THE CENTRALIAN STAFF

PRESENTS THE

1963

CENTRALIAN

This is the 1963 CENTRALIAN. Each page in this yearbook is bound not only with threads of cotton but with hard work, love, and tears.

We have chosen as a theme—windows. Each division page is in the form of a window. We often seem to be living lives that are observed by others through a window. In putting only the finest things behind our windows, we, the CENTRALIAN staff, hope that all of us can display the best of ourselves to the world.

"The future is in our youth." This statement—a true one indeed— is usually made by adults; the future that is being referred to is a rather distant one.

Central's future is in the hands of the classes of '64, '65, and '66. The CENTRALIAN staff has very much faith in you and knows that you will cherish this yearbook with fervor. We leave you Central. We expect you to do bigger and better things.

Therefore, with these few remarks, we formally dedicate to you, the underclassmen, the 1963 CENTRALIAN. Good-bye and good luck!

*Dear Old Central, far-famed Central
Thou shalt never fail;
'Round thy name there clings a tendril
Of tradition's tale.
Thou art victor; fame has followed,
Clad in dignity.
May thy name to all be hallowed
By their love for thee.*

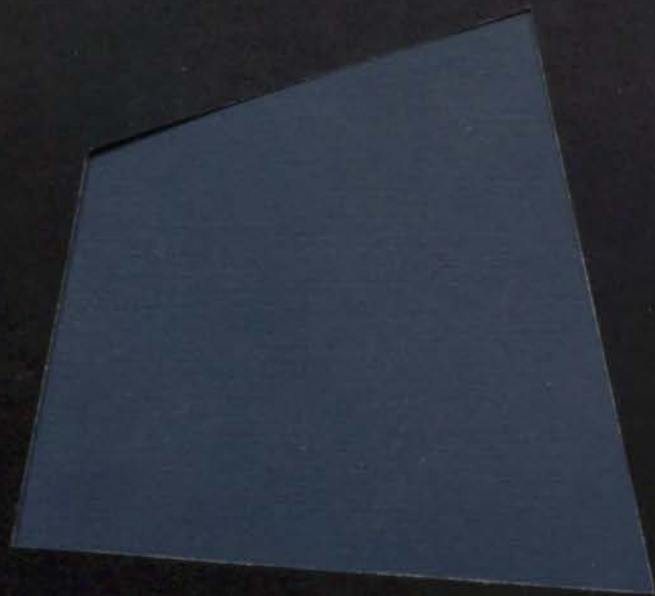

*Every student, soon or later
In his walk of life,
Greets the thought of Alma Mater
As his strength in strife.
Thou art victor; fame has followed,
Clad in dignity.
May thy name to all be hallowed
By their love for thee.*

There is, perhaps, no more select an organization in Central than the Declaratives. This group is both selective and popular. Almost all the members are Honor Society students--people who like to use their minds and who enjoy discussing the things they think about. In a real sense the Declaratives constitute the everlasting backbone in our school. Its members lend their support to almost every worthwhile activity in the school. If the club is popular, it is because it is a real servant of the school.

Woods, R. Collins, R. Adams, J. Guein, A. Aldridge, B. Washington, H. Powell, T. Owen, B. Byers, A. Coleman.

And there shall be music! The Concert Choir of Central is not simply dedicated to the making of music; rather, it tries to bring to the school and community the best in vocal music. The repertoire of The Concert Choir runs the entire gamut of music - from Bach to Bernstein. The choir is kept busy presenting programs at churches, P. T. A., meetings, and at various choir festivals.

GIRLS CHOIR

Believe it or not, the distaff side can make harmony all by itself. It is one of the most popular music groups in the school. Under the direction of Mr. Blount, it performs frequently both inside and outside the school.
