Foreword

How the time flies! It seems like only yesterday that we entered the double-door front of East High to begin the school year of 1958-59. The work and the play we leave behind have slipped from the present to become a memory . . . a memory strong and clear, forming a lasting impression on our lives.

We entered school this year with varied and mixed emotions. The subfreshmen came to East for the first time, some with a sense of new adventure, some taking this change of life in stride, and some showing traces of bewilderment. To them, life at East has become warm, traditional, and filled with new friends. They will look forward to their allotted years at East.

Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors returned to their friends, the tradition, and the school life which they had learned to love and respect. They were eager to again enjoy the activities and the work which make a successful school year.

Yes, it seems like only yesterday when we began this year and barely a week ago when we, the Senior Class of 1959, came to East. With the start of this year, we became Seniors to enjoy our moment of triumph, climaxing four years of continual building. We will graduate and go our separate ways, but we will always hold dear our good times, our friends, and most of all, our school.

Though time will continue on its merciless way, leaving its mark on lives and our way of life, we hope that East will go on producing bigger and better classes than that of 1959 and continually fine students who "for her fair name, will spread the fame of dear East High."

Dedication

There followeth after me today,
A youth whose feet must pass this way,
This chasm that has been as naught to me,
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be;
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim—
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him.

Dedication

East High School is indeed a school reaping the benefits of many blessings. One of its many blessings is an outstanding faculty containing leaders in their respective fields. A true leader in his field is Mr. William K. Prewitt, a forerunner in wisdom, ability, judgment, and personality. It is to Mr. Prewitt that we, the 1959 Eastonian staff, respectfully and gratefully dedicate this, the 1959 Eastonian

Being head advisor to the Eastonian and Echo Staffs are two of Mr. Prewitt's main tasks. These responsibilities alone require countless hours of business transaction, instruction, and numerous other necessary duties. East has Mr. Prewitt alone to thank for continually fine yearbooks which consistently rank at the top of their class and contain features that other schools can only hope for.

The responsibilities of sixteen Echos plus a homecoming edition, coupled with bi-weekly deadlines lie on his capable shoulders.

In conjunction to being Eastonian advisor, Mr. Prewitt is president of the National Association of Journalism Directors, a fitting honor for a man known and respected for his work in journalism.

His leadership glows brightest when he obtains enviable results with his methods of trusting and having faith in the students themselves enough to let them produce what they desire to accomplish.

Mr. Prewitt also teaches sophomore English classes, and as an advancement to this, he teaches English in night school at Kansas City Junior College.

The annual Eastonian Ball, the only all-school formal dance of the year, is directed by him. The annual Valentine Dance or King and Queen of Hearts Ball is another activity he willingly stages. Until this year, he had managed all Homecoming activities.

He also was responsible for busses to carry students to the basketball games at a minimum of price. This added new spirit and meaning to a sport which has suffered dire negligence from student support.

It is with true pleasure that we dedicate this book to Mr. Prewitt, who is so much a part of East, and to whom East owes so much.

Mr. Prewitt and Engraving Co-Editor of the Eastonian, Harry Fogliani, label pictures for the book.

The Echo is one of the main tasks under Mr. Prewitt. Here he discusses layouts for a new issue with the paper's editors.

Mr. Williams has long been known to Kansas City, as well as "foreign" schools and universities, as a true leader and gentleman. It has been said many times that Mr. Williams runs the best conducted school in the city.

Principal

Mr. C. O. Williams, Principal of East High School, is a friendly, active man with a great deal of responsibility to shoulder, and it is confirmed by all that he shoulders it well. He contributes many hours of hard work to insure the successful completion of each school year solving the many problems of students as well as those of East's teaching staff.

Years of study have still not quenched his thirst for knowledge. Mr. Williams is a man with an open mind ever eager to learn from others but even more enthusiastic at his job of teaching.

He is truly a scholar and a friend to all who have passed through East in their attempt to better themselves through scholastic achievement and leadership, and he will be remembered by this senior class as a man to be respected for his zest in all things concerned with the standing of East.

Mr. Dickson, now in his third year as vice-principal, has proved to be one of the ablest men that East has ever known. He carries the brunt of many school affairs and activities.

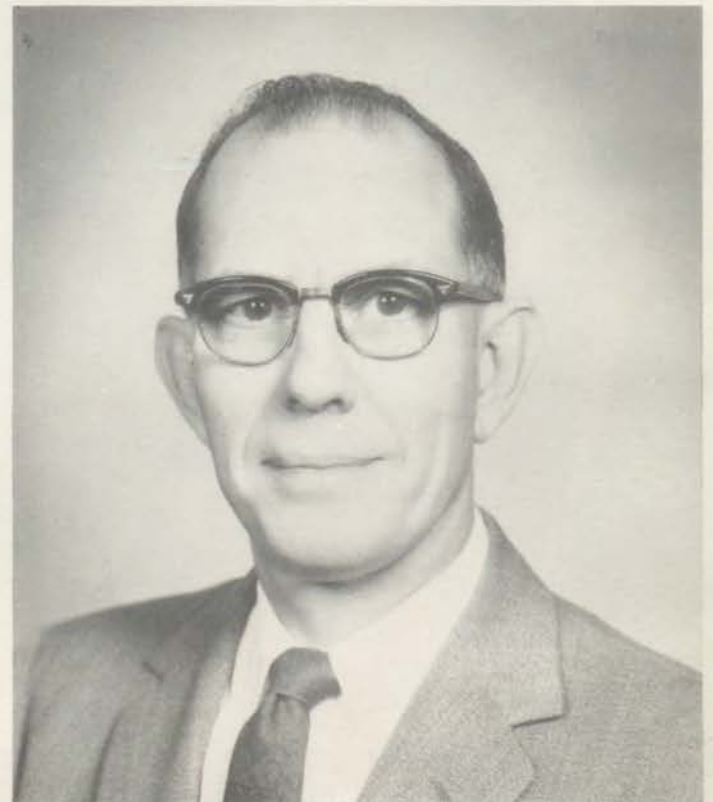

Vice-Principal

The vice-principalship of East is a position requiring much hard, down-to-earth work and demands that its holder be experienced in many fields of learning. For three years a capable man, Mr. L. Clayton Dickson, has held this post.

"If you want a job done, take it to a busy man." Mr. Dickson is most certainly a very busy man, and it seems that almost everyone heeds this saying for the Vice-Principal has enough duties and projects to keep a team of men going.

Mr. Dickson is also a family man with children of school age and thus is in a position to understand today's young people. He is an active participant in church affairs. His affiliation in school affairs is plainly apparent to the students of East. He is in charge of proctors and Intersociety council, as well as the organizer of the Junior-Senior prom.

Mr. Dickson—scholar, teacher, father, civic leader—truly a "doer."

Counselor

Miss Anna C. Stewart has given counsel and guidance to the students of East High School for some thirteen years. In this space of time she has given out a great deal of necessary information on almost every college and university in the country.

As well as being the capable counselor that she is, Miss Stewart actively sponsors the A.A.U.W. and she enjoys her hobby of traveling. She graduated from Redemptorist High School in Kansas City, and then attended the College of St. Teresa. Later she received her Masters Degree from Northwestern University in Chicago, Illinois.

This year Miss Stewart is counselor for the freshman and junior classes. The arrangement between the counselors is such that both will have the same students to instruct until they graduate.

Miss Stewart's efficiency and willingness to help the students of East choose their career has won her the respect and friendship of the student body.

Miss Anna C. Stewart has finished her thirteenth year as counselor at East. She has grown to be admired and respected by all who have known and worked with her.

Mr. Edwin J. King, though relatively new, has helped many seniors this year plan for college and prepare for the future.

Counselor

Mr. Edwin J. King is one of East's newer faculty members. He was a resident of Council Bluffs, Iowa, until 1938 when he moved to Kansas City to teach at Westport High School. Now he is married and has a son of high school age. Fishing at his cabin in Colorado consumes a major portion of his summer vacation, and it proves to be a very relaxing and satisfying pastime.

This year Mr. King counseled the eighth, tenth, and twelfth grades and made sure that students received adequate information and help on scholarships, making out programs which best fit their planned careers, and job placement.

Mr. King is always eager to answer questions and aid the students of East in every possible way.

Helping in the office as proctors are Roberta Burton, Linda Eidson, and Paula Cassity.

Pausing a second to converse with Mrs. Potts, secretary, are Mr. Williams and Mr. Dickson.

Office Staff—Backbone of the School

Through the early morning hours, the office is turned into a "Grand Central Station." Even through hustle and bustle, a friendly "Good Morning" can be heard from any of the dependable office workers.

Mrs. Helen Watson, registrar, is in charge of all the records and is secretary to Mr. C. O. Williams. She also makes out transcripts, senior indexes, and senior ranks.

A few of the responsibilities of Mrs. Margaret Potts are serving as the counselors' secretary, taking dictation, typing, and sending out all required letters.

Checking the attendance and making out the yearly report at the end of the year, composes a big job for Mrs. Mina Eubank.

Mrs. Geneva Blencoe, general secretary, takes charge of typing all bulletins and reports.

The chance for a lull to come in the office leaving the women nothing to do is a "once-in-never" proposition, for the office is, without a doubt, the backbone of the school.

Staff and Proctors Manage Orderly Cafeteria

Mrs. Erva Greer came to East for the first time this year, as cafeteria manager. She transferred from Manual High School where she served for several years. She has proved her efficiency through capable and smooth management.

Reading, writing, and arithmetic are the essentials of a well-trained student. But, food for the body is as necessary as food for the mind in the well-being of every student. The former is made possible by our excellent, smooth-running cafeteria staff.

Delicious food in great abundance is prepared by the staff each morning to be served to the five lunch periods beginning with third hour.

Another important crew of the cafeteria is the cafeteria proctors who work right with the cafeteria staff in seeing that the students receive their lunches quickly and efficiently and to see that order is preserved. The proctors, members of the junior and senior classes, are under the supervision of Mr. L. Clayton Dickson.

The entire cafeteria staff paused in front of the dessert counter long enough to have this picture snapped. They were about to welcome the rush.

Unknown to most students is the back room of the cafeteria. In this room originated the cakes, pies, and all main courses of daily meals.

Healthy Students Are Happy Students

Two indispensable service groups at East, always in demand and always ready to help, are the health and custodial services. Under the capable direction of Miss Esther Frantz, serving her second year at East, the health center is regarded as a place where understanding and consideration can be expected.

Guided by Mr. R. E. Howard, head custodian-engineer, the entire custodial staff is highly respected by faculty and students alike for their willingness to cooperate and their understanding of necessary student activities. Great pride is taken in keeping the building and grounds well groomed and in top shape.

The East High School Parent-Teacher Association is headed by Mrs. Harold Mann. The purpose of the P.T.A. is to promote better relations between the students, parents, and teachers. They try to give every student the best advantage in all types of education, such as mental, physical, and spiritual.

This year, as in previous years, they sold food at the football games and gave much of the money to East to use for something they might want.

The P.T.A. sponsored a party for the '59 graduates. It was an all-night party with an early morning breakfast. This has been the first of its kind and they hope to have more in the future.

Polio, red cross, and many other drives were participated in by the P.T.A. Our teen town was also

Bears Split Two Non-League Tilts

The East Bears finished their 1958 football season in a tie for third in Interscholastic League play. Head Coach Virland Harris and Coach Harry Driefus led the powerful squad to a league season of five wins to two losses and no ties. The Bears split two non-league games at the beginning of the season. East's combined season record resulted in six wins, three losses, and no ties. The Bears were a constant threat for the Interscholastic League Championship, for they suffered their only two league defeats as their last two games of the season. Had these been won, East would have tied for the championship with the Southeast Knights.

The Bears opened their 1958 season with a heart-breaking non-league loss to the William Chrisman Bears on Friday, September 12, at Chrisman. The Chrisman eleven took advantage of every break to down East 12-8. East lost at least three touchdowns due to penalties in the course of the game. East's only scores came from a touchdown plunge by Gery Kauffman and a safety at the close of the first half.

Down but not out, East met the Glennon Eagles in a rare Saturday afternoon tilt on September 20 at "Snag that pass!" End Gene Cope landed another pass for valuable yardage against befuddled Glennon tacklers.

Nowlin Field. The squad soothed any indignation caused by their Chrisman loss by outsizing and overpowering Glennon with a 41-13 victory. Half-backs, Dean Tomlin and Gery Kauffman, nailed two touchdowns apiece for scoring honors. This powerful Glennon romp became a valuable boost to the Bears' morale to brace them for their league opener on the following week.

The football team patiently awaited the after-dinner entertainment at the annual football banquet.

Bruins Ruin Indians and Pirates

On Thursday night, September 25, the Bears, under Coach Harris, opened their Interscholastic league play with championship form by subtly pounding the Southwest Indians, 25-7. Nowlin Field rocked with East's enthusiasm as the Bears played coolly, allowing few fumbles or penalties and taking full advantage of all possible breaks.

East's scoring came from halfback Dean Tomlin, quarterback John Finrock, end Gene Cope, and fullback Jerry Womack. Tomlin led the field with a 17-yard plunge and a 71-yard scoring jaunt to rack up twelve points.

On Friday, October 3, East met the Paseo Pirates on Nowlin Field. The injury-ridden Pirates put up little resistance as the Bears rolled over them. Both teams scored comparatively heavy although East held a tremendous lead in this purely offensive game. The final gun ended a colorful contest with a final score of 58-21.

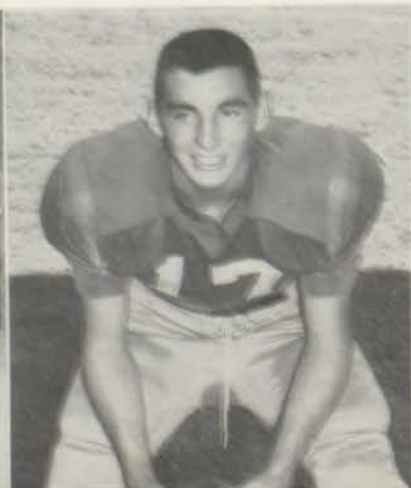

Scoring honors for the night went to Senior quarterback John Finrock, who ran for four touchdowns. Halfbacks Dean Tomlin and Gery Kauffman each accounted for two touchdowns.

Falcons Get Plucked

October 9 found East on Nowlin Field pitted against the Van Horn Falcons for its third league game. The Bears found the underrated Falcons a more formidable opponent than they had anticipated. However, East's powerful ground offense succeeded in pulling down a 12-6 victory. All predictions were coming true: East was championship bound.

The Bears started their scoring early as halfback Dean Tomlin claimed our initial touchdown in the first quarter. Neither team threatened again until late in the game. The Falcons were able to crack the Bear defense for only one touchdown. The Bears, however, followed up with another score to retain their coveted lead. Conversions for both teams failed. The final gun ended a tight game with East emerging victorious.

Quarterback John Finrock fails in a last-minute U-turn to avoid a Falcon menace.

"This isn't cricket!" exclaimed John Finrock as he bucked three tacklers.

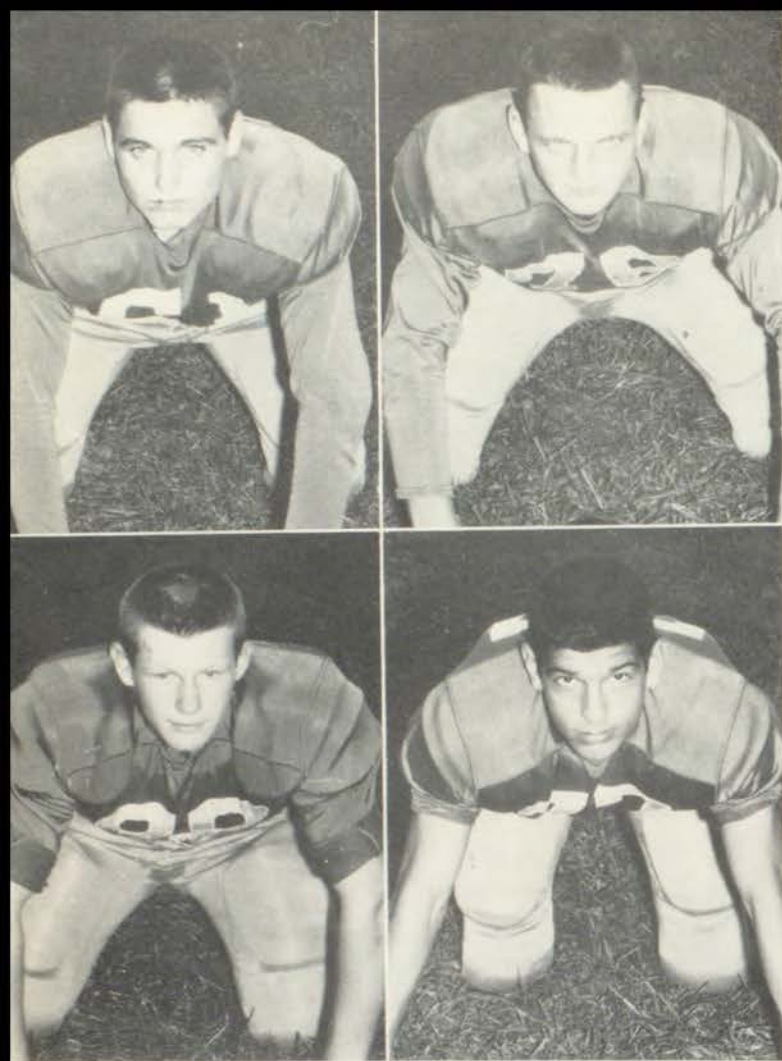

Bears Fade Tigers' Stripes

On October 17, Nowlin Field was the scene of another East victory. This time the Lincoln Tigers were the runners-up by a score of 12-6. The battle was hard-fought and gave further proof that East's versatile eleven would not be downed easily.

In the first half, although both teams had the opportunity, neither was able to score. The second half, however, sealed the fate of the Tiger men when the Bears scored on a pass play from John Finrock to Tony Rodak. Albert Miller raised the total to 12 in the last quarter. Lincoln scored only once in the course of the game on an 86-yard end run but failed in their attempted conversion.

Both teams seemed to be moving well in the last quarter when the Bears took the situation into hand and added the finishing touches. This victory paved the way for the so-called "Cinderella" team to scramble the Blue Eagles of Central in a homecoming duel which preserved East's claim to a first place tie with the Southeast Knights.

Blue Eagles Lose Altitude

Friday, October 24, saw the downfall of the Blue Eagles of Central at East's Nowlin Field. The powerful Bear squad shattered the thirteen-game winning streak of the stunned Eagles before a huge homecoming crowd by an overwhelming score of 33-6.

Bob McDaniel scored the first touchdown when he blocked a punt in the Central backfield and raced down the middle 45 yards for the score. Gene Cope, later in the first half, blocked another Central punt, and Bob Scott scored from the two-yard line. Gery Kauffman, Scott, and Cope scored the remaining touchdowns, Cope scoring on a pass play from John Finrock.

Central's tally came from a touchdown pass in the latter part of the first half. East's stonewall defense and bulldog attack paralyzed the unfortunate Eagles from the beginning until the final gun.

Vikes End Bears' String

Friday, October 31, found the East Bears preparing to battle the Northeast Vikings at Nowlin Field. The Bears had won five league games with no losses to date and were tied for first in the league, whereas the Vikes had dropped one game to the Central Eagles.

An enthusiastic Northeast homecoming crowd enjoyed festivities and witnessed the Viking offense catch East's defense sitting. Northeast backs acted the part of rabbits as they threw a barrage of scamp-ering end runs at the Bears. East's brick wall of defense retaliated, however, to hold the Vikes to two touchdowns while the Bears took their offensive part. The game proved to be a very tense and close contest as both teams strained for a break which did not come. At the final gun, East had come through with only one touchdown as compared to the two Northeast tallies. East's powerful ground attack had fallen short as the victory went to Northeast, 12-6. This Viking victory set the two teams in a tie for second place in the league with 5-1 records.

East's only touchdown was scored by end Gene Cope on a pass from quarterback John Finfrock late in the third quarter.

"What's going on there!" Mike Nash stared fixedly as two Vikes pinned speedy Gery Kauffman.

Westport Claims Second East Loss

On November 7, the East Bears met the Tigers of Westport under the lights of East's stadium for the final game of the Bears' season. The Bears, who were in second place with a 5-1 record, were out to capture a Tiger, but the hunters fell prey to the crafty hunted. The bout ended in a final score of 20-12 with Westport the victor.

The Bears scored twice as John Finrock carried for both tallies. Westport edged the East team by the narrow margin of one touchdown.

The Bear's loss to Westport marked the end of East's 1958 football year. Their losses to the Vikings and the Tigers placed them in a tie for third in league play.

East placed two members on the city's all-star team for the season. They were guard Bob McDaniel and end Gene Cope, both of whom were standouts on offense and defense. Gery Kauffman, halfback, landed a berth on the second team. Those receiving honorable mention were end Tony Rodak, tackle Lowell Fisher, back Dean Tomlin and back John Finrock.

Cubs Gain Second Berth

The Bear Cubs of East finished their 1958 season with an excellent record of six wins and one loss. The Bears dropped their only game to the Van Horn B-squad and thus slipped into second place with Southeast topping the list.

Under the leadership of Coach Harry Driefus and Gene Sebastian the Cubs practiced, and co-ordinated themselves into a smooth, well-organized team. The varsity is the next step up for the B-team players, and 1959 promises to be an even better year than the 1958 season.

This year's B-team ran off a straight T formation, and their offense was predominantly a ground one as they threw few passes. On defense, the Cubs used a 7-2-2 umbrella and a 5-4-2 arrangement.

Bears Rank Near Cellar

The 1959 East varsity basketball squad completed their season with a discouraging record of two wins and seven losses for Interscholastic League play. The Bears started their schedule off with a victory over the outclassed Manual Redbirds but lost all of the remaining games except for one other duel with Westport.

The Bears did better in the non-league contests, however, to rack up a total of three wins and five defeats. Dean Tomlin was an outstanding example of fine defensive playing while Albert Miller and John Finrock carried on the attack for the Bruins. Although East promised to be a top-notch team, luck was not with them as they lost most of their games by such narrow margins as one and two points.

St. Joseph Central Falls

On December 2, the East Bears opened their season by engaging the St. Joseph Central team, at St. Joseph. The Bears edged out the St. Joseph squad, runners-up in the State Class L Tournament, by a score of 42-40.

Until the last quarter neither side had been able to score extensively. In the last few seconds of the contest both teams began to turn on the power. Albert Miller displayed very remarkable skill in this part of the game, scoring 16 points in the closing minutes of the last quarter. Finally, with 14 seconds to go and the score at 40-40, Miller fired a long shot to rack up two more points and thus win the game.

Dean Tomlin accepts the second place trophy at the finals in the North Kansas City Tournament.

Chrisman Surprised 42-41

The skillful East squad had defeated a powerful St. Joseph team and were on their way to the semi-finals against William Chrisman on December 4. In this fight the East Bears emerged victorious by a score of 42-41.

As was the case in previous games and as was the case in many games to follow, East scored very successfully in the first half and moved very rapidly to a point of advantage with a 16-point lead. The East Bruins, however, could not seem to hit their charity shots. Then in the third quarter Chrisman began its move to equalize the score. Finally, the Chrisman team caught and passed the Bears of East. Chrisman's lead, however, was quite shaky, and as a result, Albert Miller came to the rescue again in the last seven seconds to dribble down court and score the winning basket for East. This victory sent East to the finals.

Bruins Slip in N. K. C. Tourney

The victories over William Chrisman and St. Joe Central brought East to the championship game of the N. K. C. tourney with North Kansas City. In the first half of the game the Bears surged ahead, scoring a remarkable amount of field goals. The battle at mid-game seemed completely one-sided as the score board registered tally after tally for the Bruin team. Then the buzzer sounded the end of the first half and the East fans relaxed—sure of victory since their team had opened up a gap of 16 points.

Mouths fell open at the start of the second half when the Hornets pressed the Bears, finally caught up and much to the surprise of the crowd, passed the bewildered Bruins to win the North Kansas City Tournament by a heartbreaking score of 45-44. East, however, did not retire empty handed. Second place was awarded to the demoralized Bears.

Outgunned by Raytown

December 9 saw the Bears defeated by Raytown in their first non-conference game of the 1958-59 season. The East fans were stunned at the 58-50 loss with which the Bluejays handed the Bears.

Coach Gene Sebastian's "rough and ready" five had maintained the lead in the game up to the half when Raytown pulled to within 3 points of East. In the third quarter the Bluejays added a full-court press to their defense. Then things began to happen. East was bottled up and unable to score as the versatile Raytown quintet pushed ahead undaunted. Missed free shots at this point were costing the Bears dearly, and slowly but surely Raytown caught up and then moved ahead to win.

Albert Miller was high pointer for the Bears with fifteen points.

Trojans Fractured 64-28

December 16 proved to be a lucky day for the Bears of East. On that Tuesday night the Bruins spilled the St. Mary's Trojans by a tremendous tally of 64-28. Even though the game was played at the St. Mary's gym there was a crowd of Bruin fans as large as that of the Trojan gathering.

The Bears took an early lead and maintained their great margin throughout the game. The routed Trojans fouled repeatedly, and the Bruins were able to pick up 20 points in free throws as a result. Finrock of East scored high with 23 points and Brody of St. Mary's followed with 15.

Another Southeast Knight bites the dust as Bob McDaniel (25) grapples for the ball.

Hogan Sneaks by 49-43

Hogan amassed a total of 49 points to maul East on the Ram court in one more of the Bears' non-league contests. Bob McNamara of Hogan helped East to her defeat with a deadly jump shot which permitted his team to hold a half-time edge of 25-24. The margin grew in the second half as Hogan retained command of the court.

The Bears suffered the loss of Wyatt Britt on fouls before the first half was completed. Albert Miller, however, fought back and led the scoring for East with 20 points.

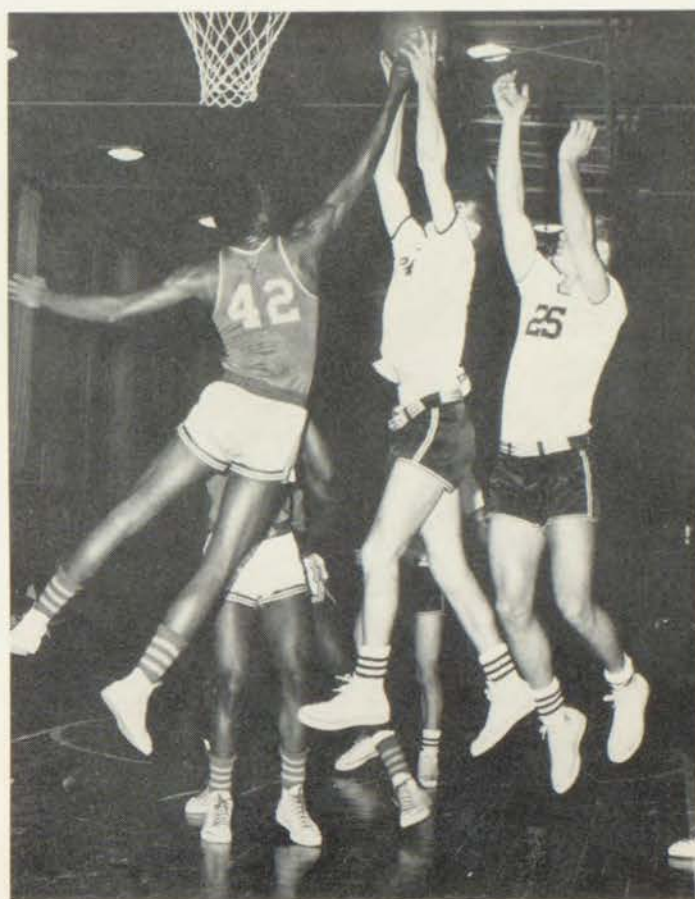

Manual Mashed by Bears

The Bears were off to a flying start on January 16 in their first league game with Manual High School at the Van Horn gym. The Green and Black racked up a total of 54 points as compared to 31 for Manual.

One of the deciding factors in the game was the difference in defense of the two squads. The Redbirds started with a man-for-man defense while East used a very effective zone positioning. The Bears were able to hold the Redbirds to only 6 field goals in the first half and 7 in the last half.

Dean Tomlin led the scoring for the Bears while Albert Miller and John Finfrock followed.

Wyatt "Moose" Britt (32) tries to get in on the act as three Central Eagles grope for the ball.

Two at a time. John Finfrock (24), backed up by Bob McDaniel (25), scores against the Manual Redbirds.

Eagles Claw Bruins

In their second league game the Bears were slighted by the Central Blue Eagles by a score of 38-33 on the Van Horn court. The Eagles were not able to widen the gap more than 5 points through the entire course of the game. Very little scoring was seen in the first half for either side.

Free shots were also frequent since both teams were under tremendous pressure—Central to keep their lead and East to overtake.

John Finfrock was high point man of the game with 16 points while Albert Miller and Dean Tomlin ranked second and third respectively.

Button, button! who has the button? Dean Tomlin (25) and Bryan Miller (33) go high as two William Chrisman cagers look on.

Cadets Too Strong

The De LaSalle Cadets easily handed the Bears their fifth loss as they hit an amazing 61 per cent of their field goals. The Cadets shot mostly from the outside and literally tore the East defense to shreds.

John Finrock made a gallant effort to equalize De LaSalle's onslaught with a show of 21 points; however, East constantly lagged behind.

The end of the game saw the De LaSalle squad victorious. The East team had been dealt a frightful defeat as four opposing players scored in the double number bracket to extinguish Bruin hopes.

East Bows to Indians

East cagers dropped their second league game to the red-hot Southwest Indians. The Redskins swept the nets to scalp 62 points from the East defense as the Bears obtained 51.

Although Albert Miller sank 19 points from back court and John Finrock drove and jumped for 18, Southwest players continually outscored the Bruins. And again, despite outstanding defensive efforts from Dean Tomlin and Bob McDaniel, Indian marksmen hit 47.2 per cent of their field goals.

Van Horn Victorious

On January 29, the Van Horn Falcons became the fifth team in a row to trounce the East Bears in a close contest by a score of 49-40. The Bears tried vainly to pull the game out of the fire in the third quarter, but it was of no avail.

Again scoring stars John Finrock and Albert Miller, rightfully dubbed as the league's number one scoring combination, totaled 31 points. Although their loss to Van Horn was a discouragement, the Bears of East showed true spirit in their game with William Chrisman which followed.

Chrisman Overwhelmed

The East Bruins finally, on February 3, chalked a game in the victory column by soundly taking the William Chrisman Bears at Chrisman High by a margin of 52-41.

The Bruins of East pulled out in front early in the game and were able to keep their lead to such an extent that at one point the entire A squad was removed and the second team was sent in to take over. The game was quite an encouragement to the discouraged East boys since they had won only one league game so far during the season. It was a sad note to realize that this non-league victory could not help East in its ailing league status.

Knights Spear Bears

On February 6, the East Bears traveled to Southeast in an effort to win their second league game of the season, but their attempt was in vain as the powerful five of Southeast edged the Bears, 47 to 44, in a sluggish game that saw very little action in the first half. In the second half, however, field goals fairly rained down. When the last quarter rolled around Albert Miller found the range and the Knights were unable to hold him down as he kept the Bears neck-and-neck with the Knights.

Albert Miller was high point man of the contest with 25 points; John Finfrock scored 8, and Dean Tomlin totaled 5.

Downed By Vikes

The Bears' record was stamped with loss number five for league play when East battled their bitter rivals, the Northeast Vikings, at Van Horn on what proved to be an unlucky Friday 13.

Ed Maxwell of Northeast led the way with 21 points while Albert Miller, guarded by two Northeast players, was held to six field goals. In the last quarter the scores were within three points of being identical. Later, in the last few minutes, however, the Vikings pulled away to leave the Bears holding the short end of the score.

East's John Finfrock (24) battles it out with two Central Eagles for possession.

"Which way did he go?" John Finfrock scores another basket against the Westport Tigers.

Lincoln Triumphs 47-46

An attempt to dethrone the undefeated Tigers of Lincoln on their home court on February 20 proved unsuccessful.

The Bears played with championship form throughout the game but were edged out in the last minutes by a one-point margin making the score 47-46.

The Bruins took the lead from the Tigers early in the second quarter and kept on dishing it out until the final minutes. The Tigers staged a brilliant come-from-behind victory with superb ball handling and red hot shooting.

Paseo Shanghais Bruins

The Bruins of East felt the disappointment of another loss, this time to the Paseo Pirates. The game was a fight for the lead until the very last. Paseo found the aggressive Bears determined that Paseo would wind up walking the plank; but Paseo had different ideas as the game ended in a 44 to 39 victory for the Pirates.

John Finrock of East led the scoring with a 22 point total. The Bears, even with such an exhibition of scoring, were always two or three points back.

Scott Spalding was the outstanding player of the game since he was able to hold Albert Miller to 3 field goals through the course of the game. Aside from this he poured in eight consecutive free throw shots to put the game on ice.

This loss put the Bears down into next to last place in a tie with the Westport Tigers.

Tigers Captured

On February 27 the East Bruins pasted the Westport Tigers with another loss which raised East into ninth place. This was East's second league victory of the 1959 season. The Bears outplayed the Tigers for a 51-40 win at Southeast High School.

Both teams found it difficult to score from the field, but the Bears were finally able to pull away near the end to slip win number two into the bag. Dean Tomlin was high man for East with 20 points while Bucher of Westport scored 26 to top the list. John Finrock scored 16 points, in addition to Tomlin's 20, to paralyze the Westport five.

The Bears outscored the Tigers both in the field goals and in free shots. This left East with two wins and seven losses in league play.

Norsemen Scorch Bears

East lost its first game of the regional tournament to the Northeast Vikings at William Chrisman High School. With a score of 56-37 the Vikes walked off with the victory and abruptly ended East's chances to compete in the remainder of the Tournament.

Dennis Elmore and Albert Miller of the Bruin squad kept the Norsemen on their toes late in the final period. The Vikes, however, increased their attack and finally pulled away and maintained the lead until the buzzer sounded.

Ed Maxwell scored high with 17 points while John Finrock of East was held to an unusually low total of 6 points.

This game marked the end of East's basketball season for the year of 1959.

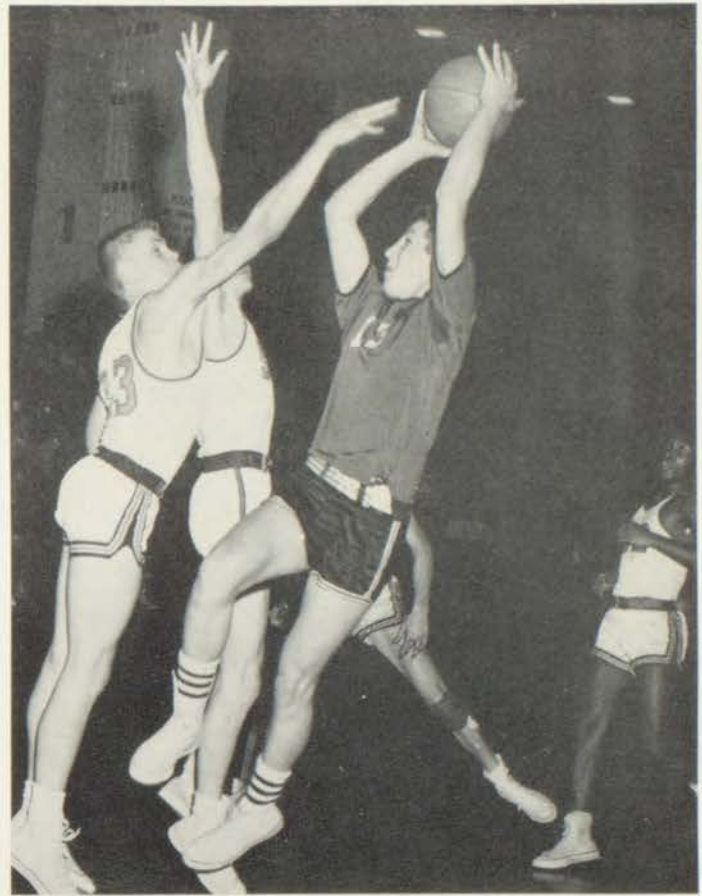

Cubs Show Promise As Future Varsity Basketeers

Playing hustling ball all season long under the tutelage of Assistant Coach Harry L. Driefus, the Cubs clearly demonstrated their ability to step into the shoes of the varsity next season.

Because of their skill in ball handling and ability to hit, several of the Cubs were moved up to varsity before the close of the season. Bryan Miller and Dennis Elmore played regularly with the first squad after mid-season, and creditably did their part to make the Bears the most dangerous team in the league.

Composed mostly of sophomores and juniors, they lacked experience, but made up for this in hustle and fire. Russell Hammett, on some occasions, seemed unable to miss, as he led in scoring for the season. Others whose play stood out were Tim Bishop, Larry Myers, Ronnie Johnson, and Chuck Quenette.

Fundamentals and ball control, coupled with accuracy at the free throw line, made their season quite successful.

Cindermen Show Strength in Strong Season

Devoting his attention entirely to track, Coach Roy Brown, dean of the coaching staff at East, came up with his usual strong team, especially in the distance events. Keeping his boys in shape all during football and basketball seasons with cross country work, when spring arrived, he had everyone ready for endurance.

He also initiated the Santa Fe Relays, which are held the last week in April annually, and which is proving to be one of the strongest meets in the area. The fact that the district qualifying meet for state competition is also held under his supervision shows with what regard he is held statewide.

Again this year, as in the past, track officially began with the Big Eight meet in Municipal Auditorium. Although we failed to place, we did show promise of having hurdlers and distance runners.

Journeying to William Jewell for their invitational meet, East finished third, behind Northeast and Central. Out of fourteen competing teams in our own Santa Fe Relays, fourth place was earned. Following in quick succession came the St. Joseph relays, the district, state, and city meets, in all of which East was near the top.

Bears Down Tigers in Dual

The first dual meet, with Westport, found the Bears winning, 63-41. With eight firsts and six seconds, victory was never in doubt. Washington in the dashes, Rhoades, the hurdles, Thomsen in the mile, Vaughn, 880-yd. run, Finrock, broad jump, Gragg, pole vault, Potts, high jump, and a winning 880 relay team added up to victory.

Bears Place Third at Jewell

With 25 area schools in competition at the William Jewell relays, the third-place finish of the Bears was certainly an indication of strength. Northeast, with 34 points, was the victor, with Central in the runner-up spot with 25 points. The Bears' 17 points came from a first by Rhoades in the high hurdles, and several second and other places.

Looking at the birds, as in the group picture, Jack Ballas soars high over the bar.

Santa Fe Relays Finds Bears Fourth; Central Is Winner

880 relay team: Calvin Rivers, Alvin Washington, Carl Rhoades, Richard Harbor.

The third annual invitational, newly named Santa Fe Relays, was attended by 14 of the strongest teams in Greater Kansas City. On a fast track, several records were shattered, as Central moved out front, where she remained in several successive meets.

Paced by Burgette and Lynk, Central's two speedsters, even Rhoades was pressed to place first in his strongest event, the high hurdles, and second in the lows. Raytown, with extremely strong distance runners, finished second.

Failure to win our strongest event, the two-mile relay, moved us into fourth position behind Northeast, whose $26\frac{2}{3}$ points gave them the third place trophy.

Tennis Becomes Stronger Minor Sport

As this section of the Eastonian goes to press, word was just received that the Bears had finished sixth in the St. Joseph relays, Central the winner, with Raytown, North Kansas City, Southeast, and Paseo finishing in that order. The Bears had 14 points, but failed to win any first places. This leaves the district qualifying meet, the city meet, and the state meet yet to be held.

With tennis taking on a regular schedule, and state tournament competition to face, the eight men who comprise the East tennis team have shown that they are able to match the best in the city. With victories over North Kansas City, William Chrisman, and Southeast, hopes are high for placing in the state tournament.

Coach Harry H. Hommes is in charge of tennis, and gives the boys every opportunity to compete. In spite of rain and other handicaps, enthusiasm continues as success follows.

This year a swim show, directed by Miss Roberta Reid, physical education instructor, was presented May 7 and 8. Consisting of eleven numbers, synchronized swimming accompanied by music was skillfully executed by the participants.

Sportsdays are always eagerly anticipated by the girls who are in advanced classes. These are usually hockey, basketball, softball, and other skills. They are held at various high schools throughout the city.

Hockey, Baseball Hold Fall, Spring Interest

Teamwork and sportsmanship top the list of things girls learn in physical education. Through this course the girls have exercise and training which enables them to keep up their health and activities.

The girls play indoor sports during the winter and early spring. Many of the activities include volleyball, basketball, swimming and other interesting sports.

Outdoor sports include softball, soccer, hockey, and many varied exercises such as jumping jacks and running around the track.

Modern dancing and synchronized swimming are becoming very popular. This year the classes took more interest in these two parts of their class activities. In the Outburst and music festival the girls did a modern dance. The synchronized swimming club gave the school a program on May 7 and 8, which proved to be very interesting.

They promoted a safety assembly and put up posters in the front halls. M. I. P. A. Visits Columbia

Leaving school at 6:00 A.M. via Continental Trailways bus was only the start of a week end which some forty Echo and Eastonian staff members spent at Missouri university, Columbia, Missouri, during the Missouri Interscholastic Press Association annual convention.

Upon their arrival in Columbia, they "moved in" their new home, the Daniel Boone hotel, where they proceeded to "take over" just as they were accustomed to do at home. A sudden shower prevented some from attending the morning session, but those competing in the news writing contest made it.

The real highlight of the trip came Friday evening at the convention banquet, when the East girls, 36 strong, walked in, wearing large white mums. The boys, at this time at least, were very proud of their delegation. Stunts were performed by the several schools present, and following a speech, nominations for student officers were made. The East group, nominating Nancy Hubler for secretary, succeeded in frightening out the opposition, and she had no opponent.

Upon the return to the hotel, campaigning began in earnest, and parties began to progress everywhere. The group, one of the largest present, were treated royally by presidential campaigning committees, and even though "lights out" brought a halt to the revelry, room parties continued.

Just before the balloting, a hearty breakfast was eaten by those who were "awake" after an arduous evening.

Ready for the return trip home, none the worse for wear, are the delegates to the M. I. P. A. convention in the hotel lobby.

To get a bite to eat on the way home, the bus load of some forty tired and bedraggled juniors and seniors reluctantly agree to pose for a picture in front of their "home" on the road.

Successful Activities Highlight Year for Eastonian Staff Members

1959 Eastonian Staff—Co-Editors

Co-Editors of the 1959 Eastonian staff were not revealed until the first of October. Mr. William K. Prewitt, sponsor of the yearbook, chose three persons from his very capable staff to keep the book rolling.

Phil Phillips, Literary Co-Editor, and his assistants, Anita Thomas, first semester, and Jack McPike, second semester, found many duties typing, helping design layouts and editing all copy.

Managing all the paste-ups of pictures and approving pictures for the engravers was Harry Fogliani, Co-Editor, with his assistant, Linda Gandy.

Kay Carter, Business Co-Editor, and her assistant, Roni Henry, kept activities hopping to pay for the yearbook costs.

1959 Eastonian Staff

The first activity of the year was publishing the Homecoming Echo, of which Pat Yocum had charge.

Next came a trip to Missouri University for the M.I.P.A. Conference. There several contests were held and new state officers elected for next year's conference.

Soon following, the annual kick-off assembly was held. Eastonian Queen nominees were presented in this assembly.

Toward the last of January, the Echo and Eastonian staffs made a trip to Kansas University to tour the journalism department and select an Eastonian Queen. Many murals were seen being worked on by all staff members carrying out the theme "Fantasy" for the Eastonian Ball, which was held January 30.

The King and Queen of Hearts mixer was held in the boys' gym. The King and Queen were crowned to top off a very exciting Valentine dance.

Homecoming a Success

A crisp, clear night set the scene for East's fifth annual homecoming game and festivities.

The team met the Central Eagles on the gridiron, and defeated them, 33 to 6, while East Bears went wild with enthusiasm.

The half-time ceremonies, though lacking the Literary Society floats, consisted of the band, ROTC Honor Guard, Pep Club, and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Miss Judith McCluhan, by last year's queen, Myra (Berry) Wolfe.

Judy, with her escort, Kenny McLeod, passed through the Honor Guard to their seats located mid-field. There Judy and her attendants, Linda Ruberson, Anita Thomas, Pat Bowman and Charlene Shalley viewed the remainder of the game.

The Homecoming dance which immediately followed the game drew a crowd of six hundred. The highlight, a fashion show, were models Larry Smith, Jack Ballas, Gene Cope, Bob McDaniels, and Gery Kauffman, all members of the A squad. Truly, October 24, 1959, was a night to remember.

The latest Paris Fashions were displayed by top models exclusively for the homecoming dance.

Her majesty Judy McCluhan enjoyed the glamor of leading the homecoming parade during half time ceremonies.

The queen and her escort, Kenny McLeod, move to receive coronation honors.

Numerous couples drifted lazily across the Minute Circle dance floor on the newly inaugurated Snowball Dance.

Teen Town Becomes Bears' Den

The Bears' Den, a new name chosen for East's teen town, holds a dance every Saturday night at Minute Circle Friendly House.

There are thirteen members on the Bears' Den committee, with Kenny Williams, president; Linda Wilson, vice-president; Kathleen Leach, secretary; Bill Iiams, sergeant-at-arms; and Carol Brummett and Mike Houtchens, mascots. The other seven members represent each of the school's classes.

This Bears' Den committee paused from their St. Patrick's Day decorating to have their picture snapped.

This committee meets on Monday nights; their purpose is to decide on records to buy, dance decorations, and to try to keep school spirit up. The sponsors are Mrs. Ruby Parks and Mr. Rosco Birell.

On December 22, a special formal Christmas dance was held. The committee nominated five girls for Snowball Queen of 1959. Barbara Snowden, elected by popular vote, was crowned that night.

Bill Iiams, Carol Brummett, and Shamrock, too, all balance on a Minute Circle stepladder.

1958 Outburst

"Day-O" featured Arlin Renfrow, Phil "Bongo" Phillips, Jack McPike, and Bob McMenemy in a rollicking calypso pantomime.

Bryan Miller crooned "Stranger in Paradise" in a paradise of lovely girls.

"Topsy, Part II" provided background music for an interpretive dance by Sherrill Proctor.

Helen Hawk portrayed Humpty Dumpty in a very difficult and masterful dance.

East's annual talent show, the Outburst, again proved to be more popular than ever as the show played on the Friday and Saturday nights of November 22 and 23 to complete sell-out crowds. The show, under the direction of Mr. Donovan M. Mabbott, used "the talking fountain" as a theme and background scenery. This, the twenty-third annual production of the Outburst, used the largest cast seen in years. It was generally described by everyone as "a smash success."

A new policy was adopted for this year's show. The whole production was staged by students carefully selected for their experience and ability. Try-outs, scripts, advertising, and ticket sales were the main departments handled by student committees. This policy will probably be used by future shows due to its effectiveness.

Linda Ramsey displayed piano skill with "Near You."

"The Roaring Twenties" was brought to life by a swinging Junior line doing the Charleston.

Smash Success

The talking fountain itself was a true fountain featuring running water and colored lights. The show was centered around the life of a community fountain; no change of scenery was necessary which tended to link the show more closely together. Its voice was supplied by one of two girls for each night. The structure and mechanics of the fountain were taken care of by Mr. James C. Michaels who also is head of the stage crew.

Special recognition went to the director, Mr. Mabbott; Mr. Michaels for the fountain and for heading the stage crew; Mrs. Irene Lafayette for assisting the show's direction, and Mr. Marion W. Sell for conducting the Outburst orchestra.

"Calypso Rhythms" was the final act of the show and presented a unique spectacle under black lights.

The Sophomore line, dressed as huntsmen, gave the "Huntsmen's Ball."

"Goodbye, My Coney Island Baby" sang the popular Chordsmen.

Young Jimmy Proctor rolled the drums in the center of the jazz quintet.

The team of Robbins and Russell proved to be favorites as scrubwomen pantomiming "Big Daddy."

East's answer to Ricky Nelson is Kenny McLeod as he rocks out "Whole Lotta Shakin'."

A Cappella Choir and Officers Lead Busy Year

Mrs. Martha Kay

Mrs. Irene LaFayette
Director

Early morning rehearsals were nothing unusual for the A Cappella Choir. Besides presenting a Christmas and Easter program for the whole school in assembly, they also have required extra-curricular activities such as Outburst, Christmas Vesper services in an outside church, all-city choir spring school festival, state music contest at Missouri University, and extra concerts in churches.

The choir chooses officers each semester; these officers plan programs, run errands, give and receive lectures, and plan parties. During the Christmas programs this year at the grade schools, the director was taken ill, and a student director took over.

Chordettes

One select girls' vocal group is the East Chordettes. They are a branch of the choir and, therefore, have numerous engagements. Whether it be Outburst, Music Festival, or the State Music Contest, the Chordettes may be seen donning Sunday apparel or their emerald green corduroy outfits.

Chordmen

"Sing Me a Chanty" and "Coney Island Baby" are two of the many tunes harmonized by the East Chordmen. They, the male counterparts of the Chordettes, dress in emerald green sport coats, black slacks and bow ties. They, too, can be seen and enjoyed at any of the musical highlights during the year. One of their highlights was strutting across the Outburst stage brandishing straw hats in the right hands.

East Represented at State Music Contest

This page is devoted to those students who have represented East in solo and ensemble competition. It all started out when all the music classes sang two solos in the music room. A judge selected the better ones to compete at the city contest held at Westport this year. Here were students from all the schools in the city trying for a "one" rating so they could go to the district or regional contest at Kansas City University. This was the last step to Columbia and only those receiving a "one" rating at district were eligible for state.

The contestants were judged on tone, breath, support, poise, intonation, and diction.

They worked very hard. They felt that it was a very fine experience to be chosen to go to regional and state and Mrs. LaFayette looks upon it as an honor to be able to take so many fine contestants.

Four soloists represented East at the State music contest. They were, left to right: Allan Zimmerman, Stan Andrews, Bryan Miller, and Sharon Chartier.

All work and no play make the choir a dull group. After the Easter Assembly, the Choir took a day from work and had a bit of a party. The sopranos here are enjoying themselves, but it seems they are having a problem; they don't know whether they want to eat or talk. Minds do wander and so do baritones, which accounts for the male species in this picture.

"'Twas the Night Before Christmas" was the story sung to four grade schools in the area during the Christmas holidays. This is on the Kensington stage.

"Sit up straight, sing clear, keep time, and memorize," are Mrs. Irene LaFayette's favorite words, and here she is encouraging them.

(Bottom Row) Posing for a picture is part of getting ready for contest. They sing, too, but this is just between songs.

Last-minute rehearsal is what the Chordettes are doing. They sang that night.

The line-up. The Chordmen can often be seen like this. They enjoy their singing, so they usually stand around grinning, just before they take off.

(Left) This is the double quartet. It is made up of two members of each section: soprano, alto, tenor, and bass.

(Bottom) The Chordettes made new outfits this year, and they wear them only when they sing. They consist of a green skirt and vest with black music note, and white blouses.

(Bottom) "Get some life into it," says Mrs. LaFayette as she merrily bounces on her foam rubber chair.

"They call it football," says Bert Shick in his pantomime of the famous Andy Griffith record. The stage is set in the informality of the 1959 Outburst.

The A Cappella Choir had their sing in the Outburst and it was entitled "Red Wing." Everyone is extremely happy in this picture because they got to wear their blue jeans.

Music Students Presented 4th Annual Music Festival

On March 20 East High School saw the production of the fourth annual Musical Festival under the direction of Mrs. Irene LaFayette. Seventy-eight members of the A Cappella Choir and the Girls' Choir sang songs which were religious and songs which were light in nature while Mr. Donovan M. Mabbott led the eighth grade and freshman music classes in a series of folk songs. The Chordettes and Chordmen sang songs which were later presented at the Regional Music Festival held at the University of Kansas City.

The 1959 Music Festival was an overwhelming success and provided experience for newer members of East's vocal music department. The show was carried on through the cooperation of all members of the music staff as well as persons like Mr. Michaels who heads the stage crew, the custodian staff, and many teachers not connected directly with music.

Girls' Chorus Is Kept Busy Throughout Year

The Girls' Chorus appeared in numerous programs during the year; the Outburst, Music Festival and Easter Assembly were three of them. The Outburst was the scene of much color and gaiety as the Glee Club made a showing in formal gowns to sing both Friday and Saturday nights.

Basic vocal music training is given to the Chorus by their director, Mrs. Irene LaFayette, and her accompanist, Mrs. Martha Kay. This year's Chorus consisted of 51 girls, most of whom have been taking music since their eighth grade year.

For the Outburst, the Girls' Choir wore their formals. Later on in the year, they made pale green robes to wear.

Testing is a trying time. Each section gathers around the piano; then each person sings individually. Many worthwhile hours are spent this way. Each person has to be able to sing the complete song without making more than three mistakes in order to sing with the group.

Freshman Chorus Has Varied Activities

Under the able direction of Mr. Donovan M. Mabbott, the freshman chorus performed in the annual East talent show, the Outburst, and in the music festival. In order to present first-class performances, the students came early in the morning and stayed late after school for many rehearsals.

Many of the members for the A Cappella choir, Chordettes, and Chordmen are chosen from this group.

The freshman chorus has brightened many presentations with their harmony. Such programs, as the Outburst and Easter Assembly, have been benefited by their participation. Many directors have Mr. Mabbott and his groups to thank for excellent cooperation and performance. East can look forward to three more years of fine singing from a group of freshman singers who merit the school's respect and praise. They have successfully completed another year and have made a still greater stride in the furthering of their vocal education and development.

Among the many activities of the Freshman chorus was its participation in the annual Easter program.

In the Easter Assembly, students from the chorus portrayed the three wise men bringing gifts to the Christ Child.

Freshman Chorus Is Second Rung of Ladder

The Freshman Chorus is the second step up in East's vocal music world. After students in the Sub-Freshman Chorus complete their eighth grade year, and if they desire to continue in their vocal training, they start in as members of the Freshman Chorus of advanced freshmen, which is made up of both boys and girls and is under the direction of Mr. Donovan M. Mabbott. Later many of the music pupils are ready for the still more advanced groups of mixed chorus and even the A Cappella Choir, which is conducted by Mrs. Irene LaFayette.

From fall to spring the freshman chorus members are busy molding themselves into the vocalists and singing greats of tomorrow. Truly, Freshman Chorus has been a rewarding activity for East's newer students and East can surely be proud of its younger vocalists.

Mr. Mabbott conducts the freshman vocalists as they sing in the Easter assembly.

Hula Hoops, what else! The freshman chorus sings "Round and Round," during the Outburst.

"And the Band

This year, as years in the past, the various members of the Band and Orchestra once again prepared for the State Music Contest at Columbia, Missouri, which was held in April.

To be eligible, the participating ensembles and soloists had to receive an I or II rating from the judges at the city tryouts at Westport High School, and then an I rating at the district tryouts at Kansas City University. The strict ruling for eligibility was Joyce Sousley was among those members of the band who visited Columbia for the State Music Contest.

Richard Reed seems to be enveloped by his huge monstrosity of a horn. He also attended Columbia.

Played On”

something new added this year as an experiment to get better quality instead of quantity at the Contest. In previous years, any student could qualify with either an I or II rating at the City tryouts.

East High has always made an excellent showing at the Contest, and 1959 has been no exception. East's musicians have been a hard-working crew who work in earnest to keep up the good name of East.

Mr. Sell leads the band in the closing seconds of the first half of one of East's football games. Their fine playing gave the team that extra bit of encouragement that they needed.

Orchestra Helps Develop Future Talent

The orchestra, being a fairly small group this year, continued as usual to carry on the hard work as have orchestras in the past. It was necessary at times to add more volume to the orchestra by drafting members of the band in order to give the fine background for various programs in which they played for the line dances and vocal numbers, such as in the annual Outburst.

Under the direction of Mr. Marion Sell, they are busy working for the different events in which they play. Among these events, the "highlight" program of the year is the Music in Review presented in May. Many before and after school rehearsals were needed to arrive at the perfection which they desired.

Various individuals in the orchestra participated in the State Music contest as soloists and ensembles.

Much fun along with good honest work is received and enjoyed by every member of the orchestra.

Practice makes perfect. Linda Ramsey (piano) and Joyce Sousley spent much of the school year in the band room.

Mr. Sell leads his B-Band through musical selections ranging from Bach to boogie.

It could be a high note that Mr. Sell is reaching for, but nevertheless he always gets results with his little white baton.

Beginners Learn Musical Skills

From first to last, the object of the B-Band is to become members of East's marching band. Under the capable direction of Mr. Marion W. Sell, they practiced to maintain their goal.

These students know how to play their musical instruments, but are still learning and developing their skills. The pupils from this group fill the seats in the A-Band which graduating seniors leave.

The Beginners' band, or C-Band, also under the direction of Mr. Sell, learn to develop musical skills. They differ, however, in that they are only beginning to learn to play their instruments. This group includes brass, percussion, wood wind, and stringed instruments.

The beginners' group, or C-Band, held daily classes in the band room. Many members in this sect learned their skill rapidly enough to go directly into the marching band.

Linda Ramsey accompanied the orchestra while Mr. Sell led them through a mellow passage.

Drumm Farm isn't "all work and no play" as the boys also get their share of social life.

K.P. duty is just one of many tasks that the boys carry on at the farm.

Thirty-Three Drumm Boys Attend East

Located several miles east of Independence on Old Lee's Summit Road is the Andrew Drumm Institute. The home and school was started in 1928 by Andrew Drumm. Being a man of unselfish standards, he passed on his wealth not to his friends, but to the founding of a home for boys who want to get a good education.

This year there are 33 boys from the Institute attending East with a split program so that they may participate in athletics. There are 17 boys that go the first three hours and then home to study vocational agriculture, under the direction of Mr. R. P. Bruch, and there are 15 boys who have agriculture in the morning and come to school in the afternoon starting fourth hour.

All of the farming is done by the boys under the supervision of Mr. George Berkemeier, superintendent of the home, and Mr. Glen Taggart, foreman over the farming end of the farm.

The Andrew Drumm Institute provides a home and school for boys who want to learn.

While at the farm the boys learn how to care for the animals by working with them. Each boy is given a choice of agricultural projects.

Future Farmers of America

The Drumm Farm chapter of F.F.A. is one of two in the Greater Kansas City area, and is sponsored by Mr. Robert Bruch. Each year entries are made into district, state and national competition, usually with success.

This year, entries consisted of meat, livestock, poultry judging, and a radio skit. These placed first or second in district and represented in state contests.

Their officers this year were: President, Gery Kauffman; Vice-President, Gene Cope; Secretary, Don Rank; Treasurer, Archie Derrington; Reporter, Bill Fleming; Sentinel, Karlton Cockriel, and their adviser is Mr. Bruch.

Bill Fleming and Don Peattie receive their Drumm sweaters from Mr. George Berkemeier.

President Gery Kauffman addresses a typical F.F.A. meeting at Drumm Farm.

Developing into better citizens for the tomorrow world in strong bonds of their common interests, is carried out by the goals set forth by the Y-Teens, a junior branch of the YWCA.

Red Cross Presents Chest and Talent Show

The East High School chapter of the Junior Red Cross was quite an active organization this year, under the leadership of Mrs. Mary M. Bates, its sponsor. In addition to sending a gift chest to help less fortunate persons in a foreign land, the Red Cross also presented a talent show at the Veterans Hospital, many of the acts being chosen from the 1958 Outburst cast.

Instructions in first aid and water safety were also a part of the program of the Red Cross.

Engineers' Club Turns Gear Wheel of Progress

This year's Engineers' Club enjoyed one of its most prosperous years. Sponsors, Mr. Ralph Tiefel and Mr. C. B. McClure, aided the Engineers in gaining an unofficial membership record and succeeding in a club project. Their first semester crop of new members reached an unheralded twenty-six. Their project was that of painting directional arrows on the school's stairs in colors harmonious to the walls. This was the first time that East has had such arrows, and the Engineers were proud to claim the honor of accomplishing the task.

The club was founded in 1934 and adopted the gear wheel as its emblem upon foundation. A silver and green gear wheel represents their club pin.

Spanish Club Holds Year-Long Fiesta

The flowery Spanish language forms the basis of the Spanish club. This organization, made up of first and second year Spanish students, celebrates various dates and events tangible to Spanish customs. Their sponsor is Miss Lenore Thornton who is also the teacher of the subject.

They, as well as enjoying their own activities, joined in activities formed by other departmental clubs such as the combined Christmas party, and the youth achievement ceremonies.

The East High School chapter of the Junior Classical League (Latin Club) holds its meeting once a month in room 206, and Miss Virginia McClure provides the sponsorship for the organization.

The Junior Classical League Third Regional Convention which was attended by members of the East Club was held at Raytown Senior High School this year. Harold Schroer of Raytown (a former East Student) surrendered the office of President to Jim Hix of Southeast.

The study of the Latin Language is carried on most avidly by loyal members of this group and as almost any Latin student will tell you, Latin is most certainly not a dead language.

Future Business Leaders of America

The Future Business Leaders of America, under the supervision of Miss Mabel Mary Cobb, worked hard this year to promote a better understanding of the business world. The organization had as guests, speakers from different fields of business, who spoke to the members about modern business, and planning a business career. They also have sponsored the N.O.M.A. spelling contest and the anti-littering campaign for which cash prizes were offered.

The F.B.L.A. is a national organization and it is helping students everywhere to be more successful in finding a worthwhile career.

Art Club Paints Enjoyment

The Art Club is an organization which has been at East since 1926. Boys and girls join together for the purpose of promoting the enjoyment of art through a better understanding of it. Their colors are blue and orange, and their pen modeled from a tube of paint with a letter "E" on it and a brush crossed behind. Miss Agnes K. Crawford, their sponsor, and one of the art teachers, helps keep them active and interested. The club's highlights of the year were their trips to the Nelson Art Gallery and Kansas City Museum.

Speakers' Bureau Become Proficient Orators

The Speakers' Bureau, which was organized in 1952, is one of East's most popular minor clubs. Its members have taken part in many school activities including numerous assemblies, the annual "I Speak for Democracy" contest, and the Literary Contest. The purpose of the Speakers' Bureau is to give its members knowledge of techniques and practice in speaking before groups of people, and to furnish speakers for special occasions to help out the community and East High School.

Miss Eva Van Natta, the sponsor of the Speakers'

Bureau, has worked hard to develop the speaking talents of her students in this club. She has labored diligently throughout the entire year sponsoring such productions as the John N. Broadlick Citizenship assembly.

The members of this club have had a very busy year and have benefited from their experiences on stage developing their skill as the speakers of the future. These persons can most certainly be called proficient orators.

Automobile Drivers' Education

The A.D.E. classes do much more than learn to drive. The students taking this course learn the parts of the car, and what to look for when buying one. Mr. Richard Maeder and Mr. Robert Chenoweth instruct their students to drive with courtesy and intelligence.

They are told the main purpose of the A.D.E. program is not only to make expert drivers out of them, but also to expose them to the rules of the road, and help them develop correct driving skills and attitudes.

Pep Club Produces Lively

The '58-'59 Pep Club strove to change its activities to form a more interesting club and to improve school spirit by providing busses for the basketball games. Some of the activities they planned were: parties, hayrides, and programs for all their meetings.

The black and green corduroy jackets with East Bears on them, were seen at football games, basketball games, and wherever a loyal member happened to wander.

The first team cheerleaders led many enthusiastic crowds throughout the 1958 football season.

Joan Reinmiller, Vera Rau, and Dixie Stover lead another practice cheering session with Pep Club members in the study hall.

Mr. Mervel Lunn, sponsor, has given his time, patience, and loyalty as he, too, could be seen sporting the club jacket. He was greatly admired and appreciated by all the girls. Assisting Mr. Lunn as co-sponsor was Mrs. Gertrude Combs, who left at the second semester to become a full-time wife.

Masqueraders "Show Their Stuff" In Two Plays

The Masqueraders presented this year for East High School's enjoyment, a fall and spring play. But acting is not the only phase of drama taught by the capable Mrs. Etta Marie Carlisle.

Her classes studied parts of the stage, lighting, scenery, make-up, stage manners, and costumes. Few people realize how much work actually goes into the production of a play. If a person were to visit back stage during a production, they would be amazed at all the activity that goes on.

Carole Featherstone displays her evidence to eleven other women jurists in "Twelve Angry Women."

In the same play, Marge Russo, Carole Featherstone, and Francis Humphrey get "entangled" while Judy Enloe, left, starts to join in.

Allan Zimmerman, in a reverent mood, seems to be the center of attention in the Fall Play, "The Importance of Being Earnest."

Tea and cucumber sandwiches were served by the maid to Mary Sagehorn, Jack Neeley, and Ronnie French.

It was very important to Mary Sagehorn that Jack Neeley was Earnest; and he was. Charlene Shally watches the proceeding with content.

Spring and Fall Plays Well Received

Reginald Rose's "Twelve Angry Women," in three acts, was presented by the Masqueraders in the Spring Play, April 3, 1959.

The play took place in a dismal jury room where twelve angry women were to decide the guilt or innocence of a nineteen-year-old boy accused of the slaying of his father.

The audience laughed and cheered as one brave woman changed the minds of eleven angry women to a not guilty verdict.

Something a little new at East High School was the Masqueraders' presentation of "The Importance of Being Earnest" by Oscar Wilde.

Colorful costumes set the atmosphere for the mock English comedy in the late nineteenth century.

The play as a whole was well received by the faculty and students.

Athenians Strive for Fitness and Fun

Athenians is the name of the East sports club for girls who excel in athletics.

They began the year with various activities such as a picnic, tea, and a hula-hoop contest.

In order to promote better relations between faculty and students, the Athenians sponsored an eighth grade sock-hop for eighth grade girls in order to acquaint them with each other and to the Athenians.

They also sponsored and participated in a student-faculty volleyball game and a junior-senior basketball game. The money received from these events went into their treasury and then to improve their facilities.

This year, their project was to buy warm-up togs or "sweats" such as the boys have. They hope to have them for the next year's sportsday.

Three times a year, these girls meet in contests with girls from other schools in sportsdays. This year they held a hockey, basketball, and a softball sportsday.

They held meetings bi-weekly on Tuesday, and had Miss Roberta Reid as their sponsor.

Hamilton Literary Society

The year 1928 saw the formation of East's oldest boys' club, the Hamilton Literary Society. The purpose of the Blue and White is to further literary activity and to promote brotherhood. They uphold Alexander Hamilton as their ideal and Leundis as their sister club.

The Hamiltons had many good times at their rush parties and formal teas, and also are keeping up with the times as they revised their thirty-year-old constitution. They, with their able sponsors, Mr. Robert Buchanen and Mr. Roger Ward, worked doubly hard and succeeded in winning the Literary Contest for a second straight year. Their ability and perseverance has kept them as East's top club for a second year.

Leundis Literary Society

Leundis Literary Society, East's oldest all-girl club, was founded in 1926. The high standards of Leundis are displayed by their excellent participation in the annual literary contest, having won more top ratings than any other club in almost all school activities.

The Rose and Grey of Leundis, with their Hamilton brothers, completed another successful year and are working hard to meet the coming one. The Leundian sponsors, Miss Marie Burrus and Mr. Mark Christenson, add the finish to a most talented and colorful club. The refrain, "Leundians Forever," will surely echo through the halls of East for many years to come.

Kalailu Literary Society

Kalailu, under the sponsorship of Mr. Norman Ford and co-sponsorship of Mr. Francis McGreevy, successfully completed its 32nd year as a literary society at East. Kalailu, whose name means friendship, is East's oldest club, and its purpose is to create interest in and sustain fine literary work, to promote the use of parliamentary law and to foster a spirit of friendship among its members.

Kalailu wears the colors red and white and its membership is composed of both boys and girls; moreover, it is the only club at East to do so. Their club song is an adaptation of the Hawaiian War Chant. The club enjoyed many activities, from their rush parties to their formal teas and initiations.

Eulexia Literary Society

"That Eulexian girl is quite discreet" . . . This melodious phrase starts the song of one of East's largest clubs. Eulexia had their start in 1929 and have taken an active part in all school affairs consistently since then. The girls of the pink and blue have won their share of all contests in the past and present; they have prided themselves for consistently finishing among the top clubs.

Under their sponsor, Mr. William T. Ridley, and their co-sponsor, Miss Jesse Marie Willitt, the Eulexians again pushed hard in their efforts to finish tops.

Webster Literary Society

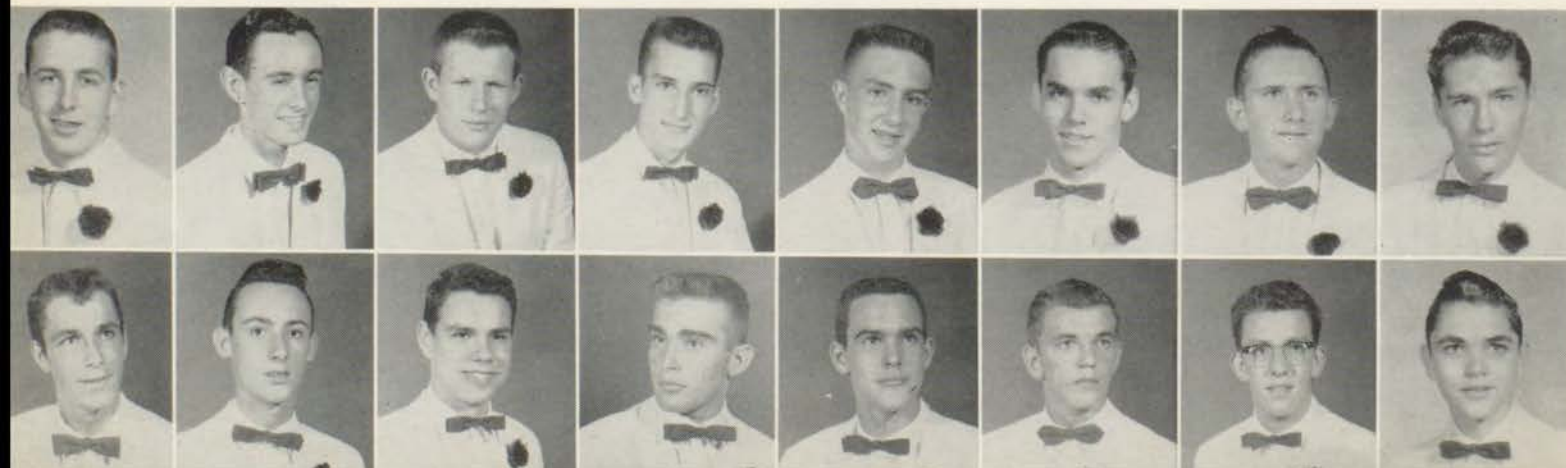

Webster Literary Society is recognized as being East's youngest society, for it was founded in 1937. Their youth, however, has proved no hindrance, as they have won their share of literary contests and more.

The lively boys in the black, gold, and crimson have enjoyed the many activities of the past year which include rush parties, their formal "milk," and, of course, the literary contest.

Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Richard Benson, with co-sponsor Mrs. Neva A. Hutton, the Websters have fared well in past years.

Hamiltons Win Second

Mr. Williams presents the Eva Van Natta plaque to Jack McPike, who represents the victorious Hamilton Club. This marked the second straight year that the Hammies have taken the number one position in the Lit Contest. The club placed in 5 events this year to rack up a total of 12 points.

Mike Asbury is congratulated by song leaders Phil Phillips and Arlin Renfrow while exuberant Leundis and Hamiltons go wild with delight.

Kalailu song leaders, Judy Enloe and Paul Thompson, prepare to lead the Red and White in another round of songs while Hamiltons patiently await their turn at singing.

Eulexia in their royal blue outfits stand to sing another round of songs just before Carolyn Hudson presented her declamation. Eulexia placed in four events to win a third place in the contest with seven points.

The Webster Literary Society exploded with joy as Dan Creasy is escorted from the stage after presenting his first place extemp.

Lit Clubs Decide Through Intersociety Council

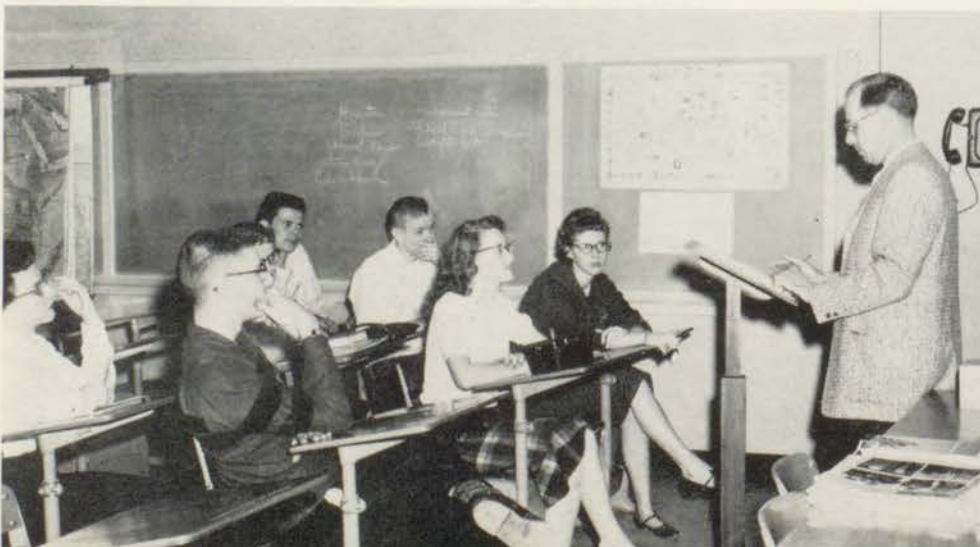

The Intersociety Council of 1959 again was recognized as a successful parley. Under their advisor, Vice-Principal L. Clayton Dickson, the first and second semester council determined and regulated literary society activities.

The council, during its active year, passed various points for the benefit of East's five societies. These were in general: stricter requirements to retain membership in a club, better organization of rush weeks, a minimum membership requirement for each club, and a proposed bill to give an activity point and lesser medals to fourth and fifth places in the literary contest.

The Intersociety council for each semester consisted of Mr. Dickson, the five club presidents, and an Intersociety Representative elected from each club.

Mr. Dickson carefully explains some rules to these second semester Intersociety representatives.

"My, aren't they silly looking," is the remark of these Kalailuans as they inspect their rushees.

"Eat hardy, boys," coaxes John Clarke to the two Webster rushees.

Lipstick, Cupcakes, and Formal Teas

This year the clubs at East, through intersociety, accomplished something never before tried. In order to make our rush weeks enjoyable, but without bringing scorn upon the clubs, Intersociety decided to hold a pre-rush week meeting. This meeting enabled girls and boys alike who were interested in belonging to a particular literary club to come and listen and ask questions of a panel consisting of two members from each club. Although many changes were made for the betterment of the clubs, it did not limit fun with the rushees. The clubs, in cooperation with the Eastonian staff, participated in the festivities at the annual Valentine mixer.

The Leundian officers are introduced to their rushees at the spring tea.

The Northeast Y was the location for the Eulexian tea.

Military

M/Sgt. Byrd E. Curtis

M/Sgt. Byrd E. Curtis came to East from Germany where he previously spent two years in the 10th Infantry Division. He spent one year as a skier and an Alpine climber in Colorado. For the next two years he was in Europe in the 45th Infantry. After returning to the states he re-enlisted as a M/Sgt. and was R.O.T.C. instructor in San Francisco, California, for five years.

Korea followed for two years, after which time he again came to the states before going to Germany. From his stay in Germany he came to Kansas City where he is now in charge of R.O.T.C. here at East.

Sgt. Curtis and his wife have three children, Stephen, 14, Sandra, 12, both of whom attend Northeast Jr. High, and Sidney, 9, who attends Scarritt. Sgt. Curtis met his wife while he was in Colorado where she was a registered army nurse. They have never lived in one place more than two years at a time.

Sgt. Curtis claimed one dance with Miss Marcia Staley at the annual R.O.T.C. Ball.

The 34th R.O.T.C. Circus was held on Friday, April 10, at 8:00 p.m. at the Municipal Auditorium. Several guests were presented after which the programs were put on by each school. East participated in Army games and drill team exhibitions.

There was a total of 1,250 cadets from the 10 schools in Kansas City, including the Wentworth Military Academy from Lexington, Mo.

Jo Ann Goodman, the 1959 R.O.T.C. Queen, was presented along with the other queens from the 10 schools.

There was a girls' drill team called the Indianettes that executed precision drills to the music played by the school band. They were from Shawnee-Mission North.

The firing of Garand rifles and two .30 caliber machine guns lighted up the entire auditorium like flashes of lightning.

There was an attendance of 5,000 at the Circus, and no doubt most of them left with ringing ears from the rifles and machine guns.

The Top Brass — Battalion Staff

These five boys were chosen to lead East's R.O.T.C. because of their ability and leadership qualities. Major Jerry Hall heads the Staff and behind him is Captain Don Stone, the Division Adjutant.

Captain Charles Armstrong heads the plans and training this year. He is doing a fine job to promote the betterment of R.O.T.C.

All officers were chosen by Sgt. Curtis, the Battalion Commander, a board of officers, and a series of tests given by the board.

The rifle team started with little experience, but won over half of the matches fired. This was due to the teams' long hours of practice and hard work that they have done.

They won four of the games and lost three. Gary Riegel fired a 174 and Larry Delmont a 170 to be the high scorers at East this year.

The base of this statue was erected from the donations of Rodney's schoolmates and friends. It serves as a lasting memorial to him.

In Memoriam

The day of April 10, 1958, marked the tragic end to the life of a wonderful citizen, classmate, and person . . . Rodney Mills.

The life of Rodney was surrounded with happiness, warmth, good will, and friendship. He spread a radiating glow about him wherever he passed and attracted friends from all classes and sects.

A Statue of Liberty memorial has been erected on grounds adjacent to those of the school as a tribute to him. All required capital was furnished through a fund donated by East's students themselves.

In our humble way, the Senior Class of 1959 dedicates these two pages to our fellow classmate who is still very much a part of us and our lives.

Seated clockwise around table: Carole Featherstone, Charlene Shalley, Helen Hawk, Miss Baker, Phil Phillips, and Mr. Dickson. Standing: Dean Tomlin, Veralea Sellon, John Finrock, and Dorothy Angotti. The senior officers met often with Mr. Dickson and Miss Minnie Baker to discuss various matters such as the class gift, commencement, and prom.

This year, as in past tradition, the East chapter of National Honor Society selected its members through a board of faculty members and advisors.

Each Senior selected for membership has been carefully screened in academic, activity, and personality aspects. Every member must pass in each of the Society's four traits: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. One major requirement is that each member must rank in the upper fourth of his class.

During a call meeting in the auditorium, the society elected these officers: Dan Creasy, President; Phil Phillips, Vice-President; Becky Feeney, Secretary, and Jack McPike, Treasurer.

This year's members were selected by a faculty committee composed of Miss Carolyn M. Dasbach, chairman; Miss Nora Boone, Miss Katherine Miller, Mr. L. A. Priefert, Mr. Bernard C. Greene, and Mr. Paul W. Day. Mr. L. C. Dickson and Mr. C. O. Williams acted as ex-officio members.

Valedictorians Jean Brown and Phil Phillips were selected "Best Students" on the Senior Ballot.

Acknowledgments

The production of this, the last of thirty-three Eastonians, has come to a close. Just like its thirty-two predecessors, the 1959 Eastonian has taken the talents and efforts of a myriad of persons and organizations.

First of all, the companies and the men who worked with us must be recognized. Mr. Roger James of Smith-Grievess Printing Company proved to be tremendous help and did an outstanding job of printing the book. Mr. Ralph Kolb and Mrs. Dorothea Galatas of Burger-Baird Engraving Company lived up to their reputation of fine engravings. Our cover, lauded for its craftsmanship, was produced by Interstate Bindery Company. Photography for special sections of the book was handled by Rolland Studio.

There would possibly have been no yearbook had it not been for the help of certain individuals in the school. We are grateful to our principal, Mr. C. O. Williams, for letting us work late and interrupt schedules, and travel to the engraver and printer. We, too, thank Mr. L. Clayton Dickson for his help, lenience, and patience. Miss Minnie M. Baker, Dorothy Angotti, Veralea Sellon, and the bank proctors graciously handled our accounts and kept track of staggering Eastonian sales. Too, the office staff inconvenienced themselves to help us with letters, class indexing and personal identifications. Mr. Howard, the head custodian-engineer, has been more than generous in letting us work late and on week ends; too, he has loaned us much needed equipment. Pat Patton of the custodial staff erected our first "really dark" darkroom. Mr. Michaels, stage crew sponsor, has lent time and service toward our cause. And finally, we thank the students and faculty themselves who bought our books, attended our events, and let us "invade" home rooms to put forth "ambitious" sales talks.

Too, we want to extend special thanks to our parents for their tolerance and understanding "in the time of need." They took it in their stride even when we left home at 7:15 a. m. and arrived home as late as 6:00 p. m.

We once again want to thank everyone who helped to make this 1959 Eastonian truly a success.
