“MEET ARIZONA”

CAST

The delightful musical comedy "Meet Arizona" had a cast of more than one hundred vocal music students who played the parts of cowboys, dudines, and Mexicans; they danced and sang and revealed the mystery of the lost will of Colonel Blair who had died suddenly on his dude ranch. His death brought Mexicans, ranchers and a few easterners to Arizona.

It appeared for a while that the ranch manager, Guldy, (Floyd Reed) would fall heir to the ranch, but the will was found. Larry Benson, (Tyree Tolson) who was adopted by Colonel Blair as a child, falls in love with Lettie (Doris Stewart), an Easterner, and learns that he inherits the ranch. Guldy is revealed as an escaped convict.

Adding color to the operetta were the antics of two Mexicans sweethearts-Carlotts (Jacqueline Welton) and Antonio (Michael Price), Carlos, (Oliver Rogers) a great hearted Mexican, staged a picturesque gay fiesta that almost was a show within a show. Maria (Sharon Pennington), tearful servant, cried over everybody's troubles.

Further romance was created when Rennie (James Marshall) fell in love instantly with pretty Easterner, Emily (Jamesetta Cameron) and when big handsome Arizona Tom (Hirby Ivy) took for his bride an Indian maiden, Tonita Sunrise, (Octavia Swain)

Cowboys, Cappy (David Morgan) and Bertie (Darthard Perry), were hilarious in their parts.

"Keep Your Halo Straight" Mary Craig is being introduced to Donald Poole. "Conscience", John Williams interferes. Brenda Savage and Donald Allen look on.

"No Time For Skirts" Karen Burnes is very anxious, to meet Kenneth Wiggins, a new boy in town. Andre Weatherby introduces them.

"Two For the Show" Mamie Thompson is surprised to find that Charles Byrd is carrying a gun, and also her diamond necklace.

"No Time For Skirts" Andrea Hammons proudly introduces Gwendolyn Gonzales, Betty Williams, and Sylvia Smith to tomboy, Karen Burnes.

TIGERS GAIN GROUND

Lincoln Tigers clawed their way to three victories and showed over-all improvement both offensively and defensively. Teammates followed the lead of Johnny Young and Vernon Vanoy, two seasoned and experienced players. Fans will remember for a long time the excitement and thrill of victory when both Central and Westport suffered defeat at the claws of the Tigers for the first time in league history. Four defeats were easier to take when measured against these two victories.

Vanoy earned a place on 1st all-city team and 2nd all-state team. Young earned a place on the 2nd all-city team and honorable mention on all-district.

Tigers will lose the following seniors: Vanoy, Young, Neal, Holland, Motley, Fuller, Martin, Ivy and Prymus.

COURTMEN FINISH SECOND

With an 8-1 record in Interscholastic League play, courtmen finished in second place and fell short of their goal. They had hoped to at least share 1st place. Late in the season, "lady luck's" smile changed to a frown and Central knocked them out.

The starting five Vanoy, Young, Neal, Warren, and Motley carried the team to victory after victory. Though sometimes "cold and off key" Neal and Motley managed to warm up the other three. The 62-61 victory over Southwest was the most exciting game of the season.

Graduating seniors include Vanoy, Young, Neal, Motley, and Garrett.
