O, Lincoln High

*Oh that some angel voice was near,
To sing these notes of gladness,
To chase all silence from the air
That fills our hearts with sadness;
For gladsome notes our lips would breathe of Lincoln.*

*O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High,
Tho' from thy guiding hand we stray,
Thy memories will cheer the way;
O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High,
O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High.*

*In fancy's light we see thy walks,
Her sunshine plays upon you.
Her vapors linger 'round thy walls,
Like ghosts of love so true.
Like treasured dreams of times long past
In Lincoln, dear old Lincoln,
Like treasured dreams of times long past at Lincoln.*

Foreword

Here we are, friends—once more at the parting of the ways. We could sound off with something “heavy” about “life in the atomic age,” about our being “at the crossroads of life.” Perhaps we should say something profound about “human rights” or “the challenge of life in a changing world.” Well, we’re not going to! All we have to say is this: We hope each tomorrow in your life will bring you more happiness and less aspirin!

J. OLIVER MORRISON

Dedication

The class of 1949 dedicates this year book to the memory of J. Oliver Morrison, who for many years served faithfully and untiringly as instructor of English and dramatics at Lincoln High; who pioneered the Little Theatre movement among Negroes in Kansas City and organized the Morrison Players; who served his community in many additional ways; and who will always live in the memory of his colleagues and former students as an excellent teacher and a good friend.

Miss Ruth Buckingham

A member of our faculty but a short while, Ruth Buckingham soon endeared herself to all with her charm, good humor, and patience. Those who knew her at both Coles and Lincoln will always feel themselves richer by having touched her life.

A Student's Dream

Flying on my magic carpet, I see a beautiful city. In one part of this city, I can see many large, tall buildings and I quickly decide to bring my carpet down so I can visit them. I stop in front of a beautiful Cathedral. Where I hear the music ringing. I enter and see Neal Herriford playing hymns with a boogie-woogie beat, and none other than Chester Anderson standing beside the organ singing, in a high soprano voice. The music "sends" me. I turn around and here is the most Reverend W. D. Dunlap, so solemn.

His words rang out. Soon it is all over. I leave, and as I walk outside I see a fine car and walk over to see what kind it is; but to my surprise, Mr. Carruthers is at the wheel. I asked him if he would take me sight seeing. We go speeding down the street and are arrested. As we walk into the station, I am amazed to see Mr. West, speed cop par excellence, so stern. He fines us. But how lucky we are to see Ann Johnson and Octavia Wymbush, the rich night club owners in New York, who pay the fines. I leave Carruthers and I am left alone to wander. I begin to walk on down the beautiful path and I enter the Powers' Modeling Agency to see Della Newsom sporting furs. A little distance away, I see Eva L. Dixon modeling shoes for Sandler of Boston. And in the haberdashery I see Sam Reid modeling trunks (swimming). I come out, and on the loud business street, I see signs announcing the new ballet team, featuring Norval Parker and Naomi Cherot.

As I rub my eyes, it seems to me that I should visit the Famous Edmund Duke Washington School of Dancing. After a few lessons, I go on to see what I can find. I enter the Metropolitan Opera where John S. Williams is directing the famous opera, "Faust." I then catch a bus to visit the Madison Square Garden and see Richard "the Kid" Tillman and Girard "Dillinger" Bryant, or shall I say Mutt and Jeff, in a boxing match. And to my surprise, Jeff is the winner.

I visit the famous night club where I hear Ella Smith singing torch songs accompanied by none other than Jerry "Swing It Out" Cameron. While I am chatting with her, who walks in? None other than Russell Jackson, flashing diamonds. He is co-owner of the Ponder Pie and Pill Shop. An interesting spot is McCreary's "Fortunes Told Before You Get Here."

After a very enjoyable floor show at the night club, I decide to listen to the radio show "Record Rendezvous," on which Lenel Mason is the sharp-witted disc jockey. I then retire on the new Float-Lite mattress made by Thompson and White, Inc.

On arising very early the next morning, I stop at the corner drug store for coffee, and who is whipping up strange concoctions (such as kickapoo sodas) but the famous soda jerk Trussie Smothers. After a very refreshing snack I decide to visit the very interesting business establishment of Jack Benny and William Lynk. They sell toupees and wigs of all descriptions. Mr. Lynk tells me about Betty Foreman's success as a charm school director. We also find out that Eunice Strickland is getting fat from the royalties from her new book "Me and the Ham-bone," and that Mildred Pennington is brakeman on the largest freight train in the country.

Well, my carpet is pulling up, so I suppose I must return to the world of reality. But I wonder——?

Class Prophecy

One bright spring morning in May, I received a letter. This letter sent by Mrs. Radford Jones, the former Lillian Gines, was an invitation to an alumni assembly to be held June 8, 1959 at dear ole Lincoln Hi.

Promptly at 7:59 p. m. on the appointed date, the class members began their assembly. After the welcome address by the principal, Louis Dudley, Mrs. Gines-Jones began the introduction of distinguished guests from the class of '49.

Mrs. Gines-Jones' speech began with "Dr. Dudley, faculty, platform guests, friends, student body, and anybody else. Many of our guests need no introduction, outstanding, well-known, and notorious as they are. However, I've been asked to make a brief, formal introduction of each of them, so here goes nothing. We will begin with a selection by one of our honored guests, Charles Love. Love, the director of our the State Institution of Wayward Brains, will conduct the Nutcracker Suite as rendered by the institution's band. The big names in the band are: Adolph Johnson, Robert Blount and Donald Hutt.

Thank you very much Mr. Love. Now we will continue the introductions. Ann Mae Thirkles is the only Negro Admiral of the Waves. Frenchye Darden is teaching all interested students to talk faster than sound. We are proud to have a millionaire in our midst, Phillip Morris. Morris was riding a Camel (s) through the Kool desert and a made a Lucky Strike by finding (Old) Gold in some deserted Chester (field).

Vivian Ray is head of the speech department at the Deaf Mute Institute. . . . Harvey Anderson has put out his shingle and is now a criminal (lawyer that is). . . . Maxine Rice is the star reporter on the Kansas City Snoop. . . . At this time Thomas Davis of the Metropolitan Opera will sing a solo.

I'm sure we have certainly enjoyed the solo. It is getting late so we will move along.

Kenneth Rogers, John Elliot, Leroy Davis and Kay Carole Hambright are the star performers on It Pays to Be Ignorant. . . . Estel Leon Mozee is now so prosperous that he doesn't borrow car tokens from Mr. Herriford. He makes his own at home. . . . Willa Thacker is the business administrator and Pauline Johnson typist for the Find-U-No-Work Employment agency. . . . Franklin Weston is ardently campaigning for Moon Mullins as president of the U. S. (Unbeaten Shmoo Club of America). . . . Laura Gamble who hated to even hear the name snake is now sadly conducting classes in biology. . . . Ollie Gates, a big business man, married Hazel Grayson and there are now ten little picket fences running around. . . . Unfortunately two of our distinguished guests were unable to be here. They are Willie Brewer, who is a fat Turhan Bey, and Kenny Goodspeed, the proud possessor of a brand new straight jacket. Goodspeed writes love poems and spends a lot time thumbing through old issues of Terry and the Pirates.

Due to the late hour of nine p. m. we must bring our program to a close. To all of the alumni present, we hope you have enjoyed the program. Mr. Dudley says that refreshments will be served—oh! don't tear the doors down. We're out of school now, we don't need to run to lunch. Good night to all and to all a good night.

E. Epps.
