Lincolnian

SCHOOL SONG

O, Lincoln High

Oh, that some angel's voice were near
To sing these notes of gladness,
To chase all silence from the air
That fills our hearts with sadness;
For gladsome notes our lips would breathe of Lincoln, dear old Lincoln!

O' Lincoln High, Lincoln High
Tho' far from thy guiding hand we stray,
Thy memories will cheer the way,
O, Lincoln High, O, Lincoln High!

FOREWORD . . .

Three years and ten months ago the elementary schools of Kansas City sent forth hundreds of graduates, drilled in the three R's and imbued with the idea that they would graduate from Lincoln High School. Now most of them have achieved that goal and are ready to discover whether that group, or any group so inspired and so educated, can meet with future problems. We are assembled at the close of our public school training. We are ready like those before who June ago faced this same step that we might follow after. It is altogether appropriate and necessary that we do this. And summoning up our strength, we shall exalt, we shall ennoble, we shall hold high the name of Lincoln. The Class of '52, boys and girls, who studied here, will do their best to bring her fame. The faculty will soon forget what we write here, but they will never forget that we have been here. It is for us, the Class of '52, to keep in mind the precepts which they, who so selflessly instructed us, so patiently imparted. It is for us, the Class of '52, to be so mindful of their instruction—that from their efforts we take renewed courage to face the tasks that lie ahead—that we firmly resolve that they have not taught in vain—that memories of us shall always linger—and that the glory of old Lincoln, her students, and of this class shall increase upon this earth.

Organizations

Under the leadership of John S. Williams, instructor of vocal music, the Lincoln High School chorus has established an enviable record in the city and in the neighboring communities. With apologies to Longfellow we say, "These the sweetest of all singers!"

Each year sees a growing interest in instrumental music at Lincoln. Our energetic instructor of instrumental music should be proud of the boys and girls who make up the musical organizations on this page. We think that they are the best of all musicians.

FOOTNOTES ON SPORTS

This year the "pen" in addition to praising all of Lincoln's athletes would like to give special attention to the "greats" produced during the '51-'52 season.

In football, with new coaches Lee, Wilson, McCreary and a new team, the critics expected the fear which has to come to the minds of opponents in the past to vanish completely; but out came a bruising line and crushing backs. Consequently, this surprise force of '51 punishingly restored respect and aroused fear among all opponents. One of the main reasons for the successful season was the fine individual play of Captain Eugene "Banty" Hendrix, Wilbert "Crusher" Crockett, and Richard "Hoss" Bradley. These all-city and all-state selections have been sought by several colleges within the area. Everybody who has seen their play is sure that they will be a big help to whatever college each attends.

The giants of the hardwood redeemed themselves at the State Tournament after an inauspicious season at home. It's a task to single out any outstanding players, but, in agreeing with the judges who chose Kenneth Johnson and Eugene Hendrix as all-state players at the State Tournament, the "pen" would like to add LaVern Hart, an excellent all-round player, for such a player should be on the list of "essentials" of a basketball team. The "pen" also salutes their fine coach, Perry Kirkpatrick.

Coach Lenel Mason, whose cinder burners have won the championship at the Missouri State Track Meet during the past two years, is expected to coach them to another first place in '52. Some of the players expected to retain the reputation of Lincoln on the track are Alfred Walker, William Smith, Henry McAdams, Wilbert Crockett, Robert Burns, and Franklin Holman. Eugene Hendrix and Jesse Rogers will bear the load in the field events.

So you see, in spite of some dark moments, Lincoln has held her own and has been outstanding in athletics in Missouri and surrounding states.
