

This is North Kansas City High School - alias "Northtown"

A block and a half of brick... concrete...

hopes... fears... victories...
and defeats...

Yes... this is "Northtown"... the lunch lines and assemblies...

the classes and faculty... the daily assignments and the crowded lockers...

the Hornet's Nest at lunch time and the 2:45 rush for the busses . . .

the drama and frivolity in a way of life for 1700 youth who crowd its halls
each year . . .

From early morning when the doors open the way of learning . . . till late at night when the swish of the janitor's
broom sounds through the empty halls . . .

It's all here ... in the glory of a cheer that says ... "We're from Northtown ... couldn't be prouder" ...

So ... in reverence and deep respect ...
We, the class of 1956, present ...
"NORTHTOWN" ... and ...
We couldn't be prouder ...

Dedication

To MR. NELSON KERR, who has been a member of the NKC faculty for eleven years, vice-principal for the past four years, and teacher of chemistry, science, and physics. Handling the school's large enrollment, taking care of changes in schedules, and acting as the school's athletic manager—these are just a few of his duties. His friendliness, his patience, and his understanding have endeared him in the hearts of his fellow staff members, as well as in the memory of the students who have come to know him. We, the Senior Class, do respectfully and appreciatively dedicate this, the 1956 Purgold.

DR. R. B. DOOLIN
SUPERINTENDENT

North Kansas City's School District welcomed a new superintendent of schools this year in the person of Dr. R. B. Doolin, who came from Cedar Rapids, Iowa. His background, training, and personal assets made Dr. Doolin an ideal choice for the job. Even before he assumed his new duties as superintendent, he was acutely aware of the increasing problems facing an ever-growing school system such as ours. And with his expert command of the situation in this, his very first year here, it is evident that the present system will increase in reputation as well as size.

MR. FORREST GREER
ASS'T SUPERINTENDENT

Also playing a big role in the administrative duties at Northtown is Mr. Forrest Greer, the Assistant Superintendent of Schools. In charge of maintenance and building for the entire system, Mr. Greer has proven himself highly capable in this important phase of educational endeavor. With the addition of new buildings and facilities, Mr. Greer's job becomes more complex and challenging every day.

DR. ROBERT F. WHALEY
PRINCIPAL

The "tall man" at Northtown, Dr. Robert F. Whaley, is a school principal of impressive stature both in the halls and hearts of Hornet students. Working as the key coordinator of the administrative program of the high school, Dr. Whaley has proceeded with efficiency and candor, while gaining the respect and friendship of the entire student body.

MR. NELSON KERR
VICE-PRINCIPAL

Assisting the principal in the all-important duties of the executive staff of North Kansas City High School is Mr. Nelson Kerr, vice-principal. With a conscientious spirit and a friendly air, Mr. Kerr goes about the many and varied phases of his job with an effectiveness typical of the high school office staff. It is proof enough of the high regard with which he is held by the student body in the very fact that the yearbook this year is dedicated to him.

The Board of Education, constantly aware of the problems facing our school system, works tirelessly to improve institutions and programs of learning for our community's youth. Certainly to their credit is the fact that the voters of the system have never vetoed a school levy. If it were not for these interested citizens our educational standards would not be as highly regarded as they now are. To them, the people of the district as well as the students in the various schools owe a deep debt of gratitude.

Faculty and Staff

North Kansas City High School boasts sixty-two teachers on the faculty this year. Among the various departments in which they teach are social studies, English, fine arts, practical arts, mathematics, physical education, and science. These teachers' duties do not stop with teaching. Many of them give of their time and service to counseling, sponsoring clubs and activities, and coaching, as well as other innumerable tasks.

Eleven new teachers were added to the faculty this year. Three are NKC graduates. They are Miss Dona Sue Black, Miss Rene Miller, and Mr. Bob Elliott. The other new teachers are Mr. Norman Clouse, Mr. Frank Davis, Mr. William Langlev, Mr. Paul Calvert, Mr. Richard Dunlap, Miss Velma Frost, Miss Lucille Heil, and Mr. Bill Scott.

The secretarial staff was enlarged this year by the addition of Mrs. Hazel Berkebile, who works for the transportation and purchasing departments.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of the class as freshmen was the organization of the freshman pep squad, which was achieved under the administration of Joe Cooper, president; Bob Landis, vice-president; and Mildred Schroeder, secretary. Filling the post of president in this newly-founded club kept Beverly Schroeder busy with the official duties of business, while pep and vim reigned under the leadership of the first Freshman Cheerleaders: Alta Swaithes, Judy Hayes, Beverly Lewis, Gail Wigger, Marcia Michelson, and Judy Yeager.

The officers for the Sophomore year were Joe Cooper, again elected to the office of president, Richard Jenkins as vice-president, Beverly Lewis as secretary, and John Younghanz as treasurer. Fifteen girls were chosen to represent their class on the varsity pep squad. They were: Mildred Schroeder, Sherry Williams, Beverly Schroeder, Judy Hayes, Beverly Lewis, Judy Yeager, Joyce Denny, Judy Ganote, Gail Wigger, Sondra Bodenhamer, Eleanor McCall, Alta Swaithes, Betty Cordell, Joyce Hasten, and Betty Smith. With the girls taking the honors in pep squad, five boys represented the class on Student Council. They were: Joe Cooper, Roger Morris, Richard Jenkins, Phil Snowden, and Ed Conway.

In their Junior year the class of 1956 voted John Younghanz into the presidency with Charles Kelly as his vice-president, Phyllis Mvlar in the office of secretary, and Joyce Denny as treasurer. The Junior Play, "The Little Dog Laughed," starring Roger Morris and Deanna Pennington, raised $700 toward financing the Junior-Senior Prom held on May 6.

Closing out their last year as N.K.C. students, Charles Broomfield led the Student Council as president, while Judy Hayes led the pep squad as head cheerleader, with Alta Swaithes as the other senior member of the varsity cheerleaders. Judy also gathered the monarchical laurels during the homecoming festivities, with Betty Smith, Judy Yeager, Carlene Elliott, and Wanda Bishop as her attendants. Royalty reigned again during the 1956 Coronation Ball as Rosemary Cross and Wynne Sharon Luskow presided over the ball as Purgold queen and princess, respectively. Deanna Pennington, Joyce Denny, Sherry Williams, Joyce Ann Hasten, Gail Wigger, and Beverly Schroeder assisted as Purgold attendants. With space left in the varsity pep squad with the graduation of the Class of 1955, Georgia Gaddy, Marcia Michelson, and Rosie Cross were added to the ranks as senior members.

And busy seniors scheme and lay plans for selling lots of yearbooks.

While others go a-hunting and bag a few laughs.

Juniors

This year the Juniors gave the reins to Carroll Cheek by voting him class president. He was assisted by Sylvia Stout, as vice-president; Charles Erickson, as secretary; and Dixie Zug, as treasurer.

Sylvia Stout, Dixie Zug, Donna Peters, Don Sarver, Donna Hauetter, and Gary Flack round out the junior class Student Council representation.

To complete their pep squad allotment, the class of '57 elected Ann Park, Margie Higby, and Lorinda Neville to the varsity cheering section.

As freshmen this class chose Conrad Schroeder, president Carroll Cheek, vice-president; and Marshall Sherlock, secretary-treasurer. Also during their first year in high school, they elected Donna Peters, Sylvia Stout, Dixie Zug, Mary Alexander, LaVita Aubrey, and Rose Guilvezan to serve as cheerleaders for the freshman pep squad. Student Council representatives were: Diane Black, Sylvia Stout, Judy Werner, Charles Erickson, and Conrad Schroeder.

Their sophomore class officers were: Carroll Cheek, president; Conrad Schroeder, vice-president; Dixie Zug, secretary; Sylvia Stout, treasurer; and Student Council representatives: Donna Hauetter, Carroll Cheek, Roger Henderson, Sylvia Stout, and Conrad Schroeder. They elected Sylvia Mosby, Donna Peters, Darlie Rosier, Deanna Durham, Donna Hauetter, Rose Guilvezan, Sylvia Stout, Janice Steffens, Joyce Steffens, LaVita Aubrey, Mary Alexander, Dixie Zug, Judy Werner, and Diane Black to fill their pep squad quota.

Their Junior Class Play, "Home Sweet Homicide," starring Lorinda Neville, Richard Booker, and Shyla Soderstrom, grossed over $750 and enabled them to put on a big prom May 11.

Juniors

And all the Juniors got together one afternoon for a whoppin' class meeting in the field house at which time the cast of the junior play was announced. The girl standing in the middle of the photo is Joyce Earls, loyal class member. Needless to say, she just heard she has gotten a nice fat part in the forthcoming production. That explains the clasped hands and the big smile.

Sophomores

Last year's class was headed by Bob Elliot, president; Bob Campbell, vice-president; Sue Hedrick, secretary; and Mickey Dyer, treasurer. Representatives to Student Council were Bob Elliot, Bill Kelso, Linda Keltner, and John Stone.

Kay Lynn Bordon, Marlene Brown, Judy Forbis, Frances Gillotte, Lois Heller, and Linda Keltner were the cheerleaders who led the Freshman Pep Squad in supporting their team.

This year fourteen girls were elected by their classmates to the Varsity Pep Squad. They are: Pat Adams, Judy Bagley, Kay Lynn Bordon, Marlene Brown, Bette Buchanan, Dorothy Crews, Judy Forbis, Marilyn Ganote, Francis Gillotte, Linda Keltner, Jane Murphy, Joyce Peters, Sharon Smith, and Judy Swindell.

Taking care of the Sophomores' problems as representatives to Student Council this year are Judy Bagley, Bob Campbell, Don Henderson, Linda Keltner, Dick Shaw, Jon Skaug, and John Stone.

They experimented and taught us a lesson in nutrition . . .

And they chose their own cheerleaders and led their team to victory . . .

The Student Council is the governing body of the school, and the members are composed of representatives from each class and presidents of Hi-Y, Y-Teens, GAA, Pep Squad, and "N" Club, as well as presidents or vice-presidents of each class. The Student Council works together with Dr. Whaley, the principal, and Mr. Art Pfaff, their sponsor, in making the policies of the school. The president, pictured at left, who is Charles Broomfield, and the vice-president, Phil Snowden, are elected by the student body. The other officers include Dixie Zug, secretary; Gary Flack, treasurer; and David Bolsenga, sergeant-at-arms.

Northtown 24, Liberty 0

On September 9, the Hornets took the field with 17 returning lettermen who kept Hornet tradition alive by drubbing Liberty's Bluejays. Highlight of the game came when Joe Cooper intercepted a pass and went 45 yards for the TD. Other touchdowns were scored by Don Smith, Larry Reed, and Carroll Cheek on short plunges, late in the game.

Northtown 7, Southeast 0

The Hornets' second victory of the long season came in an extremely tight game on the Knights' home field, September 16. The rough NKC forward line threw their opponents for consistent losses resulting in a minus 35 yards rushing total for the Knights. The only tally of the game came in the fourth quarter when, after a prolonged drive, Hornet Jerry White plunged over from the one yard line.

Northtown 45, DeLaSalle 20

On September 23, the Hornets were again at home, this time against a fast DeLaSalle crew. Hornet offensive power began to show when Hornet quarterback, Phil Snowden, scored one TD and passed for three more; two to Mike Hedrick for 33 and 30 yards and one to Bob Haynes for 18. Other Hornet markers were by Haynes, who ran 65 yards; Jerry White; and Don Smith. Gene Bruns's toe came through with three conversions.

Northtown 20, Sedalia 6

The Hornets' fourth victory, September 30, was won after a close first half which saw the score stand at 7 to 6 at the end of 24 minutes. Bob Haynes went for 10 yards for the only Purple and Gold tally in the first half. The Hornet Eleven came to life in the fourth quarter with Jerry White scoring from 21 yards out and Mike Hedrick going over on a short plunge after a fumble recovery by guard Wayne Daniel. The game marked the first Sedalia loss of the season.

Northtown 13, Chrisman 0

On October 7, the Championship-bound Hornets played their first conference game on the Raytown field against their arch rival William Chrisman. The NKC defensive team was the stand-out during the tiff which was very close until Mike Hedrick went over from 3 yards out. Mike's tally was the result of fine team-work in a long drive. The Hornets iced the cake when Phil Snowden intercepted a pass and scored after a concerted push by the Hornets.

Northtown 42, Benton 0

Homecoming night, October 14, saw the Hornets win their second conference victory by a thorough routing of the Benton Cardinals. Carroll Cheek and Jerry White captured scoring honors with two touchdowns each and Ron Misner got into the picture by scoring one touchdown and throwing to White for another. Also, Bill Allen intercepted a pass and scored another six-pointer. Front and center, Gene Bruns again showed the power behind his toe as he kicked all six extra points.

Northtown 55, Wentworth 0

October 21, the Purple and Gold picked up their 7th straight victory by racking Wentworth at Lexington. During the first half, Hornet quarterback, Phil Snowden, engineered three six-pointers as he passed 50 yards to Dave Bolsenga and 9 yards to Ed Conway and then ran 33 yards for the third. Other scores were registered by Tom Parish on a pass interception, Bob Haynes, Jerry White and Mike Hedrick on a pass from Ron Misner. Coach Al Conway ordered the first team to dress at the half in order to prevent too high a score against the hapless Dragons who were able to penetrate into Hornet territory only once during the entire tiff and that was with the aid of a penalty. The Hornets also collected 2 points on a safety.

Northtown 47, Lafayette 6

Lafayette became the first team to score on the Hornets in conference play when on October 28, at St. Joseph, Shamrock Bob Reynolds broke into the open and scampered 60 yards for the TD. In spite of this score, the game was easy for the championship-bound Hornets. Ron Misner took over as quarterback in the absence of Phil Snowden and scored one touchdown and then passed to Ed Conway for another. Highlight of the Hornet touchdown parade came when guard Wayne Daniel blocked a punt on the 25 and took it to score. Other tallies made were by Don Smith, Mike Hedrick, Jerry White, and Carroll Cheek.

Northtown 39, Central 13

November 4 marked season victory number nine and, in two seasons, conference victory number ten and two undefeated conference championships for the Hornets. Carroll Cheek was a standout for the Purple and Gold crew as he scored three touchdowns. Phil Snowden initiated two more Hornet six-pointers as he threw touchdown passes to Mike Hedrick and Dave Bolsenga for 30 yards each. Jerry White added the other Hornet score. Especially noticeable in this encounter was the rough line play on the part of the Hornets; tackle Tim Ryan recovered two fumbles.

Northtown 34, Raytown 7

At Raytown, November 11, 9,000 screaming fans watched NKC gain sweet revenge over the Raytown Bluejays who until this time had never been beaten by the Hornets. This rout gave the Hornets an undefeated 10 game season and the mythical state championship. Carroll Cheek and Mike Hedrick scored during the hard fought first half and the score stood at only 13 to 7 at the end of the second stanza. But the inspired Hornets burst into life in the last quarter with Cheek and Don Smith going over for two and Dave Bolsenga intercepting a pass and racking up the final tally. Toe artist, Gene Bruns, missed only the first of his five conversion attempts.

The jubilant, undefeated, Hornets triumphantly carried their coaches off the field on their shoulders when the final gun sounded.

The Hornets opened the season by downing highly rated Central with Phil Snowden's 20 and Don Sarver's 12 points leading the scoring parade. A cold Eagle second half aided the NKC victory.

Northtown 47, Shawnee Mission 71—December 2

North Kansas City lost its second encounter of the season to a sharp-shooting Shawnee Mission crew. Ed Conway and Dave Bolsenga each tallied 11 points to pace the Hornets.

NKC TOURNEY

Northtown 46, Raytown 31—December 5

After a low-scoring first quarter, the Hornets moved out to defeat the Bluejays. Superior height was an asset to the Purple and Gold. Phil Snowden dropped in 17 for scoring honors.

Northtown 73, Rockhurst 59—December 8

The Hornets gained their finals berth by out-lasting the Rockhurst Hawklets. The lead changed hands six times during the close first quarter before the hometown crew found their range and pulled away. Don Sarver led the pack with 24 points.

Undefeated Pem-day proved too much for the once-beaten Hornets. A late scoring surge by the Hornets was insufficient to bridge the gap. High scorers for the Hornets were Don Sarver with 25 and Phil Snowden with 16.

Northtown 50, Pembroke 81—December 13

After a very close first half, Northtown lost their spark. Bryant Barnes hitting 27 points and controlling the backboards proved the difference.

Northtown 68, Lafayette 31—December 16

Rugged defense by the Purple and Gold overpowered a hapless Shamrock crew and enabled the Hornets to post a victory in their first conference start. Limiting the Shamrocks to 1 point in the second stanza, gave the Hornets a 35-10 halftime lead. Don Sarver hit 21 points to lead the victors.

The Northtown aggregation gained a semi-final berth by downing the Minutemen with a hot second half. Sparking the Hornets was Phil Snowden with 17 points.

Northtown 60, Lee's Summit 53
December 29

Lee's Summit's first defeat came at the hands of the Hornets as NKC reached the finals with a 60 to 53 verdict on the losers' court. Dave Bolsenga, Phil Snowden, and Don Sarver paced the victors.

Northtown 85, Butler 66
December 30

NKC swept the finals of the tournament and set a new scoring record in upsetting highly favored Butler. Fine teamwork and all-round scoring dumped Butler. Snowden's 27 and Sarver's 19 again led the scoring.

Bill Rogers

Northtown 55, Wyandotte 75—January 3

A slow first half defeated the Hornets as Donarhue and Comlev controlled both backboards. An inspired Hornet bid which saw the Purple and Gold out-score the Bulldogs 40 - 30 in the second half failed to close the gap.

Northtown 65, Benton 67—January 6

The first conference loss came at the hands of the Benton Cardinals as the Hornets journeyed to St. Joseph. The upset-minded Cardinals showed excellent shooting during the last half and a basket in the last 5 seconds was the scant margin of victory. Top point man for the Hornets was Phil Snowden with 26.

Ron Misner
Junior

Northtown 70, Central 50—January 13

The Indians, faced with Hornet power, faded quickly in the second half as NKC picked up another circuit win. Ron Henderson, up from the B squad for his first varsity encounter, scored 14 points and rebounded well. Snowden was again high scorer, this time with 27.

Northtown 55, Northeast 66—January 17

A fighting fourth quarter rally failed to overtake a powerful Northeast five led by Jim Hoffman, who scored 29 points. While Don Sarver made a fine showing with 26 points, the Hornets were too late to catch the Interscholastic Loop Champions.

Northtown 65, Benton 41—January 27

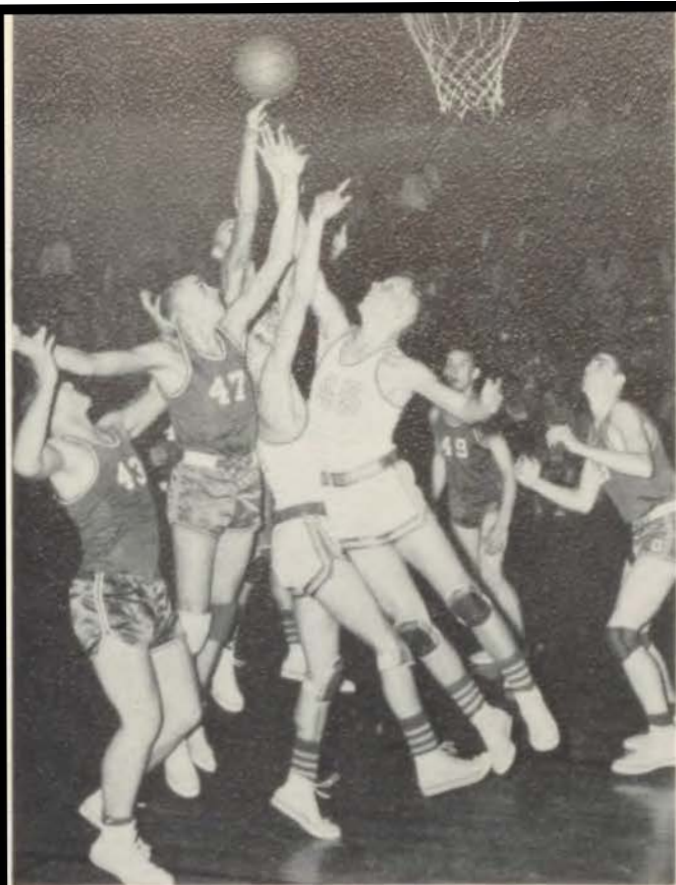

A well-balanced NKC attack with brilliant ball control showed the superior strength of the first place Hornets. Snowden jammed in 22 points to be top man for the Purple and Gold.

Northtown 61, Wentworth 47—January 20

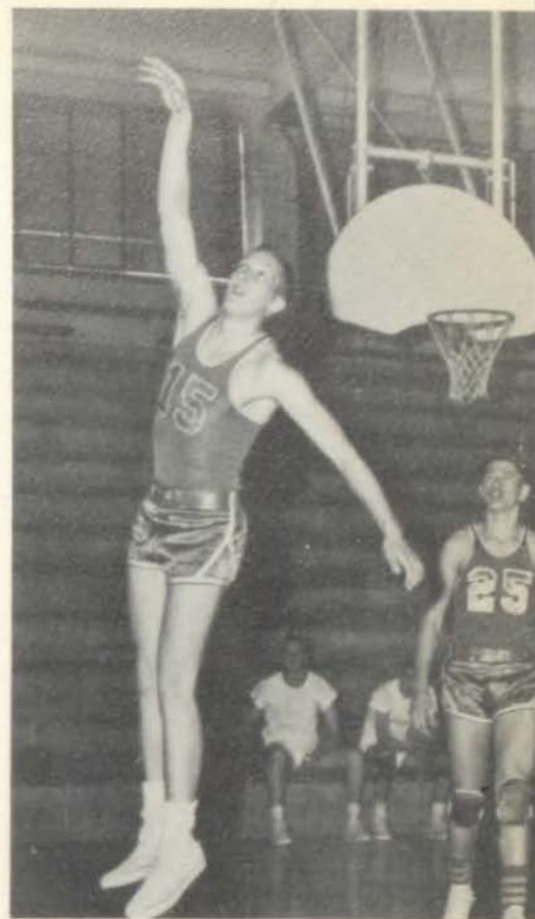

Sparkling defense on the part of the Hornets led by Ed Conway enabled the Ferguson charges to grab the lead in the tight Pony Express Conference race. Bill Rogers also came to the front with impressive passing and shooting.

After a slow first quarter, the Hornets caught fire to increase their prestige in the Pony League race. Well-rounded scoring by the Hornet aggregation proved the margin of victory. The three-pronged attack of Henderson, Sarver, and Snowden accounted for 51 points.

Northtown 76, Chrisman 64
February 14

The Hornets assured themselves of at least a tie for conference laurels with an impressive victory over their traditional rivals from Independence. The Purple and Gold continually had to stave off determined Bear bids until they finally moved away in the third period. Phil Snowden led the Hornet attack with 26 points.

Northtown 48, Lafayette 29
February 17

Led by Phil Snowden, who set a new season scoring mark with 6 games remaining on the schedule, the Hornets won the conference title with an easy victory over a cold Shamrock quintet. This gave the Purple and Gold the distinction of being the first team to share or win the conference basketball crown for three successive years.

The home economics classes are among the 44 curricular offerings that are available to students at North Kansas City High. Here, one of these classes samples its collective effort at cooking. This class is very popular among those students who consider homemaking an art. Too, those who get up too late for breakfast also like to enroll.

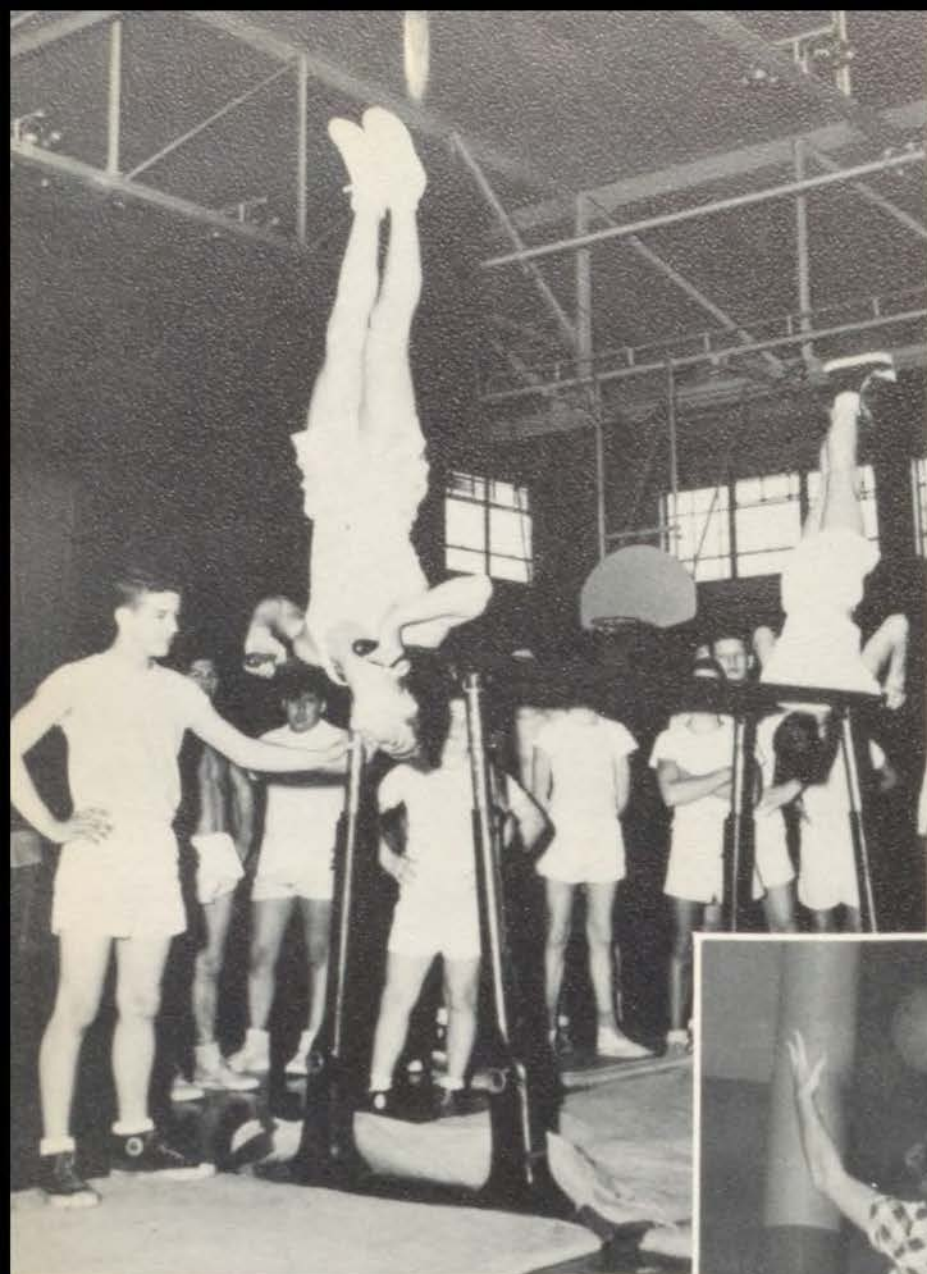

Two seamstresses are pictured at the right in some degree of puzzlement as they attend to stubborn sewing machines. Could it be that someone pulled the plugs? Seriously, this department is one of the many in the Practical Art field that consistently turn out adept students.

In the Fine Arts field English is offered to students all four years, three years being the requirement. Here we see a group in a sophomore English class preparing a one-act play for presentation the next day before the whole class. It must be humorous because Glenn Meyer just doesn't laugh at everything . . . or does he?

Another group of students prepare an experiment in their biology class, one of the many in the science department here. Judging from the intent expressions, they are probably on the verge of discovering a new form of matter . . . grey matter!

The physical education department keeps three gyms jumping every hour of the day as this required course for all freshmen and sophomores helps the students build muscles and get their daily amount of exercise. To the left we see a real work-out on the parallel bars. Okay, fella, we know you can stand on your head; now do it without holding on!

The girls play too . . . basketball in this instance. Mrs. Howard, Miss Jones, and Mrs. Platt keep their figures trim by trying to keep up with all of these young athletically-inclined females.

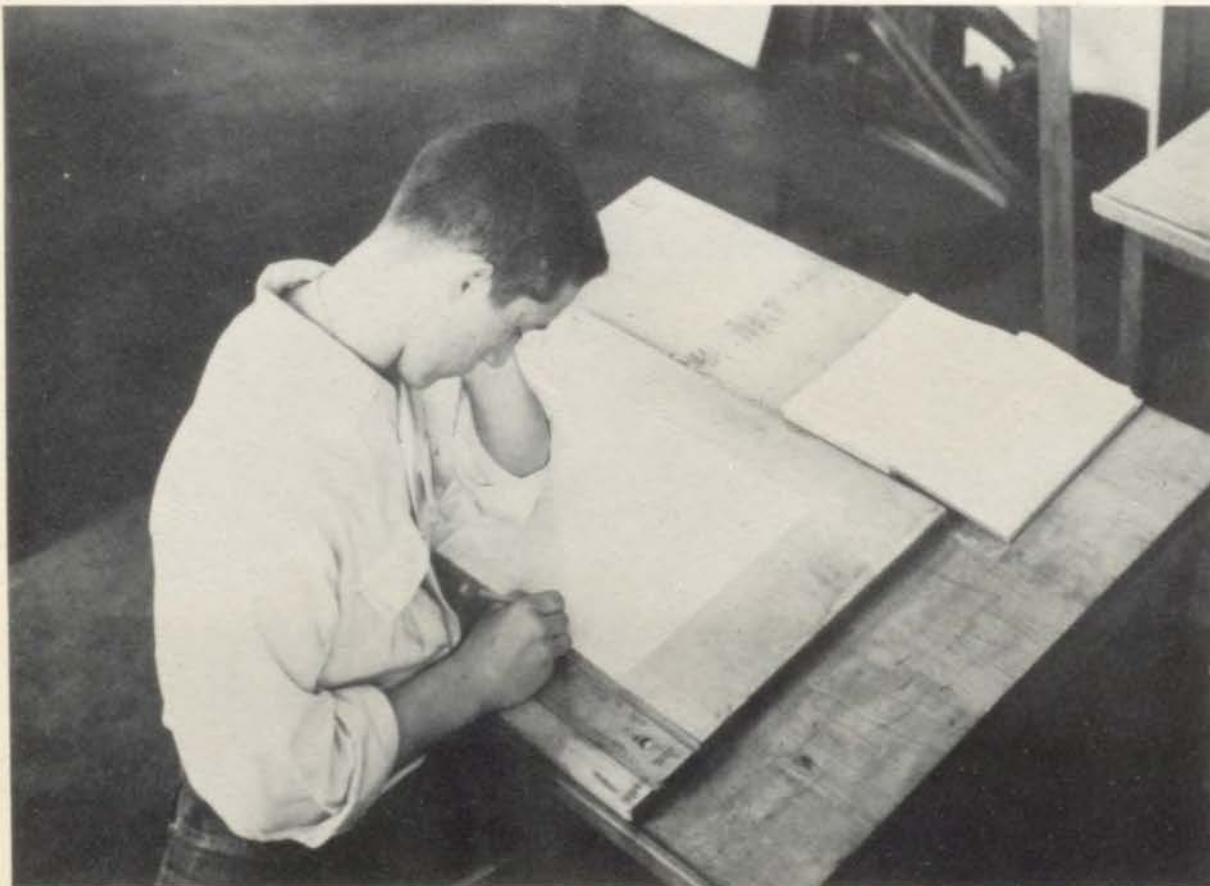

A new mural is begun for the Stinger as the art classes get a practical work-out.

This may not look too curricular, but it involves a class . . . Spanish, to be more specific. Once you pass the requirements you become a member of the Club. To the right can be seen Darlie Rosier helping herself to another piece of pie . . . and thereby becoming a member in good standing.

Besides the many other courses in music, commercial subjects, history, math, French, Driver Training, and all the others, the shop courses attract a good many young Hornets . . . especially those who plan on careers which will entail some knowledge in this area. So under the stadium, almost any hour, can be seen scenes such as these. That is Mr. Welch at the right helping someone with a problem in drafting. Woodworking, metal work, girls' mechanics, and other related courses are taught here.

Homecoming 1955

Homecoming day dawned bright and clear and the happy Hornets assembled for the big parade. One of the first stops was the busy, busy intersection of Armour and Swift where the Flippin' Five did a few tricks for the local gentry.

The band played too, fifty million strong, and the taxpayers got a chance to hear what them kids down at that there high school had been learin'.

Those Pep Squadteers who forgot their scarves were pretty definitely in the majority, but they paraded anyway.

And the firebugs in town had a field day as the football fanciers hopped aboard the local hook-and-ladder vehicle and followed a few flames of their own. Incidentally, that's Don Smith on the shoulders of the fireman next to the driver. Show off!

And every car salesman in town took a coffee break as their products were loaned out to the various queen attendants and their shaky chauffeurs. Eyes on the road, fellers!

Meanwhile back at the ranch . . . eh . . . stadium . . . after the parade came to a screeching halt with a few busted bumpers, the annual assembly was presented with the coaches receiving whole rabbits instead of the usual left hind foot. Needless to say, this caused quite a stir, especially with the coaches!

However, the skit was performed without too much unrest among the natives, and the final fifteen stood at attention as Charles Erickson pulled names from the pumpkin. Amid screams, faints, whistles, yells, and teardrops, the final fifteen narrowed down to the final five: Judy Hayes, Judy Yeager, Carlene Elliott, Wanda Bishop, and Betty Smith.

Judy Hayes, so excited at being one of the five, starts a rousing game of peek-a-boo as Harrington, Williams, Elliott, Schroeder, and Luskow applaud her performance.

And Charles Broomfield, Heap Big Student Council Chief, helps the Fair Five, as we shall refer to them hereafter, in distributing the good luck charms to the football fellows. (Watch out for the pumpkin! At midnight it turns into a horse-drawn vehicle.)

Night fell. The moment arrived. With the Pep Squad, Band, and Block N groups out on the torchlit field, the ceremonies began. Inside the sophomore-drawn coach sat the 1955 Homecoming Queen . . . you guessed it . . . Miss Judy Hayes. She was presented an arm-load of yellow Chrysanthemums and a king-sized crown and presented to the stadium-packed throng. What excitement! What beauty! What smoke!

And after rounding out the evening with a Hornet victory, Miss Hayes was presented again at an all-school frolic in her honor in the pumpkin-mice-glass slipper bedecked gym. And the moon sank slowly in the distance on the night of Hornet Homecoming 1955.

M. C. Jay Barrington tells Denny and Snowden a funny one as Hornet's version of TV Teen Town goes out to 500,000 Kansas Citians, who turned their sets on just so they could watch ole N.K.C. honored.

They danced . . . naturally. And you guessed it . . . the Bunny Hop . . . naturally. The Rabbit in the lead is specially hired for the job.

Hail, hail the gang's all here. The uniformed females in the foreground are cheerleaders begging to be elected again next year.

Mixed emotions over chicken was the theme of the champion Hornet football team's annual banquet. Notice the original expressions, available only at your local postoffice.

Little Red Riding Hood strikes again; this time it's South of the border. These ferocious characters belong to the Spanish Club and are performing in a program for one of the meetings.

Angry dramatics teacher closes the curtain at the Speed and Spot Show on an act that goofed.

"We are Siamese if you Pleeeeeease." We won't argue. We've been scratched.

Tennessee Ernie Chevrolet takes a bow as O.I.C.U. TV and its friendly announcer present Mardi Gras "direct from New Orleans." Indifferent camera man takes all acts in his stride.

Those uncanny Can-Cans kick up a storm in rehearsal for the Y-Teen Variety Show. Ze accent ees on ze leg art.

Now the camera man is not so indifferent. Dry Gulch Della Aversnorch guards her garter from affectionate plucking. The scene ended in death and a broken garter.

This happy group of gentlemen belongs to the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra which played its annual concert for the high school in the fall.

The highlight of the assembly season came when eight, count 'em, eight refugees from the Ozark Jubilee presented a few pointers on American folk dancing. Notice the authenticity of the costumes. Notice the young damsel in the background in kerchief. It is NOT Mother Fletcher!

And another act took to the spotlight as the audience saw NKC's answer to the Mad Lads . . . the Sad Lads! (In case the Lad on the right reads this, we're only kidding.)

What's this? An ad for cigarettes or knocked knees?

Coronation Ball

The fourth annual Coronation Ball was held December 22, 1955 in a Grecian-columned field house filled with dark suits and swirling tulle. This gala event, sponsored by the yearbook staff, proved to be an exciting opener for the winter social season. Bob Short, on behalf of the 1956 staff, crowned Rosemary Cross, pictured at right, Queen of the 1956 Purgold, while her handsome escort, Mel Hansen, stood proudly by. Below, Wynne Sharon Luskow is shown being crowned Purgold Princess. Her escort was Jack Gibbens. The six attendants to the queen and their escorts were Beverly Schroeder and Bill Leonard, Sherry Williams and Paul Bailey, Gail Wigger and Phil Snowden, Joyce Denny and John Younghanz, Joyce Hasten and Wayne Daniel, Deanna Pennington and Tim Ryan. From 9 till 12, amid soft amber lights and dreamy music, over 250 couples helped celebrate the Queen's coronation.

The Queen dances the first one, played in her honor, with her favorite subject, her escort Mel.

Needless to say, the turnout was tremendous.

Attendant Beverly Schroeder and her escort Bill Leonard make their grand entrance.

Below, more couples take to the boards for some real rock and roll.

Attendant Sherry Williams and manager Paul Bailey slow down for a close-up.

David Wilch	Danny Churchill	Sue Seneker	Tess
Lorinda Neville	Molly Gray	Donald Lake	Eagle Rock
Bob Short	Gieber Goldfarb	Kenny Bird	Hotel Proprietor
John Younghanz	Slick Fothergill	Tommy Fisher	A waiter
Pat Acheson	Kate Fothergill	James Neill	Sergeant of Police
Jim Harper	Lank Sanders	Jack Ruma	Sam Mason
John Brunner	Jake Howell	Marcia Michelson	Spanish dancer
Bob Elliott	Pete	Gary Thompson, Cliff Foster, Jim Wingo, and David Warner
Betty Owens	Patsy	Cowboy Quartet

Other members of A Capella comprised the singing and dancing choruses.

Patty Logan	Student Director	Mr. Donald Neuhart	Director
-------------------	------------------	--------------------------	----------

John, Brunner, Bob Short, and John Younghanz, politicians all, help form a platform for Gieber's campaign.

Lorinda Neville, the village postmistress, stands idly by as the US Mails are tampered by Easterner David Wilch.

Bob Short, a "Do-it-yourself" hypnotist, tries to bring back Bridie Murphy's boy friend with no success.

The cowgirls whoop and holler about the beauties of the wide, wide West.

The Sheriff, who can't even read the Burma-Shave ads, questions a suspicious-looking character as his assistant quickly carves out a pair of wooden handcuffs.

Senior Play

"Our Hearts were Young and Gay," a three-act comedy, was presented by the Class of 1956, May 3 and 4

CAST:
Rosalie Hagg	Cornelia Skinner	Patsy Parrish	Harriet
Norma Malone	Emily Kimbrough	Anita Stark	Winfred
Carole Newhard	Mrs. Skinner	Terry Short	Steward
Gary Thompson	Mr. Skinner	Bob Landis	Purser
Don O'Reilly	Dick	Ed Morgan	The Admiral
Morgan Spillsbury	Leo	Jean Marsh	The Stewardess
Jeanne McCartney	Medical Inspector	Brenda Peterson	Madame Elise
Rex Fowler	Monsieur De La Croix	Terry Thomas	Therese
		Frank Shaw	Window Cleaner

Morgan Spillsbury tries to hock his cabin-mate's shoes for a fast buck aboard ship.

Norma Malone auditions for the Follies Bergere as Rosalie and Rex look on horror-stricken.

Norma puffs up the life preserver just in case they hit an iceberg.

"Rosalie! That's not nice to stick your tongue out at the doctor. Wait till you get the bill."

Rosalie gives a lesson in how to sleepwalk without going anywhere.

Junior-Senior Prom 1956

"EAST OF THE SUN"

In a Japanese-lanterned field house approximately 350 couples danced to the gay tunes of Les Copley and his band at this year's Prom.

The night was warm, the punch was cool, and the dancers were elegantly attired in white dinner jackets and frothy formals.

They could have danced all night... and almost did.

The Basketball Banquet

The Band Trip to Boys' Town

Jay Barrington besieged by autograph hounds.

Vera Ward, Prom chairman, instructs helper Sally Cavin on the fine art of pagoda painting.

State Basketball Tournament

The basketball team got a chance at the State Championship in St. Louis, but didn't fare too well in their opening bout with Beaumont, who later went on to win the Tourney.

The Pep Squad members exhibit a scroll signed by Hornet fans before embarking for the big game across state.

Snowden in two high ones

Spanish Club Trip

Snapshots of the scenes found in Old Mexico, by the Spanish Club members, who, under the guidance of their sponsor, Miss Bernita Isley, had a gay and glorious time South of the Border.

One of the hotels in Acapulco.

Hornet amigos wondered how they could get this back on the bus.

Those who didn't swim, watched.
