SPORTS

Conquering the wild country

1. Junior Mallory Tough starts her two mile run at the sound of the gun at the Belton race.

2. Juniors Mallory Tough, Renee Art and TyRisha Chambers get off to a good start staying ahead of the opposing female runners.

3. Junior Renee Art runs her heart out and never gives up against Ray-Pec. Art always had the drive to push herself during meets.

4. Junior Ryan Farris tries hard to pull ahead of the Raytown runner. Farris was captain this year and finished 63 out of 169 runners at State.

5.

5. Senior Todd Green gives everything he has to stay ahead of the game. Using all that energy made Green exhausted!

Cross Country

Junior TyRisha Chambers feels the sweat dripping from her face. Chambers had the determination to beat her own personal record time.

Sophomore TaVaughn Commack concentrates on the goal at hand, which was to win the meet.

All-Metro Honorable Mention:

Ryan Farris

Sophomore TaVaughn Commack and freshman Marcus Bradley keep up the pace with each other to finish their run.

Saving the field

1. Junior Nick Jones shows his amazing ability to scramble out of the pocket. He made a perfect touchdown pass on the run.

2. Senior Corbin Soliday is one of our most dedicated players and will be missed. This was Soliday's last game as a senior in high school.

3. The offensive line is a valuable feature in football. Their objective was to protect the backfield at all times.

4. Junior Nick Jones during another intense practice, as he gets ready for Friday night's game against the Excelsior Springs Tigers.

5. Senior David Jones and Coach Mitchell go over some study procedures for David's tutoring session.

Senior Alicia Moore keeps her form while opening her stride and hitting a corner full force. Moore ran many events and was happy with her performance.

The team warms up together before every meet. Coach Phillips loved to get his runners pumped in any way.

Sophomore Cara Forte' leaves her competition in the dust. Forte' had the quick speed to lead her to a State championship.

Junior TyRisha Chambers leaves the hurdles on fire after she leaves the track.

The girls 4x200. This team qualified for State and planned to take it all.

Hectic hurdlers

Congrats to Cara Forte', Alicia Moore, Donei Griggs and TyRisha Chambers for placing third at State in both the 4x100 and 4x200!

Junior Ryan Farris pushes harder than ever trying to lead the pack. Farris qualified for State in two events, one being a solo event.

Sophomore Brandon Harris pushes with all he has left to finish with a great time. Brandon is the younger brother of Brian Harris and plans to be just as successful as his brother.

Senior Brian Harris running the 200. As one of the only seniors on the team he felt like he had to lead them in the right direction.

Bottom: Senior Tanner Collins helps make play books. Collins was cutting the paper to make the books.

"We have a blast in graphics everyday, I really like the class."

Branden Davis

"Graphics is one of the hardest classes I have ever taken."

Tanner Collins

"It is a fun class. We all have a good time and we work well together like a team."

Tim Williams

"Graphics is the best class ever, we have a lot of fun in there. We work real hard together and put Tim to work."

Daniel Jaimes

Art

Junior Chequita Myles tries to choose the perfect brush to glaze her tiles. Using different size brushes made it easier to add detail to the project.

Students from the photography and design class take a five day field trip to the Nelson Atkins Art Museum. The students created their own web page of two artists' artworks inside the museum.

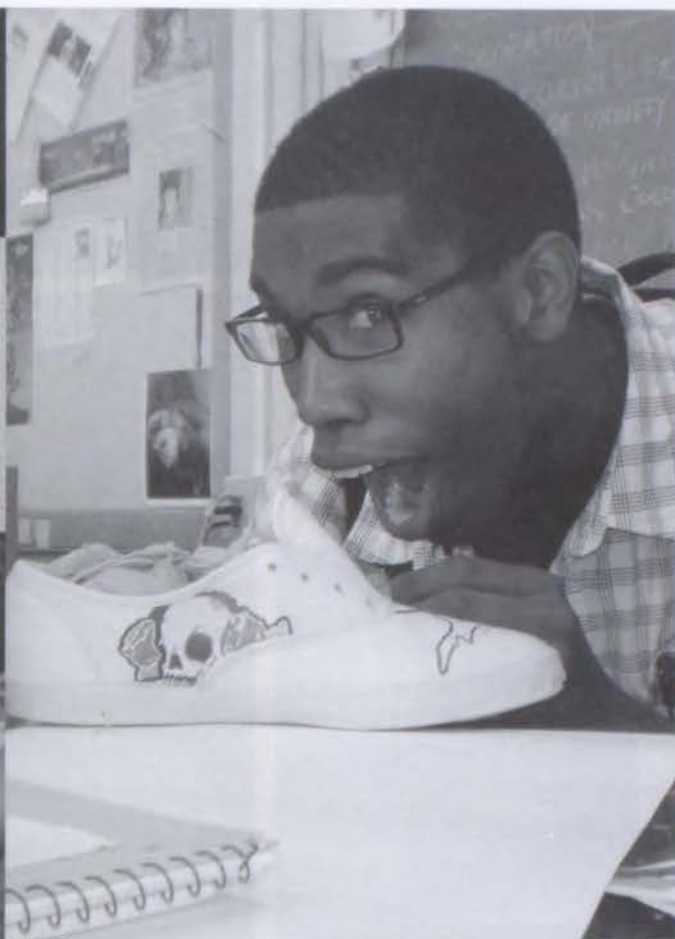

Freshman Elizabeth Passeri uses a needle tool to shape her independent project while freshman Keaton Riley stays close to observe.

Freshmen Dominique Horne and Aisha Smith are precise and use rulers to keep their projects looking spiffy.

Controlled Mess

Sophomore Gabe Goodman and senior Brian Harris work in Adobe Photoshop to create their self-portraits. Goodman and Harris took multiple pictures of themselves and manipulated them for their project.

Junior Zack Gaylord works hard after school on his art project. Gaylord took an everyday shoe and used his master art skills to create designs on it.

Freshman Krystal Anderson finds it shocking at how fun it is to create impressed tiles. Anderson used a magazine picture for a guideline.

Design One class students pay close attention to teacher Jonathan Danderand while he gives tips to better their projects.

Back Row: Chimeen Collins, Davasha Washington, Queeneica Hawkins, Arayna Jones, Rachel Turner.

1. Pianist Brian Bates plays the piano for both the women's and men's choir. This was the first concert of the year and everyone cheered at the end.

2. The women's choir uses their voices to show how high they can sing. They were excited about their next concert.

Wild voices...

1. The men's choir sings their hearts out, trying to out sing the girls. The boys' choir was the first to sing.

2. The women's choir stands to sing the last song of the day. It ended the class with a bang.

3. Director Loren Bridge talks to the crowd about what the choir is going to sing next. Together they put on a great show.

4. The women's choir shows off their skills. This year choir was separated into two groups: women's and men's choir.

5. Senior Shelby Williams, freshmen Danielle Morrow and sophomore Kalyssa Bates practice their singing for their next concert. They all showed they could sing during the first concert.

2007 - 2008 Choir

Show Choir

1. The boys of Show and Jazz Choir show off their dance moves for the camera. They were thinking of new moves for the next concert: it looked like a good start.

2. Junior Michael Scott picks up junior April Alfonso to see how long he can hold her up. Cheerleaders better watch out, Show and Jazz Choir may be the next cheerleading squad!

3. The Show and Jazz Choir in practice with a group picture. They showed off their crazy side. It was the last class of the day.

Left: Senior Shelby Williams leads the choir in practice, showing off her dancing and singing skills. The practice was great; they were working really hard for their next performance.

Right: The Show and Jazz Choir ends their practice with a bang. They were glad they had finally reached the end.

Shattering voices

4. Choir members couple up and sing one of their last songs of the night. Show choir sang wonderfully and put on a great show. No one could stop watching them. Some of the people in Show and Jazz Choir are also in the boys' or girls' choir.

5. Show and Jazz Choir wave goodbye as they finish their first show of the year. The dancing and singing talent among this group was superb.

Senior co-Section leader Chris Bradbury prepares for State. He practiced his music, pushing himself to his full potential.

Junior Nick Moore and sophomore Nick Berthold get in some practice. The tenors had to do everything by pairs, including marching.

The bass line's music was really challenging. Bass captain and Drumline captain Juan Cochran helped shape and guide the line.

Hectic sticks

Top: The Drumline loves to show school spirit and give you all they have Center. This was at a home basketball game.

Bottom: The Snare line plays a big part in this year's band. The Drumline's show, Red Zone, was shown at a home football game.

Pit Captain Heather Hatcher and Kendra Werst rehearse their music one more time before State. The Pit had extra work just to get their music perfect.

Drumline Pit

The Winter Drumline prepares to go on for their competition. The Drumline had many performances but gave their best one at State.

Winter Drumline

Tenor Captain junior Nick Moore helps get his section together with drumming and marching styles. The Drumline coach this year was Erica Lipoic.

Captain

The Drumline exits the Spirit assembly after performing their spring show. The Drumline performed at football and basketball games.

Show Time

The Drumline had many competitions this year. Fall season was very successful for the Drumline, pulling off first, second and third places.

Congrats to Dance Line at State:

First place in 2A Kick Routine with "Control Me."
 Third place in pom routine with "Livin' the Life."
 Superior award for jazz routine with "Heat Wave."

Color / Winter Guard

Junior Tiffany Williams and sophomore Marissa Williams ready for the start of the dance. They both are first year members and they love spinning those flags. This was the first assembly of the year and they showed off their "Hello-Goodbye" theme.

Senior Steven Irving throws a rifle in the air while others carve their flags. They practiced for months and it showed as they took second place at State, performing to "Lion King" on Broadway. The show title was "Reflections."

Senior Steven Irving plans to do Guard in college and cannot wait. He was on Guard for three consecutive years and enjoyed performing. Irving was also a Captain of Color Guard.

Senior Jennifer Blank has been on Guard for four years, and is sad it is her last year. Blank was glad she joined Guard, because she met some great friends.

Senior captain Shaunna Bentrop leads Color Guard as they march on. Bentrop was a three year Guard member and plans to continue at Truman State. Her favorite memory was her sophomore year, when a girl launched a flag in the air and it hit another girl.

Senior Savannah Whitley rests between songs by putting her hoops around her neck. Whitley has been on Guard for two years.

Senior Micha Clifton is happy about his performances in the halftime show. Clifton has been on Color Guard for two years. He enjoyed all the band trips, and being with his friends.

T

Not Easy Spins

Senior Captain Shaunna Bentrop, senior Richila Rand, Co-Captain senior Ashley Kimber and freshman September Adamson. They showed off at the first Spirit assembly with their spinning and dancing. The crowd went wild when they performed their show for the first time.

Winter Guard performed at the Blue Springs South competition and took home first place. They did a great job, never dropping a flag. The crowd loved them and could not stop cheering.

Front Row: Ashley Kimber, Steven Irving, Shaunna Bentrop, Micha Clifton.

Sophomore Ana Maria Rodriguez looks over her work to make sure it is correct before she hands it in.

True language

Freshman Richard Hawk and Diana Condori pay close attention at a meeting. Hawk and Condori were watching a guest speaker.

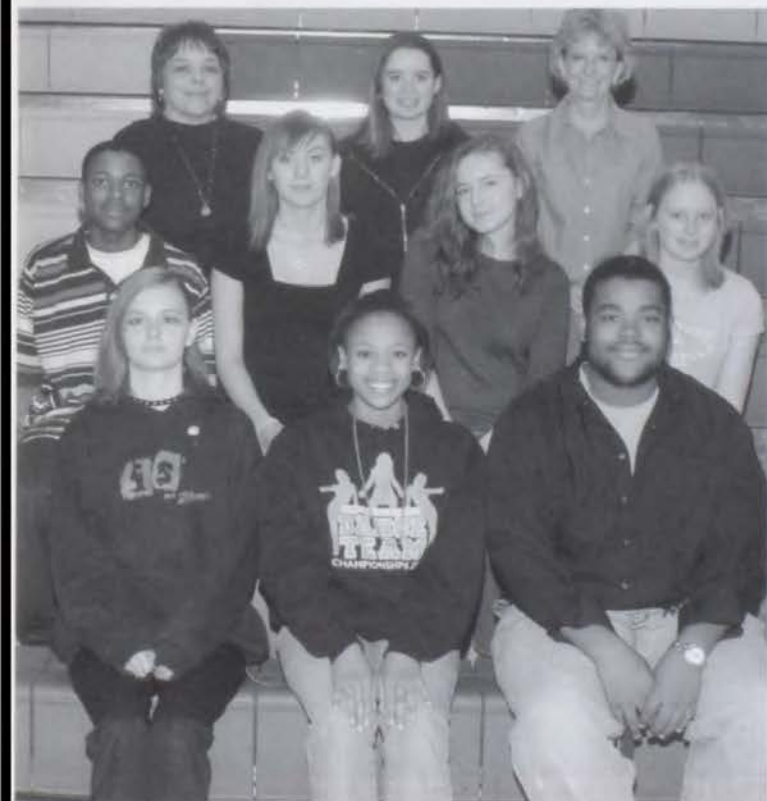

Senior Ashley Haley speaks in front of the club at a meeting. Haley enjoyed going to the meetings.

Freshman Katherine Pearson gets some food to eat and a drink. Pearson was waiting for the meeting to start.

Middle Row: Mareese Williams, Grace Allen, Taylor Stuart, Presley Schumacher.

Marketing

1. Richila Rand and Savannah Whitley attempt to stay focussed while Cierra Vaughn works as a distraction. 2. Groups of students work together to come up with jingles to create their own commercials. 3. This group of four shows the class the correct attire for jobs by teaching them how to assemble a tie the right way. 4. Megan Bondurant was the only member of DECA to advance to ICDC held in Atlanta this year. 5. Your 2007-2008 DECA members

Complicated business

1. Calvin Bentley and Alicia Moore sell slushies at a high school football game.
2. Chris Rivers, Myron Peterson and Duane Beard smile after receiving their Valentine's Day balloons.
3. Leisha White and Hannah Westfall team together to work on a project.

Organized disaster

Junior Amy Syler picks a leaf off of advisor Kathy Unger as senior Kelly Smith supervises. They were at yearbook camp, held at MU in August.

1. Junior Tiffanie Jennings can't find the print on her double page spread. Jennings' psychic mind told her to look in the recycling bin.

2. Juniors Shauni Straub and Alexis Jagetz celebrate the completion of their pages.

3. Senior Chris Bradbury takes a look in last year's yearbook for caption ideas. Making captions can be very tricky.

4. Seniors Kelly Smith, Christopher Bradbury and Cynthia Syler roll on the gym floor during picture day. It was a hectic day for all and this was a good way to take a break.

Front Row: Tiffanie Jennings, Chris Bradbury, Alexis Jagetz, Amy Syler.
Middle Row: Shauni Straub, Kelly Smith, Cynthia Syler.

Yearbook

Sophomore Ashley Bellinger does an amazing job downloading images to keep the yearbook staff organized. Bellinger was the "Picture Downloading Goddess."

1. The yearbook staff makes a pyramid on their lunch break. The staff worked hard all day supervising the school mugshots.

2. Seniors Rickey Moore and Cynthia Syler are hard at work passing out yearbooks and complimentary pieces of pizza.

3. The yearbook staff is excited to decide this year's yearbook theme, "Organized Chaos."

4. Junior James Terry used his time for homework after finishing his yearbook task for the day.

Juniors Tiffanie Jennings, Ashley Bellinger, Amy Syler and senior Kelly Smith hide in their "under the table fort" to avoid doing work. Jennings, Bellinger, Syler and Smith stayed there until caught by advisor Kathy Unger.

Juniors Tiffanie Jennings and Alexis Jagetz want a new bed for home. Jennings and Jagetz soon realized they should leave the bed in the MU dorms during yearbook camp so college students would not have to sleep on the stone-cold floor.

Searchlight

1. Juniors Tiffanie Jennings and Alexis Jagetz discuss how to meet the layout deadline in advisor Kathy Unger's dungeon.

2. Seniors Brandi Moore and Chris Bradbury edit the latest issue of The Searchlight.

3. Sophomore Chantel Lee and senior Erik Parker are happy to be on The Searchlight staff working together to meet deadlines.

Senior Shaunna Bentrop gets ideas inspired by reading The Kansas City Star.

Senior Claire Standridge eats Cambells Soup. Standridge needed all of her strength to proofread the latest issue.

Junior Jennifer Grantham checks her article for errors. The editing process was slow and painful.

Senior Ashley Kimber concentrates on her Searchlight page. All reporters had to find graphics to go with their articles.

Senior Jennifer Blank sits calmly thinking about what to write about for the next issue. Blank also proofread and edited articles.

Well, son, Ill tell you:
Life for me aint been no crystal stair,
Its had tacks in it,
And splinters,
And boards torn up,
And places with no carpet on the floor-
Bare.

But all the time
Ise been a climbin on,
And reachin landins,
And turnin corners,
And sometimes goin in the dark
Where there aint been no light.
So, boy, dont you turn back.
Dont you set down on the steps
Cause you finds it kinder hard.
Dont you fall now-
For Ise still goinn, honey,
Ise still climbin,
And life for me aint been no crystal stair.

There are few words that can express how proud I am of you and your accomplishments. You have achieved so much during your high school years. You are a wonderful son, a great friend to many, a leader in many ways, and a wonderful, kind, and helpful human being. Your dedication and leadership skills have been appreciated by so many in Band, SGA, Boy Scouts, and Soccer. As John Dewey said, "Arriving at one goal is the starting point to another."

Chris, you have arrived, and are beginning towards another goal.

I am so proud of you,
Mom

A daughter is a star glimmering
In the sky
A wonder, a sweetness
a perception, a
Delight
Everything beautiful
A daughter is love.

Liz, we have always been so proud of you. You are the best part of us and who you have become is more than we could have dreamed of for you. We love you.

Mom, Dad, and Micheal

You have shown us how beautiful you are - now show the world.

Jennifer,
We're so proud of all you have accomplished. We love you very much!

Mom and Dad

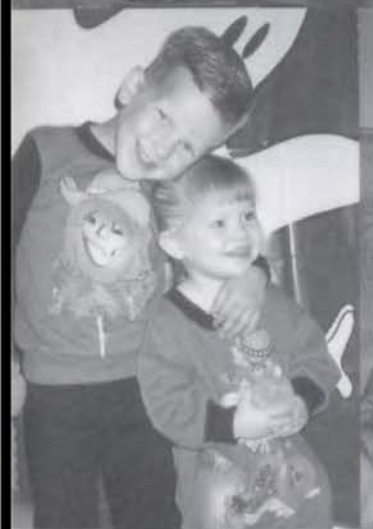

Nick-

Congratulations - you've made it!
You faced some adversities along the way,
but became strong because of them.

We are so proud of you for that.
We wish you nothing but the best in your future endeavors.
You mean the world to us and we love you dearly.

May God hold you in the palm of His hands.

All our love,
Mom & Amanda

You have always been our quiet, serious and studious little guy. We are so proud of everything you have accomplished throughout your school years, and we know this is just the beginning. You learned early Knowledge is Power. We know the road you take will lead you to success. You have made us so proud and we want you to know we love you with all our hearts.

Love, Mom, Dad, Ajay and your entire family
