HOLMES MEMORIAL

Mr. H. H. Holmes came to Central High School in 1897 as a teacher of Mathematics. In 1906 he became vice-principal. He was elected principal in 1912. When the school was transferred to the new building in 1915 Mr. Holmes at once began efforts to secure the land east of the building. The present field is a monument to his vision and courageous persistence. It is very fitting that it should be dedicated to him.

FOREWORD

IN producing the twenty-ninth volume of the Centralian, the staff has attempted to present to the student body a record of the events and activities in the progress of Central High School. Through this effort we hope to recall old memories and create a desire among the student body for an even greater standard of success in the future.

DEDICATION

The Liberty Memorial---and I am including the entire setting---is a great monument not to war, but to Peace. Designed to instill a reverence for sacrifice, to implant a love for the beautiful and to inspire aspirations for the spiritual, it will contribute to the cultural and spiritual needs of our city and of the world for ages to come. And, immortalizing that Spirit manifested in the building of the Memorial, it will be a living monument to those who fought for Peace and Country.

CLASSES

Senior Officers

CARL S. MATTHEWS

Senior President; Junior President; Central Franklin Club '26; "Tea Toper Tavern" Cast; "Out of the Stillness" Cast; Student Council '25, '26, '27; Student Council Cabinet '27; President Boys' High School Club; Interscholastic Debate Team '26; Central Trouvere Club; Kelvin Klub President Activity Group; Senior Ballot "Most Popular Boy."

The honor of being class president comes only to those who have won the respect of every Centralite, and Carl has truly qualified for this position.

NADINE LOUISE MYERS

Senior Giftorian; Junior Aide; President Thalian Literary Society; Managing Editor Luminary; President Central Art Club; Vice-President Student Council, '27; Student Council Cabinet '26; Girls' High School Club Cabinet '26, '27; Member Inter Club Council '27; Silver Medal, Son's of American Revolution Contest '26; Classics Club '25; Chairman of Student Handbook Committee; First Prize Central R. O. T. C. Poster Contest; First Prize, City-wide R. O. T. C. Poster Contest; National Honor Society; Emerson Medal Pinner.

Modest self-effacement and sympathetic understanding have won for Nadine the respect and co-operation of all who have known her.

QUINTA CHARLOTTE HUGGINS

Vice-President Senior Class; Junior Aide; Minerva Literary Society '25; Central Olympian Club; President Student Council; Student Council Cabinet '24, '25; Girls' High School Club Cabinet '27; "Wobbles" Cast; "Out of the Stillness" Cast; "Tea Toper Tavern" Cast; Senior Ballot "Most Popular Girl"

Unanimously we proclaim her the most popular girl in Central, and proudly acknowledge her as a friend and companion.

FRANK E. DUBACH

Senior Officer; Junior Aide; President Central Webster Club; Boys' High School Club Vice-President; Student Council '25, '26, '27; Senior Editor Centralian; "C" Man Football '26, '27; Second Team "C" Football '25; Tennis Team '25, '26, '27; Track Team '25, '26, '27; Central "C" Club; Le Cercle Francais; "Out of the Stillness" Cast; "Tea Toper Tavern" Cast; "Paddy Whack" Cast; Boys' Affirmative Interscholastic Debate Team '26; National Honor Society; National Athletic Scholarship Society.

"Dude" in possessing the ability of an orator, the physique of an athlete, the mind of a scholar, and the personality of a gentleman has earned his share in Central's glory.

Senior Officers

VIRGINIA ALLEN

Girl's Senior Editor, Centralian; Junior Aide; President Aristonian Literary Society; Sponsor Major, Central Battalion R. O. T. C. Honorary Member, Central Officers' Club; Central Girls' Rifle Team; President Central Olympian Club; Student Council, '25, '27; Girls' High School Club; Inter-Club Council Representative, Girl's High School Club, '27; President Activity Group; Central Classics Club, '25; "Tea Toper Tavern" Cast; "Out of the Stillness" Cast; "Egypt's Eyes" Cast; Lead Girls' Gyn Review '25; Dancelin Manager; Hockey Team, '25, '26, '27; Captain Hockey Team, '25; Championship Hockey Team, '27; All-Star Hockey Team, '27; Volley Ball Team '26; Basket Ball Team '26; Swimming Team, '25; Junior Life Saver; Small C; Large C; Pillow Top; Central Webster Club Medal Pinner; National Honor Society.

True judgment, deep sincerity, charming personality, combined with dignity and consistency of purpose explain why Virginia is one of the outstanding members of her class.

ELOISE SHEARER

Senior Class Secretary; Junior Aide; Minerva Literary Society; Student Council; Girls' High School Club; "Out of the Stillness" Cast; Franklin Medal Pinner; Senior Ballot "Belle Brummel."

In time we may forget that her name was Eloise, but never will we forget how in three short years she has taught us the true meaning of "Jolly Good."

DONALD CLINTON COX

Treasurer Senior Class; Junior Aide; President Central Webster Club; Managing Editor Luminary; Affirmative Interscholastic Debate Team '26; Captain Negative Interscholastic Debate Team '27; Secretary Student Council '27; Student Council Cabinet '25; Boys' High School Club '25, '26, '27; Boys' High School Club Cabinet '27; Third-Place National Spanish Essay Contest '26; Spanish Fiesta '25; "Out of the Stillness" Cast; "Tea Toper Tavern" Cast; Central Trouvete Club; Central Art Club; Kelvin Klub; President Central Officers' Club; Captain R. O. T. C.; Crack Platoon '25; Crack Company '25, '26, '27; Rifle Team '27; National Honor Society.

True genius, enhanced and perfected by unerring purpose and unswerving diligence, and polished by the most gentlemanly manners, made Don a real power.

JACK RECTOR MORRIS

Sergeant-at-Arms Senior Class; Junior Aide; President Central Webster Club; President Boys' High School Club; President Student Council; Managing Editor Luminary; Editor-in-Chief, Centralian; Boy's Affirmative Debate Team; Inter-society Council; Secretary, State Older Boy's Conference; Delegate, Missouri Press Conference; Critic, Student Council; President, Activity Group; Lead "Egypt's Eyes" Cast; "Out of the Stillness" Cast; "Honor Bright" Cast; National Honor Society; Senior Ballot "Boy Who Has Done Most For Central"

A bit reckless with five point honors; a little forgetful of the hardships of working; a trifle appreciative of the codes of Plato, all of which goes far to leave for him a deep, favorable impression in the sands of Central's history.

ROBERT H. ADELSTINE

Lieutenant R. O. T. C. '26; Crack Platoon '26; Crack Company '25, '26; Rifle Team '27; Officers' Club.

With nothing to do but bend the list.

WILLIAM D. ALLEN

"C" Man Football '27; All-Star Football '27.

One of these quiet, virtuous, lovable chaps of whom the state penitentiary is full.

GUS AGRON

As we advance in life we learn the limits of our abilities.

WILBUR H. ALLEN

I have not sought the world; The world has not sought me.

ROXIE ALBANO

If all the world were his, He could be no other than he is.

CHASE ALLISON

Central Webster Club; Boys' High School Club; "Tea Paper Tavern" Cast; Student Council '26.

A "bright" young man with a promising future.

RAY ALEXANDER

"C" Man '27; All Star Football '27.

Ray was effective as he was quiet.

CLARA ELLEN ANDERSON

Far she was just the quiet kind.

RAYMOND ALLEN

Society of Literature and History; Second Team "C" Football '26; "C" Man Basketball '26; Student Council '27.

Listen my "folks" and you shall hear Of a student we've had here this many a year; For his clever line you're sure to fall, And he's quite "the man" at basketball.

HERBERT W. ANDERSON

Student Council '26.

ROY H. ANSELM

Central Franklin Club; Boys' High School Club; Second Lieutenant, R. O. T. C.

Another of Central's warriors.

GENEVIEVE AUSTIN

Central Art Club '26, '27; Student Council '25, '26; Girls' High School Club.

Everybody likes her who knows her, and everybody knows her.

RUTH ARGO

Central Olympian Club; Hockey Team '25, '26; Valley Ball Team '25; Girls Rifle Team; Second Basketball Team '25; Basketball Team '25; Senior Pin and Ring Committee.

She would have been a crack shot, but the gun was too heavy.

JOHN EUGENE AVERILL

Of whom we have all heard much.

JOHN F. ARCELLA, JR.

Society of Literature and History; Assistant Cheerleader '27; Student Council '26, '27; Boys' High School Club; "Out of the Stillness" Cast; "Ten Topper Tavern" Cast; "Honor Bright" Cast; "Yooman of the Guard" Central Glee Club.

We saw him, we heard him, we are satisfied.

ELMORE S. BAILEY

Student Council '25;

A growing man in this world.

CARLYLE L. ATTEBERRY, JR.

Boys' High School Club Cabinet '26.

Make much of me, good men are scarce.

ETHEL BAILEY

Girls' High School Club.

Her modesty and genius will help her make her way in this world.

BETTIE ATWOOD

Aristonian Literary Society; Le Cercle Francais; Girls' High School Club; "Journey's End" Cast; "Egypt's Eyes" Cast.

Another of the modest little violets whom we all admire.

FLORITA MAE BAILEY

BOYS' AFFIRMATIVE

BOYS' DEBATE TEAM

FOR THE first time in the history of high school debating in Kansas City, Missouri, Central's boys' debate teams have gone through four successive years of interscholastic competition without experiencing a single defeat.

This record has been achieved through hard work on the part of the boys from Central and their coach.

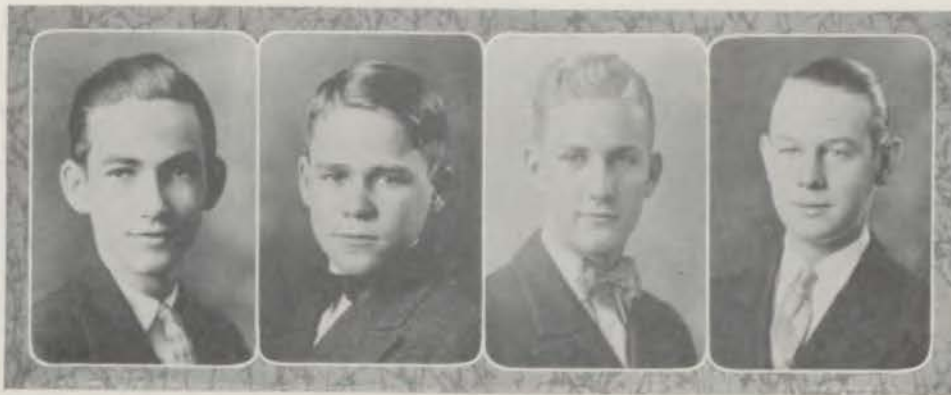

By gaining a double victory over two opponents last year the debate team secured the Amherst trophy as the permanent possession of Central, she being the first school to win for three successive years. In 1924, Central defeated her two opponents; as did Manual. Central and Manual then debated off the tie, and Central was acclaimed victor. In 1925, with three veterans, Central won both debates, defeating Westport, 3-0, and Northeast, 2-1. Her record last year was exceptionally brilliant when it is considered that with a new coach and only one returning debater from the former year, she established as excellent a record as that of the two preceding years. This year, with but one veteran on the team, Central swept through to victory over Westport and East High school, a new, but powerful entry into high school competition.

This year, contrary to the plan adhered to previously, the debates were held in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the classes being shortened in order to enable the students to hear the contests. The plan was inaugurated with the idea that if the debates were held in the afternoon it would enable more persons to attend the affairs. The success of the plan was indicative by the increased attendance.

On February 16, of this year, the boys' debates resulted in a complete victory for Central. The negative team, debating Westport's affirmative team at home, on the question, "Resolved, that the Phillipine Islands should be given their immediate independence," won a unanimous decision over her opponent. Meanwhile, our affirmative team, opposing the East High negative team in their auditorium, won a 2-1 victory in the first clash between the two schools.

Central was the only school in the city to have, including the girls' debates, four victories and no defeats to its credit. Manual and Paseo placed second with one defeat each. Incidentally, former Central students were representatives on each of these teams.

The affirmative team, composed of Jack Morris, first speaker; Murray Schwartz, second speaker; Lester Salwinsky, third speaker and captain; and Grant Anderson, alternate; journeyed to East, where they, though faced with strong opposition, proved to their audience and the judges that the Phillipines should undoubtedly be given their immediate and absolute freedom. Jack Morris, first Central speaker, opened the affirmative side of the question by proving that the United States is both morally and legally obligated to grant the Phillipines immediate independence. Murray Schwartz, as second speaker, continued the affirmative argument by proving that the Phillipines have established and are maintaining a stable government. In concluding the case for the affirmative, Lester Salwinsky proved that they are capable of maintaining and filling international obligations and that world conditions are compatible. The East team retaliated with a strong and admirable appeal, endeavoring to undermine the affirmative's arguments by entreating that the step was unethical and not in accordance with moral laws; that the Phillipines were financially unstable and politically unprepared. Despite the excellence of her opponent, however Central's convincing proofs and sparkling oratory received two of the three votes awarded by the judges for a winning decision.

The Westport team was unable to cope with our forceful negative team in either speeches or rebuttal and consequently lost a debate infused with enthusiasm and rigor.

Central's forsenic opponents, in an appeal to moral right, to the stable government of the Phillipines and to the favorable economic conditions of the Islands, presented arguments of a sound policy and in a convincing manner. Central's negative team consisted of: first speaker, Caspar Garrigues; second speaker, Charles Hackler; third speaker and captain, Donald Cox, the sole veteran of the team of 1926; and David Newcomer, alternate. The negative team centered its attack on the fact that it would be an extremely unsound diplomatic policy to give independence. Caspar Garrigues opened the negative attack by explaining that we have not yet fulfilled our trust with the Phillipines. Charles Hackler continued the negative's analysis by proving we were not legally obligated to grant immediate independence. Donald Cox, in concluding the argument for the negative team, pointed out that it would be an unsound diplomatic policy and that it would be economically unwise to grant their independence.

In rebuttal, Central cautiously and decisively proceeded to defeat each issue of their opponents proofs, tearing apart and destroying the arguments one by one. The unanimous decision awarded to the Central team bespoke plainly the attitude and the judges.

A. B. Richmond, who this year coached Central, should receive much of the praise and appreciation resulting from the double victory. Coordinating and guiding a team, of which only one was on last years team, with untiring efforts and appreciable skill, he contributed another debate triumph to the annals of Central history.

The outlook for Central next year should be far from disheartening. The return of Charles Hackler, David Newcomer and Grant Anderson, all three of whom were on the team this year, as juniors, will insure Central of at least an unusual advantage. With the reputation of four successful years behind them it is certain that the utmost will be expelled from them in an effort to retain supremacy in the forsenic field.

GIRLS' AFFIRMATIVE

GIRLS' DEBATE TEAM

IN WINNING a double victory from their rivals, the Central girls' debate teams again brought the championship of the city into the ramparts of our intellectual fortress, after an absence of but one year.

Casting aside the shadow of defeat, which had so long proved impenetrable to our Blue and White orators, the team wrested a double victory from her opponents in 1925, when she successfully conquered the Westport affirmative and Northeast negative debaters. That year Central brought the championship into her halls with a high spirit. In 1926, however, Central, unable to secure a double victory over her worthy rivals, witnessed both success and defeat in her arduous attempt to retain the city championship standing set the year before. The results were a 2-1 decision in favor of the affirmative team against Westport's negative, while Central's negative was defeated by a 2-1 vote cast for Manual's affirmative.

The question this year, "Resolved, That the Henry Ford five-day-week should be adopted by all large manufacturers," was threshed out to an inimicable degree on Wednesday afternoon, February 9.

Central's affirmative team invaded East High School and presented its arguments in such convincing and forceful fashion that a unanimous vote was accorded them over their opponents, the negative aggregation of East High School. Meanwhile, the negative team successfully met and defeated Westport's affirmative team at home with a 2-1 victory.

At East the Central invaders, composed of Katherine Burnett, first speaker, Betty Herzensteil, second speaker and captain; and Edith Wells, third speaker; with Lucille Nairn as alternate, based their arguments on the fact that it was not injurious to industry, that it would prove a benefit to the worker and would better the unemployment situation now existing.

At Central, the negative team, composed of Dorothy Lane, first speaker; Mary Webb, second speaker; and Josephine Scroggs, third speaker and captain; with Helen McGee as alternate, delivered speeches so well organized that, although faced by one of the strongest teams seen at Central, she won the decision of the judges. Dorothy Lane, the first speaker for Central's negative, explained the disadvantage of the plan to all large industries. Mary Webb, second speaker, continued the negative argument by maintaining that a five-day forty-hour week was a social menace because of the lowered living and health standards. Josephine Scroggs, Central's negative captain, closed the affirmative argument by proving that the five-day week plan has not accomplished its purpose and that the industries using the plan are not finding it successful at the inset.

Dorothy Lane, Mary Webb, Josephine Scroggs, Helen McGee

In a rebuttal featuring emphatic and decisive speeches, the negative maintained that the plan was impractical and pointed out that the affirmative had dodged the issue by limiting the industries in which the plan was practicable while the question was: Resolved, That all large industries should adopt it. The Westport arguments, while powerful, lacked the co-ordinated unity which obviously was the outstanding virtue of the Central speeches, nor were they supported by such authentic and conclusive evidence.

It must be readily conceded that on Miss Margaret Farrell as coach of the girls' teams, much and unsparing praise should be bestowed. Her able management, extensive and unceasing labor, her vast knowledge and resourcefulness aided the two teams materially in their intensive preparation for the contest. It was through sheer power and persistency that Miss Farrell developed such an efficient and cohesive machine.

A powerful factor in the excellency of the teams was the return of Josephine Scroggs and Betty Herzensteil, both of whom were on the team last year. Around them the unit power was developed.

Otto F. Dubach, principal, acted as chairman at Central. The judges were Miss Nettie Huff of Huff's Business college, Miss Elizabeth Scott, former Manual debate coach and Mr. Floyd C. Holmes, of Northeast. Miss Sadie Mac Millan of Paseo was alternate judge. The chairman at East High school was Principal Nowlin and the judges consisted of Mr. Guy V. Price, of the Kansas City Teachers' college; Miss Julia Guyer, history teacher at Northeast High school; and Mr. Ogg, instructor of mathematics at Paseo High School.

In all four debates the main speeches on both sides were well organized and delivered, and at no time during the debates were the contests permanently decided. The rebuttals revealed the power of all the teams. Sharp and decisive, a continual fire of questions and replies hurled from one team to the other.

Next year, with the return of five veterans, Mary Webb, Dorothy Lane, Katherine Burnett, Edith Wells and Lucille Nairn, all of whom were juniors this year, it is strongly and justly predicted that Central's representatives on the debaters' platform will again be successful in securing premier honors and in support of their enviable reputation by winning for the second consecutive year. The success of both the girls' and boys' team this year was dependent upon almost identical factors. Co-operation among the team members, the presentation of compact, well-balanced cases in the development of which each speaker aided almost equally; these things may be defined as large factors in the success of Central's intellectual contestants.

SCENE FROM "HONOR BRIGHT"

"HONOR BRIGHT"

A THREE act comedy by Meredith and Kenyon Nicholson, "Honor Bright," was presented Friday and Saturday nights, December 17 and 18, in the auditorium. The thirty-third annual fall play was directed by Miss Virginia Robertson. Replete with humor, snap and originality the production entertained large and responsive audiences each evening.

In conjunction with the usual effort the play was also given with an aim toward the raising of a sum of money to enable the purchasing of dimmers for the stage.

The plot of "Honor Bright" centers around the difficulties and complications involved when Richard Barrington invites his fiancée Tot Marvel, a chorus girl, to his parents' summer home at Beach Haven, Massachusetts, for a visit.

Dick, a well bred but somewhat daring son of a wealthy, prominent New England family becomes infatuated with Tot Marvel, a chorus girl in the Broadway sensation, "Snap-it-up." After Barrington has invited Tot to his home for a visit he learns that his wealthy aunt and uncle, the Reverend and Mrs. William Carton are also making a short stay. As Dick wishes to be the heir of the Carton fortune he feels it important that Miss Marvel make an excellent impression on his staid relation. Imagine his surprise and disgust when Tot's trunk arrives promptly but the chorus girl does not appear. While Dick, almost frantic with her absence worries and frets. Honor Bright, a well bred, young and enterprising book agent calls at the home. Dick succeeds in persuading this cultured and winsome girl to fill Tot's absence. The plan succeeds until Tot arrives. Owing to an escapade in which she was nearly imprisoned she was unable to be on time.

With the advent of Tot, Dick realizes that he is desperately in love with Honor and has not the slightest inclination toward Tot. The situation is critical until Aunt Carton voices her opinion that she has never believed Honor Bright to be a chorus girl. This is relieving. When Bill Drum, the blustering but humorous press agent arrives, all the clouds show their silver lining.

SCENE FROM "HONOR BRIGHT"

Gathering up Ouija, Tot's pet pup, and taking Tot by the arm he departs for the sorcery made by his unscrupulous, plotting cousin. But, contrary to the cousin's justice of the peace, leaving Honor and Dick enfolded, each in the others arms.

The success of the play was due largely to the capability of the cast. Billy Weeks captivated the audience with her successful interpretation of Honor Bright on Friday night.

Lois Bridges excelled in the following performance. The nature of Richard Barrington was typified by Paul Reichard and Paul Gribben with their nervous and emotional temperaments.

Tot Marvel was presented in a charming and breezy fashion by Virginia Lohefner and Patsy Gilday. Mrs. Carton was played commendably by Florence Naysmith and Edith Wells, while her husband, the Rt. Reverend had no equal when portrayed by Cecil Rogers and Jack Morris. The enthusiastic applause and laughter of the audience bespoke the success of Watts the butler, by Jack Parsell and Herman Ferguson. Russell Huggins as the Reverend James Schooley reduced the audience to the wildest merriment with his feminine characteristics.

Other members of the cast who did outstanding work were: Melbourne Ford, as the messenger boy; Francis Tiffany and William Morgan, as the chauffer; Grant Anderson and Chilton Creason in the role of Foster, the enterprising gardener; Florence Hoffman and Florence Fields, depicting meek Annie, the maid; Irwin Spiegels portraying Simpson, the sheriff; the role of Maggie, the irate cook was upheld by Rosalyn Shear and Velma McIntyre; Stanley Keiter and Francis Tiffany enacted the role of Jones, deputy sheriff commendably.

Many prominent factors figured in the success of the production. The time and effort given by Miss Robertson in the direction, coupled with her ability, was the greatest of these factors. To J. M. Lukens and C. O. Williams, as business manager and stage manager, respectively; A. H. Roberts, auditorium manager; and G. M. Lortz, manager; Sol Studna, properties; George Wopat, electrician; and Harold Manuel, also deserve an ample portion of praise.

SCENE FROM "THE HEART OF PADDY WHACK"

"THE HEART OF PADDY WHACK"

HEART of Paddy Whack", the annual spring play was presented on Friday and Saturday nights, April 22 and 23. The production was a three-act Irish comedy by Rachel Crothers. It was directed by Miss Virginia Robertson. The "Heart of Paddy Whack" was a very interesting play based on a romance of Old Ireland, in the sixteenth century. The charming plot centers around Dennis O'Malley, an Irish gentleman of the old school, who had taken a small girl, Mona Cairn into his home to rear. The girl's father and mother died when she was but a child of three. Dennis cared for her as his own child, and under the careful surveillance of his housekeeper, Bridget O'Riley, Mona was raised with all the care and love which could have been given her by her parents. Miss Margaret Flinn, a neighbor spinster, had waited a long, wearisome ten years for Dennis to ask her hand in marriage, but was destined to disappointment.

True to the present conditions, there are in Ireland many poor and needy people who constantly prey upon those in more fortunate circumstances. Granny, Michael and little Nora illustrate the poverty that exists among the poorer classes of the Irish.

Humorous situations are prevalent and intertwine throughout the play. There are four neighborhood friends who engage in a quarrel over the sale of a horse. Mr. and Mrs. O'Dowd, the former owners of the horse may be looked upon as crafty salesmen while Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis are the credulous but unfortunate buyers.

When the story opens, Mona, a girl of twenty has just returned from Dublin where she had been in school for two years. Her presence in the house not only disturbed Bridget, who expected to have her smooth and easy ways upset, but her designs upon Dennis might be thwarted. Margaret Flinn was comforted to a large extent by the timely arrival of Lawrie Linnering, a handsome dapper young man just returned from Dublin to the village, where his father, the Squire owned immense estates. Lawrie was instantly infatuated by Mona, and his father willingly gave his consent to the marriage on condition that Dennis would turn over the marriage dower. Dennis, however, had inwardly loved Mona, also, and had hidden his love all the years. It was with great consternation and not a little surprise that Lawrie realized he was not loved by the winsome Mona, when, one summer evening, she rebuked severely for the attention he bestowed upon her. The truth of the whole situation was explained in the inner attitude of Mona toward Dennis. This girl realized she was infatuated with her guardian but was unable to make him understand her attitude, and it was entirely beyond the comprehension of Dennis that he was not loved by Mona.

Various complications being ironed out, however, it was firmly revealed to Dennis that he was the preferred suitor and the play ended happily with the debonair Lawrie and Miss Margaret Flinn taking second honors in their respective choices of a spouse.

The leads of Dennis O'Malley and Mona Cairn were cast double, as were practically all the other parts. On Friday night Dennis O'Malley was ably portrayed by Lewis Gabbert, while Katherine Peirce, playing opposite him as Mona won the hearts of the audience with her winsome manner. Paul Reichard won admiration as Lawrie Linnering, the unsuccessful lover of Mona, as did also Jack Parsell in the roll of Squire Linnering, the money-grasping, scheming father. The characterization of Bridget O'Riley and Miss Margaret Flinn were successfully given by Edna Hemperly and Glenna Hahn.

In the Saturday night cast, Cecil Rogers as Dennis and Mildred Thomas as Mona made the most of their leads by equalling the success of the Friday night cast. Frank Dubach gave a pleasing and well-portrayed characterization of Lawrie Linnering, while his father, Squire Linnering was realistically produced this night by Herman Ferguson. Margaret Bradfield excelled in the part of Bridget as did Pauline Busch in the clever role of Miss Flinn.

Others in the cast who deserve special mention and who performed exceedingly well are: Rose Bayles as Nora, a child; Melbourne Ford and Velma Reece, as Michael, her brother; Granny, taken by Marjorie Lentz and Josephine Scroggs; Shirley Metzger and Ortis Johnson as Mr. O'Dowd; Dorothy Dameron and Marian Brenner as Mrs. O'Dowd, his wife; Mr. McGinnis, another peasant, by Richard Park, who played both nights; and Mrs. McGinnis, his wife, by Elizabeth Johannes and Mary M. Korfhage.

"Heart of Paddy Whack" was dedicated to the class of 1926, since that class furnished part of the money which was used to purchase the rheostats that operated throughout the play.

The success of this production is due to the talent and untiring efforts of Miss Virginia Robertson, the director. Others who helped to make this play a success are the stage crew, composed of Weir Mackie, Sol Studna and George Wopat; the business manager, C. O. Williams; director of properties, G. M. Lortz; and the auditorium manager, A. H. Roberts.

SCENE FROM "YEOMEN OF THE GUARD"

"YEOMEN OF THE GUARD"

YEOMEN of the Guard," a Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera was presented on the nights of November 19 and 20, by the Choral and Glee clubs in the Central auditorium under the direction of Miss Mari F. Whitney. A series of Gilbert and Sullivan operas have been produced by the music department and with ever increasing success. The first opera produced was a medley of favorite songs and choruses from different Gilbert and Sullivan productions, all combined under the title of "All at Sea." This opera was in 1920. "The Mikado" was presented in 1921 and proved so successful that it was given a repeated performance the following year, and with even greater prosperity. In 1924 the opera was "Pinafore" which was given a two night run before large audiences. The production of "Pirates of Penzance" the following year proved the popularity of the opera. Three nights were required to accommodate patrons and in each production the play reached the ultimate height of success. Last year "Iolanthe" was selected and it, too, acclaimed a great success. The rapid growth of the popularity of this type of entertainment in Central High School is easily apparent. From the year of 1920, when it was found difficult to sell tickets for but a one-night performance, the annual opera of the Choral and Glee clubs has rapidly found favor in the eyes of the Central patrons until this year it was enthusiastically received by both the students and the elders who attended. The music department in presenting yearly such excellent entertainment has made a noticeable and unique contribution to both the music and the dramatics of Central.

The story of the opera is perhaps the most entertaining and humorous that has been seen on the Central stage. The plot of the "Yeomen of the Guard" deals mainly with the dashing, philosophical and romantic Colonel Fairfax and Elsie, a beautiful strolling singer. Colonel Fairfax has been condemned to death on the charge of sorcery made by his unscrupulous, plotting cousin. But, contrary to the cousin's expectations he marries Elsie on the eve of his execution so that she, instead of his unworthy cousin may reap the benefits he is to leave behind. With the assistance of his friend Sergeant Meryll, Captain of the Tower Guard, whose life Fairfax has saved twice, the Colonel escapes from his prison cell and masquerades as Sergeant Meryll's son, Leonard. Saucy little Phoebe Meryll, who aided in Colonel Fairfax's escape, is ardently and jealously wooed by the grim and yet comical Wilfred, the head jailor. His love is for naught, however, because winsome Phoebe has lost her heart to the unheeding Colonel. Dame Carruthers, the housekeeper of the Tower, has a desperate horror of becoming a permanent widow and thus exercises her womanly wiles on the unwilling sergeant Meryll who has no desire for matrimony with this persistent old lady. Jack Point, the poor and clever jester, sighs in vain for the love of Elsie, but she too, has been captivated by the Colonel. The opera abounds with excitement and humor and ends with everyone contented.

Colonel Fairfax was well played by Robert Bohannon and Ruth Leonard who played opposite the Colonel as Elsie won the applause of the spectators. Phoebe Meryll, portrayed by Roma Robeson, captivated the audience with her winning ways and beautiful singing. Donald Tiff, as the jester added much zest to the performance with his wit and singing. Dame Carruthers and Sergeant Meryll's performance, by Carol Clendennin and William Cade respectively, lent much humor to the situation while the characters of Sir Richard and Sergeant Meryll's son were ably upheld by John Arcella and Clarence Philbrook. Gordon Houser may be commended on his excellent characterization of Wilfred and credit should be given to Albert Preston as the Headsman. The humor was increased by the six Yeomen: Billy Blanchard, Edward Myers, Howard Greene, Albert Lyons, Robert Warr, and John Selover.

Much credit should also be given to the following for their capable management: Miss Mari F. Whitney, director; J. M. Lukens, business manager; A. H. Roberts, auditorium manager; G. M. Lortz and Miss Coah Henry, scenery; A. E. Harley, Printing; and the stage crew: C. O. Williams, George Wopat, Weir Mackie, Harold Manuel and Sol Studna.

Geo. Wopat, Sol Studna, Weir Mackie

STAGE CREW

WITH the invocation of the activity group and its natural increase of stage entertainments, the stage crew has leaped in the limelight as never before. Barely a day passes which does not see the stage crew hard at work in the many and various phases of which it has charge of for years one of the established honorary organizations in Central has been this crew, composed of boys, who are interested in the mechanical features of presenting plays, motion pictures, and the other entertainments before the footlights. Aside from this interest these students must be the characterization of diligence and efficiency. One honor point was earned by each member of the crew, which consisted of Sol Studna, Weir Mackie, and George Wopat.

Inaugurating the dimmers presented by the class of nineteen twenty-six, a certain amount of technical knowledge was required as to the operations involving the regulation and arrangement of lights behind the curtain and in the auditorium. Each play was assisted by the rapidity of the in the scene shifting and the handling of furniture, and other properties. Spotlights gleaming from the balcony are operated under the careful supervision of one of these men.

With the addition of a regular showing of motion pictures more knowledge was entailed as to the efficient operation of the machine. A familiarity with the entertainment given and a careful exercise of their own judgments in the important matters was also required.

Aside from the many minor productions and entertainments given this year, three plays were also given. "Yeomen of the Guard," "Honor Bright," and the "Heart of Paddy Whack," all three of which had two night runs. Each of the three productions contained three individual scenes, which also increased the work. That the enormous successes of these plays were due in no small part to the efficiency of the men behind the scenes there is no doubt.

CHEER LEADERS

T WAS under the able and energetic direction of six cheerleaders that loyal Centralites voiced their sentiments upon the field of battle. The "big three," all juniors, are David Newcomer, head cheerleader; Charles Hackler and Lewis Gabbert assistants. Isadore Greenbaum, Richard Hawk, and John Arcella were the student council's choice of alternates.

With the most original garb and antics displayed for some time, these six succeeded in drawing from the stands that volume of support most necessary to any athletic team's success. From "derbies" to sombreros, from suspenders to furnace gloves, their costumes were clever and their efforts highly successful.

Undoubtedly the unusual success of Central athletic teams this year was in no small part due to the inspiration furnished by that "Central Spirit" reverberating from the stands.

Throughout the year the six boys were before the stands coaxing them to mightiest efforts and greater display of lung capacity. Whether leading the cheers for an injured rival or hushing a penalty the cheerleaders were ever true sportsmen and much credit is due them for their work.

ATHLETIC DIRECTORS

THE ENVIABLE record established by Central in the high school leagues has been largely due to the earnest efforts and co-operation of our three faculty athletic directors: Louis E. Menze, head coach; Harry S. Slaymaker, assistant coach; and T. E. Talmadge, business manager.

Coach Menze has completed his eighth year as head director of athletics at Central during which time the physical education department has shown consistent progress. It has been said of Menze that "There is probably not a coach in Kansas City who does not command the respect of his boys, but something akin to hero worship seems to spur Central's teams to deeds of greatness. Coach Menze is fairly idolized by his crew, which, coupled with his keen knowledge of the game makes him an ideal high school coach."

Mr. Harry S. Slaymaker, a graduate of the class of '18, has returned this year in the capacity of assistant coach. After graduating from Central Mr. Slaymaker attended the University of Illinois from which he graduated in nineteen and twenty-four after establishing a brilliant athletic record there. He came back to Kansas City as instructor in physical training at Westport Junior High school, but this year was transferred to Central. The success of Central's second teams bear testimony to coach Slaymaker's ability.

Mr. T. E. Talmadge, head of the business department at Central, has also materially aided the athletic department by his eleven years of service as faculty business manager. Thru his efforts Central's athletics have been put on a paying basis.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

INTRODUCTION

THOSE who witnessed the bonfire and snake dance on Saturday night, November 13, which closed the 1926 football season, can well testify to the enthusiasm with which Central rooters celebrated the team's undefeated season. Along with the championship pennant, Central permanently annexed the Yale and Harvard cups and succeeded in placing six players on the all-star team. The six honored all-stars are Dubach, Madison, Warden, Terwilliger, Bresette and Corti.

PRE-SEASON GAMES

Central opened the '26 season by winning for the sixth consecutive year her annual battle with St. Joseph, by a seven to six score. As the score indicates it was a hard fought game and both teams remained scoreless until the last quarter. In the last quarter, however, both teams scored and Central gained her extra point with a successful drop kick. The other pre-season game was played at Excelsior Springs and resulted in a scoreless tie. Central clearly outplayed the Excelsior Springs team, but with a muddy field and the breaks of the game against them the Blue and White failed to score.

FIRST GAME

A scoreless tie with Westport in a sea of mud marked the opening of the interscholastic league games, on October ninth. The condition of the field hampered the playing and though the Westport goal was neared several times, Central's gridsters failed to pierce the defense presented by the Blue and Gold. At the start of the second quarter, Central succeeded in placing the ball on Westport's three yard line, but failed to cross the goal. The ball was placed close to the goal again in the third quarter but still the Westport line held and the game ended scoreless.

SECOND GAME

The following Saturday Central and Northeast staged one of the most spectacular games ever witnessed in the high school league, when they battled to a seven to seven tie. Throughout, the game was full of thrills, remarkable runs and sensational passing. Central's counters came early in the second quarter when Dubach, quarterback, drove four yards thru the line for a touchdown and then caught a pass from Severs for the seventh point. Shortly after that a long pass and a perfect drop-kick by a Northeast back tied the score. Thereafter the two teams battled on even terms until the final gun.

THIRD GAME

In the third round of play, the Central offense started functioning and Manual was left on the small end of a nineteen to six score. Manual opened the scoring by carrying a Central fumble for a goal, but failed to score thereafter. Central's three goals and one drop kick put the game on "ice."

FOURTH GAME

In the next game the Blue and White team smothered the Westport team with an avalanche of touchdowns, which, when the game ended, totaled fifty-one. Westport failed to score. Throughout, the game was rather uninteresting, due to the one-sidedness of the affair. Central seemed able to score at will even with the second string playing.

FIFTH GAME

In the second clash with Northeast, the next week, a twenty-five yard drop kick by Dubach in the last quarter gave Central the interscholastic championship for '26. The two teams fought for three quarters on even terms with no score until a series of plunges brought the ball to Northeast's fourteen yard line. After three more plunges had failed to gain the kick was attempted and resulted in a championship for Central.

SIXTH GAME

Central concluded her football season, by trouncing Manual twenty-seven to nothing, on Saturday, November 13th. The game was featured by the stellar line plunging by Madison and the accurate passing of Warden. Central scored every quarter and all goals but one were made good for seven points. By winning this game, Central further strengthened her right to the inter-scholastic championship and completed an undefeated season.

SECOND TEAM FOOTBALL.

FOOTBALL

WITH four victories and two defeats the second string football men accomplished the primary purpose of a second team—that of providing hard scrimmage for and helping round out a winning first team. Although not the champions, they have worked unceasingly in their efforts to aid the first team, and much credit should be given to that group composed largely of sophomores and juniors, under the leadership of Jewell Campbell, fullback.

In the season there were no outside games. The first clash was with Westport at Tramway Park. Green, Westport's one man offense, was responsible for their consistent ground gaining and finally a touchdown. Central's only counter came when Campbell ran 45 yards for a touchdown. The final score stood 7 to 6, a hard fought Westport victory. This game was later forfeited to Central because of the ineligibility of Green, Westport half.

In the second contest Central met Northeast on the Tramway field and decisively routed the invaders, piling up a score of 26 to 6. At the outset, Campbell, Central half, caught the ball on the kick-off and ran 60 yards through a broken field for a touchdown. The aerial work of the reserves was the feature of the game.

The next round found Central paired off with Manual. In this game Manual's championship team clearly outplayed the Central men, chalking up a 19-0 score against them. The Central team seemed a trifle overconfident and tightened only when it was too late. In this game Phipps and Glass played well for Central.

The Blue and White gridsters were successful over Westport to the tune of 16-6. Again it was the long passes, Campbell to Mallon, that paved the way to victory. Campbell, Phipps and Glass made touchdowns for the Reserves.

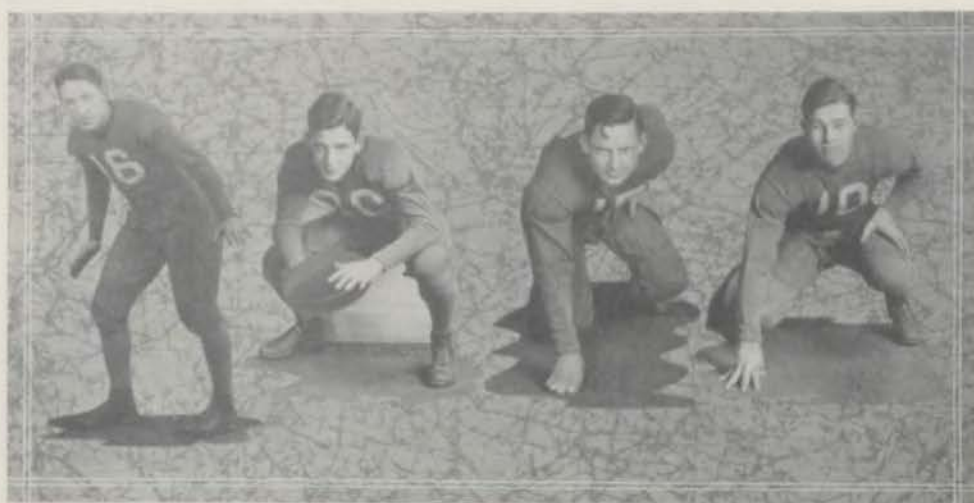

The following game was forfeited to Central by Northeast because of extremely cold weather, as our team had previously won over the Northeast Reserves.

In the final game of the season the Central seconds were completely smothered in the Manual onslaught. Time after time they attempted to penetrate the Manual defense, but in vain.

In summary it may be said that the team showed fine spirit throughout the season, and are prepared for a hard fight next year.

FIRST TEAM BASKETBALL

First row: Kauffman, Arnold, Fuchs, Madison, Roadcap, Waddell.
 Second row: Warden, Hartman, Sample, Brewer, Burwinkle, Davis.

BASKETBALL REVIEW

FOLLOWING in the footsteps of her successful football team, Central's basketball team this year closed the season in first place, having won twelve of the thirteen games played. Three of the players were honored with all-star positions, those three being Arnold as captain and forward, Hartman as guard, and Sample at center. "This year's team has the finest record of any basketball aggregation in the last eight years," is Coach Menze's statement regarding our 1927 basketball team.

The first game of the season, December 10, gave the Central team a twenty-eight to twenty-five victory over the alumni. The victory came as a surprise, for the alumni team was exceptionally strong being composed of universal stars and members of the Ivanhoe team. The following week Central returned from Jefferson City with the long end of a fifty-nine to twenty score. Kauffman's stellar shooting in this game accounted for twelve of the goals. The last pre-season game was with Kansas City, Kansas High school and resulted in another victory for Central; the score being thirty-four to fourteen. Hartman's defensive abilities were largely responsible for the low score of the visitors.

Interscholastic competition opened January 15 with Central winning from Northeast by a twenty-nine to twenty score. This game clearly showed the smoothness of Central's offense and the exceptional strength of the defense. In this game, as before, Kauffman starred with his uncanny shooting.

Friday of the following week Central won her fifth victory by defeating Southwest, a team not as yet in the league, by a twenty-nine to twelve score. The lowness of the opponent's score shows the perfect functioning of the Blue and White defense.

A victory over Manual on the night of January 19 gave Central first place in the interscholastic league, a position she maintained until the end of the season. The score of this game was thirty-four to twenty-six.

Central's next game was with Central High school of St. Joseph and was concluded by a twenty-two to nine score and another Blue and White victory. The score does not indicate the hard fast game that was played, and although St. Joseph had a strong team the lack of substitutes resulted in her defeat. Roadcap and Sample were the most outstanding players of the game.

February 5, the team went to the enemy's camp and smothered the Paseo team with a fifty to nine score. Again Hartman's strong defensive abilities kept the Paseo team from scoring except at long range.

The game following, with Rockhurst, was one of the most thrilling of the season. With Rockhurst holding a twenty-two to twenty lead and only two minutes to play, Hartman succeeded in netting two goals and Sample one, which gave Central the twenty-seven to twenty-three victory. The game was played at Rockhurst and the long passes from one side of the court to the other kept the Menzemen busy at all times.

The following Friday the league schedule was resumed and Central emerged triumphant for the tenth consecutive time by defeating Westport thirty-four to twenty-two. Fuchs, a guard, carried off the individual scoring honors of the game by sinking five goals.

A twenty-three to eleven victory for Central was the outcome of the second encounter with Northeast. This, too, was a hard fought game with both teams showing excellent defensive ability.

On March 4 came one of the biggest "dope" upsets of the season, when the Manual quintet downed the Blue and White with a thirty-four to twenty-two score. Central forwards seemed to be off for they missed several "set-ups." Umphrey, of Manual, was the star of the game and took high point honors with five goals to his credit.

The interscholastic league season was concluded with a second victory over Westport with a twenty-nine to twenty-five score. The game was close throughout with Westport leading at the close of the first and third quarters. Sample, of Central, and Smith, of Westport, were probably the most outstanding players of this concluding game.

By winning the city championship Central earned the right to compete in the state contest.

SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL

First row: Whitaker, Withers, Campbell, Craighead, Lipscomb, Stockdale, Second row: Harbaugh, Peltzman, Mallon, Dillon, Lawson.

BASKETBALL

THE Central Reserves, under the guidance of Assistant Coach Slaymaker, and captained by Berry Dillon, held high the Blue and White, bringing to Central the 1926 interscholastic championship. There was an unusual amount of material this year, and prospects point to another championship first team next year. The team started in a mediocre fashion; before the season was well under way, the Reserves developed into a fast, smooth running machine. Following in the footsteps of the first team the reserves succeeded in winning all but one of the league games, and won the pennant.

The first interscholastic game found a marked improvement in the squad and a 29 to 8 victory over Manual started the team on their championship dash. Up to this time Hawk had been the main offensive star of the team.

A week's intermission in the league gave the second team a chance to display their merit against an outside force. Friday night the seconds easily defeated the Paseo team 20 to 10 and the following evening trounced the Ace o' Diamonds 19-10.

The Blue and White basketeers decisively defeated Westport in their first encounter by administering a 34 to 13 beating. Dillon was responsible for a large percentage of the goals.

Maintaining their undefeated record in the scholastic league the reserves defeated Northeast in a fast contest 13 to 10. The defensive work of Craighead and Campbell was an outstanding feature of the game.

The first defeat of the season was at the hands of Manual, the team occupying the cellar position. The contest was very close and the team battled until the closing minutes only to lose 18 to 13.

The final game with Westport proved the supremacy of the Blue and White Reserves. By a 28 to 8 score the seconds walked over the Southsiders in a commendable fashion.

In all it was a very successful season and much credit should be given by the student body to the members of this team who worked constantly in preparation for the interscholastic league next year, in order to repeat the success that is characteristic of the Menzemen.

TRACK SQUAD

 Third row: T. Bowers, Atkins, Brannon, Hamilton, Black, Jurden, Stoeltzing, Green, Whelihan, Battenberg.
 Fourth row: Funk, Sullivan, Ogle, Murphy, Levy, Ramage, Maloney, Pickett.

TRACK REVIEW

IN THE Central field, May 8, the four high schools again met in the annual Quadrangular Meet, which brought to a close high school athletics in Kansas City for the 1926 school year. As in each of the previous meets this year, Central emerged from the contest victorious, and with a relatively wide margin over her opponents. Her total of 88% points was seconded by Northeast, with 64½ points. Westport and Manual placed third and fourth with 55% and 32 points respectively.

The most commendable performance was the work of McFarland, Central Captain. His mark of 12 feet 7 inches in the pole vault broke the former city record by 6½ inches. He also set a new city record by doing the 100 yard high hurdles in 13.4 seconds. McFarland with 13 points, Hursley with 12 points, and Oldham with 8 points were Central's high point men. These three with Jacobstein also placed second in the half-mile relay.

Central scored eight firsts and eight seconds, to nose out its nearest competitor for first and second place honors. Westport was second with seven firsts and four seconds.

CENTRALIAN

Central Second in K. C. A. C. Meet

With a total of 13 points, Central's indoor track team placed second in the high school class of the K. C. A. C. invitational meet Saturday, February 19. First place went to Northeast by a total of 24 points. Manual with 11, Westport with 2, Paseo with 1, and Southwest with none, were the other rankings.

In the 50-yard dash, the two Northeast entries Dorsett and McDaniels finished first and second respectively. Alspach, Central's hope in the sprint ran a fine race winning two points by coming in third. The 440-yard dash was won by Baughman of Northeast, making two places for the Purple team. Alspach came a strong third, while Lawson fought it out for fourth with the Westport runner.

The best race of the evening was the 880-yard run. Auld on the Northeast team won five more points by coming in first and giving that team a comfortable margin over the others. Third place was captured by Bowers of Central.

Central's "A" relay team won second place, and the "B" team repeated the performance by taking the position after Northeast's first place. Westport gained one more point by securing third.

Central Second in K. U.-M. U. Meet

In the second competition of the season, Central's indoor track team placed second in the M. U.-K. U. meet, Saturday, March 5. With a total of 19 points the Blue and White ranked second only to Northeast, which accumulated 22 points.

Central showed strength in every event by winning first and fourth in the 440-yard run and placing second in all others except the half-mile. Manual with a total of nine points placed third and Paseo amassed four points to gain fourth. Both Westport and Southwest failed to show any running strength and did not place in any of the five events.

In the 50-yard dash, Dorsett of Northeast, repeated his performance in the K. C. A. C. meet by finishing first in a field of six runners. Alspach of Central, likewise duplicated his own record and placed second in this event.

In the 440-yard dash Lawson, running in fine form, easily placed himself at the head of the others and finished there. Alspach won fourth thereby really placing second when the outsiders are excluded.

Northeast captured the 4-lap relay with Central second. Paseo finished third. Central was also second in the 8-lap relay with Northeast in first place. Manual came in third.

With the termination of this meet it was realized that Northeast was leading in the interscholastic field, with Central as a close second. The work of the other schools was apparently of no importance.

Seven Centralites Qualify for the State Meet

Central led in qualifying athletes for the meet to be held in Columbia. Seven Blue and White athletes placed in addition to capturing the half-mile relay in the trials held Wednesday, April 27, among the eight high schools on the Northeast field. Only two persons can represent each district, thus it was necessary to hold the elimination meet among the schools of Kansas City, to determine the representatives for the State Meet to be held in Columbia, Missouri.

Northeast places six men, Westport five, and Manual and Paseo one each. Southwest, East, and Lathrop Trade school failed to qualify a man.

Those qualifying from Central were: 440-yard dash—Lawson, Wheelock; broad jump—Alspach, Pope; half-mile relay—Alspach, Tiffany, Wheelock, Lawson; shot-put—Corti; 220 low hurdles; 120 high hurdles—Blaco.

Dual Meet to Central

The Blue and White track team captured the dual meet from the Westport squad on Central field by a score of 47 to 38, Friday, April 29. A strong wind prevented any record-breaking performances. However the commendable work of Alspach and Blaco won the meet for Central.

The feature of the event was the broad jump which was won by Alspach by a 21 foot, 5 inch jump. Blaco lunged into the tape and barely escaped a tie with Kite of Westport in the 100-yard hurdles. Another thrilling event was the 220-yard dash in which Johanning and Alspach ran side by side the entire distance.

In the 100-yard dash, Central placed second with Westport in first place. Blaco captured first place in the 100-yard hurdles. The 220-yard dash was won by Alspach. The 880-yard dash was likewise captured by Bowers of Central. In the 440-yard dash, Lawson of Central, won first place. Corti won the shot-put, and the broad jump was won by Alspach. Pole vault was won by Whittaker of Central. The last event, the half-mile relay, was won by the Central team composed of Alspach, Tiffany, Wheelock, and Lawson.

TENNIS REVIEW

TENNIS, during the 1926 season, proved very successful for Central, considering the limited number of players who participated for a place on the teams.

Honors went to Close and Ayres, Westport doubles team, who defeated Central's Representatives, Byron Wilson and Leonard Prosser, in the final match, which was won with difficulty after five hotly contested sets. The other doubles team from Central, composed of Ted Houx and Richard Yocum, reached the semi-finals before being defeated by Close and Ayres from Westport.

Central suffered a setback when Jack Whelihan and Ura Hollis, representing in the singles, were eliminated in the second round, Whelihan being defeated by Ransom of Westport; Johsson, Northeast man eliminating Hollis. The winner of the singles was none other than the redoubtable Junior Cohen, representing Southwest, who handily disposed of Ransom, Westport mainstay, in the final round.

Contestants from Paseo High School and Southwest High School appeared for the first time this season, in competition with the other schools.

Every member of the Central team was playing for the first time in the interscholastic tournament, and it must be said that they did remarkably well, appearing as they did for their first tournament matches.

Several promising candidates are eligible for the squad of 1927, and next year should disclose a team worthy of the school's support. It is anticipated that better fortune will befall our candidates the coming year, than has befallen our racket wielders of 1926.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC MANAGERS

GIRLS' ATHLETIC REVEIW

WITH HOCKEY stick and ball, and a drive down the field, Girls' Athletics, under the direction of Miss Dorothy V. Bahe and Miss Rebecca Leibengood, was placed as one of the foremost of school activities. Miss Bahe has been in charge of Central physical education department for eight years, and through her efforts during this period there has been an increasing interest in girls' athletics. Both she and Miss Leibengood, with their pep, enthusiasm, and thorough knowledge of their work, have made gymnasium one of the favorite classes of all the girls.

This year Miss Bahe is coaching both the junior and senior teams while Miss Leibengood has the sophomores.

Centrals' physical education department undertakes many special features during the year, in addition to the regular sports. The first of these, a social event, the annual Hallowe'en Party was held on October 29. Girls in gay costumes spent the evening playing games and dancing. A specialty dance was presented by Virginia Allen and Myrtle Arnette. As a final climax there was the Grand March, led by members of the Central Olympian Club. Following, refreshments of popcorn balls and apples were served. It was another success for the gymnasium department.

The receipts from this party were used to purchase the schematograph machine used to record a girl's posture. This enables the instructor to make the needed corrections.

This year, as in previous years, the department had a part in the R.O.T.C. circus, held in Convention Hall on Saturday night, April 9. Sixty girls, in blue and white costumes danced an English folk dance, "Bean Setting," in which wands were used. Two clog dances, "Old Bill," and "Georgia Male Quartet," were presented. Twenty couples took part in a French Dance, "The Minuet."

HOCKEY REVIEW

HOCKEY came first in the series of sports this year. As the Girls' Interscholastic tennis, the only inter school athletic event for girls, was discontinued this year. During the first months, hockey was played in the gymnasium class period. In October, practices for the sophomores, juniors and seniors were held after school, each class meeting one night a week. Many girls answered the hockey call, and competition for the places on the teams was high. In November, the first and second teams were selected for the inter-class hockey tournament which is held each year. Each team elected a captain. Billy Cary, Mary Louise Brown, and Frances Hayward were chosen as captains of the sophomore, junior and senior first teams respectively. The tournament started, with ideal hockey weather prevailing. The first game was between the sophomores and seniors. As one would expect, the seniors came out ahead, leaving the field with a 5-0 score in their favor. Although the score might indicate a slow game, this was not the case. The sophomores displayed playing worth noticing in regard to next year's tournament. In the second game, between the sophomores and juniors, the former entered with high hopes. Each team played a good game, fighting hard, but to the surprise of many, the sophomores realized their hopes in a 4-2 score. Dope favored the seniors in the last game of the tournament, seniors against juniors, but every junior hoped that by some miracle they might avenge their defeat at the hands of sophomores by winning from the senior team. However, the seniors showed their superiority, and by defeating the juniors, 3-0, claimed the championship. The second senior team also came out victorious, winning the second team championship. This year two of the games were refereed by the gymnasium instructor from Central Junior High School, Miss Flunker refereeing the senior-sophomore game. Aileen Hinote, hockey manager refereed the sophomore-junior game. All practices and games were managed by the hockey manager.

At the close of the season, the instructors picked an all-star team. Eight seniors won positions of the team, two sophomores and one junior. The following won positions on the all-star team: Right wing, Virginia Allen, senior; right inside, Kathryn Gray, senior; center-forward, Sally Lu Cary, senior; left inside, Billie Cary, sophomore; left wing, La Verne Marshall, senior; right halfback, Mildred Heal, senior; right fullback, Frances Brandberg, sophomore; center half, Ione Bodley, junior; left full back, Aileen Hinote, senior; left halfback, Geneva Newfarmer, senior; goal guard, Marion Jennings, senior.

BASKETBALL REVIEW

BASKETBALL again proved to be the most popular sport with the girls. Two months were spent in intensive practice after school by those trying for places on the teams. Then the first, second and third teams of each class were chosen. Sally Lu Cary, basketball manager, arranged the schedule for the inter-class tournaments, played in the first part of April. The second and third teams played in the afternoon. The first team played at night. Both the first and second team seniors were entered in this tournament. This necessitated the playing of two games each night.

In the first game of the tournament the second team seniors were defeated by the sophomores, 18-11. The second game that evening proved to be an exciting battle between the senior first team and the juniors. The seniors were victorious, coming out at the long end of a 39-29 score. Both games of the second night of the tournament were walk-away's for the victors. The two senior teams met in the first game, the first team winning, 49-10. The sophomores were left trailing far behind by the juniors in the second game. The score was 41-8. In the last game of the first round, the teams showed much improvement, all of them playing a faster game. The first game was a 35-25 victory for the seniors. The second team seniors lost to the juniors, 17-23. The score was tied several times during the game; the seniors made the juniors fight hard for their victory. At the end of the first round, the seniors were undefeated, making them the probable champions.

All games were refereed by outside instructors, Miss Amaretta Root of Central Junior High school refereeing the first night, Miss Muriel Hall of Westport Senior High school the second, and Miss Margaret Taylor, of Paseo, the third. Miss Taylor was a gymnasium teacher at Central last year.

Besides the annual inter-class tournament, a color tournament was held. All the games were played after school and managed by Sally Lu Cary, with the help of the seniors. Each hour had its class team, which was named for some color. Miss Bahe's third hour team were the victors.

At the close of the basketball season the all-star team was chosen: Forwards, Sally Lu Cary, Maxine Hackler; center, Hazel James and Rosemary Roth; sid-center, Virginia Allen; guards, De Etta Beedle and Aileen Hinote.

VOLLEY BALL

OLLEY BALL is often said to be the best sport for girls. In this game many girls can play; each one has a responsible part in the game, and must keep wide awake and alert. It takes team work and co-operation on the part of every member of a volley ball team. Volley ball is an excellent game to play in the gymnasium classes, because so many girls can play at one time, thus giving every girl a chance to play during the entire time of the class period.

Each year volley ball gains in popularity among the girls of Central, as can be seen by the increasing number of girls out for this sport. Many more girls tried for places on the team this year than in previous years.

As in the other sports, a regular interclass tournament was held. Sophomore, junior and senior first and second teams were chosen by the coaches and Maxine Hackler, who is volley ball manager this year. The tournament games were played after school.

In addition to the regular interclass tournament, a color tournament was played, just as was held in basketball. Miss Bahe and Miss Leibengood picked a team from their classes. Each was named a color. Color tournaments give a great many girls who do not make the interclass teams, an opportunity to take an active part in the outside sports of the gymnasium department. They have proved very interesting to all the girls as is shown in their willingness to give their time after school to play in these tournaments provided they do not make a first or second interclass team. The girls are given three points for making a class team.

Athletic Awards

At the "Girls Gym Review," those girls who have earned a certain number of points are awarded their letters. The highest athletic honor at Central is the award of a blue felt pillow top with a white felt "C." Each girl must earn a hundred and twenty-five points in order to receive a pillow top. It is every girl's ambition to own a pillow top. Those receiving them this year were: Sally Lu Cary, Aileen Hinote, Frances Hayward, La Verne Marshall, Virginia Allen, Kathryn Gray, Maxine Hackler, and Marian Jennings.

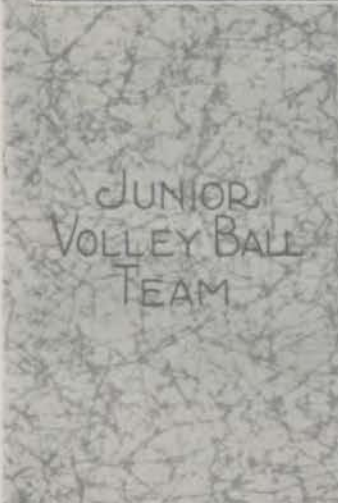

To receive a big "C," each girl must earn one hundred points. The following will be awarded their large "C's" this year: Sally Lu Cary, La Verne Marshall, Aileen Hinote, Frances Hayward, Marion Jennings, Virginia Allen, Kathryn Gray, Maxine Hackler, Geneva Newfarmer, De Etta Beedle, Ione Bodley, and Elizabeth Sibley.

The first award is a small "C" which is given to every girl having earned sixty points. Elda Hartung, Margaret McNichols, Evelyn Berry, Roma Robeson, Geneva Newfarmer, De Etta Beedle, Mildred Heal, Elizabeth Sibley, Ione Bodley, Victoria Crafton, Mary Louise Brown, Norene Welsh, Wilma Weeks, and Dorothy Lane received little "C's" this year.

All awards of the gymnasium department are granted on the basis of the point system. These points may be gained in the following ways: Ten points for membership on a first team for the first and second years and seven points for every year thereafter; five points for membership of second team for the first and second years and three points for the following years; clash leaders, ten points; championship teams, five points; all-star team, five points; swimming team, three points; winner of swimming meet, ten points; first place in an event, one point; hiking ten miles, one point; third year gymnasium, five points; fourth year, ten points; and the sport managers ten points.

SPONSOR MAJOR VIRGINIA ALLEN

Harold Manuel was appointed major of the Central battalion of the R. O. T. C., Friday, January 28, by Captain Harry E. Mitchell, professor of military science and tactics in the Kansas City high schools, upon the recommendation of Staff-sergeant Frank Bowling, and with the approval of Principal Otto F. Dubach.

Virginia Allen was elected sponsor major of the Central battalion of the R. O. T. C. by the girls of the school and the cadets of the unit after preliminary election. Miss Allen received formal recognition of her office at the annual military circus, April 9, where she was presented with a cape and cap.

OFFICERS CLUB

JUNIOR unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps is maintained at Central high school under government supervision. The war department furnishes the uniforms, arms, ammunition and necessary equipment for the use of the unit. The period of training is a three year course, with special emphasis placed on physical development, character building and citizenship training.

Staff-sergeant Frank Bowling, United States Army, the present military instructor, has had charge of the Central unit since June 12, 1923, under Captain H. E. Mitchell, Professor of Military Science and Tactics, Kansas City high schools.

General Order No. 8, Headquarters 7th Corps Area, dated June 7, 1926, designated Central high school of the Kansas City high schools, as an honor high school.

At the fifth annual R. O. T. C. field meet, held in the 110th Engineers' Armory, 3600 Main street, on May 20, 1926, the Central high school R. O. T. C. unit placed first in all four events, company drill, platoon drill, squad drill and individual drill. The Central R. O. T. C. Rifle Team has held the indoor gallery championship for the past three years.

RIFLE TEAM

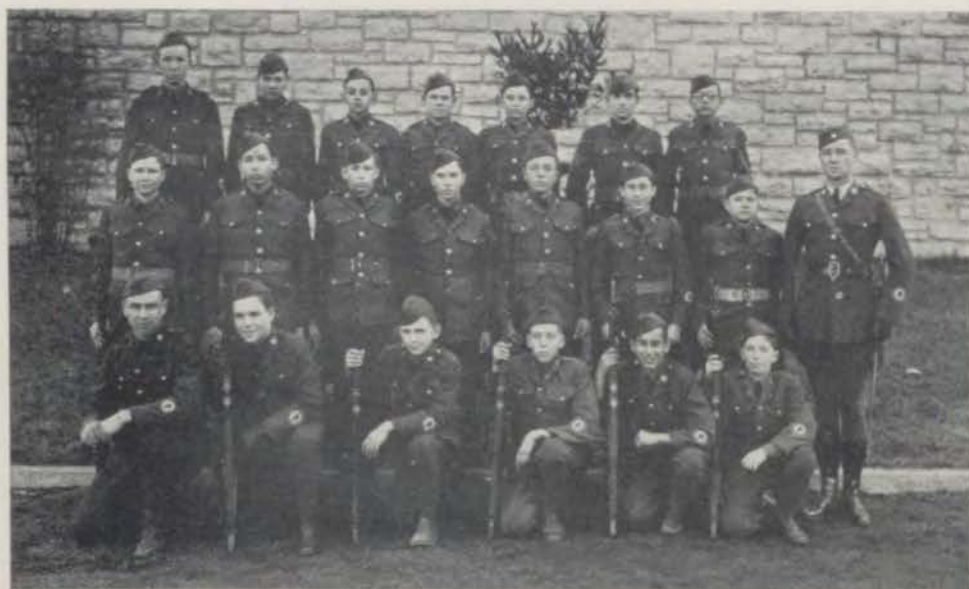

CENTRAL'S Rifle Team, working under the instruction of Staff-sergeant Bowling and captained by Cadet Captain Edward E. Stewart, is a division of military work that cannot go unnoticed. The Central indoor gallery range is considered the best in Kansas City. The first match of the year was the interscholastic contest, in which the Central team placed first, winning a new 22 cal-Springfield rifle. In the City match, also between the high schools, the Central team won the trophy cup offered by the Schmeltzer Arms Company. In the contest covering the entire Seventh Corps Area, which is comprised of the states of North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, and Arkansas, the Kansas City high schools placed sixth, and eight out of the fifteen members of the Kansas City team were members of the Central Battalion. As a result of the high scores made in the Corps Area match by Edward Stewart, Joyce Wright, Shirley Metzger, Harvey Anselm, Albert Lowman, Robert Adelstine, Jack Minturn and Harold Manuel, they have been selected to represent the corps area in the national intercollegiate indoor gallery match.

Markmanship exercises in the R. O. T. C. department of Central are not confined to cadets of the unit. Several members of the Central faculty have taken advantage of the instruction given by Staff-sergeant Bowling in rifle markmanship. Forty girl students of Central have formed a club, known as the Central Girls' Rifle Team, with markmanship as their objective.

WE, the senior class of nineteen hundred twenty-seven, of the school of Central High School, City of Kansas City, State of Missouri being about to leave this school, and in full possession of sound mind, memory, and understanding, and being the age of four years old, do make, publish and declare in loving memory thereof, this, our last will and testament, that is to say:

We bequeath to the faculty our note and other documents over which we have labored as a standard for the coming generation.

To the juniors we leave our biggest hats that their heads may rest in comfort.

To the sophomores for whom we have such "fatherly" affection, we leave the study hall with all its happy memories.

Into the hands of Mr. Dubach we return the school, and hope that he will keep it.

To Mr. Laughlin we leave best wishes for new rules and regulations. Also a carload of "burglar proof locks."

To our old friend Mr. Gunter, we leave the recipe for a new plate lunch.

To Frances Dickerson we leave our bad excuses, tardy admits, and literary societies, "to be treated with care."

To the Slaches we leave our suggestions on "climbing the social ladder."

To the Websters we leave a copy of their song, and solemnly request that they learn the tune.

To the Aristonians we leave two dozen pins with a "pawn" ticket on each.

To the Minervas we leave our style books, poor grades, and winning ways.

To the Franklins we leave a history of the life of Napoleon.

To the Thalias we leave the bills for the Emerson-Thalian dance.

To the Emersons we leave the advice of the "Intellectual Pup."

To the student council we leave a book on parliamentary procedure.

To the High School clubs we leave our problems, and our virtue to be applied weekly to "misguided" youth.

To the school at large we leave a score board to record the great deeds of our predecessors.

Lastly, we, the aforesaid and above mentioned senior class of Central high school, Kansas City, Missouri, do hereby appoint the faculty of the school as executors of this, our last will and testament.

All the rest of our properties not already disposed of, we do give, devise and bequeath into the solicitous hands of Mr. Hedlund, for him to dispose of as he may think most fitting.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hand and official seal this second day of the month of May, A. D., nineteen hundred twenty-seven.

RETROSPECT

September 7—We're off and the annual race for grades (?), education (?), fun (?)—well, whatever it is, we're all glad to be back at Dear Old Central.

September 7—A different atmosphere pervades our halls, twenty-three teachers departing from the straight and narrow to other institutions of learning.

September 8—While they work on the electric pressure we eat cold beans and sandwiches. The electric dishwasher won't work either—what a life!

September 8—The first big grief of the year! P. T. A. discusses problems and plans for more Open Houses this year. Oh well, truth will out.

September 10—Here begins the annual scrimmage—office versus literary societies—strange, they practically agree.

September 10—More grief! A mass meeting of the clubs decides to require a grade average of 2.5 for club members. A change of scenery was also desired, new chaperones being elected by four of the clubs.

TEAMWORK

TEAMWORK on the telephone means courteous, alert cooperation just as teamwork in school or anywhere, whether in work or in play.

Three persons form this telephone "team" (1) the persons calling, (2) the operator and (3) the person called. Being sure of the number desired, speaking distinctly and responding with alacrity, results in better service.

The first requisite of good telephone service requires adequate plant and equipment well maintained, but, second to this equipment, is intelligent cooperation—teamwork—of those at both ends of the line and at the middle.

We appreciate and thank you for lending such cooperation.

HAVE YOU EVER NOTICED THAT THRIFTY HOMES ARE HAPPIEST?

When debt enters, it brings sleepless nights, worry, and strained nerves, none of which are conducive to happiness. But when one saves, the world looks rosier—the chin is higher, the eye brighter, and the step brisker. Bank your money here.

September 20—"Whitey" Allen breasts the tape several votes over Quinta Huggins at student council meeting. Accordingly, Raymond plumps into the head chair and Quinta captures vice-presidency. Start digging deep, football tickets go on sale soon.

September 21—No more peace in our happy school. Miss Whitney chosers the Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera "The Yeoman of the Guard" for her clubs' annual presentation, and practice begins.

September 21—We wish to extend our deepest sympathy and to the parents of Hugh Byrkit, a senior, who passed away as the result of an operation.

September 24—They give us a free Luminary and we're still wondering what the catch is. They assure us, however, that we're supposed to buy the rest.

September 28—Fifteen for Newcomer! Now we know who is the noisiest boy in school when the student council elects Dave Newcomer head cheerleader with Hackler and Gabbert to comprise the big three.
