MANUAL

Pat Coleman
"ML"

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The document provides a detailed list of items that should be tracked, such as inventory levels, customer orders, and supplier payments. It also outlines the procedures for recording these transactions, including the use of specific forms and the assignment of responsibilities to different staff members.

The second part of the document focuses on the analysis of the recorded data. It describes various methods for identifying trends and anomalies in the financial performance. This includes comparing current data with historical trends, analyzing seasonal fluctuations, and identifying areas where costs are higher than expected. The document also discusses the importance of regular reviews and reports to management, providing a clear and concise summary of the financial situation. It includes a sample report format and a list of key performance indicators (KPIs) that should be monitored.

The final part of the document addresses the overall financial health of the organization. It discusses the impact of the recorded data on the company's profitability and growth. It also provides recommendations for improving financial management practices, such as implementing tighter controls, negotiating better terms with suppliers, and optimizing the pricing strategy. The document concludes with a summary of the key points and a call to action for all staff members to adhere to the established procedures.

FOREWORD

"The present time has one advantage over every other-it is our own."

Charles C. Cotton

Another year has now come to a close. Our yesterday is now only a collection of thoughts and valued memories. Tomorrow is only an expectation, an anticipation, and a hope. Today is truly all that we can hold and call our very own.

We have spent the year capturing memories in words and pictures, so that those Manualites who dared to GET INVOLVED and play their many parts on the stages of Manual, will have something to remember, the times that they wasted or saved, the goals won or lost, the events they liked and disliked, the places and things that they will remember fondly or indifferently

We hope that we have successfully captured the various parts of our past, present, and future, because the year 1973-74 at Manual High School, was a time for all Manual Cardinals to GET INVOLVED.

"All yesterdays are summarized in our now, and all tomorrows are ours to shape."

EDDIE RYAN MEMORIAL AWARD

The Eddie Ryan Memorial Award was established in honor of one of the most memorable coaches the Kansas City area has ever known. The award is given each year to the outstanding basketball team and coach in our district. Coach William Madison receives this award for the second consecutive year. This was one of the most distinguished honors bestowed upon Manual High School for the 1972-73 school year.

Coach "Bill" Madison displays the Eddie Ryan Award with pride. We, the student body and faculty, are proud.

WE ARE SUCCESSFUL...

Speech Awards

Manual High School was the first recipient of this Sportsmanship Award. This award was earned by the student body of Manual for the fine conduct displayed at the interscholastic events. Posing with our award is Miss Doris Figgous, 1972-73 Student Council president and coach William Madison.

WE ARE PROUD BECAUSE...

Clay Johnson, junior of the 1972-73 basketball team, was dubbed as ALL METRO, ALL DISTRICT, ALL STATE varsity player for the 1973 basketball team from Manual.

Rodney Henderson, a graduating senior in the class of 1973 received "A" ratings in the district music festival, held at William Jewell College, and the state vocal music festival held at Columbia, Mo.

Homer Pledger, another product of Miss Vivian Washington, and a graduating senior in 1973, also received "A" ratings in both festivals.

Our Industrial Arts Department, under the guidance of Mr. Audrey Davis, entered many fine examples of craftsmanship in the exhibition held at the Kansas City Vocational-Technical Center, last year. They received excellent ratings for their good works.

Charles Albritton, a 1972-73 sophomore was hailed for super track performance. He won first place awards in the 100 yard dash, 220 and the 440 yard dashes at the state track meet held at Columbia, Mo. He was named ALL CITY, ALL DISTRICT and ALL STATE performer.

WE HAVE ACHIEVED THESE GOALS

AND A TIME TO EVERY PURPOSE

"We're not afraid of tomorrow, for we have seen yesterday, and we love today." Senior Class of 1974-Motto

Time has once again spun its web and produced another class of graduating seniors, from Manual High School. We, the Senior Class of 1973-74, have played our many parts on the stages of Manual.

During our stay here we have seen many changes come to Manual. Through the help of understanding teachers, administrators, underclassmen and others we have met these challenges and determined to remain united.

As we leave our school with pride, honor, and unforgettable memories, we ask that the future Manualites keep the spirit high and the drive for higher learning and achievement together and alive.

Future Cardinals, "Good Luck" and "Get Involved".

Mr. Clyde Sims, the "Big Man" behind the seniors, has been the backbone of our class. His actions and influence has helped to make us one of the greatest classes to pass through Manual.

WE'RE INVOLVED . . . JOB OPPORTUNITIES COMING OUR WAY

WESTERN ELECTRIC COMES TO MANUAL

Manualites have a unique opportunity presented to them each Career Day. Representatives from local and national businesses, present to our junior and senior classes, their individual programs for job opportunity placement.

CAREER DAY WITH MAYOR WHEELER

It was a great privilege and honor to have Mayor Charles B. Wheeler present for our Career Day. We at Manual, are privileged to have Career Day for it gives us a chance to observe the many opportunities in the job field. Career Day gives us an opportunity to select a particular company and familiarize ourselves with their particular qualifications while we're still in school. Also it helps us to see the many opportunities that are opened to us. RIGHT: Mayor Wheeler and Derrick Hutton exchange greetings.

Our principal, Mr. Raymond C. Meadows presents to Mayor Wheeler, the key to Manual High School.

Cheryl Hopson, Chairman of the Human Relations Council, presents Mayor Wheeler a hat from Manual to add to his extensive collection.

The Human Relations Council poses for a picture with Mayor Wheeler and Mr. Meadows.

COLLEGE DAY

Each year representatives from the many colleges come to Manual to recruit students. Our students enjoy these sessions for they represent to them more information on the colleges of their choice.

Seniors Clay Johnson, Elmo Garlington, Herbert Parker, Brenda Douglass and Tommy Jackson listen to the representative from Beloit College. BELOW: Students listen to representative from various colleges.

Michael Taylor exhibits his work.

THE LIBRARY AND RESOURCE CENTER

The "action" in Manual High School's library, under the direction of Mrs. Peggie Jo Williams, is centered in many areas. A variety of activities are carried on daily. Orientation and research for scheduled classes, art exhibits, charging books and materials and Human Relation Council meetings are just a few events in our library's day. Students enjoy charging materials for both personal enjoyment and class research.

Mrs. Williams has been a librarian for 12 years. Five of those years have been dedicated to Manual High School. Miss Regina Hill, our library secretary, has been with us two years. She not only aids in the charging of books and materials and cataloging she can also be of invaluable service in the location of needed materials.

Mrs. Peggy J. Williams, Librarian.

From these funds we present the faculty with a free activity and when all work is done we set aside enough to have three H.R.C. "get togethers"

An Easter egg hunt, presented by the senior members of H.R.C. is complete with different kinds of candied eggs as well as the "real" ones and a prize for the one who finds the most.

INVOLVEMENT IS . . .

What can one man do by himself? This is the question asked and Manualites rally to the answer, "Nothing". Involvement means learning to work, live, and have fun with your fellowman. Pictured are Manualites that are involved. Are you there?

... PARTICIPATION

A true Manualite does not find it difficult to become involved. The many activities, both student and faculty planned, make involvement in school life second nature to many.

We, the "together" class of seventy-five, are always on our j-o-b. The "Junior Masterpiece", as pictured here, is symbolic of our creative abilities.

We are responsible for the traditional Junior-Senior Prom. Every Junior and Senior is invited to this affair; he or she may invite a date of his or her choice. It is expected that this year's Prom will be one of the best ever given by a Junior Class.

In addition to our being responsible for giving the Prom, we are also responsible for the newly created works of a talent and fashion show. Funds obtained from these adventures were used to help sponsor the Junior-Senior Prom. Other fund raising activities were bake and zodiac T-shirt sales. We were successful in all of our sponsored activities.

Our personality traits point to the direction of success. A good example of this are the numerous Juniors that are involved in extracurriculum activities; some of the activities are: cheerleading, majorettes, drillteam, tennis, track, basketball, football, hockey, band, The National Honor Society, College Bound, The 100 Girls Club, and The Human Relations Council.

We, as Juniors, are looking forward to even more success in our senior year.

We extend our gratitude to our sponsors, Miss Terry Evans and Mr. Earl Jones.

SPIRIT OF '76

In the past year the present Sophomore class has been instrumental in generating a sense of school spirit and pride that has truly set a precedent at Manual High School.

Our activities and achievements began during the latter part of our freshman year with the election of class officers. At that time we were neophytes beginning a journey that would encompass four years. The definition of school spirit and pride was quite vague. This years' activities have helped clarify that definition. We have found through working as a "unit" what "spirit" and pride are about.

We have organized and sponsored such activities as a Christmas party, a trip to Six Flags Over Mid-America and to earn money for ourselves we worked in the concession stands at the Harry S. Truman Sports Complex. Indeed our "scene" has changed.

Our energies have not been channeled toward "enjoyment" entirely. We are proud to have one of the best academic records in Manual High. We have a total class membership of one-hundred fifty students thirty-one of which are honor students. Our goal is to have no less than fifty honor graduates our senior year. We, also, have outstanding sophomore participation in the athletic programs and other school sponsored organizations.

We, as a class, feel we owe much of our success and new insights to our sponsor, Mr. Cleo V. Washington. We would like to thank him and let him know that the spirit of '76 will Keep on Truckin'!!

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial statements. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses, income, and any other financial activity.

The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the accounting process. It starts with the identification of the accounting cycle, which consists of eight steps: identifying the accounting cycle, analyzing and journalizing the transactions, posting to the ledger, determining debits and credits, preparing a trial balance, adjusting entries, preparing financial statements, and closing the books.

The third part of the document discusses the importance of the trial balance. It explains that the trial balance is a statement that lists all the accounts and their balances at the end of an accounting period. It is used to check the accuracy of the accounting records and to ensure that the debits equal the credits.
