JULY 4, 1776.

of the thirteen united States of America,

School, Kansas City, Mo.

...easy for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to
...of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they
...truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
...ings. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just
...structure of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new
...as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed,
...les; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while
...ed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object tively declare a theme————

The Declaration of Independence. We hold these truths to be self evident, that all Centralites are created equal.

Ever close in mind and heart

1916-1972

No further away than a picture,
A smile or remembered phrase . . .

Mrs. Corrine M. Neal, was born in Thomasville, Georgia, and was a resident of Kansas City, Missouri, for 18 years. During her 12 years at Central High School, as a guidance counselor, she played a very important role in the lives of many students. The 1973 Senior Class feels that she can never be replaced and will always be living within their hearts.

. . . a lifetime's work is ended
And a well-earned rest is won.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE 1973 SENIOR CLASS

In response to the uncountable ways in which the Senior Class has academically, spiritually and personally enhanced Central's name, the 1973 Senior Class has brought recognition to the school and their class by achieving high goals and values on their own. Every facet of Central has been evaluated and improved upon in the last four years. These advances were not the calculated results of a remote and automatic administration, but through the persistent and very human effort of the class as a whole. The underclassmen and the school as a whole cannot approach the import of the task and vision the class has successfully executed: it may perhaps serve as merely a dim reflection of the class' energy.

CHILDREN LEARN WHAT THEY LIVE

If a child lives with Criticism,
He learns to condemn . . .
If a child lives with Hostility,
He learns to fight.
If a child lives with Ridicule,
He learns to be shy,
If a child lives with Jealousy,
He learns to feel guilty
If a child lives with Tolerance,
He learns to be patient.
If a child lives with Encouragement,
He learns confidence.

If a child lives with Praise,
He learns to appreciate.
If a child lives with Fairness,
He learns justice.
If a child lives with Security,
He learns faith.
If a child lives with Approval,
He learns to like himself.
If a child lives with Acceptance and Friendship
He learns to find love in the world.

Mr. K. Howell

The Centralian Staff of Central Senior High School considers the compiling of their Yearbook a journalistic experience. Students working on the 1972-73 yearbook staff selected the theme, "The Declaration of Independence." From this thematic point of view, staff members have had opportunities to use the techniques of communicating in Art, Photography, and Writing. Using these journalistic techniques, the academic achievements, athletic honors, and social activities of all Centralites are reflected in this year's Centralian.
