THE 1957

EAS

TONNIAN

In ancient days at the Olympic games, a runner was sent to the top of Mount Olympus, the home of the gods, to receive from them sacred fire representing success. As an impressive and symbolic ritual, a torch was passed down the mountainside from hand to hand until it reached the site of the games. Upon its arrival, the contest began.

In present times, here at East High, the teachers, or torchkindlers, bring the light of education to the students. We, the students, torchbearers, must carefully guard and kindle the fire to keep it burning bright. As we add to that first spark, so it grows until we are engulfed with the light.

This torch of knowledge and success which has been passed from class to class down through the years, will burn eternally, bearing its heritage. So we, the Senior Class of 1957, throw to you this burning emblem. Be yours to hold it high.

DEDICATION

To Mr. Dickson . . .

A man of wisdom, learning, and humbleness.
Dedicated to the good of all
Through education.
A sense of fair play
Demonstrated in the encouraging of sports.
A family man with high standards and ideals.
A faith in God and country
Furthered through active church membership.
A worthy man just starting
On an administrative career
As Vice Principal.
A friend to all
Created in geniality and firm discipline.
A small man in stature
With an infectious smile,
But commanding the respect
Of students and faculty alike
In appreciation

. . . We dedicate this 1957 Eastonian.

Finding a welcomed lull in cafeteria duties, Mr. Dickson jokes with the proctors.

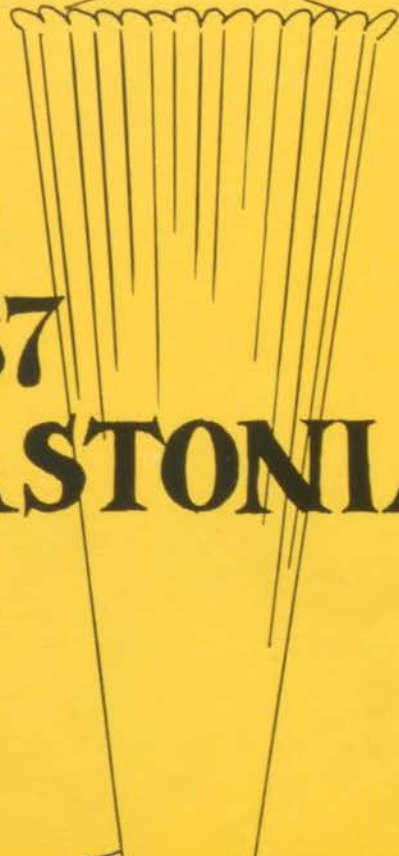

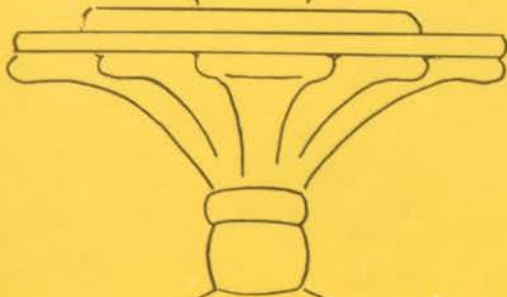

Caught by surprise during eighth grade assembly.

TORCH

KINDLERS

*Those who hold within their grasp
Knowledge and truth—reason and fact,
Give us a light to guide our way,
Kindle our torch, whose beams and spray
Will light the path of the future years
And conquer with knowledge its futile fears.*

ADMINISTRATION

Principal

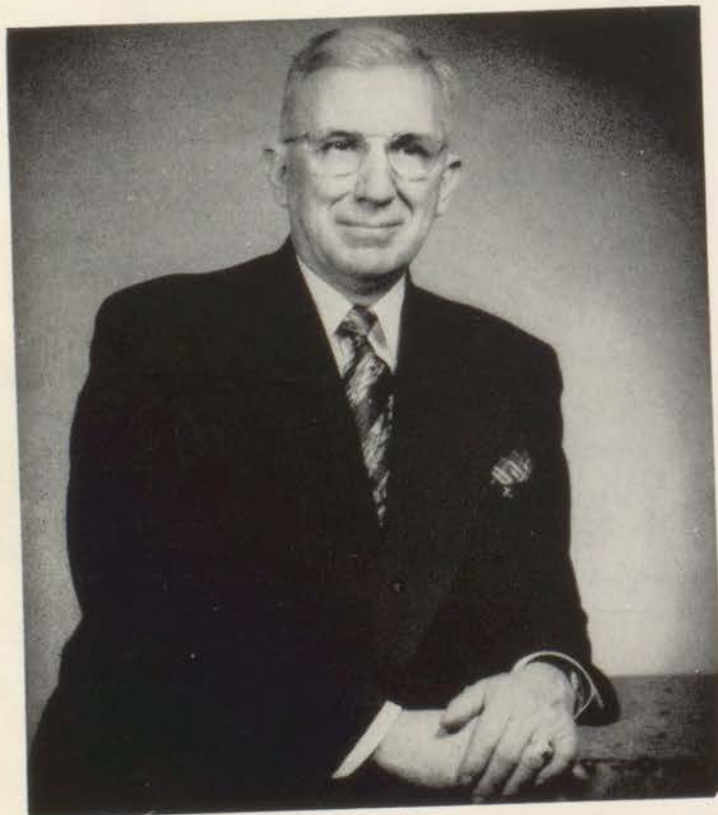

For twelve years East has been very fortunate in having Mr. C. O. Williams as principal. Most of his time is spent in the office where he meets and confers with many students. Students are impressed by his friendly, warm attitude and willingness to help. Mr. Williams often goes completely out of his way to assist students with their numerous difficulties, and the pupils greatly appreciate his thoughtfulness.

Mr. Williams' helpfulness is not restricted to the students; he also acts as an advisor to the teachers who seek his guidance and counsel concerning their many problems which arise.

He also works in cooperation with the office staff and nurse.

Principal awards diploma to retiring custodian.

You can often find Mr. Williams walking around the halls with the jaunty air that comes from being an executive and glancing in classroom doors to be sure classes are running smoothly. He has a friendly greeting for nearly every student whom he meets in the hall and a little advice, too.

Besides his many responsibilities at school, Mr. Williams still finds time to teach a Sunday School Class each Sunday.

At home, Mr. Williams is a real handyman, helping his wife and daughter, Elizabeth.

Miss Anna C. Stewart, recognized by her neat, efficient appearance, acts as counselor and advisor to the students of East High School. She helps them to plan their high school courses, encourages them to attend college, and aids them in attaining scholarships. In her office she has a shelf that is loaded with bulletins, catalogues, and other information about the many colleges in the United States. At a student's request she will rummage through them to find just the right college to suit the student's wants and needs.

Under the supervision of Miss Stewart, this year's Business Education Day and Career Day were made a success. She works in close connection with the seniors and provides excellent guidance for them in choosing and planning their vocations.

Vice-Principal, Counselor

Mr. L. Clayton Dickson, newly appointed vice-principal, found that his previous experience in helping with graduation, literary contests, proctors, and the inter-society council has been of great help to him in his new duties. The Junior-Senior Prom alone gave him a new horizon to conquer as he has never had anything to do with it previous to this year.

General Taylor presenting Mr. Nowlin his gold key award.

His First Ninety Years Are Eventful

Ninety-three-year-old Clifford H. Nowlin was the recipient this year of the Gold Key Award from a former student of forty years ago, General Maxwell D. Taylor, present Chief of Staff of the United States Army.

Mr. Nowlin is known as an entertainer, a story teller, and a writer. A volume of his verse entitled "Apples of Gold" was published in 1949. His autobiography, "My First Ninety Years," is now in its second printing.

Mr. Nowlin taught school for more than a half century, beginning in a one-room building with a pot-bellied stove and twenty-five pupils and ending up in a principal's office with 1,500 pupils under his wing. He organized East High School in 1926 when her doors were first opened. He was principal for twelve years and retired at the age of seventy-four in 1938.

Surrounded by the East cheerleaders and Mike Geren.

Upon arrival at the airport he is swamped by his friends.

Friendly Office Staff Aids Students

*Mrs. Helen Watson
Registrar*

*Mrs. Mina Eubank
Attendance Clerk*

*Mrs. Margaret Potts
General Secretary*

"Hello, may I help you," or "How are you this morning," are a couple of the friendly greetings coming daily from our dependable office workers. Mrs. Eubank is the attendance clerk, Mrs. Potts the general secretary, and Mrs. Watson the registrar. They all help to smooth out the rough spots of high school and of teen-age years.

The office staff works hand in hand with the students and faculty throughout the year. Some of their duties are taking care of records, absences, tardies, and loaning lunch money when students forget or lose theirs. Along with the duties of typing bulletins, putting mail in the teachers' boxes, and ringing the bells hourly, they manage to maintain their cheerfulness and interest in the students and activities of the school. Their congeniality and helpfulness are valuable assets which help to maintain the high standards of East.

The office is kept on a smooth, steady course by Mrs. Mina Eubank, attendance clerk, Mrs. Helen Watson, registrar, Mrs. Margaret Potts, general secretary, Barbara Gensler, office proctor.

Library Boasts 20,000 Books

*Miss Sarah Bower

*Miss Page Calvert

Librarian*

*Miss Lorraine Crouse
Children's Librarian*

Keeping 20,000 books in order, plus a file of clippings and thousands of pamphlets is the task of Miss Sara Bower, head librarian. Her assistants are Mrs. Page Calvert and Mrs. Carol Miller. The two assisting pages are Bill Ferguson and Charles Chaffee.

The children's department is headed by Miss Lorraine Crouse. Assisting her are Miss Elizabeth Breting and Miss Sue Markle. Pages for the children's room are Ronnie Bowman and Jimmy Hoel.

One of the outstanding features of the East Library is the trophy case in which many unusual collections have been displayed through the years.

Along with the shipment of new books the library receives twice a week, the library subscribes to five newspapers and 52 magazines.

The Children's Department provides entertainment for high school students as well as the younger boys and girls.

Mrs. Bowman, cashier, eagerly awaits students in the lunch line.

Cafeteria Provides Grow-Power

Serving lunches, straightening tables, and preparing the mountainous quantities of food consumed by East students keep the cafeteria staff busy every minute of a school day.

Besides serving the various salads, plate lunches, drinks, and desserts, the staff is always ready to smile and say hello.

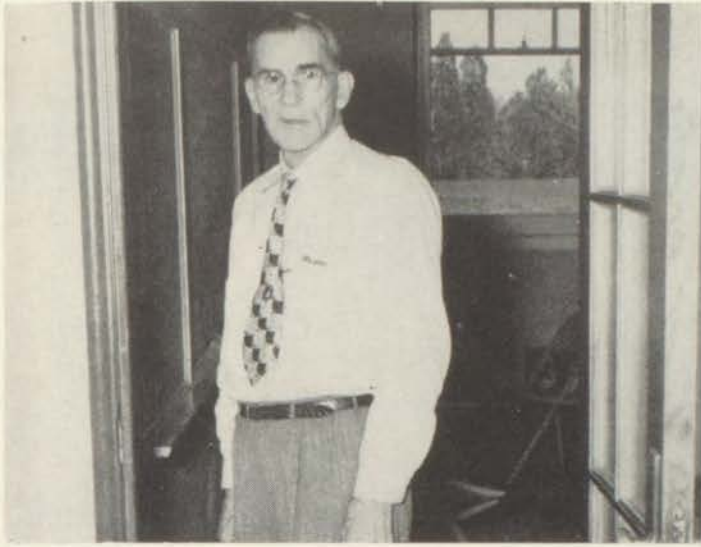

Under the able direction of Mrs. Chase, the cafeteria is run smoothly and on schedule during five lunch periods daily. As a special treat, turkey dinners are served twice a year, on Christmas and Thanksgiving.

The staff plays an important part in keeping East an efficiently run school.

Long after the corridors are quiet and still, the custodians begin their work. Sweeping the halls, emptying the paper baskets, cleaning the rooms, collecting the odds and ends that somehow find their way under the desks, and leaving the school in a neat, orderly fashion, are only a few of the custodians' duties.

Mr. Bill Dickson

Mr. Jess DeMoss, head custodian, is kept busy with his varying duties. Many of the things that come into his office include gym shoes, comic books, sweaters, purses, books, and, of course, paper wads.

Mr. Joseph L. Butler, chief engineer in the boiler room, retired this year after years of service as a custodian.

The P.-T.A., Parent and Teacher Association, is considered being most effective in bringing the home and school closer together. A few objects of this organization are to promote the welfare of the children and youth in home, school, church, and community, to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts that will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

The East High P.-T.A., under the leadership of Mrs. Lewis Frevele, started the 1956-57 school year with a picnic in Blue Valley Park. The picnic was great fun for everyone and was quite different from the usual business meetings where all the business is taken care of, then a program presented. The programs consist of films, lectures, or panel discussions given by students.

With ease and efficiency Mrs. Frevele conducts the meeting.

One of the biggest events this year was the Missouri State Convention being held in Kansas City. The East High P.-T.A. members did much toward making the convention a success and were very proud to have one of their members, Mrs. W. Coonfield, the president of the Kansas City district, call the convention to order. Miss Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Williams attended the Kansas City dinner as guests of the East P.-T.A. The East High members were identified by carrying small panda bears.

The Founders Day program is planned to pay tribute to the founders of P.-T.A. and honor the past presidents. This year the P.-T.A. honored Miss Mabel Mary Cobb with a state life membership. They also presented the officers of the Future Teachers of America Club with a membership to the East High unit.

The P.-T.A. backs the activities of the school by participating in the homecoming parade and selling refreshments at the game and dance, they chaperon the teen-town at the Minute Circle Friendly House, sponsor Fairyland Park day, help weigh and measure students each year, help buy a snowplow, and they helped in the giving of polio shots.

Discussion, Decision

The five societies' opinions met on the Council battlefield every Wednesday afternoon and under the leadership of L. Clayton Dickson a peaceful settlement resulted.

First Semester Council adopted the two-sponsor plan for Clubs. Each society may have a co-sponsor or an assistant sponsor on an optional basis.

The Council felt that the rules for extemporaneous speaking needed revising. Under the new plan each contestant was given six general topics to study. Fifty-five minutes before the contest, each representative drew three specific topics from which he chose his speech.

Second Semester Council changed the way of awarding medals at the contest, making it clearer who won and giving more recognition to the winner.

Heyday for Hearts

For the first time, the Eastonian staff held a Valentine mixer with a King and Queen of Hearts. Literary clubs sponsored couples and promoted voting. A large doll house with red chimney, lace curtains, and even a mail box was used for voting. Ballots, small hearts which cost a penny, were put in the special window provided for each couple. The couples were Betty Mikesell and Larry Addams, Barbara Hillegas and Harold Eagan, Cynthia Bishop and Mike Geren, Gloria Gribble and Melvin Thompson, and Cynthia Bishop and Walter Hicklin. During intermission Barbara Hillegas and Harold Eagan, sponsored by Leundis, were crowned King and Queen of Hearts.

To liven up the evening, cupids and cupies were present to entice students to dance. They were Joe Swaffar, Mike Geren, Joe Roesch, Jeanne Cunningham, Joanne Justice, and Nancy Peterson.

Joe Swaffar

Students See

With leadership, ability, and determination to succeed, Joe Swaffar, assisted by Jean Cunningham, first vice-president, Nancy Peterson, second vice-president, and Joyce Turrentine, junior continuity member, led the Student Council.

The Student Council held a mixer at which the results of a mock election were given and small awards presented. An assembly was presented to explain the qualifications and ideals of the National Honor Society and the John N. Broadlick award. The council promoted good will by sending sympathy and get-well cards to the faculty and students. Also, a twelve-foot Christmas tree with colorful ornaments was placed in the front hall and later was given to Mercy Hospital.

Ideas Through

Continuing the activity of the first semester Student Council, Jim Davis, competent president, assisted by vice-presidents Joe Roesch and Melvin Thompson, successfully carried out the projects of the second semester Student Council. Most of their work was a continuance of the activities started by their predecessors. They successfully sponsored an eighth grade mixer and also made arrangements for many of East's assemblies.

The Council worked in association with the Safety Committee in promoting safety around the halls and on East's campus. The representative body was kept at the grindstone by their sponsor, Mr. Carl V. West.

All 52 home rooms in the school choose representatives which attend bi-weekly meetings and then report on the Council's actions.

Many Activities Keep Red Cross Busy

Under the leadership of Miss Ann K. McGloin, sponsor, and Joanne Justice, president, the Junior Red Cross had a very successful year in their many activities.

The three main activities in which they participate are the United Campaign Drive, which includes the Junior Red Cross, the membership drive, and the filling of the Friendship Chest.

The purpose of the United Campaign Drive is to give money to help the needy. The filling of the chest is to promote friendship with other countries.

The membership drive is to give everyone a chance to be a member of the Junior Red Cross, although everyone does not attend the meetings.

This year a group of students went to the Whiteman Air Force Base to entertain the boys in uniform. Most of the acts were taken from the Outburst.

A. A. U. W., F. T. A. Promote Education

The American Association of University Women, recently renamed Scholasticae Centum, is an honorary group organized to develop more interest in college. The organization is composed of 100 high school girls, 10 of whom are chosen from East. These girls are picked on the basis of their scholastic ability.

Some of the activities in which the A.A.U.W. participate are a brunch at Christmas and a tea in the spring. At these gatherings, older girls tell informally of their own particular college experiences.

The Future Teachers of America is one of the smallest, but one of the most active, clubs at East High. The purpose of the club is to help students interested in the teaching profession to understand and to learn more about the facts concerning the life of a teacher.

Its colors, which are black, red and white, stand for dignity, vibrancy, and humility.

This year the club participated in the city-wide F. T. A. meetings as well as their own regular meetings.

To grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God have been the purposes of the Y-Teens since 1926.

The Senior Y-Teens under the direction of Miss Thornton and the eighth grade Y-Teens directed by Miss Harrison work closely with the Y.W.C.A. on such matters as the Hanging of the Greens and the leadership conferences. In helping to create fellowship the Y-Teens sponsored a Get-Acquainted Mixer and in cooperation with the Hi-Y sponsored the Easter services and a discussion panel on teenagers.

Hi-Y Sponsors Lively Socials

With competent leadership supplied by first semester president, Jerry Junkins, and second semester president, Byron Lewis, the Senior Hi-Y found a notable place in the social life of East High. Sponsorship of the group was in the hands of two new Eastside personalities, Mr. Chuck Wise, secretary of the East Y.M.C.A., and Mr. Richard H. Maeder, Drivers-Ed teacher.

The organization, with its 20 members, had as its biggest undertaking the backing of the Hi-Y Sock Hop, after having numerous Learn-to-Dance sessions.

"Time Again," the theme of the 1956 Annual East Outburst, was presented to the East Community on November 16 and 17 in the East High Auditorium. The show was directed by Mr. Donovan M. Mabbott who was aided by Miss Etta Marie Wilson, Mr. Marion Sell, and Mrs. Irene LaFayette. Many other faculty members assisted in the production with publicity and cooperation.

One of the things which added to the success of the show was the new revolving stages, built by Mr. Mabbott and several of the students. Pat Nicodemus, playing the part of a small mouse, crept in between acts to set the large clock suspended over the middle of the stage. The show was divided into five acts: "Rise and Shine," "Whistle While You Work," "Reading, Writing and Rhythm," "Time On My Hands," and "There's No Business Like Show Business."

A pretty girl is like a melody.

"Time Again"

Outburst offers a variety of talent . . . singing, dancing, and acrobatics.

This trio boasted, "Maybe."

Dancing done Cuban style.

The senior line dance, "Rock Around the Clock," set the theme of the show. "Daybreak" was followed by "Whistle While You Work," sung by the 8th grade chorus. In "Reading, Writing, and Rhythm," Raymond Howard was Prof. Mark O. Polo, a geography teacher. He and his students visited India with Carol Martin in a unique dance routine to "Song of India"; Hawaii, with Joyce Hathorn and Kay Carter doing a hula "To You Sweetheart, Aloha"; Cuba, with the sophomore line dance, "23° N. and 82° W"; and Canada, with Pat Knight skating under black lights to "Canadian Sunset."

Other numbers which made the show a success were: "The Waltz of the Flowers," under black lights, and "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody."

Marching Music, Please

The East High School Band, under the capable direction of Mr. Marion Walter Sell, added much color to the events of this year.

The band members were present at all football games, playing spirited marches and performing at half-time in their green and black uniforms. The playing of "To East High School" after each touchdown, and the drum rolls for the kick-offs added to the excitement of the games.

Some of the events in which the band participated are the American Royal Parade, Homecoming Parade, and the All-City Band Festival. They were also chosen to play for the Kiwanis Club Pancake Supper.

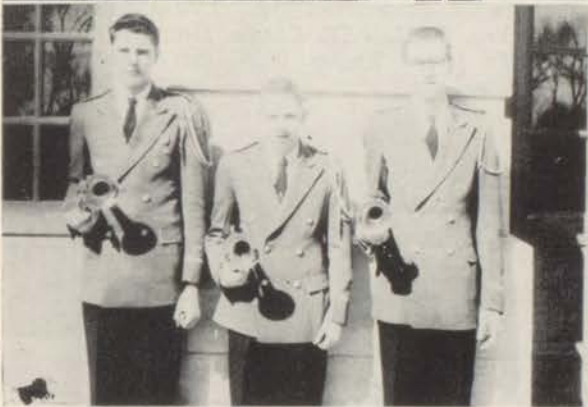

These musicians worked hard to present the Music in Review program put on each spring by the instrumental music department.

Hard work and perseverance have resulted in the band's being an essential part of East's livelihood. We salute Mr. Sell and the band!

Orchestra Lends Quality to Programs

East's Orchestra is made up of twenty-seven people. On special occasions, such as the Outburst and Music in Review, others are added to lend more volume and better quality. This year, for the first time in many years, all of the string instruments were represented.

The Orchestra gives many performances throughout the year. This year, as in previous years, they participated in the All-City Orchestra Festival, played in the 1957 Outburst and Music in Review, and played for the National Honor Society Assembly. Their last performance of the year was playing for the Graduation of the Class of '57.

Also, various individuals participated in the State Music Festival as soloists and in ensembles. All of these things made this year's Orchestra one of the best ever.

A musical trio is in the making as Barbara Tague, cello, Violetta Boneff, violin, and Jeanne Kueker, piano, practice.

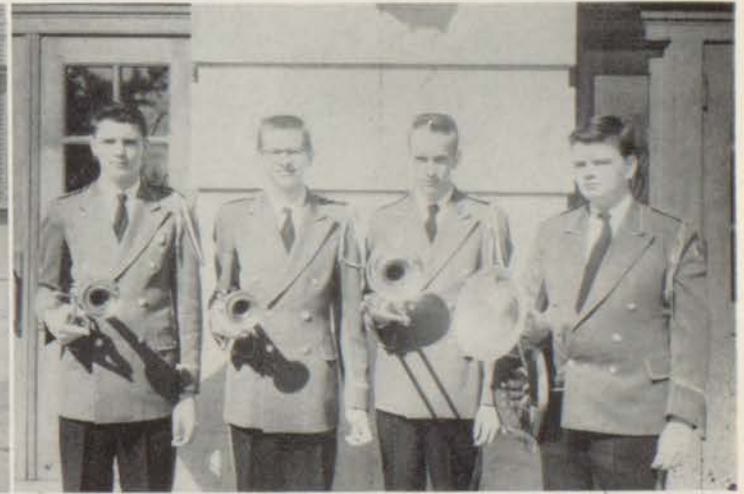

Each year at Missouri University there is a contest held for students adept in vocal and instrumental music ability. All contestants are judged on their music techniques and how well they perform. The contestants, some thousand or more, do their best before the judges. East had several vocal solos and ensembles. The instrumental department also had several entries.

Besides performing, the students had the town of Columbia and the campus of the school to tour. Truly a worthwhile experience was had by East High's students.

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Irene LaFayette, worked hard and proved their ability this year. Consisting of sixty members, the choir performed at churches and school assemblies. Also on the program of performances were a Christmas assembly, and a Carol Sing in which all of the students sang old Christmas favorites.

The vocal department presented their Second Annual Music Festival this year. Their numbers included those of a religious, classical, and semi-classical nature.

A novelty tune introduced this year was "Boogie Benny." It featured the choir assisted by Kenny McCleod on the drums, and the Fisher brothers on saxophones.

A great deal of effort was put forth by the choir this year. Despite being a young choir, "Good music was their most important product." As a fitting climax to the year's work, the choir sang in the All-City Music Festival.

Taking part in the Outburst, the Christmas program, and the Easter program, the advanced girls' glee club has made a good showing of musical ability this past year. It is made up of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Not only showing ability with numerous melodies, the girls were very neatly dressed in new gray jumpers and black sweaters. They also sang in the East High Music Festival and the All-City Music Festival. Public appearances were fun, but hours and hours of practice made for a lot of tired girls.

A new addition was added to the music department this last fall. The Boys' Glee Club, which is composed of 40 musically inclined males, sang in the Outburst, the Christmas program, the Easter program, and the East High Annual Music Festival.

Leading the group as presidents were: First semester, Paul Summers; second semester, John Finrock. The boys faithfully attended practices two mornings a week starting at 7:45 sharp. The net reward was a group of well-balanced voices.

Variety of Music Played in Festival

The East High School vocal music department presented its second annual Music Festival Friday, March 15.

On the program were members of the Choir, Glee Clubs, and choruses with a total of about 500 students participating.

The Mixed Chorus presented "Hi, Ho, Nobody Home" and the Boys' Glee Club swung out with "Git Along Little Doggies."

The Choir sang several selections which ranged from religious and semi-classical to popular. Well-received was "Bennie's Boogie," featuring the Choir, assisted by the Fisher brothers playing their saxophones and Kenny McLeod on the drums, with Pat Knight and Doyle Thomas dancing the Boogie.

The Chordettes, Chordmen, and soloists rounded out the program.

The number one feeder group for A Cappella Choir is this mixed chorus of advanced freshmen. Some members of this group are able to tackle the responsibilities of the choir in their sophomore year while others enter the choir in their junior year after they have taken advanced mixed chorus. This special group is made up of members of last year's sub-freshman chorus who continue in music and make satisfactory advancement.

Freshmen Sing Their Way to the Top

Our freshmen display their talent.

They Have Taken Their First Step Up

The subfreshman Chorus consists of the people who show, either through training or natural ability, an unusual aptitude in music during the one semester they take music. Members of this group are slated to become members of the Freshman Chorus and the Freshman Girls' Chorus. These groups are the feeder groups to the Choir and Advanced Girls' Chorus. Other members of the subfreshman classes are placed in a Freshman Mixed Chorus where they receive further training which allows them to look forward to singing in the concert groups at a later time in their school life.

Drumm Farm Days

Mr. Berkemeier presents a letter sweater to Gene Cope.

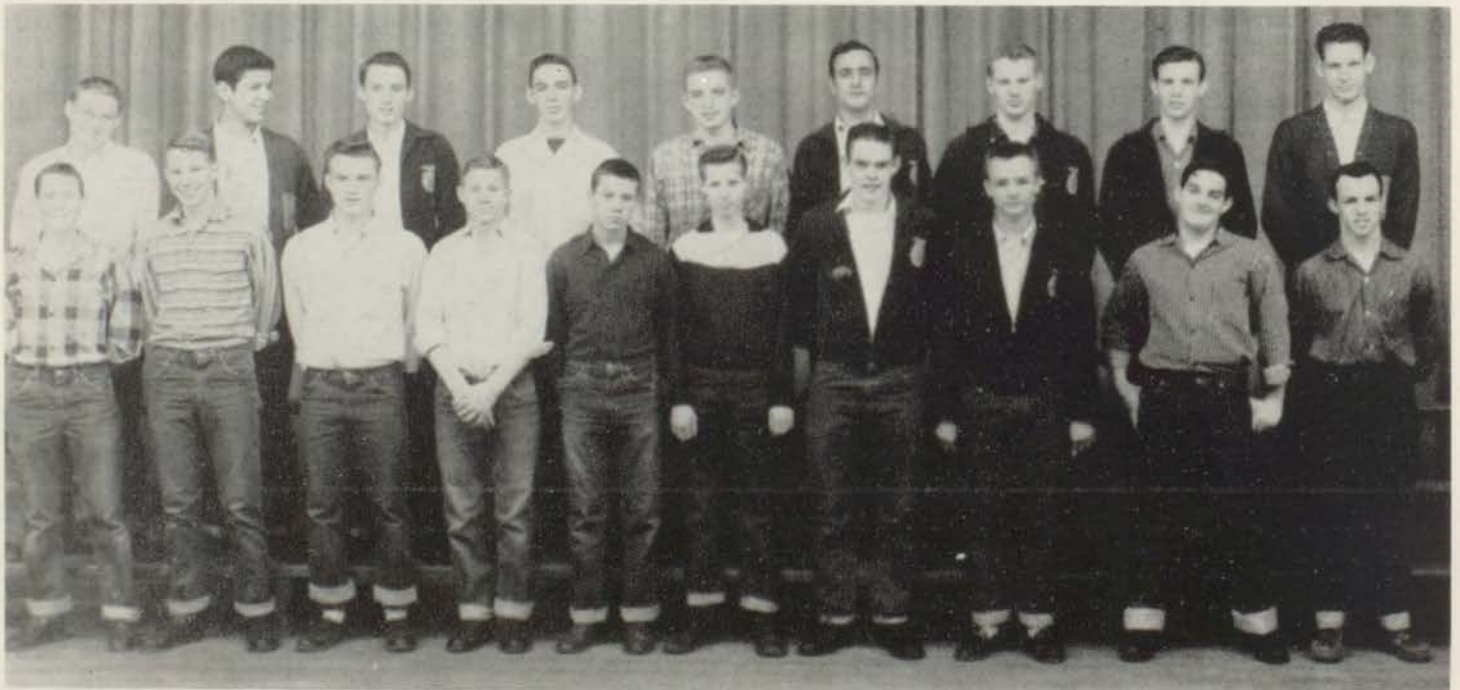

Chow time follows chore time.

Founded in 1937, the Future Farmers of America club is made up of boys interested in farming and agriculture. Activities include public speaking, parliamentary law, radio skit work, poultry judging, and dairy judging, to mention just a few.

Drumm Farm dominates East's chapter. The officers this year were: President, Fred Scott; vice-president, Ted Ballas; secretary, Gene Meyer; treasurer, Gary Kauffman; reporter, Willard Welsh, and sergeant-at-arms, Jerry Smith.

The purpose of this organization is to instruct boys in methods of farming and other practical arts. Boys are instructed in agricultural methods, but the club also proposes to train the membership so it may be successful in any vocation.

The local chapter is in the Warrensburg district and competes with 35 other chapters therein. State contests are held in Columbia.

are Busy Days

Located several miles east of Independence is the Drumm farm. This institution was founded in 1942 by Major Andrew Drumm.

This past year Mr. H. R. Nelson retired as superintendent and Mr. George Berkemeier was promoted to this position.

The farm houses 36 hardy lads who travel to East every day in their own bus driven by Ron Bartley, a senior.

Drumm farm boys lead a rugged life: rising at 6:00 in the morning, doing chores, coming to East for three hours, then returning to the farm for agriculture classes, chores, study periods, and, of course, recreation and the noonday and evening meals.

Chores and other work about the farm are divided among the boys. Usually, the seniors and juniors do the milking. All have a chance for "K-P" duty as the boys prepare their own meals.

The boys are active in church work, 4-H, sports, F.F.A., and other constructive activities. Some of East's better football players have been from Drumm Farm.

The boys proudly display their prize bulls.

Shop, too, is one of the many activities at Drumm Farm.

The Future Homemakers of America provided a source of interest for girls whose goal is to live better today, in order that they and their families may live better tomorrow.

Working hard all year, the girls tried to further their knowledge of homemaking, and to develop pleasing personalities.

They placed third in the inter-school table setting contest this year, and showed an effective and informative display in the front hall during National Homemaking Week.

The club flower is the red rose, and their symbol depicts the future homes of America in the hands of youth.

Pinatas and Tacos Add Spanish Air

The Spanish Club has two important purposes. First, it gives the students a chance to practice using Spanish in songs, games, and conversation. It gives the students a better understanding of Spanish-speaking people.

The Spanish Club participates in two annual affairs. The first semester is concluded with the annual Christmas fiesta. The big event at the fiesta is the pinata. The pinata is a decorated bag hung at the end of a long pole and is broken open by a blindfolded student. After the bag is broken, the gifts fall on the floor and everyone scrambles for his share.

To make an exciting year complete, each spring there is an annual Mexican Supper, with typical Mexican foods, such as tacos, enchilladas, tostadeos, tamales, beans, hot sauce, and a dessert.

The Latin Club, which was formed to create an interest in the Latin language, is under the able direction of Miss Virginia McClure. Club meetings are held once a month during the class period, and the members look forward to the varied programs which are offered.

Christmas and Valentine Day were celebrated by passing out cards among the students. These contained original verses written in Latin which the receiver then had to translate. The club designed and constructed a float for the Homecoming parade. But the biggest event of the year was the Latin Club Convention which the group helped plan and which was held April 13 at Rockhurst College.

Brush and Palette Set Enjoy Busy Year

September 29, 1926, East's first departmental club, the Art Club, was formed.

Under the direction of Miss Agnes K. Crawford, sponsor, and Mr. Frederick Gott, co-sponsor, it has provided opportunities and advantages to develop art appreciation for many members.

The club colors are blue and orange, and the motto is "Art Is Everywhere."

With first and second semester presidents Joyce Hathhorn and Margie Semstead in charge, club members have enjoyed interesting meetings and fun-filled parties. Among the many activities of the club have been trips to the Hallmark Card plant, the Nelson Art Gallery, and the Kansas City museum.

One of the high points of the year is the annual Art Club picnic.

Each year new members taking a commercial course are elected to membership in the Future Business Leaders of America.

The club, which meets on alternate Tuesdays, sponsors some project every year. In the past they have dealt with good grooming, correct posture, "Don't Be a Litterbug," and the current project, better spelling. It also sponsors a business reception to which outstanding English students are invited.

The purpose of this organization is to promote a deeper interest and enthusiasm in commercial subjects and careers. Speakers and films are usually planned for entertainment.

Engineers Enjoy Educational Year

East's Engineers' Club, organized in 1943 to foster a greater interest in engineering, enjoyed very interesting meetings this past year. Several films were viewed by the club members to strengthen their knowledge of the engineering field. The well-chosen emblem of the club is a gear wheel in colors of green and white.

Meetings were held twice a month, and membership is open to boys enrolled in industrial art, mathematics, or science.

The club is under the sponsorship of Mr. Ralph Tiefel and Mr. C. B. McClure.

Speakers Polish Their Techniques

The Speakers' Bureau, organized in 1952, is very prominent among the departmental clubs at East.

The club holds this as its purpose: to give its members knowledge of techniques and practice in speaking before groups, and to serve the school and the community by furnishing speakers for special occasions, civic betterment enterprises, or just entertainment. Under the capable sponsorship of Miss Eva Van Natta, the club has worked diligently to fulfill these purposes.

Very active, the Speakers' Bureau has put on two assemblies this year, one concerning the Earnings Tax, and one explaining the John N. Broadlick Citizenship award. At election time a debate was held on the merits and qualifications of Eisenhower and Stevenson.

Masqueraders Present Fun-Filled Year

A little eye shadow, a touch of rouge high on the cheek bone, and suddenly you're in character for the play. Miss Etta Marie Wilson, head of East's drama department, teaches her class make-up principles and other techniques that make East plays outstanding high school productions.

Early morning rehearsals, after school polishing, and a lot of time go into the preparation of the two annual plays. Staging, costumes, and properties also take a great deal of planning and work.

Besides the mid-winter and spring plays, the masqueraders also participated in the Outburst and the Echo promotion assembly.

Classroom work includes pantomimes, memorizing, short plays, and parlor games used for "emotion memory."

Savages Seek Sum in Curious Setting

"Walking around the edge of the carpet wears it out evenly!"

"She bit me!"

"And if I laugh at any mortal thing—'Tis that I may not weep," was the theme for the "Curious Savage" which was presented by the Masqueraders Friday evening at 8 p.m., on January 18. It was commended as one of the best plays ever produced here at East, certainly the funniest.

The setting is the living room of a private institution. Mrs. Savage is placed here by her children who later are involved in a scramble to obtain her ten million dollars. The retrieving of this money by the children made for an interesting episode. The inmates added further complications.

Mary Lou Rannabargar played the lead part as Mrs. Savage. The "Savage" step-children, Melvin Thompson, Jean Cunningham, and Jim Turner ended up seemingly more crazy than the people in the institution. Beulah Reinmiller received extra applause for her wonderful portrayal of Mrs. Paddy.

"A new way to lose weight! Bend over and pick the cards up, one at a time."

"We were fostered by a werewolf, every Savage son of us!"

Fantasy Offers a Second Chance

"What if we could live our lives over again?" It was on this idea that J. M. Barrie, the author of "Dear Brutus," this year's spring play, based his fantasy.

It was a three-act fantasy-comedy with two scenes. The action took place in England about the turn of the century.

The characters were an odd assortment of guests, all visiting at a country manor in a remote part of England.

Each year at midsummer eve, a mysterious wood could be found somewhere in the surrounding countryside. Each of the guests was given a chance to relive his life, and how they all did this made up the basis of the play.

A good cast and a lot of hard work by all the students in the Drama class and the director, Miss Etta Marie Wilson, both on stage and off, helped to make the play the huge success it was.

The East Echo

Mrs. Papas looks on while Jim Autry explains the dummy.

Pasting up is almost as much fun as paper dolls.

One of the most unusual and hard-working classes in East is the newswriting class which produces The East Echo. Under the efficient auspices of Mrs. Gladys H. Papas, the staff produces East's bi-weekly paper plus class sessions concerned with style rules, English grammar in preparation for the junior English test, page make-up, advertising, photography, writing essays and short stories, and a variety of other things related to the production of a first rate newspaper.

The news class is a special group. Girls must have an "S" average in English before they are even considered for the staff. The boys are required to have an "M" average.

Highlighting the year is the production of the paper with no help or censorship from Mrs. Papas. This year's staff is noted for its ability to get the paper out without too many "midnight sessions."

Not everyone can write a news or feature story. It takes skill. This skill is learned and an excellent newspaper is representative of it. The Echo is known throughout the city and the United States as being an outstanding example of high school journalism.

Cuts, Captions, and Copy

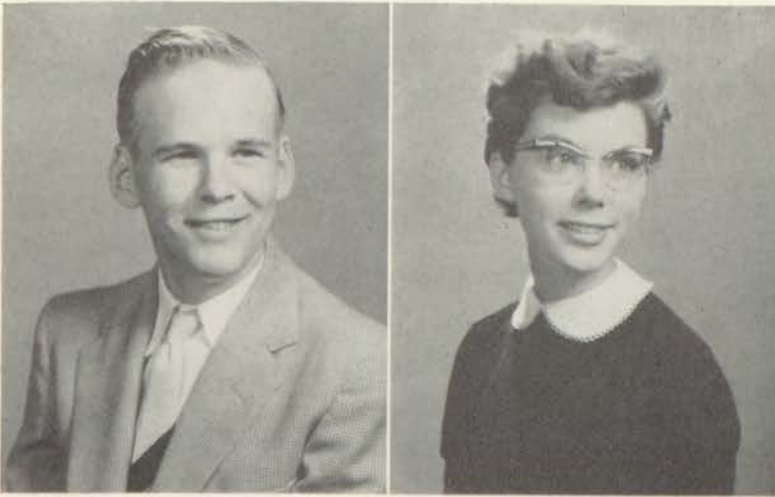

Jo Ann Hedges, Jim Turner

Jo Ann Hedges and Jim Turner were chosen co-editors-in-chief because of their capable leadership. Jo Ann saw that copy was correct and in the right order for the printer. Jim supervised the paste-up and cutting of pictures. Together they demonstrated their leadership in innumerable ways toward trying to meet deadlines and giving the senior class the outstanding Eastonian they expected.

Joanne Jackson and Marvin Rannabargar, named assistant editors, were trouble shooters, who straightened out difficulties and bottlenecks in the production line. Both worked after school, at night and week-end sessions, and whenever their direction and assistance was needed.

Associate Editors Pull Together

Under the competent leadership of Mr. William K. Prewitt, this year's Eastonian staff worked diligently on the 1957 yearbook.

Starting as juniors, they learned the mechanism of creating a bigger and better book.

With this object in mind, they began work in September, but could not do much until the year progressed farther.

In the meantime, they tackled the responsibility of sponsoring the Homecoming with a special program in the auditorium, followed by a dance in the boys' gym.

Due to the cancellation of the intersociety ball, the staff sponsored a Valentine Mixer with a king and queen of hearts and all the trimmings. Cupids and cupies were on hand to encourage dancing and see that everyone had a good time.

In a completely filled bus, the Eastonian and Echo staffs combined, drove to Lawrence, Kansas, to attend the annual publications dinner at K. U. Because of the absence of one Eastonian queen candidate, judging was delayed until the night of the dance. Before the dance the second annual Eastonian review was held. The object of the theme was to see how schools in South America, Japan, and Russia compared with East. During the intermission at the dance, Maryann Havis, 1957 Eastonian Queen, was crowned.

Division Editors Get Details Done

Dummies, pictures, copy, captions, and paste-ups had to go right into operation and all other activities put aside. There was a deadline to meet. If the success of the yearbook was measured by the amount of pencils, erasures, paper, rubber cement, and typewriter ribbons used, the yearbook would rank above all other.

Curious students wondered if the book would ever be completed. Surely, staff members wondered, too. The more work there was completed, the more work there seemed yet to be done.

Ralph Holbrook and Phil French, after taking and developing pictures for a year, wondered if they would ever see the light outside of the darkroom again.

Bill Proctor and Annie Plisokski contributed the art work. When the theme was chosen they successfully designed an adequate cover.

Linda Danforth, Beulah Reinmiller, and Sandra Cammack diligently wrote stories and captions and begged for copy to be turned in.

As business manager, Mary Lou Rannabargar saw that all accounts were paid.

Betty Odell, Jeanne Cunningham, and Sylvia Kuehn worked out the organizations and activity sections. Jo Ann Burrus had charge of the administration, P.-T.A., and librarians. Olga Adelgren and Judy Houtchens planned the class section. The senior section was treated by Joanne Justice and Deanna Braley. First semester, Pat Nicodemus managed the athletics section with Ken Kaiser and Jerry Junkins as assistants. Second semester, Joe Swaffar joined the athletics crew. Raymond Howard developed the R.O.T.C. section. The senior index was prepared by Carol Amos. Approving all layouts and making necessary changes were Jacky Chamberlain and Lucy Smith.

After much hard work, bitten nails, and shattered nerves, the 1957 yearbook was completed.

Ann Arbor, Michigan, provided all types of entertainment for journalism delegates. From wading, to formal dinners, they all enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Friendly Frolic Fills Trip to Ann Arbor

Every summer the students participating in the news and publications classes take a bus trip to the N.S.P.A. conference.

The National Scholastic Press Association conference was held in Ann Arbor, Michigan, this year. The purpose of the trip is to attend classes and lectures on journalism which will aid the students with the coming year's work.

Making new friends with a group from Paseo was one highlight, as nine students from Paseo accompanied the East High Bears on this trip. Mr. William K. Prewitt, the instructor at East High, enjoyed the trip, along with his wife, son, and daughter.

While in Ann Arbor there was a short trip to Flint, Michigan, to go through the Henry Ford Museum and a night journey to Canada and a boat ride on the Detroit River.

Before coming home, the group visited Chicago, Illinois, the Museum of Science and Industry, went wading in Lake Michigan, and toured Mark Twain's home in Hannibal, Missouri.

The sore backs and necks which came from riding on the bus 1,600 miles, were forgotten on these many sight-seeing tours. Everyone returned home full of fun, laughter, and loaded down with souvenirs.

Headed for the N.S.P.A. conference.

Standing in front of the girls' dormitory.

Dinners, Dances, and Minor Disasters

Underclassmen expecting to take publications their senior year for the sole purpose of putting out a yearbook, are going to be greatly surprised. The Publications staff works day and night to have a successful year. The first thing is selling candy, which helps balance the budget.

Besides working on pictures, copy, and layouts the staff is expected to help sell football and basketball tickets, sponsor the homecoming parade and dance, sales campaigns for the yearbook, present assemblies, dances, mixers, make frequent trips to the engravers and printers, yet most enjoyable is the annual Publications banquet.

Satisfaction comes from starting something new, such as the Valentine house, which served as a ballot box for the King and Queen of Hearts, another first for this year's Eastonian staff.

Although the yearbook's photographers always have a big job, this year it was more difficult. They could be found working from 7:30 in the morning till late after school. Their work would have been easier, however, if the sink had not sprung a leak, flooding the darkroom. When this happened, the boys charged bravely, barefooted, and with mops in their hands into the flooded room to clean up.

A dinner at Kansas University, a king and queen of hearts, and darkroom disasters filled the Eastonian staff's busy year.

Who Can? . . . We Can!

This year East had three senior cheerleaders, Jean Cunningham, captain; Jo Ann Burrus, and Pat Nicodemus, and also three junior cheerleaders, Carol Martin, Pat Knight, and Bonnie Rhoads. The girls were outfitted in black felt skirts, green tights, and black bulk sweaters with a white megaphone lettered in green saying EAST. To add spice to the games they had green megaphones and green and white shakers.

Spirit and enthusiasm followed these girls wherever they went, whether they appeared in assembly, cheered on the gridiron, or shouted encouragement on the basketball court.

Besides leading yells at the games, the cheerleaders have many other activities. This year they had their annual dinner at a restaurant, besides an informal "get together" for a chicken dinner at Mrs. Gertrude Brown's, sponsor.

They appeared on television on Bandstand and TV Teen Town.

Then, too, when Mr. Clifford H. Nowlin left for Atlantic City to get his award for being chosen by a former student as "the teacher who had done the most for him," the cheerleaders were at the airport to see him off and lead the crowd in "15 Rahs for Mr. Nowlin."

In the American Royal Parade they marched in front of the band heading the East section.

In their white sweaters and black skirts, the members of the Pep Club, equipped with new green and black shakers, supported with unbounded enthusiasm the athletic activities of East.

In an effort to better understand the plays and penalties of football, the club asked Coach Roy F. Brown to give them a lecture and then to answer questions concerning those points which they failed to understand. The highest score on a test taken later received a fifteen-dollar prize.

For their participation in Homecoming activities, a drill team of club members practiced hard and learned to form letters representing the schools participating in the game.

First and second semester Pep Club officers helped enliven the school spirit.

Besides selling football tickets, the Pep Club members were required to buy season passes and attend each game. Goal posts were decorated in school colors by committees.

This enthusiastic organization also bought the cheerleaders new megaphones and pom-poms. A girl must be a member in good standing of the Pep Club to qualify for being a cheerleader.

The Athenians, led by the spirit of Athena, the Greek goddess; their sponsor, Miss Helen Cox, and co-sponsor, Mrs. Gertrude Brown, strived toward teamwork and sportsmanship. The Athenians have been at East since December, 1928. Membership to the club of blue and gray is eligible to girls with their freshman shield.

They sponsored their annual Junior-Senior Basketball Game, Faculty-Student Volleyball Game and the Freshman-Sophomore Basketball Game which is a first this year. Another new addition achieved by the Athenians is the swimming plaque given the record time for each event achieved by the students. Participation in the three sportsdays each year also brings great enjoyment and thrills.

Sgt. Quigley and Captain Daniels looking over one of the many trophies earned in Field Day.

Sgt. Quigley has come back to his "Old Stompin' Grounds" at East this year. He saw duty in the Korean conflict and then was assistant instructor at Southeast last year. He has aided the unit considerably and has consistently come up with new ideas for improvement. By having strictly G.I. training, he prepared East for Honor School rating and awards at Field Day.

Captain Daniels came to Kansas City ROTC units where he now holds the position of Assistant PMS&T of all Public High Schools. Making his headquarters here at East, he is always ready to help the units in any way possible.

Leaders of Today

The Battalion Staff is composed of six capable young men who determine the plan and schedule of the cadet's study. The Battalion Commander and the Executive Officer oversee the staff. The Adjutant, or S-1, files, and types all special orders and bulletins. The S-2, or Intelligence Officer, takes care of all business prior to battalion parades. The S-3, or Plans and Training Officer, types all training schedules, and averages test papers. The S-4, or Supply Officer, issues all uniforms and other articles of military importance.

We Are the Leaders

Easts' Battalion consisted of two companies and one Drum and Bugle Corps this year.

"A" Company had its practical and theoretical courses during hour 2. It was commanded by Captain Charles Davidson with Lieutenants Albert Teepen and Ronald Rimmer as platoon leaders. First Sergeant was Joe VanDolah who recorded grades.

A Company maintained the Color Guard that presented the colors for battalion parades and assemblies. "A" Company's busy schedule called for drills, tests, physical training, and classes. All of their knowledge was put into practice at Federal Inspection and Field Day.

"B" Company was commanded this year by Captain Larry Addams with Lieutenants Paul Summers and Sam Leonard as platoon leaders. Lieutenant Charles Bateman was Company Executive Officer. Sergeant Stan Andrews was "B" Company's First Sergeant, taking attendance reports.

"B" Company provided the Drum and Bugle Corps that furnished music for the unit's parades.

For having the most cadets present in either company, a banner was presented them for one week.

Lt. Phillip French leads his drum and bugle corps.

One of the proudest cadets in the battalion was M/Sgt. Bill Ferguson as he received the Chicago Tribune award for the second consecutive year. This is attained only through superior knowledge of ROTC.

The Drum & Bugle Corps, under the direction of Lt. Phillip French, played for all battalion parades in the Veterans Day parade this year. The Corps worked hard in preparation for Federal Inspection and Field Day. Field Day was perhaps the most important of all the events, for the competition for trophies was great. They were presented to the groups according to their musical and marching abilities.

Shown above are two of the important things received in ROTC training, classes, or theory, and inspections.

"We were out to sink the Vikings' ship!" in the Homecoming Parade.

ROTC Assists With Homecoming

Noise in the Homecoming parade was provided by the battalion this year as they presented a float which featured a Viking ship being sunk by machine gun bullets.

Perhaps one of the busiest and best-known parts of the unit is the color guard. Consisting of four cadets attired in chrome helmets and carrying chromed rifles, the unit presented the colors to open all of the football games and many assemblies. Marching in the Veterans Day Parade and all battalion parades rounded out their schedule.

A common term heard on the range this year was, "Fire at will!" "Will" in this case was a friendly mouse who, fortunately, escaped injury from the team's rifles.

The rifle team, under the managership of Lt. Paul Summers, consisted of five cadets, two seniors and three juniors.

To provide competition for the cadets, East joined the National Rifle Association this year. Competing in the league and all-city match rounded out their schedule. In the all-city match, Lt. Albert Teepen placed third out of all individual firers in the city.

Gridiron Opener Dropped, 14-0

East opened its football season this year on September 14 against William Chrisman at Ott Field.

Four fumbles cost the Bears their initial game as they fell at the hands of the seemingly mightier Chrisman Bears, 14-0.

At the end of the first half, there was no score. It was an equally matched battle, and although the team from Independence threatened once or twice, the Bruin defense proved too strong.

Chrisman began to forge ahead in the second half, scoring both tallies on identical end runs, one in the third quarter, and one in the final period. East fumbles gave the Chrisman Bears the needed groundage for touchdowns.

Jim Davis, left guard, Mike Sexton, right tackle, and Fred Fisher, fullback, gave outstanding performances on the behalf of the East cause.

Bears Open With Victory

With the defeat at the hands of William Chrisman still in their minds, the East Bears took the field on September 21 against the Van Horn Falcons.

The Bears at once took the upperhand as they scored quickly in the first quarter and once again before the half was over. Although Van Horn played a tough game, the Bears' experience and size paid off.

The shifty running of Walt Hicklin and the power of Fred Fisher were the Bears' main offensive threats as they rolled up over 300 yards. The defensive wall of Jim Davis, Dick Mowell, Mike Sexton, and Joe Roesch held Van Horn to no yards on the ground.

With the final score of 26-0, the Bruin team evened their season record to one win and one loss.

East Bears and Manual Cardinals have a free-for-all.

Redbirds Get Wings Clipped

Under the capable coaching of Virland "Bucky" Harris, the East Bears opened their league play with a 14-0 victory over the Manual Cardinals at Nowlin Stadium Thursday, September 27.

The Redbirds, who entered competition in the Interscholastic League again last year after several years of absence are still rebuilding their team. Although they showed moments of strong defensive play they offered little compared to the stronger, more experienced Bruin squad.

Manual's one big chance came in the latter quarter when they plunged within feet of the goal with a pass and two run plays, but then lost the pigskin on a fumble.

Bears Tie Up Tigers

In our second league game, October 5, the East Bears, on a fumble, allowed the Westport Tigers to gain a 7-7 tie with them.

East scored early in the second quarter on the strength of a Tiger fumble which was recovered on Westport's twelve by Jim Davis, Bruin guard. On the next play Fred Fisher went 10 yards around right end to put the Green and Black out in front. Walter Hicklin then plunged through the middle for the extra point, making the score 7-0.

Westport scored in the fourth to tie the tally.

Vikings Sail to Easy Victory

With a quick flurry of end runs by a seemingly greased halfback, Ray Ricono, the Bears found themselves on the short end of a 33-7 score against the Northeast Vikings on October 12 at Nowlin Field.

This was the first loss experienced by the Bruins in the three-year-old stadium.

It was easy all the way for the Vikings, and they led by a 21-7 margin at halftime.

Northeast's hefty halfback, Ricono, their only returning starter, scored all tallies for the opposition except one by Chuck Harmon, senior. "Fearless" Fred Fisher scored East's lone tally.

The hard-hitting, fleet-footed Interscholastic league champs racked up 27 points in the first quarter of the contest held at Southeast's stadium November 9, to romp easily over the Green and Black, 40-0.

Outstanding on the Bruins' squad was two-year letterman, Fred Fisher. The battering fullback never gave up plunging and corralled a total of 68 yards on 16 precarious trips against Southeast's better-than-average defense.

Once more East's power machine was stopped, this time by the Southwest Indians, 21-0, on Nowlin Field October 19.

The Black and Orange made their first touchdown on a ten-yard pass to the end. Late in the second quarter the Indians recovered a fumble and scored again.

The second half was a hard-fought battle on the part of both teams, the Green and Black allowing only one touchdown, to give Southwest a 21-0 margin.

Fine defensive work was done by Jim Davis, left guard, and Ron Bartley, left end.

After two consecutive defeats, the East Bears got back in the winning column with a crushing 39-14 victory over the Lincoln Tigers. Lincoln was completely overrun by a well-balanced attack which began to click late in the first quarter and didn't let up until the final whistle.

Elvin Iverson played his best game by scoring three touchdowns and intercepting two Lincoln passes. Fred Fisher, fullback, scored two touchdowns and Fred Scott, quarterback, the other. This was one of East's best games.

The Cubs met Westport on October 8 and left the victors, 6-0.
Bob Lane made the lone touchdown on a pass.

Floats Add Color—Eulexia Takes First

As the parade of floats and glorious color rounded the track during the half-time ceremonies, thousands of curious spectators awaited the approaching queen's car. Adorning the coveted spot was Eulexia and Webster's candidate, Jeanne Cunningham, 1957 homecoming queen. Royally she walked through the ROTC guard pathway, followed by her four attendants, and was crowned by last year's queen, Carlene Russell Renfro.

Shortly following the game, the Eastonian staff sponsored a program in the auditorium, followed by the homecoming dance.

Eulexia's winning float boasted "Northeast's in Dutch, Wooden Shoe Know It."

Carrying out the Roman theme, the Latin Club said, "Thumbs Down for Northeast."

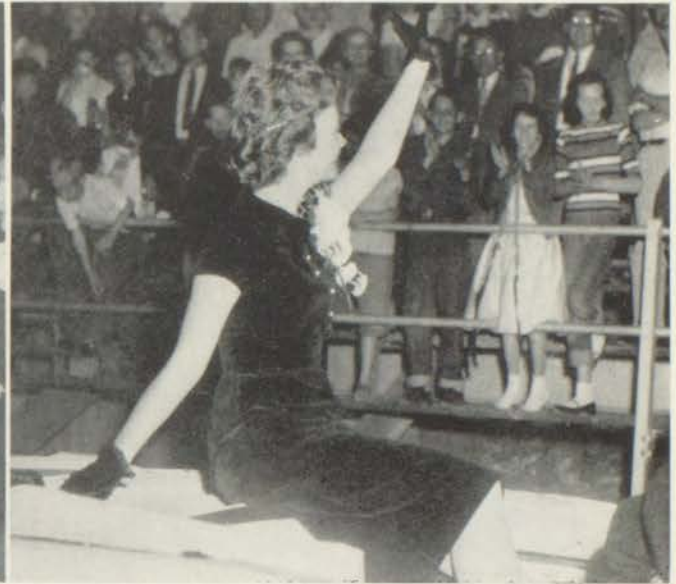

The P.T.A. joined in the festivities and threw candy and suckers from their float.

Homecoming Is Gay

Basin Street Seven adds color to Homecoming dance.

"Northeast Is in Dutch, Wooden Shoe Know It," brought Eulexia the winning cup for the second consecutive year in the float competition.

The Homecoming celebration began with the parade in the afternoon which toured the East Side. Marching in the parade was the East Color Guard, R.O.T.C. Battalion, Pep Club, twenty Literary Society representatives, and the cheerleaders.

Besides the five literary club floats that entered the annual competition, the Latin Club, the Echo Staff, R.O.T.C., and P.-T.A. had floats in the parade.

The queen candidates rode in cars during the tour.

East's Tallest Team Falls Short

East's basketball coach, Gene Sebastian, was aided by a new second team coach, Gene Harryman, who was transferred to East from Southwest this year.

The Bruin squad, with these two in the lead, finished the season with a win-loss record of four-four in league competition, while their record in non-league play was three wins and four defeats.

Three returning lettermen, Walter Hicklin, Larry Wolfe, and Bob Fessman, formed the core of the crew.

Larry Wolfe was the fifth highest scorer in the league, while Walter Hicklin ended in ninth place.

The crowd goes wild as another basket is made for the "good old green and black."

This is an old story with a new twist: Once upon a time there were nine bears, Papa Gene, his three aces in the hole, Bobby-e-o, Waltikins, and Halarino, plus five. These bears were not just the ordinary run-of-the-mill-type bears, cause they ran around a court, not a mill. These gay grizzlies had a daddy-o. And one thing must be said for this daddy-o, he always looked up to his cubs. He also warned them that while they were on their court to be on guard.

Along the sidelines sat the wolves. Some of these howling creatures were for the Vikings, some for the Bears, but the most were for the "birds." Also present was a most hated and feared specie—a peculiar striped animal who strutted up and down the court shrilly whistling and occasionally shrieking, "It isn't fair."

During the lull in the battle, all the little bears would gather around their great big Papa who would tell them what they were doing wrong. Of course, all the little bears wanted to be in the thick of the fighting, but their Papa kept some of them beside him. When the fighting was over, each of the little bears would cool off by taking a shower in his little bear-skin. Returning from his bath he sometimes found that one of the wolves had taken his porridge.

The moral of this story is—always listen to your daddy-o and you won't get caught with your white space showing.

Indians and Knights Creep by Bears

On December 19, the East Bears opened their 1956-57 Interscholastic League Basketball season by playing the Southwest Indians on the Southeast Court. Although underdogs, the East Bears gave the taller Southwest team a real battle but was finally edged, 57-54. Both Larry Wolfe and Bob Fessman kept the Indians puzzled with their fine ball handling and accurate long-range shooting. Larry led the Bears with 20 points followed by Bob who added 17 more. Fine rebounding by Harold Eagan also aided the Bears both on offense and defense.

The Bears dropped into seventh place in the Interscholastic League by allowing the Knights from Southeast to overcome a five-point lead late in the game played on Thursday, January 17. The Knights, in eighth place, claimed the game by a scant 55-51 margin.

During the third quarter, the alert Bruins gained a five-point margin after overcoming the 11-point deficit Southwest had previously held.

Fessman's 17 points led the scoring for the defeated Bears. Wolfe, held by two Knights, was allowed only 14 points.

Scrappy Falcons are Plucked by Bears

By picking up their second league game after losing the previous one to Southwest, the Bruins stepped into fourth place in the Interscholastic League. The Bears plucked the feathers of the Van Horn Falcons, 64-56, Friday, January 11, on the opponents' court.

Larry Wolfe gave the Bears the spark they needed to overcome a scrappy Van Horn team with his 21 point total as well as his brilliant display of defense and miraculous rebounding.

Bob Fessman backed up Larry with 16 points, 11 of them coming in the first half.

Lincoln Wins Again

As has been the fate of all teams this year, the East Grizzlies fell under the onslaught of the lofty lads of Lincoln. The score-on-the-boards after the cage contest showed 58-32 in favor of the league-leading Lincolners.

East tried the stall in the first, but its effect was only to hold down the East score as the height of the Tigers controlled both the boards and the aerial activity. Bob Fessman, Charles Yardley, and Dean Tomlin justly accounted for themselves in this contest by both ball handling and shooting.

This was the Tigers' ninth straight win and put the Bruins in a tie for fifth place.

Bears Irk Rival Vikes

Even being termed the "underdog" did not dampen the spirits of the East Bruins as they unleashed all fury to edge out the Northeast Vikings, 45-44, January 25 on the Van Horn court. The game was a see-saw battle with a last second basket by guard Larry Wolfe deciding the contest.

The Bears owe this win to their skill on the free-throw line as they hit 21 out of 27 from behind the chalk. Top scoring honors went to Larry Wolfe who potted 18; both Harold Eagan and John Rauber had 7 counters to their credit.

This battle is annually a close, hard-fought meet as there is constant rivalry between the Bruins and the Vikings.

East Edges Manual

In retaliation for the loss that was handed the Bruins by Paseo, the East Bears flashed back with a close 51-46 victory over the Manual Redbirds. In a pre-season game, the Bears were edged out by the Manual crew by the slight margin of 31-30.

The contest ended in the first three quarters with the Red and White squad in the lead, but with combined sinking efforts and a tight defense, the East entry roared back in the last five minutes to take the triumph. The East Side cagers hit 37 per cent of the night's tries, while 33 per cent was all the opposers could do. On the line, the Bruins were deadly as they bucketed 17 out of 23.

The nuclei that night were Larry Wolfe, John Rauber, and Harold Eagan in the scoring department; Dean Tomlin, Bob Fessman, and Walt Hicklin directed the defense.

Tigers Triumph

Taking revenge for the defeat they suffered earlier at the hands of the Bears, the Westport Tigers remained just hot enough to topple the Bruins with a 57-43 defeat on the Van Horn court, February 8.

The Tigers held off two late Bear rallies with a tight, full-court press and this, coupled with their 49 per cent field shot average, led the way to the Tiger triumph. The Bears pulled to within four points of the opposers two times, as Larry Wolfe, Walter Hicklin, and Charles Yardley led the East barrage.

Sparking the Green and Black defensively were Dean Tomlin, Harold Eagan, and John Rauber.

East Is Plundered

In a disappointing game on February 14, East's basketekers lost a decisive battle to the Paseo Pirates to the tune of 56-37. The closest the Bears ever came to Paseo's constant margin was that of four points. The Pirates calmed every attempt by East to stir up a storm, and skillfully grabbed rebound after rebound. This was East's fifth defeat. The game was played on Southeast's court.

Larry Wolfe led the weary team by successfully tossing 10 points. John Bailey scored 7 while Charles Yardley and John Rauber did East's rebounding with 12 each.

East Loses Final

As a thrilling climax to the season, the East emissary was barely beaten by the Eagles of Central by the slim majority of 39-37, February 31 on the Van Horn court. The lead rotated to and fro as first the opposition would gain the advantage and then the Bruins would take the top. In the fourth period, with the tilt of 35-34, Eagles' favor, East shot back only to be overpowered and beaten on the strength of one bucket, as a lay-up attempt by Dean Tomlin in the last seconds went for naught and left Central victory apparent.

Larry Wolfe led the scoring in the game with 18 counters while the two tall lads, John Rauber and Charles Yardley, led in rebounding.

This defeat put the Bears in seventh place in the Inter-scholastic league with a season's record of 3 wins and 6 losses.

SUMMARY OF RECORD—7 Wins, 10 Losses

Junior Bucketeteers Gain Experience

The second team in action.

Composed primarily of sophomores, East's second team basketball had a record of four wins and eleven losses. Coach Milburn Harryman directed the boys in basketball fundamentals and skills.

The main purpose of a second team is to give practical training for prospective athletes. This year, many proved their worth. By the practical experience, the boys look forward to trying for positions on first team next year. The athletic department is arranged in such a way that a second team can be the training grounds for the youngsters.

East's second team was one of the few that defeated Northeast's. Coach Harryman states that among the boys John Finrock, Tony Rodak, J. W. Fowler, Bill Weber, and Richard Sneary have shown unusual abilities.

Records Fall As Tracksters Perform

Since 1938 the head track coach at East, Coach Roy Brown has had many outstanding boys under his tutelage. This year for the first time Coach Brown had only track as a major sport. A graduate of Warrensburg State College, he previously taught in Lee's Summit, Missouri, where he lives. Although his team this year has had only mediocre success, it is agreed that Coach gets out of his boys everything possible. His famous "shake it off" has spurred many a boy on to greater heights.

Harry L. Driefus comes to East this year from our neighbor and old rival, William Chrisman of Independence. Helping with football as well as track, Coach Driefus has provided the necessary instruction for the feeder teams which will give East the material for future outstanding competition. Also a graduate of Central Missouri State College at Warrensburg, he expects to make coaching a career. His home is in St. Louis.

East Takes Third in Cross Country

The start of the city cross-country run held at Southeast High in the fall.

Between the halves of two East High football games, the cross-country track team defeated Van Horn, 30-35, and Manual, 20-35. The members of the team were: James Day, senior; Jim Light, senior; Tom Meyer, senior; Jerry Junkins, Senior; Ray Johnson, junior; Roni Henry, sophomore; Frank Hernandez, sophomore, and Donald Thompson, freshman.

Outstanding on the Bruin squad was James Day, taking first place in both half-time meets and ending up the season by placing third in the city cross-country meet, where the team rated fourth.

Sixth in Big Seven

Representing the Green and Black to his fullest ability, Jerry Junkins sprinted the 440-yard course in an almost record-breaking time only to be beaten by a few strides and receive a second place in the Big Seven Indoor Meet held March 2. Since all Kansas City high schools were represented, Jerry competed with over 15 other speedsters. Ironman Junkins also acted for the Bruins in the 60-yard dash besides being anchor-man on the 8-lap relay team.

Bob Mayhew entered in the competition of the low hurdles and managed to take fourth place, even after a faulty start.

In the team standings, East tied with Central for sixth place with 8 points.

East Places Fifth at State Indoor

With the added strength of Jerry Junkins and Bob Mayhew, who gained 11½ points apiece, the East track squad easily captured their first Interscholastic League dual track meet from the Van Horn Falcons, 66-42, April 9.

Bob had first in both hurdle events and also was a member of the mile relay team while Jerry won the 100- and the 440-yard dashes besides being the anchor man on the relay team. Also contributing to the total by winning their events were: Walt Hicklin in the broad jump with a 20-foot 11-inch leap, Mike Sexton's mighty heave of 50 feet 7 inches in the shotput, and Charles Yardley clearing the bar at 5 feet 9 inches in the high jump.

Other first place winners were: Fred Scott, pole vault, Jim Day, miler, and Ted Soldanel, half miler.

For the first time in several years, Kansas City schools dominated the State Indoor meet held annually at Columbia. The year, with Bob Mayhew standing out in the hurdles, taking first in the lows, Hicklin taking third in the broad jump, and Yardley in the high jump, tying for third, East finished fifth with eleven and 3/7th points. With our new track, one of the best in the state, our indoor track for the winter, and Coach Brown concentrating his efforts on year round track, prospects are bright for the near future.

Cindermen Clash

Again the East Tracksters dominated the honors by taking 11 first places out of a possible 13, which enabled them to capture their second straight dual track meet victory and their first over a Pony Express school, by defeating the William Chrisman Bears 66-43.

Jerry Junkins led the East squad with 15 points by grabbing the 100- and 220-yard sprint in the time of :53.1. Also sharing the spotlight was Bob Mayhew, who went over the 120-yard high hurdles in :16.0 and was clocked in the 180-yard lows in :22.1. He also tied for second place in the pole vault.

The Bears gained a number of points in the field event except the high jump, which was won by Charles Yardley at the height of 5 feet 10 inches. Other field event winners were: Mike Sexton, shot put; Richard White, pole vault, and Walt Hicklin, broad jump. Ted Soldanel won the 880-yard run in the time of 2:10.8.

With the city-wide Interscholastic League track meet coming up in May, the East Bears will have a good chance of taking away a number of honors. Bob Mayhew, the state high hurdler champion, should not have much trouble defending both the high and low hurdles. Another top competitor is Walt Hicklin, broad jumper, who has placed in the top positions during the entire track season, having averaged between 20 feet 6 inches and 21 feet 6 inches. Both Charles Yardley and Mike Sexton should be close to the winning circle. Charles has been a continuous 5 foot 10 inch jumper or better. Mike has shown he can heave the 12-pound ball well over 51 feet.

If these Bears pull through and with the added support from the running department, the East squad could come home with the title.

This year marked the establishment of the East Invitational Track Meet which had in attendance all the Kansas City High Schools and some from Greater Kansas City. The event was held on the best track in the city. Since this was the first year, all the times for the events were set down as the records.

Three East speedsters placed in the competition. They are: Virgil Mayhew, who placed first in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard low hurdles; Walter Hicklin got a close second in broad jump; Charles Yardley tied for second in the high jump.

Girls Show Athletic Ability

Carol Patswald trying her best to score.

Early to rise on Saturday is always the answer on sports-day. After the short meeting at 7:45 A.M. in the school auditorium to get our instructions we are off for exhausting, but thrilling, play. Basketball Sportsday was the only one of the three this year that was held indoors, with a hot lunch afterwards. Van Horn High School was the host. The team, under the capable leadership of Miss Helen Cox, left in gay spirits because the scores showed East winners of both games.

Sportsmanship Reigns

The team chosen for Hockey Sportsday was coached by Mrs. Audry Owens and after much practice after school proved not prepared for the rough competition as shown at Northeast High School on Saturday, November 3, 1956, with a hockey defeat to Southeast High School and a tie with Westport High School. Our team's spirits were given a rise from the rooting Bears. After a shower and a refreshing snack, Hockey Sportsday closed.

By Saturday, May 11, 1957, and our third sportsday of the year, we are well acquainted with team members of the other schools. Softball Sportsday gave us a chance to visit Manual. With anticipation and the guiding help of Mrs. Gertrude Brown the girls went into the game hoping for both winning scores and continued friendships.

Honor Society Selects Top Students

There is no greater honor available to seniors than being elected to membership in the nationwide organization, the National Honor Society. This society, having its headquarters in Washington, D. C., includes on its roll of participants, residents of all the 48 states and also the neighboring territories of Alaska and Hawaii.

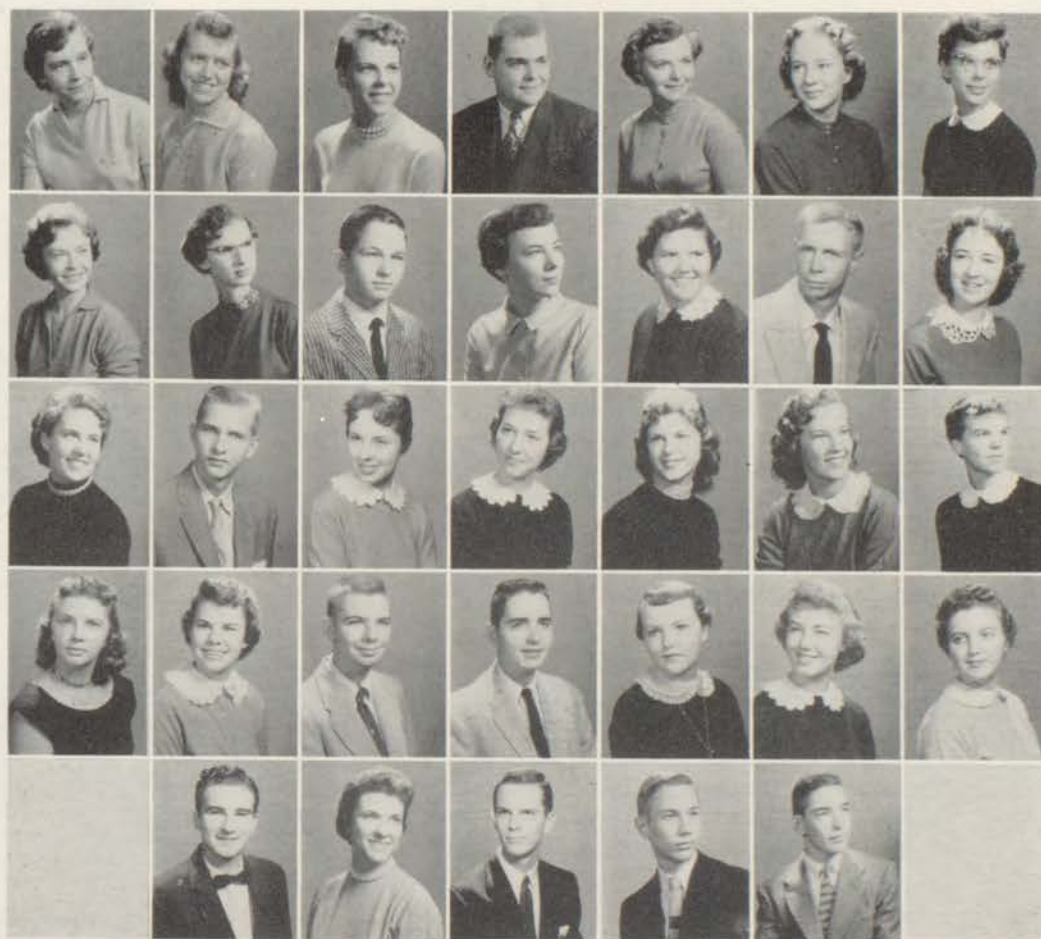

Students are selected on the basis of: Scholarship, leadership, character, and service. First, is scholarship. The National Honor Society constitutes not more than 15 per cent of the senior class chosen from the upper quartile.

The points determining association in this group are based on the amount of an individual's leadership and service throughout all four years of high school. A few ways to obtain these necessary points are through special activities such as: Publications, student council, class officers, clubs, fine arts, athletics, R.O.T.C., special awards, and service groups.

Character is also a very important factor. Students are observed not only in the classroom but in the halls, cafeteria, and elsewhere. The students are rated carefully by faculty members.

A word to the wise! Don't wait till your last year, but begin now to work toward exemplifying the four objectives of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, and gaining membership in the National Honor Society.

Miss Carolyn M. Dasbach supplies the capable sponsorship of the group. Miss Nora Boone, Miss Katherine Miller, Mr. Paul W. Day, Mr. Bernard C. Greene, and Mr. L. A. Priefert are the other five members of the group. Mr. C. O. Williams and Mr. L. Clayton Dickson are ex-officio members.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Another year . . . another yearbook . . . another group of East's students leaving to be scattered and never reunited. We, the seniors of 1957, bid to you a most regretful farewell. We hope you will remember our class and the joys we have shared together as you turn the leaves of our 1957 Eastonian.

We sincerely want to thank you for being so patient with our photographers and staff as a whole. We hope you will feel the inconveniences compensated for by our production.

Our sincerest appreciation goes to the faculty of East. To our Principal for his never-ending understanding, our new Vice-Principal for his courage and trust in us, Miss Baker for her capable financial assistance, Mr. Grube for his helpfulness in our photographic section, and, of course, to Mr. William K. Prewitt for his guidance and time; and for all the things "over and above the call of duty" he has done for ours and six staffs before us. Also, to our individual teachers for their advice and understanding while we assembled the book.

We consider ourselves very fortunate that we have facilities here in Kansas City that enable us to produce a "complete" yearbook. Therefore, to the many persons of the Kansas City area who produced the final Eastonian a hearty "thank you"; to Mr. Ralph Kolb of Burger-Baird Engravers, Mr. Earl Smith and Mr. Roger James of Smith-Grieves Printing Company, Mr. Weyersberg and Mr. Foust of Rolland Studio, and S. K. Smith Cover Company.

We, the staff, who have tried, give to you the 1957 Eastonian.
