MANUAL ODE

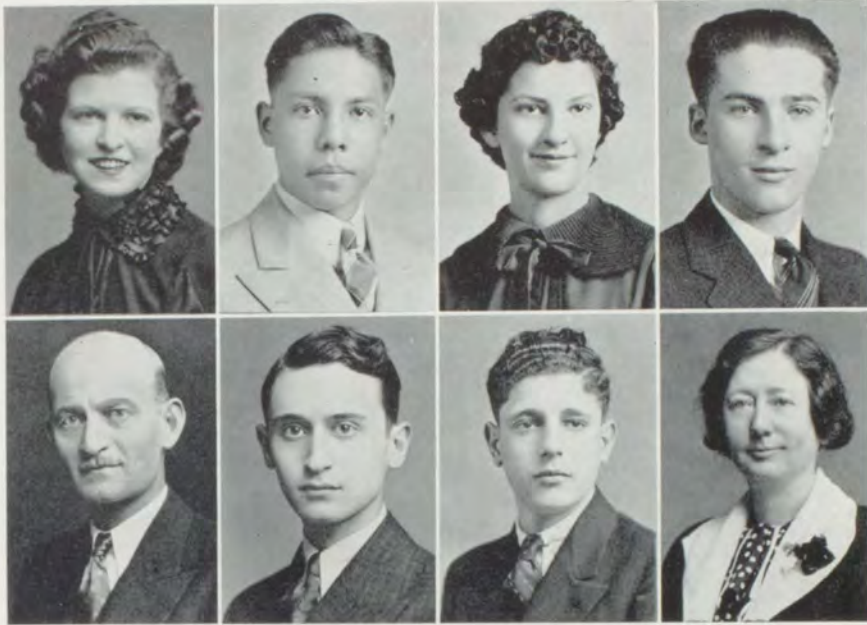

Hail to thee, our dear old Manual,
We would sing of thee!
Oh, a fount of inspiration
Thou wilt ever be.

CHORUS

Wave the crimson banner proudly,
Make its colors glow!
Manual's praises singing loudly
As we onward go!

Glory, glory to old Manual!
Blessings come to thee!
Hearts and minds and hands so loyal
All would honor thee.

Whether near or far from shelter
Of thy peaceful fold,
Dear old altar, 'tis to thee our Yearning fancies hold.

Camera-Shy Seniors

JULIA CONKLIN

One of the dignified seniors who ranked high in the National Honor Society.

SHERMAN BRIUER

One of our future chefs. Long may he cook!

GELA GORE

Wherever there was an activity, there too would be this loyal Manualite.

FRANK CRANDELL

An R. O. T. C. cadet whose nonchalance sets him off from many.

MARY JANE DAVENPORT

Her sprightly step came as a result of her friendliness with her classmates.

MARJORIE SHERARD

A commercial artist who is always ready with her crayons to convince us of the worth of her products.

VELMA WOLFROM

When Velma finished her course in January, we knew that we had lost a valuable worker.

FRANCES WIEBE

Her strong will-power and love of life are appreciated by all who are her friends.

WARREN WHITNEY

Warren's debonair manner classed him as a gigolo among fair damsels.

GLADYS LONEY

Because of her cooperative spirit, Gladys was greatly depended upon for her good judgment and sense of organization.

TOM TRESSLER

Shy, bashful Tommy whose blush could not be equalled by even an old-fashioned girl's.

BETTY MUNDEN

It would be erroneous to class Betty as a "Ginger Rogers," for her dancing is in a class of its own.

JACK NORTHRUP

Kansas City's ALL-STAR Basketball captain, and Manual's favorite athlete.

RACHEL HERNANDEZ

Because of her bashfulness, she is not as well-known as we would like her to be.

JOHN MACE

A rollicking redhead whose rich, rare rigmarole requires a reckless repertoire of ridiculous riddles.

SUNNY ALEXANDER

Her personality warrants the name bestowed upon her.

ERRET HANSEN

A smiling Romeo who does not require much energy in finding a Juliet.

PAULINE LEWIS

Her gracious charm is to friends in distress as manna from heaven.

VICTOR RENDINA

One of our champion basketball players who helped to lead us to victory.

HELEN TOWNSEND

Her genial manner befriended those upon whom it was directed.

HARRY ROBERTSON

When Harry is with Jane Dameron his thoughts are "Where there's you there's me."

IRENE MYERS

Her unassuming attitude made her a friend worth having.

ROBERT PEEPLES

Even the black-face disguise worn by him in the Varieties could not conceal his unusual high tenor voice.

MARY WILLIAMS

Mary's enthusiasm and willingness to try have been noticed by many.

THELMA VOGTMAN

"I get my man" is Thelma's motto.

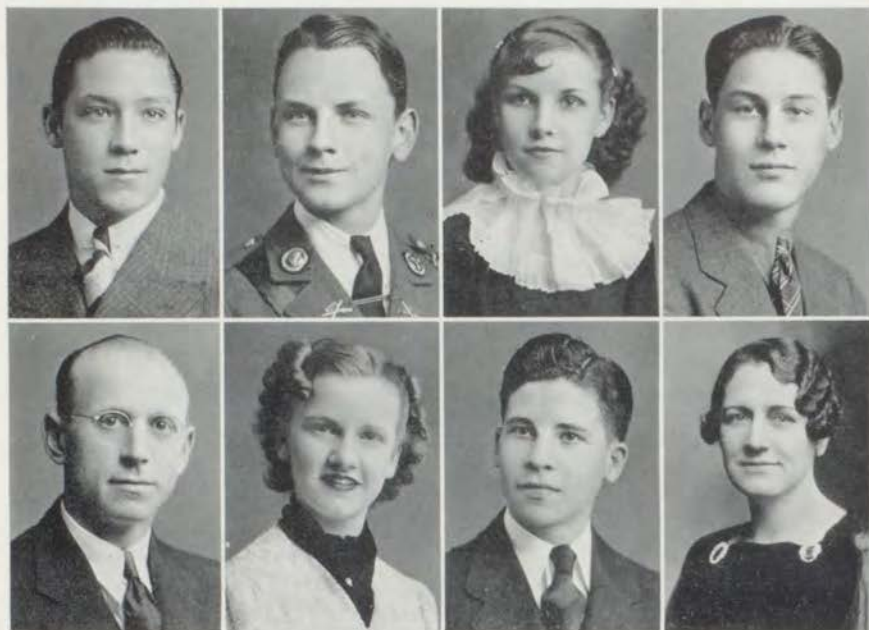

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The qualifications for membership in the National Honor Society are based upon four fundamental principles: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. To be elected to this distinguished organization is the greatest honor for a high school student to achieve. Only fifteen per cent of the senior class are eligible each year and they are chosen by a faculty vote from the upper third of the senior class. This year Rachael Appleton ranked first and Mary Catherine Burke second.

|----------------------|----------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| Rachael Appleton     | Elnora Hale    | Jeanette Stasi  | Ruth Williams     |
| Mary Catherine Burke | Glenor Kelsey  | Bernard Gershon | Joe Stolov        |
| Gwendolyn McCanon    | Julia Conklin* | Kathryn Hayes   | Marguerite Norris |
| Audrey Barker        | Wilma DeLong   |                 |                   |

*We regret that Julia Conklin, who ranked seventh, did not have her picture taken.

Those "Jolly" Juniors

WALTER ANDREWS

Harmonica player, crooner, and ticket salesman, Walter proves an exception to the rule of being a Jack-of-all-trades and master of many.

PORTIA BECKWITH

Mistress of intricate dance steps, Portia is Manual's outstanding danseuse.

FRANCIS ARMENTA

He is one of our praiseworthy acrobats, and one who is preparing daily in cooking to become a bachelor. Poor girls!

LORA MAE CLARK

She would form a lovely setting for some cloudy countenance with her sky-blue eyes and sunshiny smile.

ROBERT BARTLETT

Oh, that husky he-man with the red curly hair who won't give us poor damsels a break!

NORMA CROOK

"Toots" variegated moods change to fit her wardrobe and make her interesting, delightful, and delovely.

JACK DAVIS

A boy whose personality is like a problem in addition. Good looks + gray matter + sense of humor = deserved popularity.

JOLANTE DANNENBERG

A feminine Tarzan, Jolante rates as an outstanding athlete in all sports.

BOB FAIRCHILD

Commander of all he surveys, Bob exercises complete control over the R. O. T. C., grinding studies, extra-curricular activities, and palpitations of feminine hearts.

MILDRED DILTZ

The old saying "change not the old friend for the new" would have to be altered by firmly stating that this new friend is as worth knowing as an old.

MARIAN DOEHLER

Marian's honey-colored hair and sugary disposition make her a sweet dish. What's more, she has brains!

HUBERT GARDNER

Hubert's legs, which are nicely fitted for the straddling of a horse, served well to make him a beau brummel at the Cadet Hop.

INEZ GRIGGS

A sweet "Wally" in miniature for she's the kind for whom men would give up their thrones.

HARRY HOGUE

A deep barytone from the South whose magnificent voice requires the breath pressure of two ordinary individuals.

JAMES BIRDWELL

Another would-be bachelor who is conniving to "gyp" some girl out of a handsome husband by taking cooking.

ELIZABETH CARTER

Miss Bury may well be proud of this young lady, whose ability to criticize the correctness of English has come in handy in all her classes.

RAYMOND MARRS

"Tall, dark, and handsome." He has a large percentage of the fair damsels of Manual at his beck and call.

KATHLEEN DORAN

A shy young miss whose sweet smile will carry her over the most difficult places.

ROBERT WONDERLY

Robert's ducky, artificial wave makes one seasick after gazing at it for a time. Ever try combing it out, Robert?

MYRTLE FULTON

The smiling young maiden who presides so efficiently at the cafeteria counter, and who makes people hungry for more of her food.

CHARLIE CHASE

What's Hollywood got that Manual hasn't got?

MARGUERITE HENRY

I've got a pocket full of sunshine and a heart full of song.

NAUTILUS

ELMER RAISBECK

"Wake Up and Live," Elmer, you've slept long enough.

MARY LOUISE GRAY

Keep that twinkle in your eye and that lilt in your laughter.

DOROTHY SMITH

A girl who is destined to bring fame to Manual via her "dancing feet."

BILLIE WISE

We'll all be very proud when Billie's name goes up in lights on the marquees of our theaters.

ANTHONY BARONE

"Take a gander" at Anthony to see what the well-dressed man is wearing.

GWENDOLYN SOXMAN

"Blonde Menace" whose come-hither glance is a danger signal. Girls, watch your boy friends!

FRANK SORRENTINO

Little man, you have such busy days!

THELMA HAYWARD

Success is the ultimate outcome of hard work and diligent study. So keep up the good work, Thelma.

MARY PRESTA

A popular girl with a pleasant smile and a cheery word for everyone.

CONSUELO RODRIGUEZ

Peppery Mexican bombshell whose songs are a reflection of all that Mexico signifies.

TED POWERS

Ted's ripe good-humor is like a grapefruit. Gets in the public eye (and hair, sometimes).

JUANITA SANDERS

There may be "sand" in her name, but there's no sand in her brain.

JACK RUFÉ

Our handsome Junior president, who is lining up for the All-Stars next year, is already an All-Star in the heart of every Manualite.

EVELYN TAYLOR

Evelyn's flashing black eyes and blackest of hair
Attract the attentions of the most deb-onair.

BOB SEARS

"Go in and out the baskets" would be an appropriate theme song for a ball when it is in the hands of the never-missing Bob Sears.

FANNIE MAE VANN

Her wit and humor have never failed to brighten the darkest corners of Manual High.

JACK SHIPLEY

Manual has found an able worker in this dependable artist, whose posters have increased ticket sales of all kinds.

VIRGINIA VOSS

The charming voice of Virginia Voss contributed much to the success of the music frolic.

DANIEL WILLIAMS

Our romantic Irish tenor, whose songs are a highlight of any program, is headed for a brilliant career in the music world.

RUTH KWIATEK

A girl who is possessed of all the qualities which make for success.

RUTH STEINFELD

"We'd make a peach of a pair" is Ruth's new song. The other half of course being David Pfefer.

SIDNEY MILLER

The Walter Winchell of Manual. "Sees all, knows all, and tells all" for the Manualite.

BETTY BODENHAMER

Even had she lived in the old New England days, her quaint shy manner would have made her a most lovable girl, as she is indeed today.

WARREN JACOBY

Our basketball player whose peppery temperament often finds him on opposing sides with Latin declensions.

ROSE BONJOE

The typical Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde—at school a poised, dainty young lady;
after school a highly hilarious and joke-cracking girl.

DOROTHY HALE

Sleet and snow are bound to freeze us
But Hale has never failed to please us.

ANGELO ISARIOTIS

Napoleon the Great, or "Schnozzola," as you prefer, serves by his characterizations to keep any audience in stitches.

MARIANNE HARLING

Some sailors have a girl in every port but she is sufficient for the most discriminatory gob. (Get what I mean?)

ELENORA HILE

She has endeared herself in the hearts of all as a true Manualite.

HAROLD JACKSON

A Stamp Bug in the highest degree,
Harold has struck up a lasting friendship with Mr. Barrett's type-lice.

MERLE KING

The epitomy of sophistication, Merle's dark beauty deserves to attract a second glance.

MITCHELL LILE

Mitchell's shyness of manner certainly does not cause him to shy at a basketball, as we have had ample proof.

VERLEA LEFTWICH

There is a girl named Verlea who attends Manual Training High.
Wonder what we'll do without her when she leaves us by and by.

ROSALIE LIPARI

Her chief interest is said to lie somewhere in Mr. Laury's chemistry classes. It couldn't possibly be Coach, could it?

HECTOR LIST

Hector's captivating voice and ability to "trip the light fantastic toe" make him a favorite with the belles.

RUTH LYLE

Her sparkling smile and auburn hair,
Make her popular everywhere.

CAROLYN MAYER

Carolyn's beautiful voice has a deep feeling and passion which strike a responsive chord in the hearts of all who hear her.

JOE MANICHA

Joe's buoyant voice came through his megaphone to rouse the spectators' emotions, and to help lead our glorious team to victory.

DIXIE MILES

Her smiles are known for Miles around, even as far as Dixie.

JOSEPH MINARDI

As Sergeant-at-Arms of the Junior class, Joe keeps the meeting moving in an orderly manner.

MARJORIE PAUL

Marjorie's ability to dig up news of sports has made her the Grantland Rice of the Manualite.

RUDOLPH PAREDES

An up-and-coming basketball player whose lightning action added to the score piled up by Manual in the game against East.

TOM MCHARGUE

Six foot two, eyes of blue,
Dark wavy hair, and devil-may-care
Here's a real true boy for you.

ARCHANGEL PRESTA

A girl whose cheerful disposition radiates.

FAUSTINA TERMINI

Her happy and carefree attitude endears her to all she meets.

P. S. If for any reason you cannot interpret any of these witticisms (?), please refer to the staff.

1936 FOOTBALL SQUAD

1936 FOOTBALL SEASON

About 30 boys represented Manual this football season. The material was light and inexperienced. However, in spite of the lack of weight and lack of experience, the boys developed into one of the best offensive football teams that has represented the school for a number of years, which is shown by the fact that they scored a total of fifty points against their opponents in their last five games. From a league standpoint the high points of the season were a victory over Northeast, a tie against Paseo, and early touchdowns against East and Central. Lack of defensive strength alone prevented them from holding these leads. Due to the understanding that Manual would not continue through the 1937-38 year, football among the under-classmen was not encouraged. For that reason and the failure to have our own practice field, discontinuance of football for the coming year has been brought about.

OUR CHEERLEADERS

"Fifteen for the Team!" How many times those familiar words have urged the spectators in a rousing cheer to lead our teams to victory. Enthusiasm is necessary to any victory, and our cheerleaders, Jack Davis, Joe Manichia, and Bob Fairchild, have never failed to bolster the spirits of both the rooters and "our boys" out there on the floor fighting for our school. So in our gratitude we can only say, "Fifteen for the Cheerleaders!"

BASKETBALL CO-CHAMPIONS

BASKETBALL SEASON 1936-37

Although many years have passed since this school was built, it took a hard-fighting, hard-playing, fine-training group of boys to bring to Manual her first championship team. Although handicapped by lack of experience and of only average size, the 1936-37 squad undoubtedly ranks at the top of all teams that have represented the school. Even though it is probably true that individual stars of greater brilliancy have represented the school during her history, certainly no better balanced team has ever represented Manual. Their fine team play and team spirit, easily recognized by the rooters throughout the season, were largely responsible for their remarkable performance. Although Southwest shared the co-championship honor with Manual, Manual showed her superiority over her league rivals by trouncing them 29-19 in their league contest.

Northrup received unanimous ALL-STAR selection of center in both newspapers while Sears, Rufe and Johnson were also recognized by the coaches and officials for the fine part they had in the team's balance performance.
