DEDICATION

In the long ago days of ancient Greece the winged horse Pegasus was the symbol of inspiration and achievement. The Greeks gazing at a statue of his winged fleetness were spurred to strive for higher, better lives.

Just so does ambition, the modern Pegasus, inspire the youth of today to try to achieve the hopes and dreams which play such a large part in the lives of young people.

Of course, though, we cannot fix our gaze continually on the mountain top. We must think, also, in terms of the workaday events of life. Often we must emulate, instead of Pegasus, merely the faithful plow horse, and plod slowly but steadily through the difficulties of Latin and algebra.

Thus, the Eastonian staff of 1940 dedicates this annual, not only to youth's lofty aspirations but also to the common joys and tasks which help make our dreams come true.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Thirty-eight elated seniors received bids to the National Honor Society on Friday, April 26. Thus they received the highest honor given to students of East High School and reached the goal they had set for themselves at the beginning of their high school careers.

The invitations of membership were given out during the home room period by junior officers. These National Honor Society members were given their pins in the installation ceremony in assembly, May 3. The names had been selected from those in the upper quartile of the senior class who were outstanding in the four principles of the Society—scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Fifteen per cent of the seniors were elected to the National Honor Society on the basis of their scholastic records plus their school activities, after a faculty character recommendation.

The Society is a national organization, established in 1924. The East High Chapter was founded the second year of the school.

The 1940 members of the National Honor Society are: George Billiuris, George Baker, Jerry Bicknell, Rose Marie Boyd, Herbert Butt, Bruce Davies, William Earp, Fern England, Ruthellen Everhart, Nellie Mae Hale, Van Harrison, Loren Alice Heady, Wilma Hudson, Marian Johnson, Gladys Kaplan, Robert Knapp, Delbert Leweke, Lida May Lueders, Roy McKee, John Milholland, Betty Lou Mohr, Jeanette Moyer, Donald Nevins, Althena Olson, Marian Pence, Alice Ramsey, Eugene Sabin, Leonelle Sexton, Harold Smith, Viola Smith, Ellen Spinner, Mary Stout, Marian Swigart, Mary Katherine Verlin, Ray Weatherbee, Georgia Welch, Eleanor West, Marilee Woodward and Helen McGrath.

The members of the faculty committee are Miss May Farr Hiatt, Mr. Ralph Tiefel, Miss Evelyn Gilchrist, Mr. J. N. Broadlick, with Mr. J. L. Laughlin as ex-officio member.

The Senior Ballot represents outstanding students who are chosen by members of the senior class about the beginning of the second semester. It includes a variety of talents and personalities.

During the first three years of their high school career, the students try to establish themselves for one of these positions. At voting time, those years behind are taken into consideration.

There are twelve offices for boys and the same for girls. Of these, eleven are voted on by the senior student body, but one, highest ranking boy and girl student, is taken from the official record in the office.

Unlike the senior class officers those on the Senior Ballot do not have any duties to perform. By means of this ballot, the outstanding students of the graduating class of East High School are honored. May their hopes be fulfilled.

*To you from our noble seniors
This advice before they go:
"Never let 'teach' know you don't know
What she knows you know you should know."*

*On every week day you can find us
In a class with work to do
And though we fuss and groan and grumble
We'll be there, just PLOWIN' THROUGH.*

HAYNES

The Kalailu Literary Society, the oldest in East High School, was organized in October, 1926. Mr. John R. Wahlstedt, who later became vice-principal of the school, was the first sponsor.

The name Kalailu is Hawaiian for friendship, which is the primary principle of the club. The fundamental plan of the club is to provide an organization for the study and production of literature and to create a closer friendship among its members.

The Leundis Literary Society, the first girls' literary club at East, was organized in order to improve the members' writing and speaking ability and to promote a closer friendship among the girls. The name of Leundis is made up of "learning, understanding, and discernment." The club colors are rose and gray.

The important activities during the year are the rush teas, the dances and picnic with their brother club, the "Hams," and of course, the Literary Contest. Leundis has placed first in seven out of twelve contests.

The Hamilton Literary Society was organized in February, 1928, for the purpose of bringing together congenial boys of similar tastes that they might develop a greater interest in literature and writing.

The club was named in honor of Alexander Hamilton, who is the ideal of every member, because of his brilliancy in writing and parliamentary work.

The club colors are blue and white.

The Art Club was organized at East High School in September, 1926. Its chief objective is to develop a better appreciation of art and to give opportunity for creative activity.

Varied types of art activity such as block printing, sketching, painting, and modeling are participated in at the meetings. Museum visits and trips to other places of art interest are taken during the year. The social functions held from time to time are greatly enjoyed by members and sponsors alike.

Organized when East High was in its infancy, the Commercial Club fosters activities interpreting better business principles and ideals. To give its members a clearer picture of business and industrial life, the club makes numerous visits to various commercial or business houses, and industries characteristic of Kansas City. In addition, contacts with personnel directors are made by inviting these leaders to speak to the group. To promote a wider acquaintance with business machines, demonstrations are held as frequently as possible. Plays, dramatizing business procedures, add interest to the club meetings. For improvement in personality, the club studies books and periodicals. To promote better fellowship among its members, social activities occupy a prominent part in the club program. These affairs afford opportunities for the development of leadership, initiative, and poise.

The Spanish Club or "Los Amigos" is one of the largest departmental clubs. There are 95 active members. The club was operated on a new plan this year. Every other week each Spanish class held a meeting during class and the whole club met twice a month after school. The club officers were chosen from the class officers.

The biggest affair of the year for the club was the annual Fiesta in the spring. Other enjoyable activities were the Christmas dance with the Junior Classical League, the technicolor films of Mexico, the trip to the Art Gallery, and the program given by the Garcia family. The object of the Spanish Club is to promote the study of the language and customs of Spanish-speaking countries while "having a good time."

The Girl Reserve Club of East is a junior branch of the Y. W. C. A. The Girl Reserve purpose is "to find and give the best." The club is divided into four triangles, which meet separately once a month. General meetings are also held that often. The cabinet is made up of the club officers and the triangle presidents.

One of the most important events of the year for the Girl Reserves was the Spaghetti Supper, held at the Van Brunt Presbyterian Church. Other activities were the collection of Christmas gifts for Indian children, the Palm Sunday Breakfast and parties at the "Y," the Christmas and Easter programs, the recognition service, and the "Reversia" party given for new members.

SPRING CLEANING

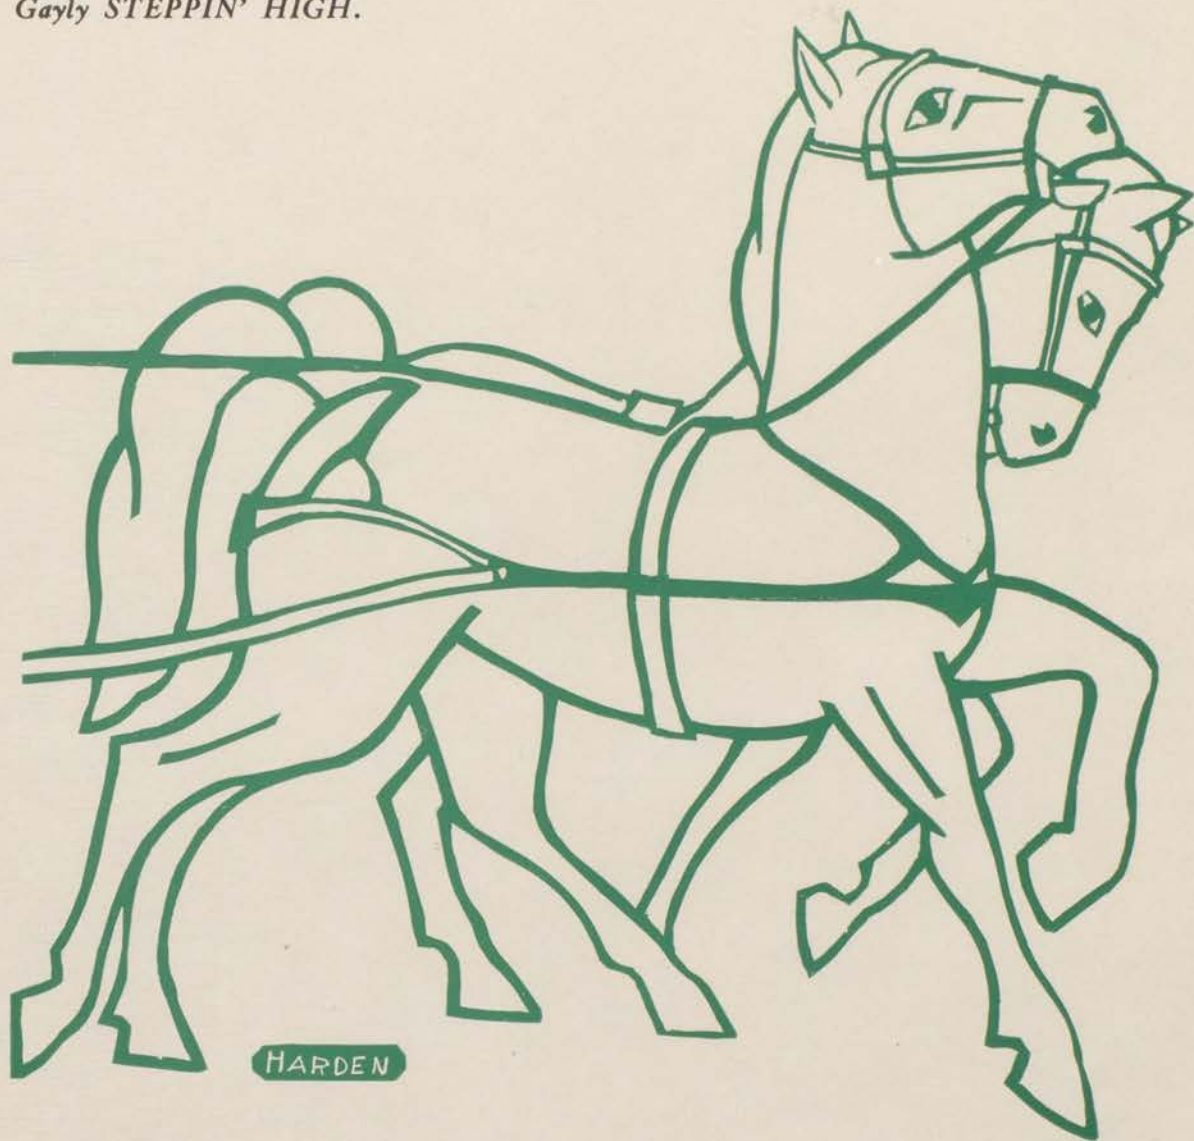

(Gold medal winner in Literary Contest)

*It seems that nature sent the winds today
To sweep the world and make it shining new.
With dancing feet they brushed the clouds away
And made the sky a brighter shade of blue.
Then nature shined the moon and made each star
A glowing tribute to her artistry.
She cleared the ice and sent the brooks afar
Upon their carefree journey to the sea.
She sent her trumpeters, the birds, to wake
The drowsy flowers, then April rain to clean
Each tiny, upturned face. Into the lake
She poured a bit of blue. A touch of green
Upon the buds; escaping from their shells
The leaves came tumbling out. The breezes, mad
With ecstasy, set all the mute bluebells
A-ringing out to make the clean world glad.*

DOROTHY MAE PATRICK

*You've seen our parade of club members;
Can't you guess what it would be,
To have a school without those clubs?—
Like the fish without the sea.*

*We leave our books behind us
With a none too sad goodbye,
And sally forth to our night life
Gayly STEPPIN' HIGH.*

STEPPIN' HIGH

"320 COLLEGE AVENUE"

A thrilling mystery, "320 College Avenue," as presented on December 8 under the direction of Miss Grace Breen.

A hard-boiled police chief and a vivacious sorority leader tangle up an amazing murder which proves ludicrous in the end. Opening with gaiety at a sorority house dance, the lively action continued throughout the production.

OUTBURST "FUNFAIRESTA"

The annual East Outburst was held March 29 and 30 with a new name that held thrills, chills and splendor. It was similar to last year's plan of the "Big Top," but it took its theme from the world's fairs of New York and San Francisco.

Of the many and varied song numbers this year, "Come to the Fair," "Bluebirds in the Moonlight," and "In An Old Dutch Garden," were choruses that were particularly beautiful. Those participating were decked in costumes of multifarious colors.

Bob Floyd acted as master of ceremonies, with Jack Coffey serving as his announcer on that popular station E-A-S-T.

From the army there was a change from last year's formal drill to a new and streamlined inspection with Joe Coulter as the head. It came at the first of the program and provided a ludicrous thought throughout the whole show. Rating: One of the best numbers they have ever provided.

After much secrecy, rumor and such, the Funfairesta's audience became tense as the much-talked about glamour boys stepped gallantly on the stage, strutting with canes and top hats. These men-about-town were none other than our own Mr. McMillan, Mr. Curtis, Mr. Edmondson and Mr. Grace. Mr. Cohlmeier, Miss Wilkin and Mr. Grube set a picturesque atmosphere for their songs of used-to-be. With fitting clothes, Mr. Cohlmeier and Miss Wilkin wheeled round on a bicycle built for two and Mr. Grube struggled with a high bicycle.

Mr. J. C. Cohlmeier was in charge of a marching drill put on by one of his gym classes. The boys demonstrated one of the harder drills often used by the Boy Scouts of America and it was received by much applause.

Another clever number in the Funfairesta this year was entitled the "Mystery Dancer." Feminine grace was shown by the males when some of East's huskiest athletes breezed in in spring ballet costumes. Jimmy Hampton led the dance perfectly dressed as a member of the fairer dancing group with golden curls and all. Later he unmasked, disclosing the identity of the "Mystery Dancer."

Miss Cobb was general chairman of committees this year with Miss Johnson as the head of the program, Miss Baker head of the ticket sales campaign, and Miss Crawford head of the art. They were assisted by Mr. Broadlick and his stage crew as well as other members of the faculty.

Accompaniment to the numbers during the grand show was by the orchestra under the direction of Wendell M. Ryder.

HARVEST MOON

On November 3, 1939, a grand show was given that included nearly one hundred students in its cast. The annual Harvest Moon was sponsored by the students, parents, and teachers. It was a great success in the minds of the friendly audience.

Mr. Broadlick was the chairman of the committee with Miss Clausen head of the music, Miss Breen head of the speech division, and Miss Segelbaum in charge of the dance. The speech department provided two capable masters of ceremonies, Bob Jones and Bob Hale. Through them much comedy was added to the performance.

The opening feature of the entertaining performance was the music of the orchestra under the direction of the student director, Luther Clardy.

The P.-T. A. included an excellent play, dance duet, and music specialty for their part of the show. One of their special numbers was the "Man With the Violin," which presented a chorus of pretty girls behind a classical looking violinist.

SPEECH DEPARTMENT

East was fortunate this year in having Miss Grace Breen as her speech director. Under her guidance East High students accomplished much in the way of oral interpretation. In the public speaking class, made up of juniors and seniors, the students participated in many competitive phases of speech work. In debate, East's affirmative team consisted of Betty Bales, Bill Ainsworth, Wanda Lea Logan, and Delbert Leweke; the negative were Alice Ramsey, Emma Jean James, Mary Ellen Nichols, and Lawrence McDonald. These debated the teams from Central, Northeast, Manual, and Rockhurst.

Three charity speakers were selected from this class and spoke at several churches throughout the city. They were Betty Bales, Delbert Leweke, and Alice Ramsey. In the oration contest sponsored by the American Legion, East's contestant, Alice Ramsey, placed second.

The drama class presented two plays in the assembly: "Open for Inspection" and "Not Quite Such a Goose." Those taking part were Georgia Welch, Rosemary Strauss, Beverly Burch, Joanne Neubauer, and Helen Gulick. In the latter one the actors were Betty Neely, Viola Smith, Warren Brenniman, J. D. Brown, and Helen McGrath.

On the whole the speech department has seen a very successful year, and we know that a great part of it was due to Miss Breen.

The a cappella choir represents a very live organization. Having had many engagements throughout the year, they have been quite busy. A few of the engagements which they had included: the opening of the charity campaign at the Municipal Auditorium, Linwood Presbyterian Church choir presentation, and the P.-T. A.'s Founder's Day program at East's auditorium.

During the Christmas season they not only presented a picturesque musical assembly for the student body here at East High, but they caroled about town. Among those places where they were scheduled to sing were: Commerce Trust Company, Newbern Hotel, Mercy Hospital, American Legion Toy Shop, and American Medical Association at the Municipal Auditorium.

One of their most exciting dates of this year was on May 10, 1940, and was for the National School Music Competition Festival. The National Festival consisted of all high schools in Kansas City and several high schools from other cities.

This event is exceedingly important and will not come again for at least ten years.

BAND

This organization is one of the most loyal groups in the entire school. Under the leadership of Mr. Wendell M. Ryder, the band has established a fine record of promptness and alertness excelled by no other school organization.

The duty of the band is to furnish proper music for various school activities, such as football and basketball games, assemblies, parades and R. O. T. C. Circus and inspection. A band which supports all of these functions is a band worthy of praise.

Also, the band is very fortunate in being led by six very attractive major-ettes who add greatly to the appearance of the group. They are: Marian Shepherd, Helen Gulick, Georgia Nell Edwards, Coleene McCoskrie, Patricia O'Brien and Helene Mueller.

All in all, the enthusiastic music our band puts forth is pleasantly accepted by everyone who hears it.

ORCHESTRA

The East High School orchestra under the capable direction of Mr. Wendell M. Ryder is an organization composed of talented young musicians who seek to broaden their knowledge and appreciation of finer music.

This group encounters many assignments which require hours of practice and patience. Throughout the year the orchestra must furnish music for the school plays, the Harvest Moon, Outburst, P.-T. A. meetings, assemblies and for any other occasion which may arise.

Also these students spend much time rehearsing symphonies and overtures as a means for their musical outlet.

The orchestra's hard, loyal work is appreciated and enjoyed by those who have the fortune to hear it.

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

The music classes, under the direction of Miss Violet Clausen presented Christmas carols, both old and new, December 22, 1939. The a cappella choir, chorus and voice classes participated in this impressive program. It was one to be long held in memory by East's students.

The girls' glee club and sixth hour chorus opened the hour with music from the balcony in the following songs: "Noel of the Bressan Waits," an old Bressan melody, and "Joy to the World." The orchestra played a Christmas fantasy.

The stage setting was based on a cathedral scene. In the rear was an organ with golden pipes. On either side of the organ pipes burned candles in candelabra. Beautiful decorations of poinsettias and green ferns were in front of the choir railing. Vines of southern smilax were draped in the background. The organ supplied a peaceful, church-like atmosphere.

The choir appeared in black and white robes, which were new this year.

Hubert Cooke read the scriptures throughout the musical ceremonial.

Concluding this unusually effective program, the group sang the Hallelujah Chorus, by Handel.

Stage
Crew

From the beginning of the school year to the last, the stage crew works diligently to please the students and faculty with the public address system, lighting system, and scenery. Mr. Broadlick directs the crew in construction and in handling the pieces of apparatus.

The crew is divided into sections. One section handles the lighting effects; another, the public address system; and still another the curtains.

ART STAFF

Second only to the stage crew in the backstage part of the shows at East, the scenery staff does its best to provide the proper atmosphere for the players and audience alike. Scenery was constructed and painted only for the Outburst this year, and a very commendable piece of work was performed by the staff in this undertaking. Those assisting Miss Crawford were Virginia Browne, Jimmy Castor, Jim Devin, Richard Harden, Bill Haynes, Mary Livasy, Bill Mecklinburg, John Milholland, Lucille McBee, Mary Margaret Rehkopf, Ellen Spinner, Grace Beatty, Carmen Spiers.

ART HONOR SOCIETY

As the National Honor Society is to the senior, so is the Art Honor Society to the art student. To gain membership to this society one must complete one year of high school art and then make a display of his work. He must have at least ten pieces representing at least four media (chalk, pencil, ink, water color, etc.). The displays are passed upon by qualified judges, and those whose work maintains the higher standard of excellence are chosen for membership.

This exhibition is held just before the end of the school year, so it is impossible for us to give you this year's membership list; but the 1939 list was available at the time this was written. Because of the high and closely grouped quality of the work, twenty-six student artists were accepted for membership, an unusual number for a school of this size. Bob Cohlmeier and Chester Harden were jointly awarded first place; Patricia Bicknell and Betty McCoy, second; Anita Eldridge, Bob Laster, and John Milholland, third; and Luther Clardy, Bob Cowling and Richard Harden honorable mention.

Others who qualified for membership were: Alvis Bishop, Jacqueline Brown, Virginia Browne, Jimmy Castor, James Devin, William Haynes, Joseph Klos, Mary Livasy, Oran Long, Ralph Martin, Lucille McBee, Maxine Roberts, Dorothee Simmons, Ellen Spinner, Robert Wendell, and Robert Wiltfong.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

The Commercial Department puts its work in daily practice. The salesmanship classes manage actual sales campaigns, as ticket sales for various plays, or the sale of advertising space on Outburst programs. To the bookkeeping classes falls the responsibility of collecting and crediting all money for senior dues, plays, and contests.

In the advanced shorthand classes, students act as secretaries to the faculty and receive a grade on actual work, also on such qualities as dependability, accuracy, and cooperativeness. High ranking students in this service receive recognition toward National Honor Society credits.

As for awards, beginning and advanced shorthand students may win certificates and pins for accuracy in dictation and transcription at rates of sixty, eighty, one hundred, and one hundred twenty words per minute. In typing, awards are given for records of twenty, twenty-five, thirty, forty, fifty, sixty, and seventy words per minute on ten and fifteen minute tests. Since there are 350 students in the Commercial Department, space will not permit recording of all of the winners.

Typewriting Awards:

Sixty words: Naomi Coale, Jeanette Moyer, Betty Louise Neely, Delores Wright.

Fifty words: Shirley Anderson, Betty Lou Bales, Katherine Chasteen, Leo Durbin, Lucille Farris, Gladys Kaplan, Coleene McCoskrie, Betty Lou Mohr, Althena Olson, Catherine Ruark, Mary Stout, Marilee Woodward.

Forty words: Frances Ablard, Janet Anderton, John Adams, Mary Jean Barnes, Wanda Beck, Irenne Beitler, Gloria Blackburn, Betty Bledsoe, Alice Marie Brown, Robert Bruski, Herbert Butt, Jack Coffey, Helen Day, Dorothy Deuser, Rebecca Downey, June Eneff, Ruth Everhart, Georgia Edwards, Peggy Gavin, Bob Hagan, Iva Mae Haney, Nellie Mae Hale, Juanita Harvey, Maxine Haskell, Margaret Hasty, Shirley Haynes, Loren Alice Heady, Doris Henley, Ruth Jacques, Marian Johnson, Metta Justus, Wanda Lea Logan, Lida May Lueders, Jean McDavitt, Virginia Newby, Mary Ellen Nichols, Billie Ruth Oster, Doris Ray, Marjorie Reedy, Juanita Riggs, George Scheil, Doris Schlei, Robert Shelton, Shirley Smith, Richard Snodgrass, Marjorie Talbott, Ray Weatherbee, Annetta Weibel, Margaret Williams, Marian Young.

Shorthand Awards:

One hundred words per minute: Rose Marie Boyd, Gladys Kaplan, Virginia Lee, Lida May Lueders, Jeanette Moyer, Althena Olson, Iris Tribble, Mary Katherine Verlin, Eleanor West, Delores Wright, Shirley Smith.

Eighty words per minute: Mary Booth, Alice Marie Brown, Evelyn Chapman, Gertrude Cooper, Leo Durbin, Fern England, Jean Flewelling, Peggy Gavin, Nellie Mae Hale, Ruth Jacques, Marian Johnson, Coleene McCoskrie, Jo Anne Neubauer, Mary Ellen Nichols, Marion Pence, Rowene Ritchie, Pearl Jean Roberts, Doris Schlei, Marian Shepherd, Mary Stout, Marian Swigart, Evelyn Townley, Norma Wiltshire.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Through the able cooperation of the Health Center, conducted by Miss Walton, East has maintained her high standard in health.

Each year Miss Walton helps with the tuberculin test and arranges for X-rays for those students requiring them.

Miss Walton has been aided in her work by the following senior girls who spend an hour each day in her office tending to various duties that may arise: Erma Childers, Virginia Newby, Vesta Cooke, and Bertha Moffett.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

East High is indeed fortunate in having two well equipped shops, the wood shop and the metal shop. The wood shop is under the direction of Mr. C. B. McClure, and Mr. J. T. Stadler is the instructor in metal work.

In metal shop there is a shop foreman for each hour, whose job it is to keep the stock room in order and check tools in and out. The corresponding job in wood shop is that of tool keeper. Edgar Cook and Harry Woodward are shop mechanics, whose job is the general upkeep of the metal shop.

Mr. McClure and members of wood working classes are making dart ball paddles for the girls' gym. Some of the other projects are: Melvyn Anschutz—a walnut chest; Eugene O'Hara—Jenny Lind Cradle; Vesta Cook—oval table; Margurite Scott—cedar chest; Gordon Sadler—photographic equipment; Clarence Harper—reproduction of early American teardrop table; Milton Vines—Early American tripod table; Harold Matthew—modernistic maple desk; Joe Anway—card table; Carl Logan—card table. Several boys are working on a mirror for boys' gym and on picture frames for Miss Cobb's room.

A few of the metal shop projects are: Hudson Gilson—a lathe; Charles Evans—a circle saw, and George Baker—set of aluminum drafting tools.

HOME MAKING

CLOTHING

The annual display of student work was presented in assembly April 5. Madam Suzette's Work Shop afforded a setting for the performance. Dresses completed at that time were modeled by girls from the second and third year clothing classes. Among garments shown were silk, rayon, and cotton dresses, house coats, and sports suits. Dresses of print silk in a variety of colors predominated. Many of these had been worn for Easter. Dress lengths of material, color swatches showing combining of colors, hand painted dress designs, and other materials and methods were used to add interest and life to the work room setting. The speech and the art departments assisted with the playlet.

Thirty-five wool dresses, jumpers and skirts were displayed on the assembly platform in December. Dela Marie Summers and Betty Louise Swearingin carried on a little question and answer act about these garments. Bits of information about selection of material, styles, appropriate and becoming colors, combining of colors and care of the garments were discussed.

At the Fashion Tea given by the Home Economics Club April 18, the sixth hour clothing class presented a little style show for members and guests. Ila Constable, Blanche Altman, Frances Clark and Margie Green planned and had charge of this dress review. Fourteen girls modeled. Margie Green and Frances Clark were the stylists who commented on new, interesting, and becoming details of the dresses.

The fifth hour clothing class visited the boys' food class at the time each was studying about problems in buying with which the consumer must deal. Billie Quear from the men's department of one of the downtown stores talked on points to look for in selecting boys' and men's clothing. The girls learned that their best guarantee to date of price and quality is to trade at stores who have built up a reputation of honesty and reliability.

FOODS

There was a time when the only work done in the domestic science classes was cooking. The scope of the work has grown until now the many activities of the home form the basis for the course of study. Not only the cookery of foods but food selection, nutrition, meal planning, and meal service are considered essential. The care of children and proper diets for the pre-school child and school child are stressed. The preparation of attractive invalid trays, as well as care of the invalid in the home, are considered important. Family relationships, including personality development, budgeting, and social life, cannot be neglected. We have a splendidly equipped laboratory with modern gas ranges and electric refrigerator. This year a Silex coffee maker and Thrift cooker were presented to the department. Boys have their special problems, which are taken up on the boys' home economics class. The boys compete in the cake baking contest as well as the girls. Last year a boy won first place. Great interest is taken in this contest with all contestants using the prize cake recipe. The contest this year was April 30.

Students who had training serve as assistants in the various classes. Naomi Huggins, Eunice Nelson, Inez Nelson and Betty Lou Mohr have assisted this year.

SHOOTIN' STARS

Boys' Athletics

Coombe—Brown—Esther—Cohlmeyer

"Now these are the men who furnish the sport;
They give us our thrills from field and court,
And win or lose they back us true,
They work and fret the whole year through.
Coaches Coombe and Brown the teams do lead,
While Esther serves like a trusty steed.
But in the gym and far from sight, Cohlmeyer,
in men, the wrong makes right."

CHEERLEADERS (Upper Right)

Manford—Coffey—Gulick

"Within these lads our spirit doth lie,
They lead us on though defeat is nigh.
They guide the throngs in their echoing cheer,
And turn their thoughts to trust from fear.
To Manford, Coffey, and Gulick we say,
Yours is a job which we cannot repay.
But after all is said and done,
Look back on these days as loads of fun."

STUDENT MANAGERS (Lower Left)

Raymond—Bob Knapp—Joe Knapp—Castor

"No glory these fellows ever hope to know,
But glance at their task and it will show
That theirs is a job of endless length,
Requiring enduring and hearty strength.
To Bob and Joe we warmly express,
That yours be happiness in excess.
To Charles and Jim we wish likewise,
That among the best your colors shall rise."

WATERBOYS (Lower Right)

Bleich—Chenault—Nelson

"Three small lads keep our squad from thirst,
They do their part to make us first,
Bleich, Chenault, Nelson, quite a threesome
indeed,
Always on hand to hear the team's need.
The unsung heroes of many a game,
Their reward is to build another's fame.
But, fellows, remember it always holds true,
To boost your brother reflects on you."

FOOTBALL SEASON

The East Bears entered the '39 football season with their "keynote," speed. Along with a heavy, hard-charging line, they boasted a light but fast and tricky backfield.

The first battle of the season found East invading the Ottawa stadium. After fighting vainly for two quarters, the Bears came to life in the third quarter and scored the deciding touchdown. Next, East tangled with the Chrisman Bears and after displaying two quarters of championship football, the East defense crumbled and the East Bruins were downed, 0-12.

Then the Interscholastic League opened and found East matched with the young but powerful Southeast. This time the Knights fell before the Bears' onslaught, 21-0. East also won its second league game over Central, 12-6, and became a leading contender for the '39 crown. Although East was highly favored over Paseo, the Pirates turned the tables and tied the score, 6-6.

The highlight of the season found East and Southwest tangling before a crowd of 4,500 spectators in the most crucial contest of the year. Southwest nosed out the everfighting Bears, 12-14, and became virtually assured of their second straight league championship. Keyed to a note of maddened fury after the Southwest defeat, the East Bears overwhelmed the Westport Tigers to the tune of 26-0. Completely off their stride, the Bruins dropped their remaining game to Northeast, 0-6.

Although East didn't win the championship, it played a brand of football, under the excellent coaching of Mr. Brown, which gained city-wide attention.

BASKETBALL SEASON

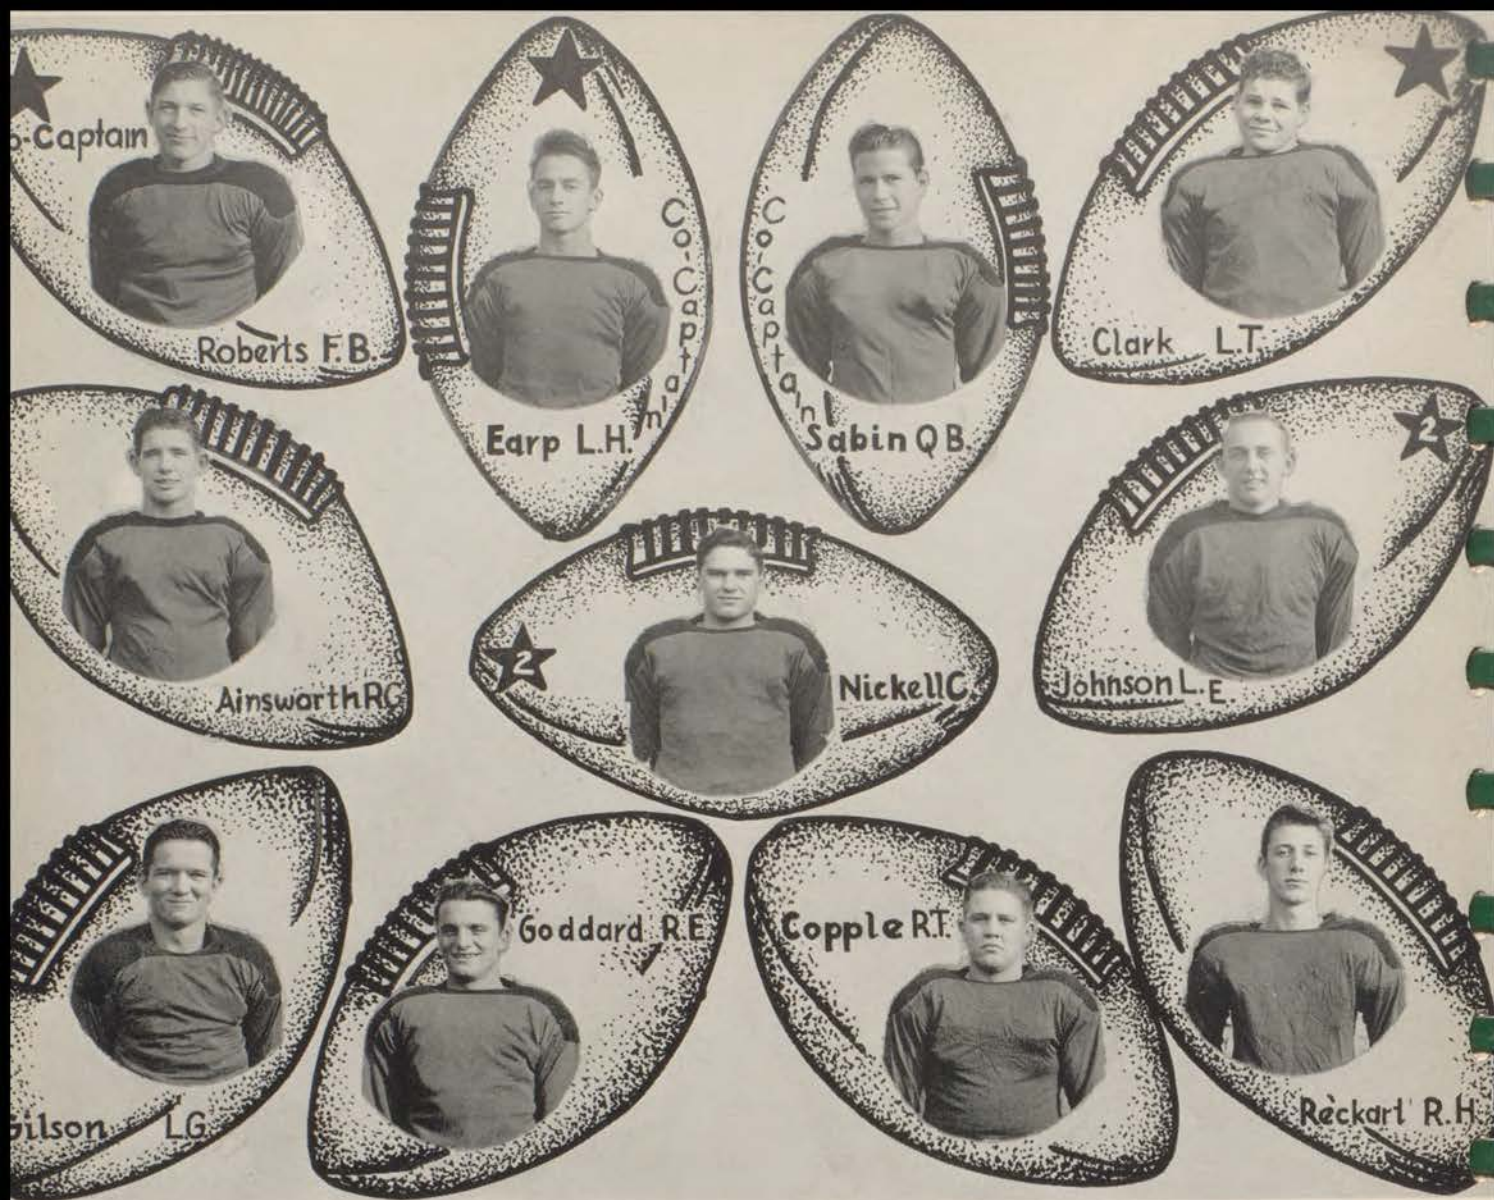

The East basketballers flashed into the '39 season by smothering their first two rivals. Odessa first felt the Bears' claws by a score of 25 to 15. East also tripped Warrensburg in the East gymnasium, 30 to 25, and many spectators foresaw a brilliant outlook for the raging Bears in the coming Interscholastic League. However, defeat followed the spirited Bears and in their next two pre-league contests they were conquered by Shawnee Mission and Ward of Kansas City, Kansas. Shawnee downed the Bears, 39 to 12, and Ward took the count, 27 to 21.

The opening of the '40 Interscholastic League found East and the young Southeast Knights scrambling for a thrill-packed game which was uncomfortably close until the ending gun had sounded. The final score was 19 to 20 in favor of East. After making a quick entry into first place in the league standings, the Bears next encountered two strong teams, Manual and Central. The East basketballers fought gallantly in these two league contests, but Manual turned back the Bears, 20 to 14, and Central was victorious, 25 to 19.

Next came the highly touted Paseo Pirates with no defeats and a very high scoring average. The determined Bears ventured forth upon the court with the greatly favored Pirates and gave the audience a thrill which will long be remembered. Through accurate passing, timely scoring and perfect coaching, the Bears not only held Paseo to 14 points, but also scored 13 for themselves.

Dropping swiftly in the standings, but always fighting and giving their best, the Bears suffered defeats at the hands of Southwest, Westport and Northeast. The scores: East 19, Southwest 38; East 26, Westport 39; East 16, Northeast 26. Bewildered by their last defeats, the still plucky Bears journeyed to Ottawa, Kansas, where they were defeated, 44 to 21.

Although the season revealed only three victories for the Bears, their play on the court commanded attention and respect.

SECOND TEAM FOOTBALL

The second team, under the excellent supervision of coaches Coombe and Brown, also finished high in the final standings. With three victories, one tie, and two defeats, these hard-fighting second team lads upheld the good sportsmanship record of East High School.

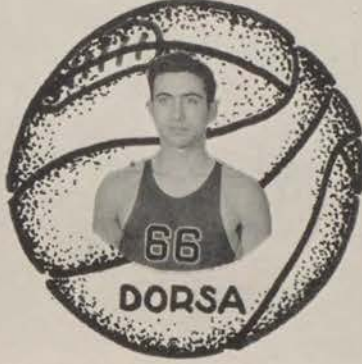

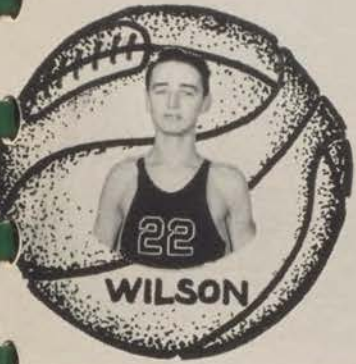

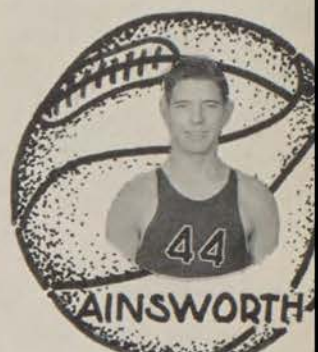

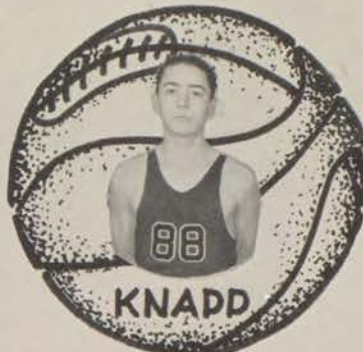

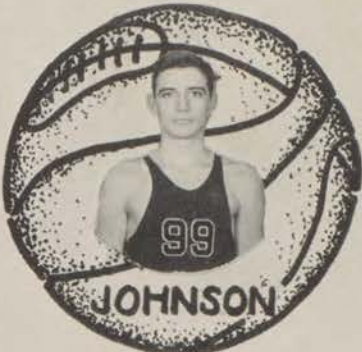

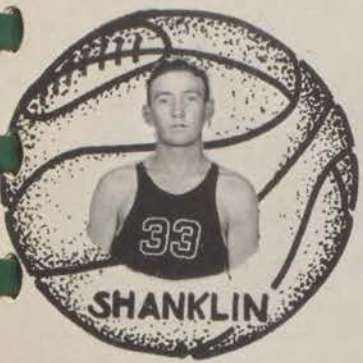

Along with several returning lettermen from the first team and a few of the second team grid stars, East will be well represented in the Inter-Scholastic League next year.

SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL

These faithful Cubs gave us no trophy of championship, but their clean play and good sportsmanship highly excelled any honor which they may have attained. These second team basketeers did, however, make a decided impression upon their followers by their smooth play and excellent team work. Out of ten games, all of which were exciting and extremely interesting, the Cubs were able to win four.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

The intra-mural sports, under the supervision of Mr. J. C. Cohlmeier, offer a very large variety of activities which give each and every gym member an opportunity to display his athletic inclinations. Early in the fall our stadiums are fully occupied with touch football and speedball. Later on in the fall the gymnasium is buzzing with various basketball tournaments. Early in the spring, boxing, wrestling, shuffleboard, hand tennis, and ping-pong take the spotlight. All in all, intra-murals add greatly to the encouragement and development of athletics.

BASKETBALL

This year, as each year before, the annual inter-class basketball tournament was held in the gymnasium. The freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes were represented. In the finals the juniors and the seniors were battling for championship. Excellent court play by H. D. Cunningham and Byron Carter led the junior team to victory. Cunningham's long shots from mid-court in the closing minutes of play decided the game.

In the Freshman basketball tournament the team captained by Ralls won top honors. The sophomore basketball team, which consisted of Milazzo, Thompson, Wade, Murdock, Miller, Hutchins, and Stine won Championship. Stine was captain of this unusually strong team.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

In order to give the freshmen a chance at intra-murals, the freshman classes were divided into four groups, 2A, 2B, 4A, and 4B. These groups took part in after school activities such as hand tennis, shuffleboard, and ping-pong. The champions in each of the sports are as follows:

HAND TENNIS	SHUFFLEBOARD	PING-PONG
2A—Eads-Chapman	2A—Maddux-Eads	2A—Maddux
2B—Stokes-Peak	2B—West-Jett	2B—West
4A—Stark-Meyer	4A—Dirck-Lankford	4A—Stark
4B—Vines-Mulloy	4B—Sharpe-Leweke	4B—Sously

The sophomore activities varied a little from that of the freshman. The sophomore champions represented the entire class. They are as follows:

Ping-Pong.....Guyer	Shuffleboard.....Smart-Huff
Hand Tennis.....Upp-Dennis

Still different yet, the juniors and seniors did not have after school activities, but instead, an elective program during the fifth and sixth hours. The champs of these hours are as follows:

Hour 5	Ping-Pong Doubles.....Meyers-Campbell
	Shuffleboard.....Keith-Johnson
	Ping-Pong Singles.....Verlin
Hour 6	Ping-Pong Doubles.....Shonfelt-Thomas
	Ping-Pong Singles.....Campbell

CO-CAPTAINS

GENE ROBERTS

As co-captain of this year's track team, Gene Roberts proved himself a champion in sportsmanship as well as a champion in ability. Only to know Gene is to understand that a more honest, upright, and clean boy could never be found elsewhere. Looked up to by his classmates and honored by his elders, Gene is the type of boy who will always be worthy of every honor which he may attain.

BOB GODDARD

Bob Goddard, sharing honors with Gene, is the sort of chap admired by all who come in contact with him. Always laughing and joking, Bob displays a character which adds greatly to his personality. True to his makeup, Bob retains a competitive spirit excelled by few. If Bob gives his best in later life, as he has at East, his will be a life of happiness and fulfillment.

TRACK SEASON

This year's track team under the supervision of Coach Roy Brown probably is not the best ever produced by East, but most surely one excelled by no present or past teams in sportsmanship and spirit. Even though not a championship team, a few outstanding performers make up the nucleus of the team. This year's track team is probably a stepping stone for the coming East tracksters. Several outstanding sophomores are learning the ways of the cinders and probably will, within the next two years, produce a winning team.

TRACK SEASON

East 53.4—Lees Summit 43.6

The first dual meet of the season found Lees Summit invading East's track on Monday, April 1. Gene Roberts, East's crack sprinter and low hurdler, led the East team to victory by scoring three firsts and anchoring the two winning relay teams. Also outstanding performances were staged by Bob Goddard and Jim Murphy; Goddard took three seconds and ran on the relay teams, while big Jim Murphy heaved the shot 45 ft. 7 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. to break the old school record of 44 ft. Allen Bleich leaped 5 ft. 3 in. to take top honors in the high jump. Other tracksters who contributed to East's victory were: Hailey, Wrigley, Copple, Garrison, Cunningham, Dennis, Mowery, Beagle, Morris, and Taylor.

East 26—Northeast 62

East dropped its opening league track meet to Northeast who was favored to win the "crown" this year. Winning only two firsts, East fell before the powerful Northeast team 62 to 26. However, the Bears turned in two outstanding performances, one of which was by Murphy, who heaved the shot 43 ft. 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. Also Weatherbee and Morris took first and second to dominate the half mile field. Roberts and Goddard did their part by contributing several points to the score through second places. Other East point winners were: Kelly, Mowery, and Garrison.

East 49—Rosedale 46

One of the most thrilling track meets of the season was between East and Rosedale of Kansas. Exchanging firsts, seconds, and thirds throughout the meet, the final score hinged on the last event, which was won by Roberts in a very close race. By winning the final 220-yd. dash, Roberts saved the day for East. Roberts also won the 100-yd. dash and the low hurdles. Goddard turned in a good time in the 440-yd. dash, while East's three outstanding half milers, Morris, Weatherbee, and Hailey, swept the half mile. Murphy won the shot, and Mowery made the best leap in the broad jump.

East 40—Southwest 51

Although highly favored in their second league contest, Southwest managed to score only 51 points against the determined East squad. Winning five events, the East tracksters managed to pile up 40 points and also at the same time discover a real champion in Louie Morris. In running the half mile in 2:12 Morris, only a sophomore, proved himself the best half-miler in the city. Roberts also turned in the best time thus far this season by running the low hurdles in 24:3. Other first place winners were Goddard in the 440, Murphy in the shot, and Mowery in the pole vault. Again in the half-mile East placed one, two, and three, second and third being won by Weatherbee and Hailey in that order. Other point winners in the meet were Bleich and Garrison.

Kansas Relays

Every year Coach Brown takes a relay team to run in the Kansas Relays at Lawrence, Kansas. Unless a first is to be had, he gives his less experienced runners an opportunity to compete. Knowing the strength of the Northeast squad, Coach Brown allowed two sophomores to run in order to prepare more championship material for next year. Although the East tracksters didn't win first place, they gave the other schools comparatively close competition.

The first event of the year found the East relay team running at the Municipal Auditorium. The East team won second place with a time of 1.5:3, only .04 of a second behind the winning Northeast team.

As the Eastonian must go to print early this year, only four dual track meets are published in this issue.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

ACTIVITIES

The main points stressed this year in the girls' physical education department under the very capable direction of Miss Hazel Roads and Miss Rose Segelbaum are not only the ability to play a game well but also cooperation, loyalty and good sportsmanship which go to make one mentally as well as physically fit for later life.

Only two years of physical education are required, but many girls desire to enroll for it during their third and fourth years. For the girls whose programs are arranged in such a way as to exclude gym work, there are after-school activities every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings. Wednesday is reserved for the freshmen, and Monday and Thursday evenings are for the upper classmen. On Monday a seasonable game such as hockey, soccer, end ball, basketball, or baseball is played. Thursday is individual sports day, and every girl selects one activity, including aerial darts, suction darts, archery, rubber heels, shuffleboard, sidewalk tennis, dart baseball, Chinese checkers, or juggling.

PLAY-DAYS

Play-days are held at the different high schools where girls of the various schools play against one another. The object is not to win with high scores, but to win friends and to create a feeling of good will among the schools. Previously four play-days have been held each year, but because of the shortened term only two were held this year.

The first was a combined basketball and volley ball play-day. The basketball team consisted of: Erylene House, captain; Gaynelle Connely, Ruthellen Everhart, Dorothy Hicklin, Wilma Hudson, Doris Simpson. The substitutes were: Vitulia Fisher, Peggy Maniett, Dorothy Martin, Luella Taylor.

The volley ball team consisted of: Lida Mae Lueders, captain; Vivian Bersuch, Alice Mae Hunt, Etta McBee, Marjorie Richards, Virginia Smith, Wilma Thuston. The substitutes were: Julia Roemer and Catherine Smith.

Because the baseball and individual sports play-day was held after the Eastonian went to press, it was impossible to list those girls who took part.

POINT SYSTEM

A point system has been introduced by Miss Roads and Miss Segelbaum by which the girls may win awards much like the football boys' letters. After school attendance, physical fitness, special awards, individual achievement, and being a member of a play-day team merit points toward the awards.

The awards are:

Small "E"	450 points
Large "E"	1000 points
Large "E" with 3 bars.....	1500 points
"E" Pin	2000 points

The third year award, the large "E" with bars, is just a new addition to the original awards, and therefore three girls will receive two awards this year.

The small "E's" have been awarded to: Vivian Bersuch, Dorothy Hicklin, Etta McBee, Mary Margaret Rehkopf, Catherine Smith, Betty Lou Stewart.

The girls receiving large "E's" are: Lois Myers, Doris Simpson, Virginia Smith.

Four girls are now wearing large "E's" with the gold colored bars. They are: Gaynelle Connely, Ruthellen Everhart, Wilma Hudson, and Lida Mae Lueders.

The highest award, an "E" pin, has been presented to Ruthellen Everhart, Wilma Hudson, and Lida Mae Lueders.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

Above: Sheldon, Floyd, Heady, Nevins, Clarkson, Coulter.
Below: Sergeant Allen, Major Nevins.

The Mission of the R. O. T. C. is to awaken in the student an appreciation of the obligation of citizenship, to prepare him to discharge his duties as a citizen, and to qualify him as a leader whether in peace or in war.

The R. O. T. C. unit is organized by the government mainly to teach leadership, initiative, and self reliance. In no way has it any connection with the army or navy as is the popular belief. Many who know nothing of the organization think that marching with a rifle is all that is taught. That is not true. History, rifle marksmanship, first aid, and military policy are a few subjects offered. Above all things gained by association with the R. O. T. C. is discipline. No other high school subject teaches that more effectively.

MAJOR NEVINS

Major Donald Nevins' knowledge of R. O. T. C. tactics and his ability to command and still keep the friendship of the men under him quickly won him the coveted position of Major.

SERGEANT ALLEN

In Sergeant Harvey H. Allen's first year at East, '38-'39, the unit won third place in the field day competition. Never before had East taken such a high standing. Under his leadership the battalion is rapidly becoming one of the best in the city.

R. O. T. C. HOP

Each year the East unit sponsors a ball. The boys come in uniform the girls formal; the music is usually provided by an orchestra. The dance is exclusive to the R. O. T. C., Band, and special guests.

At every ball a queen and two princesses elected by the battalion are crowned. This year the queen is Loren Alice Heady and the princesses are Martha Sheldon and Martha Clarkson.

OFFICERS

The officers command the unit, teach classes, take responsibility, and often have to make important decisions about the policy and activities of the battalion.

The highest officer award is Cadet Major, a position held by Donald Nevins. Officers second in rank are the Captains, Bob Floyd and Joseph Coulter; First Lieutenant positions are held by Virgil Potts and William Austin; Second Lieutenants are Robert Ramey, William Weaver, Erwin Bybee, Harold Smith and Herbert Bishop.

In inter-city competition the East Rifle team won third place. The members are: Robert Gibbs, Howard Hall, Donald Nevins, Joseph Coulter, Robert Dilley, and Boyd Troop.

The efficiency of the Kansas City school system is due largely to the efficiency of the Board of Education.

The Board has an enormous task—the supervision of Teacher's College, the Junior Colleges, high schools, and elementary schools—but it has discharged its duties in a remarkable manner.

Two new members have replaced Mrs. Frank Dorsy and Mr. Wallace Sutherland this year. The Eastonian staff extends to the former members the appreciation of the East student body for the fine job they have done, and to the new members sincere wishes for a long and successful term.

And to every member of the Board we extend hearty congratulations for their splendid success of the past and present and for the continued success that is sure to come in the future.

Mr. J. L. Laughlin
Principal

Mr. Laughlin has been at East only a short while, but already he has become an integral part of our school life. Calm, frank, straightforward, and fair, he is one whom we all respect and honor.

Mr. H. E. McMillan
Vice-Principal

Mr. McMillan has the supervision of the Literary Societies and is sponsor of the Senior Class. He is also a good sport, a fine fellow and a person we are proud and happy to know.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized and exists today for the purpose of establishing a firmer ground by which the entire student body here at East is able to express its opinions. There is also a bigger opportunity for the student and the faculty to maintain discussions common to both.

This year the Council has started a move to get the Southwest High School's football team back into the league. There was nothing definite settled as to their complete success with this project that took place through the joint meetings of the Student Councils, but they do know that it was partly restored.

Much work was done during the term of the first semester's Council on the safety crossings. Crossings were put out on the boulevard and policemen were out to check the streets and also to check how many crossed.

The other Student Council representatives of Kansas City's high schools attended an Inter-school Council meeting during the second semester of the school year here at East. It was the second Inter-school Council meeting of the year.

Upon entering office for the second semester, Student Council President Bill Earp said: "I cannot offer you more mixers or better student-faculty co-operation; all I can do is offer my best." Work has been done on the beginning of an activity ticket for those at East next year. On behalf of the Council there has also been an addition of drinking fountains in the cafeteria, waste baskets under the fountains in the halls, and a mirror for the boys' gymnasium.

Many successful mixers have been given throughout the year, including two night mixers, one each semester. One was a sweater and skirt dance and the other a leap year mixer. Both were gay affairs with interesting records purchased to be used throughout the remaining part of the year for other dances held in our school. Due to the Student Council's sponsoring such dances, many have developed a keener appreciation for dancing as well as acquiring new acquaintances.

In appreciation, many thanks are given to the Council and their two sponsors, Miss Louise Hatch and Miss Nora Boone. Their work is of inestimable value.

Proctors

The proctors stationed in the hallways on every floor are a familiar sight at East. The proctor system was established three years ago by the Student Council in order to prevent locker theft and loitering in the halls during class hours, and to direct stairway traffic. The first year the system was in effect passes signed by teachers were required for those who left classes, but it was found that such passes caused too much inconvenience.

This year the proctors under the direction of Mr. McMillan and the "generalissimo," Bill Earp, have done a fine job of watching lockers, keeping halls clean, and preventing destruction of school property. When a locker was left open, the proctors took all the books in it to Mr. Shelley's office. Proctors were chosen from dependable seniors who had free periods. Those who acted as proctor captains this year were: First hour, Gene Roberts and Claudia Bumgarner; second hour, Audrey Stoddard and George Baker; third hour, Eugene Brown and Nellie Mae Hale; fourth hour, Don Nevins and Betty Lou Mohr; lunch period, Bob Burns; fifth hour, Bob Bruski; sixth hour, Rose Boyd.

East High School's Parent-Teachers Association has always been very active, but the programs this year have been especially interesting and the meetings unusually well attended. The programs were planned with the purpose of aiding East parents to understand better the problems of our youth.

The P.-T. A. has sewed for the Mutual Help Center and assisted in giving the turberculin tests. It sponsored the senior dance and the football banquet.

The Founders Day program was an outstanding one given by the students of the drama and music departments.

The organization has made gifts to Mary Harman Weeks Scholarship, Thomas A. Edison School, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Reserves, Y. M. C. A., Mutual Help, and the school emergency fund.

*We've come to the end of this year's book,
