DEDICATION

TO GEORGE WASHINGTON

whose motives and ideals have been the inspiration of American patriots, whose life has always been and will continue to be the ideal of American citizenship, who is in truth the Father of our Country, we, the Nautilus Staff of 1932, dedicate this Year-Book.

IN MR. KNIGHT'S MEMORY

The stately ships sail on,
To their haven under the hill;
But oh, for the touch of a vanished hand,
And the sound of a voice that is still.

—Tennyson.

The Chambered Nautilus

*This is the ship of pearl, which poets feign,
Sails the unshadowed main,—
The venturous bark that flings
On sweet summer wind its purple wings
In gulfs enchanted, where the Siren sings,
And coral reefs lie bare,
Where the cold sea-maids rise to sun their streaming hair.*

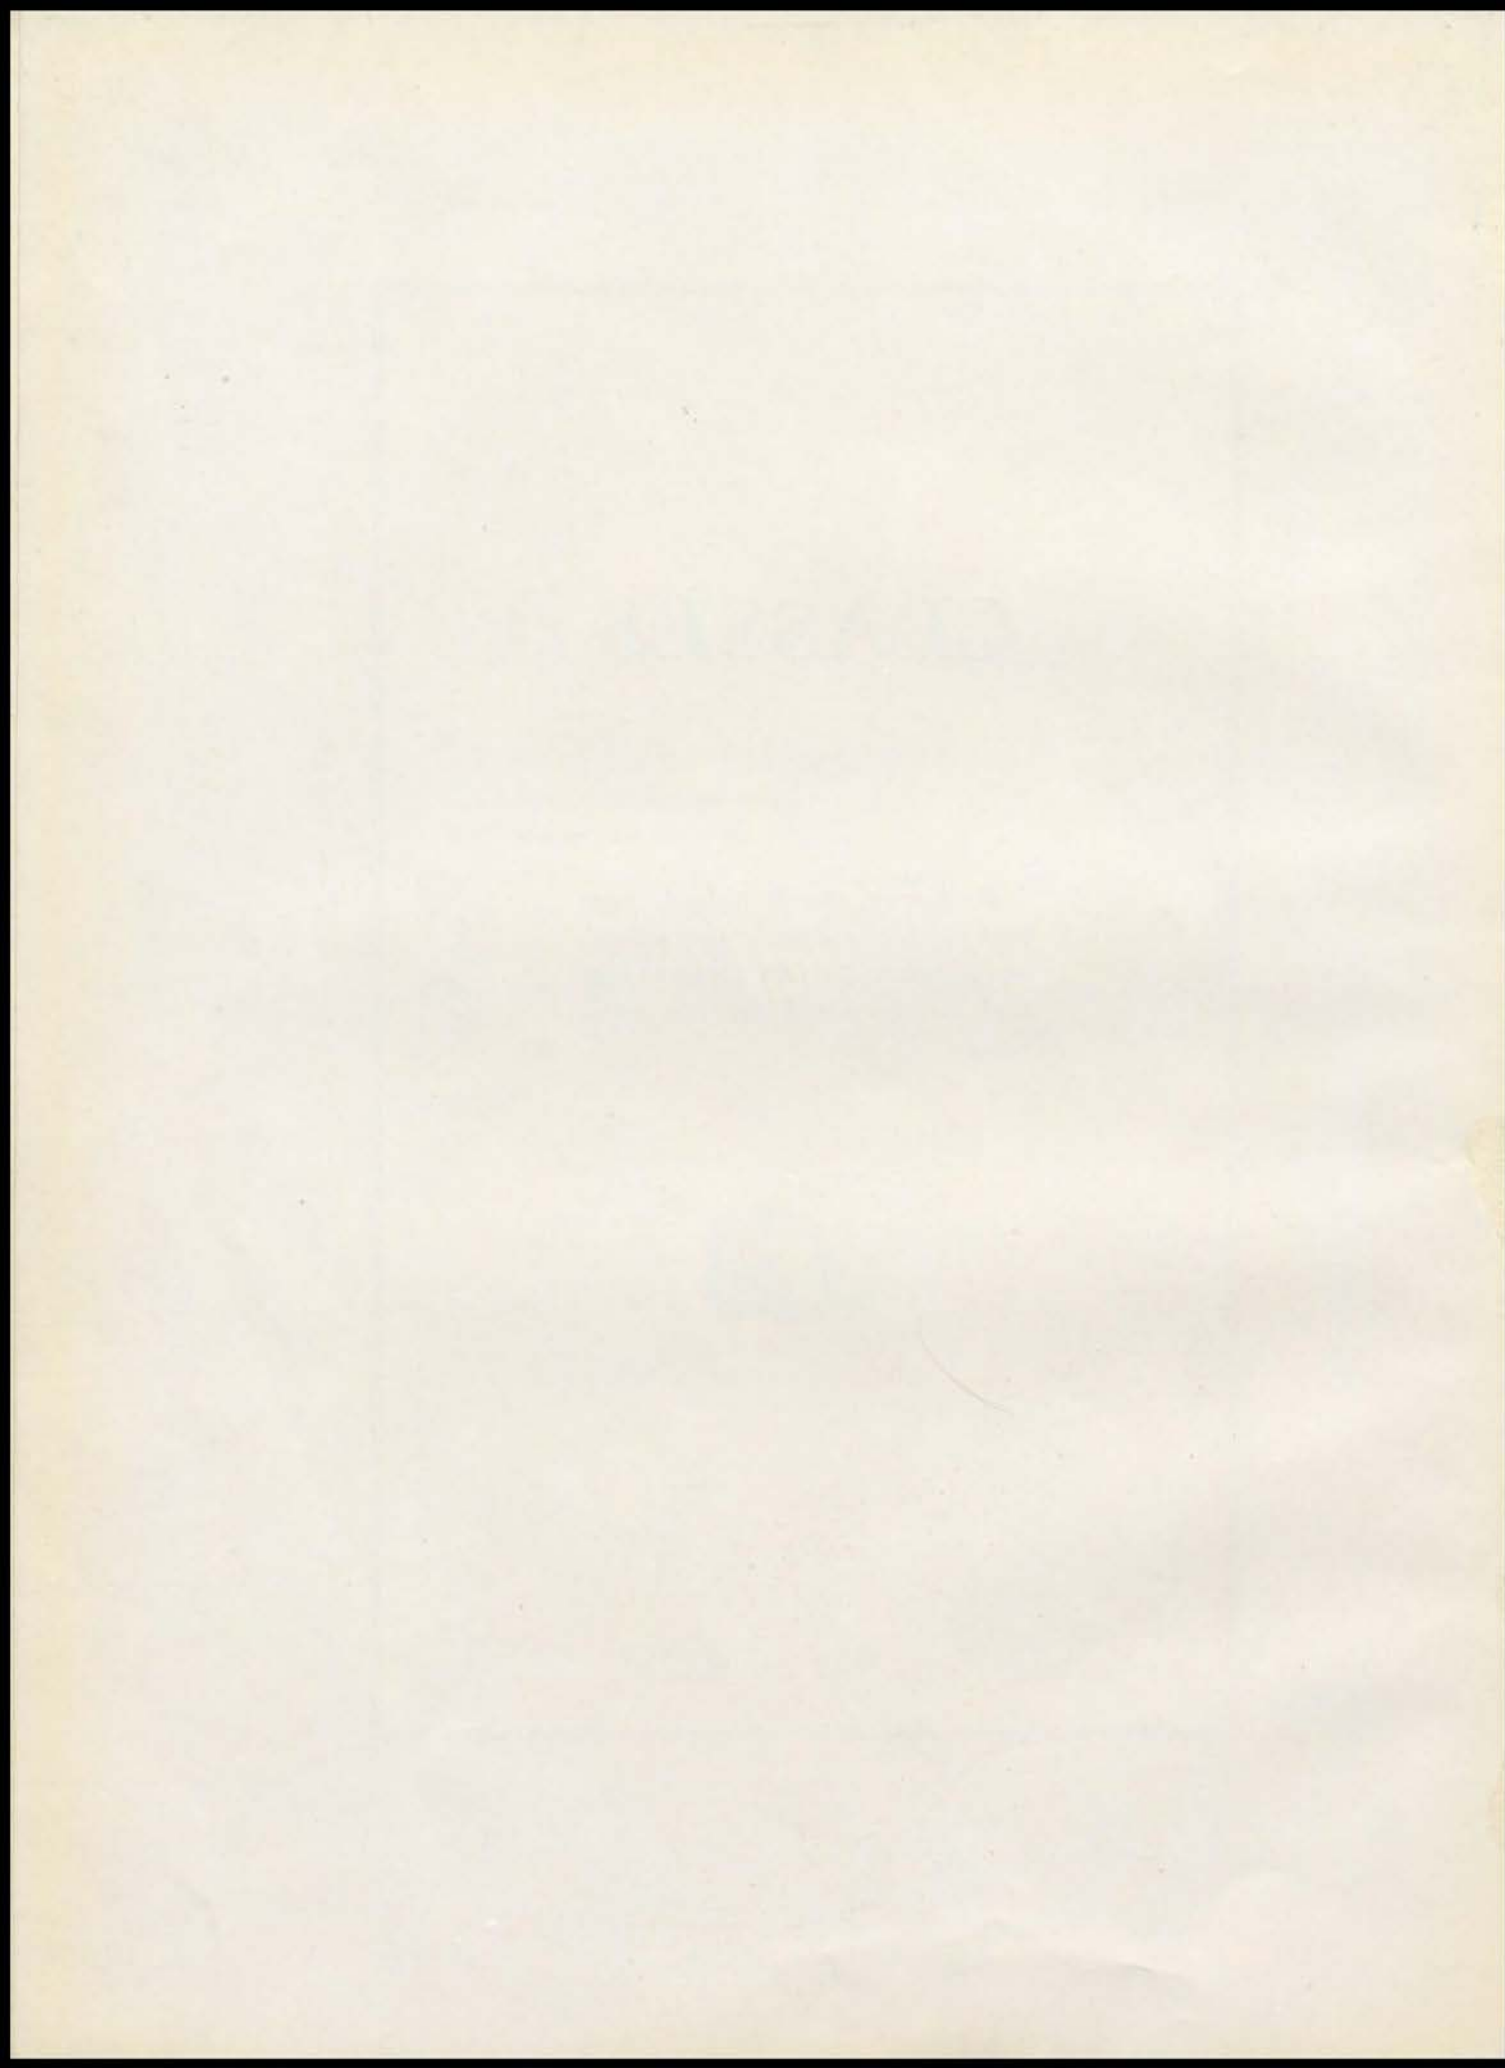

—OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES

MANUAL ODE

*Hail to thee, our dear old Manual,
We would sing of thee!
Oh, a fount of inspiration
Thou wilt ever be.*

*Whether near or far from shelter
Of thy peaceful fold,
Dear old altar, 'tis to thee our
Yearning fancies hold.*

*Glory, glory to old Manual!
Blessings come to thee!
Hearts and minds and hands so loyal
All would honor thee.*

CHORUS

*Wave the crimson banner proudly,
Make its colors glow;
Manual's praises singing loudly
As we onward go!*

ORGANIZATIONS

Blessed are they who have the gift of making friends, for it is one of God's best gifts. It involves many things, but above all, the power of going out of one's self, and appreciating whatever is noble and loving in another.

—THOMAS HUGHES

ORGANIZATIONS

Manual's societies and clubs, with their activities, ideals, and spirit of companionship have been composed mainly of the upper classmen.

Students are encouraged to keep up their grades in order that they may be eligible for membership or remain in an organization.

Manual has eight chartered societies including clubs. They sponsored one Inter-Society Party this year on December 18, which was acclaimed a huge success by all who attended.

Members of the original Faculty declared that the Washington Bicentennial Faculty Tea, given by the Hamiltonian Literary Society was the greatest success of any that they had ever attended.

It is interesting to know that every member of the National Honor Society of 1932, belongs to at least one of the Literary Societies. This shows the high character of the work of these societies. The pupils of Manual who do the best work in the classrooms are always the most efficient leaders. The societies not only stand for splendid literary work but they mix with this friendship and fellowship, and it is safe to say, that in years to come, some of the most pleasant memories will be from associations with these organizations.

Every pupil in Manual whose grades are reasonably good is eligible to membership. No student in Manual is denied a place in a society for any reason except for poor school work.

Some of the outstanding events in the societies were the joint meetings between the Philomathean and Hamiltonian Literary Societies, the Hamiltonian and Bentonian Literary Societies, the Girls' and Boys' "M" Clubs, and the Hi-Y and Girl Reserves. At each joint meeting the program was followed by dancing and refreshments.

This year some of the societies and clubs went back to the old custom of taking snap shots for the Nautilus.

MILITARY

Under the tutelage of Sergeant Fred Faust the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Manual has become one of the outstanding activities. It inculcates in a young man the desire to be a better citizen, promotes physical development, as well as teaching military discipline.

The battalion is commanded by Major Virgil E. Caldwell, while the Cadet Sponsorship is held by Miss Maezel Young. From a list of twenty-nine senior girls, seventeen were eligible. From these the cadets chose five. The faculty eliminated two who automatically became Sponsor Lieutenants; the remaining three were then voted on by the senior girls, with Miss Young emerging victorious.

Manual's sponsors are: Major, Maezel Young; Captains, Grace Hann, and Rose Bell; Lieutenants, Helen Smith and Helen Neff.

The R. O. T. C. Hop, the outstanding social event of the year, was held on the evening of February 5. This year's Hop is conceded to be the best that Manual has had for some time. Inaugurating a new style, the "army" held its dance in the girls' gymnasium. The Sponsor-Major and the Major were announced and presented with their commissions that night.

This year's rifle team placed sixth in the inter-school match. All members qualified as sharpshooters. They are: Frank Dickerson, captain; Dave Goodman, Claude Turner, Julio Silva, Carlos Ewing, and Frank Allen, substitute.

The tenth annual R. O. T. C. Circus was held on the evening of Friday, April fifteenth. Manual's boys and girls both participated. The boys gave an exhibition of a Platoon in attack under the command of Cadet Captain Henry Panethiere. The girls gave a dance, To the Colors, instructed by Dr. Helen R. Perkins.

The yearly Corp Area Inspection was held on April 27. Manual's cadets were inspected by Lieutenant Colonel M. G. Randol, G. S. C., who conducted the tour of inspection for Major General Johnson B. Hagood. Manual made a fine showing in this inspection and expects an Honor School rating when the results are returned.

On Tuesday, May 17th, the Annual R. O. T. C. field meet was held at 39th and Gillham Road. The field meet was the last of a series of contests to determine which school in the city would have the honor of a ranking Colonel and the school that would be second and earn a Lieutenant Colonel. In marksmanship, Manual gained 14 points; in the Annual Corp Area Inspection, the Battalion won 25 points, tying for second place with Northeast.

In the field meet, Manual placed third with her squad, which was commanded by Corporal Dwayne Smith. The Company, headed by Captain Henry Panethiere and the Platoon led by Lieutenant Kenneth Stillman failed to place, thereby, lowering our score so that the final result was that Manual ranked fourth.

This year, the Heart of America Post, No. 135, of the American Legion gave, as usual, medals to the three outstanding cadets in each school.

At Manual, First Sergeant Melchior Enna, won first; Sergeant Julio Silva, won second; and First Class Cadet Buster Workerizer, won third.

In all, Manual has terminated a very successful year in R. O. T. C., and with the material the Battalion has, we may look forward to a more successful ending next year.

OUR SHIP—THE MANUAL

*Right from the launch
We proved her staunch
Our bonny ship, the School;
With unfurled sail,
We, through each gale,
The boisterous billows rule:*

*So man-you-all
The Manual,
Ye admirals to be;
Our ship and crew
Are staunch and true,
And true and staunch are we!*

*From commodore
To midddy, o'er
The ship with hope we thrill;
Our victory
More great shall be,
Our conquests, grander still:*

*So man-you-all
The Manual,
Ye admirals to be;
Our ship and crew
And staunch and true,
And true and staunch are we!*

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

TOP ROW: Neff, Doehler, Silver, Hymer, Planzer, Martin, Salisbury, Bales, James.
 SECOND ROW: Bradshaw, Fuehrer, Krevitzky, Sargent, Thompson, Pennington, Robertson, Madlof, Rosenbaum.
 BOTTOM ROW: Humphrey, Sokolovitz, Dreiseszun, Mandelbaum, Robinson, Henderson, Green.

The qualities needed to be elected into the National Honor Society are scholarship, character, service, and leadership.

These students have indeed been honored and truly deserve the congratulations of the student body.

The Manual Charter of the National Honor Society was instituted in 1925.

Each year members of the faculty have made up the committee for averaging of grades. This year the senior class wishes to extend their appreciation to the following committee for their unfaltering work: Miss Emma Kube, chairman, Miss Elizabeth Scott, Miss Della Drake, Miss Hannah Bury, Dr. Helen Perkins, Louis P. Brous, Angus F. Barry, and John W. Laury. All the preliminary work of preparing the cards was done by Miss Frances Sexton.

The members were initiated on May 19 in a solemn and beautiful ritual held before the student body in assembly. Alumni of this organization assisted with the ceremony. Those who took part are as follows: Genevieve Stevenson wore a white robe and administered the pledge, Laura Nicholas was the chaplain and she wore a black robe, Libbie Phillips represented service and wore a red robe, Jack Baughman who wore a purple robe represented leadership, Mary Lomax Iseman took the part of character and wore a white robe, and scholarship was taken by Lamar Dye who wore a yellow robe. Two junior girls acted as flag bearers and two junior girls acted as candle bearers. A junior boy was herald.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The social events at Manual were a bigger success than in past years. Cooperation throughout the school enabled the social year at Manual to be outstanding.

To start the year right, the Girl Reserves gave their annual Freshman party to promote general friendship. Refreshments were popular with all the "Freshies."

On the night of November 20, the assembly was packed with students, alumni, and parents to see the three plays presented by the Dramatic Department under C. C. Fairchild. The plays were as follows: "My Lady's Lace," "The Pie and the Tart," and "The Heavenly Twins."

The student council again showed outstanding work by sponsoring four mixers. They also saw that a big 14-foot Christmas Tree was put in the center of the hall. After the hard work of Joe Snider, Henry Panethiere, Gerald Green, Melchior Enna, Juanita Oakes, Helen Mintz, Virgil Caldwell, and Della Rogers, the tree was proclaimed as the best of all trees that were at Manual.

The Inter-Society Party held December 18 in the girls' gym was devoted to Christmas. Presents were given to some of the faculty.

At the annual Cadet Hop, Sponsor Major Maelzel Young and Major Virgil Caldwell were presented their certificates.

The Nautilus staff presented a mixer for those who bought the Annual. This was a big success.

The spring plays of C. C. Fairchild, sponsored by the Dramatic Department, were as follows: "Mrs. Willis' Will," "How the Colonel Proposed," and "The Travelers."

The social year of Manual neared its end with the Junior Prom, which the seniors enjoyed very much.

The seniors, this year, renewed the custom of having a Senior Reception. This was the last social event.

OUTSTANDING ASSEMBLIES

One of the most colorful assemblies of the year was performed by the R. O. T. C. cadets and three of the last year's sponsors. Taps were played by Joseph Cannatella, while the student body stood with bowed heads. Grover E. Childers, a lawyer, spoke on "The World Today Needs More Men of John Adams' Ability."

Everyone enjoyed the inspiring music rendered by the M. U. Band, led by George Venable. "Dixie" and "Manual Ode" seemed to be the pieces most enjoyed.

The cheer leaders and song leaders gave a schoolroom play supporting Manual's football team.

The Demosthenes Debate Society's annual program in assembly included a one-act play, "Crumbs That Fall," supported by the school orchestra, musical numbers, and a short one-act comedy.

The Burytonian Literary Club presented a patriotic play entitled "The Flag-makers." The flag was portrayed by Anna Faye Lee.

A clever one-act play, the "Florist Shop," was put on by a well-trained cast, chosen from the Astorian Debate Society under the direction of John Laury.

On February 22, a program was given to celebrate the Bicentennial Anniversary of George Washington. There were seven speeches portraying character traits of Washington, and three orations telling of his achievements.

The American War Mothers presented an appropriate assembly, dedicating an American elm, which was planted on the west side of the building, to those students from Manual who died during the World War. Four Manual girls personified the sun, air, earth, and tree.

An especially enjoyed assembly was sponsored by the Nautilus staff. In the center of the stage stood a large red Nautilus, out of which came representatives of the different features of the year-book.

Smart sport frocks and lovely afternoon dresses were displayed in a dress review by members of Miss Jessie Griffith, and Miss Elizabeth James' sewing classes.

In the midst of a bower of flowers newly elected members were initiated into the National Honor Society. To become a member of this Society is the highest honor a senior may obtain.

SENIOR RECEPTION

The Senior Reception, discontinued last year, was resumed again, forming a climax to a most successful social year.

Owing to the fact that the Nautilus is dedicated to George Washington, the decorations carried out the bicentennial idea, with flags, pictures, and red, white and blue streamers. A huge American flag covered the top of the room while flags of every nation hung around the sides.

The refreshments, a delightful loganberry drink and tea cakes, proved very popular with the crowd. Dick Jacobs' Rhythm Pirates Orchestra was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present.

With the closing strains of "Home Sweet Home" came the realization that this was the last time the Seniors would be gathered together under the name Seniors. With this realization also came memories which in turn led to a few regretful tears.

THE JUNIOR PROM

The Junior Prom of this year proved to be one of the most successful parties that has ever been sponsored by a Junior Class. The evening's entertainment began with a grand march led by Junior President, Melchior Enna and Junior Secretary, Mary Francis James, followed by the Senior President, Joe Snider.

The gym was decorated to represent a "Spring Garden Party," in which the students danced beneath the canopy of blue and white streamers. The cherry blossoms lent a fragrance to the air and the ferns formed a background for the happy couples.

The program consisted of the following numbers: John Rogers sang a song; Melvin Johnson did tricks with a rope; a song and dance number was given by Ruth Cassity, Thelma Larson, Eloise Lawson, Clara Bates, Rosemary Duff, Anna Karner, and Frances James; Louis Dubinsky and Bob Menor gave a comedy act.

A delicious fruit punch was served throughout the evening.

The music, that was furnished by "Williard Marshal," was enjoyed by all.

At eleven o'clock when the strains of "Home Sweet Home" were dying away the Seniors all agreed that the Juniors had given them a delightful evening.

MUSIC

The music department at Manual was put under the instruction of a new teacher this year, Mr. Ray E. Gafney, of Southwest High School, as Mr. Bickel left to teach in California.

This year for the first time the boys' and girls' Glee Clubs are separated, the boys having Glee Club first hour and the girls second.

Several programs have been given in assembly, once by the boys alone and twice by the combined Glee Clubs. At Christmas the department sang as usual in the lower hall around a tall stately Christmas tree, and later in the afternoon joined the other Glee Clubs of Kansas City at the Union Station to become a part of a combined chorus.

On February 22 The Glee Club took part in the George Washington Bicentennial celebration in Convention Hall.

After March the first work was commenced on the City Solo Contest. The following took part in the contest held at Westport Junior High School on May 14: Girls' Solos Edith Krevitzky and Leora Major; Boys' Solos, Jewell Cook, Frank Belingloph, and Frank Dickerson; Girls' Triple Trio, Della Rogers, Kathleen Robertson, Grace Hann, Dorothy Marshall, Dorothy Parrish, Alma Glade, Miriam Zitten, Tillie Levine, and Pauline Young. Jewell Cook placed second in the Boys' Solos.

Gold Music Honor pins were awarded to the following: Jewell Cook, Virgil Caldwell, Donald Carpenter, Della Rogers, Grace Hann, Edith Krevitzky, and Kathleen Robertson.

Our school was indeed lucky to secure a fine teacher as Mr. Gafney to succeed Mr. Bickel, and we may be assured that after this year of becoming acquainted, Mr. Gafney will produce better and better results.

Manual's orchestra was very outstanding this year. At the beginning, members had no experience playing as a group, but under the excellent guidance of Mr. Frederick J. Curth an orchestra that Manual is proud of was developed.

BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

The combined Glee Clubs of all high schools assembled together on February 22, and sang patriotic songs in commemoration of the Bicentennial Celebration of the birth of George Washington. All these songs were composed by the music teachers and the Principal of East High School. The words are original but the tunes are those of patriotic songs.

HYMN TO WASHINGTON

Hail to him, all hail to him, the father of our glorious land,
Carried he the torch of freedom,
Passed to him from Pilgrim band.
By his wisdom was united
What stern custom parted wide.
All mankind are brothers plighted,
Where this freedom doth abide.

Joy, 'tis joy, from heav'n descended
Turns unseen the wheel of life,
Joy, by love and hope attended,
Leading hearts from worldly strife.
Draws the stream from hidden sources,
Stirs the seed in earth confined.
Rolls the stars along their courses,
Moves the hearts of all mankind.

PUBLICATIONS

The publication department has striven this year to produce better work than ever before, and it has succeeded.

Printing and journalism make up the department. The former prints the school paper, the Manualite, and various school materials including attendance sheets, report cards, tickets, etc. The beginning classes set up this material while the advanced classes print it.

The journalism department prepares the copy for the Manualite. The "Cubs" gather material and write it in newspaper style. The editors prepare the pages of the bi-monthly from material submitted by the "Cubs" and the editors themselves. Interviewing prominent business men is an interesting feature of this department.

The Manualite, a four page publication, contains five columns of both educational and amusing reading matter. The first page is devoted to general news; the second page is the editorial page, containing editorials, snappy features, book reviews, and the comic-strip; the third page has class and alumni notes and also features; the fourth page is devoted to sports.

The advisers of the Manualite staff are Miss Helen McDonna and Charles A. Barrett, who have devoted much time in promoting our paper.

Miss McDonna is in charge of the complete paper this year. With her general knowledge and ability, she led the Manualite Staff into fame, when the Manualite was first published. Charles A. Barrett, printing instructor, worked many extra hours to make the paper a success. Many alumni have subscribed to the paper because it keeps them in touch with the school affairs and activities.

The year book, the Nautilus, has been published for many years with much success. It consists of the following departments: Administration, Classes, Organizations, Military, Activities, Athletics, and Features. Deserving juniors and seniors comprise the staff. Many nights after school have been spent compiling facts and working on them, and on Saturdays, pleasures were given up so that more time might be used in making the annual a rousing success. Each department is thoroughly gone through, checked and rechecked, in order that the book might be as flawless as possible. The annual is highly revered by the graduating classes.

The Nautilus is ably supervised by Franklin S. Lamar. Through his efficient leadership and the cooperation of the staff a fine annual was produced.

FORENSICS

TOP ROW: Leach, Wechter, Sokolovitz, Mr. Fairchild, Ohlsen, Yockey.
 BOTTOM ROW: Planzer, Ozar, Neff, Lee, Ritz.

The debate teams of Manual this year have had a very successful season. Although the squad was not as large as in previous years, they held up the reputation of Manual speakers in fine manner.

The debate question this year was, "Resolved: That the Several States Should Enact Legislation Providing for Compulsory Unemployment Insurance."

Manual debaters opened the season against Parkville High School. They then met Topeka High, William Chrisman High, Kansas City Ad Club, and Wyandotte High. This year, at last, the Oxford Plan was used, that is, no decisions were rendered. In the Kansas City Ad Club and the Wyandotte debates decisions were given, and both Affirmative and Negative teams from Manual won.

The Demosthenes Debate Society met the Kansas City Ad Club in a novel senate debate. This event was a great success.

Many intra-school debates were held also. These events have shown good material with which Mr. C. C. Fairchild will mould next year's team.

Glenn Ohlsen, in the above picture, is not a debater. He represented Manual in the Star's Oratorical Contest.

DECLAMATORY, EXTEMPORE
AND ORATORICAL

Under the leadership and coaching of C. C. Fairchild, the public speaking department has brought to a close another successful and beneficial year.

On December 3 Frank Schlozman, Sam Arello, and Clem Fairchild participated in the Freshman-Sophomore oratorical contest. The winners were: Frank Schlozman, first, and Sam Arello and Clem Fairchild tied for second.

The school finals were held in assembly on March 18 to choose Manual's representative for the Kansas City Star Oratorical contest. Jake Sokolovitz, Glenn Ohlsen, and Leon Silver competed. Each orator made a six minute speech, after which he was allowed four minutes on his extemporaneous speech. The winners were: Glenn Ohlsen, first; Jake Sokolovitz, second; and Leon Silver, third. This was not an easily judged contest.

In the annual girls' and boys' school orations Anna Faye Lee and Jake Sokolovitz were first prize winners, Edith Ozar and Abraham Wechter were close seconds, and Edith Krevitzky and Leon Silver were third. The Astorian Debate Society sponsored the girls' orations, and the Demosthenes Debate Society sponsored the boys' orations. Gold medals were awarded to first place winners.

The City Constitutional Contest, held in Convention Hall April 16, was won by Lyman Field of Westport and Glenn Ohlsen of Manual placed second. Although Glenn did not place first, Manual is proud of him for placing second with such strong competition. The topic of his oration was "John Marshall and the Constitution."

Extemporaneous speeches were won by Morris Lerner, first place; Harold McClean, second; Ralph Hoffman, third; and Wayne Boring, fourth.

The declamation contest had not been given in time to publish the results in the Nautilus. This contest always proves interesting and exciting.

John Marshall and the Constitution

This earth was dark and our gracious God gave it light. Our Constitution was weak but John Marshall gave it strength—a strength born in the Declaration of Independence, seasoned in the rigors of the Revolution, and reaching maturity in the Supreme Halls of Justice. This strength is the firm but flexible interpretation of the rights of man.

It was in the year 1801 that John Marshall mounted to the dais of the Supreme Court. In his determination to make it more than a mere stepping stone for politicians, he, himself, became the Colossus of American jurisprudence. With a mind so originally brilliant that none but the golden rays of the rising sun could compare, he laid four great cornerstones to the Constitution—cornerstones supporting our Constitution—a structure that has weathered every storm the elements have to offer.

In the Marbury vs. Madison case he laid the first great cornerstone. Here Marshall boldly declared, "Congress cannot define the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and to do so is unconstitutional." Thus with original reasoning alone, he met and crushed the shadows of tyranny while it was still in the offing. He gave the scales of American justice a fixed point of balance and furnished American law the security of the great system of checks and balances.

With the same courage and originality he fixed the second great cornerstone. In the Fletcher vs. Peck case, localism struck at nationalism. But victory smiled at nationalism. In this decision Marshall coolly told the states that they were not independent and sovereign but that they were part of a vast empire, our United States, which through its Constitution imposes certain limitations upon the legislature of the various states.

Tirelessly he pushed on in the McCulloch vs. Maryland case. The great essence of this case lay in the introduction of the immortal doctrine of Implied Powers. In this decision, Marshall held that a state cannot tax an instrument of the national government, and that although the state is supreme within its sphere, it is necessary and proper that ultimate control of national finance be the province of the national government. Wherein, besides sowing the seed for a perfect financial system, he took two great elements, state and national, molded them into one, but without destroying their respective strengths. He made evident to the world that ours was a dual form of government.

In the Gibbons vs. Ogden case, Marshall annulled a state law which attempted to regulate inter-state commerce, thus insuring the mighty ocean of inter-state commerce against petty state restrictions and regulations.

Supported by the masterful decisions of John Marshall, our Constitution has stood the test of time, and has emerged the victor. So much we owe to the wisdom and sagacity of John Marshall that we cannot in a fitting manner pay him just tribute. In all humility we can but say, "If you would behold his monument, gaze upon our Constitution, a living document, elastic and well-balanced."

Today our Goddess of Liberty still holds her burning torch high, lit by the ideas of John Marshall. As we glory in the warmth of this mighty beacon, let us with an oath to the Almighty, swear to preserve, and steadfastly maintain the liberal exposition of this famous document that we may assure to our future generations an immortal Constitution which can never, never die.

THE INDIAN'S PROPHECY

In the Assembly on April 22, "A George Washington Bicentennial Play" by Major R. S. Lawrence was given by the Sophomore class of Room 229 under the direction of Miss Amanda B. Rucker.

The scene of the drama is laid in the valley of the Ohio. It deals with the staunch belief of the Frontiersman in his country and his right to resist the tax imposed by "Old Fat King George."

The Indian Sachem proclaims that the "Great Spirit" protects Colonel Washington and guides his footsteps; and prophesies that Washington will be the leader of many nations, and will be hailed by a people yet unborn as the founder of a mighty nation.

*Build thee more stately mansions,
O, my soul!
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou, at length, art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea.*

ATHLETICS

The "Manual Spirit," symbolizing victory or defeat with honor, but always striving to make the athletic teams a predominant part of our school life, prevails among all students.

The Manual athletes are looked upon with pride and honor whether they are on the athletic field or in the classroom.

Although our boys have not been championship contenders, the school as a whole is loyal to her athletes.

In the beginning of the school year, Coach McMURPHEY had no lettermen to start the annual fall tennis tournament. Joe Snider, the winner of the school tournament the spring before, represented the school in the singles. Frank Dethlefsen, Burke Cowan, Morris Lerner, and Melvin Johnson played in the doubles. Joe Snider was defeated in the finals by Bill Kiley of Westport. The double team failed to survive the first round.

Last year Mr. C. C. Fairchild, who has been in charge of the second team in years past, was unable to be with the boys due to the additional work in coaching the fall plays given by the dramatic department for the school benefit. Coach McMURPHEY carried on with both the first and second teams.

The Cheerleaders this year were led by Louis Dubinsky, being assisted by Paul Lambert, Tony Mange, and John Calcara. Congratulations are extended to them for their fine cooperation.

Mr. Barry, our athletic manager, should be highly praised for his directing of the financial part of the athletic program. He was also chairman of the Interscholastic Basketball League.

The Nautilus Staff wishes the athletic department a very successful season this coming school year.

FOOTBALL

TOP ROW: Coach McMurphey, Weber, Vaughn, Doyle, Herbie Knecht, Pasquallno, Butler, Mortallaro.
 SECOND ROW: P. Gilgus, Kwiatek, Meeker, Young, Long, Snider, M. Gilgus, Miller, Pipes, Hoffman.

When the 1930 football season rolled around, Coach John McMurphey had six lettermen and many promising prospects from last year's second team grinding daily on the practice field for another invasion of the Interscholastic League.

Two pre-season games were played before the league season opened. The first game went to Pembroke by the close score of 13-12. The second was lost to William Chrisman, after a hard battle, by the score of 13-0. In the William Chrisman game, the crowd got quite a thrill when the play by play of the game was broadcasted to the stands by means of a loud speaker.

In the Interscholastic League, the Cardinals opened against Paseo, and lost the game by a score of 19-0. The Pirates later proved champions of the league.

The Northeast and Westport games were the thrillers, the Cardinals playing superb ball, but still Manual's outcome was short.

After winning the Alumni game the Manual boys were sure the won column had returned, but meeting defeat in her league games were only what had happened the year before. Not becoming discouraged with defeat in every league game, they are ready to go out next fall with clinched fists and gritting teeth, trying to accomplish what the team of '25 did. Championship! It is a wonderful thing, though our boys were defeated, their fighting spirit was not.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS

JOE SNIDER, CAPTAIN - Halfback

Joe was a fine football captain. His splendid cooperation will be missed by his team-mates next fall.

JOHN LONG - Quarterback

John is next year's football captain. He is a very dependable player with a fine fighting heart. He made second all-star team this year.

BENNIE KWIATEK - Guard

This curly headed player was the life of the team. A low charging, hard hitting guard.

BERT YOUNG - Center

A very hard player who could always be depended upon. He was a "tough customer" for his opponents.

WADE HENDERSON - End

Wade was a great lineman. He was an excellent player, who gave all he had for Manual.

NORMAN OGILVIE - Tackle

Norman, the heaviest man on the team, is a battler. Few men broke past his defense.

TONY ANCONA - Guard

"Chicken," was the most talkative player on the team. He was an outstanding guard for his size.

ARTHUR MILLER - Fullback

"Art" was the little plunging fullback with plenty of speed and drive. A powerful little player for his size.

WESLEY PIPES - End

Second-team all-star. Pipes was a very smart player, who was always willing to do his part.

MELCHIOR ENNA - Tackle

This player was known to his friends as "Beans." He was a tackler and blocker with excellent ability.

CHARLES WEBER - End

"Chuck" was a very courageous player. We expect big things of him next year.

EDGAR STONE - Tackle

"Ed" was the tallest man on the team. He started the season in the backfield, but later proved a better lineman.

RAPHAEL DOYLE - Tackle

The smiling "Irish" stands out in Doyle. He was a very cool and collected player.

TOM MORTALLARO - Guard

Tom was a smart and scrappy player. He had plenty of weight and drive.

PAUL GILGUS - End

Paul played a plucky game at end.

MEYER GILGUS - Halfback

Meyer was a good broken-field runner with plenty of speed.

HARRY KNECHT - Guard

Harry was an efficient blocker, combined with speed and drive.

HERBERT KNECHT - Center

"Herbie" was the little boy who thrilled the crowd with his amazing tackles.

GERALD MEEKER - Fullback

Gerald was a willing type of athlete. He will return next fall to show his ability as a football player.

BASKETBALL

TOP ROW: Hurley, Litman, Nigro, Weber, Daleo, Coach McMurfhey.
 BOTTOM ROW: Stone, Kline, Plaskett, Dethlefsen, Parker, Long.

Coach John McMurfhey, having no lettermen to start the season, relied on the inter-class tournament to pick his team.

Manual started the season with a well earned victory over the alumni.

Basketball predictions were running high when the Cavaliers from De LaSalle met the same fate as the alumni.

The first game of the Interscholastic League was lost to Paseo. The Pirates later proved champions of the league.

In the huge Convention Hall the Cardinals could not get going. Plays worked to perfection but the inability to hit hoop spelled defeat. The East Greenies carried off a victory.

Northeast, runner-up to the champions, took the next game but not until the Cardinals had made a very gallant fight.

The Red Birds rose to their fullest heights in defeating our old rival Central, and once more kept them from winning the championship. Playing basketball that kept the Blue Eagles in constant frenzy, was only a part of what happened. Celebrating the victory with a bonfire on the parade was a brilliant climax ending a battle that won't be forgotten. "Bubber" Dethlefsen, "Wally" Parker and "Chuck" Weber took the leading roles in the victory.

Our bad luck returned when we met the Tigers from Westport, for again we played our enemy a good game, but the Tigers had a better margin at the end of the game.

In the final league game, Southwest Indians emerged victorious, with the scalps of the Red Birds tucked safely away. Frank Dethlefsen was named honorary captain for the 1931-32 season. Charles Weber and Dick Plaskett were elected co-captains for the 1932-1933 season. Bert Young served in a credible manner as Basketball Student Manager and was awarded a manager's letter in recognition of his efficient work.

Much credit should be given to our boys for their fine sportsmanship and glory they gave to MANUAL.

Paseo, Northeast, and Rockhurst represented the greater Kansas City High Schools in the State Tournament at Columbia, Missouri, with Rockhurst emerging as State Champions.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS

FRANK DETHLEFSEN - Captain

"Bubber" played the important position of center. His excellent floor play and ability to execute difficult shots were his outstanding features.

JOHN LONG - Guard

Johnnie was a fine guard. His defensive tactics and his hard driving play were assets to the team.

EDGAR STONE - Guard

Ed is a fine defensive player. With his height he was an advantage in controlling the ball off the backboard.

HARRY KLEIN - Forward

Harry is a fast, shifty player who helped to create teamwork, which is essential to fine play.

DICK PLASKETT - Forward

Dick, a sophomore, whom the Manual supporters are looking forward to in developing into a real star, was a fine forward.

WALLACE PARKER - Forward

"Wally" was drafted early in the season and performed to the advantage of the team. We remember Wally in the brilliant Central victory.

JOHN DALEO - Guard

Had Johnny been eligible all season the won-column might have told a different story.

CHARLES WEBER - Center

Charlie's field play and scoring pyrotechnics made him a great asset to the team. He returns next year.

MAX LITMAN - Forward

Max was unable to play all season because of the semester ruling, but his few games proved his worth as a forward.

TRACK

TOP ROW: Mortallaro, Sciortino, Reynolds, Cuba, Benizio, Reed, Saluzzi, Spillman, Santoro.
 SECOND ROW: Merli, Nigro, Hymer, Shaffer, Novello, Tidona, Tosto, Brugaletta, Cachero.
 BOTTOM ROW: Mendelsohn, Guastella, Long, McMurphey, Mange, Kwiatek, Gilgus.

Track is one of the oldest sports in the history of the school. It dates back to the days when Manual and Central were the only high schools. In 1921, Manual had the honor of winning the National Championship at the University of Chicago, an honor no other Kansas City high school has ever accomplished. The Cardinals also have a record still standing in the annual city meet—that is, the 12 lb. shot put, heaved by Marshall in 1916 for a distance of 49 feet  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

Although track doesn't contain all the thrills you would expect to see in football and basketball, it is a sport where much intensive training and coaching is necessary. In sprinting the fundamental of form is stressed, while in the longer distances, the 440- and 880-yard runs, judgment of pace, speed, physical condition, and endurance are also very essential. In the field events correct form and consistent practice are necessities, if the competitor is striving to excel.

In the annual K. C. A. C. Invitational meet, Manual placed fifth. Tony Mange showed excellent form in the dashes.

This year the track team is built around four lettermen, who have returned for interscholastic competition. Tony Mange, captain, is a dash man with exceptional ability, Meyer Gilgus, a 440- and 880-yard runner; and Manuel Sciortino, a distance runner; and John Long, pole vaulter, are sure to be point winners for Manual.

The newcomers who are expected to bring track honors to Manual are Tommy Mortallaro, Willie Landrum, and Glen Shaffer in the dashes; Bill Spillman, George Hymer, Francis James, Bernard Cuba, Crisanto Cachero, and Michael Hurley in the high jump. The quarter and half-milers are Manuel Sciortino, George Guastella, Meyer Gilgus, Harry Knecht, and Cesare Merli. The broad jump is represented by Edgar Stone, George Hymer, Bernard Cuba, and Bill Spillman. In the relays are Tony Mange, Manuel Sciortino, and Tommy Mortallaro. The weight men are Edgar Stone, John Daleo, and Harry Knecht who will put the shot.

The track season is not yet in full swing as this book goes to press, therefore, we cannot give you the results of the meets, but Coach McMurphey is looking forward to a very successful season.

The Boys' "M" Club, although not a chartered club, is one of the most interesting and important clubs in school. It was organized in 1922 by Mr. Selvidge, former Athletic director, now present coach at Paseo High School. In order to be a member of the club, one must win his letter in a major sport. It was formed in order to promote good sportsmanship in school and in later life. It should be the ambition of every boy in Manual to belong to this club.

FOOTBALL RESERVES

TOP ROW: Coach McMurphey, Staats, Nigro, Lucito, Spear, Rosen, Connelly, W. Williams, Mallo, Butler, Spillman.
SECOND ROW: J. Williams, Miller, Vaughn, Doyle, Guentz, Vaught, Pasqualino, Santaro, Sciortino, Hurley, Pericone.

Many juniors and sophomores took active part in the second-team games last fall. Having achieved second place in the league, this powerful bunch of players should prove real threats for interscholastic competitors this coming fall. The outstanding boys were Bob Vaught, Captain; Kenneth Guentz, Sam Santora, Ralph Hoffman, William Staats, Bill Spillman, Don Pasqualino, Manuel Sciortino and Mike Grebowiec.

CHEER AND SONG LEADERS

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

DR. HELEN R. PERKINS
Physical Training

A Sports Class was organized this year, in which only juniors and seniors were enrolled. This class, under the direction of Dr. Perkins, was partly responsible for the successful year of girls' athletics.

Dr. Perkins should be highly complimented for the wonderful work she has been doing this year. She has charge of six gymnasium classes in which about one hundred and fifty girls are enrolled. She is also swimming instructor, adviser of the Girls' "M" Club, an athletic organization, and had charge of the dance for the R. O. T. C. Circus.

Baseball was one of the most popular sports this year. The idea of Inter-Home-Room competition was introduced this year. We have quite a few "Babe Ruths" on our teams. A beautiful silver loving cup was presented to rooms 222 and 224, combined, for winning the tournament. Second place went to room 344. The Girls' "M" Club sponsored this tournament and was responsible for the presentation of the cup.

A new game, called teniquoit, sometimes known as deck tennis, won the popularity of the students. Dr. Perkins learned the game on her way to England last summer. The champion players were Glorian Mineo and Mildred Bensley.

Tennis is one of the major sports. All of the girls studied the tennis rules this year and a number of girls were taught to play tennis. Experienced girls learned to play doubles and spent much of their time improving their strokes. The spring tournament will not be finished in time to publish the results. Both doubles and singles, however, have proven very interesting. Lottie Mandelbaum is tennis manager.

The first of the minor sports of the year is the enjoyable game of volleyball. Fern Enloe, manager of regular and giant volleyball, handled the tournament very nicely.

Basketball will probably always be a favorite sport of the majority of the girls. Unfortunately the freshmen did not enter the tournament. Since basketball is such a popular sport, many girls report for practice and the selection of the teams presents a difficult task. The seniors, as usual, won the championship, but they had to fight hard to gain this title. The juniors tramped over the seniors in the first round of the tournament. There were two teams from each of the three upper-classes, which made the games more exciting. Mary Frances James, who is a junior, was manager of basketball. A team of our girls played the girls from William Christman High School, Independence, Missouri, and were winners. The score 26-10.

The managers are chosen by Dr. Perkins with the help of the girls. They are chosen on the scale of good sportsmanship, leadership, ability to excel, intuitiveness, and persistency. The managers are: baseball, Maezel Young; volleyball, Fern Enloe; teniquoit, Margaret Sargent; tennis, Lottie Mandelbaum; basketball, Mary Frances James; swimming, Vivian Reed; endball, Ida May McCroskey.

The following girls are eligible for State letters: seniors, Dorothy Craig, Vivian Reed, Mary Ruth Fulton, Ethel Bost, Margaret Sargent, Fern Enloe, Pauline Hughes, Helen Mintz, Esther Reisboard, and Lottie Mandelbaum. The juniors who have qualified for state letters are: Emma Fluderer, Alice Hoeltgen, Glorian Mineo, Ruth Evans, Ida Mae McCroskey, Beulah Sturgeon, Dorothy Calahan, Tillie Untriff, Anna Sorkin, Alvena Kramer, Marie Anderson, and Anna Karner.

BASEBALL

TOP ROW: K. Copulos, Major, Hulet, Juniper, Howe, Hughes, Reilsbord, Calahan, Blaser, Gamble, Stolov, Brown, Glade.
 THIRD ROW: Cohen, Bost, Hooper, Emerson, Kramer, Anderson, Kuebler, Buck, Fulton, Ban, Bosley, Reed.
 SECOND ROW: Brillhart, M. Fulton, Morano, Goforth, Stafford, Gottlieb, Bear, Hanson, Craig, Young, Enloe.
 BOTTOM ROW: Morgan, Copulos, Dumas, Nigro, Mineo, Evans, (Captain), Robbins, Paladino, Beard, Mintz, Mandelbaum.

The inter-home room games made a very big hit with the students. This year was the first time competition of this sort was tried in Manual. The girls responded so nicely there will be a similar tournament next year. The last game, to decide which home room would receive the championship, was attended by the boys. Five cents admission was charged for this game. With the money taken in the athletic department bought a beautiful silver loving cup for the champion team. Rooms 222 and 224, combined, won by one point over room 344. The room numbers of the winning team were engraved on the cup along with their captain's name, Ruth Evans. This cup is kept by this room all during this year, but it will go to the champion next year, and so on as long as we continue to have inter-home room competition in baseball. The general manager of baseball was Maezel Young.

LIFE-SAVING

TOP ROW: Morgan, West, McReynolds, Gottlieb, Mineo, Wright.
SECOND ROW: Karner, Salisbury, Brillhart, Clifton, Goldsmith, Weinstein, Ross.
BOTTOM ROW: McCroskey, Evans, Schulz, Reed, Hughes, Fulton, Counts.

Many girls enjoy Manual's beautiful swimming pool and avail themselves of the opportunity to become good swimmers. Every girl in the gym classes learns to swim while many become life-savers.

The interest in American Red Cross Life-Saving seems to grow from year to year. Girls between the ages of twelve and seventeen, after having had adequate instruction and practice in life-saving, become eligible to take the junior life-saving examination. This examination is given by a committee of three members of the American Red Cross Life-Saving Examiners' Board. The applicants are required to disrobe in deep water and swim one hundred yards, to recover an object three times, and a ten pound weight once from deep water. A swimmer must do a correct approach, and a cross chest, hair, arm-lock, and tired swimmer carry, and must be able to break a front and back strangle hold, left and right, and a double dip on one wrist. The applicant is also required to make a one and one-half minute demonstration of resuscitation. She must also swim one-fourth mile. After passing this test, the swimmer becomes a member of the American Red Cross Corps and is entitled to wear a life-saving emblem.

A senior life-saver must be over seventeen years of age, and have passed the junior test and the much harder senior test, and swim one mile. Again the names of the girls cannot be put in because of the late date they passed these tests.

SPORT MANAGERS

TOP ROW: Daisey Hooper, class manager; Emma Fluderer, class manager; Mathilde Schulz, class manager; Blanche Tanner, class manager; Vivian Reed, swimming manager; Ida Mae McCroskey, end-ball manager.
FRONT ROW: Margaret Sargent, tennis manager; Fern Enloe, volleyball manager; Frances James, basketball manager; Lottie Mandelbaum, tennis manager; Maezel Young, baseball manager.

Dr. Perkins with the help of the gym girls chose these girls to take full charge of the sport of which they were manager. Each one of these girls did her job very nicely, and received the co-operation of the remainder of the girls.

SENIOR BASKETBALL

Top Row: "She is ever full of sincere enthusiasm and enjoyment." HELEN MINTZ
"If her E's were diamonds we would have to look at her through smoked glasses." LOTTIE MANDELBAUM
"Of friends she has many—of foes has she any?" MARGARET SARGENT
"It's nice to be natural, when you're naturally nice." ETHEL BOST
"Her quiet ways won her silent applause." HELEN EMERSON
"Where needed most Emma was always there." EMMA FLUDERER
"A jolly good friend to all, what more could be said?" ESTHER REISBORD
Front Row: "Divinely fair, divinely tall." DOROTHY CALAHAN
"Happy, carefree, and gay." VIVIAN REED
"A genial disposition brings its owner many friends." FERN ENLOE
"Very sweet and very apt to stay that way." MARY RUTH FULTON
"She goes to school with a practical end in view." DOROTHY CRAIG
"A delicious mixture of cuteness, sweetness, and frivolity." MAEZEL YOUNG

The seniors succeeded in winning the championship again this year. However, they lost one game during the season to the juniors. The girls elected Mary Ruth Fulton as their captain throughout the season. Mary certainly showed that she had the ability to manage the game. Maezel Young, as coach, was responsible for the wonderful team work and many team plays and passes the seniors executed in the games.

May the seniors win in the outside world as they have in basketball.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

- Top Row:* "Pretty, petite, and popular." MATHILDE SCHULZ
"None but herself can be her equal." ALVENA KRAMER
"Possessed with a definite feminine charm." MARIE ANDERSON
"Active mind—active body." FREDA ROBBINS
"Sunny side up." IDA MAE McCROSKEY
"The only way to have a friend is to be one." ALICE HOELTGEN
- Front Row:* "A friendly smile is a valuable passport." REBA PARRISH
"May her future career be as worth while as her school career."
MARY FRANCES JAMES
"She played her way to success." GLORIAN MINEO
"She did her best and that was plenty." RUTH EVANS
"To take life as it comes is her creed." MARJORIE HANSON

The juniors had the largest number of girls out for basketball this year. They won second place in the tournament. Mary Frances James, center, was general manager of basketball. The juniors should be very proud of Mary Frances. And if they are under her leadership next year they will make it the most successful season ever. Glorian Mineo was captain of the team. She also proved to be a good leader.

Come on juniors, your chance will come next year.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

- Top Row:* "Friendliness is the base of success." GLADYS HULET
"Favors to none, to all she smiles extends." DOROTHY HOWE
"A jolly good friend to all." BERTHA HUGHES
"Cora is the type of person we like to know." CORA STAFFORD
"Work hard and your reward shall be great." NADINE JUNIPER
"Those who know her are particularly blessed." MINNIE PALADINO
"Quiet, but ready for opportunity." HELEN MORGAN
"She played her way into our hearts." MARGARET BORDEAUX
- Front Row:* "Silent but dependable." CATHERINE MORANO
"A real sport in every game." MARY ANN GOFORTH
"She has won the friendship and admiration of many." MAURINE BUCK
"Everyone likes her who knows her—everyone knows her." ELEANOR BLASER
"Her modesty and genius will help her make her way in this world."
EVALYN GAMBLE
"Another in a round of success." LEORA MAJOR
"Wherever you meet her she's just Leoma." LEOMA McREYNOLDS

The most inexperienced team was the sophomores. They are working very hard, however, to gain their place in sports. On the sophomore team, the girls are not only interested in basketball, they partake of every sport possible. We have some very promising sophomores.

R. O. T. C. CIRCUS

TOP ROW: Brown, Anderson, Bost, Reisbord, Salisbury, Maycumber, Glade, Gamble, Osborn, Langford, Belingloph.
THIRD ROW: Bear, Winegar, Stolov, Calahan, Hanson, Renkert, Dumas, McCroskey, House, Lane.
SECOND ROW: Fulton, Evans, Tabolsky, Morris, Enloe, Kuebler, Craig, D. Marshall, Goldsmith, Palmer, Bates.

The girls of the gymnasium classes give a dance number each year at the annual R. O. T. C. Circus. The physical education director, Dr. Helen R. Perkins, gave her time during and after classes teaching the girls the dance. It was a beautiful scarf dance with red, white, and blue scarfs.

The costumes were of the Grecian type. They were white, draped over one shoulder, with a silver sash around the waist line.

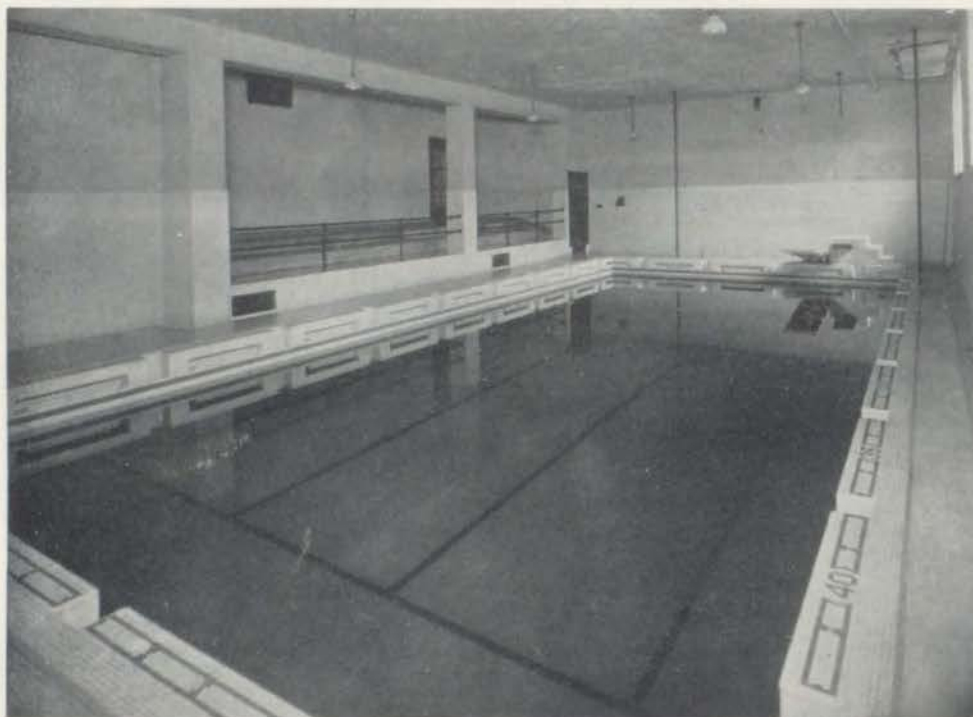

Approximately one hundred girls were in the dance.

It was brought to a conclusion as the girls lifted the American flag from a box and carried it off the floor. It can easily be said, it was the most impressive dance of the night.

The girls and Dr. Perkins eespecially wish to thank Captain Harry E. Mitchell for making it possible for these pictures to be put in our year book. Captain Mitchell personally paid for the pages on which the pictures appear.

TOP ROW: C. Stafford, Jue, Price, Hale, H. Young, Willhite, Easton, L. Major, James, West, Robbins.
THIRD ROW: Goforth, B. Major, Walters, Cohen, Le Gate, Himmel, Buck, Gray, Morano, Paladino.
SECOND ROW: Stafford, Rosenbaum, G. Mineo, Schulz, M. Mineo, Munoz, Duckworth, Young, Ozar.
BOTTOM ROW: Untriff, Beard, Capito, Brillhart, Howe, Sargent, M. Fulton, Ban, Belmonte.

SENIOR WILL

Fern Bandy will not leave anything because she is taking her baby talk with her.
Joe Snider leaves his "blushing youth" to Louis Dubinsky.
Louise Martin wills her cuteness to Dot Winkler.
Helen Neff's blonde hair is willed to Helen LeGate.
Pax Fuehrer's shortness goes to Pauline Grammens.
Kathryn Kramos leaves her title of most talkative girl to anyone who can do it justice.
Glenn Ohlsen leaves his Oratorical ability to Clem Fairchild.
Jean Ealy wills her dancing talent to Millie Brown. May she succeed!
Melchior Enna will receive Beulah Mansfield's red hair. Here's luck!
On Cecelia Moraine is bestowed the honor of Edith Ozar's curls.
Through Lottie Mandelbaum's generosity, Elizabeth Etherton may have some curly hair this year, if she's nice.
Della Rogers' dimples are unanimously left to Helen Harris.
Rose Bell wills her popularity to Ceola Oswald.
Anna Faye Lee may have Gerald Green's seriousness. (If she'll behave).
Maezel Young hands her majorship to Velma Craig.
Helen Smith will let John Long take possession of her singing ability.
Grace Hann bequeaths her dignifiedness to Mathilde Schulz.
Bertha Lomax says that Mary Frances James can have her Girl Reserve tie.
Quiet ways and Thelma Larson will go hand in hand, Warren Bales thinks, so he takes up noise for a while.
Frank Schlozman can have Esther Litman's ability to chew gum.
Ellouise Green will receive George Hymer's poetic ability.
Leonard Fink wills his captainship to Willie Cohen.
Charles and Anthony Haman will their similarity to the next similar twins who come to Manual.
Delia Sharp bequeaths her business managership to Dorothy Ross.
Margaret Sargent says anyone who wants to be as slim as she is can have her diet menu.
And the whole Senior Class wills their great knowledge to those insignificant Juniors. May they do it justice.

CALENDAR

Sept. 8—Annual carload of "greens" arrives and immediately is found planted all over the place.

Sept. 10—Everyone is getting down to business again. Seniors are taking on a dignified look. It's a shame that they're so unsuccessful. Juniors are trying to drown the frustrating sophomore spirit and the sophs are turning from a bright green to a yellowish tint. The "frosh" are still dazed and wondering what it's all about.

Sept. 14—Football boys begin practice today. High hopes for a successful year are held by every loyal student.

Sept. 15—The Manualite staff is working hard to get their first paper out on time.

Sept. 17—Our first game with Pembroke tomorrow. Everyone is excited. We want to start out by winning, of course.

Sept. 18—Shucks! We lost, but only by one point. Better luck next time.

Sept. 25—Hurray! Manualite out on time. Lot of "ohs" and "eee's" are heard in every corner of the hall.

Oct. 1—"Good-ole Coach" and his squad stages a football demonstration in our first assembly this year.

Oct. 6—The Female Freshies are welcomed by the G. R.'s at a "Pal Party" given in the Music Hall today. They had a lovely time.

Oct. 9—Three of the Manualite Staff attended a journalism conference at K. U. and brought back a new word, namely, "Nincompoop." Meaning? They were Fern Bandy, Rose Bell and Louise Martin.

Oct. 10—The Pirates overran the Cardinals in the first league game today with the score standing 20-0. Our vaseline quadruplets showed their stuff at this game. Of course we mean John Calcara, Paul Lambert, Tony Mange, and Louis Dubinsky.

Oct. 14—Ah! A mixer at last. And did it go over with a "BANG?"

Oct. 15—R. O. T. C. officers announced.

Oct. 16—Played East today. What a game! 13-0—for them.

Oct. 22—Wonder why a lot of the senior girls are making eyes at the R. O. T. C. boys?

Oct. 24—Played Northeast today and lost—well, anyway, we had a touchdown. Thanks, Meyer.

Oct. 29—C. C. starts work on his one-act comedies for the annual presentation of plays.

Oct. 31—Played our beloved rival. Lost. Special events: Coach's black derby, Joe's lost tooth, everybody's freezing—but hot-dogs saved the day.

N A U T I L U S

Nov. 5—Oooh! Have we got a good second team? Hasn't lost a game yet. We scarcely have to hope for a good team next year.

Nov. 7—Tigers made a flying leap and landed just in front of us in our game today. Thanks, Joe, for your "swell" touchdown.

Nov. 11—Manual defeated her Alumni. Whoopee! 13-6. Boy o' boy, what a game!

Nov. 12—The G. R. have international banquet. Even the food had a foreign taste!

Nov. 13—The clubs held their fall initiations today. Poor Raphael Doyle, were they mean to 'oo?

Nov. 18—Defeated again, this time by Southwest.

Nov. 20—Oh! those "Heavenly Twins." How did Clifton Winfrey ever get those shoes on? The plays were a huge success.

Nov. 25—The Burytonians present "Thanksgiving Day in 1621." "Goodnight Sweetheart" gives a perfect start to our second mixer. This one was sponsored by the student council. Vacation. Dreams of turkeys.

Nov. 30—Back to school again. Cranberries become "Cram-berries" once more.

Dec. 10—The Demosthenes gave a play today. Everyone enjoyed it.

Dec. 13—The R. O. T. C. boys have all the girls worried. You know it's about time to elect sponsors.

Dec. 17—The inter-society party was enjoyed by everyone present.

Dec. 22—Bad news. Mr. Fairchild broke his arm. Everyone misses him. We can't wait until he returns.

Dec. 23—Good-bye dear diary until school opens again. We all have a splendid chance to catch up on our sleep.

Jan. 4—Back to school again.

Jan. 6—Virgil Caldwell makes a bet. He says he can select the five sponsors. He chooses six—if five of these are elected, Junior Brown will roll a peanut with his nose on the night of the hop. If less than five of those picked are chosen, Virgil will perform with the peanut.

Jan. 9—The Nautilus Staff was announced today.

Jan. 19—Examinations began today. Oh, that awful last minute cramming!

Jan. 22—Holiday. Boy, what a relief to get those examinations over with—successfully?

Jan. 23—Played East tonight and lost.

Jan. 25—Grade cards came out. We learned how little we knew.

Feb. 3—Everyone enjoys another mixer.

Feb. 4—The Astorians present a "flowery" play.

Feb. 5—Annual Cadet Hop. Sponsors announced.

Feb. 12—Oh boy, oh boy, oh boy! How we did beat Central! 12-7. Did you see the large, fiery bonfire with which we celebrated the victory?

Feb. 18—Glenn places first today in the school oratorical contest. Jake Sokolovitz was second and Leon Silver, third.

Feb. 19—'nother defeat. Westport vs. Manual, score 17-11.

Feb. 22—Each and every loyal pupil renews his acquaintance with the "Father of His Country."

Feb. 24—Started taking pictures for the Nautilus.

Feb. 26—Last game today. Defeated by Southwest.

Mar. 8—Junior girls' basketball team defeated by the senior girls in the finals today.

Mar. 18—The G. R. and Hi-Y have a St. Patrick's Day party at the Y. W. C. A. The "Mulligans" and the "Murphies" had a "greenish good time"!

Mar. 24—The Gold Star Mothers presented a program in assembly to dedicate a tree to the Manual boys who gave their lives in the war.

Mar. 28—Our little freshmen instruct us on the tax levy by giving a "school sketch" in assembly today. Everyone heard Clem, Jr.

Apr. 7—Boys' and girls' Oratorical contest in assembly today. Anna Faye Lee placed first in the girls' contest and Jake Sokolovitz, in the boys'. Other contestants were: girls, Edith Ozar and Edith Krevitzky; boys, Abraham Wechter and Leon Silver.

Apr. 12—Nautilus Staff presents a program in assembly.

Apr. 16—Glenn places second in the Star's Oratorical Contest.

Apr. 20—Boys' Extemp took place today. Morris Lerner placed first, Harold McClean, second. Pins were presented to Anna Faye Lee and Jake Sokolovitz.

May 3—Our dignified Major lost the bet, consequently having to roll a peanut with his nose. This happened at the R. O. T. C. picnic today.

May 4—The sewing girls exhibited their work tonight at our annual open-house. Girls from the dramatic department presented "The Wrong Baby." The "Dance Trio" performed a ribbon dance and the "skippers" presented "To the Colors."

May 19—P. T. A. picnic at Fairyland.

May 20—Those juniors sure do know how to put things over with a "BANG"! For example, the Prom. The refreshments were delicious, and the decorations marvelous.

May 24—Athenas give their seniors a grand send-off.

One Hundred Thirty-Nine

May 27—What a reception! It was by far the best party of the year. The gym was decorated with the patriotic red, white and blue honoring the Bicentennial of Washington's birth. The girls in their lovely gowns made a beautiful picture for everyone to remember.

May 30—How dull it seems around school with the Seniors gone. You have to admit that this year's class was one of the nicest in years.

June 6—Last week of school—Examinations—and how everyone is working.

June 7—What beautiful commencement we had this year. The stage with its sweet smelling flowers, the lovely dresses of the girls and the neat suits of the boys presented a picture that will always remain in our memory.

June 10—Well, 'bye dear old Manual—We'll be back next year.

TEN YEARS FROM NOW WE SEE—

Glenn Ohlsen as president of Oxford College.

Kay Kramos is head of the Dramatic Department at Missouri University.

Delia Sharp is still trying to collect money for the Nautilus.

Jake Sokolovitz is now mayor of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Meyer Gilgus will run in the Olympics at California as Jerusalem's contestant.

Gelena Kramos is still poring over her History books.

Louise Martin and Fern Bandy are the "Mystery Dancers" that we have been reading about as having captivated Europe.

Jean Ealy has been chosen by King George of England to dance at his Court this summer.

Virginia Greenway was chosen the most graceful person on the stage.

Pax Fuehrer as the tallest woman in Ringling's Circus.

Vivian Reed is taking swimming lessons from John Weismuller.

- A is for Athlete
Who wears a cute frock.
He wears it because
Shhh! His clothes are in hock.
- B is for Bungalow
And we don't think it's funny
They spend all their time
Taking our money.
- C is for Cafeteria
Where the hungry one goes
How does one find it?
O! surely your nose knows.
- D is for Dark
For girls away from home
Must be in at ten o'clock
Streets are not to roam.
- E is for English
A very proper tool
Where we learn to quote Shakespeare
And we do things by rule.
- F is for Flapper
Cute girls they say
Who spend all of their time
Flapping their time away.
- G is for Glee Club
Boy and girl singers
And take it from me
They surely are "humdingers."
- H is for History
Where you trouble your head
Getting facts and dates
About folks who are dead.
- I is for Ignorance
A subject that's good
You can talk to the ignorant
And be understood.
- J is for Jollity
In each curricular course
All of us can qualify
And laugh ourselves hoarse.
- K is for "Kalisthenics"
Down in the gym
To make the fat get fatter
And the slim stay slim.
- L is for Love
And it's no disgrace
To patronize the subject
And try a new case.
- M is for Men
Who have for their goals
To pass up the girls
And thus save their souls.
- N is for Nothing
The grade of the saps
Who get in red ink
For taking their naps.
- O is for Orators, Ohlsen and such
A bunch of smart birds
Who have won High School honors
For saying big words.
- P is for Psychology
A subject that's deep
You go to the lectures
And get talked to sleep.
- Q is for Quiz
The teachers' delight
No matter how you mark
The thing is never right.
- R is for "ritin" and
It's never a bother
When one is dead broke
To write a check on father.
- S is for the Senior boys
Stars of field, gym and track
They win fine honors
And girls never lack.
- T is for Teas
Musicals, dances and such
Everybody goes
They like them so much.
- U is for "Us and Company"
Our old M. T. H. S.
Where we learn and have fun
And oh! never fuss.
- V is for Victory
That we win in all things
For we strive and endure
And fame and honor it brings.
- W is for Women
For better or for worse
Good for the heartache
But bad for the purse.
- X is for "X'cellence"
And you'll all confess
That the proper reward is
Your diploma from dear old
M. T. H. S.
- Y is for Yell Leader
And to please these boys
You must smack your neighbor's hat
And make plenty of noise.
- Z is for Zalabuma
What! did you cry?
Oh! you never heard of it
Well, neither did I.

WHAT IF—

William Edwards had black hair? We'd be shocked.

Max Webb could read a Latin sentence through in 1 minute? We'd be slayed.

Roberta Clifton forgot how to swim? The pools would stay closed.

Clem Fairchild would grow? We couldn't tell Jr. from Sr.

Florence Bradley could sing? School would be closed.

Abe Grundman forgot how to blush? Maybe his freckles would disappear.

Dorothea Ozar resembled Edith? Wouldn't she be lucky.

Harold Ingram got "E" in Algebra? Somebody would Pop!

Helen Brillhart could tap dance? She'd be expelled.

Mr. Lamar would play with the Yo-Yo tops? Oooooooo!

Maria Munoz would whisper? My, how quiet it would be in the gym.

Theda Helgeson forgot Bert Young? It wouldn't seem right.

Frank Schlozman left his oration at home? He might not have won a medal.

Freda Smith gave the correct baby to its mother? No play.

Veto Enna was called "Beans"? We wouldn't stand for it.

Jack Clifton was athletic? His sister wouldn't be.

Carl Hamilton would laugh? Alice Hoeltgen would wonder?

Mary Mineo was a senior? She'd graduate.

Grace Stevenson received an "F"? Oh, the cruel world!

Jack Ritz sold a play ticket? He'd sell more.

The Following Was Taken From a Test Given To a Freshman Science Class.

Contagious disease is contracted by handling obstacles touched by a person.

Name two dreaded diseases. Thifford fever. Also diptheare.

A strip of zinc and a strip of copper compromise a simple cell.

A dry cell has a positive nectrode.

How is the body temperature kept constant in summer? By wearing cold clothes.

How does perspiration cool the body? It causes the air to evaporate.

How does clothing keep us warm in winter? Spontaines combustion causes it because when your body is hot and the wool rubs against it, it makes it warmer.

What did Pasteur do? He invented a machine that pasteurizes milk.

The Parable of the High School Freshman

And it came to pass that the son of a husbandman graduated from the village grade school. Now, the husbandman was greatly pleased with the accomplishment of his offspring.

As the ninth month approached the husbandman called to his son saying "My son, draw nigh, I would have speech with you." And the young man listened to his father. This said the father: "Son, you are pleasing in my sight. Lo! you have completed the village grade school. Methinks I will send you to Manual to the great Temple of Knowledge that you may sit at the feet of the wise men and women and learn of them. Therefore, my son, gird yourself in your best raiment."

Straightway the young man arose, packed the family trunk and departed for the station in his father's trusty flivver.

After many hours the young man arrived at the Temple of Learning in the city of Kansas City.

Now, the wise men of the temple admonished the young man to schedule for a heavy course. Being a stranger in the land, he heeded their advice and was given a list of subjects which involved much trial.

When the young man beheld his schedule, he was sorrowful. And he said, "I will arise and go to my father."

Now it came to pass as he was about to leave the temple by the west door he met a group of young men. Noting that he was bowed down with grief they comforted him, saying: "Be of good cheer. Your schedule is not heavier than you can bear. Behold us! We neither study nor toil, yet Solomon in all his wisdom could not make better grades than we."

And the young man lifted up his face and rejoiced. And he spoke unto the young men, saying: "Your course shall be my course, and your teachers my teachers."

So the young man anointed his head with oil that his hair might stick down hard and fast.

It came to pass that the wise men and women of the temple worked diligently that the young man might acquire knowledge. To show his appreciation of their efforts he straightway cut a class.

The young man soon became accustomed to life in the Temple. He chose the teachers whose courses were easy and whose teaching was light.

His life was one of ease and contentment. Sometimes he attended assembly where a strange man, whom he seldom saw, admonished the young men and women to devote themselves to much study. But it was a voice crying in the wilderness, for the young man heeded it not.

After many days the young man returned to his father's house.

Now, the father marveled at his son. For the young man could send cigarette smoke forth from his nostrils. He slept during the day and wandered about at night.

And the boy's mother spoke unto her son, saying "Son, did you spend much time in the study hall?" And the young man answered his mother saying: "Surely, mother, you speak foolishness. There is no study hall."

And the mother, loving her son, pressed him no more questions.

Mr. Huscher—Yes, I'll give you my roll book.

Mr. Barry—I always make my r's like that. You know, you can't teach an old dog new tricks.

Henry Jacobson—What happens when you take hydrochloric acid?

Mr. Laury—It all depends on how you take it.

Teacher—You aren't playing the game.

John Long—What a game!

Edith Ozar—Oh, Lewis, your engine is smoking!

Lewis Bratt—Well, it's old enough.

Mr. Fairchild—You'll find the city of Washington interesting even at night.

Imogene McBee—Naturally.

Jack Frogue—Money sure talks, doesn't it?

Howard McCubbin—I wish I had some to keep me company.

"IT'S?"

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

Louis Dubinsky without a new joke?
 Mr. Fairchild without an excellent debate team?
 Beans being referred to as "Melchior"?
 The high and mighty Gerald Green carrying Rose Bell's ballet slipper?
 Fern Bandy without her baby talk?
 We can't.
 Margie Mae Rhoads without Elizabeth Etherton?
 Ethyl Rosenbaum and Lottie Mandelbaum going home without all their books?
 Miss Pugh without a million things to do?
 Helen Neff with red hair?
 Our army in a really, truly war?
 Kathryn Kramos being voted the quietest girl?
 Manual without our beloved faculty?

THINGS I NEVER KNEW UNTIL NOW

Pigskins are necessary to hold the pig together.
 Girls that wear cotton stockings are either over confident or else just don't give a darn.
 A garlic sandwich is two pieces of bread traveling in bad company.
 It's a long lane that somebody hasn't written a song about.
 A woman is known by the kind of company she keeps waiting.
 A drink in the hand is worth two bucks in the Night Club.

Miss McDonna: What part of speech is woman?

Henry Thorpe: Woman ain't a part of speech, she's all of it.

Edith Ozar: Morris, do you know why a bride likes to wear white on her wedding day?

Morris Lerner: Nope, I don't know about brides.

Edith: Well, she believes it's her happiest day.

Morris: Then it's no wonder that the bridegroom always wears black.

Henry Jacobson: James, did you ever hear that story about the Scotchman who left fifteen cents on the counter?

James Saunders: No.

Henry: And you never will!

Frank Lloyd: May I have the last dance with you?

Helen Mudson: Well, you've already had it.

Melchior Enna: Here comes Miss Sexton, I have to ask her for a date.

Margie Mae Rhoads: A date!

Melchior: Yes, a date for the prom.

Frank Allen: Did you ever hear about the man over the hill who died and willed everything he had to an orphan asylum?

Helen Neff: How much did he will?

Frank: Ten children.

Fannye Shanker: In this case the lady bugs don't do any damage.

Celia Eisenberg: Of course not, they're ladies!

Mr. Dixon: How shall we factor this problem?

Bertha Lomax: Take pi out!

Mr. Dixon: Yes, take pie out and save it for dessert.

Fern Bandy: Please address the chair.
Virgil Caldwell: May I dress the chair?

Mr. Fairchild: Where is Rebecca?

A. Sorkin: She's in the hospital having her eye operated on.

L. Dubinsky: Ah! another good pupil gone!

Miss Griffith: Now remember, silk worms eat only mulberry leaves.

Helen Smith: Gee, but they're particular.

Joe Snider: Who are we going to dedicate the Nautilus to this year?

Lottie M.: To George Washington.

Joe: Why dedicate it to him, he didn't go to Manual.

Mr. Denison: Do you ever think of Geometry at home?

Ida Mae McCroskey: Yes, sir, in the gym the other night we tried to see how many geometrical figures we could find.

Charles Haman: Why is the modern flapper like a bungalow?

Josephine Stillwell: Painted in front, shingled behind, and no upstairs.

Juanita Mealer: What should be done in a case of drowning?

Ruth Evans: I think the natural thing would be to have a funeral.

CLASS ROOM

OUR DEAR TEACHERS

Miss Kube, while reading Scott, saw Peter's son trying to Peer through the window. She got up to Chase him because he was trying to Steele a Barry pie. Peter's Fairchild jumped on his Campbell and said, "Ah, this will Huscher!" Then he rode to Lamar, Kansas, singing a Carroll all the way. The next night they decided to Bury the hatchet since Miss Kube had to grin and Barrett.
"All's well that ends well."

WE SAY—

Brother: When you bring her home with the milk man, about three sheets to the wind, and the old man is on the porch with artillery, be nonchalant—light out!

When a man breaks a date he generally has to.

When a girl breaks a date she generally has two.

How about sponge cake for the gold digger who is on a diet.

She is the sort of woman whose face reminds me of Whitman's poetry. The lines are so deep.

Lipstick is the arch enemy of secrecy.

WHAT IS A POOR EDITOR TO DO?

This idea of humor is a chuckle.

If I print jokes, people say that I'm silly and vulgar.

If I don't, they say I'm too "High Hat" and won't read it.

If I write original matter they say I lack variety.

If I print clippings from other annuals, I am lazy.

If I go out rustling news, I am wasting time.

If I don't, I am not attending to business.

If I don't print contributions, I lack appreciation.

So what is the Poor Editor to do?

SHE WAS ONLY

An electrician's daughter, but she knew Watts Watt.

A druggist's daughter, that's why she suggested better things.

An Army Captain's daughter, and she certainly knew when to call a halt.

A coalman's daughter, but she was nobody's fuel.

A fisherman's daughter, but she threw a wicked line.

Leland Girl: Dearest, I love you! Since the dawn of creation, since the birth of this world, since the beginning of time, I have known and loved you. Darling, will you be mine?

Angeline Galetti: This is so sudden.

THINGS YOU NEVER KNEW 'TILL NOW

(BUT NEITHER DID I)

1. Manual has an elevator. (And not the one which the dear little freshies so diligently seek at the first of each school year!)

2. The joinery shop used to be in room 5.

3. The printing shop was once in the room which houses our bank.

4. Harold Bell Wright, a very popular author, was once minister in the church which has been connected with our school and is now used as joinery shop.

5. In the good old days the boys' gym was in the attic. (How cool it must have been, especially at this time of year!)

6. The R. O. T. C. room was once a coal bin, which explains the fact that our army's hands aren't always snow white after a hard day's work, or war, if you prefer.

WE HAVE WITH US THIS EVENING—

The boy who is dreadfully important and will not let us forget it.

The little girl who feels she is slumming but stays around because she finds the rest of the herd just too amusing!

The athlete who was a big shot in grade school and thought he could continue his reputation in High School regardless.

The "What do you say, Kid?" back-slapping brute who insists upon being annoyingly gay and peppy at all times.

The couple, so much in love that they cannot refrain from holding hands in the library or auditorium.

The alleged society set who spend their time wise cracking the guy with the big ears who doesn't belong.

The fellow not in said set either because he is too ritzy or not ritzy enough. He spends his time razzing the other section.

Four hundred other goofs who have not caught up and don't care to.

So the parlor lamp—went out.

Meyer Planzer: Say, are you still running around with that blonde?
Allen Magilow: She's married now.
Meyer: Answer my question.

HAVE YOU HEARD?

Mr. Huscher does very nice needle-work and knows all about preparing fruits for the table! (Now Marion!)

Louis Dubinsky has paid the last installment on his wrist-watch. (So he tells us.)

Manual has the most polite pupils! They say "Mr. Bratt!"

Rose Bell pinches pie edges perfectly. (Take notice, boys.)

Helen Neff is a real blond.

Grace Hann reads Ballyhoo!

Anna Faye Lee is very much concerned about her teachers' health.

CLASSIFY YOURSELF

If you can answer to your own satisfaction from one to three of these questions you are a Freshman; from four to five, a Sophomore; from six to seven, a Senior. If you can answer all of them you are too early to be classified.

Do you remember when:

Neck was a noun?

You last saw anyone study in study hall?

Dates were chaperoned?

Modesty was a fashionable virtue?

Class meetings were not well attended?

The Manualite had a story before it was known to the student body?

Kenneth Stillman was not feeding every girl available the same line?

Joe Snider made his debut at M. T. H. S.?

The faculty began attending assemblies?

There was a deplorable lack of school spirit?
