Foreword

With Sputniks and missiles disturbing the tranquillity of space and the Berlin controversy rocking the world, the disturbances the Centralian Staff has had seem minor. Even though collecting fees and payments, counting and getting a balance; making the copy fit its space and achieving an even right-hand margin; corralling the subjects for photographs; and editing the Book has seemed at times more than seven of us could handle; you see, we did it! Thanks to Miss Kite and Mr. Kolb. As we look back it was great! Not only did we learn a lot, but we grew to love Central even more than we did before.

MR. PAUL M. MARSHALL, Principal

Central High School is a well-constructed building erected some forty years ago by a community that cared and wanted her young people to have the best preparation for the future. Located in a community where men of vision dreamed of the future when this city of moderate size would cover much of the farm-lands around, with factories, office buildings, parks, schools, churches, and homes. They dreamed that the boys and girls in Central and other schools of the community would continue that dream. That they, too, would dream of the future. The fathers and mothers in the early days dreamed truly; the boys and girls then in Central carried our their dream of a great city. Fathers and mothers still dream and they are dreaming of your future and the community in which you live. Such is life, and that future is before our Seniors today as they leave the halls of Central.

What will the future be? Will you carry on and see that the boys and girls of the future have an opportunity in a community that cares about where they live, that they have a wholesome community, an opportunity to work and play, a place to worship? It is in your hands what Kansas City is a half century in the future.

MR. GIRARD T. BRYANT, Vice Principal

No age is as challenging as the present; none has offered greater opportunity to the truly inspired person. Technological society can be organized only around trained and disciplined minds. The future offers little for the laggard.

It is my fervent hope that every Central graduate of the class of '59 shall, in some way, great or small, make his or her unique contribution to this astounding era.

MR. GAYLE T. CHUBB, Vice Principal

During these days of national tension the schools are challenged at every turn to train pupils to meet the needs of the country.

Central is doing an excellent job in preparing boys and girls to be successful in their future careers.

You, the members of the senior class of 1959, have the potential to fashion your own lives so that you will be a credit to your school, your family, your friends, and your nation.

MR. DAVID M. KIRK, Counselor

I am sure each graduate is aware of the role he will play as a free individual in a free society. You are no doubt aware that you have personal responsibilities to that society and to the world in general. If you have this sense of awareness you have a desire to learn and to know. You have a sense of the future, a recognition of change and an uncompromising insistence upon thoroughness. May each of you play his role well.

MISS HORTENSE SCHALLER, Counselor

Great satisfaction has come to me as I have seen you develop into leaders willing to accept responsibility, devote unselfish time and effort to honor Central, become aware of your capabilities, and each of you become an important member of your class.

All of us are richer for the expanded horizons in the real meaning of the word of the individual. Each of you has the responsibility to be the best person you can be—all the time—everywhere.

Retirements

MR. O. F. DIERSON

"He was a scholar, learned, wise, and true.
A Christian both in deed and thought;
He loved himself the Golden Rule he taught."

Chaucer

"Dignity" is the word most Centralites feel best characterizes Mr. Dierson. His quiet demeanor, his careful attire, and his pleasant countenance set him apart in any group of teachers. His classroom manner inspired attention and adult behavior from his pupils. As one of his pupils wrote, "Always staunch and prepared for anything, he would laugh with the class at a joke on himself as readily as if it were on another. With kind eyes he would begin his class, made colorful with his vast knowledge or enriched with selections from Nelson's History. His students were always sure that his personal concern and help were sincere and ready when they were needed. He never intentionally embarrassed a student."

Both boy and girl clubs have enjoyed his sponsorship, which was active and loyal. The Jeffersons will long remember him as a co-founder who, with Miss Kite, led the boys to the cup their first year. His retirement, well-earned, will give him more time for enjoyment of his garden and grandchild; but unless he moves away from the district, he will probably be an "every-now-and-then" visitor to Central.

MR. G. L. DOUTHITT

"Of high ideals and virtue was his speech;
And gladly would he learn and gladly teach."

Chaucer

"I feel Central has lost a great teacher," was the remark of some and sanctioned by the less vocal of his students when Mr. Douthitt donned his coat and hat and closed his classroom door for the last time. Lawyer, psychologist, and teacher extraordinary; his classroom manner inspired attention, respect, and affection from his pupils. His learning was balanced by his gentleness; his seriousness by his drollery; and his reserve by his genuine friendliness. He loved a good argument, interspersed with lectures with sound advice, and held his classes spellbound in his narration of some of his many experiences.

Meticulously neat, traveled, and gifted musically—he spends hours at his Hammond organ—Mr. Douthitt was an excellent representative of the profession he had chosen to dignify and so inspired many of his students to choose an educational career. Although he loved his profession he took voluntary retirement to satisfy his love of travel and the leisure he had long coveted.

MISS NEVA E. WING

"The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength, and skill;
A perfect woman, nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort, and command."

Wordsworth

Miss Wing's gracious hospitality has inspired and delighted her many pupils and her colleagues. A connoisseur of household arts and family relations; a warm, expansive nature; a sense of humor and fair play modestly characterizes Miss Wing. Always thoughtful for the comfort of others, she set an example of consideration to her pupils by permitting them to prepare and carry an appetizing tray to a frail or sorrowing teacher; and often spent money for clothing or needed supplies for an indigent pupil. Happy indeed were her classes when holiday luncheons were the lessons of the week. Taste buds were educated, culinary skills developed, and artistry perfected through skills developed in 406, as many a bride can testify. Inspiring her girls to success in competition was Miss Wing's forte. Two silver trays, which enhance any tea given at the school, were won by her classes for the best "set" table in Hall's table setting contest.

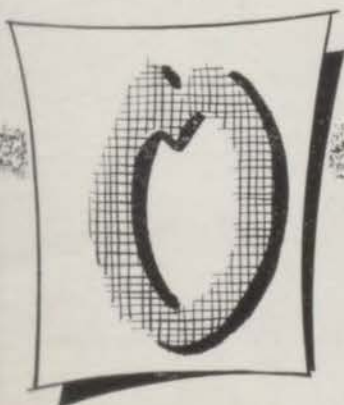

Her loyalty to Central, her strength in adversity, and her Christian faith will keep her remembrance vivid while she is enjoying her retirement in her comfortable homes here and in Michigan.

Sometimes we have felt organizations took more of our time and attention than our classes; but what would the seniors have after their names if we didn't have organizations? In a big school we get our fellowship and our training in leadership and working together in our clubs and societies.

First Semester Student Council Officers

Under the capable direction of Miss Rebekah Leibengood and President Earl Evans, the first semester Student Council accomplished numerous tasks.

Notes of sympathy were sent to faculty members and students in case of serious illnesses or deaths of members of the immediate families; the Cafeteria Committee organized a crew of boys to aid in the cafeteria during each lunch shift to clear the lunch tables; and the Student Council Cabinet selected students most representative of Central to participate on Heart of America Bandstand.

A profitable first semester Student Council was the result of many duties performed by the cabinet, representatives, and faculty cooperating together for betterment of the greatest school ever—CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL!

Second Semester Student Council Officers

The first important event that the Second Semester Student Council was confronted with was that of backing the American Field Service drive to sell enough shares for next year's Foreign Exchange Student. With the aid of Central's present exchange students and others throughout the city, the campaign was a success. Central students were the guests on TV Teentown, February 25, presenting the best show ever. This year, instead of an exchange assembly, it was decided to have a talent assembly. The problem which arose because of the excessive amount of litter found on and around the school's premises was taken over by the Council.

The Student Council and officers are to be commended on a job well done for promoting the development and participation of self-government in furthering the unity of the student body.

Honor Society

The Central Honor Society was organized for those students with enough ambition and determination to achieve fourteen or more scholarship points for at least two successive semesters. The members of the Central Honor Society are proud to belong to this distinguished organization; but particularly proud are those who can retain the required grade standard every semester of their high school careers. This achievement certainly is one to be proud of!

After meeting the requirements for membership a student is allowed to wear the bronze pin. Four semesters of honor status entitle the student to wear the silver pin. Seven semesters of high quality work make a student eligible to wear the coveted gold medal which is presented to the winner at an assembly in the spring planned by the Honor Society's sponsors and officers.

A senior who has maintained a 3.10 grade average is graduated with "distinction" and entitled to add one pearl to his gold medal. Anyone with a 3.50 grade average may add two pearls to his pin and be graduated with "high distinction." A person with a 3.65 grade average has reached the top rung of scholastic achievement and is graduated with "highest distinction" and proudly wears three pearls with his gold medal.

The members of the Society exert a good influence on the whole school as they fulfill their pledge to uphold the high ideals of Central and to maintain scholastic standards worthy of their best ability.

Y-Teens

Through the Y-Teens, girls can acquire valuable friendships. By helping others, Y-Teens become aware of world situations and make mature citizens for future Christian living. Several of the Y-Teens have attended the many conferences available in the Kansas City area.

For a first semester money-raising project, Central's club had a car wash. The World Fellowship Dinner at Christmas time started off the spirit of giving. Again this year the Y-Teens sold delicious candy as a money-raising project for the second semester. To wind up the year the annual Mother-Daughter banquet was held.

The Central Hi-Y, under the leadership of Mr. Macey, has had the project of helping teenagers. They encourage the teenage boys to join the "Y" and practice being courteous, respectful and friendly. Social activities are planned to keep the members off the streets at night and engage in wholesome activities. Another project has been to keep the Central district clean and beautiful; they strive never to be a Litter Bug.

The "Y" had a winning basketball team, taking first place in the tournament at K. C. U.

They also sponsored the Thanksgiving and Easter services here at Central.

Horizon Club

The Horizon Club of Senior Camp Fire is a national club designed for high school girls. It is for girls who are interested in camping, traveling, community service, and personality development. The two clubs at Central have been active with a combined membership of forty-five. They participated in the Greater Kansas City Round-Up at Kansas City University. Linda Linville attended the Seven-State Regional Conference in Boone, Iowa. United Nations Day was observed with an "Around the World Dinner." A Christmas Cheer party was provided for the children of Niles Home, climaxed with a Holiday breakfast. Margaret Fields, Linda and Elaine Linville represented the Central Horizon Club at the Seven-State Regional Horizon Club Conference in Wichita, Kansas, April 3-5. An Annual Recognition Service was held May 24 at the home of Mrs. Russell Stover. With the aid of their sponsor, Mrs. E. W. Zenor, this year's Horizon Club program was a complete success.

Science Club

The newest club at Central High School is the Science Club, which was started this year by Mr. Johnson, science teacher. The club is limited to freshmen and sophomores.

The members of the club put their knowledge of science to good use by making science projects. They watch their crude ideas shape up into projects good enough to be entered in the Science Fair.

The officers are: Tom Gaylord, President, and Jo Ann Wiggins, Secretary-Treasurer.

Los Conquistadores

The "Los Conquistadores," though smaller in number than previous years, has been aided by Central's Foreign Exchange Student from Guatemala, Cconsuelo Espana Valdez. The first semester proved educational as well as entertaining.

From Connie's talks on Guatemala and discussions on other Spanish-speaking countries, a new interest was aroused in their customs and daily life. A Christmas party, Spanish style, was the most successful of all the club's activities. Spanish food and the famed pinata provided education as well as fun.

During the second semester the club's attention was turned to the selling of shares, to bring another Foreign Exchange Student to Central.

Thespian Club

The Thespian Club was organized to inspire young and upcoming talent in the music and speech departments. Eligibility for membership is based upon one's ability to do one of four things: sing, dance, act, or play a musical instrument. To retain his membership in the club one must perform at least once a semester before the club. Various activities, including picnics and parties, were enjoyed by the club throughout the year. Officers were Deanna Snowden, President; Claudia Headen, Vice-President; Ethelyn Davis, Secretary; Grace Robinson, Treasurer. Through the aid of their sponsor, Mr. Nance, the Thespian Club has had a very successful year.

Le Cercle Francais

The purpose of the French Club is "To promote better understanding of French and to stimulate interest in it." The programs were designed to fulfill this purpose. Miss Agnes Engel, sponsor, showed slides of France at one meeting. Central's foreign exchange student from Guatemala and Central's exchange students to Germany and France provided other interesting and educational programs. The club carried its interest of French life even to their parties, for at the Christmas party they had eggnog and canape.

Der deutsche Verein

The German Club has had a very enjoyable year, learning about and understanding German customs, culture, and singing songs familiar to the country. A delightful dinner was held in the fall at the home of Ruth Bush. An authentic German menu was served to the pleasure of the members. John Hunkeler, our foreign exchange student, showed interesting and colorful films he took while he was in Germany. This spring the club had a picnic in honor of the seniors. With the expert help of Miss Agnes Engel, the sponsor, the German Club had a very successful and wonderful year.

A. A. U. W.

Ten girls are chosen each year by the counselors for membership in Central's chapter of the Hundred Girls Club. Like groups from the Kansas City high schools are sponsored by the American Association of University Women. The purpose of the club is to encourage girls to continue their education in college.

At the Sophian Plaza the A.A.U.W. entertained the girls at a Christmas brunch, at which former members who are now in college shared their experiences, and at a spring tea, which featured a noted educator. This year a new plan of visiting college campuses was started. These contacts with members of the A.A.U.W. have been beneficial to the girls, enabling them to make wise college choices and helping them for college entrances.

Future Teachers

Under the direction of first semester president, Joyce Hukill, and second semester president, Betty Jo Caruthers, the Future Teachers took part in the Missouri State Teachers Convention which was held in Kansas City in November. At the bi-monthly meetings, films, discussions and speakers were enjoyed by everyone.

"We Future Teachers of Central High School willfully contribute our best to our chosen profession; now being better students, and later being better teachers."

Engineers Club

The purpose of the Engineers Club is to give practice in reports and experimentation in Engineering projects. Any student in the higher classes of science or mathematics is eligible for membership. The club meets every two weeks in Room 211 and has a membership of thirty-one.

The programs were all interesting and informative. A speaker and movie on the "Solar Battery" was the program for one meeting. "Engineering as a Career" was the topic of another of the guest speakers.

Aquiliferi

Aquiliferi means "eagle bearer," a fitting name for the Latin Club in a school whose symbol is the eagle. In Roman times, the aquiliferi were standard bearers who led the Roman army into battle. Instead of a flag, they each carried a pole with a golden eagle on the top. As they upheld Rome's eagle, or standard, Central's Aquiliferi aim to uphold the standards of Central.

This club is a chapter of the Junior Classical League, a national organization of over 63,000 members interested in the language, literature, and arts of Greece and Rome. Attendance at J.C.L. conventions provides the climax in the year's activities. The regular club programs offer an opportunity for more Latin plays, games, songs, mythology, and historical background than class time will permit.

"C" Club

The Central "C" Club is composed of boys who have earned and been awarded letters in varsity sports and have maintained certain standards in scholarship, citizenship, and sportsmanship.

The boys in the "C" Club learn to put the honor of their school and team ahead of personal honor. They learn the true meaning of real sportsmanship. People look up to "C" Club boys because they represent the true Central spirit, and are an important part in the promotion of brotherhood among Centralites.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Harry Slaymaker and President Eldon Hodges, the "C" Club carried out its main task of supplementing the athletic fund so as to insure future Central athletes the privilege of participating in Interscholastic athletics. This is an important part of every boy's ambition.

Upon entering the club, boys must take an oath and swear to uphold the name of Central no matter what the cost.

The Central Olympian is built upon the purpose of promoting health and happiness of the girls and creating active interest in girls' athletics. Money for the "C's" and highest awards for the Girls' Physical Education Department is taken from the Olympian treasury.

This year, Miss Janet Shepherd, who is a past president of Olympian Club, became the new sponsor of this club. During the Christmas season, the Olympians adopted a needy family and sent them bushels of food and clothing. Among their many interesting activities, this year, was a trip to C.M.S.C. to see the annual water show held at Warrensburg. They rented a bus and invited Van Horn's Lancers Club to go with them. Everyone had a wonderful time.

Other activities included New Member's Dinner, New Officer's Dinner, and Sportsday Dinners. To close a wonderful and successful year the underclassmen held a Senior Farewell in honor of the Senior members.

Red Cross

The Red Cross is a branch of the American Red Cross. It serves to give high school students the privilege of becoming aware of the services of the organization and realizing the joy that comes from serving those in need. Christmas stockings to Veterans is their main project. These are filled by the home rooms. Their creed is: "We believe in service for others, for our country, our community, and our school; in health of mind and body to fit us for greater service; and in working for better human relations throughout the world."

Chess Club

Affectionate friendship, varied by occasional skull-bashing, could be called the current tradition of the Central Chess Club. This year's members sometimes have conducted their meetings like Roman holidays to the alarm of defenseless wayfarers passing room 206; but the spirit of enthusiasm was never lacking.

Nonetheless, Chess Club members seriously pride themselves in learning and becoming more proficient in the game of kings. In triumph or defeat, members of this year's club learned the skill of better organizing their ideas and plans, through chess strategy. In winning, the victor acquired the feeling of accomplishment which comes with success at this game of mental combat; in losing, his opponent gained proof that there is just reward for superior power of thought, and derived practical knowledge of his own more skillful comebacks in future games.

Mu Alpha Theta

OFFICERS

This year Central received its charter and became an official chapter of Mu Alpha Theta. Mu Alpha Theta is a national organization whose purpose is to encourage interest and further study in mathematics. The organization is open to all students of higher mathematics who have superior grades. Each of the twenty-seven charter members participated in the Tenth Annual Mathematical Contest on March 5, sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America.

The chapter chose to hold its meetings on alternate Mondays. The first meeting was an initiation ceremony at the home of its sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Wells. The following officers were installed: Jon Barwise, president; Scott Brooks, vice-president; Janet Sturgess, secretary-treasurer, and Barbara Butcher, program chairman. Another outstanding meeting was a lecture by a faculty member, Mr. Moore, on "The Calculus."

Locker Patrol

The students on Locker Patrol are chosen by the vice-president of the Student Council. Their job is to watch lockers, report people loitering in the halls, and help visitors find their way through the halls to their destination. Patrols at the entrances take permits from students leaving the building for C.O.E., home lunch, and other special excuses.

History of the Intersociety

To the clubs, the biggest event of the year is the holding of the annual Intersociety Contest. From the beginning of school they are looking forward to and preparing for it. This contest enables them to match their literary skill against each other. The spirit of competition is always very high, for the winner gains possession of the William Powell loving cup for the succeeding year. Very good literary pieces are created. Thus, in many ways, it is the highest point of the year and it brings many benefits. Without Intersociety to spur the clubs on to greater achievements, there would be an immeasurable loss in their foremost aim, literary accomplishment.

The Intersociety contests originated in 1886. The spirit of rivalry suggested the holding of annual contests between the High School Debating Society and the Platonian Society. The struggle for superiority continued between these two clubs for many years until the faculty demanded that the Society of Literature and History and the Philo Society be admitted into the competition. The two older clubs refused to comply with the faculty's demand, resulting in the discontinuance of Intersocieties until 1903. From then to the present time all literary societies have been allowed to join in the competition.

The events in the original contests consisted of debate, poem, essay, oration, and declamation. Gradually the events underwent changes until they became the present formal, informal, and personal narrative essays, and verse, prepared speech, and declamation entries. Sponsors, appointed by the Principal, aid in drilling the members in the arts of literary composition and verbal expression. At the regular club meetings, a program consisting of the original writings and creations of the members is presented. By means of these exercises the members are given valuable practice for their work in the Intersocieties.

During 1958 the Emersons and Franklins were forced into uniting forces and forming one club because of their inability to acquire enough members. Recently the other societies have also been faced with the problem of rushing. Rather than dwindle into nothingness, each of the clubs voted February 27, 1959, to disband in a final blaze of glory April 24th. When the shouting and excitement has faded into the distance and the fragments of gayly colored crepe paper have been swept away, so will end another memorable occasion in the lives of hundreds of loyal Centralites—the seventy-second and last annual Central High School Intersociety Contest.

Aristonian Literary Society

OFFICERS

The Aristonians started this year with a combination Western-slumber-rush party at Karen Hampton's home. Later in the summer, the rushees were invited to a progressive dinner; one of each of the four courses was served in the homes of Nancy Shull, Karen Hampton, Charlene Morgenstern, and Carol Boyd. After the dinner ALS enjoyed a swimming party at Janet Hunt's house.

A coke party at the Linwood "Y" started off the first day of school with a gay note, as the Aristonians danced with the Websters and their rushees. As the school year progressed, a pinning party was held at the Blue Ridge Christian Church. At the beginning of the second semester, the rushees were greeted as new members, having pledged to take "the bitter with the sweet."

As we look forward to the last Intersociety, we know that through our sadness will shine the happiness that comes with the remembrance of good times with our sisters and our Webster brothers.

The boys in the Red 'n White started the school year with a rousing get-together at Jackson County Lake with the Aristonians to become acquainted with their rushees.

Songs were written early so the old members could teach them to the new after their induction; in order to keep up their tradition of having the sharpest songs in Intersociety.

Parties with the Aristonians highlighted the year along with stag parties which were held to get acquainted with the new members. After pledge court, the approaching literary contest took all of our attention.

Events were written and revised. Songs were practiced. Paper was boxed. Clothes were decided upon and proved to be the sharpest ever to be worn by the Central Webster Club.

Under the leadership of their sponsor, Mr. Melvin Smith, Earl Evons, Intersociety Representative, and the four term presidents, John Hunkeler, Don Austin, Bob Brauning, and Don Williams, the Websters completed a very eventful and successful year.

Since this is the last year for CWC, may the name of Webster, and the Red 'n White long be remembered in the halls of Central, and cherished by those who knew them.

After discovering that this was to be the last year for literary societies at Central, D.L.S. set to work even harder to keep the cup we won last year.

Even during the summer "rush" months our sights were set on winning Intersociety again. In keeping with this, our new members were chosen for their literary and leadership ability. A sock hop was held in August at Rock Creek school for the purpose of meeting our rushees. On the first day of school, following the morning session, Delphians and Jeffersons attended the annual coke party at the home of Janice Hicks. Stuffed dogs were given to rushees at the slumber party following the Wyandotte game.

Finally deciding upon the rushees to be pledged they were given pins to wear at a pinning party at Nadine Lind's. The annual Christmas alumni party was held during the December holidays. Many Jefferson and Delphian alumni attended. In February our Black and White Tea to honor the Jeffersons was held at the home of Claudia Headen. On Valentine's Day our brothers presented us with carnations; turn about is fair play so they attended our Sweetheart Dance that evening.

Drawing closer to Intersociety our efforts were concentrated on presenting a good showing on April 23 and 24. We have worked hard and are confident whether we win or lose the Rose and Silver will shine as bright as they always have.

"Be a Jefferson and you'll have a ball." This year the Jeffersons have proved this standard song. They started in the summer with a swimming party with the Delphians at Kernodles, and then rocked through a sock hop at Rock Creek. The first day of school they beat the heat with a coke party. The Jeffersons added to school spirit with the annual chili supper, before and a procession after with Central's colors streaming from every car, to the victory at Wyandotte. They braved the snow to attend their Alumni dance, stag party on New Year's Eve, and sledding party. The Jeffersons have left their mark on Kansas City where all can see it—on top of Blue Ridge Water Tower.

"Daisies, Daisies everywhere," was the theme for T.L.S.'s first rush party in August. Entertaining their rushees with typical Thalian friendliness, the girls in Gold and White initiated them into the fun, excitement, and thrill of the season. More informal was the Thalian-Trojan watermelon feed held for both groups and their rushees. Everyone had a delightful time with the program including a pantomime by four of our more illustrious members.

The annual pinning party, held amidst candles, daisies, and smiles from all, marked the pledge of loyalty given by many lovely girls, anticipating membership in the society. On February 22nd, the Gold and White commemorated the unification of over a score of girls drawn together by mutual friendship and congeniality. With Intersociety night as a final farewell, each Thalian felt the 1958-59 year had undoubtedly been the most outstanding of all and certainly one they would never forget.

The Trojans kept the fall season hopping with many interesting activities. Pledge parties, football games, T.L.S. picnics, and a Halloween party were autumn highlights.

A Christmas dance, basketball, and second semester rushing filled the long winter days.

With spring, Intersociety events were polished, songs were written, and surprise outfits were chosen.

The Trojans have worked hard and contributed much to life at Central High School this year.

The Society of Literature and History is celebrating their sixty-eighth birthday. It is the oldest Literary Society at Central High School.

The Slaches started their 1958-59 year with a Spanish Fiesta. Entertainment was a floor show, with the mistress of ceremonies, Linda Hatcher. Ship Ahoy was the theme of the second rush party held at the home of Roberta Chaddock. The annual Root Beer party was held on the second day of school at the home of Sandra Scotten. Fun and enjoyment was had by all. Before the Wyandotte game a chili supper was held at the home of Myra Worchester. A chartered bus took members and rushees to the game. After the game, a slumber party was held at the home of Judy Hickam. A sleepless night was enjoyed by everyone. The project for Christmas was the singing of carols at Saint Mary's Hospital. The party was continued by the exchanging of gifts at the home of Sandra Scotten. In January, a potluck supper was held prior to the Central-Raytown basketball game at the home of Carol Rowe. February, the annual Blue and Blue dinner was held at the Wishbone Restaurant. The Slaches have the distinction of having won the first Intersociety and have been working hard with the hopes that they might win the last.

The great events of the year are made so because of the united efforts of many for the benefit of "Dear Old Central." No one needs this record of the "Idlings of the King" nor of Senior Day, but we thought you'd like having them anyway.

Centralian

The Centralian is the one year-long project of Central High School. A total of 2,100 or more hours has gone into the production of this 1959 annual. Seven seniors have been the personnel of the combined editorial, business and photography staffs, under the sponsorship of Miss Ila Maude Kite. They, like Christopher Wren, whose epitaph in St. Paul's reads, "If you seek my monument look about you," say, "If you seek our contribution to Central, thumb through the pages of this year book." May your enjoyment of the pictures and copy grow with the years!

Nine ambitious seniors, wearing white ribbons printed with the word "Centralian," ranged our halls, under the inspirational leadership of Mr. Nolan Alexander, selling Centralian cards. Four of them sold more than 100 each. Nancy Shull sold the most, with over 300. These young people composed the Sales Staff: Donna Ashley, Karen Masteller, Ann Rowley, Arthur Peterson, Nina Vertress, Nancy Shull, Robert Richardson, Janice McClelland and Grace Robinson.

Luminary

Luminary reporters are kept busy running to and fro. Page editors have all, long since, lost their hair, and the sponsor, Miss Oldham, keeps saying, "Why did I ever get picked for this job!" But the Luminary comes from the printers and into the hands of the subscribers as a finished product bearing the news of Central's accomplishments and many an item of entertainment and information.

The Luminary has been complimented this year, not only for its news coverage, but for its sparkling special columns. Connie Espana, our Exchange Student, has written two columns.

Students who do top-ranking work on the Luminary staff are recommended for Quill and Scroll, an international honor society for outstanding work in high school journalism.

The officers who presided for the year are as follows: President, Kay Lee; Vice-President, John Richerson; Secretary, Jeanne Zmek; Treasurer, Tom Richards, and Librarian, Caryn Craig.

The choir began the new year with its annual Choir Picnic, held for the purpose of getting acquainted with new faces as well as voices.

A few of the many performances that the choir participated in were: Fall Assembly, a radio broadcast, an act in Eaglemania, Christmas program and assemblies, All-City Choir Festival, Spring Festival, and graduation exercises.

The Central Singers, which consist of a select few picked from Concert Choir, performed frequently.

The Girls' Choir, consisting of fifty-five girls led by Mr. Robert Downs, began the school year with an assembly with a variety of songs. At Christmas time, along with Concert Choir, they presented a program in a school assembly and a Sunday afternoon. The Easter message was spread through song in a double assembly and on Easter Sunday as they performed as the choir of Trinity Methodist Church. They closed the school year with a spring festival presented with Concert Choir.

Twelve Angry Women

The theme of "Twelve Angry Women" is simply that when justice has at least one advocate, it can surmount prejudice, misinformation, and general disinterest. In this play there is a hung jury and consequently no plot. "Twelve Angry Women" is a play which examines the validity of social concepts and attitudes and leaves one with the persuasive feeling that right, given a square deal, can triumph.

This year's play cast was fortunate in that Mr. Nance's practice teacher, a graduate student in drama at the University of Kansas City, Miss Carolyn McClure, did the actual directing.

Eaglemania

Several years having passed without a school-wide talent show, raising money for a low school fund seemed an excellent opportunity for such a grouping of artists. (Mr. Bryant thought some of our students might very well find their life careers on Central's stage.) The Fine Arts department assembled their idea makers, script writers, and technicians and the show was off to a good start. Their ideas seemed so wild the name of Eaglemania seemed to be a fitting title. Mr. David Kirk put "pen to hand" or "hand to pen"; at any rate the school decided he might next year be in Hollywood since their TV show was such a grand success. The theme, if one would call it that, was space men visiting Central. The curtain opened with a "bang" as the two from the aisles bounced onto the stage and then actors strutted their stuff: Idylings of the King, The Gayle Chubb Show, The Gerard Bryant Talent Scout Show, The John Evans' "Nightie Night" Show, The Hortense Schaller Show, and El Rancho Marshall—a "petite" can-can show by our graceful football players, and a ventriloquist! The two student directors, Barbara Beckwith and Ann Rowley, are to be congratulated on the "Thespian" success of the show. The financial success? Oh, well! It uncovered our talent!

Pep Club

Central's full-time, full-of-life cheerleaders directed the cheering, shouting, clapping, and stamping at all of the football and basketball games. The cheerleaders, with Ann Rowley as captain, spent many hours each week during the summer practicing their cheers. All the cheerleaders participated in a cheerleader clinic last summer held in St. Joseph, Missouri. Carol Boyd and Ann Rowley also attended a clinic held at the University of Oklahoma last summer. As a result of all this practice, everyone enjoyed lots of new and really interesting cheers.

The 1959 Pep Club got into full swing under the direction of Barbara Beckwith, president, and Miss Jean Pinkerton, faculty sponsor. Wearing their traditional uniforms of Central's blue and white, the members cheered for the victory of our Eagles at both football and basketball games. Through tireless efforts at drills after school, the girls executed maneuvers on the football fields during half time. Besides forming the initials of the opposing school or team, the standard letters formed were "C" for Central, and "E" for Eagles. The activities of our Pep Club were staunchly supported by other Centralites, which helped to spur our wonderful football team on to the very superior heights they attained this year by tying for third place in the Interscholastic League.

C. O. E.

Through the C.O.E. program, our members have obtained a supervised work experience while attending school and therefore will be better prepared for a full-time job.

The success of a work-experience program depends upon the growth and development of the students at the school and on-the-job. We have had a larger number enrolled this year; the students have been very satisfactory on their training jobs; they have been able to keep their training stations during the seasonal lay-offs and they have maintained higher scholastic averages than other groups we have had enrolled.

These seniors have represented Central with distinction in business and industry this year.

Here She Is, Central's '59 Homecoming Queen

MISS KAREN MASTELLER, 1959 Homecoming Queen

On the fourth of November, an assembly was held to introduce the candidates for Central's Homecoming Queen. Each campaign manager gave a short speech stating the qualifications of his candidate. The entire school then voted to choose the three finalists. The final balloting was done by the students who held season passes. The whole school was tense with excitement.

Central played Northeast on November 6 and during the half time, the queen candidates and the attendants were driven around the field in open cars. Ann Rowley, Sylvia Braddix, and Karen Masteller, who were all vying to be queen, were escorted by R.O.T.C. cadets to the middle of the field. Girard T. Bryant, vice-principal, then stepped forward and crowned Karen the 1958 Homecoming Queen. Karen was presented a bouquet of roses and the two princesses beautiful corsages.

Varsity Game By Game

The mighty Eagles gained a great victory this year in the traditional non-league game with Wyandotte High School, beating the Bulldogs by a score of 7-6. This was the first Eagle victory over Wyandotte in eight years of play.

Victory again flew with the Eagles in their next game as they trounced the Van Horn Falcons 25-6 in their first league collision.

Triumphantly moving along, Central ripped through Manual on the Southeast field, 48-0. This was followed by a smashing victory over the Southwest Indians, 15-0. Conrad Hardwick helped to clinch the final play with a 22-yard field goal.

Rodney Brown picked up 19 points in the Paseo game, adding to his record of 55 as Central stopped Paseo, 47-7, the following week. The "Big Blue" defense line of Mike Walker, John Richerson, James Straws, helped to clinch the victory.

The Central Eagles were stopped in their flight by East High, a 33-6 defeat, our first fall in 13 games of league play. "Pete" Peterson connected with Sterling Burgette to complete an aerial assault and scoring Central's only goal.

Spirits gained as the Blue Tigers felt the blow of the "Big Blue." Central defeated Lincoln 54-14 with the men of the backfield shining.

The Homecoming game with Northeast was unsuccessful for Central, who lost 36-6 as the fathers of the players watched. The Vikings riddled Central's defense line 14 times to pick up a total of 11 yards. Spirits were high, however, when Karen Masteller was crowned queen at the half.

Centralites are very proud of our '58 team which tied for third place with East High and Westport, under the league-leading Southeast Knights.

TOP ROW: F. Brown, H. Jackson, C. Posey, B. Logan, P. Walker, M. Smith, W. Pettiford.

Central's "B" Team, coached by Mr. Stanley Watson, a new addition to our faculty, put on a wonderful show this year. They opened their season by playing Wyandotte and losing by a score of 0-18. On September 29, the Eaglets started their league attack by defeating Van Horn 12-7. The following week they cleaned Manual 33-0, racking up their second straight victory.

The setbacks for the Eaglets were against Southwest 0-14, East 0-6, and Northeast 19-20. The team met with two tie games during the season, against Paseo and Lincoln with scores of 13-13 and 7-7, respectively.

This is a high one!

Guard him, fellows!

Varsity Basketball

The Central Eagles started off their season by throwing a scare into the Lincoln Tigers, January 9, and losing by a score of 50-37. Our first win came when the Eagles defeated the East Bears 38-33. In the next league tilt with the Northeast Vikings, Central was romped 40-23.

On January 29, our Blue Eagles felt the bite of the Westport Tigers in a 54-41 defeat. The red-hot Eagles next blasted Van Horn with a 45-35 victory. Central met the Southwest Indians February 13, the Indians winning by a score of 51-50. Then they went on to defeat Manual 47-43. Next it was Southeast who tasted defeat when Central edged them 39-38. In the season's finale, our Blue Eagles dealt Paseo a 46-44 setback. With this blazing finish, Central placed fourth in the league.

R. O. T. C. Queen

PRINCESS JANET HUNT

QUEEN MARGARET AUSTIN

PRINCESS FRANCES GARRETT

After an all-school election following the presentation of three candidates for Central's R.O.T.C. Queen in double assemblies, January 28, Margaret Austin, a senior, was named the 1959 R.O.T.C. Queen. The two other candidates were Frances Garrett, also a senior, and Janet Hunt, a junior, were automatically made princesses.

Margaret was presented by Lt. Col. Jack Heffer, Frances by First Lieutenant Rodney Sanders, and Janet by Captain Scott Brooks. Margaret, as queen, was given the honorary rank of Lieutenant Colonel by the battalion, while the Princesses were given the honorary rank of Major.

At the 1959 military ball of the Kansas City Corps of Cadets, which took place February 14, the crown was placed on Margaret's head by Mr. Paul M. Marshall, principal. Ten other queens represented the high schools of Kansas City. The initial dance honored both the principals and the queens as they opened the ball with the first dance together.

Memorial Club

The Central Memorial Club was organized in 1950 to provide extra-curricular activities for the cadets and, as the Memorial Club constitution states, "as a solemn and sacred duty to provide firing squads at the military funerals of those who have rendered military service to their country."

The membership of the club is limited to ten per cent of those enrolled in R.O.T.C. They must have an "S" average in R.O.T.C. and an "M" average in their other subjects as well as good character ratings.

The 1958-59 officers were: President, Jack Heffer; Vice-President, George McCright; Secretary-Treasurer, Colin Atterbury; Parliamentarian, Twyman Hawkins; Chaplain, Barry Boren.

The Central High School Unit of the Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps was first formed at Central High school in the fall of 1920. The unit has been in continuous operation since that time and over the course of the years has averaged an enrollment of 200 cadets.

The battalion was formed during the present school year on the first school day. The initial enrollment in the Corps was 197 cadets. This enrollment grew to 239 during the next two weeks. During this first semester this figure dwindled, through natural attrition, to approximately 200, where it now remains.

In November, Cadet Master Sergeant Twyman Hawkins entered the competition for the position of Sergeant Major of the Corps of Cadets. After a series of tests, with a final appearance before a board headed by Mr. Charles Stevenson, Cadet Hawkins was declared the best non-commissioned officer in the Corps of Cadets and appointed to the position of Cadet Sergeant Major for the Corps of Cadets of Kansas City.

The battalion placed second in the Veterans Day Parade held in downtown Kansas City on November 11 and presented an excellent appearance.

Drum and Bugle Corps

The Drum and Bugle Corps of the Central High School R.O.T.C. unit was formed with a total of nineteen men on the first day of the school year. Cadet First Lieutenant Michael Ashenfelter was chosen as the leader of the Corps.

The Drum Corps has a history that runs back to the school year of 1926-27. Prior to that time the school band was a part of the R.O.T.C. and furnished all the music for the R.O.T.C. and school functions. In 1925 the band was separated from the R.O.T.C. and the Drum and Bugle Corps was formed. The Corps furnishes the marching music for all R.O.T.C. parades and inspections.

R. O. T. C. Rifle Team

The Rifle Team was formed in September with several members of last year's team present to form the base for this year's team. After several rounds of competitive firing, three five-men teams were chosen. Cadet Captain George McCright was chosen as the team captain of the first team.

A series of round robin, postal matches were held with the other high schools having R.O.T.C. units in the city. Central ended this series of matches with a record of three wins and four losses to place fifth in the city.

In January, the City Shoulder-to-Shoulder Match was held at the range at Southeast High School. Central's team made a better showing in this match by placing fourth in a total of eight teams.

Foreign Exchange Students

"Connie," as Consuelo is affectionately called by her classmates, is our third Foreign Exchange Student; the other two being Colette Dubois, from France, and John Jackson, from England.

Twelve Guatemalan students made applications, took the examinations, and were interviewed to be accepted for American Field Service. Consuelo was one of the three who were selected. We are delighted that she was assigned to Central, for she has brought to us the beauty of her country and the friendliness of her people. Her happy, smiling countenance has been a warm invitation to understanding and good will throughout the school year. Her brochure on Guatemala has been a "teaser" to all of us to visit the garden-like country to the south of us.

"I think that being a Foreign Exchange Student is the most wonderful experience of my life," writes Connie. "It is wonderful to think that I am my country, since I am representing it I have learned to love it more than I did before and am proud of it. I also have learned that people are people no matter where I am. That loving and understanding them makes them love and understand me. I love the United States, and Kansas City, and Central in particular. I love you all."

CONSUELO ESPANA
Guatemala City, Guatemala

Here we see Consuelo, John, and Richard enjoying the language of music which speaks to each even though his country is, or for a time was, Guatemala, Germany, or France. In this picture we see these three young people living the motto of the A.F.S.: "Walk together, talk together, O ye peoples of the earth. Then, and only then shall ye have peace."

John Hunkeler, a senior this year, was privileged last summer to be Central's representative in the American Field Service. His appointment was to Berlin, Germany, where he was the American "son" of Frau Kaethe Bahn and "brother" to her two sons, Jachen, age seventeen, and Vodker, age fifteen, for the summer vacation. The goodwill which was evidenced by the Bahn family, receiving an American boy in their home, is shown by the fact that Herr Bahn had been killed in a German battle with Americans.

John enjoyed the outdoor life of the athletic young Germans in cycling through the forests, swimming in the Havel River, and hiking through the parks. The Berlin problem as it is presented to us in the news is real to John as he had various expeditions into East Berlin to see Communism at work in its devastating effect on East Berliners.

John was our second representative to Germany, Tom Schwindt having spent the summer of 1957 in Reutlingen, near Stuttgart. Each boy has a new regard for the German thrift and industry and their genuine friendliness.

JOHN HUNKELER

RICHARD B. SMITH

Richard is Central's first Foreign Exchange Student to spend a semester in a foreign school. He has sufficient control of French that he attended, for the first semester of this school year, the Lycee de Lillebonne as a student in the Seconde Moderne and took the following subjects: French, German, English, algebra, geometry, physics, chemistry; art, and physical education. In addition to his school work he studied organ with Monsieur Marcel Languetuit, titulaire of the great organ at Rouen Cathedral.

The family of Monsieur Bost were hosts to Richard, the seventeen-year-old daughter, Brigitte, being a A.F.S. Exchange Student to Milwaukee. The family, M. and Mme. Bost and their son, Jerome, 16, and daughter, Jeanne, 12, lived in a handsome old chateau at Lillebonne. Their life was one of culture and refinement. "The chief value," Richard says, "of the Service is that it gives people the chance to live and learn together, thus promoting interhuman, and therefore international, understanding." The talks in assembly and in French Club Richard has given have proved his alertness to the interesting customs and manners of the French and their warm friendliness.

Senior Officers

When the final strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" have faded out and graduation is over, the seniors awaken to the realization that we leave, with graduation, many friends and wonderful experiences. But we will hold forever in our hearts and minds memories of Central and friends we made there.

Last year, our final project was the designing of our new senior ring. Proudly we seniors display the new style of our 1958-59 rings.

The year was filled with the excitement of planning and fulfilling such activities as football, basketball, track, Pep Club, departmental clubs, Literary Societies, Eaglemania, Spring Play, and Senior Day.

Toward the close of our senior year comes the much-awaited-for Senior Prom. This year it was held in the Little Theatre, May 16.

A fitting end to our final year of high school is the excitement and inspiration of our night—graduation. This is the night we will remember always—we, the Seniors of 1958-59.

"Let naught but happiness and contentment dwell within these portals" is the inscription above the entrance to the R. J. DeLano School.

Peace and contentment abound in the surroundings. The subjects and high school credits are on the same level as in the regular school system. In Industrial Arts a boy can learn to use the material and tools that may some day make it possible for him to master a trade or profession in the business world. In Home Economics the girls acquire the skills necessary to establish and maintain their own homes in the future. DeLano is quite active in scouting. It has a Cub Pack and Girls' and Boys' Scout Troops. The scouting program is sponsored by the Heart of America Legion, Post No. 135.

DeLano is one of the schools selected to present the Babe Ruth Sportsmanship Award to two of its high school students each year.

The whole purpose of the faculty at DeLano is to train the student to be physically and mentally capable of holding down his own position in life and to give him the satisfaction of carrying the load on his own shoulders.

These are a few of the reasons why naught but happiness and contentment dwell within these portals.

Junior Class Officers

The Junior Class has carried on the fine traditions of Central in an admirable way: choosing their class ring, helping with the Junior-Senior Prom, and perfecting their class organization.

Russell Funk will be our representative in the summer program of the American Field Service, going as a Foreign Exchange Student to some European country yet to be determined. Harold Boehm, Margaret Fields, Claudia Shepard, and Janet Sturgess are the first in Central to be candidates for the National Council of English Scholars.

The class bids fair to be one of the strongest senior classes we have had for several years, 65 of them making 90 or better on the S.C.A.T. on College Ability tests; seventy are members of the Central Honor Society.
