The Place

Take away the life from a living body and what happens? Silence falls, activity ceases, and "Olde Man Tyme" places his rustic arm upon the object which remains. The Students of C.B.C. are the very life of the school. Their activity and participation enliven the school with a spirit which is the key for its success. This personification of Christian Brothers College gives every student something to respect and a tradition to uphold. In turn, without the students, the school would deteriorate and eventually collapse. It is up to the Cadets to combat the diseases of Mediocrity and Senioritis and thus prolong the "life span" of the School.

Take a look. Watch a school come to life!

Dedication

C.B.C. has been blessed throughout the years in winning State Championships, Military Ratings, and Scholastic Honors. Another blessing was bestowed upon the school when Mr. Robert Christian entered the halls of Christian Brothers College. He has instilled upon almost every Cadet a desire to uphold a great school tradition. In his own quiet manner he has bolstered school spirit and led many C.B. teams to victory. In the classroom he has won the respect of the student while contributing to the Social Studies Department.

We, the Class of 1965, dedicate this yearbook to a truly great teacher, coach, and most of all, generous individual.

Faculty

Director

BROTHER JAMES DANIEL F.S.C. - M.A. Loyola University; Director, Alumni Association, Parents Club, Religion IV

As Director, Brother James Daniel acts as the superior of the religious community of brothers stationed at C.B.C. During his three years as director he has worked continuously to raise the academic standards of the school. In addition, Brother Daniel takes time out of his already busy schedule to moderate the activities of both the Parents Club and the Alumni Association. His reputation as a man of patience and understanding has won him the admiration and respect of every student.

Classes

Senior Class in Retrospect

As our first year at C.B.C. began, we entered unknowing freshmen, attending the school but not yet really a part of it. We soon were inducted into the life and spirit of the school. The football season began, a season that was to be without defeat or a tie. During the season we developed a school spirit characteristic of C.B.C. Our introduction into the rigors of high school was softened by nearly two months of half-days due to the fact that the new addition and cafeteria were under construction. Weekly parades were marked with freshmen ignorance as we tried to learn our right foot from our left. Within the first five months of school, most careless freshmen discovered the hardship which the demerit system can inflict. Most of us were walking on thin ice, uncertain of our next steps at C.B.C. Semester exams proved to be a new experience for most of us however, the thought that we had finished half of our first high school year was an incentive to finish the year in great style. With the year drawing to a close most of us began to feel, by our numerous experiences, that we had found a place to respect; C.B.C.

Cocky and ready to take on another year, we were ready to accept a new title, Sophomore. The football team took up where they left off last year and marched on to another undefeated season. A great thrill was beating the Jr. Bill two years in a row. Sophomore year was made even more enjoyable with the coming of Bro. James Daniel to take over the job of Director.

We began to enjoy some of the privileges which were denied us in our freshman year. Dances and mixers (with girls) became more and more a part of our life. However, with these privileges came responsibility. The first promotion list was a reward for those Sophs who had shown by their grades, uniform, and example, that they deserved the responsibility of rank. A new P.M.S. Captain William J. Forrell, was introduced to C.B.C. and worked hard to improve the military aspect of our school. One of the most spectacular events of 1963 was the State Basketball Tournament in Kansas City. The Cinderella team, C.B.C., advanced all the way to the finals by knocking off some of the best teams in Missouri. The papers on March 10, 1963, read: C.B.C. NEW STATE CHAMPS! It was a great year, our Sophomore, and all of us left on June 5th, happy that we had finished another year.

By the time we reached our Junior year, such things as the Mass of the Holy Spirit, weekly parades, Auxiliary Drives, and six week report cards, became a natural part of our school lives. The football team trounced all of its opponents and finished with a three year record of 27 wins and 0 losses. This great team was ranked 8th in the nation. Bro. Baldwin accepted the role as principal of the school and with his discipline, kept us in line at all times. A very quiet fellow, Mr. Robert C. Horgan, led his soccer squad to the district championship. For the second year in a row we distributed W.F.C. around the St. Louis area. One of the greatest status symbols which all seniors hold dear to them is their senior rings. We received them in the last week in March and the pride which we had for them could not be measured. The apex of the Junior social life was the La Promenade Militaire. This affair, held at the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel, will always be remembered for its splendor. Junior year came quickly to a close and the climax to a high school education was drawing nearer.

With nine months of school to go, the Class of '65 was growing in age, wisdom, and understanding. With the loss of Mr. Kersting as head coach of the football team, Mr. Gerdemann took over and led the team to a good season. The team's winning streak ended at 29 straight games. The Fall Review marked the time for officer commissions. Cadets dreams were made reality as they led their respective Companies and Battalions. Every school affair which we attended at C.B. would be our last. Mr. Horgan led his kickers to another District Title. Mr. Wilcutt and the B-Ball team defeated Maplewood in a big game (remember the game against the Leafs two years previous?). For some reason the Girl Representatives seemed to be more beautiful than ever before at the Officers Luncheon. The Prom symbolized an anti-climax to a great play. In all its austere beauty, school life at "good ole" C.B. was coming to an end. The last command at the Spring Review brought back memories of our Freshman year in 1961-62. May 28, that was it! The "great curtain" was coming to a close and all our memories would be filed away forever.

"Come on, there's room for everybody."

"We have been chosen to head the Uniform Improvement Committee."

"Aw, brother, all I said was squeak!"

"We're Coach Horgan's favorite players."

"Do you mind? We're trying to BEAR DOWN on the subject."

"At Ease"

"So, this is fine arts!"

"Did you year about the filibuster in Room 313?"

"Well in my personal opinion"

"Then after I held her hand, I . . ."

"You really get around, don't you, Brother Baldwin?"

Religious

Religious life is not forgotten at C.B.C. Becoming a better Christian is made easier than ever at our own school. Father Albers hears confessions and distributes communion every morning. Early in the year the whole school attended the Mass of the Holy Spirit for guidance in the coming school year. Individual counseling for the students is available through the day with Father Mottin and Brother Jeffrey Francis sacrificing their time to help us. Father Moellering says Mass for various homerooms everyday. The chapel is open at all times through the day for the use of the students. Spiritual help and guidance is always available at C.B.C. Surely, the cadet who seriously takes part in any one of these things, and has its true value in mind found success in the school year.

The Blessed Benidus Vocation Club is a long standing extra-curricular activity at C.B.C. Its purpose is fully explained in the title. It is a religious vocation club to help seniors find their state of life. Although it furthers religious vocations for seniors, it also helps each enrolled student to find his vocation, whether religious or secular. While keeping this goal in mind, this year's club was composed of two groups. The first were those who wished to be active, made up mostly of Seniors and Juniors. The other group were those who wished to attend the meetings and say the required prayers; they were mostly sophomores and were known as associate members. It is this type of improvement which helps to make the Benildus Club a valuable asset to C.B.C.

Personal sanctification of its members through good works. This is the end and motivating force behind the little publicized organization of Christian Brothers College known as the Legion of Mary. Under the able direction of Brother Jerome Francis and Mr. Powers the legion members perform Catholic Action work for one hour every week in order to show the image of Christ in themselves to the people worked for and also for the salvation of their own soul. The members are visiting hospitals, teaching religion to public high school students, visiting homes and other apostolic work.

The Legion of Mary participates in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the Chapel.

Fall Review

The Fall Review, traditionally the first formal exposition of the CBC Cadet Corps before the public, took place on October 4, 1964. Weeks of practice preceding this annual event made it one of the most impressive in years.

After marching onto the parade field, the Corps looked on as awards and decorations for the 1963-1964 school year were presented to over ninety deserving cadets. It was at this time that Major General Robert H. Adams, Commanding General, XI U.S. Army Corps, presented the ROTC Honor School Streamer to Captain William J. Forrell, P.M.S. This marked a milestone in CBC history as this was the thirtieth time CBC has been the recipient of the award.

Next on the agenda was the announcement of officers commissions for the 1964-1965 school year. The Review was climaxed by the appointment of Thomas J. Casey as Cadet Brigade Commander and Richard J. Mier as Brigade Executive Officer. The ceremonies concluded as the entire Cadet Corps paraded before the reviewing stand.

Security Detachment

The Security Detachment assists both the school and the military department, guarding at the posts assigned to each member, helping at football and basketball games, parents nights and parades. For membership one must be an upper classman, maintain a C average, and display exemplary character and enthusiastic leadership. This year's S.D. was under the leadership of Mitchell George, and was supervised by Sgt. Kagel.

Honor Guard

The Honor Guard, under the command of J.D. Miller, has represented C.B.C. in precision marching and maneuvers in the Veiled Prophet and Veterans Day parades and in our Fall and Spring Reviews. Neatness and discipline is stressed. The cadets must be 5'8" or over and range from freshmen to juniors with senior officers. The Honor Guard is supervised by Sgt. England.

First Row: Vogel, J. Miller, Glosemeyer, Wiener. Second Row: Lamb, R. Miller, Whitworth, Lawton, Kohnen, Byrne, Macker, Pagno. Third Row: Simcik, Parashak, Nahlik, Federhofer, Burns, Hamacher, Lappin, Shermann. Fourth Row: Bryant, Papke, Morris, O'Donnell, McCormick, O'Brien, Duisen, Hampel, Baron, Vatterott.

The C.B.C. marching band appeared this year at military and athletic events at C.B.C., and at other activities in the St. Louis area. During the football season, the band performed before the home games. The band provided marching music for the brigade at all parades during the school year, and at the Spring and Fall Reviews and the annual Federal Inspection. Besides this, the band also gave a performance at each of these military functions. These contributions played an integral part in the success of the military program at C.B.C. this year. Although the band's main function is to provide music for the various school activities each year, it was again much in demand for other public performances this year. The most notable of these were the Veiled Prophet parade and the premier of the movie "My Fair Lady." The band's efforts were greatly appreciated by those in charge of these events and by those who attended them. The fine job done by the marching band this year continues its fine past tradition.

Rifle Team

Guidon Bearers

Since its formation, the C.B.C. rifle team has been one of the best in the area. This year's team was no exception as they made a record envied by any of their opponents. These eight cadets, under the capable leadership of Sergeant England, put in many long hours of practice on their newly rebuilt range to be at their peak at the nine meets held during the year. They have truly lived up to the highest standards of C.B.C.

Ever wonder how the cadets in the rear of the company know when an order has been given? Or which company is passing by? Look at the Guidon Bearers and you will soon find out. Each year a sophomore cadet is picked from his company to bear the company flag. The prompt action and the maneuvers of a company depends upon his action. They have given us a great performance this past year and we thank them.

Lancers

Grenadiers

The Ross Lancers, one of C.B.C.'s two exceptional drill teams, has proven itself to be a crack organization. This group, restricted to cadets 5'6" and under, has worked many hours before and after school to present consistently good performances. Founded by Col. Glenn Ross, former P.M.S., the unit plays a vital part in the success of the military functions at C.B.C., such as the Fall Review, the Spring Review, and the Federal Inspection. The members of this unit deserve the congratulations of everyone for their outstanding contribution to C.B.C. this year.

The other drill team at C.B.C., the Elzear Grenadiers, has continued its tradition of the highest level of drill attainable. Through much intense practice, they have been able to do their precision drill without a falter. Their intricate maneuvers received much applause wherever they performed. Named for Brother Elzear, C.B.C.'s director when military was introduced, the Grenadiers have appeared at functions both at C.B.C. and away. They merit praise for the excellence of their performance this year.

This year, C.B.C. has been honored by representatives from seventeen St. Louis area girl's schools. These girls are chosen for many qualities, charm, personality, and academic accomplishment.

The girls are introduced in the Spring of their Junior year, their activities as representatives begin at the Officer's Luncheon in the Senior year when the Cadet Officers vote to determine their rank as honorary officers. At La Promenade Militaire this rank is conferred and the Queen and Honorary Cadet Colonel is crowned.

The last event of the year is the Spring Review, during which each girl marches with Cadet units on the field.

We congratulate these seventeen girls on the fine job they have done as representatives.

Activities

This year the Student Council continued in its efforts to coordinate the ideas of the students with the ideas of the faculty. With more spirit than in recent years, the assembly has reached into new fields, untouched by previous Student Councils. In the category of dances, our endeavors were unmatched by any other school. The "date dances" sponsored by the S.C. were the "Roaring Twenties Dance" and the Bob Kuban Christmas Dance. Highly successful mixers were held in September, November, and May. These achievements, however, are not extraordinary. The new element in the Student Council this year was the service it performed for the community. An all out effort was given to the Christmas Basket project, in which all students participated. Also, on Palm Sunday Weekend, many C.B.C. boys collected money for the Crippled Children of St. Louis. Two scholarships were given to needy incoming freshmen. What was the reason for the Student Council's outstanding accomplishments? First of all, the industrious and ingenious moderator, Brother William, whose efforts were greatly appreciated. Secondly, the hard-working Executive Board, contributing original ideas and hours of labor. Lastly, the cooperative General Assembly.

The CBC Pep Club is responsible for the development of school spirit. Its incorporation with the Student Council this year has greatly increased its scope of activities. Few formal meetings were held, but it did an excellent job of painting signs, sponsoring dances, bus trips, and performing other services vital to the "esprit-de-corps" of our school.

CBC salutes this dedicated group as it works quietly behind the scenes.

Turret

The CBC school newspaper, "The Turret," again, did a fine job of informing the student body of the events, both co-curricular and extracurricular, occurring around school. Under the competent leadership of co-editors, Senior Rich Mier, and Junior Jim Walsh, the members of the staff compiled news in an entertaining and informative manner.

The various events that were not too well known around the school were publicized for a new awareness in the student body.

The editorial aspect of the paper brought attention to the areas of school life that needed correction or deserved reward.

Each issue of the newspaper brought the students in contact with the sports, military, and extra-curricular campus life, that is CBC.

The purpose of a yearbook is to present in book form a record of the events which have occurred throughout the school year. This year's staff has worked hard to create a fine book under the direction of Gil Roosman, Editor-in-chief, Tom Casey, Assistant Editor-in-chief, and Tom O'Donnell, Executive Editor. The staff wishes to thank Brother Kenneth, Guidon moderator, and Mrs. Fern O'Neal, yearbook advisor.

Band

Under the direction of Mr. Eckels, the band has played at many civic and school functions during the year. In the Veiled Prophet Parade early in the fall, the band represented the school and did a fine job under Drum Major, John Lane. Also, the band played at all the football games. If not the whole band, at least a pep band lended music to cheering. In its annual Christmas Concert, the band traveled to Maplewood High School. Shortly afterward, C.B.C. played host to six other bands in a Music Evaluation Festival. The band practices two hours a week with section practices on Wednesday. There is also a dance band which practices on Friday, and a more or less voluntary Pep Band which plays at home Basketball and pep rallies. This year the band combined with the Glee Club, the Dramatics Club, and St. Joseph's Academy to put on the "Lads and Lassie's," an annual event.

In a military respect, the band performs at all parades and inspections held during the year, including the Spring and Fall Reviews.

Lads and Lassies practice dancing for the Concert.

With the skillful help of Mr. Gardner, this year's director and the aid of the moderator, Brother Ferdinand, the Glee Club had a very successful season. The first public appearance, at Maplewood High School's Auditorium, the club, without the assistance of a girl's chorus, performed exceptionally well considering the time for practice. Then on April 25 the combined clubs of St. Joseph's and C.B.C. put on their Spring Concert. From "Brahms" to "Standing on the Corner" the group sang and danced the concert through. All in all the concert was an overwhelming success. Also a special thanks to Sister Harriet Jeanne for her part in training the girls.

Drama:

Having reorganized last year's Drama Club, this year's thespians met with overwhelming success. In the production "Crime in the Streets," senior Bill Jones took the lead role of Frankie and did an outstanding job. The play was a one act adaptation of "The Man with the Golden Arm."

Next, the cast travelled to Nerinx Hall for a command performance before a school assembly. After this successful presentation, the play, with the help of Brother Hugh, was entered in the State Drama Competition and received a superior rating. Sal DiCarlo received an excellent rating for his fine performance.

Congratulations to the director and all the members of this year's club.

Speech and Debate

C.B.C. concluded a good season in the Catholic Interscholastic Speech League competition with the final meet on February 14. The debaters won first place honors in the final contest.

The Speech Team won many fine ribbons for individual efforts in the C.I.S.L. oratory. The most outstanding of the speechsters was James Walsh, a junior, who took ribbons in all three contests and was awarded a silver medal for the season in the field of Extemporaneous Speaking. Other winners of individual ribbons were: Joseph Barera, and Paul Rottermund, juniors, and Robert Mansco, a sophomore.

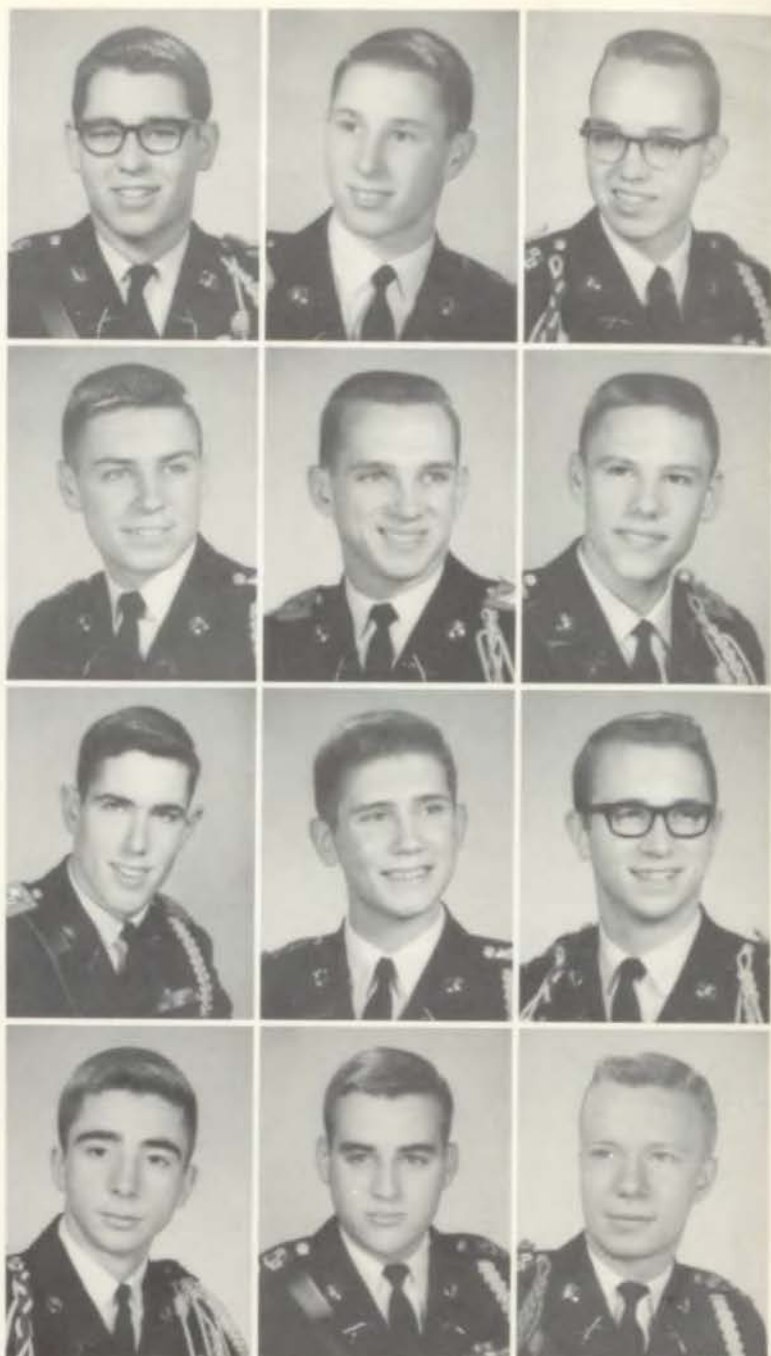

The topic which gave the C.B.C. Debate Team many a headache and much hard work before they completed the season was: "That Nuclear Weapons Should be Controlled By an International Organization." This same topic was used throughout the entire year. The debate squad featured Ron Igou, the lone senior, and John Brock, Greg Krupp, and Tom Ryan, all junior.

In addition to C.I.S.L. competition, the teams participated in numerous other contests. Both squads travelled to Columbia, Missouri, to take part in the University of Missouri Invitational Speech and Debate Meet, and in this contest C.B.C. team members took second, third, and fourth places. The orators had a very busy schedule, including many workshops and exhibition appearances.

The Speech and Debate squads were invited to participate in a student Congress, held at St. Louis University High School during the Christmas Holidays. The Congress was divided into two houses, the Senate, and the House of Representatives. Senators were James Walsh and Joseph Barera; House representatives were Tracy Bequette, Tom Casey and Mark Vogel. The Cadet orators did very well and accumulated a large number of points. Brother Hugh was the moderator and coach of the Speech and Debate teams, and he contributed much in helping the teams to make a fine showing in all of their endeavors.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a nationwide organization established to honor commendable qualities of leadership, service, scholarship and character. By fulfilling these requirements, these students are excellent examples of what our school hopes to develop. It is the highest honor a student can receive during his high school career. Memberships, selected by the administration, are granted to the upper 15 per cent of the senior class. It strives to maintain a tradition of loyalty and service to the school.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll, initiated at C.B.C. in 1944, is an international honorary society for upperclassmen who have demonstrated superiority in the field of journalism. Membership is limited to those cadets who are in the upper third of their class, have done considerable work in either the TURRET or GUIDON, and have been approved by the publication's moderator.

Parents' Club

Combined for the first time, the Mothers and Dads of C.B.C. completed an excellent year under the title "Parents Club Of C.B.C." Under the leadership of Dale O'Rourke and Ruth Hennenhoefer, assisting officers, advisors and chairmen brought fine speakers to C.B.C. and conducted several affairs which were both profitable and enjoyable. The new slate of officers under the leadership of Tom Belcher and Marge Slaten have taken hold of the reins and give promise of an excellent year ahead.

Alumni Banquet

THE ALUMNI BANQUET

For many years the annual C.B.C. alumni banquet has been the major event in the minds of many past graduates. And each year the banquet proves to be an even greater success. Unlike many other events, the alumni banquet is held in such renowned places as: La Chateau, The Chip & Plank Room, and numerous other restaurants. This year's banquet, held at La Chateau, was truly the best ever.

The main speaker this year was Jack Buck, the famous sports announcer of many of St. Louis' major sports. His jovial personality and sports background provided an evening of entertainment which all enjoyed. Mr. Klemm also spoke a few words to his past students.

All enjoyed this evening of getting together with past team-mates, friends, and life long companions.

Present faculty and alumni enjoy delicious dinner.

Old friends and team-mates get together for a "gab" session.

Brother Daniel addresses Cadets and their fathers at the twenty-fifth annual Father and Son Banquet.

This night out for the Dad and his son, besides giving a father the chance to meet other dads, other cadets, the Brothers, and the lay faculty on an informal basis, helps a boy and his father to know each other just a little bit better.

The Banquet, held this year on February 10, in the Khorassan Room of the Chase Hotel, was highlighted by Father Reinert, President of St. Louis University, delivering a stimulating address on the value of a Catholic higher education.

Father and Son Communion Breakfast

A relationship between father and son is something to be strived for. At C.B.C., we encourage such a relation through various activities. This communion breakfast is an opportunity for father and son to develop a spiritual relation between themselves and with their Creator.

Mother and Son Banquet

The Mother and Son Banquet provides an opportunity for the seniors to take out "their best Girl". This year at the Louis IX room the seniors and their mothers enjoyed a delicious meal and delightful entertainment afterwards.

Student Bank

Sitting: Doran, Byrne, Fox, Mier. Back Row: Goldkamp, Lane, Fuegner, Rozanski, Genovese, Grindler.

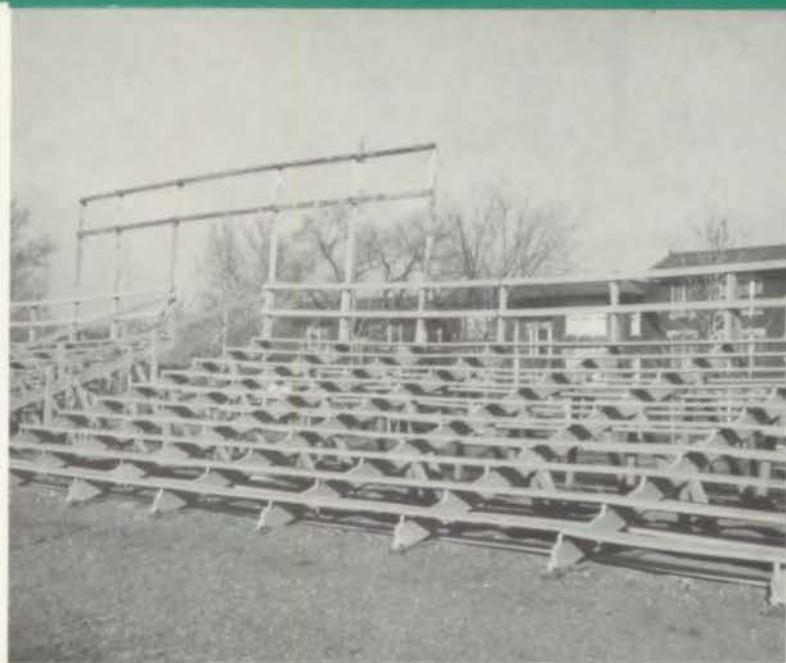

Continuing its tradition of being one of the most useful of all school activities, the Student Bank once again declared a large dividend at the end of the year. Equally responsible for this fine record was the hard working Board of Directors and the need of the students for money.

The directors, who donated much of their free time before and after school, deserve praise for their courteous and efficient service.

The cost of living seems to be skyrocketing, at least by Student Bank statistics. A record-breaking high was reached in the number of loans taken out and consequently, in the amount of money loaned. Some of the big factors accounting for this sudden need of money were: Christmas presents, Junior rings, and the Prom. Another cause for the big increase was the extended hours of the organization. It was open every day before and after school.

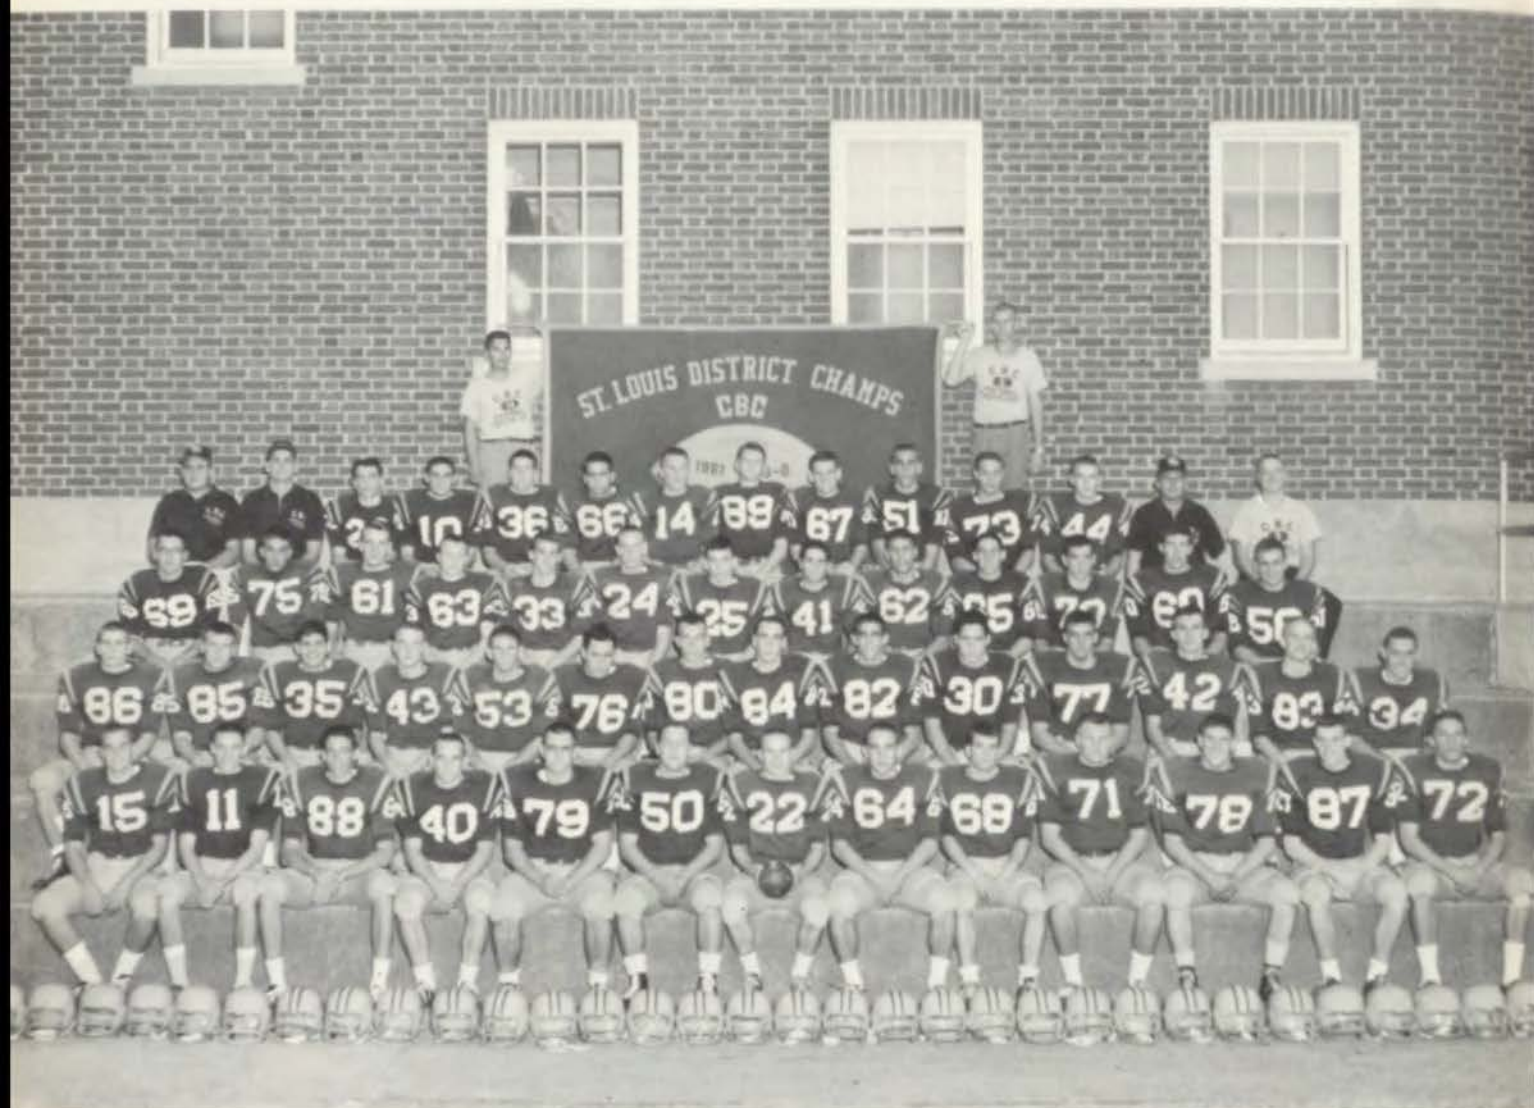

The philanthropic mission of the Bank this year was the co-sponsoring, with the Scholarship Committee, of an Essay Contest. The Bank donated ten dollars each to the winners in the Freshman-Sophomore division and in the Junior-Senior division.

C.B.C.'s Golden Era Continues with Fine 6-2-1 Record

The pressure was on this year's team to continue the undefeated record. District selections had graduated, Mr. Kersting had left for a college coaching job and C.B. now had a 27-0 football record to continue. There was a great challenge for the team.

When the McKinley game rolled around, the team was ready and proved this by rolling over their opposition. The real challenge came with the Southwest game. No one can ever forget how the team came back in the second half to beat the Longhorns. Then, when we played Vianney, we met our fate, for the teams dueled to a scoreless tie. The next game proved to be the breaker; Althoff beat us and broke our winning streak, but the backing that the team received from the student body was terrific. Against Helias, we made our comeback and won in the second half after a hard fought first half.

Quincy proved to be an easy victory for the team. De Andreis also fell to the "Fighting Cadets." Ole' C.B. then met their rival forces from Oakland Avenue. S.L.U.H. was one of the best teams in the area and they proved it by a victory over us. We fought hard and again had one of our great goal-line stands to end the first half. But we could not get rid of "goalitis," which seemed to be our problem all day.

After losing this game to the Junior Bills it was really hard for our team to come back the next week for our final game with Augustinian. Coach Gerdemann told the team that there were a lot of good football teams, but that only great teams could come back. In keeping with the spirit of all great schools, we trounced the Braves, thus finishing a fine season. Win, Lose, or tie, our Gridiron Cadets gave 110%.

This years seniors did an excellent job of leading our team to a fine season. Under the leadership of our co-captains John Devoto and Leo Darrow, our team defeated many of the good teams in the area. A hearty round of applause should go to all the seniors for a fine season.

Unidentified Cadet smashes Goldbug for short gain. The Cadets won easily, 53-14.

Mike Haddon digs for long yardage against Jr. Bills.

Steve O'Rourke gives all-out effort to snare a pass in action against Jr. Bills.

Co-captain John Devoto snares a pass good for a first down in the Vianney game.

Tom Hutchison shoots around the end in action against Jr. Bills before a capacity crowd at Public School Stadium.

Tom Hutchison downs a Goldbug in opening game against McKinley. Rigby, McEvoy, Neiner, and Orf move into assist.

Althoff's offense finds a weakness in the Cadet pass defense for a score. Here the Cadets lost their first game in four years, 27-7.

Mike Haddon starts off on punt return in a day game against DeAndreis. The Cadets won, 41-7.

Out of our way; here we come!

Mr. Martin's Bee's have wrapped up another fine season. It all started off on September 25th against St. Mary's, where the Cadets came out on top. The next game was against Taylor, but after a hard-fought battle, the Bee's proved to be the best of the two. After watching our varsity tie Vianney, the Bee's took our revenge out on their Bee team. The long jinx of C.B.C.'s Bee teams continued with a hard-fought loss to Assumption. Mehlville and St. Louis proved to be the Bee's next victims. Again the Bee team took revenge, this time against Althoff. Finally Rosary and Mercy, who were rumored to have good teams, were defeated by Mr. Martin's Bee's. This year's Bee team will long be remembered by their coach, Mr. Martin, as one of the best he has ever coached. Good luck next year, coach!

Once again this year C.B.C. sponsored a successful cross-country team. Although this sport takes a backseat to football, there is still considerable interest in the team. Under the able leadership of William Klemm, the team began the rugged workouts in early August, and continued into November. Cross Country consists of a two mile run over hills and creeks, and through woods. The first five men from each team are assessed points according to their place, and the team with the low score wins.

This year's senior stars are Captain Rich Mier, John Lane, and Dick Fox, who led the squad to a winning season. The high point in the season was the District Meet at Normandy, where the Cadets finished a respectable 14th out of 32 schools. As a gesture of gratitude the team presented Coach Klemm with an engraved starting pistol.

"This team will win some games you won't expect them to win, but they will also lose some games you wouldn't expect them to lose." These were the words spoken by Mr. Christian at the beginning of the season. How true these words were to be. Under the tutoring of Mr. Wilcutt, our team finished off with 10 in a row, before ending the season in overtime on a spectacular 70 ft. football toss in the finals of the Webster regional to the host team. But highlighting the season were victories over Ritenour, Maplewood, two Kansas City teams, and double victories over St. Louis, the first time in the last ten years. There was a fourth place finish in the DuBourg tourney, and a second in the Regionals. Honors went to Captain Jim Healey. He was voted to the All-Suburban first team, All-Independent, All-Metro Second team, and Honorable Mention in the All-State voting. This team truly finished in fine CBC fashion, and can be proud of a fine 17-10 season. With many of this year's players back next year, we can expect much of the same next year.

The 1964-65 soccer team was young but aggressive. Their first real test was on Soccer Appreciation Night with DuBourg. The game was decided in the last minute of play on a goal by Tim McEvoy. The team did not taste defeat until the Semifinals of the Christmas Tournament when they were defeated by McBride. The Cadets had put together a 28 game winning streak which began late in the 1963-64 season. The Cadets got back on the winning way by humiliating the Baby Bills twice. The St. Louis High School Soccer League title was in the balance when the Cadets met Assumption. A tremendous team effort brought the title to CBC for the ninth time in eleven years. The District Championship was the final test for the Cadets, since the district title is equal to the state title in soccer. Fighting from behind they defeated Ladue 2-1. They then played DuBourg to a tie 0-0, lasting 8 overtimes. The next day they were rematched with DuBourg and defeated them on a goal by Tom Hutchinson and gained a berth in the finals against Mercy. A goal on a penalty kick by John Pisani proved to be enough as the Cadets won the title for the second year in a row and seventh time in ten years. This was the final high school game for the two senior starters on the team, Terry Michler and Rich Clay. These defensive stalwarts led the team during the entire year and are considered two of the best players in CBC soccer history.

Under the able leadership of co-captains Tracy Beckett and John O'Brien, the '64 - '65 swimming team boasted an eleven and five season, the best record yet attained by a C.B.C. swim team.

Among our team's defeated opponents were: Normandy, McCluer, Ritenour, Western Military Academy, and Central.

This year's team was highlighted by such juniors as Pete Darby, Bill Woods, Rick Brockman, and Mike Lanahan. Sophomore Jim Wahl set a new school record in the 200 yd. freestyle, and Paul Lodewyck broke the 400 yd. freestyle record.

In its first year of varsity competition the CBC wrestling team completed a successful season. The varsity's dual meet record was six wins and seven losses. Although it was predominately a sophomore squad the team showed a strong desire to compete and win. In all levels of competition the squad won fifteen matches and lost seventeen matches. Highlight of the season was the entrance of a CBC wrestling team in state competition and dual victories over Hancock and Northwest.

Individually, captains Al Simmering, Ray Neiner and Charles Gilbert accounted for winning twenty-four matches. Coaches Martin and Staub feel that with continued hard work and meet experience the team will contribute to the athletic prowess of CBC.
