Love birds

Senior Kevin Murray and junior Haley Stoetzer hug in the hallway for our viewing pleasure.

Love before lunch

Seniors Brenden Finney and Krigel Hunter enjoy a nice little session of affection in the hall before our delightful lunch hour.

More love birds

Senior Nathan Jacobs and junior Donnetra Rhodes are pictured looking in love, as always.

There are 34 new trees in the front parking lot.

There are 8 stairs outside the front of the building and 1 ramp.

The old Center Senior High School sign is still on the original front west entrance of the building.

Factoids

Young Love

Sophomore Kasey Shannon and freshmen Anil Goud show us what first love is all about.

Emanuel Goss and Erica Hatten-Johnson

Walter Stokely and Kamellett Haines

Lindsey Lambert and Keenan Riley

Love before class

More love!

Seniors Zion McCalley-Scott and Ashley Thomas also show the camera some love in the cafeteria.

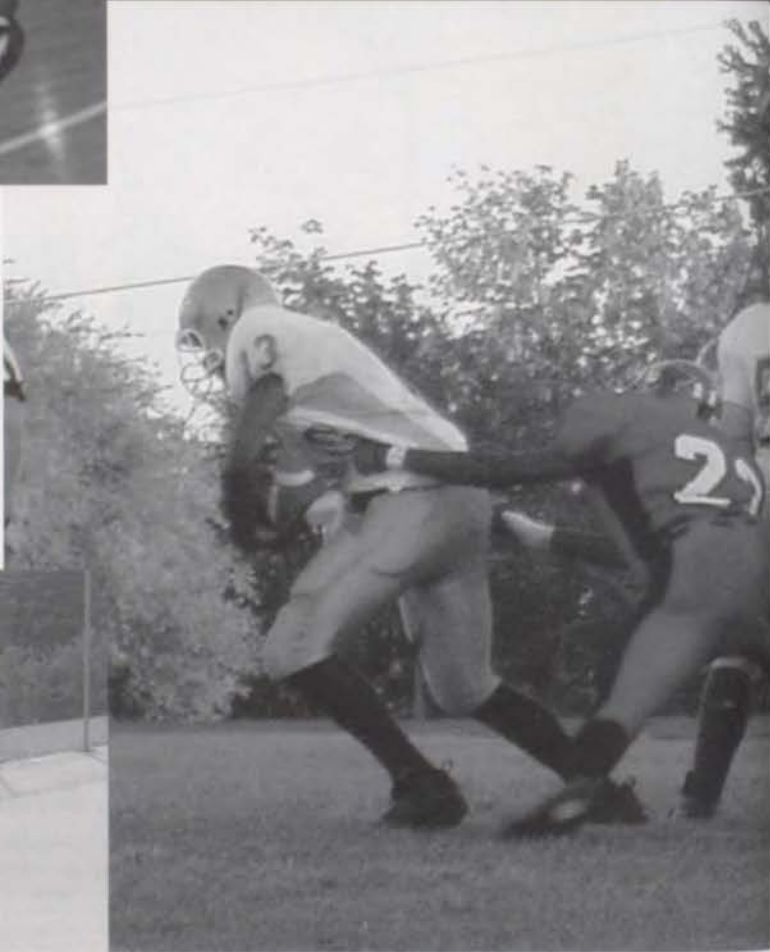

Even more love!

Seniors Brooke Love and Gary Taylor hug in the hallway to make our yearbook so much better.

Juniors Otoyne "O-Jack" Jack and Dennis "DC" Council, along with senior Leartis Grigsby stare the Tigers in the face. The Jackets also made Excelsior Springs stare at the scoreboard as we beat them 54-18.

A Lone Jacket

Senior Doug Slyman strays from the swarm of Jackets. Slyman played center and defensive tackle during the Jackets 9-1 season.

Center vs. O'Hara

The Center offensive line battles for a first down against the Celtics. The Jackets won 37-21.

Watching IN awe.

Senior Jamar Rison watches the team do their thing on the field. Rison played both running back and defensive back for the Jackets.

"We've had a great season this year. I've had so much fun with the girls and all of the inside jokes shared between us. The girls were strong-willed young ladies who are determined to do what they can to win games. I'll miss the seniors, but look forward to another exciting, restless season."

From the fabulous mind of the CHS volleyball coach Meghan Schieferrecke

COACH'S CORNER

Kasey Shannon

She has a mean spike that our team couldn't be without.

Haley Stoetzer

She plays an amazing front row and we'll need it next year.

Ashley Owens

Without her setting skills we would be lost.

Ana Gonzalez

This team needs her back row expertise.

Four KEY RETURNEES

Hard at work

Sophomore Kasey Shannon and junior Ashley Owens wait for the serve to smash Ruskin. Jackects killed Ruskin at the District game.

Ana Gonzalez

Ese' Ighedosa and Christian Hall

Seniors and Parents

Service

Sophomore Amanda Lillis serves it up on the junior varsity team. Amanda started and finished this game terrifically.

Swing around

Senior Keri Stoetzer is shaggin' up some balls right before the tough varsity game begins. Keri Stoetzer said, "we had a great season and a lot of laughs."

spiking N Volleyball

Congrats to Mike Burns for breaking the all-time scoring record of 63 goals. He set the record during the Kearney game beating the record with 65 goals and 35 assists

Showing the Love

Sophomore Griffin Gatewood congratulates seniors Roland Marbeck and Mike Burns. The soccer team always showed love to each other.

Super Six!

Zyon McCalley/Scott, Ethan Stanley, Khasan Simmons, Micheal Burns, Sean Wattenbarger and Roland Marbeck at their Senior night and last game as Yellowjackets. The night was filled with emotion.

Show those Hands!

Sophomore Juan Vasquez shows his hands as the defender shoves him off. Vasquez was a very physical player throughout the year.

High FlyIN'

Senior Khasan Simmons flies through the air for the save as seniors Ethan Stanley and Sean Wattenbarger along with junior Alec Chambers attack the goal.

Middle top: Junior Paul Rodriguez puts all his strength in a huge throw in. Rodriguez put everything he had into every play.

Sweet Feet

Right top: Sophomore Sean Vasquez practices some moves before the game. Vasquez showed amazing talent on the field.

Physical Play

Bottom left: Junior Brian Gatewood shows some attitude in his tackle. Gatewood was always a physical player.

Golden Gloves

Bottom right: Sophomore Jeff Hall runs to the ball and makes a terrific save. This wasn't the only great save that Hall made for his team.

My Ball!

Junior Paul Rodriguez hustles to the ball and gets a steal. There was only room for one star on this play.

Giant Kick

Junior Alec Chambers rips the shot down the field. The soccer team always depended on Chambers' big foot.

Proud Player

Senior Michael Burns poses with the ball knowing that this will be his last home game as a Yellowjacket. "Showing pride for your team is the best thing a player can do," Burns said.

Get That Ball!

Sophomore Griffin Gatewood goes for the ball to beat the defender. Gatewood did not like to get beat.

Air-Born

Junior Brian Gatewood goes air born for the ball. Gatewood always wanted the ball, one way or another.

FINAl Match

The Lady Raquet Jackets celebrate the last regular match of the season by getting in an energy circle before the match begins. Assistant Coach and full-time mom Julie Mattson gave the girls the pep talk, then the girls went on to win the match 6-3.

OUT!

Senior Andrea Gore tries to hit the ball over the net while practicing for an upcoming match, but the ball slammed directly into the net. Gore had a good laugh about it and went on practicing.

Serves Up!

Senior Brooke Love practices her serves before the game. The ball landed just inside the box, constituting a great serve for the fourth year player Love.

Get Some Rest IN!

Senior Jill Gottfredson catches rest on the way to the match against Kearney. Gottfredson went on to play a great game of tennis that day.

Shelly Mattson

Do you know?

- There are 15 handrails to the front entrance of the school.
- There are 19 accessible parking spaces around the school.

FIVE KEY RETURNEES

Amy Jantz

Jantz is a huge part of the team's success.

Jill Gottfredson

Gottfredson's cunning helps her to win matches.

Brooke Love

Love maybe small but she is a mighty asset.

Amanda Gore

Gore has tons of power on the court.

Andrea Gore

Gore uses pizzazz to defeat her opponents.

COACH'S CORNER

Coach Allen Oni and his contributions to the Raquet Jackets.

Allen Oni is the coach for the Raquet Jackets. Every day he has the girls run drills before beginning practice. Although the work is intense, it pays off in the end. After running out of balls during drills Oni yells, "Pick up the balls!" It's a common saying by Oni, who always pushes the girls to do their best so they can have a great season.

All-Star Seniors

Jamar Rison and Jordan Williams show their confident spirit. The Yellowjacket football team had many spirit trucks in the parade to celebrate their excellent season.

Juniors

Erica Greene, Davis McDonald, Katelyn Ison, Brian Gatewood and Duncan Standridge put on a show for the judges. The Juniors placed second in the float competition this year.

ROBIN!

Sophomore Jack Unger smokes a fake cigarette on the sophomore float in the Homecoming parade. Unger played Robin to go along with the sophomore's Batman theme.

Seniors!!

Right: Seniors Ethan Stanley, Michelle Ebberts, Kathy Kidd, Buddy Blackman, Missy Johnson and Jill Goffredson have a good time on the Senior Spirit Truck. Every class had a spirit truck in the Homecoming parade.

For Right: Seniors Michael Burns (dressed as Spider-Man), Christian Hall, Keri Stoetzer, Shayla Bentrap and Jesse Morgan wave to the crowd. The Seniors had a lot of fun creating their Spider-Man float this year.

Players 58

Chris Bradbury, Walter Stokely, Blue McNeil, Kamellett Haines, Maurice Atty, Sheristen James and Drew Davidson get ready for the long parade.

Pep Talk

Coach Moore talks with his team as they desperately need a new game plan. Coach Moore always had a good game plan.

Concentration

Senior Sarah Riley concentrates on her free throw shot. Practice makes perfect.

Jump Ball!

The Lady Jackets prepare to start the game with a jump ball. Both teams await the turnout.

Now Presenting...

Sophomore Marisha Brown is announced to the crowd as a starter for the Lady Jackets. Brown was a key player to the Varsity squad.

Jerrisha Carr: 1st Team All Conference, 1st Team All District and All State
 Nikka Henry: 1st Team All Conference and 1st Team All District
 Marisha Brown: 1st Team All Conference

Anticipation

The Center Lady Jackets and Lincoln Prep Tigers anticipate the shot turnout. Sadly, quarter-finals was a tough loss, losing by six points.

IN Yo Face!

Senior Jerrisha Carr puts the shot right in the visiting player's face. The expression on the opponent's face said it all.

LaNiece DeBose

"Yelling is what I do, so this job fits me perfectly."

SPONSOR'S CORNER

From the brain of Kathy Unger, the sponsor of the Spirit Squad.

The Spirit Squad started in the fall of 2003, as there were so many kids who wanted to be involved in yelling and screaming for our sports' teams, but weren't on the cheer squad, Dance Line or Color Guard. They travel to away games, too - and always make bus rides interesting!

Freshman Enoma Ighedosa takes a quick look at the green. This was Ighedosa's first real year playing golf.

Golf course

"Golf has a reward that's tougher to get to than most any game. Hitting that great shot, that shot you're proud of, is a great feeling. For the kid who's just starting to play and shoots in the 60's for nine holes, that great shot may be a five-foot putt that he sinks. For the great golfer with the college scholarship, it may be a 3-wood he hits 250 yards over water and sticks on the green. It's the same great feeling from both shots."

Flagging IN & out

Flags R Us

In German class juniors Shalisha Morgan, Nathaniel Ashley and Megan Scheuerman hold up the German flag. They use their textbooks to learn more about the country.

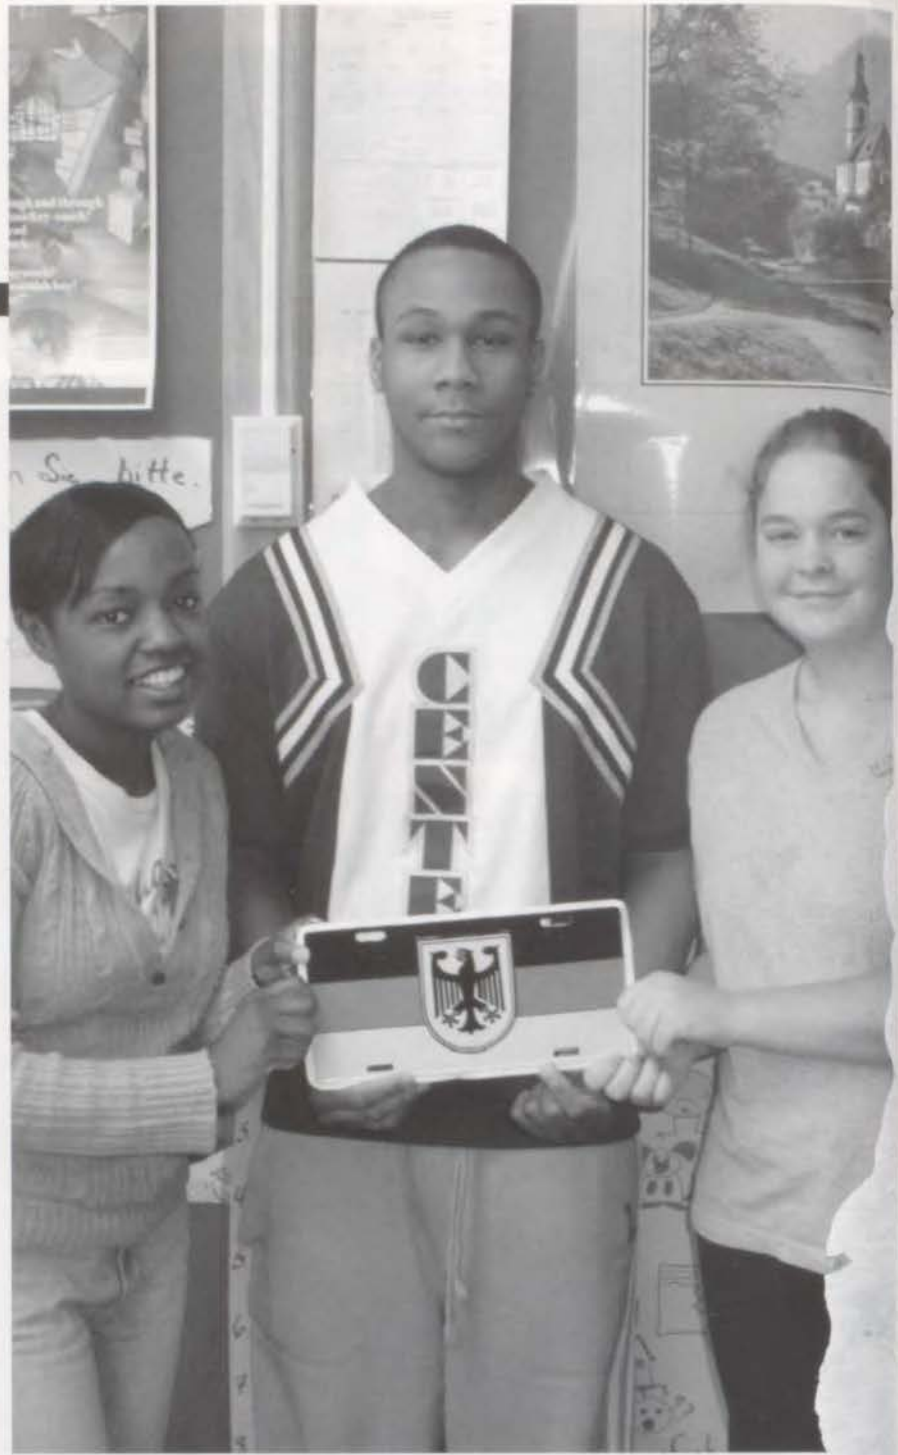

HMMMM...

Senior Fae Edmondson helps one of her class mates in class. Edmondson read more about the country after she figured out how to read the language.

Let's Talk

Before starting class senior Zandra Winfield and juniors Donnettra Rhodes and Latoya McBride along with sophomore Ernesha Bentley listen to instructors.

HangINg Out

The Spanish class stops to hear a lesson about their trip to the church on Southwest Boulevard that has special Spanish artifacts. Later they learned more about the Spanish culture.

Girl Power

Having fun in class, seniors Blue McNeil, Zandra Winfield and Shelly Mattson pose for a picture. The girls went back to doing their French work after the picture.

StayINg cool

Looking cool are juniors Graciela Cortez and Mario Bayardo during our Homecoming. Both of them stayed cool for spirit week. It was mis-match day.

Hey Ya'll

Coming from a store from their field trip the Spanish class stops for a pose. The group later talked about what they bought in the stores on Southwest Boulevard.

Mis-Matched

On mis-match day, sophomore Laura Rey stops to take a picture. Rey wore SpongeBob clothing.

Crazy Hair

Junior Katie Gamble has a crazy hair style on Crazy Hair Day during spirit week. She was a big hit when she visited the ESL class.

Junior Yvonne Grinstead works on some important news for the very important Searchlight newspaper.

Dance time

Sophomore Kaitlyn Barnes and senior Zyon McCalley-Scott enjoy a dance to get the creative juices flowing. It's likely they were dancing to Enya.

Got truth?

Senior editor Elizabeth Hill finds the facts in order to write another hard hitting, in-your-face article.

Ow my eyes!

Senior editor and layout designer Missy Johnson takes a minute from designing the Searchlight to rest her eyes from looking at those bright computer monitors. Ocular health is of the utmost importance to Johnson.

What to do...

Editor Walter Stakely holds a conference with cartoonist Zyon McCalley-Scott on what angle to take in his cartoon about the holidays. McCalley-Scott heard the suggestion, and immediately ran to his computer and did the polar opposite.

Meetings

Sophomore Yvonne Grinstead and senior Laquia Bradley listen intently at the Searchlight staff meeting, where they found out their assignments for the month.

What's that?

DownloadIN' Danny

Junior Danny Drummond downloads the digital camera. It's a good camera, but a bit fragile.

I'll typo you!

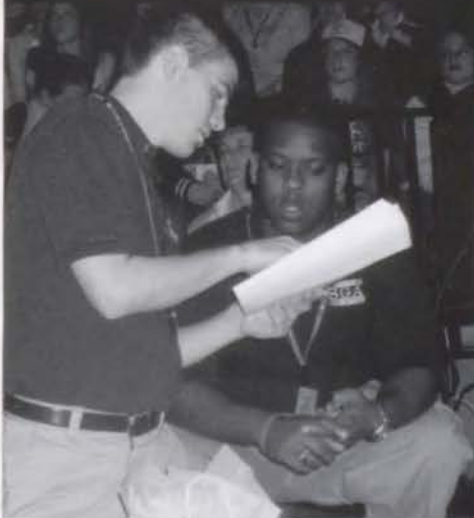

Sophomore Makeda Oates rejects the constructive criticism of junior Kaulah Fielder-Bey. Criticism is a very necessary, but sometimes hard to take, part of the journalistic process.

Sophomore Chris Miller, freshman Alex Gripp and junior Duncan Standridge show off their pretty frisbee. This is Miller's second year playing, Gripp's first year and Standridge's second.

Catch!

Junior Duncan Standridge flicks the frisbee to sophomore Chris Miller. Miller and Standridge were two of the first to join sponsor Jason Steliga's team last year.

ComIN' at ya

Freshman Alex Gripp gets ready to catch a frisbee. Gripp was a key addition to the Ultimate Frisbee club.

Through the legs

Junior Duncan Standridge lets it fly through his leg. Standridge ran Cross Country with coach Steliga and played Ultimate Frisbee as well.

Although the mummy looks real, it is actually a product of hard work and competition at JAA. Teams were created to see who could make a mummy the fastest and the winner received a pyramid of praise.

YoungINs OUTside

The Junior Arts Academy is put on by Players 58 with hopes of having more people join later on. Any student not in high school at the time may participate and even get their picture taken outside.

Factoids

The "dungeon" is located under the school and is where all the props and set pieces are stored from each of the plays throughout the years.

During the summer, Players 58 holds car washes as a fundraiser so that more money can be spent on props and costumes for the next production.

Each year, Players 58 puts on three different types of plays. This year's were: a musical, Chicago, a full length play, The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged) and one act plays directed by seniors who applied.

Acting OUTside

Seniors Andrea Schutte and Michelle Ebberts, sophomore Sheristen James, senior Walter Stokely and junior Brian Werst take a break from acting to have a little snack at the Missouri Thespian Festival. Werst did not have time to finish before the picture was taken as the food was still in his mouth.

Let Me IN!

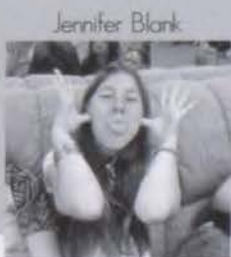

Senior Zion McCalley-Scott begs to be let in to the activities during the summer. Laughs were heard as he pressed against the glass just before everyone decided to let him in.

Clap Clap Clap

At the Junior Arts Academy, a group of older students usually involved in the productions play a game with a younger student who just might get into the same habit of acting. Later on in the day, the younger students went on stage to see the different ways a stage is managed.

Hat, legs and a bunny

Seniors Sean Wattenbarger, Morgan Ryman and Walter Stokely have no shame when it comes to competing for Mr. CHS. The cocktails bunny Stokely was serving were not real.

Formal wear

Mr. CHS contestants and their escorts line up on stage. The contestants awaited the impromptu question and answer session, which was won by science teacher Jason Steliga for his answer on how zebras got their stripes.

Ingspray Ingsplay

Tug-o-war

Players 58 pulls with all their might during the tug of war portion of Spring Fling. Players 58 ended up winning Spring Fling, beating the Seniors by 25 points.

Seniors

At their last Spring Fling, seniors crowd together to cheer on their class. They placed second after all the points were totalled.

Big guns

Juniors Otanye Jack and Tyler Williams flex their muscles in preparation for an event. The two looked pretty proud of their arms.

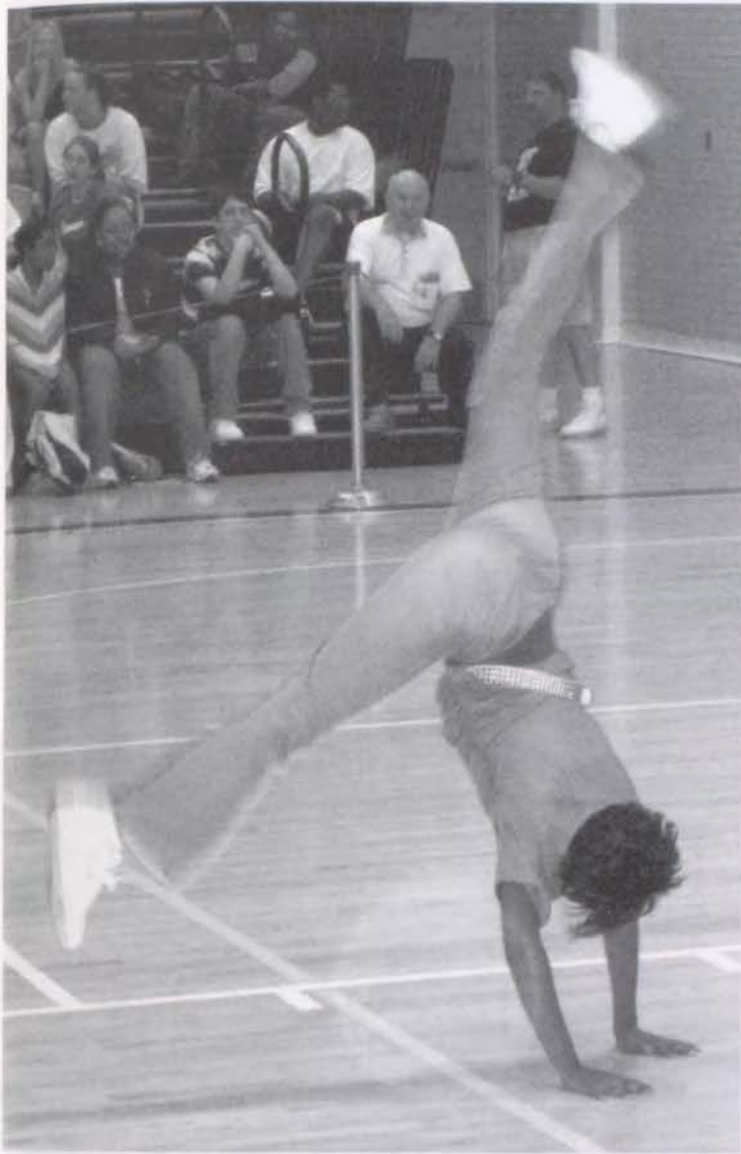

Juniors!

First Row: Ben Hall, Katlyn Isom, Eva Penolza and Anna Wilson. Back Row: Paul Rodriguez, Darrin Drummond, Sharon Ajarapu and Jerron Forte. The Juniors finished third in the Spring Fling event.

Cartwheels

Sophomore NyKeeitha Beasley twirls and tumbles. Beasley also participated in the bat spin, and because she's a cheerleader and used to flopping around, she didn't get sick.

Barff!!!

Sophomore Chris Forson does the bat spin for drumline. The bat spin was a favorite event because you get to see people crash and tumble.

Sophomores

Front Row: Craig Fishback. Middle Row: Griffin Gatewood and Ajay Gaud. Back Row: NyKeeitha Beasley and Brad Brown. Players 58 ended up winning and the seniors finished 25 points behind in second place.

Seniors Shayla Benitrop, Keri Stoetzer, Michelle Ebberts and Missy Johnson attend their last prom. "I had a blast at this year's prom!" said Ebberts.

Chattin' it Up

Andrea Shulte, Andrew Bean, Jonathan Suedmeyer and Marie Samson take a break from their busy night of dancing to chat. Prom was a tiring night for many students.

Royalty

From Queen Starlette Rockett and King Deron Wells stand with Prom Prince Dante' Brown and Princess Donnetra Rhodes. Students attending prom voted for their choice of king, queen, prince and princess.

Arms around

Senior Mary Mannino and sophomore Mike Roberts both in black. Mary's father, Center alum Carl Mannino, helped chaperone the dance - and was seen guarding the food table.

Show Off the Dress

The girls get together and dance the "two step" and show off their country dance moves. The song was "Save a Horse, Ride a Cowboy," by Big and Rich.

Friends

Junior Selina Rios, seniors Blue McNeil and Shelly Mattson and junior Marie Samson arrived at the dance together. They all enjoyed themselves while they were at the dance.

The Dance Floor

Students danced all through Prom. Prom talk flooded the high school hallways on Monday.

Pretty in pInK

Although they were tired of taking pictures on Prom night, seniors Matt Barrett and Erica Williams agree to one more.

IN the lot

The Seniors on their last day of high school, gathering in the south parking lot. They later spent their day at their senior picnic and enjoyed each others' company and reminisced about their past.

A few last words

Senior girls sing an ensemble at Baccalaureate. They were one of several performers that evening.

We made it!

Families and friends gather in the Community of Christ Auditorium in Independence, Missouri, to watch the class of 2005 graduate. Even though the auditorium is large, the jumbo-tron showed close-ups of all graduates as they walked across the stage.

The time has come

Senior Gary Taylor waits patiently to shake the teachers' hands. Every year the seniors go through a receiving line and say goodbye to all of the staff.

Teacher Erik Swarstrom and Walter Stokely

Ashley Davis

Katherine Burge and Ashlee Putnam

Prized Smiles

Seniors Telita Copper and Gemi Theodford stand in excitement after their graduation. It is a moment they will never forget.

Afterwards

Seniors and teachers gather after graduation at Longview Community College for Project Graduation.

Big Four

Seniors Sean Wattenbarger, Buddy Blackman, Marius Johnson and Michael Burns stand in shock. "These four years have gone by fast," said Blackman.

Ladies...

Seniors Kathy Kidd, Missy Johnson, Jill Gottfredson and Keri Stuetzer stand in the lobby of Center High School. This would be their last time in school as Center students.

Baccalaureate

Seniors sit and listen to fellow students give their speeches. Seniors were most anxious to hear what others had to say.

Next IN Line

Senior Dwight Wilson stands anxiously awaiting his name. Wilson walked across the stage proudly to get his diploma.

One FINal OUTING

LinIN' up the Shot

RollIN' IN the Dough

Jesse Morgan flashes the large amount of cash he earned at Project Graduation. The money wasn't real but it was used in the prize raffle later on.

Look OUT Below!

Taking a gigantic leap off of the spring board, Tyler Williams goes for a dip in the Longview Recreation Center's pool. Anyone caught in the splash radius got severely wet that night.

Let me IN!

Michael Burns drops his drawers while trying to get into Project Graduation. One question still remains: why was he wearing a brassiere outside his shirt?

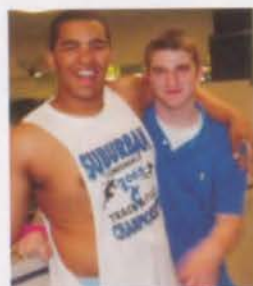

SneakIN' Around

Esé Ighedosa takes a peak around while carefully taking some of the food from the table. No need to worry though, the food was free for all of the guests so no harm was done.

Friendship at its Finest

Marius Johnson and his guest junior Tamra Simmeron stop for a picture as good buddies at Project Graduation. Johnson was relieved after the graduation ceremony and was finally done with high school.

Andrea Schutte

*Our Sweet, Beautiful Andrea,
We are so proud of you! You are an angel and a blessing and we could no dram of a better daughter!
You are loving, Considerate, Caring, Loyal, Fun, and a Great Friend to others.
You have accomplished great things with all your hard work and effort, from Day Care Graduation to High School Graduation.
From your first day of Kindergarten at Boone to the upcoming first day of College, the possibilities on the road ahead are yours for the taking.
Continue to make good choices in the future as you have in the past.
Follow the Lord in all you do and your life will overflow with blessings!
We have been and always will be here for you.*

*You're the Best!
Our Blessings and Our Love,
Mom and Dad.*

Buddy

Buddy - there could be no better name for you, because, you are, indeed, a "buddy." You have the ability to continually display interest, compassion and loyalty to your friends. Your excitement at "being around" people and caring for them are such valued traits.

You are one of those fortunate people who show great passion and excitement in pursuing goals and commitments. It is our hope that you don't just dream of happiness but always find happiness in your dreams. Don't ever forget to enjoy the "journey" and all that it has to teach you.

Always remember how much you are loved!
Mom, Dad and all the gang

You are about to embark on a new journey. The next four years should provide you with another wonderful chapter in your preparation to realize many of your dreams. Always remember these last four years. They have provided a solid foundation for you to reflect upon.

Congrats to you! We all want you to know just how proud of you we are, not just for your accomplishments throughout your high school years, but also because of the young man you have grown to be; a terrific son, an admired brother, and friend to many. Continue to put your best efforts into all you do and you will make contributions to this world that you will take pride in.

Look out Lawrence!

Missy

Melissa Leigh Johnson

You are our legacy. You are the last of our four children . . . the last of the Johnsons to graduate from Center High School . . . the next generation of our family to attend William Jewell College.

You are a legacy not only because of what you have accomplished, but also because of who you are. You are a beautiful and loving daughter; a devoted and caring sister; a kind and helpful granddaughter; a considerate and dedicated friend; playful, happy, generous and compassionate. . . "The boss of my own shoes" as you so proudly announced in your biggest five-year old voice so many years ago!

To our family, it doesn't seem that long ago since we took a photograph of your first day of kindergarten in our front yard. And now here we stand at the end of a 13 year journey as you graduate from high school.

Where has all the time gone? It seems like only yesterday that you made your debut into the world as the tiny baby Jesus in our church's annual Christmas program at the tender age of one week old. During the past 18 years, you have gone from playing the role of Jesus in a dramatic production to embracing the role of following Jesus in the unfolding drama of your own life. This is the greatest legacy a parent could ever hope for.

You are our "Tess," "Moo," "Meha," "Pearl Harbor Day baby," "The boss of your own shoes!" You are our legacy. We are proud of you. Congratulations!

With great love and affection - Your family, Mom Cathy, Dad Curt, Amy, Andrew & Kristen, Julie, and Grandma Garcia

"Congratulations!
 Today is your day.
 You're off to Great Places!
 You're off and away!
 You have brains in your head.
 You have feet in your shoes.
 You can steer yourself
 Any direction you choose.
 You're on your own. And you know what you know
 And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go..."
 (from Dr. Seuss)

Amy - We are so very proud of you and all of your many accomplishments thus far in your short life. You have a zest for knowledge and have always been eager to learn all you can and to do all you can. You have shown that you are a caring and sensitive person who enjoys helping others along the way. Believe in yourself, believe in your dreams, gather friends and go with our blessings. The world awaits you! "Oh The Places You'll Go!"
 We Love You! Dad, Mom and Jennifer p.s. Remember to read Dr. Seuss when the road gets rough.

Keri

We are very proud of the beautiful young woman you've become.

You can be a success at any thing you set your mind to, as your list of accomplishments so far is tremendous.

Our family is so blessed to have you in our lives; now on to the next chapter! Congratulations!

We Love You,
Your Family

Ese' Igheadosa

Dear Ese', we are so proud of you and love you dearly. We wish you the best of luck in finding your dreams. Thank you for being a great daughter.

Love,
Your Mom &
Dad

If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
 If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, but make allowance for their doubting too;
 If you can wait and not be tired by waiting, or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
 Or being hated, don't give way to hating, And yet don't look too good,
 nor talk too wise,
 If you can dream - and not make dreams your master,
 If you can think - and not make thoughts your aim;
 If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster and treat those two impostors just the same,
 If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
 Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken, and stoop and build
 'em up with worn-out tools,
 If you can make one heap of all your winnings;
 And risk it all on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
 And lose, and start again at your beginnings
 And never breath a word about your loss;
 If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew to serve your turn long after they are gone,
 And so hold on when there is nothing in you
 Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"
 If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
 Or walk with kings - nor lose the common touch,
 If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
 If all men count with you, but none too much; if you can fill the unforgiving minute With sixty seconds' worth of distance run, Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
 And - which is more - you'll be a Man, my son!

- Rudyard Kipling, #

Morgan...we are quite proud of you.

A special thanks to Joe Stokely for sending in pictures.

Colophon: The 13 member staff produced the 2005 Yellowjacket using 20 IBM computers loaded with Windows 2000. Layouts and graphics were all produced by Adobe 6.5. The staff was led by Kathy Unger and editor Missy Johnson. The Yearbook was published by Jostens Publishing Company of Topeka, Kansas.

To the yearbook staff: what a ride! You have all been lots of fun, and we got IN and OUT of EXPLORING the 2005 yearbook without any real injuries (no small matter, considering the makeup of the class). Remember me fondly :) Love, Unger

In loving memory of our Jostens rep and our friend, Pat Bozak.
