1983 YEARBOOK DEDICATION

MS. EVA DIXON

Ms. Eva Dixon retired from Central High School in 1980. We are glad to dedicate our 1983 Yearbook to Ms. Dixon. She first taught Home Economics at Central and later became a counselor. Ms. Dixon was well-known for her kindness, willingness to help, and her integrity. The students all knew and loved her. We wish to thank her for her years of dedication spent at Central.

SENIOR PRIDE

INTO THE FUTURE

Upon graduation you consider yourself grown.
The question left in mind is, "Are you on your own?"

Have you considered your name one priority?
Are you sociably accepted in this society?

I'm not sure how prepared you are, but you must be prepared,
if you plan to go far.

The world in itself is a little confused; I guess it's because of being rejected and misused.

You, I am not trying to scare, I just want to make you aware.

It's not all what they call peaches and cream.
And it's not as easy as the rich make it seem.

When you look at the highest and wish for their shoes,
You're only cheating yourself, you're the one who will lose.

Existence is something that is meaningful to us all.
The highest had to exist before they could crawl.

The rich had to crawl before they could stand.
This is knowledge known throughout the land.

Walking is the highest step of them all.
But when you're walking there's a chance you can fall.

So hold your head high, strive for only the best.
Work to your ability and not to the rests.

Look up when you're down,
Smile when you're sad, Pray
when you're lost, Cry when you're glad.

This is what you've waited for.
The question left now is, "Why look for more?"

With Our Love,
1983 Graduates

THE END OR THE BEGINNING?

Is this the end of the beginning of our dreams?
Happiness, it seems, finds us in between.
There comes a time when we remember through the years
All the joy and tears when we were young.
I can't help but wonder where we go from here.
Will we be together or alone?
I can hear the thunder ringing in my ears
I hear ringing on my own. Have I grown?
Can I face the storm clouds on my own?
It's not the end, but the beginning of our time.
Know we're gonna find love and peace of mind.
If we have learned from all the many rights and wrongs,
There's still alot of songs to be sung.
And there will be no sorrow when I look back and sigh,
Before we face tomorrow, you and I.
We'll make a new tomorrow, you and I.
Take my hand together, we'll watch the rising sun,
And know that new beginning has begun.
It's not the end but the beginning of our dreams.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Congratulations Centralites, you are to be commended for your hard work, and many successes this year. You have demonstrated a willingness to invest in yourselves. In so doing, many of you have already begun to develop the emotional fiber, self-confidence, self-discipline, as well as intellect required for a positive future.

The only way to successfully meet the demands of life is to conquer, control, evaluate, monitor, and develop self. The quality of life lived is reflective of the degree to which these are achieved.

Although this is my first year at Central, I have been made to feel that I have been a part of the school for years. It is a pleasure to be an Assistant Principal at Central High School and I have enjoyed working with our dedicated staff and fine students in the pursuit of excellence and achievement. I am proud to be a Mighty Blue Eagle!

Mr. Robert Jackson

VICE-PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGES

MR. JACKSON & MRS. DENNIS

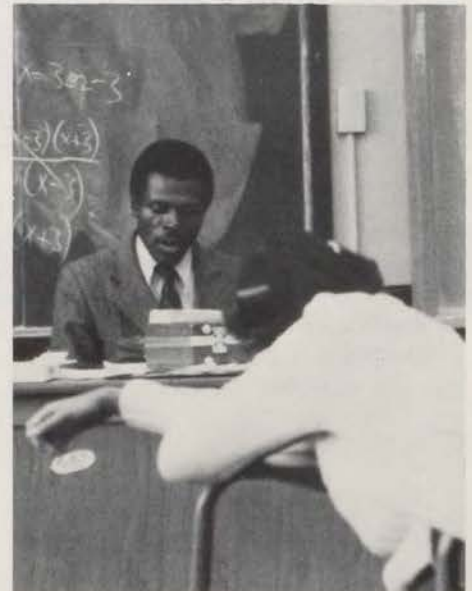

Students, staff, and community of Central High School must be committed to the challenges presented by our rapidly changing global environment.

The refinement of basic skills while acquiring knowledge necessary for the technology of the '80's will be the measure of individuals as institutional success.

The time and efforts of each of us at C.H.S. should be the evidence of growth in the awareness and responsiveness to meet any series of simple to complex events, developing vaster added dimensions to our functional purpose and goals in life.

The Central High School girl's basketball team did much better than the sportswriters thought they would, but never did play to their potential according to Coach Ordman. The Lady Eagles' 6-2 record was good enough to tie for second in the league and they posted a very respectable 16-9 record overall.

Pre-season polls predicted Central's Lady Eagles, the shortest team in the league, would finish seventh out of nine teams. The "Smurferres," their nickname given by Coach Ordman, shocked the experts by remaining the only undefeated team in the league as they entered the last month of the season. The team went on to crush Southwest before losing to Southeast and Paseo. The Lady Eagles then avenged an earlier tournament loss to Northeast by running the Lady Vikings off the court in the last league game.

"We definitely had more bounce to the ounce-and to the inch-than any other girl's team in the league," said Coach Ordman. "Northeast, Southwest, Van Horn, and even Lincoln thought they would beat us, but our girls outsmarted and out hustled those teams. 'I just wish we could have come up with the super effort against Southeast and Paseo as we had done in previous years."

"When you consider our starting line-up was from 5'1" to 5'8" you realize how much height we gave up each game. Our pressure defense and good shot selection were the reasons for our success. But our lack of scoring punch, offensive rebounding, and floor leadership hurt us against the better teams."

"Gria 'Magic' Ellison worked the hardest in the off season and improved the most," said Coach Ordman. "That is why she led the team in scoring, 14.7 points per game, was second in rebounds and earned first team all-league honors."

The brightest part of the season was the improvement of the underclassmen. Coach Ordman said the freshman and sophomores started the year not even knowing the rules and having very limited skills, but worked hard and enjoyed phenomenal improvement.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Central's National Honor Society is composed of Sophomore, Junior, and Senior students who have an accumulated grade point of 3.5 or above. These young people also must possess character and leadership capabilities.

Central's National Honor Society is the oldest chapter on the state of Missouri. This is also a national organization. Membership on this society indicates that the member is among a select group of scholars.

This year the National Honor Society has met on several occasions to plan their program for the 1982-83 school year. In December we spearheaded a campaign to collect goods and money to provide a Christmas basket for a needy family in the Central area. The basket was delivered December 21.

The society is also sponsoring a fund-raising campaign for Cassandra Brockman, a Sumner High School student, who is suffering from cancer of the liver. A transplant is the only saviour for her. The entire procedure will cost approximately one hundred thousand dollars.

The induction ceremony, at which time the group will be pinned, took place April 21, 1983. The following week-end the group toured St. Louis, Missouri and then went to Six Flags Over Missouri.

There are only eight members this year, but we hope many more students will be eligible next year.

The Centralian Staff wishes to thank the staff and student body for their cooperation and patience throughout the production of the yearbook. The staff has worked hard trying to provide what the students want in their yearbook. Pleasing everyone is not always easy, but the production is challenging and fun.

Many things go into the production of the yearbook, including physical work, patience, making arrangements, positive thinking, and planning just to name a few. We hope that next year more ambitious students will join our staff.
