Loretto in K.C.

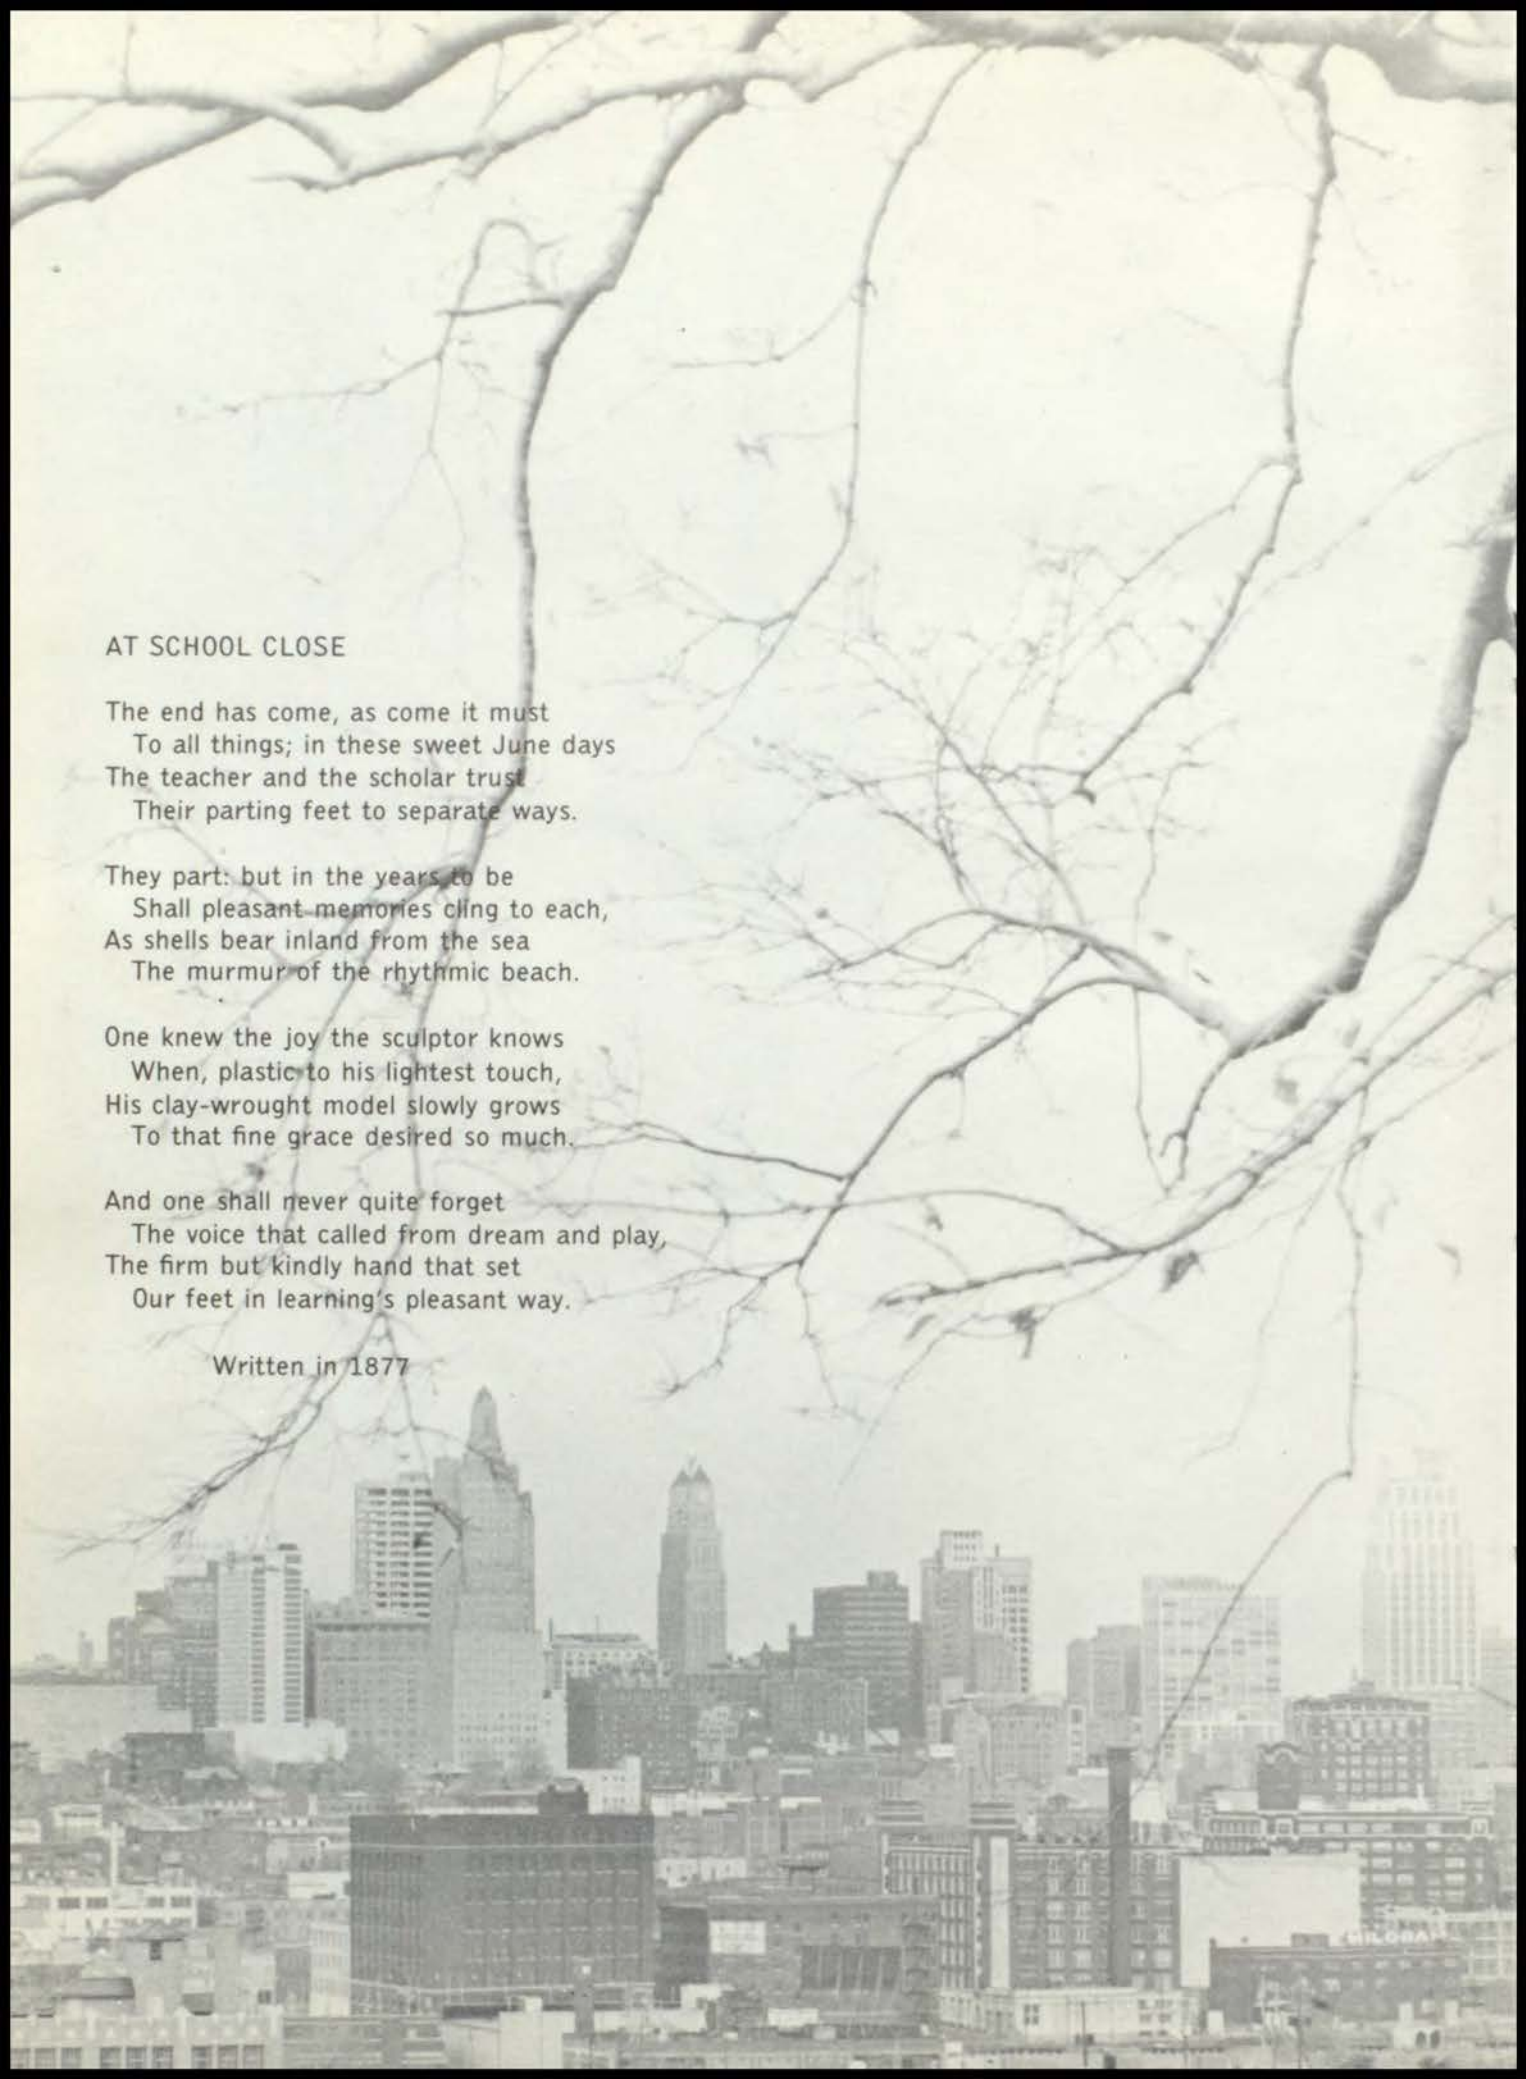

LORETTO
1901-1977

... a school for all of Kansas City

AT SCHOOL CLOSE

The end has come, as come it must
To all things; in these sweet June days
The teacher and the scholar trust
Their parting feet to separate ways.

They part: but in the years to be
Shall pleasant memories cling to each,
As shells bear inland from the sea
The murmur of the rhythmic beach.

One knew the joy the sculptor knows
When, plastic to his lightest touch,
His clay-wrought model slowly grows
To that fine grace desired so much.

And one shall never quite forget
The voice that called from dream and play,
The firm but kindly hand that set
Our feet in learning's pleasant way.

Loretto realized that the seniors of 1977 were a unique class of unusual people. So, we thought it would be fun to find out what the "average" class member was like. Here is a little story to tell you about her.

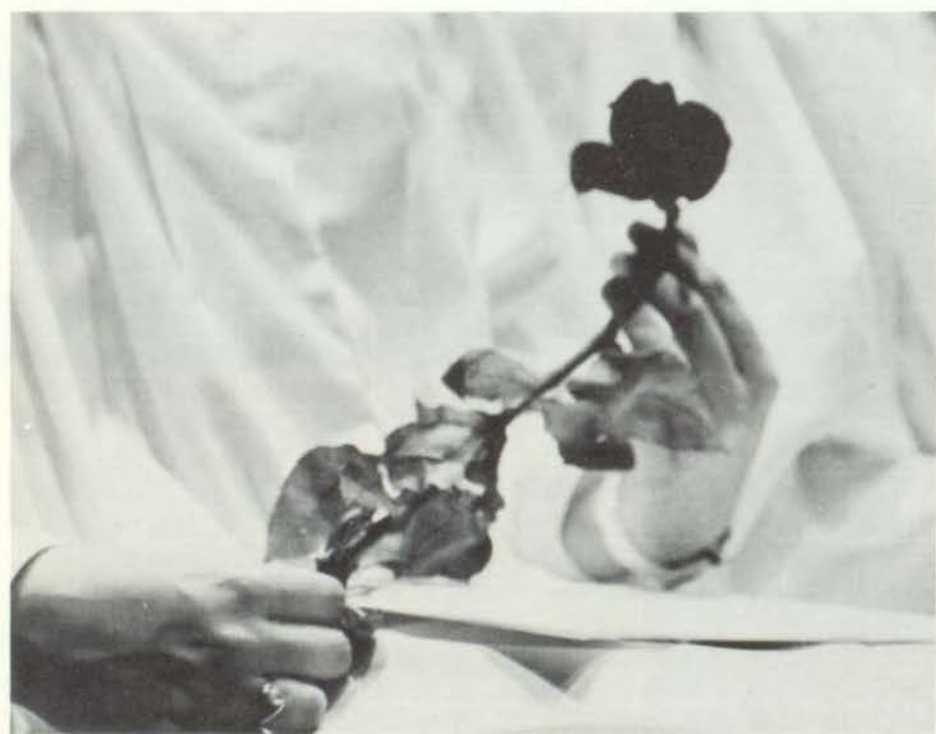

In the month of June, seventeen years ago, a baby girl, who would eventually become Loretto's average senior, was born. She had brown hair and brown eyes. Being a Gemini, she always held a variety of interests. Throughout her years in school, she became involved in English, science, and drama. Although she was diligent with her academic studies, she still enjoyed recreation. She took lunch-time jaunts to McDonald's, and anywhere from five to ten nights each month were devoted to her love life.

As Loretto watched her average senior, an appealing young woman of 120 lbs. and 5'5" tall, prepare for graduation and commencement, they knew she was full of vitality and ready for anything that the world had to offer.

AT LORETTO

... we can be ourselves

... we can dance

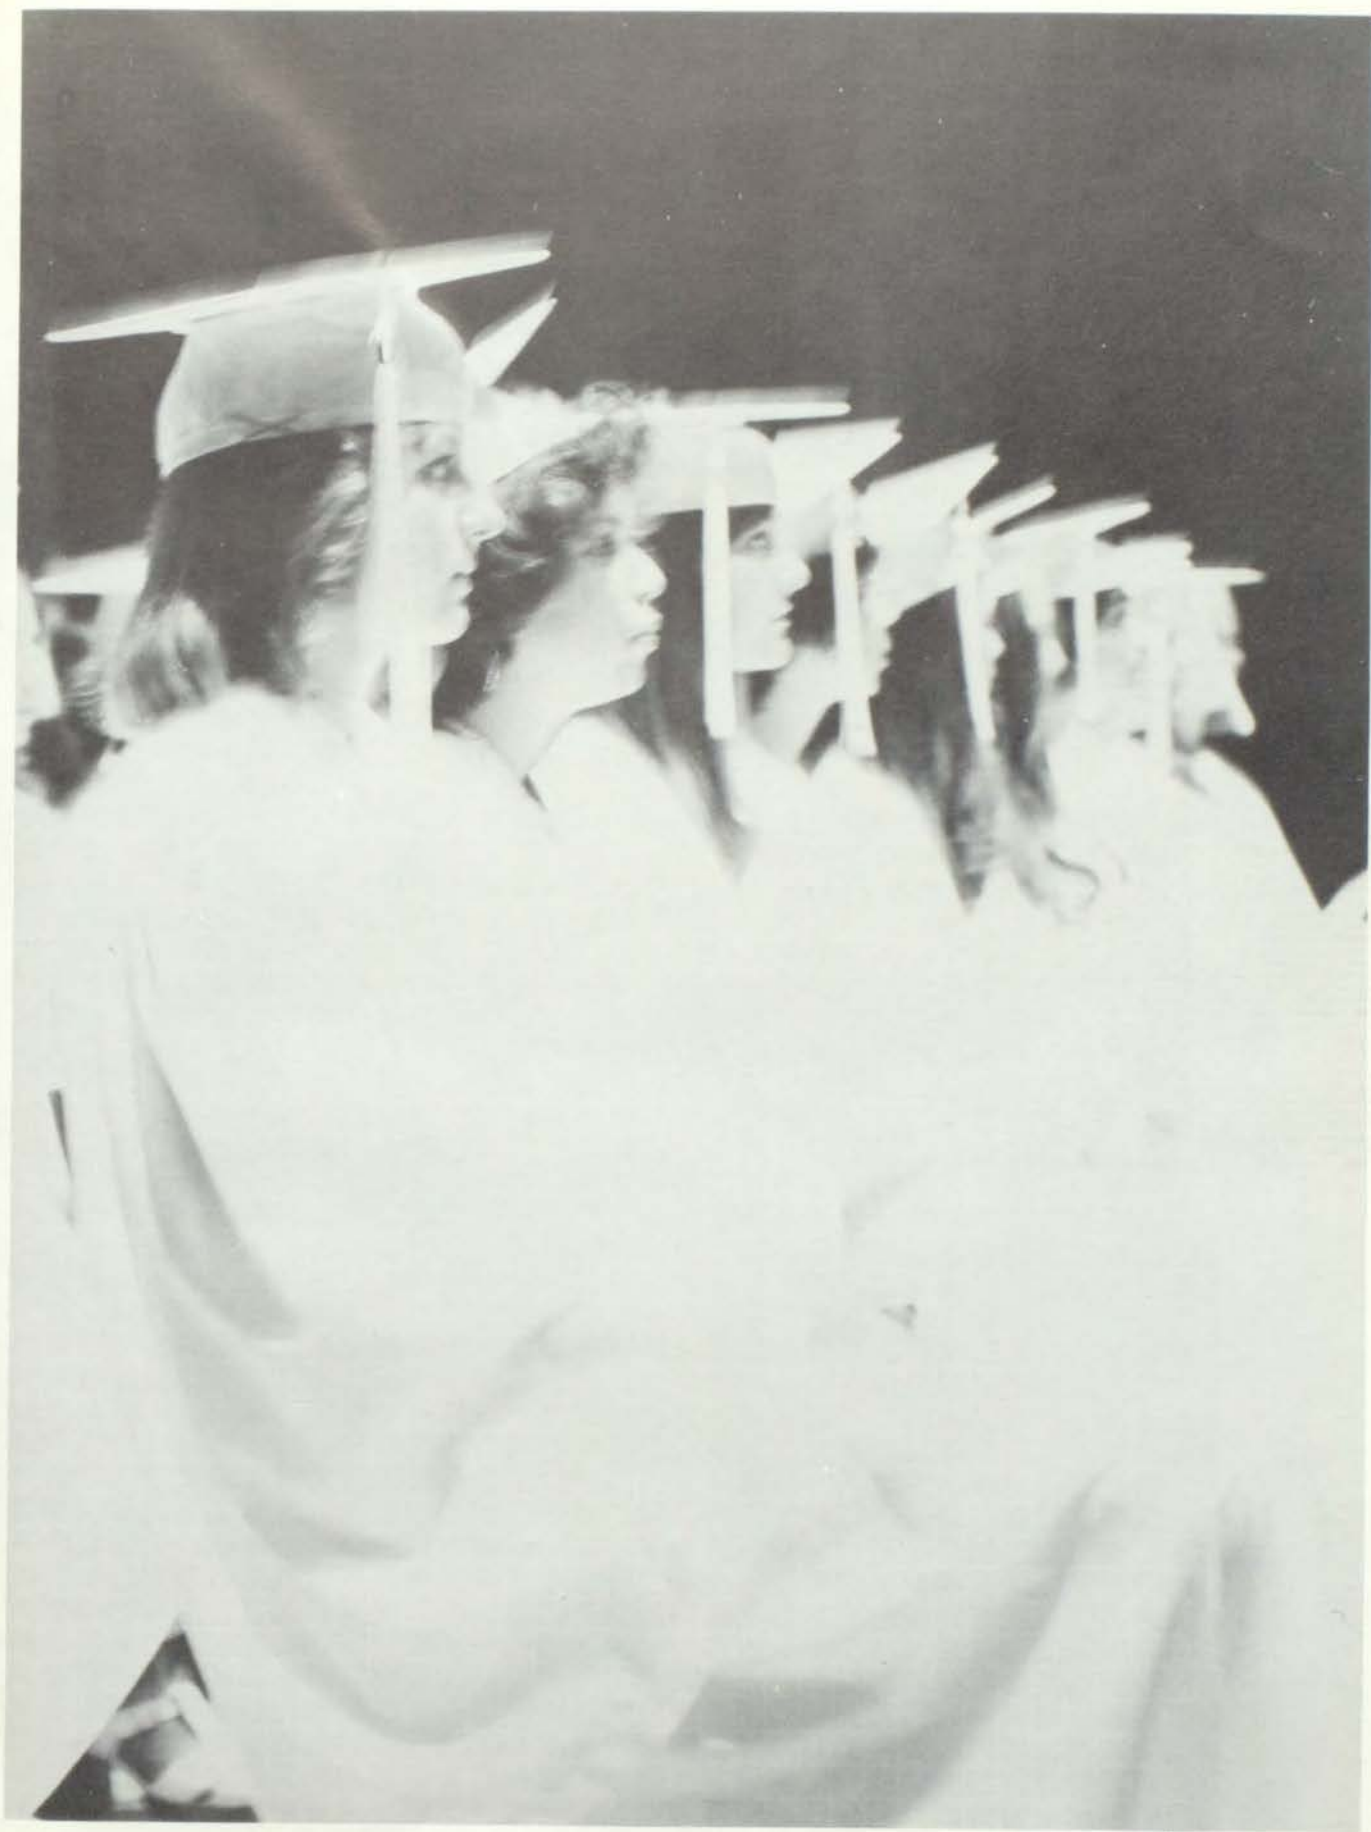

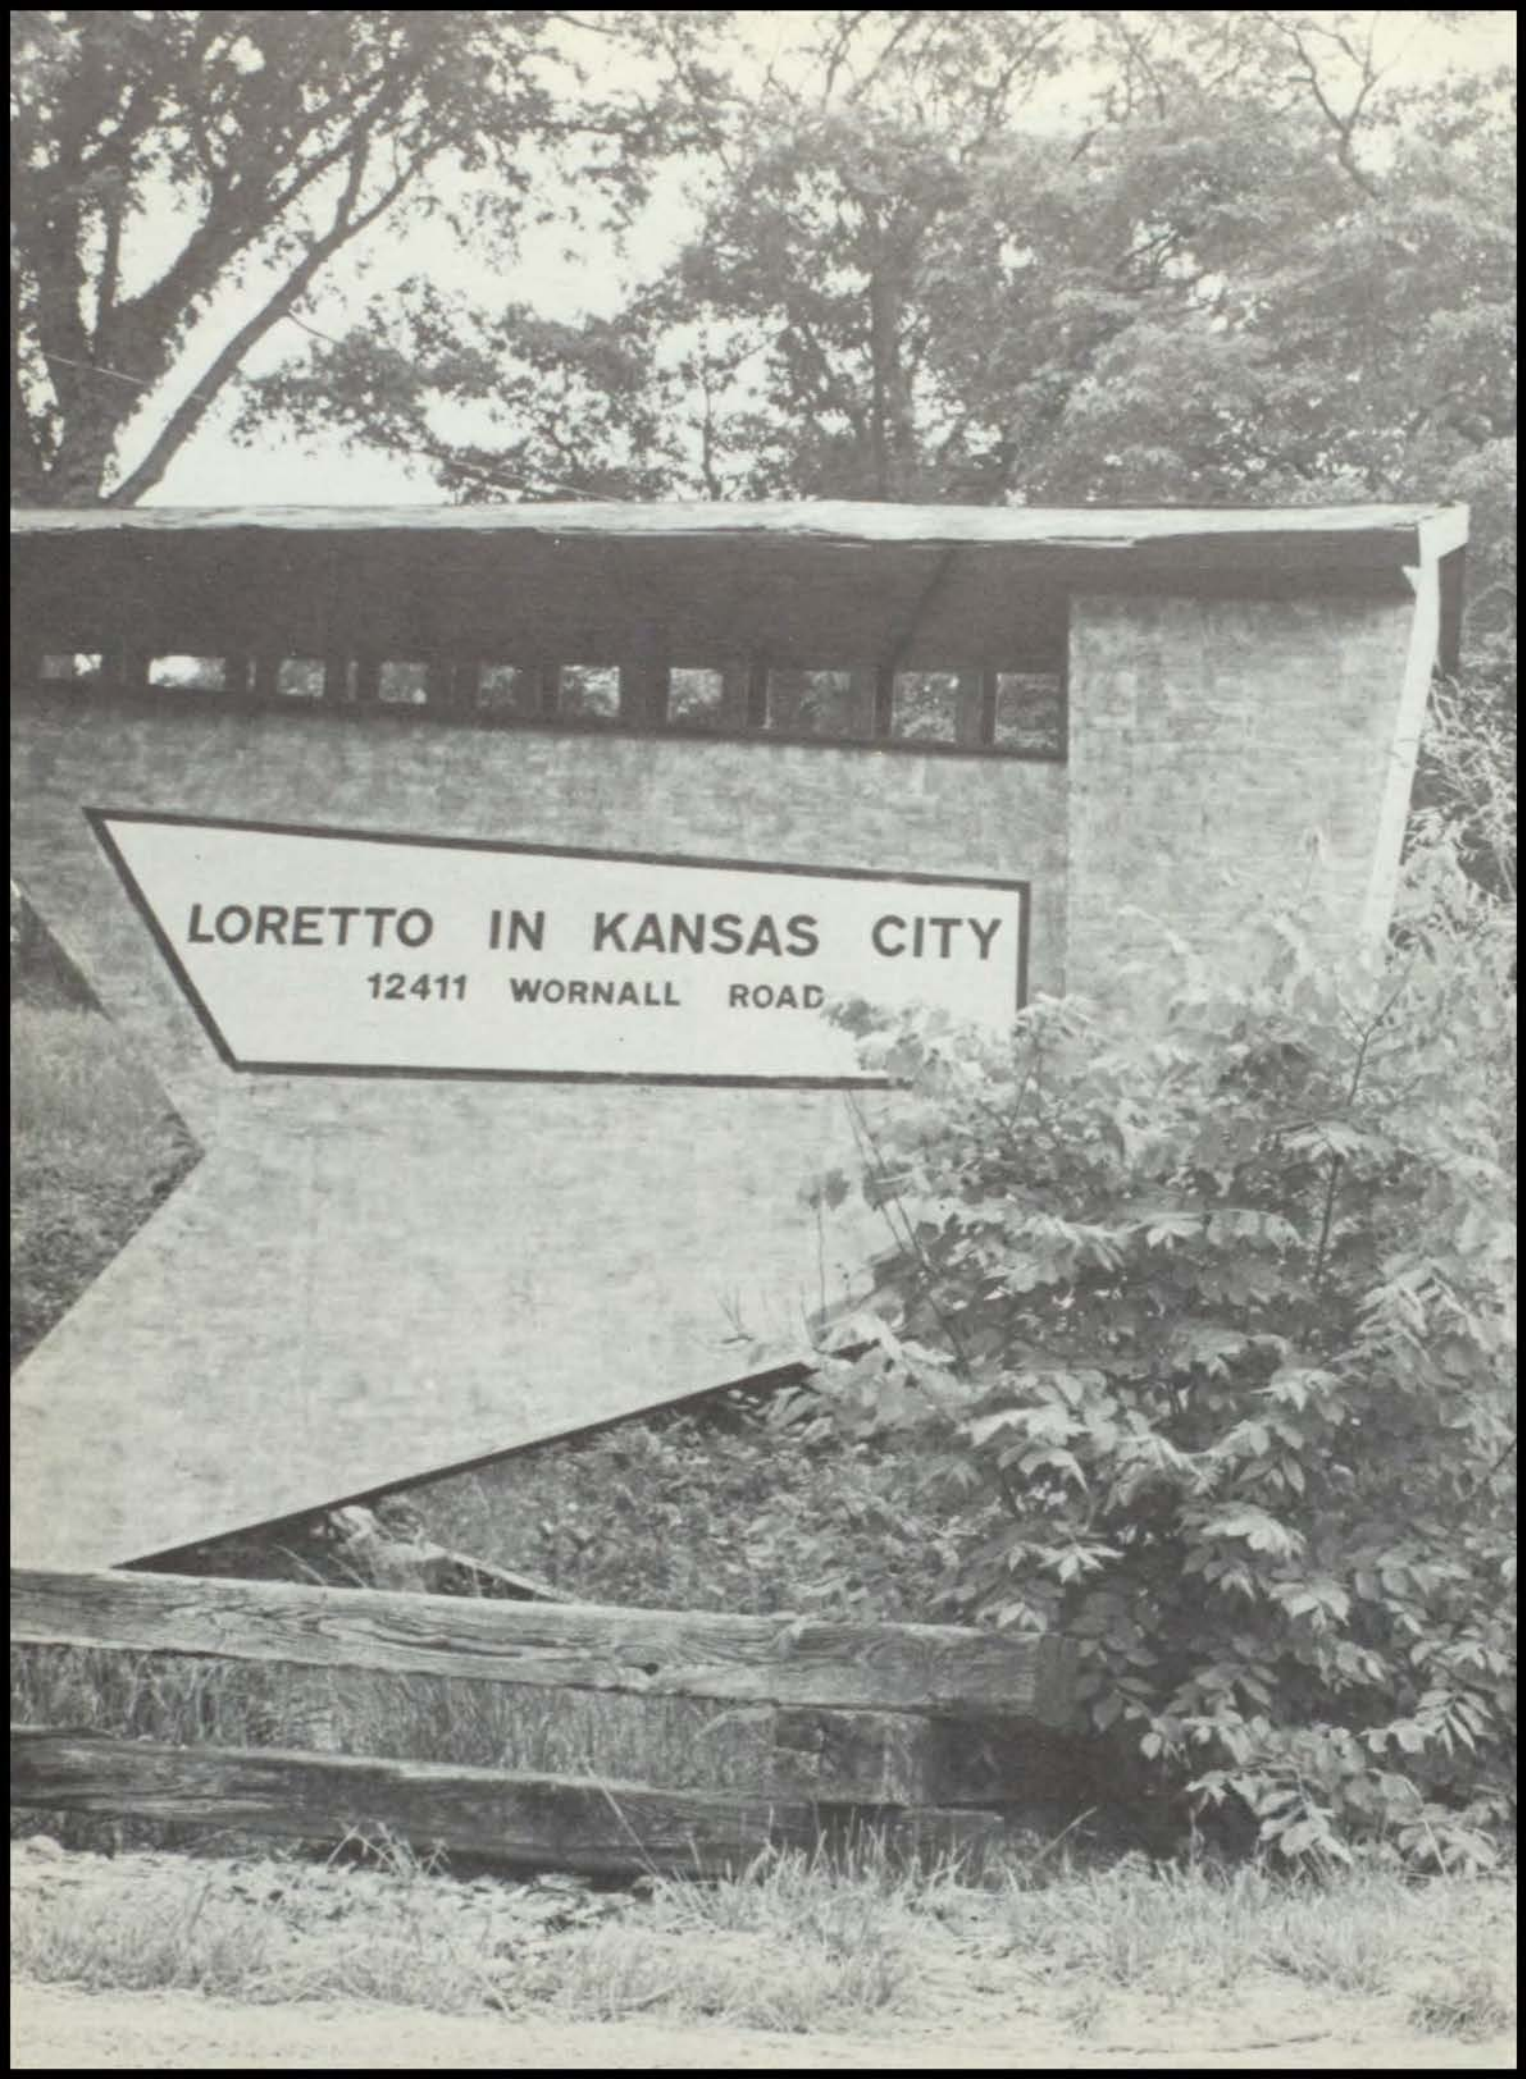

... we can act silly

... we can be leaders

LORETTO IN KANSAS CITY

12411 WORNALL ROAD

We passed through the halls today
The doors were open wide and sunlight streamed
through the window upon the empty desks
So neat and clean.
No one was there.
Everything was bare.
Unless some spirit hovered there,
Silent and unseen.

Oh silent halls!
Daily witness to life's most proven truth:
Can walls and wood drink in, absorb,
The anguished thoughts of Love and youth?
Are you the soulless same
Having heard poignant prayers and
Agony-laden words?

With heavy hearts
And one last look we hurry through
With the sound of our departing footsteps
We seemed to hear,
From out the school,
A sigh,
One plaintive word, a faintly echoed

"Good-Bye."
