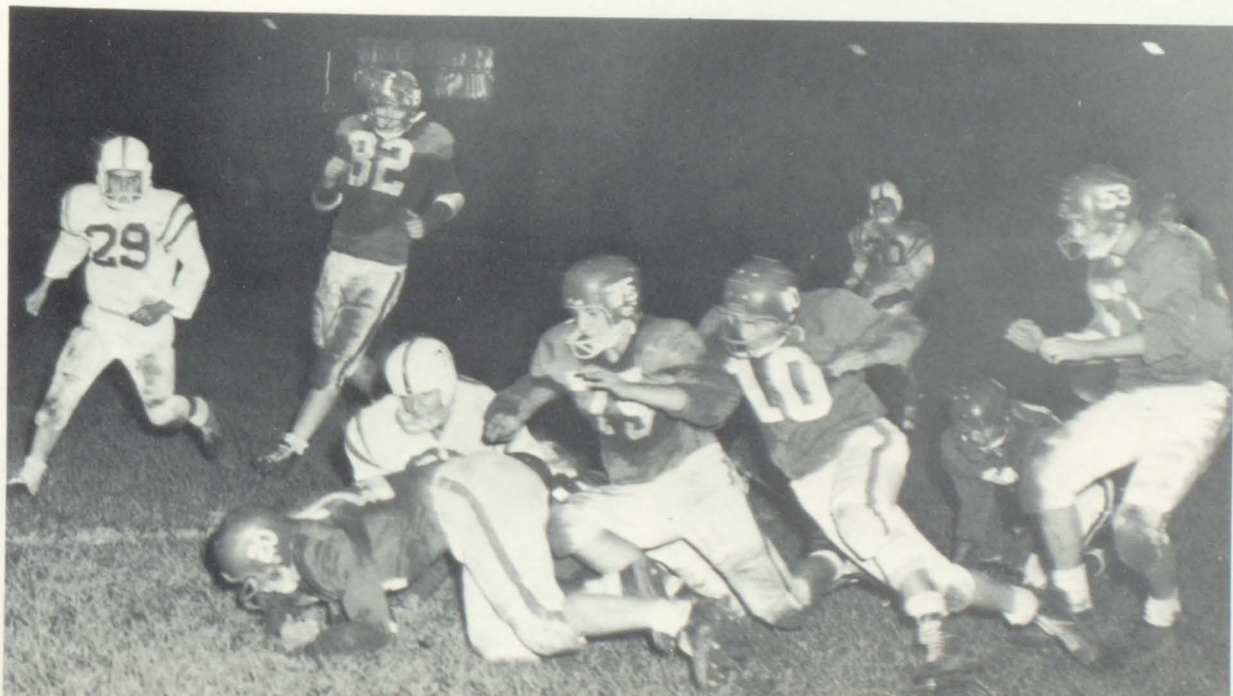

Jim Audley is stopped by a Saint Joseph player while Claude Clark (80) lowers the boom on another St. Joe teammate.

Another Sharkey to Fahey pass connects in the Irish-Hogan game.

Jim Audley recovers a fumble in the St. Joe game. Others on the Irish equally ready to gain possession of the ball are: Jim Prevost (53), Gary Emery (10), and Ed Boyd (53) pile on top of him. In the background Mike St. Louis (82) is ready to take St. Joe (29) out of the play.

Homecoming

Court

Junior attendants Bonnie Meier and Shirley Long wait in their convertible for the Homecoming parade to begin.

Senior attendants Judy Redmond and Jean Lightner, flanked by their escorts Jim Audley and Mike Fahey, glow after having been crowned at the Homecoming pep rally.

Reigning over her court is the 1960 Homecoming Queen Ellen Harte. Standing are Junior Attendants Shirley Long and Bonnie Meier. At either side of the Queen are Senior Attendants Judy Redmond and Jean Lightner.

With the Irish shillelagh won back from Pem Day, Pat Hare prepares to subdue the Hogan Ram, portrayed by Bill Bauer.

"A Little Bit O'Heaven" was the theme of the Lillis Homecoming dance.

Stepping out in high style the Lillis band marches in the Homecoming parade.

Members of the Green Peppers form an "L" in honor of the Lillis royalty. Both band and Pep Club performed at the rally and at the game with special formations, and a song in honor of the Queen "She's the Sweetheart of Lillis High."

Dear Sister:

Congratulations to the school and to your fine basketball team on winning the State championship. Naturally, much credit must also be given to your coach for his excellent job of coordinating a group of fine basketball players into an outstanding team.

Once again it shows that the spirit of the "Fighting Irish", which began back in 1941 when we first started the school, still prevails. I notice by the picture in the paper that the cheer leaders are continuing their good work in supporting the team.

This was the ambition of the old teams and those who started the school - to make Lillis the best.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sister Fabiola:

On behalf of the MSHSAA Board of Control and this office we wish to highly commend you for the fine showing made by your team in our recent state tournament. Observers were in general agreement that the sportsmanship exhibited by coaches, players, and fans was of the best ever noted at a state tournament in Missouri.

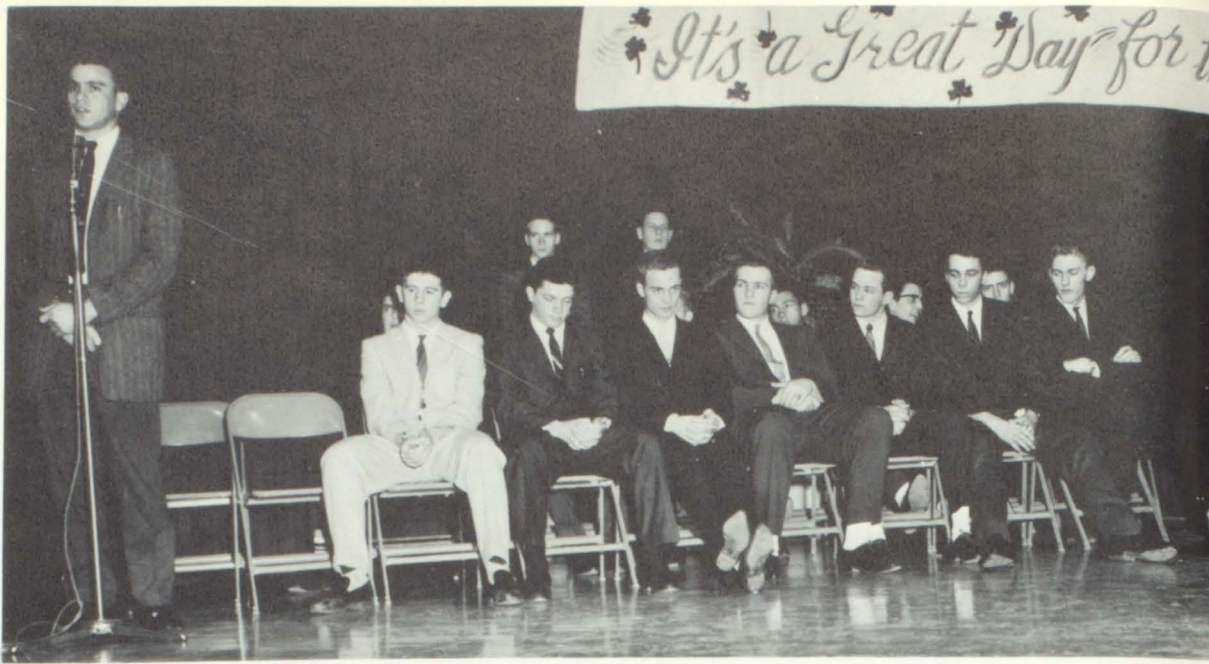

The type of atmosphere that prevailed throughout the tournament is not possible without much work being done at the local level. You are to be congratulated on the manner in which your school was represented.

Yours truly,
Irvin A. Keller

The first Lillis coach and the MSHSAA add their good wishes.

Coach Jerry Letourneau, the state champs, the managers, and the trophies sum up the most successful of Lillis basketball season.

Cheerleaders combine to lead the Pep Club in "You Can Tell We're the Irish." Pep Club response at the victory assembly was as enthusiastic as their team support at the State tournament, pictured across the page.

Freshmen impersonating the Lillis varsity traveled through the regional tournament and arrived in Columbia in time to hear sports commentator John Gorman. Emcee Bill Bauer supervised from the stage, and Mike Rider, Tom Ventola, and Jim Prevost were key men in an all-male skit.

Irish Congratulations!

The Rev. Emmett Summers, diocesan athletic director; the Rev. Kieran McInerney, O. S. B., Lillis athletic director; the Rev. James Nugent, C. S. S. R., the Rev. Miller, and Coach Joseph Mintner are an attentive audience.

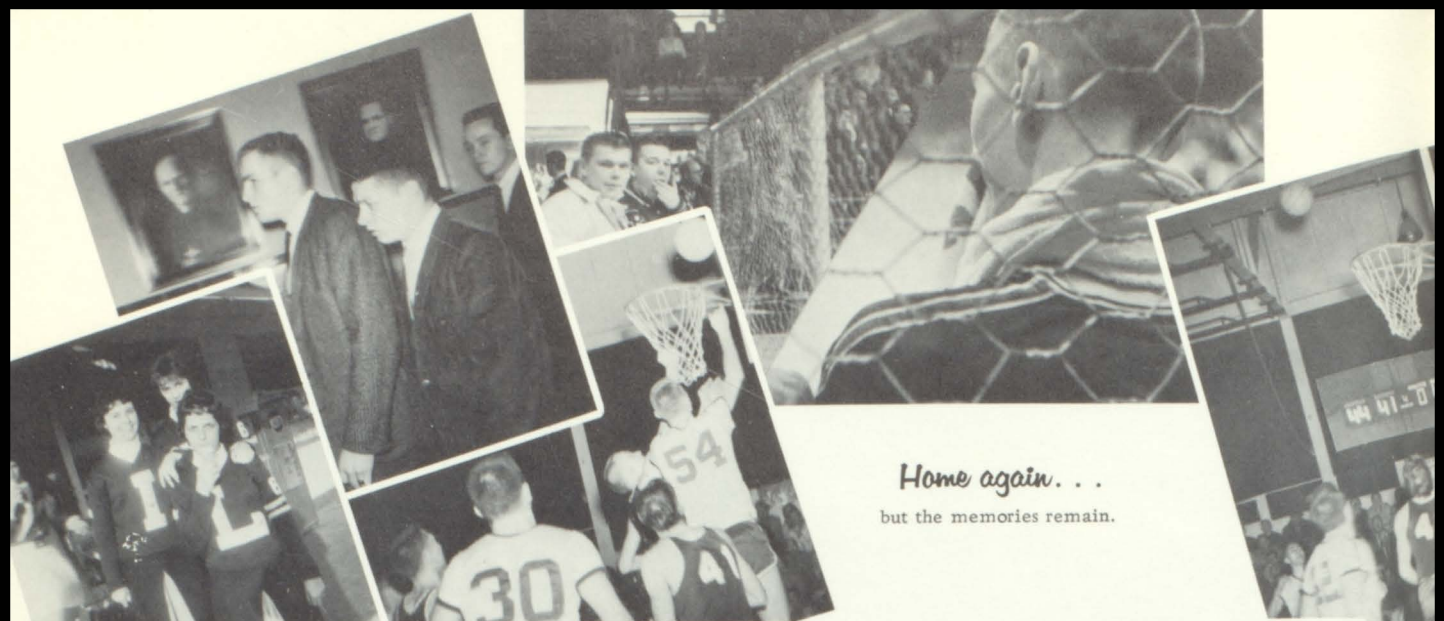

Father Summers makes the formal presentation of the Catholic League varsity trophy carried on stage by Dave Sanford. Jim Audley waits to place the trophy in its place of honor.

This four-page supplement is included in the Lillislog by special arrangement with The American Yearbook Company and its representative, Mr. Tom Glennon, former Lillis coach who also took an Irish team to State.

The Lillis Band contributed a colorful and tuneful part to the celebration.

Home again. . .
but the memories remain.
