

CENTRALIAN

Easter Mason
June 1965

PREFACE

"The future lies in the hands of our youth." We, the Centralian staff have chosen as the theme of the 1965 Centralian--American Youth. The youth of yesterday, as well as the youth of today, play an important part in our growing and complex world. It has been the desire of the class of '65 to stimulate the classes of '66, '67, and '68 to carry the name of central to new and greater heights. The world of tomorrow belongs to you--the youth. Plan your future carefully, tread on new ground and the world is yours. The Centralian staff has faith, that as spirited youth of today, you will hold a significant place in our world as adults of tomorrow.

Our New Building

A new addition has been added to Central. The new building is to be used for vocational training for its students and to relieve us of our overcrowded conditions.

We welcome the new addition with open arms. To Central it is a sign of progress. We hope the building will serve its purpose and benefit not only the students, but also the community as a whole. May it forever stand!

FACULTY

J.A.H.

May each of you have the strength and courage to work for a world of reason and understanding.

May each of you turn the knowledge gained at Central into great wisdom.

May each of you use the wisdom to see more clearly that which unites the hearts of men.

May each of you find that which unites the hearts of man so that each hour finds you close to victory.

May each of you find this victory, not so much of nation over nation, but of man over his own evils and weakness.

And may the blessing of peace be yours that you may build a life of harmony and sympathy with others and plan for the future with confidence.

J. F. Boyd

As this year ends almost a century of Central High School history will be completed. This book records many activities and happy associations but it also reflects the best ideas and ideals that have developed through the years. May each of you continue to feel a close association with the significant accomplishments of your school and serve as it has served to inspire and give confidence to all those who seek it.

VICE-PRINCIPAL
Dr. Richard M. Griffith

Never has there been such conscious efforts on the scale of a world order to inspire every man with an assurance of his freedom and equality in dignity and rights. Into such a rapidly changing civilization you are entering upon your graduation.

I, along with your teachers, am seriously concerned about what you have been learning here and how effective are the techniques you have acquired for meeting and acting in a developing one world family of nations and races. Your growth in the use of these instruments does not stop at your graduation today. Your success will require a continuous learning through study and experience to meet the impacts of the society of the new world brotherhood.

TRIBUTE TO OUR FACULTY

Although it is a known fact--- that man tends to forget
Most faces and names when there is no contact---
There is always an exception to most rules,
And that, dear faculty, is you.
For various reasons and in various ways---
You have influenced our lives in several ways.
Like shepherds watching a herd of sheep
You led us to the greenest pastures to eat;
Pastures of knowledge where there was no fence---
To corral our thoughts. But to whet our curiosity, hence
Developing the minds of individualists,
Developing the world's doctors, Congressmen, teachers, and specialists.
You have tried, not in vain, to prepare us for the future---
Regardless of the span of time or distance
We'll never forget you!!!!!!

CHRISTMAS

The shepherd tells his mother of following the star to Bethlehem.

The shepherd encounters a King on the way.

Each year the Speech department of Central High sponsors a Christmas program. The plot of the program always has a Spiritual background.

"Behold, and the angel of the Lord appeared"

A still Tableaux of the birth of Christ

Members of the cast were Judy Palmer, an angel; Horace Marshall, a King; Winston Harris, Wilber Clark, James Lyons, Kenneth King, shepherds; and Paula Livingston, a shepherd's mother.

Hans Jaegar

Our Swiss Student

My dear Centralites:

The entire year I spent with you seems to me like a long and wonderful dream. You called me far from another continent to be one of yours. I accepted your invitation and I shall never regret it. Today, while I am writing this to you, I still do not fully comprehend how much you have done for me. But I feel that I shall never be able to describe your greatness, your hospitality, and what you have given me in my life.

Today, our world needs understanding. Whether nations are being misunderstood or just our neighbors of our heart and good will can solve the problems. If we all keep this in mind, we can face the world and be a better generation. We all shall run into problems in our lives, but you have showed me a way to solve them with your example of kindness and hospitality which have given me faith in ourselves for better understanding among all the peoples of the earth.

Therefore, I am proud of you and I am thankful to all of you. The word you have given me shall pass on to other people.

In love to my American alma mater, her students and teachers,

Hans.

SCHOLASTIC HONOR SOCIETY

Carnation Day at Central is Honor Society Day, for the Honor students are distinguished not only by their neat grooming and expression of pride in accomplishment, but by the carnations pinned to their left shoulders; white for those with gold pins and pink for those with silver and bronze pins.

Any student who maintains the required number of scholastic points for two successive semesters is eligible for membership and may wear the bronze pin. After maintaining the required number of points for four semesters he may wear the silver pin, and after seven semesters, the coveted gold pin.

When points are figured, pupils who have entered Central from other Kansas City high schools are treated in the same manner as Centralites. Those entering from high schools outside the Kansas City District must wait one semester. If they maintain the required number of points during that semester, they are given full credit for the grades brought with them and are placed in the proper group in the society.

The members of the Honor Society exert a good influence on the entire school as they fulfill their pledge to uphold the high ideals of Central and to maintain scholastic standards worthy of their ability.

SEVEN-SEMESTER GOLD WINNERS

The list (below) of students represents seniors of our high school who have maintained consistently superior scholastic records during their high school careers. Central should truly be proud of the twenty-two students who strive for and attained the highest scholastic honor here. The students, in alphabetical order:

The Semester-1 Student Council has been one of the most active school-governing organizations in the city. Among its many activities were "Quiet Day", an all-school silence period lasting five minutes between classes, and "Birthday Week", celebrating Central's 97th birthday. The Student Council sponsored an inter-school, inter-state student exchange program with Shawnee Mission East (Kas.) High. Council members sold chocolate in December to replenish the school treasury, and plans were in progress for another exchange day when a new Council was elected.

Second Semester Student Council

The first task which the second semester undertook was that of placing new books and displays of jazz and classical music in the lighted showcase in the Front Hall. The Council was the recipient of a special commendation for outstanding service. The award was presented by the state legislature. Central participated in City Hall Day, sold Shindig tickets, and attended an All-City Safety convention held in March. The Constitution of the Council was overhauled.

The American Association of University Women each year inducts a limited number of high school girls who show promise and academic achievement. As a rule, ten girls are selected by junior and senior counselors of their school. This year there are four seniors and six juniors. They are some of the girls who are "most likely to succeed."

noise in the halls during classtime. They also guide visitors to the office or respective classrooms.

Honor Corps

The Honor Corpsmen are cafeteria patrols whose job it is to ease the congestion on lunch hours. They prevent "line-cutting" and make special announcements over the public address system. The neatness of our cafeteria floors is a mark to their credit.

Los Tertulianos

The Spanish Club, Los Tertulianos, is one of the largest and most active school clubs. In the fall, perspective members receive an invitation to attend an Aztec initiation. After such time, the students are members. This year, the Club took a trip to South, via their Spanish-imaginations, held a Guadalupe Fiesta, a get-acquainted picnic, and sponsored a school mixer. The Spanish club works closely with the AFS.

Seated, A. Coleman, Pres. Standing, R. Talley, C. Woods, C. Williams, J. Alexander, M. Lyons, D. Williams, F. Johnson.

The French club was organized with the purpose of improving its members' speaking of the French language. To achieve that end, the members were asked to perform plays, attend theatre productions and practice sessions, and other such activities.

The "Calderon" Chapter of the National Spanish Honor Society was organized in December of 1964. All those students at the right, with the exception of those names having asterisks, are charter members. The national organization was founded to give secondary students in Spanish language courses an incentive to continue their study of language and promote more interest in the Spanish-speaking countries. The students in Calderon have maintained an "E" semester average (in Spanish) if they are seniors, and an overall "E" average if they are juniors. The club colors are red and gold.

The Central High School branch of the American Field Service has brought, for the second time, a foreign student to a predominantly Negro high school. Hans Jaegar has come from Switzerland and will reside in America for one year.

The foreign exchange program is designed to give youth of other lands an insight into the lives of Americans, and to unite Americans with their neighbors around the world.

Carnation Day at Central is Honor Society Day, for the Honor students are distinguished not only by their neat grooming and expression of pride in accomplishment, but by the carnations pinned to their left shoulders; white for those with gold pins and pink for those with silver and bronze medals.

Any student who maintains the required number of scholastic points after two successive semester is eligible for membership and may wear the bronze pin. After maintaining the required number of points for four semesters, he may wear the silver pin, and after seven semesters the coveted gold pin.

When points are figured, pupils who have entered Central from other Kansas City high schools are treated in the same manner as Centralites. Those entering from high schools outside the Kansas City District must wait one semester. If they maintaining the required number of points during that semester, they are given full credit for the grades brought with them and are placed in the proper group in the society.

The members of the Honor Society exert a good influence on the entire school as they fulfill their pledge to uphold the high ideals of Central and to maintain scholastic standards worthy of their ability. The Blue Eagles started off a season that really looked dark. After losing the first two games, they flew into a seventeen straight victory streak, defeating area powers such as Lincoln, Paseo, Sumner, and De LaSalle. With six seniors, four juniors, and two sophomores, Coach Wilkinson propelled the Eagles to take first place in the Interscholastic League. After successfully flying over the regionals, the Eagles were later grounded at the quarter finals of the state tournament.

Coach Wilkinson

Assistant Coach, Mr. H. Hudson and Coach, Mr. Wilkinson.

The coach speaks: "After getting off to a poor start, our boys began to find themselves and came through with a real fine season, winning 19 and losing 4. Our team did a real fine job, and we are proud of them."

Central is proud of the Mighty Freshmen. They tied for fifth place in the league with a record of 5-4. The season's record was 10-6. L. Cain

We on organizations wish to thank the clubs and special functions of our school for all co-operation rendered us. We attempted to photograph every organization, get all names correct, and present them in an arrangement both suitable and attractive. These tasks required much outside work, although we work hour seven of each day. We hope that our presentation has brought you pleasure and that you will continue to enjoy your yearbook in coming years.

A yearbook is a record of all things concerning a high school. The Centralian has tried to cover as many events, get as many students' and faculty photographs as possible, and group as many organizations as possible in order that all might be represented. The yearbook is for the school, of the school, and by a school staff. Twenty years from now, it may bring back fond memories or faces of old acquaintances.

Mrs. L. B. Darden, first-semester sponsor who is on leave-of-absence, laid the groundwork for our book. Thanks should be extended her, Mr. L. C. Darden, printing instructor, and Mrs. E. Stevenson, second-semester sponsor, for their assistance, diligence, and efforts in making this publication possible.

Our Ambassador to Denmark

Bertha Garrett Holiday was the first foreign exchange student from Central High School since 1956. While at Central, her activities included American Field Service President, Future Teachers, Senior Girl Scout, Honor Society, Human Relations, Thespians, Declaratives, AAUW, Mu Alpha Theta and Spanish Club.

Bertha left Kansas City on June 25 for New York City, where she boarded the "Seven Seas" for an eleven-day cruise to Rotterdam, Denmark, in Northern Europe.

The cruise from New York to Rotterdam was not all enjoyment for Bertha. She spent most of her time with "quick language courses", orientation as to customs and governments of the country.

On July 7, the "Seven Seas", arrived in Rotterdam. After going through customs, Bertha boarded a train for Kornith. She arrived at Kornith where she stayed for three and a half weeks. While there, she attended Danish language classes, six days a week, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. On August 1, she left Kornith and on August 12, she began school.

Bertha's school is Aarhus Stas Gymnasium. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Suend Bundgard, who are both professors. Her new brother is 17 and her sister attends the Copenhagen University.

Bertha enjoys her stay in Denmark, but she does miss dear old Central.
