FOREWORD

THE BUILDER of 1950 portrays, by story and pictures, a year's history and progress in Manual High and Vocational School. We hope that the spirit of progress and earnest endeavor reflected in this volume will inspire happy recollections and increased loyalties to M. H. V. S. There is certainly much to look forward to as we go into a world for which we have been prepared by four years of practical study and friendly associations with both teachers and fellow students.

DEDICATION

WE DEDICATE this 1950 edition of the Builder to our principal, Mr. Harry R. Shepherd, who has ungrudgingly and cheerfully helped and guided so many of us on our respective ways, and who has taught us the real meaning of a true Democracy by allowing us actually to live and practice it in Manual.

The Principal's Message

Dear Students:

It is a fine privilege that has been given me to express to you in this issue of The Builder the pleasure I have had in serving you as principal. Your cooperation and loyalty in promoting the welfare of our school has been an inspiration for which I am deeply grateful. We have been working together to create within the student body a spirit of self discipline in which one's honor is the rule and guide of daily behavior. We have also tried to make our social affairs democratic so that our school society might offer an opportunity to every one to find a place in some organization which he is competent to fill. I take great pride in the progress you have made in achieving these goals. Life in the Manual High and Vocational School should mean a more wholesome and satisfying experience for those who come after you.

CLASS WILL

I, Tommy Bengimina, will my many abilities to Nick Berardi, Tootsie Cipolla, Robert Giarraputo, and Carl Bua as I know it will take all of them to follow in my footsteps.

Seeing that it is necessary that the up and coming freshmen, receive my military ability, I, Jack Bohne leave part of it to them.

Knowing that she will need it, I, Betty Burns, will my pleasing disposition to Bernice Gotcher.

Frank Palermo needs my quiet ways worse than I do, so I, Ronald Cash, will them to him.

I, Bernice Cansler, leave my beautiful clothes to Bonita Tarter, hoping she can wear them as well as I.

I, Joe Cerniglia, leave my good looks and voice to Billie Howell, poor freshman that he is.

I, Virginia May Como, will my charm and personality to Margie Russo knowing she will never accomplish the things I have.

I, Mary Ann Connole, will my position as business manager of the Builder to Helen Jones and hope that she has all the luck in the world on this position.

I, Joyce Doss, will my way with men to Darlene Tomlin though I know she will never have as many men as I.

I, Jack Galloway, leave my "Hollywood Haircut" to Frank Perusich though he will never wear it as well as I.

I, Jean Medley, leave my position as bookkeeper to Lena Graham, hoping her ink remover works as well as mine did.

I, Keith Bowman, will anyone in afternoon Electrical shop my knowledge and privilege of repairing radios which have been tampered with by someone in morning shop.

I, Dorothy Greer, will my position on the Builder to Mary Green if she is sucker enough to accept it.

I, James Hardin, leave to my lowly R. O.T.C. cadet my officer's bars and my extremely intelligent military mind.

I, Clarene Leone, will my cute charm and sweet ways to my sister, Jean, just to keep it in the family.

I, Peggy Manning, will my height to James Ross.

I, Don Maxon, leave to Billy Scotten, my height and commanding voice.

I, James McClanahan, leave all my money to Bob Brazil as I know he needs it badly.

I, Ernestine Phelps, will my beautiful hair to Lois Burden, although hers will never be as gorgeous as mine.

I, Alex Ramirez, will my knowledge of auto mechanics to anybody knowing they will need it.

I, Juanita Reyes, leave my darling ways to Delores Pittser, knowing she will never make use of them as I have.

I, Robert Smeltzer, the most handsome of the Senior class of 1950, bequeath my superior brain preserved in the finest alcohol to the Junior class for their edification.

I, Ann Spilsbury, will my artistic abilities to the Juniors in Commercial Art knowing perfectly well that they shall never achieve my greatness.

I, Congetta Vigliaturo, will my cheerleader position to any Junior who thinks that she can uphold it as I have.

I, Eva Sifuentes, will my figure and clothes to Mary Lee Ferrera knowing she will never accomplish what I have.

I, Don Czar, will my luck at repairing linotype machines in print shop to any boy in electrical shop who thinks he can do it.

I, Lester Spilbury, leave my smile to any Junior boy who will use it as successfully as I.

I, Tommy Steele, will my '36 Ford to anybody that can drive it upside down on top of Manual or to Mr. Mathis if his car will not do the same.

I, Joseph Tosatto, leave my quiet ways and pleasant manners to any Junior who wishes to have them.

I, Pearl Triano, will my sewing ability to Angeline Trombino, undeserving as she may be.

I, Carmen Vigliaturo, knowing that no one Junior will accomplish as much as I have, I leave my good looks and personality to the whole class.

I, Esperanza Pedroza, leave my charming personality, to my sister knowing that she will never be as good as I.

I, Rolland Weller, will my blond hair to Claude Hatton, and my blue eyes to Larry Neal although they will never attract as many girls as I have.

I, Byron Mulherin, will to Charles Pesnell, poor junior that he is, my deep blue eyes so well proven by my marksmanship.

In Memoriam

E. B. HYDE

Ernest B. Hyde was a man of great devotion to his family, his faith, and his job. His was the precious gift to see the handiwork of God in the great out-of-doors and to realize that all beautiful things were made by our Supreme Being. As the sun and the moon came upon him each day, his was the conviction that God was truly showering His blessings upon us all. His wide circle of friends among the people of this city bears witness to the kind of man he really was.

"Have faith and everything will come to you as laid down by the plan of God." How often we heard Mr. Hyde say that. It was a guiding principle in his fruitful life.

We regret deeply his going. We shall miss him greatly, but we know that a man of his faith will have eternal rest.
