KANSAS CITY (MO.) PUBLIC LIBRARY

Combining the efforts of three departments, the literary, art, and business groups, the Eastonian staff of 1937 has published this annual.

If in the future this book brings you joy and inspiration by recalling precious memories of your happy days here, if it recreates the spirit of comradeship for old classmates and teachers, if it leads you on to higher goals by the realization of the faith and trust these friends placed in you, we have not labored in vain, for our task is completely fulfilled.

Dignified and imposing, the Municipal Auditorium stands in the heart of Kansas City, the finest and most complete building of its kind in the United States, lauded by visitors from every corner of the earth.

Our hearts warm with pride as we gaze upon this stately edifice, for we know that in the years to come it will make our city even greater by widening opportunities for recreational and cultural development.

To this spirit of service to mankind through scientific achievement, as exemplified in this magnificent structure of beauty, we dedicate the Eastonian of 1937.

PRINCIPAL NOWLIN

Mr. Clifford H. Nowlin's long experience as a leader in educational work is manifested by the wisdom and patience he employs in directing the activities of East High. He endeavors to develop stronger character among the students as well as to encourage high scholastic standards. Many classrooms benefit by his enlightening discussions on problems which they are studying.

The inspiration of Mr. Nowlin's personality will remain with the graduates of East High School throughout the years to come.

Mr. J. G. Bryan, who began his duties as vice-principal at East this year, has become well liked by the entire student body and faculty because of his geniality and co-operative spirit. By his valuable assistance, many seniors have been aided in the selection and planning of their college work.

We can well understand what a disappointment Mr. Bryan's departure was to Southwest High School, for in the short period of his service at East, he has become an indispensable part of our organization.

VICE-PRINCIPAL BRYAN

Miss Abbott

Miss Martha Abbott teaches a greater appreciation of art.

OF EAST HIGH SCHOOL

Miss Louise Hatch, Chief
Counselor of East's Executive Group.

East's Student Council strives to bring about better co-operation between the student body and the faculty, and helps the students to realize that they can grow in the ability to direct their own activities. The group, which is composed of the presidents of the home rooms, meets once a week after school. In their efforts this year to fulfill these worthy purposes, the representatives have managed campaigns for courtesy, and for respect for property, and have co-operated with the nurse in health campaigns.

Following its policy of former years, the Council again contributed much to the social life of the school by sponsoring four mixers for the entire student body. On December 23, a gay night mixer was held to celebrate the approaching Christmas holidays. Several afternoon "nickel mixers" were also given at various times in the school cafeteria.

The main objective of the second semester group was to encourage the understanding between the home room and the office. Each semester's Student Council is installed in assembly, at which time the group has charge of the program and awards the "E" pins to honor students who make three "E's" in solids or the equivalent for two consecutive semesters. For attaining the highest honor roll for the first two consecutive semesters, the pupil is given a bronze "E"; the second, a silver "E"; the third, a gold "E"; and the fourth, a guard which is the numeral of the year the pupil graduates. Seniors are presented their pins at graduation.

Miss Louise Hatch served as adviser of the Council this year, and through her tireless efforts and the co-operation of the entire group, the organization completed another successful year.

UPON LOSING A CLASSMATE

In memory of Cleo Coffman, Class of '37

A herald from a distant land
Came riding out across the sky,
The gift of death was in his hand,
We hoped that he would hurry by.

He saw beside each open door
A seeming weed, a fair bouquet,
A ripened sheaf, and ever more
His voice was like a roundelay.

Then on a morning of the year
In May when flowers come and go
He called in accents sweet and clear
To one whom we had loved to know.

Swiftly as arrow from the string
She hurried out across the sea
But ever round our hearts will cling
The fragrance of her memory.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The East Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in 1928, and each succeeding year the principal and faculty have chosen a group of graduating seniors to this honorary organization. Candidates eligible for membership in this organization must rank in the upper quartile of the graduating class, and must have spent at least one year at East. From the upper quartile, not more than fifteen per cent of the entire senior class is elected to the society. On April 25 this year the faculty elected forty seniors to this honor.

The grades of all four years and the activity points are counted in determining the ranking of the seniors. The election is based on the pupil's rating in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Election to this organization is the highest honor that can be bestowed on a high school student.

The National Honor Society committee is made up of Miss May Farr Hiatt, chairman, Miss Evelyn Gilchrist, Miss Martha Abbott, Mr. Ralph Tiefel, Mr. J. N. Broadlick, and Mr. Edward F. Thelen.

Miss Hiatt

Miss May Farr Hiatt was chairman of the committee which determined the scholastic and activities ranking of the students for the National Honor Society.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

Beginning their activities early in the year with an exciting election of officers, the ship of the class of '37 was launched with Norman Kratschmer at the helm as president. The first social event of the year was the annual Senior Dance which was held at Ivanhoe Temple on March 19. Over three hundred seniors and their guests attended, making this one of the most successful affairs of the year.

With the presentation April 9 of the hilarious comedy, "Charley's Aunt," scoring one of the biggest entertainment triumphs in the history of the school, the class again earned distinction. Since the play was also a financial success, the seniors voted to use the proceeds for a public address system as a farewell gift to East High. The merriment of the evening continued when the second senior dance was given in the cafeteria after the play. This dance will long be remembered because of the beautiful and unusual decorations which represented a grape arbor. A graduation party is being planned for the seniors after the commencement exercises.

The Kalailu Literary Society was organized in October, 1926, to create a greater interest in literary work, to further a study of parliamentary law, and to foster among its members a finer spirit of friendship. From the third objective comes the name of the club and the motto, "True friendship conquers all."

The club won second place in the literary contest last year. It won the contest in 1928 and tied for first in 1929.

Miss Emir Ammerman and Mr. John Broadlick are the advisers.

The Leundis Literary Society was organized November 8, 1926. It is an all-girl club. The name Leundis symbolizes the three principles of the society—learning, understanding, and discernment. The Hamilton Literary Society is their brother club, and many social activities are held with the Hamiltons.

Leundis gave a rush tea early in the fall. The "Follies" were presented in the Outburst very successfully. A Hamilton-Leundis Apron-Overall Dance was held at school on April 2. The Hamilton-Leundis after-contest party was held, as usual, followed by a sunrise breakfast. The spring picnic of the brother and sister clubs was also held.

The advisers of the club are Miss Eva Van Natta and Miss Edith Tarbet.

The Hamilton Literary Society was organized in 1928, and is now under the direction of Mr. Garland Nichols and Mr. Ralph Tiefel. This club is composed of regular fellows interested in raising their standards of appreciation of literature.

The "Hams," as they are called, cooperated with their sister club, Leundis, in holding their annual social affairs, the Apron-Overall Dance, the Hamilton-Leundis picnic, and the party and sunrise breakfast after the Literary Contest.

The Hamiltons this year presented at the Outburst a most unusual side-show, entitled "Blue Moon," and did their part in all ways in other activities.

The Eulexia Literary Society, which is the youngest literary society in the school, is an all-girl club. The purposes of the society are to promote a better understanding of literature, encourage leadership, and create a finer spirit of friendship among its members.

The outstanding social events of this year were the Rush Tea, the annual Founders' Day Banquet, and a formal dance. A Christmas party, spring picnic, and slumber party were also held.

In the Outburst, the society presented a new and popular sideshow, "Roof Garden Varieties."

Miss Marie Crow and Miss Mary Latshaw are the advisers of the club.

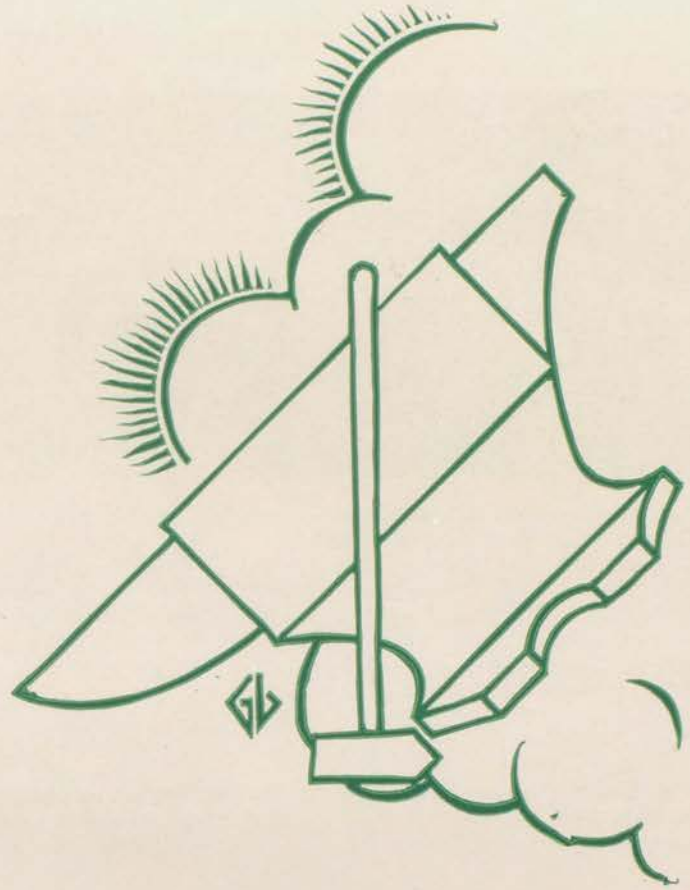

Back Row: Mary Louise Seaton, Charles Fike, Harold Chambers, Beverly Raymond, Charles Grube, Archie Clarke, Frances Loutsenhizer.

LITERARY CONTEST

The tenth annual literary contest held at East High School was won by the Leudians and the Hamiltons. These brother and sister clubs tied for first place, each having a total score of eight points, under the new tabulation.

The Kalailus and the Eulexians tied for second place with a score of five points each, and the school-at-large was last with a score of four.

The Art Club, which was the first departmental club organized at East, has well fulfilled its purpose: the study of Art and assistance in the school activities.

The Art Club pin represents a tube of paint bearing the letter "E," with a brush behind it. The club mascot is a blue and orange palette with brushes for legs.

The club meetings are devoted to drawing and painting in and about the school.

Miss Martha Abbott, the art instructor, and Miss May Farr Hiatt are the advisers.

The purpose of the Athenian Club is to promote interest in athletics among girls. Every girl in school is invited to attend after-school activities, but only those who do attend are eligible for membership in the club. Any member of the Athenian Club is expected to be outstanding as an athlete and also in sportsmanship.

After club meetings, the girls play soccer, baseball, volley ball, and end ball, in season. These activities are counted also to help gain points toward their letter awards.

The club has been sponsored since its organization in 1927 by Miss Hazel Roads. For the past three years, she has been aided by Miss Rose Segelbaum. They are both of the Physical Education Department.

The Commercial Club is one of the largest and oldest departmental clubs in the school.

The club attempts to provide supplementary information to the commercial students through trips to manufacturing and business houses, speakers on business subjects, demonstrations of business machines, and information on occupations and job getting and job holding. The club also provides social activities for the students, the main feature this year being the Christmas party.

Miss Louisa Johnston and Miss Marie Crow are the advisers.

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Under the leadership of an efficient group of officers, the East High P.-T. A. has had a very busy, interesting, and smooth-running year. The organization was fortunate in having several guest speakers and fine programs throughout the year. Among the most outstanding features of the year were the "Harvest Moon," annual fall festival, Founders' Day program, and the tenth anniversary celebration of the founding of the East High Parent-Teachers' Association.

The general theme for the year was "Character Building." The association, which meets monthly, had the following speakers: Mr. Wendell M. Ryder, who presented his summer music classes in a demonstration of leisure time activities; Mr. Harry Harlan, of the Northeast Y. M. C. A., whose subject was "Character in the Making—Your Boy and Mine"; Mr. C. H. Nowlin, who spoke on the subject "Eight Days in Ireland"; and Sgt. Harry E. Strider, whose subject was "Military Training, a Factor in Development." Mrs. A. F. Barry spoke at the Founders' Day Celebration.

Twenty members of the P.-T. A. worked on the Y. M. C. A. drive, and were very successful this year. The Parent Education group was under the direction of Mrs. Charles Grube, and this group, also, functioned successfully.

HARVEST MOON

The Harvest Moon, annual Parent-Teachers' entertainment, was presented November 6 in the school auditorium. The surrounding grade schools were represented by two talented youngsters each, who took part in a Major Bowes' contest. The greater part of the other numbers were presented by students of East High.

The stage was attractively arranged as a radio station by Mr. Broadlick and his crew, and the program moved along swiftly. There were musical and dance numbers presented by trios and soloists. Other highlights of the evening were a skit presented by Miss Burton's speech department and a stunt contributed by Mr. Thelen's gymnasium class.

MOTHERS' "E" CLUB

The three yearly banquets which are familiar to all the students are not the only activities of the Mothers' "E" Club. This organization helps needy East High families at Thanksgiving and Christmas times, in addition to their regular charity work. They co-operate with the Parent-Teachers' Association and the school in every way. This club is made up, for the most part, of parents of the football, basketball, and track boys.

To honor the boys when they receive their "E's," this club sponsors annually football, basketball, and track banquets. The "E's" are awarded by the athletics coaches.

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS

Sergeant Strider

Sergeant H. E. Strider's efficient leadership made East's battalion an honor school.

Cadet Major Ireland

His popularity and knowledge of military tactics made Melvon Ireland an ideal cadet major.

The general object of the course of instruction in junior R. O. T. C. units is primarily to lay the foundations of intelligent citizenship; and secondarily, to prepare the student for further military instruction which will qualify him for a position of leadership in time of emergency, and to provide the nation with an electorate informed of the purpose and necessity for a sane policy of national defense.

The mission of the R. O. T. C. is to awaken in the student an appreciation of the obligations of citizenship to prepare him to discharge his duties as a citizen, and to qualify him as a leader whether in peace or in war.

The East R. O. T. C. battalion last year achieved an honor for which it had tried ten years, namely the title of honor school. The winning of honor school is one of the greatest events in its history. An honor school is one which is excellent in the training and discipline of its cadet corps and in the condition of its equipment. An honor school is signified by the red star on the sleeve of the uniform.

OFFICERS

Third Row: Bleich, Murdock, Reardon, Breedlove.
Second Row: Lowell Dodson, Campbell, Coffland, Lawrence Dodson.
First Row: Sgt. Strider, Fulton, Blum, Lampley, Ireland.

The East battalion is divided into two companies, A and B. Company A is the first hour class, and Company B is the second hour class. Officers in the A company this year were Major Melvon Ireland, Captain Franklin Campbell, First Lieutenants Lawrence and Lowell Dodson, and Second Lieutenant Edward Murdock. Captain Robert Coffland, Second Lieutenants Harold Chambers, George Bleich, and Paul Breedlove, were officers of the B company.

Gold, silver, and bronze medals will be awarded by the Heart of America American Legion Post to the three first or second year cadets, either promoted or non-commissioned officers in the East Battalion, who have established the most efficient ratings during the year's training. These three cadets will be determined by Sergeant Strider.

RIFLE TEAM

Front Row: Kolie, Sgt. Strider, Blum, Rogers.

First Row: Sands, Sgt. Strider, Bleich, Fulton, Coffland, Ireland, Reardon, Breedlove.

Under crossed sabers, the Queen and her Princesses assume their offices.

R. O. T. C. DANCE

Social functions played a very important role in this year's R. O. T. C. activities. The annual dance which was held at the school on February 27 was a very big success with many distinguished visitors present.

This year a Queen and two Princesses were chosen by the Cadets. After much campaigning Betty Blum was chosen as the Queen of the Battalion, and Deontyne Lampley and Ruth Fulton as Princesses of A and B companies respectively. Those chosen had to meet certain qualifications, the most important being scholarship. No one elected was to have a grade below "M" for a semester grade during her four years of high school work.

They were inaugurated in a special ceremony at the annual dance.

R. O. T. C. CIRCUS

The 15th annual R. O. T. C. Circus was held in the Municipal Auditorium April 23. The East Battalion presented, as its part in the program, a cadence drill and dancing calisthenics. The cadence drill is a form of drill in which the cadets repeat the commands before executing them. The dancing calisthenics were a modified form of the Highland fling.

BOYS' ATHLETICS

Mr. McDaniel

Mr. J. C. Cohlmeier, Mr. E. F. Thelen, and Mr. B. W. McDaniel compose East's "big three" for direction of athletics.

Coach Cohlmeier is the head tutor for football and basketball, while Mr. Thelen serves as assistant coach, teaching fundamentals to the second teams. During track season Coach Thelen is the head mentor.

This year the two coaches operated an extensive system of various sports for the members of the gym classes. A few students who were not members of gym classes participated in the games.

Mr. McDaniel is the business manager for the teams. All the financial worries connected with athletics fall on "Mac's" shoulders.

The task of keeping the equipment in good condition belonged to Don Lee and Wilbur Wynn, student managers.

FIRST TEAM

Although their record showed two damaging blemishes in the form of ties, this year's aggregation was probably the best all-round team ever to appear on a gridiron for East. In every department of the game, blocking, defense, running attack, general teamwork, and sportsmanship, the boys were "tops."

The Bears finished the schedule co-champions with the Indians of Southwest. Their four victories and two ties were matched by Southwest's five victories and one defeat. A new Interscholastic League rule made two ties equal to one loss.

The opening game was with Southwest, and East won 19 to 7. There is some consolation in the fact that, while the two teams stood even at the end of the season, East was the decisive victor in an actual contest.

The second game was a postponed contest with Westport which ended 7-7. "Charlie" Yates, right end, intercepted a Tiger pass and ran 53 yards for East's only score. Sweet revenge was obtained when Northeast was routed 32-0 by a fast-clicking Bear machine the following Saturday.

Manual was the next victim of the East attack, the score being 27-6. Central proved a real thorn in the Bears' side when they held East to another 7-7 tie. However, the season was finished in a flurry of glory when Paseo was beaten 24-6. Jack Black led the onslaught, scoring all four touchdowns.

Dan Henehan and Jack Black were chosen by the Kansas City Star for the mythical all-star team.

SECOND TEAM

The East Cubs, under the direction of Coach E. F. Thelen, brought home the first second team championship in the history of the school. Their record showed five victories and no losses. As the Manual squad was very small, no second team game was played with the Crimson.

The scores of the games were as follows: East 20, Southwest 7; East 24, Westport 0; East 24, Northeast 6; East 12, Central 0, East 13, Paseo 0.

Salvator Gravino, sophomore right halfback, was the leading scorer for the Cubs. "Mike" Michael was also a leader in the attack of the fast-moving East eleven.

FIRST TEAM BASKETBALL

SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL

FIRST TEAM

Regardless of the fact that East had more hard luck this season than any other year, the Bears turned in a very successful season.

The opening game was played on a foreign court when East met the strong Warrensburg team. Warrensburg eked out a victory by a score of 21-20.

The Alumni won the second match 16-13.

The opener of the Interscholastic League schedule was another heart-breaker, Southwest winning by one point in a two overtime-period game 23-22.

The one-point defeats continued the next week when Northeast was victor by a score of 20-19.

East's first decisive victory came with the defeat of Central, 24-11. "Willie" Sprout and LaVerne Mathis were individual stars in this game.

The Bears' hard luck was revived, however, and Westport won the next league contest by the very close score of 16-14.

The best game of the season was played by East when they defeated Paseo 26-15. LaVerne Mathis led East's scoring.

The final league game found Manual on the long end of a 21 to 18 score. This victory enabled Manual to tie for the championship of the league.

In non-league games, East was victor over De LaSalle 26 to 16 and Rose-dale 30-19, but lost to Ottawa 34 to 8 and William Chrisman 20-15.

LaVerne Mathis, forward, was chosen for the all-star team of the Interscholastic League.

SECOND TEAM

The Cubs had a fairly successful season this year, winning three and losing three.

The first game was a victory over Southwest with "Pee Wee" Davies starring.

The second battle was also a victory, East defeating Northeast 25-12.

The winning streak was continued when Central lost 25 to 22.

East was tumbled out of first place, however, when it fell victim to Westport 45-32.

Paseo was also a winner over the Cubs, the score being 24 to 20.

The schedule ended with a defeat by Manual 26-19.

TRACK

Fourth Row: Gaunt, hurdles; Crawford, high jump; Hildebrand, 880; Hoopes, shot put; Yates, Capt., shot put; Goddard, dashes; Beckford, 440; Siler, high jump; Humbird, dashes; Caviar, pole vault.

Charles Yates

Although they failed to show a brilliant record on the books, East presented its usual well-coached and sportsmanlike aggregation of boys this year. The lack of plentiful material again handicapped Coach Thelen in the producing of a well-balanced squad.

East opened the season losing to Southwest  $51\frac{1}{2}$  to  $39\frac{1}{2}$ . Fred Beckford, Lee Hildebrand, and "Charlie" Yates were outstanding performers for East.

In the second meet East was defeated by a decisive score of  $71\frac{1}{2}$  to  $19\frac{1}{2}$  at the hands of the Northeast Vikings. Lee Hildebrand, in the 880-yard dash, scored the only first for the Bears.

Competing in a triangular meet with Rosedale and Argentine, East scored its first victory by an overwhelming count of  $75\frac{3}{4}$  to  $26\frac{1}{2}$  for Argentine and  $22\frac{3}{4}$  for Rosedale.

Paseo proved too much for the Bears, the score being 59 to 32, with East on the small end of it. Lee Caviar, East's first ranking pole vaulter, and "Charlie" Yates were leaders in the individual scoring.

On May 8 the annual state meet will be held at Columbia. Following this, is a dual meet with Central at the Central field on May 14. The season closes with the city meet at Southwest May 22.

Charles Yates was chosen captain of the track team this year because of his all-around ability and his popularity with the boys on the team.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Through the able guidance of Miss Roads and Miss Segelbaum, the girls of the physical education department learn how to live healthier and happier lives.

Miss Hazel M. Roads

Miss Rose Segelbaum

Physical development and care of health are the main objects around which the course of study of the East High girls' athletic department is based. Under the able leadership of Miss Hazel M. Roads and Miss Rose Segelbaum, physical education teachers, the girls receive valuable instruction on correct exercise, outdoor games and sports, and the care of the body.

The department strives to develop character among its members, as well as athletic ability. Sportsmanship, speed, accuracy, and co-operation are stressed. This training often accomplishes an amazing transformation in some individuals who formerly lacked these qualities before entering the course.

To encourage more interest in sports, the department sponsors after-school activities. By this plan, girls whose programs are too full to take physical education have an opportunity to participate in games and sports. On Monday and Tuesday afternoons, the freshmen meet, while Thursday is the day set for upperclassmen. These "fair athletes" play soccer, end ball, volley ball, basketball, and baseball in season.

The girls also take much interest in various individual sports such as archery, swing ball, hand tennis, kick shuffle, deck tennis, and aerial darts. Each spring the department holds a track meet and a tournament for individual sports.

With the presentation of Sam Janney's "The Black Flamingo" as this year's mid-year play, East's dramatics department distinguished itself by being the second high school group ever to attempt this elaborate melodrama. Two casts, one for December eighteenth and the other for the nineteenth, delightfully enacted the piece, which is full of mystery and suspense. The action of this historical play takes place in an old castle, now an inn, in southern France near the Italian border. The time is the evening of July 15, 1789, the day after the fall of the Bastille.

Miss Cecile Burton directed the three-act drama, and designed the stage for the production. The set was executed by Mr. Lynne C. Monroe, Mr. J. N. Broadlick, Miss Martha Abbott, and a crew of East students.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Wendell M. Ryder, played atmospheric music.

● THE ANNUAL UNCORKING OF

OUTBURST

Capacity crowds witnessed the eleventh annual East Outburst the nights of March 5 and 6. The theme of the main show, "Modern Arabian Nights," made it possible for varied entertainment to be presented, yet with definite connection and continuous interest.

The lovely prisoner, Scheherazade, with the aid of modern television, brought before the cruel Shahriyar group and solo numbers by the best entertainers of modern times. Ethel Krute portrayed Scheherazade, and Seymour Moubert took the role of Shahriyar.

Oriental stage setting added much to the atmosphere of the Arabian court. The throne of the potentate was beneath a Saracenic arch, and at his side stood two muscular Numidian slaves, alias East gridiron heroes, Jack Black and Glenn Bingman.

There were eleven side shows this year, presented by the four literary societies, a group of alumni, children from neighboring grade schools, and several rooms.

Much of the success of the program was due to the able supervision of Miss Martha Abbott, director of the main show, and her assistant, Miss Edith Tarbet. Mr. J. N. Broadlick was general chairman of the production and Miss May Farr Hiatt had charge of the side shows. All the teachers and hundreds of students lent their assistance in this all-school activity.

"That grand old comedy" could hardly be better applied to any presentation than to "Charley's Aunt," Brandon Thomas' hilarious three-act comedy. The play was presented by the senior class April 9, under the direction of Miss M. Cecile Burton.

Jack Chesney and Charles Wykeham are undergraduates at St. Olde's College, Oxford, and after inviting two young ladies, Kitty Verdun and Amy Spettigue, to meet Charley's aunt from Brazil, they receive word that the aunt will be unable to come as soon as she had previously informed them. Lord Babberley, who comes in to show them his out-of-date, but womanly, costume that he is to wear in an amateur theatrical, is introduced as Charley's aunt. From that point, the play leads from one amusing situation to another, until finally Donna Lucia d'Alvadorez and Babberley meet.

All difficulties are soon ironed out, and as it is said, "All's well that ends well," and the final curtain closes on one of the most successful and entertaining senior plays that East High has ever produced.

DEBATE

The East Debate squad worked on the question chosen by the national forensic league for all high schools in the United States for the current year: Resolved: All electric utilities should be governmentally owned and operated. On February 5, the question was debated by East's two teams in assembly, and the decision was given to the negative. The other debates held with other schools were non-decision debates.

Mr. J. N. Curtis accompanied the teams to all the debates outside of school, and was with one of the teams when the debates were held at school. Virginia Schmidt, Ethel Krute, and Betty Rose Henthorn acted at various times as chairman, timekeepers, and alternates.

- April 7—William Chrisman at Independence.
- April 15—Central at East.

The affirmative team consisted of Mary Rowe, Melvin Wilson, James McCormick. The alternate was Ruth Fulton. The negative team consisted of Nora Jane Ackerly, Darwin Gervais, Charles Fike, Clifford Leweke, Lewis Logan. The alternate was Betty Coleman.

CHARITY SPEAKERS

Charity speakers chosen from East's speech department this year were Mary Rowe, Betty Coleman, Charles Fike, James McCormick, Clifford Leweke, and Elva Mae Greene.

Charles Fike represented East in the American Legion Oratorical Contest held at the Music Hall of the Municipal Auditorium, February 19, 1937.

The Eastonian is one of the most important undertakings ventured during the school year by a group of students. In the publication of the annual, three of the major departments of East, the art, commercial, and English groups, combine their efforts to make this work possible.

The editorial staff is chosen by Miss Dorothy W. Varney from the English and newswriting classes. To be considered for the staff, a student must write his suggestions for bettering the Eastonian. Miss Martha Abbott selects the art staff. Its work consists of mounting photographs and in working out pictorially the theme of the book. The rubber cuts for the division pages are the work of the art staff.

ACTIVITIES OF THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

A new system was inaugurated this year into the city-wide musical events. Instead of having the customary contest, the A Cappella Choirs of the Kansas City High Schools joined together to present a concert March 9. The numbers were heard and graded by Dr. Hollis Dann, Dean Emeritus of the Music Education Department of the University of New York. The East choir received the equivalent of an "S" grade. Soloists representing East in the individual "talent finding" contest were Louise Blankenship, Mary Rowe, Evelyn Jackson, Lorene Henze, Archie Clarke, and Eugene Moore.

Louise Blankenship and Archie Clarke participated in a contest sponsored by the National Voice Teachers Association at the biennial convention of the Southwest District Music Supervisors Conference at Tulsa, Oklahoma, March 13. Each received the equivalent of second ranking.

OUTBURST POSTER CONTEST

From ninety-nine posters, the ones made by these students were selected as the best to advertise the 1937 Outburst. Cash prizes were awarded to Charles Grube, first prize winner; Kenneth Gibbs, second; and Jerry McKinney, Jack Harrington, Norman Kratschmer, and Edwin Gray, third prize winners.

The students who received honorable mention were, in the order of their ranking: Mary Louise Wilson, Jack Harrington, Jack Neubauer, Lionel Golston, Lee Caviar, Lyla May Shope, Edwin Gray, Kenneth Gibbs, Patricia Bicknell, Gene Lefebvre, Norman Kratschmer, Lionel Golston, Charles Grube, and Maxine Roberts.

The judges were: Mr. C. H. Nowlin, chairman, Mr. J. N. Broadlick, Miss Nora Boone, Mr. J. N. Curtis, Miss May Farr Hiatt, and Miss Ruth Robinson.

HOME MAKING DEPARTMENT

The Home Making Department entertained their friends and parents with an exhibit of student work, April 15, in the fourth floor corridor. The public fashion show of previous years was abandoned, and this year only those most interested were invited. A novel sort of program was presented. Songs from a fashion operetta were given by a trio, and a playlet entitled "Paging Mr. Dollar" was presented by members of the speech department.

Dresses made chiefly by the second and third year students were modeled. Following the fashion show, the foods classes served refreshments.

POSTURE HONOR ROLL

This year the Student Council again sponsored a posture contest in the home rooms. The following students were chosen to represent their rooms: Janet Sloan, B-3; Lucille Luton, B-9; Paul Kellar, B-1; Betty Ann Lusher, 108; Dorothy Fish, 106; Bob Cohlmeier, 105; Glen Bradbury, 104; Virginia Schmidt, 204; Dennie Blackburn, 201; Marilee Woodward, 211; Nadine Fisher, 208; Evelyn McDonald, 206; Vivian Abreo, 301; Mary Esther Oldham, 311; Marvin Tomlinson, 304; Leslie Hill, 306; Marjorie Reedy, 308; Bob Knapp, 319; June Stanton, 321; Helen Pasek, 309; Betty Isenberg, 315; Dorothy Rothwell, 303; Irene McLeroy, 307; Howard McGhee, 313; Melvon Ireland, 302; Lucille Goldsworthy, 305; Wanda Ball, 405; Bernard Stump, 402; Dorothy Benton, 404; Francis McDonald, 407; Jean McDavitt, 401; Jack Reardon, 403; Cafeteria Study Hall, Donis Rittenhour.

TYPING HONOR ROLL

Various awards are made each year to the students who achieve outstanding ability in typing. Those who type forty words per minute with less than three errors receive a bronze pin; fifty words a minute, a silver pin; sixty words, a gold pin.

Edith Gaba and Twanette Calnen received gold pins. Mary Louise Seaton and Thelma Guorroto received guards for the forty pins. Bronze pins went to Jewel Rose Claunch, Mary Jane Corley, Charles Easley, Lottie Eisen, Martha Grabb, Frances Hudnut, Constance Jones, George Lynn, Alvin Seiff, Dorothy DeWeese, Dorothy Smith, Catherine Higgins, Amber George, Alice Beisenherz, Ruth Lee Williams, Lorene Painter, Kathryn Graham, Doris Kirby, Dorothy Smith, Lucille Algire, Jack Greenbaum, Rose Ellen Brown, Virginia Lavery, Viola Baldwin, Ethel Bostock, Charles Fike, Lucille Goldsworthy, Irene Helm, Leslie Hill, Mildred Johnston, Ella Kay Knoll, Grant Seward, Lyla Mae Shope, Lester Wells, and Cora Zimmerman.

The second year typing team composed of Twanette Calnen, Edith Gaba, and Bob Hyatt won first place in the typing contest held at Westport High School, April 24, and won the right to represent the Jackson County District in Columbia May 1. Twanette Calnen won a gold medal for the fastest typist in the city. Jack Greenbaum won a silver medal for the most accurate.

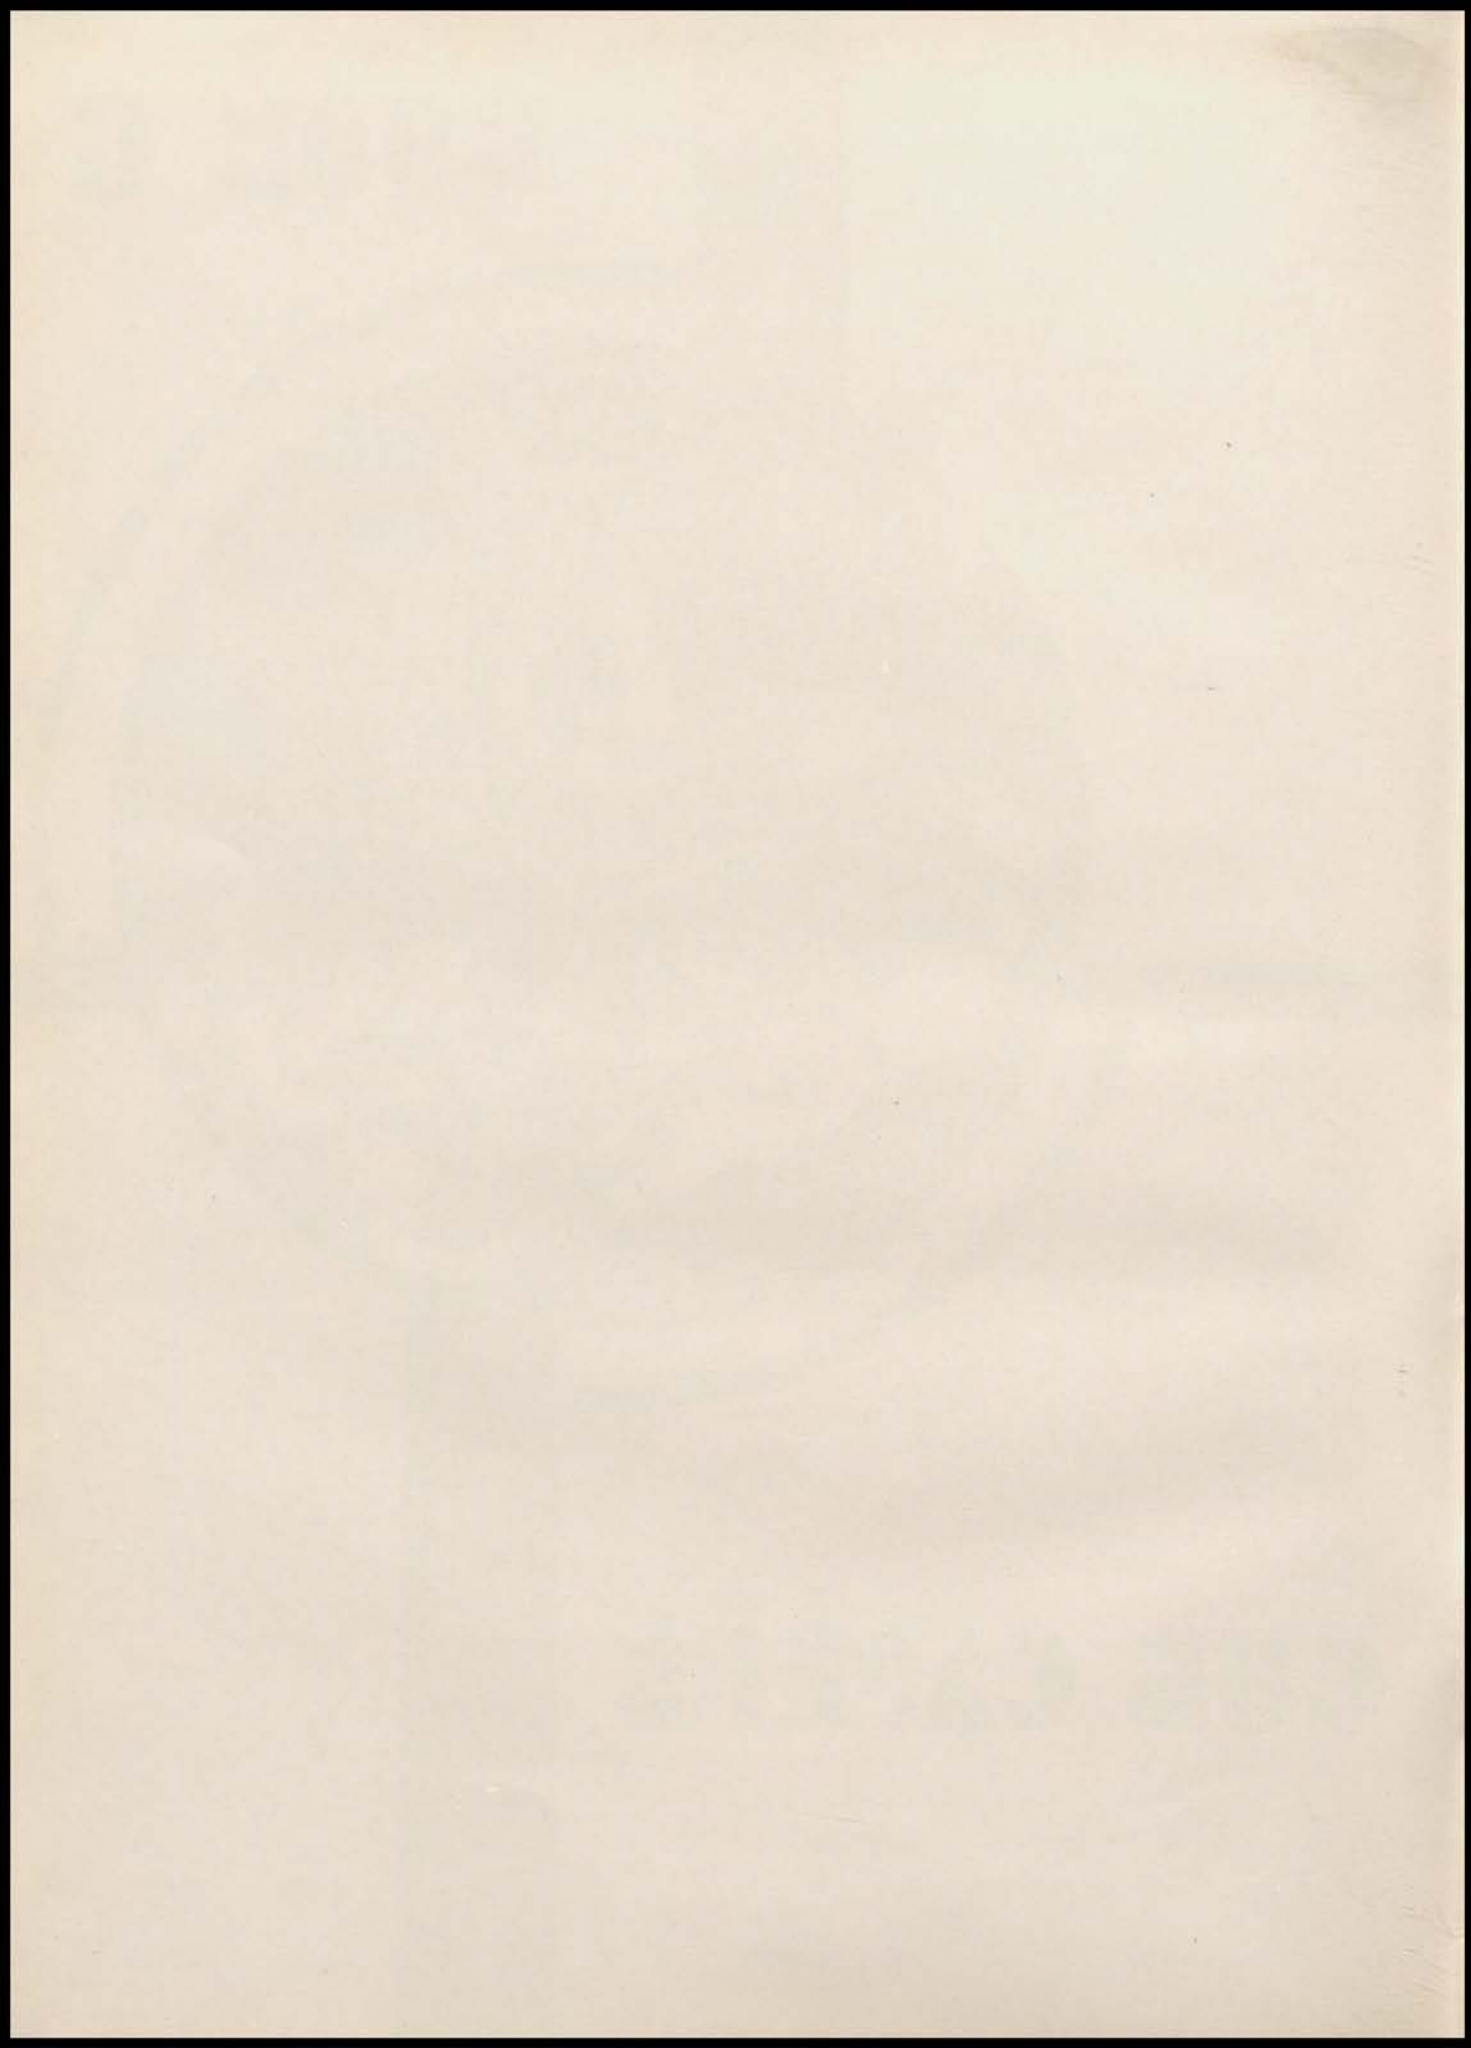

Twanette Calnen won first place in accuracy in the state contest at Columbia, Missouri, Saturday, May 1. Edith Gaba won second place in accuracy.

PROLOGUE

This little play that I have writ
Is filled, I hope, with laugh and wit.
If to this end then I should fail,
Then woe is me to moan and wail.

Curtain rises with a shimmying motion (like Charles Hartman cheer-leading).

(Nit and Wit are talking.)

Shay, have you heard the latest?

No.

It hasn't come out yet.

Ha! Ha! You kill me.

Well then, why don't you die?

Say, putting all kidding aside (goat raising) you know Norman Kratschmer, don't you?

Sure.

Well, so do I—Good joke, eh?

You are a very smart man.

Naw, not me, but that Paul Flucke is.

And say, ole Charles Grube is a curly-headed girl-trap if there ever was one.

Sure, he takes one look at a girl and sees her.

Hey, are you trying to be funny?

Now, calm yourself.—Why man, you're panting!

Well, you'd pant too if you were all lit up over that Deontyne Lampley.

I saw that big bashful football hero Malcolm Gerhardt get tackled for a loss, and by a girl too.

Say, you're too smart! You make me see red.

Huh! That's nothing. The other day I saw Black (Jack Black). He looked somewhat pale.

I bet there's a girl in the case.

Yep. I saw in a movie once where a magician made a girl come out of a case (suitcase).

Do you know that girl that's supposed to have some wits?

Who, Louise Abramowitz? Sure, small but not very big.

Have you seen that giant or big man (Bingman Glenn)? You know, every time I look at that fellow, I have to use a periscope.

Yeah, I know. He is always taking a swing at somebody.

Huh. He ought to go into the hardware business if he deals in swings.

Say, fella, did you know that there was a ship here at school that carried blank cartridges?

Why, no, that couldn't be! We haven't any swimming pool.

Well it's so, just the same. Haven't you seen that boy-trap, Louise Blankenship making pupils—I-er-ah mean (pardon me) eyes at all, or rather, at some of the boys?

Oh, sure. Now that you speak of it, there are girls who go here that make eyes. Just look at their grade cards if you don't believe me.

Oh silly! Te he he. You remind me of Orville Hendrix. He's always trying to crack jokes, I know.

They don't crack, they fall to pieces.

Once upon a time one of our boys had Lefebvre (Eugene). His temperature was very high. You know why?

No.

Well you see, while he was sick, that Weis guy, Ted Weis, puts the thermometer away up on the ceiling, thus accounting for the high temperature.

Say, have you heard that phrase about that little lotus flower that goes to school?

No indeed!

Well it goes this way—Betty May Blum or she may not. It's just according to the seasons; basketball or football. Cute, isn't she—I mean isn't it.

Then there's that boy that's always behind, Jack Reardon.

That's right. You know when he was in the rear ranks in the army Leroyal (Butler) family reviewed the army.

Did anyone adbicate?

Did they? Melvon Ireland, Louis LaFountain and Robert McLeroy ate up every bit of cake that was left.

You don't say!—The crumbs! That's what they are.

If Lois Vines doesn't stop entwining herself into the hearts of men, she's going to break some—hearts I mean.

If you want the Shockley (Mildred) of your life just go around with a live coffin (Robert Coffland).

They say one gets a kick out of doing that.

Say, how's this? "They all laughed when Charles Fike stepped out of the gutter; they didn't know he had been orating in guttural tones." "They all laughed when Dorothy DeWeese pulled out a package of gum; they didn't know that it was a stick up."

Those puns are terrible! Why, when Dan Henehan was playing football he could pun farther than that.

Yeah, I know. One gets a kick out of playing football.

Yes, and Judson Cooper and Edwin Gray got a kick out of visiting their respective girls—Get what I mean?

Let's change the subject.

All right—keep the change.

Some girls sure can work miracles on the typewriter. Take Twanette Calnen for instance, she's just the type, isn't she? (This is a joke.)

You know, the other day I caught Judson Cooper reading "Gone With the Wind."

Yes, I wouldn't put it past him. He's always reading those breezy stories.

O, say, you know Mary Louise don't you?—You know, the girl you caught Seaton on a chair?

Say, Wit, before you go downtown tonight go by for that nutty girl Frances Hudnut and Grabb (Martha) her. She's wanted for salt and battery.

Say, fella, what's the Mathis (LaVerne) with you—you can't Reed (Alta) straight. She's not wanted for that. Her mother Stenfors (Carl) to get some Soltys (Ted) and Peppard (Billy) at the grocery store.

Aw, listen! Don't get smart. Sloan's Liniment can but not you.

Say, do you wanna Fike? (Charles.)

At this time the stage floor gives way, flooring Nit and Wit.

So our "play upon words" ends (as they all do in beauty parlors) with a bang or bangs.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Just by looking at the word "thanks" one isn't duly impressed. It's just a six-letter word, but the thought behind this small, unimpressive group of letters is a kind and magnanimous one! According to Webster "thanks" is an expression of gratitude; so we, the Eastonian staff of 1937, wish to offer our humblest "thanks" to the Eastonian sponsors: Miss Varney, Miss Baker, Miss Abbott, Mr. Parks, Mr. Nichols, and Mr. Grube; to Mr. Haines of the Haines Studio; Mr. Smith of the Smith-Grievies Printing Company; Mr. Dew of Holland Engraving Company; and to all other members of the faculty and student body who were in any manner connected with the publication. Last, but not least, we owe a "great big thanks" to those organizations who made this year-book possible, the advertisers.

Any amount of gratitude is insufficient for the work and help which the aforesaid have donated.
