Students Help Others Through United Campaign

Raphael Gonzales strums his guitar as Beth Ross and Janet Ziegler listen attentively.

I am everywhere that men are, God says,
 I am living flesh, throbbing suffering.
 I am among men, and they have not recognized me.
 I am poorly paid, I am unemployed, I live in a slum,
 I am in prison, I am oppressed, I am patronized.
 I am cold, God says, I am hungry, I am naked.
 I am imprisoned, laughed at, humiliated.
 And yet I said to them: "Whatever you do to my brothers, however humble, you do to me."

Christmas Season Filled

Parents, students, and teachers were entertained by the combined talents of the Lillis band and chorus at the Christmas concert. Sr. Aniceta coordinated a program of music which included several solos and the girls a cappella choir.

Left: Vicky Franklin dances a jolly arrangement of "It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas".

Upper Left: Paul Hale, Tom Hopkins, and Harvey Williams lend a serious note to the concert by telling the story of Christmas music.

Soft lights and music furnished by "The Goodtime Rebellion" set the atmosphere for The Christmas Dance sponsored by the Yearbook staff. Santa and his helpers were on hand to distribute a gift to each guest. The lucky recipients of the gold telephones reigned over the evenings festivities as the King and Queen of Christmas.

Upper Middle: The camera clicks as Seniors are caught in the whirl of living.

Upper Right: Judy Zirhut smiles shyly as Santa asks, "And what do you want for Christmas, Little Girl?"

Right: King Tony Lemos and Queen Janet Ziegler give special orders to Santa Claus (alias Tom Philipps) and his little helper, Beth Ross.

Loyalty Night—One of Fun and Food

Loyalty Night, sponsored by the Junior Class, drew a large crowd of Lillis students, teachers, and guests. Juniors and helpful mothers prepared the Mexican dinner and served from 3:00-7:00 p.m. After dinner, the game with St. Joe at Redemptorist completed the evening's agenda. The Juniors pulled in a total of $1,012.25 to be donated to the school, proving there is loyalty at Lillis.

The French Club celebrates the Epiphany with a party, and the crowning of Muriel Cranon by Nancy Redmond, the lucky winner to find the gift inside the cupcake.

Lillisloggers Make A Dream Come True

*Teamwork, co-operation, and spending extra time at school, was the key to the completion of the Lillislog. After spending a day at the Journalism Workshop in September, Lillisloggers were eager to work. With the help of Editor Beth Ross and Advisor Sister Mary Ruth, deadlines were met, and the book completed. Opposite page, top, left to right: Rick Ackman, Joe Flores, Tom Hopkins, Carl Lamano and Tom Phillipps, examine the Yearbook camera. Lower left, Margaret Ramey and Carol Couty file names for the Yearbook. Lower left, Carl Lamano works in the darkroom, developing pictures. Left, Juanita Bush types copy for the Yearbook. $$A^1x^2+(B^1x^2y^1+C^1y^3)-4x^2+\frac{16}{32}+5\left(\frac{y^1+9}{500}\right)^2+7=LILLIS$$

The Math department, guided by Sr. de Monfort, includes Basic Math, Algebra I, and Algebra II, Geometry and Math IV. Math IV students, Jim Gamon and Janet Zeigler study a theorem of trigonometry.

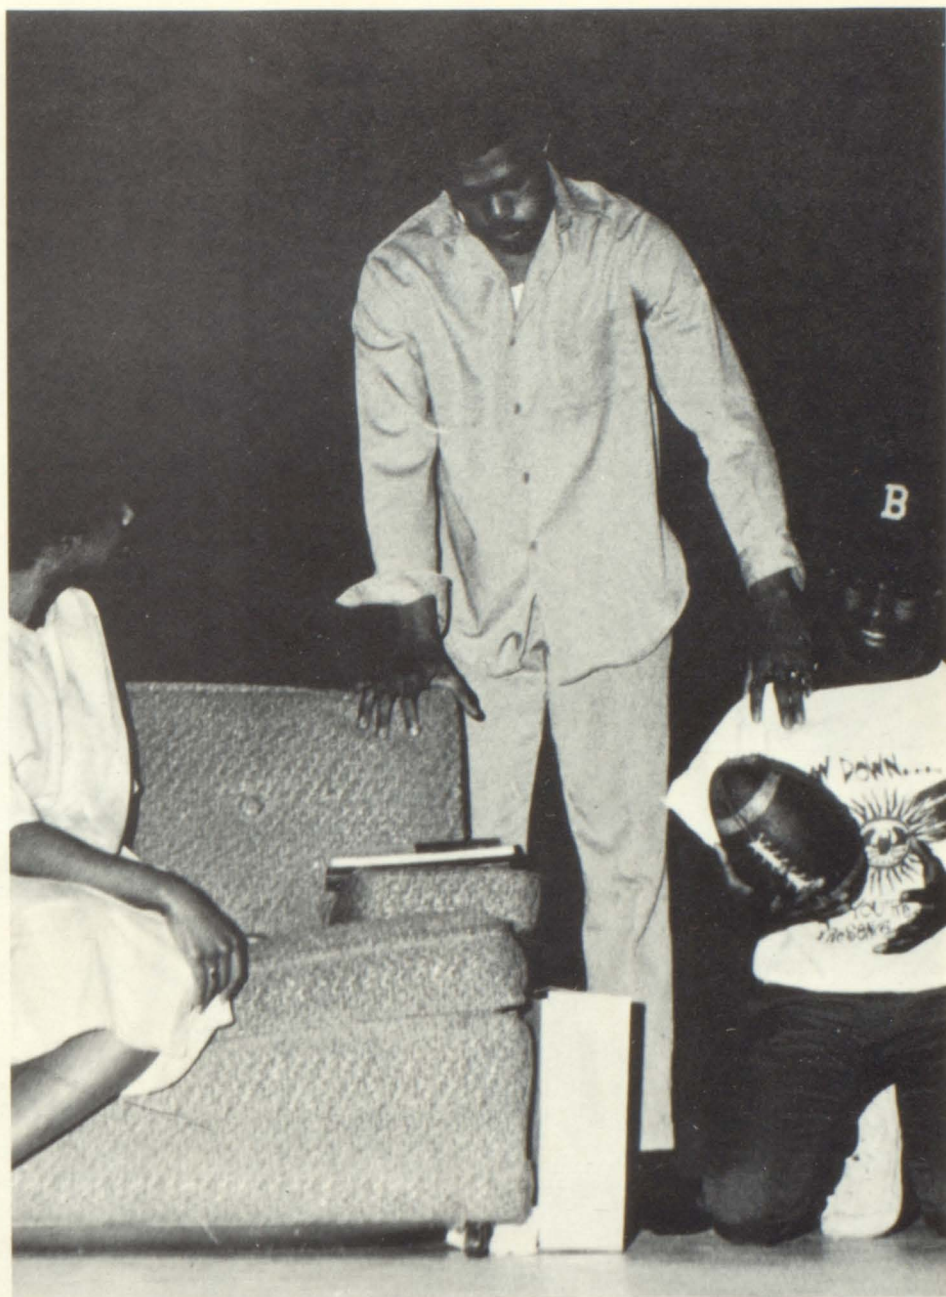

"To Be Or Not To Be, That Is The Question"

The English teachers this year are Sister Celine, Miss Muga, Miss Madden, Coach McGuire, and Sister Mary Ruth.

Language Students

Left: Anita Sanchez intently tries to understand the tape being played in the language lab. Sister Carmen makes good use of the language lab, tape recorders, and records to enable her French and Spanish students to hear different accents.

Upper picture: There are mixed expressions on the faces of these Spanish students as Sister Carmen leads them in a song. Singing is one of the many cultural activities French and Spanish students participate in.

Religion Classes Stress

Understanding Social Problems

Religion classes, a must for every student, keep the religious atmosphere at Lillis. Students are taught as Christians how to cope with the world. Ethics tests keep the Seniors occupied, while Juniors learn more about social problems. Freshmen and Sophomores

Some of the Business practices include first year Typing, where students finish a one page manuscript and then start on envelopes and postcards. Below: This is just basic training for Mike Allen, Andrew Kranichfield, and Mario Menesses. Opposite page, top: Miss Milner gives dictation to Madonna McCarthy at one hundred words per minute. Opposite page, bottom: Helen Lunn observes Tom Trinder as he operates the adding machine. All bookkeeping students get a chance on this time saving machine.

Domestic Skills are Learned in Home Ec.

All Home Economics students take their direction from our new Home Economics teacher Mrs. Glynn. Girls in Clothing II worked on individual projects, making holiday centerpieces, dresses, learning the art of tie dying and cooking. Boys in Home Economics made their own cooking aprons and learned how to cook the right way. Their highlight of the year was cooking dinner for Bishop Helmsing and the faculty.

In Memoriam

Beverly Belton
1954-1970

"In one sense there is no death. The life of a soul on earth last beyond his departure. You will always feel that life touching yours, that voice speaking to you, that spirit looking out of other eyes, talking to you in the familiar things he touched, worked with, loved as familiar friends. He lives on in your life and in the lives of all others that know him."

heartbreak. We thank Sister Mary Ruth,*

remember the fun and laughter, tears and of '71! The Editor, Beth Ross

a maze of Sights and Sounds. We hope they our photographers and staff as we wave

Will cause you to pause in years to come and our last goodbye to the Sights and Sounds
