The Ozarker, a true descendent of the American pioneer stock, is or was, an individualist of the most "rugged" order. He was noted for his primitive mode of life, his drawling speech, and his instinctive mistrust of "furriners." Tough, lank, rangy, self-sufficing, suspicious of "the law," he was either your friend or your foe; there was no half-way mark. If trouble arose, he was apt to take the matter into his own hands, hence the clanishness and the feuding tendencies of the "ridgerunners."

Until recently the modern world has passed by this isolated group leaving few evidences of modern improvements. The bucksaw and the hand plow still hold among them an eminent and almost undisputed place. The recently-built concrete roads, however, are bringing new swift-moving methods, and ultimately this group must either adapt itself to changing trends or be crowded out by other and more progressive types.

The 1937 Centralian pays tribute to our Ozark neighbors, valiant, rugged, and independent in the ways of a past generation.

F O R E

In the legends and traditions surrounding the Ozark Hillsmen of Missouri, the 1937 Centralian has found its inspiration. We do not pretend that we have here presented an accurate picture of the Ozark type. Our representation is essentially a humorous exaggeration so palpable that we trust it will neither deceive nor offend.

The true Ozarker, being an almost unique personality, is the most characteristic of Missourians, all others being more or less cosmopolitan. Besides, he has recently been brought into the spotlight by the striking mural paintings of Thomas Hart Benton, to whom we are indebted for two contributions in this volume.

Another reason for the celebration of the Ozarker is that he is, in all probability, passing. The Ozark type, like all other distinctive groups, is the product of isolation. That isolation ended in 1925 with the introduction of our present modern state highway system which has cut through the Ozark county a hundred different ways, turning what was once termed "the backwoods" into the vacation land of our state. It remains to be seen just how long the Ozarker as a type can survive this metropolitan invasion.

THOMAS HART BENTON

Thomas Hart Benton, a great-nephew of one of Missouri's first senators and a native son who is intimately acquainted with the customs and traditions of our state, is the donor of the reproduction of his painting "Homestead" and of the sketch of the "Ozark Fiddler," both of which are contained in this issue of The Centralian. These are typical of the work Mr. Benton delights in doing.

Mr. Benton recently completed a series of murals in the state capitol at Jefferson City depicting the social history of Missouri, for which undertaking he was eminently qualified, not only because "he is the very soul of Missouri history," but also because he is recognized as one of the foremost of contemporary American painters. His already wide reputation received national recognition when he was awarded a gold medal by the Architectural League in 1933. Mr. Benton at present is head of the department of painting and drawing at the Kansas City Art Institute.

To Central

Dear old Central, far-famed Central,
Thou shalt never fail;
Round thy name there clings a tendr'il
Of tradition's tale.

CHORUS

Thou art victor; fame has followed,
Clad in dignity;
May thy name to all be hallowed
By our love for thee.

Every student soon or later
In his walk of life
Greets the thought of Alma Mater
As his strength in strife.

In Memoriam

The entire student body was shocked and grieved by the sudden death of Billy Green on January 28 of this year. Personable, amiable, and enthusiastic about his senior year at Central, Billy was a great favorite with both teachers and students. Vital and active, he participated in many school activities, among which were: Central Webster Club; Social Science Society; Boy's High School Club; Crack Company, '36; Second Lieutenant in R. O. T. C.; Representative in Extemporaneous Speaking, '36; Corresponding Secretary of C. W. C.; Student Council, '36; and Publicity Committee.

Bill had the character that typifies real goodness and a buoyant personality that endeared him to all. His quick smile won immediate friends; his loyalty kept them. With his passing the school lost an earnest student, a lovable and radiant personality, and a real Centralite. He will be remembered by his class as one of the most eminent members as well as one grand fellow.

The Central cheer—"C-E-N-T-R-A-L"—How we thrill to the sound of these letters as they boom out across the gridiron!

Through the four years of school life, the spirit of the Class of '37 has been a closely woven one, threaded with memorable activity. It has accomplished much in whatever direction its talents have been turned. Certain outstanding personalities have given this group a sense of fellowship and unity that is most unusual in a class of its size.

Among its cherished recollections is the Freshman year at Junior High. The charity contest was the outstanding event, Bob Preston and Inez Hill ranking first and second respectively.

Then came the painful but fascinating experience of learning "Life is real! Life is earnest!" from the more experienced Juniors and Seniors. New, exciting horizons were disclosed: clubs, mixers, plays, sudden popularity of a few—all came and passed like a pleasant reverie."

of 1937

During the Junior year, leaders began to develop in the class, who many times were called upon to preside in the absence of Seniors. The high points of the year were: the Amateur Contest, with Bob Preston as Major Bowes; the initiation of Variety Night as a regular activity; and the election of the Junior Class officers. The following students were given recognition: President, Bob Preston; Aides: Peggy Shaw, Ray Loman, Jack Minor, Jeryn Greene, and Betty Ann Quiett.

The Senior year has been a culmination of the loyal friendships that have characterized this group. Among the incidents worthy of mention are the inauguration of the Municipal Auditorium for the interscholastic basketball contests; the high ranking of Kenneth Aber on the Ohio Intelligence Test given to all seniors; the presentation of "Growing Pains," the annual Spring play; the substitution of music through the public address system for the Mixer Orchestra to provide the "Swing Tunes" at the mixers; the winning of first place in the Veloz and Yolanda Contest (held at the Jubilesta) by Jay and Joslyn Case; the winning of the tri-state and Rubinoff contest (also at the Jubilesta) by David Sarser; and finally, the selection of class officers and Senior ballot celebrities.

"All's well that ends well." It is a perfect conclusion to four wonderful and inspiring years. What the future holds no one knows, but in the lives of those graduating this period will challenge many.

Mid-Year Graduation

JANUARY CLASS

Central continued this year its custom of graduating seniors in January. For several years it has been the only high school in Kansas City to release a graduating class at this time, and mid-year graduation is increasing each year in popularity.

In the mid-year class of '37, the fifty-three graduating members in caps and gowns presented an attractive and dignified group as they took part in the activities of the evening. The class was organized under the following officers: President, Ted Christy; Vice-President, Ruth Skaer; Secretary, Jim Daniels; and Treasurer, Bill Estes.

Commencement exercises were held on the evening of January 28 in the school auditorium. The program was given principally by the members of the class with the assistance of the a capella choir and the school orchestra. An outstanding number was the president's address given by Ted Christy. Mr. Phil Morgan gave the invocation, and Mr. Lyman Laughlin presented the diplomas.

JUNIOR CLASS

The class of '38 has been representative of the school, in that it has contributed to the scholastic, social, and athletic events of the year. Nathan Beiser, Melvin Zack, Arlene Wilson, Robert Beckett, Frank Ellis, and Sol Yudkofsky were on the Central Debate Team.

Gladys Replogle exhibited unusual talent as a vocalist in the first Variety Night; Beverly Scherrer distinguished herself as a contortionist on the last program. Charles Davis was outstanding as one of the leads in the Spring play.

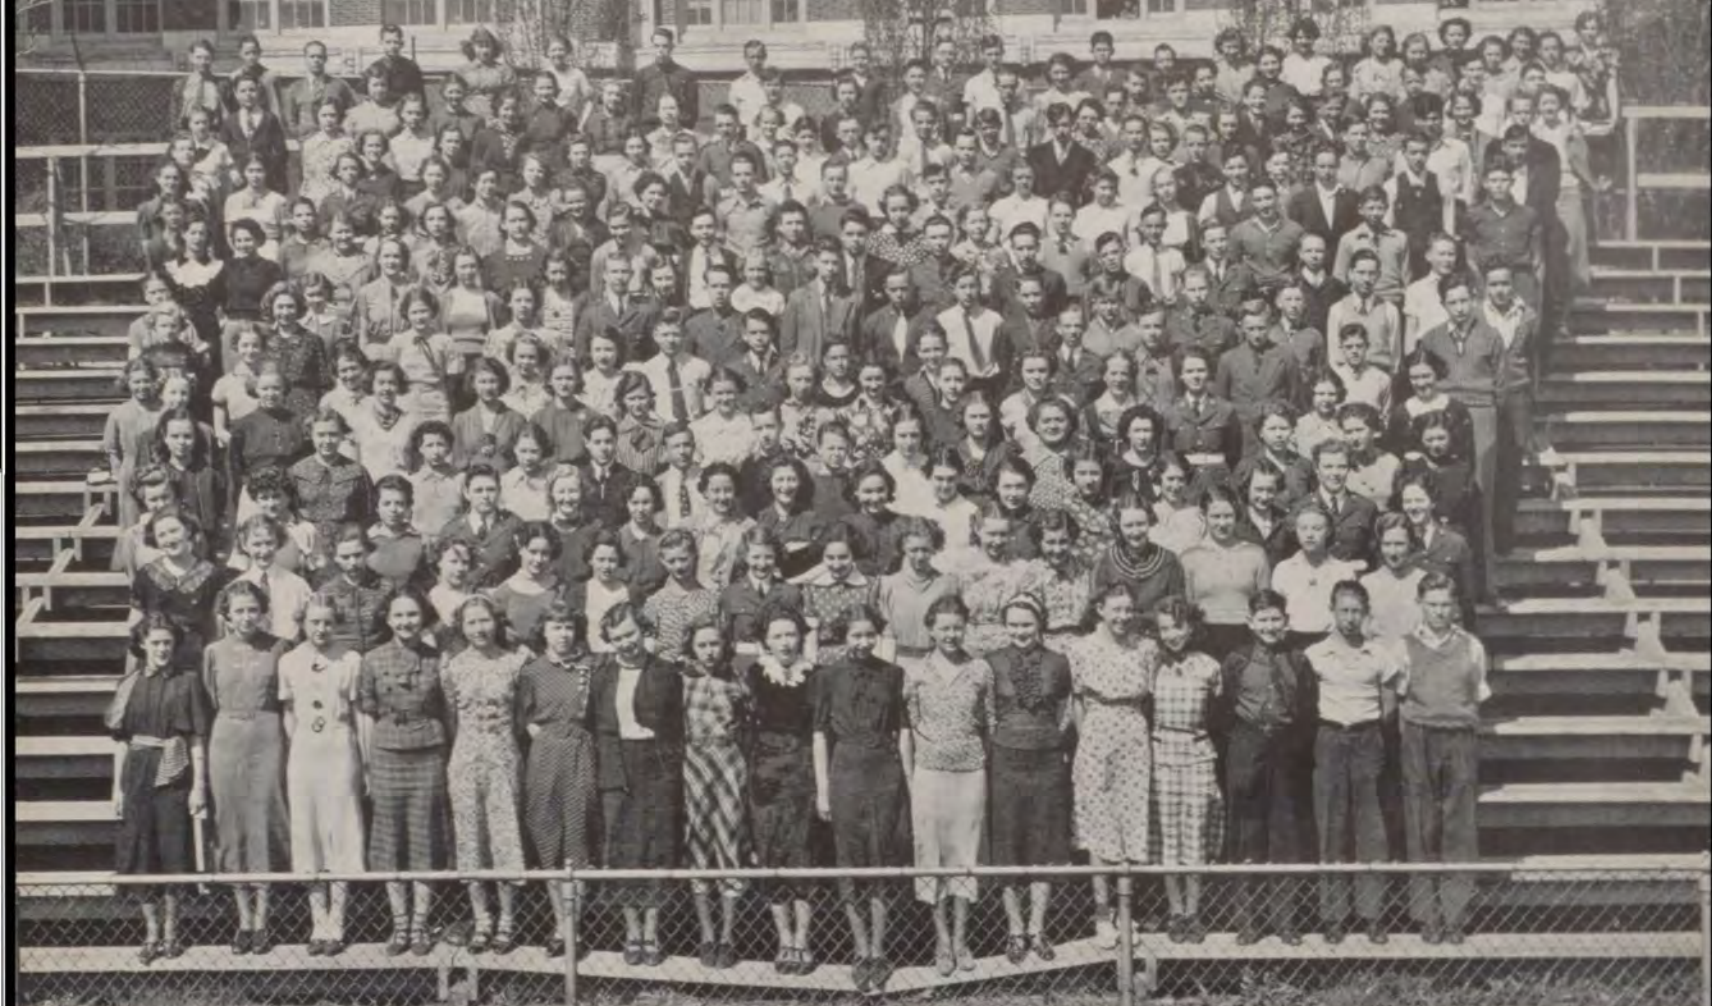

Eleanor Scott, Gladys Replogle and Eva Neal Jones were active members of the Girl Reserves. Bob Merry and Leo Patrick were prominent in the Boys' High School Club.

Frank Kavanaugh and Burch King achieved honors in football and track; Robert Jeffries and Bob Brenton, in football, track and basketball. Wayne Silverman represented the class as cheer leader.

CENTRAL JEFFERSON CLUB

Believing that there was a genuine need for a new literary society among the boys of the school, and knowing that there were many boys with outstanding literary talent who had not associated themselves with a society, Mr. Laughlin granted the request of Melvin Zack, Frank Ellis, Albert Margolin, and Burris Tiffany to organize the Central Jefferson Club. These Juniors were eager to establish an organization whose primary aim would be more literary than social.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Diersen and Miss Kite a constitution was drawn up and officers were elected, and flower, motto, colors, and emblem were chosen.

Since this new club has taken its place among the others at the annual intersociety contest, it has thoroughly established itself with the other eight literary groups at Central.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Of the 500 members in the graduating class, only ten per cent are eligible to membership in the National Honor Society. The eligibility is determined by scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The National Honor Society has a prestige distinct from that of other school clubs, because it is nation-wide and much more strict in its requirements for membership. To belong to this organization is an honor coveted by all those who regard the academic side of school life of paramount importance.

THE GALILEO SCIENCE CLUB

This year the Galileo Science Club, under the sponsorship of C. O. Williams and J. Ivan Hayes, continued its work of investigating science by hearing a large variety of speakers. The four presidents for the year were Jack Louis, William Wolfe, Edward Chernoff, and Jack Stone.

THE FORUM

For the purpose of discussing current political, social, and economic problems, a new club was organized this spring by Robert Beckett and Jack Stone with J. P. Frerking as advisor and was appropriately named "The Forum." During its first weeks of existence, the club discussed the Supreme Court issue, the American Youth Act, Capital versus Labor, and Cooperatives. Jack Stone was elected permanent chairman of the group, and Verna Parker, secretary.

THE ANGLING ARTS CLUB

The Angling Arts Club was started this spring by Charles Avey and Nugent Schuler. Its purpose was to investigate the art and technique of fishing and to arouse student interest in the sport. J. Ivan Hayes is adviser of this club. No definite organization will be attempted until next year.

BOTANY CLUB

The Botany Club was reorganized this year under the sponsorship of Miss Dorothy Sandberg. Every meeting held during the year was devoted to reports and discussions on some phase of botany. Dorothy Pointer was chosen president for the first semester, and Doris Cranfill, for the second.

BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL CLUB

Included in the varied program of the Boys' High School Club during the year 1936-1937, were the following activities: a Faculty Banquet; the Cosmopolitan (World Fellowship) and the City-Wide Banquets; the Father-Son and the Mother-Son Banquets; the Washita and the Atchison Conferences held for discussing topics of interest to youth; and a joint meeting of the Girl Reserve and Boys' High cabinets at the Y. M. C. A., an all-city event.

The fifty-five members of the Boys' High at Central continued to carry on the work for which the organization was founded; namely, that of uplifting the physical, mental, and spiritual qualities of boys—developing the three-fold life.

Coach Bierman of the University of Minnesota spoke on sportsmanship at the annual banquet for the football players and followed his address with films that gave interesting highlights in the contests of his "Golden Gophers."

The presidents for this year, Jack Minor and Bill Wassmer, received the honor of having their names placed upon the gavel along with those of the presidents of former years and of having their signatures recorded in the Bible of the club.

To complete the program for this year, a Saturday has been set aside for a meeting of all Boys' High clubs in the city. A social program in the afternoon will be followed by a banquet in the evening.

GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL CLUB

The Girl Reserve Club is unique in its purpose, membership, and program building. It is the only club which stresses religion in the lives of its members, the only club in which membership is open to all, and the only club whose interests and program building are world-wide. In addition to the code is its special aim of making the atmosphere of the school more congenial and friendly.

The officers who served this year were: President, Margaret Learned; Vice-president, Inez Hill; Secretary, Eleanor Scott; Treasurer, Martha Havighurst.

The Girl Reserves of Central this year enjoyed making artistic scrap-books for Christmas gifts to Indian children on an Oklahoma reservation. The Mother-Daughter Banquet, the theme of which was "Seeing the Beautiful," the Christmas tea; the World-Fellowship pageant; the Palm Sunday Breakfast; and a joint cabinet banquet of the Boys' High and Girls' High clubs all over the city were highlights of the year.

Besides this type of activity there is a striving toward a broader vision and a more abundant life.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Always an active organization at Central, the Student Council this year under the direction of Mr. Watson cutstripped former records by the energy with which it met all school problems and needs. Some of these were: the inauguration of the activity tickets which enabled students to engage in three major school activities, the sponsoring of another Variety Night, the directing of the Centralian sales campaign, the installation of the public address system for mixers, and the engineering of a student assembly program.

The activity ticket made it possible for a greater number of students to attend football and basketball games and to subscribe to the Luminary. This plan did much toward creating real school spirit. More mixers were held this year than last, and attendance was larger than at mixers of recent years.

Altogether, this alert group has set a standard of interest and enthusiasm that should serve as an example to future student government bodies.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

The French club was a prominent organization at Central this year. The club "adopted" a needy French family of two and derived much pleasure from its association with the mother and her small daughter. Christmas and Odette's birthday were made festive occasions by bringing cake, canned goods, and toys to their French friends.

The group enjoyed greatly a showing of "Prenez-garde a la Peinture," starring Simone Simon at the Madrid theatre. The general order of business, however, consists of a meeting conducted mostly in French, with a speaker or an all-student program, and the singing of French songs. Another interesting feature is answering roll call with a French proverb.

Those who served as president of the club during the year are Barbara Jean Warner, Jeryn Anne Green, and Rebecca Winthrop.

GERMAN CLUB

Under the direction of Miss Erdmuthe von Unwerth the German club during 1936-1937 has continued to make German more interesting by applying it to every day language situations and giving the pupils an opportunity to speak it more fluently. All programs and club business are carried on in German as much as possible. At every meeting interesting stories and poems are given. German songs are sung and games are played, all in German, which lend variety and interest to the meetings.

The club has been successful for many years, and it is hoped that it will remain just as successful in years to come.

THE ART CLUB

The object of the Central Art club is to broaden the knowledge and enjoyment of art among the members of the art department. In order to become a member of this organization, a student must make at least "S" in art, and maintain a grade of "M" in all other subjects. The thirty-four members, meeting on the first and third Tuesdays of every month, have enjoyed many worth while programs.

Mr. Edward Voegele, president of the student council at the Art Institute, gave a talk, discussing the scholarships offered by that institution. He exhibited some interesting work created by the students. Frank Goodman, head of the art department of the Kansas City Star, talked on the art work of a newspaper. A discussion by Miss Lillian Weyl, city art director, was followed by a film, "We Are All Artists." Every other meeting has been turned into a work period in which work on an assigned project such as clay modeling, illustrating stories, chalk drawing, and pose work has been developed.

Accompanied by Miss Coah Henry, the club has made two trips to the Art Gallery where a guide lectured to them on the Indian room and other exhibits of unusual value.

TROUVERE CLUB

The Trouvere Club, which was organized in 1918, has done much to promote an appreciation of good music in Central. Members of the Central band, orchestra, or chorus who make "E" or "S" in music are eligible for membership.

The name "Trouvere" was taken from the French word for troubador, which means "wandering minstrel." The colors of the club are royal purple and gold; the emblem, the beautiful fleur-de-lis. Meetings are held alternate Tuesdays, and each member is required to take part on the program at some time during the year.

Since its formation, the club has been supervised by Miss Whitney. Mr. Wilfred Schlager, director of the Central band, has been its helpful co-advisor since the fall of 1936.

The Central Olympian Club, the girls' athletic society, was organized in 1916 to promote extra-curricular athletics and to develop sportsmanship. These followers of the blue and gold have completed a successful year, sponsoring two gym parties that netted the physical education department a much appreciated surplus.

In planning and carrying out the baseball play day, held in conjunction with the various play days throughout the city, the Olympians played a large part. Representatives from the various public and private high schools assembled at Central and played a round-robin baseball tournament.

The advisers are Miss Mary C. Henschel and Miss Hazel H. Purnell.

The Social Science Society was organized in October, 1935, for the purpose of enabling the students to discuss economic and social problems and to stimulate interest in current subjects. The club meets on the first and third Thursdays of each month and at present has a membership of about 100.

The programs have usually been provided by guest speakers some of whom are: B. J. George, from the Kansas City Power and Light Company; Mr. Owens, of Swift and Company; Miss Rose W. Ohaus, Chairman of the Welfare Board; Jack Thomas, former Centralite, and a recent visitor from Europe who spoke on the possibilities of a war in Europe; Dr. Tucker, of Merriam, Kansas; and Dr. Freeman C. Havighurst.

The first term officers were: President, Ted Christy; vice-president, Bob Preston; secretary, Raymond Caesar; corresponding secretary, Mary Spillers; treasurer, Marguerite Kirk; sergeant-at-arms, Roy Burton. Meeting time is devoted to guest speakers, films, and an occasional home-talent program. Some of the speakers this year were: Dr. Richard L. Sutton, Jr.; Mr. Andy Anderson, of the Anderson Photography Company; Dr. Flinn, of the Dog and Cat Hospital. The club greatly enjoyed the twelve field trips and the breakfast they had. These usually took place at Bales Lake or Swope Park.

The leaders of the society throughout the year were: Marjory Morris, Donna Hancox, Betty Anne Quiett, and Jim Davis. The club sponsors are Miss Leibengood, Mr. C. S. Hann, and Mr. Robert Forbes.

The Centralian, 1937

The 1937 Centralian staff has been exceedingly fortunate in having received the almost unanimous support of all the departments and activities at Central. In no previous year has the cooperation of all departments been so evident.

Many records were broken in the compiling and selling of the annual. More Senior pictures will appear this year than in any previous issue. With the exception of two home rooms the home room section includes the entire enrollment of the school.

That buying a Centralian has become a Central tradition and that the Ozark theme of this year's annual is overwhelmingly popular were more than proved by the outstanding success of the 1937 Centralian sales campaign. All former records were shattered. A total of 1,789 books was sold, over 300 more than during any previous campaign. Ray Loman, selling 170 annuals, broke the record for individual sales, the total up to this time having been 125.

The staff is enormously grateful to Mr. G. R. Watson and his salesmanship classes for the successful manner in which they handled the Centralian campaign; to Miss Coah Henry and her art students for their art posters, lettered sales strips, and paintings on the general store; to Mr. J. M. Lukens and his woodshop boys for their work on this same display; to Mr. Wilfred Schlager, and those members of the band who contributed "hill-billy" music; to Miss Virginia Robertson and several of the girls in her expression classes who produced the dummies and provided the make-up for the "hill-billy" band; to all the teachers who have supported the annual by making collections under the new payment plan; and to the student body for its splendid support throughout the campaign.

The staff this year is grateful to the art department for its excellent work in humorously caricaturing the Ozark hillsmen and for adding, in that way, a lighter touch which helps to balance this issue.

VARIETY NIGHT

The second annual Variety Night, December 4 and 5, was enjoyed by large enthusiastic audiences, thanks to the splendid work of Mr. Watson and his salesmanship classes, who had charge of ticket sales, and to the genuine loyalty of the student body. A total of 2,025 tickets was sold, the proceeds from which helped to pay for the new public address system, one of the most important units of equipment acquired during this school year.

Rigorous try-outs, sponsored by the "talent scouts" of the Student Council, resulted in the presentation of the following program: tumbling and tap-dancing numbers by the girls' gym classes; two one-act plays, "Pals" and "Little Prison," by the expression department; and feature numbers by the orchestra in addition to their accompaniments to other numbers. Worthy of special mention were the violin solo of David Sarser, the tap-dancing of Betty Preston, and the sparkling exhibition dance of Jay and Joslyn Case.

Everything considered, the second Variety Night far surpassed that of last year and set a high standard for all succeeding presentations of this type.

SPRING PLAY CAST

"GROWING PAINS"

The spring play, GROWING PAINS, by Aurania Rouverol, was a sparkling comedy depicting the struggles of adolescent boys and girls to face life as they find it today. Fifteen-year-old Terry McIntyre rebels when her sixteen-year-old brother, George, no longer wants to include her on his baseball team, while George finds life a "Titanic" tragedy when he encounters his first Lorelei. The parents of this pair also find coping with these new conditions a difficult and trying problem.

The two audiences that shared the experiences, however, seemed to enjoy the struggles hilariously. As one mother remarked, "It did not seem like a play at all but like a peep into a real modern home."

For the first time in several years, different casts appeared each night. It was impossible, however, to say which performance was the better. Those who played Friday evening were: George McIntyre, the son—Charles Davis; Terry McIntyre, his younger sister—Marjory Morris; Mrs. McIntyre, the mother—Betty Ernst; Professor McIntyre, the father—Bill Wassmer; Brian, one of the boys—Jack Minor; Hal, another boy—William Banks; Omar, who stutters—Earl Aull; Dutch, who has a girl—Melvin Zack; Pete, another boy—Bernard Propst; Mrs. Patterson, a neighbor—Marian Cohen; Elsie Patterson, her daughter—Lois Blair; Prudence Darling, the vamp—Eleanor Jacobson; Patty, Jane, Miriam, and Sally, girls of the neighborhood—Margaret Gott, Jean Baker, Jane Bogart, Betty Lee Braun; Sophie, the maid—Virginia Zimmer; Vivian, the new girl—Emmy Lou Riffer; other friends—Ilo Beeler, Harriett Levich, George Hansell; the traffic officer—Ben Clayman.

Those who appeared Saturday night were: George McIntyre, the son—Manual Nowick; Terry McIntyre, the sister—Verna Parker; Mrs. McIntyre, Sue Landes; Professor McIntyre—Frank Ellis; Brian, Hal, Omar, Dutch, and Pete, boys of the neighborhood—Donald Jones, Leon Aronson, Lewis Green, Miles Kemp, and Bernard Propst; Mrs. Patterson—Joyce David; Elsie Patterson, Mildred Mayhugh; Prudence Darling, the vamp—Betty Anne Quiett; Patty, Jane, Miriam, Sally, and Vivian—Doris Test, Margaret Myler, Demitra Kapnistos, Betty Lee Braun, and Emmy Lou Riffer; Sophie—Virginia Eckenrod; friends—Ilo Beeler, Harriett Levich, George Hansell; traffic officer—Ben Clayman.

The setting, which depicted a patio in a California home, was built and painted especially for this production by Mr. Estes and the stage crew.

If one may judge by the enthusiastic praise of both audiences, we may believe that the spring play was a success.

THE CENTRAL BAND

The Central Band is well-known throughout the city for its high achievement at the Mid-West Festival held last spring at Lawrence, Kansas. A silver loving cup, which has since been placed in the trophy case of the front hall, was received by the eighty-eight members for ranking second in that event.

Under the leadership of Mr. Wilfred C. Schlager, the band has taken part in many important occasions in this district. It played during the inauguration ceremonies for the governor at Jefferson City; in Kansas City during both the Christmas and Armistice parades, and at the Ivanhoe Temple for the Business Mens' Bible class, the largest of its kind for the study of the Bible.

The band supports the school consistently, playing at the football games, for R. O. T. C. battalion parades, and at any and all occasions where the nature of the event demands its participation.

ORCHESTRA

The Central orchestra, under the direction of Frederick J. Curth, has accomplished some noteworthy work during 1936-1937. With four cellos, five violas, three string basses, and an adequate first and second violin section, the fifty-five members of this group have attained a well-balanced instrumentation, in the string section. The Central band provides the players for the wood winds and brass section.

Frederick J. Curth

The orchestra has contributed musical numbers for many of the school activities. Outstanding among these events were the mid-year graduation exercises, open house, and the Christmas and Spring plays. The Central orchestra was invited to furnish the musical program for the first Teachers' Institute that was held in the new Municipal Auditorium.

David Sarser, who has distinguished himself many times as a splendid musician, won first place for violin in the state contest of the National American Federation of Music Clubs and a silver loving cup at the contest held by Rubinoff at the Jubilesta.

First Row: Wonder, Dowgray, Weaver, Cranfill, Miss Whitney, Cook, Willis, Cinnamon, B. J. Moore, Aber.

CENTRAL CHORUS

The sixty-two members of the Central chorus received second highest rating at the chorus meet for 1936-1937 for all high school organizations throughout the city. At this time the chorus and the following members were awarded rankings:

Chorus: Excellent
 Ruth Duncan, soprano solo: Excellent
 Harold Du Gay, baritone solo: Good
 George Bingham, bass solo: Good
 Junior Roberts, tenor solo: Average
 Mary Gillespie, mezzo-soprano: Good
 Anita Votaw, soprano: Average

Donald Jones, Bob Davis, Harold Du Gay, and Herman Mooney were chosen from the chorus to make up a quartette which sang over WDAF on the Goldman Amateur Hour. The same group sang two songs for Variety Night.

The chorus contributed the musical numbers for one broadcast in the series of school programs over WDAF on Thursday nights during the school year. It has been contributing attractive numbers for assembly hall programs and open house, and has assisted both the orchestra and the band in their Sunday afternoon concerts.

The entire chorus, augmented from the classes, has participated in the commencement exercises for the past two years. On these occasions the eighty voices with the orchestral accompaniment have been able to create the breadth of volume necessary to fill the big arena of the Municipal Auditorium without sacrificing the quality of tone.

TOP ROW: Boutros, Brenton, Cobb, Dlogoff, Ferguson, Gooch, Howard, Hostetter, Jeffries.

PIGSKIN PARADE

JUST LOOKING BACK

** CARL MORGAN **
 Co-Captain
 All-Star

the 1936 Eagles lost in their initial game of the season to Wyandotte's Bulldogs, 7-0. Though the tallies came early in the first period, the contest was an exciting one with Carl Morgan in the stellar role. The difference between victory and defeat was a Kingbird fumble deep in Canine territory late in the third quarter.

**GLEN FLOWERREED**
 Co-Captain

on the next week the Blue and White repelled an invading North-eastern Viking, 12-7, in a contest that featured orthodox football combined with an almost superhuman, "never-say-die" attitude on the part of Central. Cobb and Wilson starred. The high spot of the game came with a Central tally in the last five seconds of play which simultaneously changed the spelling of defeat to v-i-c-t-o-r-y.

Feeling confident . . .

after the defeat of last year's league champions, the Eagles next invaded Paseo territory; the supposedly invulnerable Eagle defense was scattered all over the field. Its highly praised offensive machine couldn't get into motion until late in the final quarter. A greatly underestimated Buccaneer made the Kingbirds walk the plank to the tune of an 8-0 loss.

after the Pirate trouncing, the boys of the Blue and White were determined to redeem themselves by plucking the feathers of an ambitious tribe of Southwest's Indians. Saturday saw the Braves invading H. H. Holmes Memorial Field. After a hard-fought battle, they were defeated by the Eagles 13-7.

FOOTBALL—(Continued)

was on deck for the following week. All season a man-eating Westport Tiger had been running rampant through league competition, winning all and losing none of their games. The traditional "dope" conceded an easy victory to the Bengals. The game, hard-fought and still harder to lose, was characteristic of this year's schedule played by the Eagles. Trailing 19-6 at the three-quarter mark, the Kingbirds overcame all but one point of the lead. Glen Flowerree's able booting was the game's high light.

Under the bright lights . . .

of Rockhurst's stadium the Eagles next displayed their pigskin wares. Holding, or being held (as you prefer), to a 7-7 tie, the game's high spots were in aerial attacks by Morgan and Company. The contest was Central's second non-conference meeting (the first was with Wyandotte).

When the Grizzlies came . . .

to Central they were at the top of the interscholastic heap. A win, at that time, meant undisputed first to East. Still riding the crest of last minute rallies, the Kingbirds slipped in a 7-7 tie. The deadlocking points came on a touchdown scored by Wilson on a pass from the fifteen-yard strip by Kavanaugh. Although the Blue and White weren't victorious, they spilled the East apple cart for 1936.

So then . . .

came the Manual game. The Crimson of this year wasn't quite so strong as in by-gone days. The battle, and it was a battle, resulted in a 19-6 win by the Kingbirds. A six-point advantage was gained early in the game by the Red boys but was buried beneath a last half avalanche of touchdowns. This game, with our oldest rival, rang down the curtain on a fall of not-too-bad, not-too-good football. Frank Kavanaugh displayed great style in his broken field running.

finished in a tie for third place. At the beginning of the season, Coach Slaymaker's squad was green, untried. In the debut tilt with Wyandotte they showed great promise. With a line that was the envy of every coach in the city and a backfield second to few, the boys continued, hitting their stride more often. Next year's aggregation will be experienced veterans of the gridiron and will prove a serious threat to any school with championship desires.

Two Eagles were placed . . .

on the interscholastic all-star team. Both were seniors—Carl Morgan and Glen Flowerree. Flowerree's educated toe was a great help to this year's team. Morgan's running and passing was exceptional all through the year.

BASKETBALL LETTERMEN

BASKETBALL SEASON

This year's flock of Eagles finished in the cellar position in the interscholastic race. The Kingbirds got off to a flying start by defeating Pembroke Country Day to the tune of 40-15. Ray Williams starred in the tilt by scoring four field goals in the same number of shots. The Kingbirds continued their victory string by a 32-26 triumph over William Chrisman High School. The Wyandotte Bulldogs proved tougher for the Eagles and they finished their pre-league contests on the short end of a 32-25 score.

The interscholastic race began on the next Friday with Central tackling Northeast's Vikings. The Eagles began the game in typical fire-engine fashion, gaining a comfortable lead at the half, but immediately following, the Vikings unleashed a furious attack before which the Eagles wilted, losing the game 23-18. Calvert and Sarver were the Central stars of this game.

Paseo was next on the schedule. At the opening gun the Central boys, using all their scoring tricks, gained a lead and maintained it until the third quarter. Then, like an avalanche, the Paseo team overwhelmed the Eagle basketteers to win 30-19. This was Bob Rau's last game of the season and he played it valiantly.

A non-conference game came next with the Rockhurst Hawks, and again the Eagles showed power by defeating their opponents 27-26. The game was a real thriller, being won only in the last few seconds of play.

Back again to the league schedule, Central's next opponent was the East Bears. Holding the East men scoreless for the first nine minutes of play, the Blue and White began by displaying first-rate basketball, only to lose 24-11 in the later stages of the contest.

The boys were after the Southwest Indians' scalps in their next game; they nearly got them, too. Fighting hard to the end, they were finally nosed out 25-23. Irish and Calvert were the individual stars of this clash.

Giving their Crimson opponents all they had, the Blue Eagles made their next game one of the most exciting games of the season, even though the final score, 22-18, did show against the Blue and White. Like many of their other games, the Central-Manual clash was lost in the second quarter, when the Eagles seemed to lack the punch necessary to carry them through to a victory.

The last game of the season was hardly all that a last game should be. The boys fought hard, but lost, 48-20, under a tornado of goals scored by Westport, in which an initial 8-2 lead was completely obliterated. Wilde was the star of this last game of an unsuccessful season.

Although the Eagles won three games, none of these were league contests and thus did not add to the team standings.

GOLF LETTERMEN

Ray Loman, Harold Welton, Bob Doby and James Brasfield championed the Central colors through the four rounds of golf play the past season. To win a letter it was necessary to play in at least two of the four rounds.

Ray Loman was probably the outstanding individual player on the team. In the individual scoring Ray ranked third, following Bob Clark of Paseo and Gordon Meyers of Southwest. Ray is the only three-year letterman on the team and had the honor of being captain this year. James Brasfield is a two-year letterman while Bob Doby and Harold Welton have the one bar on their "C."

TENNIS LETTERMEN

The Blue Eagle's tennis team was led this year by Jack Scott, Bob Thompsen and C. R. Moreland. Jack Scott, a two-year letterman, had the honor of captaining the Central net team through the year. Scott and Bob Thompsen were Central's No. 1 and No. 2 players and teamed together in doubles. In the city-wide match play for high schools they went to the finals. Qualification for winning a tennis letter was to win a match with another school.

SECOND TEAM FOOTBALL

The greatest of Central's great football teams have been graduates of the scrub squad, or second team. From these ranks come the fellows to fill the gaps left by retiring lettermen.

This year Coach Frank Guemple resigned the mentorship of the second team and was replaced by Coach Lockridge. The Eaglets, remaining true to tradition, placed high in interscholastic competition—taking second in league.

SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL.

When a first team of any high school or college has a poor season, its counterpart, the second team, usually fares in like manner. The Blue Eaglets, under the direction of Coach Berle Adams, this year, were not as successful as could be wished. However, the experience which these boys gained will enhance their chances for next year when Central will again be represented by a traditional fighting team of basketeters. Like the real article these Eaglets are sure to sprout sturdy wings for their battles in the coming interscholastic race.

TRACK TEAM

Fourth Row: Gordon, Boehm, Prevan, Matheson, Tull, Sigars, Sanderson, Jackson, Lester.

Third Row: Dloogoff, Richards, Ott, Schutt, Coffman, Bell, Hostetter, Nelson, Boshell, Thompson.

TRACK TEAM

Although the annual meet with Wyandotte was cancelled this year because of the cold weather that delayed training of both teams, Central's interscholastic track season otherwise got off to a good start. Carl Morgan, holder of the city record in the 880, and Glen Flowerree, high and low hurdler, are the two letter men on the team. The dashes should be fairly well taken care of by Frank Kavanaugh and Burch King.

Allen Corn and Bob Jeffries are the two most consistent polevaulters; while Jack Mills, Clifford Painter, Lowell Sigars, and LeRoy Tull should win some points in the high jumping event.

Bill Matheson and Joe Boutros should gather points in all the meets for superior ability and in shot-putting. In the broad jump Frank Kavanaugh, Burch King, and Jack Wilson have all approached 20 feet and should improve as the season progresses.

Captain Morgan, although specializing in the 880, will also represent Central in the 440 where he has already made very commendable time. Among his running mates in the 440 are Bill Sarver, Wallace Starnes, and Bill Leuszler. Sam Hibbard and Bill Leuszler assist Morgan in the half-mile run. Our representatives in the hurdling events are Glen Flowerree, Jack Wilson, and Sam Hibbard.

The relay team, composed of Burch King, Bruce Meier, Joe Hall, and Frank Kavanaugh, is undefeated in the city at the present time but was defeated by the Northeast relay team in the K. U. relays. Central has a good chance to place second in the city interscholastic track season.

Golf Team: Welton, Duby, Brasfield, Loman (c)
Tennis Team: Thompsen, Scott (c), Moreland, Thomas, Atzenweiler

GOLF TEAM

Central's contribution to the interscholastic golf tournament for 1936 were James Brasfield, Bob Duby, Ray Loman, and Bob Welton. Competition began on November 9 and continued until four Saturday scores were completed. The Central Golfers placed third in the city-wide tourney. Paseo repeated their success of last year by capturing first. For individual honors Bob Clark, Paseo, and Gordon Meyers, Southwest, took the first and second honors, respectively.

TENNIS TEAM

Coach Nolan Alexander's 1936-37 net team was an inexperienced one with only Jack Scott remaining from last year's team. Nevertheless, Central's ace doubles team, Bob Thompsen and Jack Scott, stroked their way through to the city-wide finals where they were stopped by Harper and Haines of Westport, who later became state interscholastic doubles champions. C. R. Moreland, Central's number one singles man, advanced through competition to the semi-finals where he was defeated by Mosley of Southwest, who became city champion.

Bob Thomas and Bob Duby, number two doubles team, were eliminated when they met Harper and Haynes in their opening round. Roger Atzenweiler, playing number two single, lost in the first round to Hicked of Westport, runners-up to Mosley.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Under the able leadership of Coach "Doc" Heischman, intramural sporting activities played an important part in Central's 1936-1937 sports program. Inaugurated in the fall with a "touch" football tournament, the idea immediately gained followers. Continuing with soccer, basketball, ping pong, boxing, volleyball, paddle tennis, and soft-ball, the program rounded out a program of athletics in which virtually every boy in Central could have played.

Next year this type of recreation promises to be bigger and better and, above all, more helpful to boys interested in sports.

Girls' Sports

GIRLS' ATHLETIC RESUME

Gay shouts and hearty laughter accompanied the opening of the intramural sports season among the girls who looked forward to a happy year of activity in their efforts to excel in those games which Central provides with such a wide range of choices. Under the supervision of the coaches, Miss Mary C. Henschel and Miss Hazel H. Purnell, the girls rallied around the standards of the various groups to which they had given their support.

The fall season opened with giant volley ball followed by soccer. Many loyal players ignored sore arm muscles and hurt toes in their efforts to score for their teams. Basketball rivalry was especially keen, the sophomores playing only sophomores while the junior and senior teams played each other. With the opening of the regular volley ball season, the senior girls challenged the boys, and several close battles ensued.

More pure enjoyment, friendships, and sportsmanship were derived from city-wide competitions, or "play days," in hockey, volley ball, and baseball held at Westport High, Manual High, and Central High, respectively, than perhaps from all the other tournaments put together.

HOCKEY—Sue Landes and her assistants officiated in the tournament games for field hockey. Marking time in the cold winds, the eleven girls on each team, with sticks poised for action, raced down the field.

BASKETBALL—An exciting tournament was managed by Dorothy Pointer when she opened the inter-class basketball season. After a rigorous series of games, the seniors carried off first honors.

BASEBALL—Marion Davis conducted a tournament for baseball players. Following the color tournament, which included all girls desiring to play, the All-Stars were chosen.

SWIMMING—Perhaps the most graceful sport of all was managed by Alberta Donnell, this year, who kept up a vital interest among the girls in swimming and diving. Along with the enjoyment of this sport, a knowledge and practice of life-saving was made possible for advanced swimmers.

DEMONSTRATION—Led by Miss Henschel and Miss Purnell, the girls of the Physical Education department, in cooperation with the boys' gym department, presented a demonstration of individual sports for all of Kansas City's gym instructors, Friday evening, February 26. Ping pong, aerial dart, paddle tennis, shuffle board, tenniquoits, and various other sports were skillfully demonstrated by a select group of sixty girls while the method of directing a large class in intramurals was displayed in the teachers' efficient management.

The R. O. T. C. Year

R. O. T. C.

The spring of 1936 opened with the presentation by the Central battalion, of a silent platoon drill at the annual R. O. T. C. circus on April 24. The drill, led by Captain Royce Stoenner, was well liked by all who observed it.

On May 6, 1936, the Corps Area inspection again found Central well prepared in the knowledge of the R. O. T. C. course. The battalion was awarded the second place cup in Kansas City and retained the designation of Honor School.

OFFICERS' CLUB

SECOND ROW: First Lieutenants Rundle, Atzenweller, Adelman, Walters.

RIFLE TEAM

SECOND ROW: Sergeant Allen, Lieutenant Adelman (Captain), Lieutenant Hamacher, Corporal McCubbin.

FIRST ROW: Corporals Pickrell, Lane, Hall, Booras.

On Field Day, May 15, 1936, Sergeant Allen's units more than atoned for their disastrous defeat of the year before, by capturing first honors in all but two events. The crack company, led by Captain Stoenner, was given second place in the competition. Lieutenant Walter Baird commanded the crack platoon successfully to receive the first place cup, while Corporal Jim Reese and the seven members of the crack squad recaptured the first place squad cup, which was lost for the first time the previous year. For their work the squad members received gold medals; and their leader, a saber. Although the individual did not place, the Central battalion had accumulated enough points to be awarded the cup for first place Field Day. The gold, silver, and bronze American Legion medals for the outstanding cadets were given to First Sergeant Bill Hellman, First Sergeant Jim Davis, and Corporal Jim Reese, respectively.

Beginning the school year, 1936-37, the Central rifle team, captained by Lieutenant Leon Adelman, placed third in the annual city match held on January 16, 1937, with a score of 838 points. The team, composed of Lieutenant Ralph Hamacher, Corporal Boyd Pickrell, James McCubbin, Charles Hall, and Bob Lane, fired without Lieutenant Leon Adelman, who had met with an accident on the way to the match due to ice-covered streets.

 FIRST ROW: Sergeant Allen, Captain Reese, Lieutenants Run-die, Kilppel, Hamacher.

The Thirteenth Annual R. O. T. C. hop was a huge success for the officers and cadets. In the gayly decorated gymnasium, uniforms mingled with evening dresses as members of the battalion danced to the music of the Hal-Roy orchestra. The high-point of the evening was the announcement, by Sergeant Allen, of the Queen of the Hop, Betty Lou Crisp, and her aides, Donna Hancox and Betty Anne Quiett.

FIFTH ROW: Corporals McCubbin, Pickrell, Koury, Winslow, Adelman, Shanberg, Yudkofsky, Shryock, Carrier.

FIRST ROW: McCawley, Kewitt, Ozburn, Pattee, Tiffany.

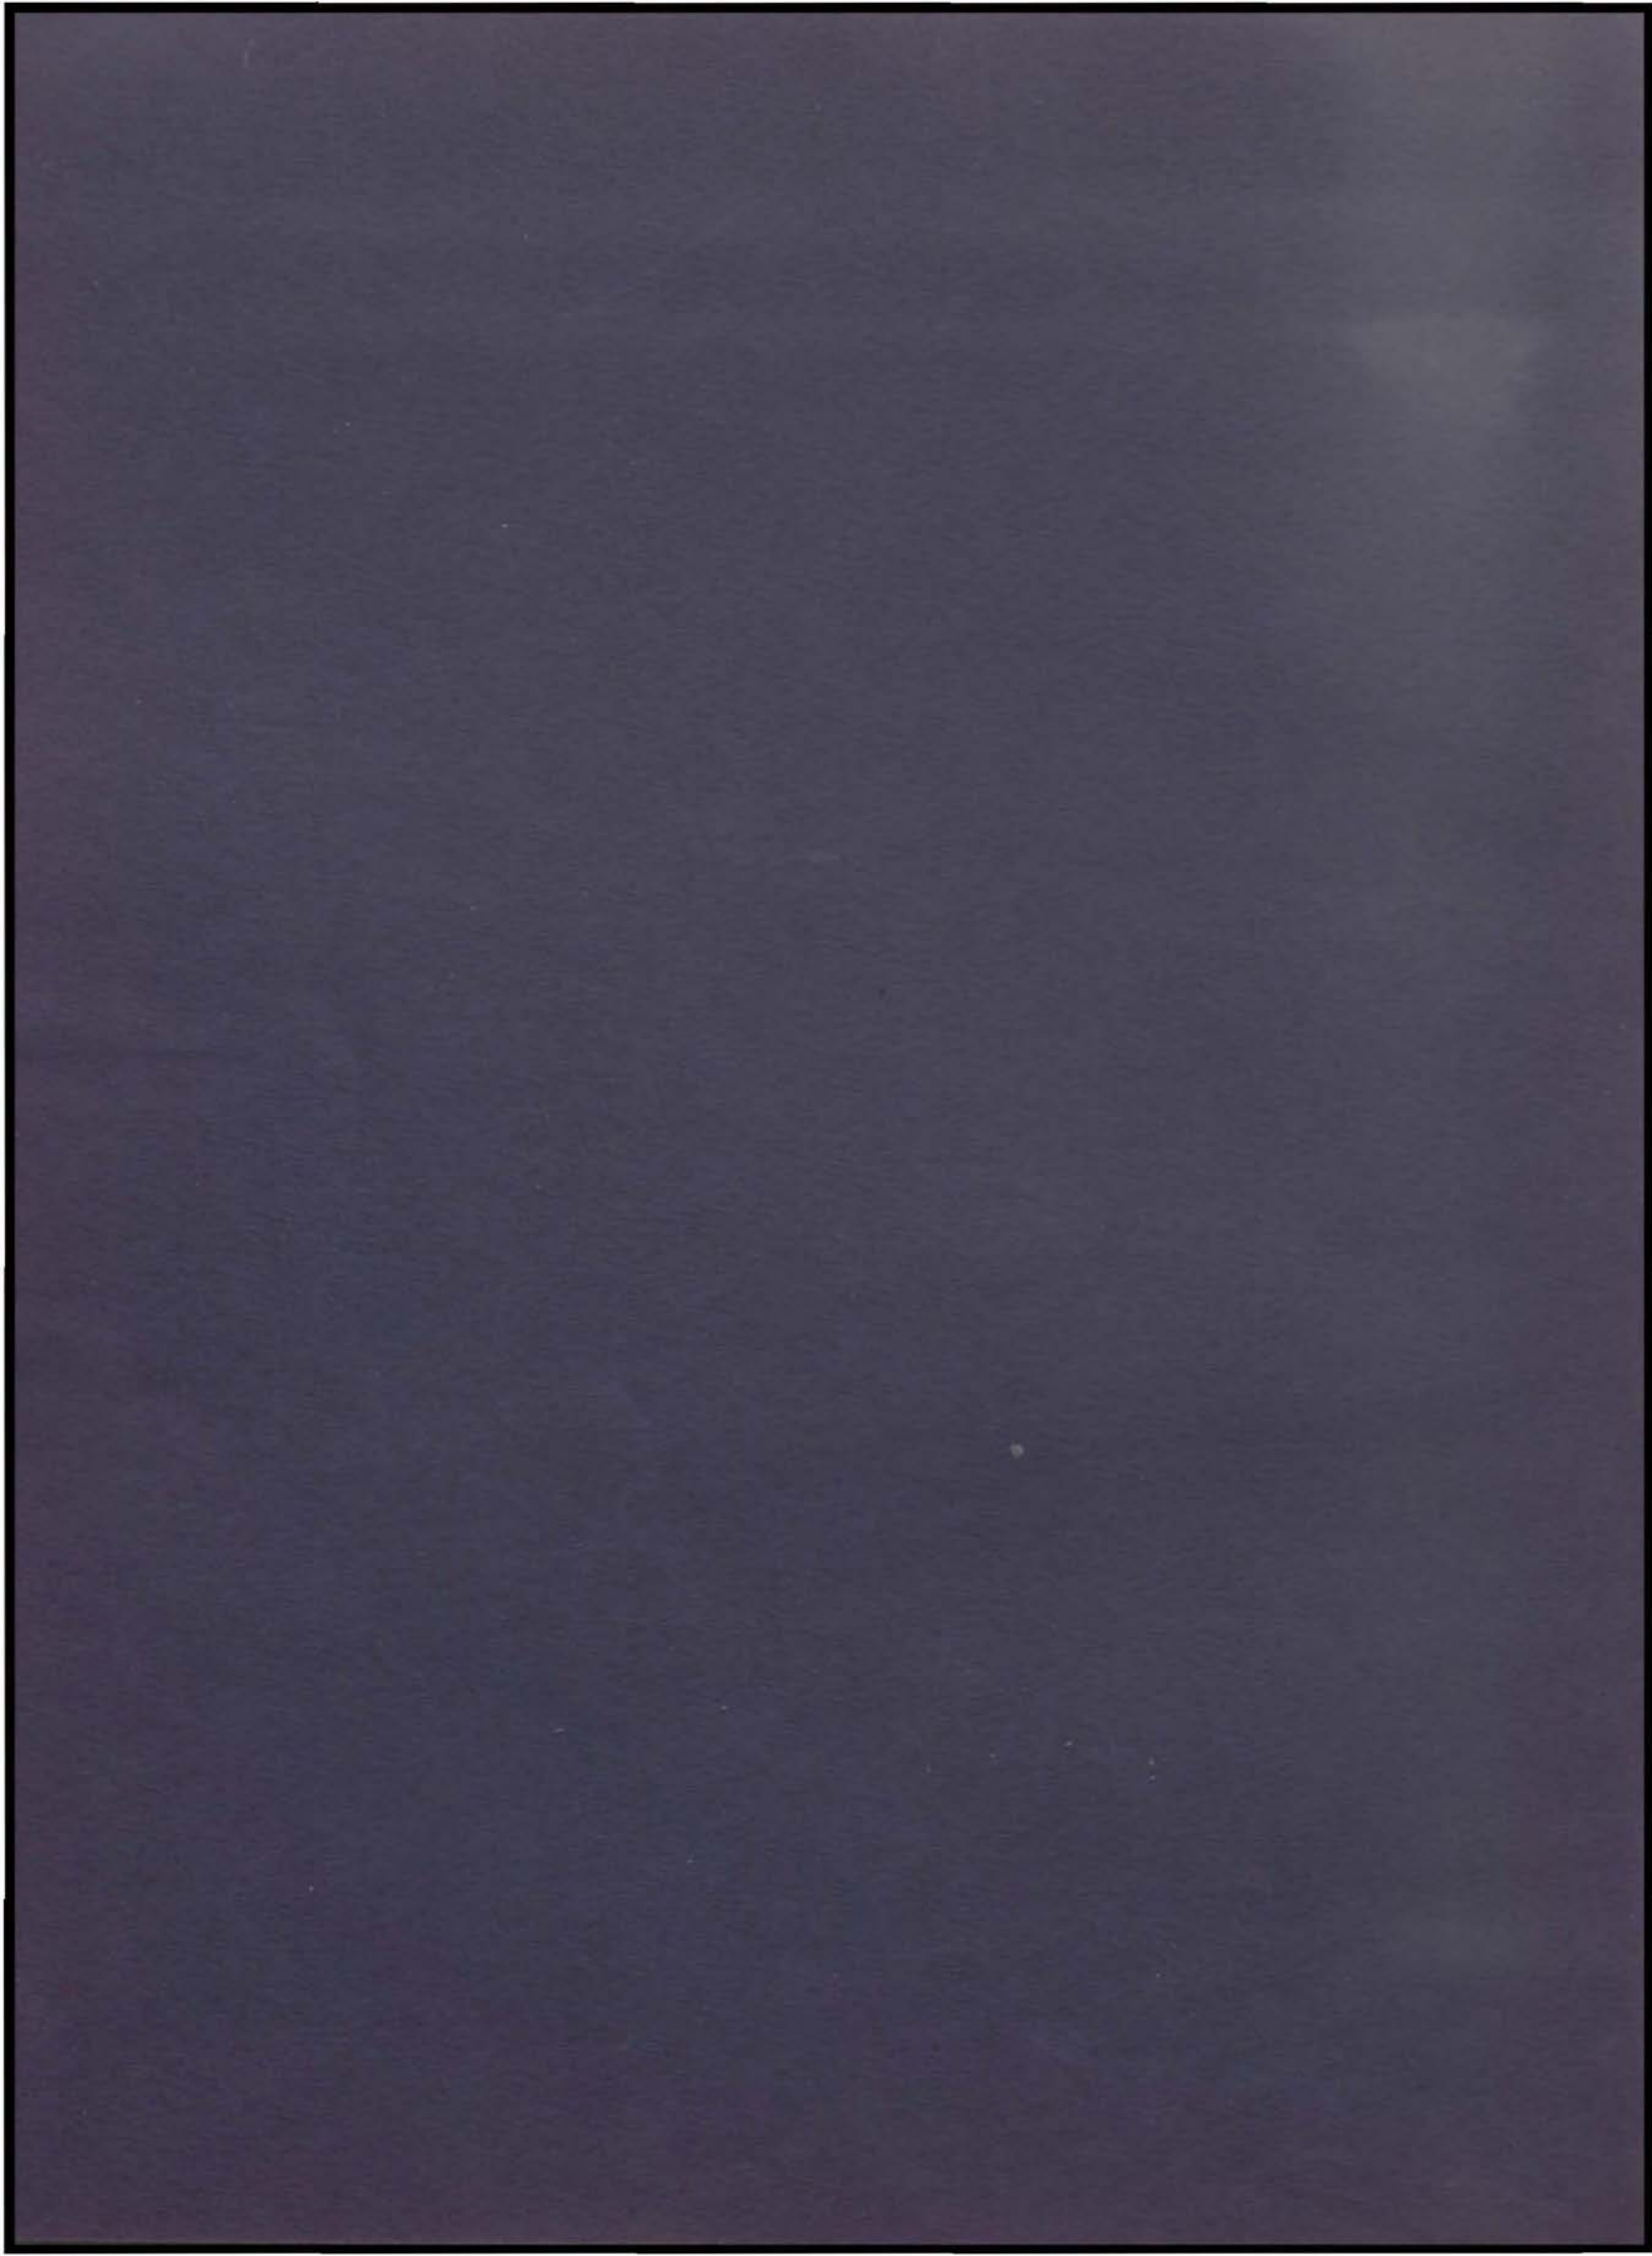

As the light grows dim on another year, we see that Central maintains, through the willing co-operation of cadets, officers, Staff Sergeant Harvey H. Allen, and the student body, its place as the victor—at the top.

FRANK REYNOLDS '37

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL
SENIOR CLASS OF 1937

We, the Senior Class of 1937, of the City of Kansas City, County of Jackson and State of Missouri, being now in good health, strength of body and mind, but sensible of the uncertainty of life, and being aware of achievements not having been accomplished by any of our predecessors, do hereby bequeath and devise the following articles, objects, implements, and hints of untold value and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and cancelling all other or former wills by us at any time made.

First: To all we leave a plan for traffic signals to be installed on the second floor and operated before school and the lovely acoustics of the auditorium which have been replaced by the public address system.

Second: To the Juniors, who will, incidentally, be Seniors next year, we leave among other things, the Ohio Senior tests; a book of the rudiments of under-cover politics, which we found very beneficial in the Senior elections; the Seventh hour study hall as an attraction for truants, together with a most valued compilation, "The Secret of Popularity," which we have followed exclusively throughout our brilliant high school careers.

Third: To the athletic department we bequeath several cases of athlete's foot so they may develop bigger and better football punters.

Fourth: To the cafeteria we leave our associated flavors of chewing gum placed in full array beneath the counters, tables, and stools.

Fifth: To the music department we leave a piano, in tune, which will, if necessary, drown out all comers.

Sixth: To the art department we leave all the old posters of all the various sales campaigns.

Seventh: To the various clubs we leave the agony of "extemp" tryouts, Mr. Laughlin's iron fist under his velvet glove to lay down the law, and some classy new slam-songs for intersociety.

Eighth: To the librarians we leave all the old R. O. T. C. suits to be worn as uniforms, together with brass buttons and badges and recommend the purchase of police clubs.

In witness whereof, we the Senior Class of 1937, have to this, our last will and testament, subscribed our names, this 30th day of February, 1937.

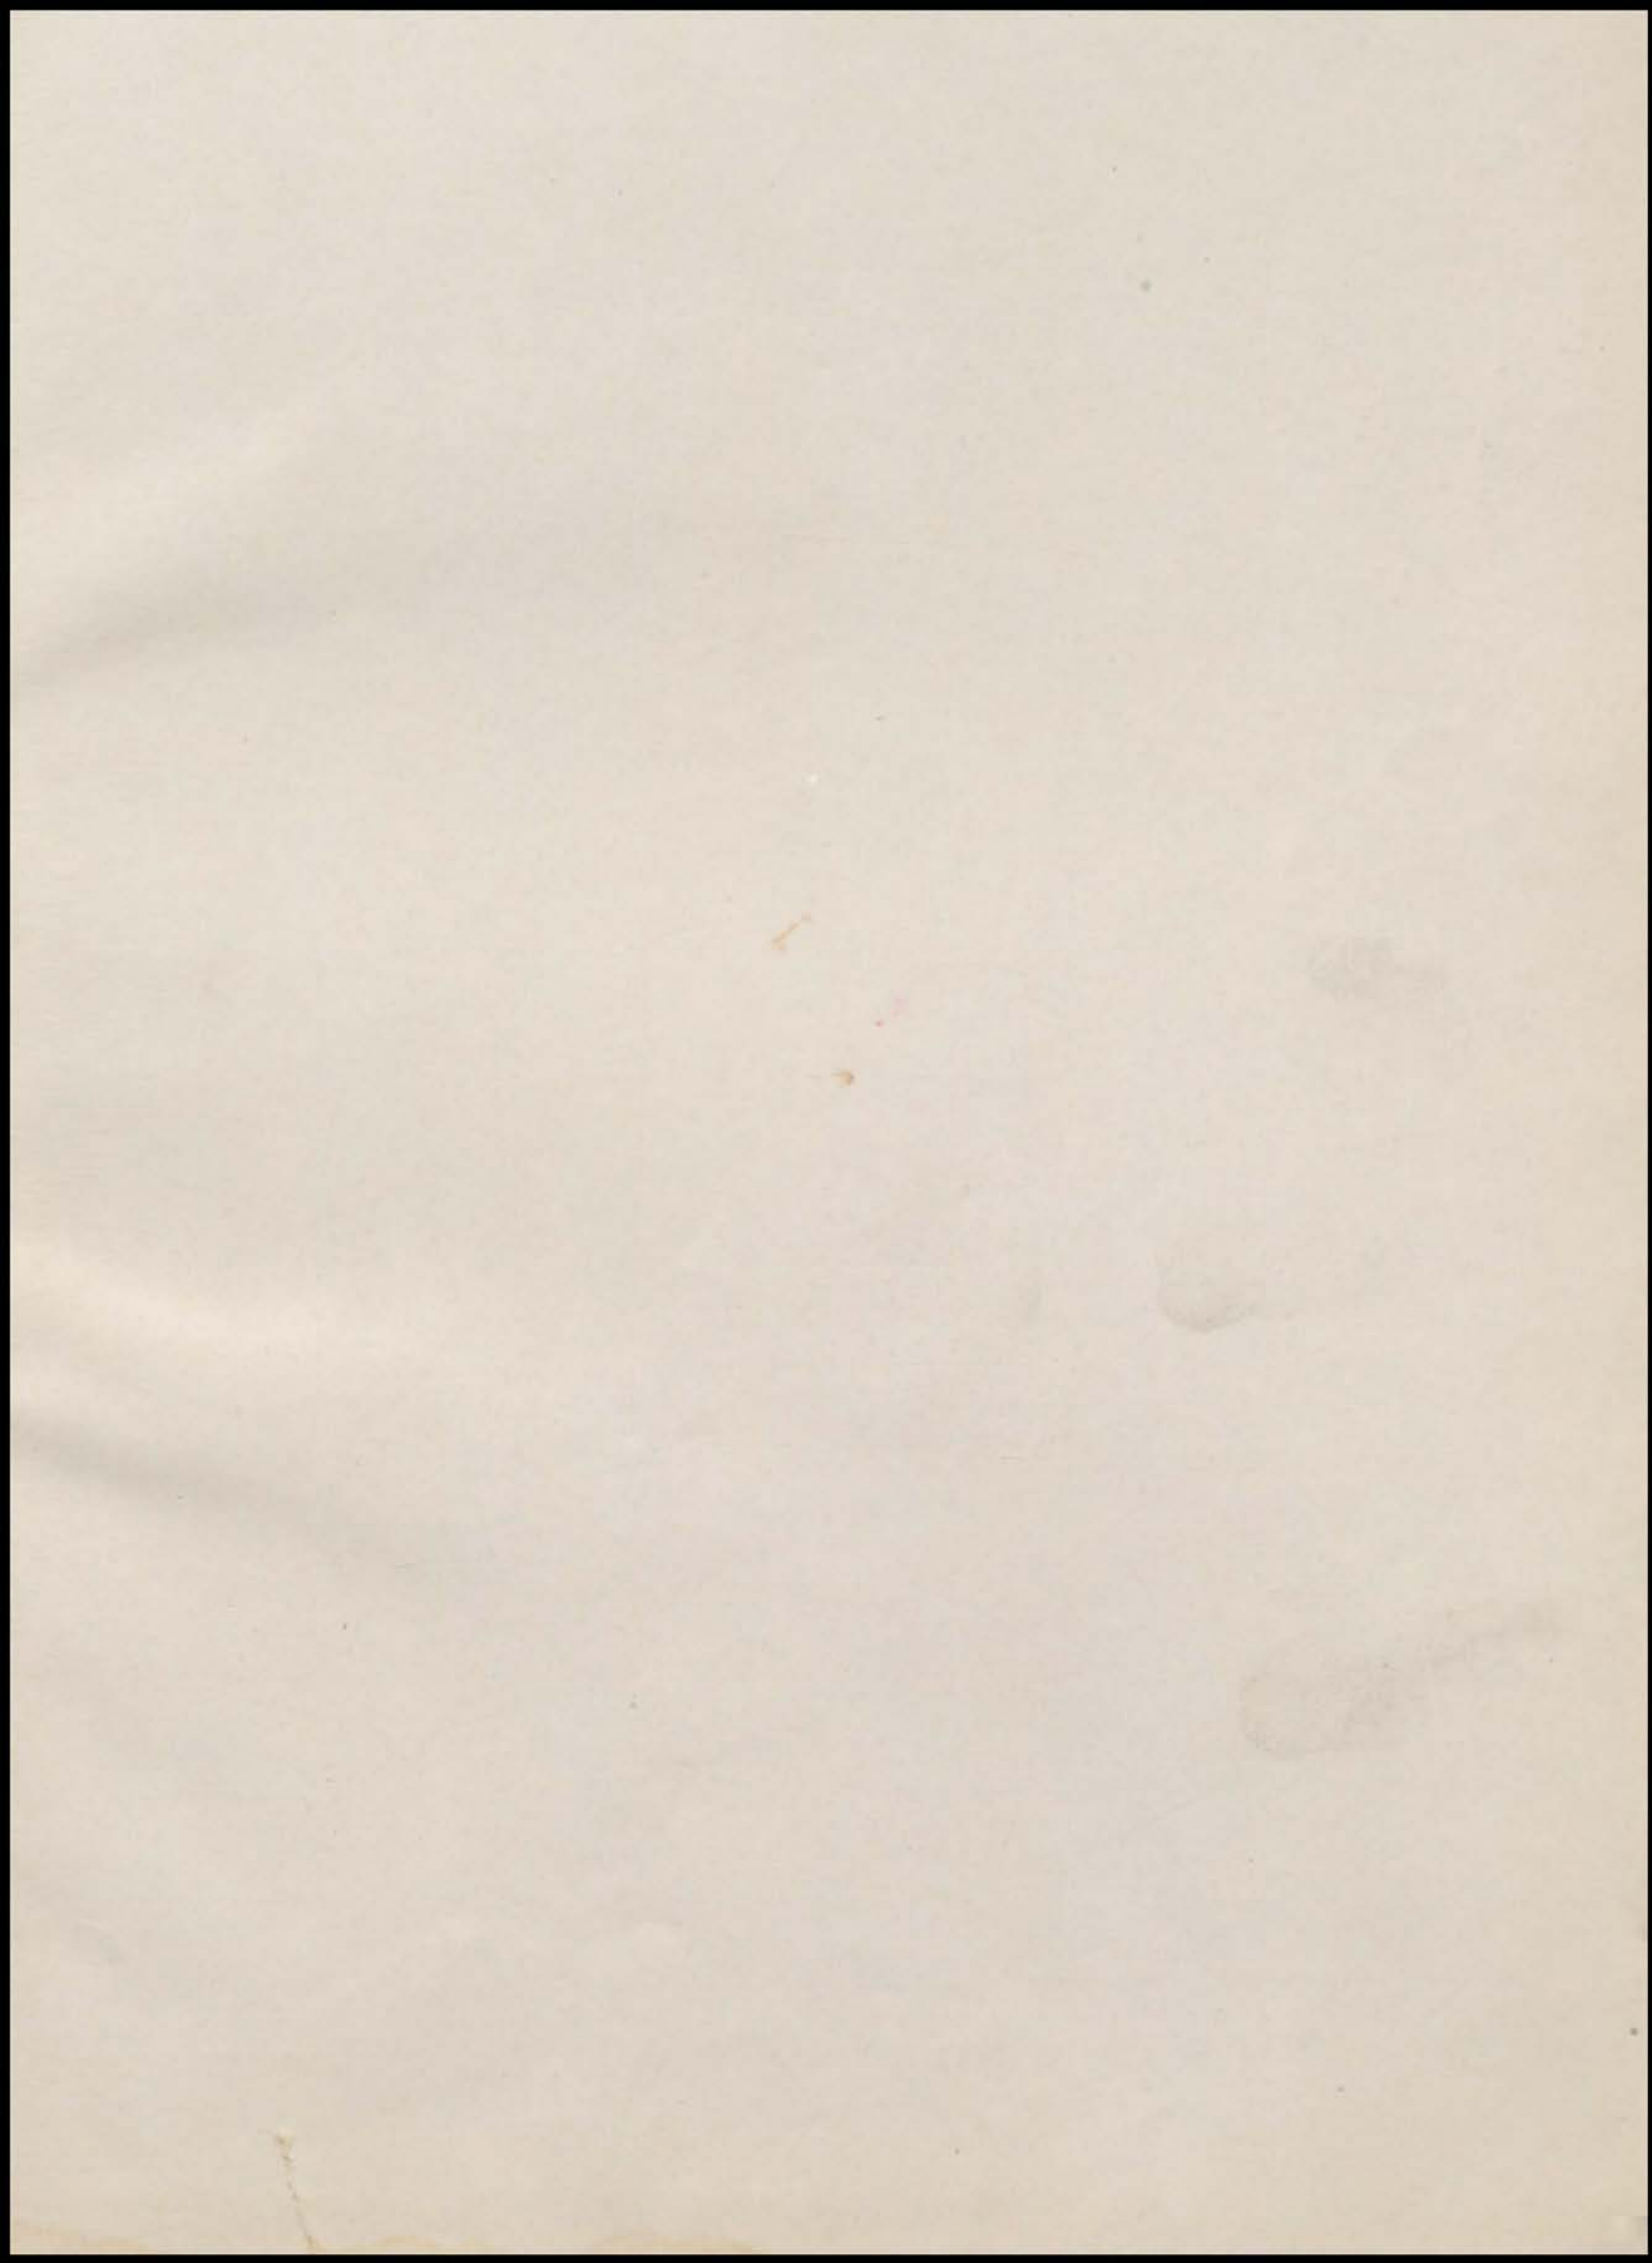

SENIOR CLASS OF '37.

The foregoing instrument, was at the date thereof signed and declared by the said Senior Class of 1937, to be their last will and testament, in the presence of us, who, at their request and in their presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.
