FOREWORD

The character of every individual is largely moulded by the good or evil agencies of the community in which he lives. Among the most important of the good forces are the home, the school, and the church. The young people of the Northeast district are fortunate to live in a "city within a city" which affords these influences in a predominant and constructive manner. We are happy to leave this book as a partial picture of our Northeast Community Life for 1947.

DEDICATION

Since our community is one to be proud of, we must see that it is proud of us. We who are preparing to take our places as members of the community must prove that we are recognizing the responsibilities of citizenship.

An individual receives from an organization as much as he contributes. Every loyal citizen should be willing to pledge the best of his thought and action to the advancement of the community. This book, a symbol of our best efforts, we wish to dedicate to the people of the Northeast District.

SPIRIT OF NORTHEAST

MR. J. L. LAUGHLIN

Principal

The chief executive, though snowed under with responsibilities, is always ready and willing to counsel and to give constructive suggestions for any problem dealing with school or community. Firm when necessary, practical at all times, he is keen, resourceful, and just. This broad-minded gentleman has won the respect of all by giving his best. We are proud to call Mr. Laughlin PRINCIPAL.

MR. G. W. DAVIS

Vice-Principal

The manner in which he conducts all his affairs shows that he is a man of orderliness and precision. He is always willing to help the student who is honest and diligent. His ready wit and fine sense of humor have made low hurdles of many a student's problems. For doing well the most difficult, and only too often the least appreciated, job at Northeast, our hats are off to Mr. Davis.

MISS HELEN JOHNSON

Counselor

Every student is always welcome in the Counselor's Office and can receive personal, as well as educational, advice from a sympathetic listener. After only one year at Northeast, Miss Johnson has endeared herself to the students and faculty alike.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

DANNY DANIEL, that active Student Council representative, is the president of this year's Junior Class. His election demonstrates that he is a very popular member of his class.

DON GASH, who has magic drawing powers in his fingers, follows Danny Daniel to the seat of power as the vice-president. Don is a member of the Hi-Y and of the Debater Literary Society.

NORMA GARRETT, that bright-eyed, popular girl, chosen as secretary, has Clio Literary Society and Student Council as some of her activities.

MARY McCLELLAND, treasurer, a sweet-voiced Alpha girl, a Y-Teen member, is also interested in many other school activities.

JO ANN HURT, giftorian, has many talents, activities, and "smiles." Two of her principal interests are the Art Club and the Delta Literary Society.

RALPH YOUKIN, sergeant at arms, is an active Debater, a Student Council representative, and a member of the Swing Band.

JIM DULL, reporter, that peppy Junior cheerleader, will be sure to gather all the news while he takes part in his activities. Jim is a Debater and Hi-Y member.

MRS. BELL, who has made many friends among her students during the years she has taught Spanish at Northeast, is the adviser.

HOME ROOM seems an appropriate title for the twenty-minute period held in the classrooms at the beginning of second hour. Here, through the home-room bulletin, students receive general instructions for the day and discuss school problems of daily interest.

By acting upon Student Council recommendations and conducting school-wide elections, democratic processes for our future citizens are developed. Also Red Cross gift boxes are packed and contributions to the Kansas City Community Chest are made.

The teacher learns to know this group perhaps better than he knows any other of his students. And so at enrollment time he is able to give advice and guidance in helping the student to choose the subjects that are required or that will best fit him for the career he has chosen. If properly approached by both student and teacher, this can be one of the most valuable periods of the day.

SENIOR WILL

Someone once said: "A chain is no stronger than its weakest link." We think that it would also be right to say that a community is no stronger than its weakest member. We, the graduating seniors of Northeast, feel that the Northeast Community has been strong and its ideals and aims have been high. Now we are leaving, and you, the remaining community members, have the duty of keeping this community strong. Work for it, cherish it, protect it, and make every boy and girl proud to be a part of Northeast Community Life.

This high privilege we leave to all of you. Now we have reached the smaller legacies.

Larry Fagan transfers all his ignorance to his brother Bob.

Colleen Kessler turns over her ability to model clothes to saucy little Snookie Williams.

Peggy Miller is awarding her golden voice to Janiece Boling. More power to you, Janiece.

Titian-haired Helen McClure bestows her powerful pen and her desk in the Creative Writing class to her sister Peggy. Isn't that an affectionate gesture?

Curvacious Carol Jean Cox makes a present of her simply super blond feather-cut to Carol Osborne.

David Breidenthal leaves the 880 to his little brother Hank.

Helen Randolph donates her happy outlook on life to Nancy Thurman.

Katie Paladino bequeaths (if you don't know what the word means, Katie, look it up) her spontaneous wit and goodness of heart to Katie Johnson.

Jo Ann Moats offers her extra super athletic prowess to Babe Marra.

Don Claxton cedes his way with women to Bill Witter.

Wilma Hartman settles upon Mary McWhorter her ability to chatter longer and faster than anyone else.

Helen Murray imparts her way with men to Dolores Brents.

If there's a party, she's always the host of it; if there's a ball, she's always the toast of it. I refer, of course, to that charming, glamorous Vi-Queen, Kay Sears. Watch for Barbara Burns to be a candidate for that spot next year.

Barbara McFarlane packs her trunk with various honors and prizes, and, finding that she does not have room for them all, assigns her debating ability to Alice Lewis.

Harold French contributes his knowledge of Spanish to his sister Vivian. Buena suerte, Vivian.

Ralph Younkin, with the blessing of our prince of good fellows, Kenny Owens, inherits the leadership of the Northeast Swing Band.

Norma Bush and Vallera Clough just leave, taking everything with them.

As nosy newshounds are hard to find, Caroline Shour puts into the hands of Daisy Stonerock her talent for digging dirt for the Courier.

Well, we hope you are all happy with your new possessions. Good luck to all and remember, keep smiling.

SENIOR OFFICERS

PRESIDENT: PRICE MINNICK

The election of Price Minnick to the presidency of the Senior Class is an indication of his popularity. He was also the president of the Junior Class, a member of the football squad, and a Debater.

VICE-PRESIDENT: WALT LOCHMAN

Walt Lochman is our capable vice-president. Because of his many and varied activities he is very well known at Northeast. His efficiency and his ability to make friends have contributed much to his success.

SECRETARY: LEWIS DALY

Because of his friendly smile and pleasant manner, Lewis Daly, our likable, willing, hard-working secretary has many friends. He was a starring football player and a member of the basketball squad.

TREASURER: MYRA COLEMAN

Our class treasurer, Myra Coleman, is one of Northeast's most popular girls, noted for her sincerity and friendliness. She has been active in the Student Council and the Y-Teens, and has served as president of the Clionian Literary Society. She will be remembered for her pleasing smile and charming ways.

GIFTORIAN: BARBARA McFARLANE

Our friendly, calm, poised giftorian, Barbara McFarlane, has an outstanding record of achievement, and has done especially well in speech work. She also served efficiently as co-editor of the '47 Nor'easter. She is a Clionian.

SERGEANT AT ARMS: EDITH SCARDINO

Edith Scardino, one of Northeast's loveliest and most popular Vi-Queens, is sergeant at arms. She has been student manager of the Viking Varieties, treasurer of Y-Teens, president of the Clionians, and an active worker in the Student Council and on the Courier Staff.

REPORTER: KAY SEARS

Our good-natured reporter, Kay Sears, possesses a lot of pep and vitality. She is Northeast's number one most popular girl, and has a lengthy list of other honors, such as acting as Mistress of Ceremonies for the Viking Varieties and as a cheerleader for the school.

SENIOR PROPHECY

You have come to me to find out what the future holds for you and your friends, and with the aid of my crystal ball, I am prepared to help you.

The crystal ball shows a great music hall in the city of Philadelphia, where Jacqueline Perry is giving a piano concert. Anita Parker is turning the pages of her music for her.

Some late comers to the concert are June and Frances Drew, those scintillating fashion models, wearing gowns designed by Madame Bouchard, formerly known as Edith Scardino, and hats by Lewis Daly.

Something is clouding my vision. It is a luxury air liner of gigantic proportions, piloted by none other than Duane Seaman, with Joan Phillips and Mary Sue Meyer doing their duties as air hostesses.

There are a few famous people aboard, including Carlton Johnson, well-known writer of detective fiction; Virginia O'Connor, the celebrated "Woman with the Shillelagh"; and Grace Peterson, whose virtuosity on the organ has won her world-wide acclaim. In one corner of the plane we find Walter Schmidt. He is a well-established member of the Gourmet Club, and travels all over the world, eating, eating, always eating. Travel has broadened him in more ways than one!

Listen, I hear the faint strains of the Star Spangled Banner, and I can see the outline of the White House taking shape. There is Price Minnick, President of the United States, with his secretary, Theresa Saluzzi. Close by, always ready to lend a helping hand, we find Vice-President Joy Springer and Secretary of the Treasury, Vera Nugent.

Looking out of the window, we see Jerry Hatchitt, head gardener, and his assistant, Lyle Deniston, chatting with Pauline Ranallo and Marie Falcone, two of New York's best-informed reporters.

Mist clouds the surface of the crystal ball, but as the vapor fades away, we see a busy street scene in Cairo, Egypt. A camel, led by Frank Rickey, comes plodding down the street, and on its back we find Anthony Straight and Eddie Trader, two of Cairo's leading camel merchants, wrapped in long burnouses.

To the right is the Cairo Airport. A plane has just landed, and the passengers are alighting. Heading toward us are Marian Newton, eminent physical therapist; Colleen Cone, well-known fashion illustrator; Myra Coleman, prominent society queen; and Bob Knittel, archaeologist. Sam Donnici is acting as inspector of customs.

Somewhere a radio has been turned on, and we hear the deep, resonant tones of sportscaster Walt Lochman, giving a vivid account of an Egyptian horse race. Now he is announcing the results, and we are surprised to hear that our old friend, Don Jewell, has won. He ran a wonderful race!

Quick, peer over my shoulder. Do you see that barge just floating out of sight? Isn't that Clay Sincox and Mary Alyce Harper making like Anthony and Cleopatra?

Be careful; you are crowding too close! Oh, there goes the crystal ball, broken into a hundred fragments. Now we shall never be able to complete this prophecy.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

MISS CASSELL

This year Miss Cassell's Public Speaking Department has been active in many speech projects, such as preparing talks for American Education Week, the National Founders' Day program, and Northeast's P. T. A. meetings, and by sending students to the grade schools of the district during National Safety Week and the Christmas seal campaign.

On the transatlantic broadcast held during the State Teachers Convention, Northeast was well represented by students of considerable forensic ability.

Our speech division had one of the twenty-two semifinalists in America's "Town Meeting of the Air" national contest. Some students also went to radio stations to try out for speaking positions on such programs as "It's up to Youth" and sports broadcasts.

The question of the advisability of the Federal Government's making available free medical care for all citizens required much student preparation for debates with Central and with other schools that attended a meet at Southwest.

DRAMATICS

On May 9-10, in the school auditorium, the Dramatic players of the speech department presented "The Witching Hour," by Augustus Thomas, well-known playwright of St. Louis and New York. The play, a mystery drama, ranks unusually high in its class and had a long run in New York City. It proved a challenging undertaking for high-school pupils, but members of the cast performed exceedingly well and afforded the audience a very pleasant evening's entertainment.

FOOTBALL

As there were eight returning lettermen, Northeast's hopes for the '46 football season were high. Having a great record to uphold, Coach Markey worked the team hard in order to whip it into shape. Because of the polio epidemic, practice started late, some of the squad being absent, but in spite of these handicaps the machine was soon running smoothly.

On September 20 the annual non-league game with the William Chrisman Bears opened the season, Northeast winning its fifth consecutive victory over that team by a 12 to 7 score.

On September 28 came the season's first league game, which was with East, the latter being knocked from its roost by a 25 to 0 score.

From out Westport way came a rampaging eleven that was to give Northeast a run for the championship, but a 26 to 13 defeat quieted the Tigers' roar.

Soon to sign its death warrant was a fighting Paseo eleven. On Friday night, October 11, they retired to the showers after a 28 to 0 loss.

By this time Northeast's boys were being eagerly followed in the papers by everyone. But on October 19 they fell from their undefeated perch when they met Southeast in a hotly contested battle, from which the Knights emerged on the long end of a 6 to 0 count.

On October 26 Central received its chance to topple the Vikings; but the Vikings, rebounding from the Southeast defeat, sent the Blue Eagles winding, to the tune of 26 to 7.

"Klein vs. Glorioso" was a duel awaited by everyone—the game of the year. And that is just what it proved to be, Northeast losing by a very narrow margin. A record crowd turned out on November 5, to see Southwest gain the interscholastic league crown by defeating the Vikings, 20 to 19, in a well-played game that was not decided until the final gun.

As a semiclimax, the Vikings ended the '46 season by defeating a spirited Manual eleven, 13 to 6.

Coach Markey chose John Glorioso as acting game captain, but after the season closed, Glorioso and Lewis Daly were named honorary co-captains.

Northeast placed five men on the Kansas City All-Star teams, two winning first-team berths. At left half was Johnny Glorioso, who had been chosen on the 1944 all-star team. In both 1944 and 1946 he gained more yardage than any other back in the league, and set a new individual scoring record in 1946. At center was Charles Arendale, a rough and tough player, as many of his opponents will testify. At right half on the second team, was swivel-hipped Lewis Daly, a 1945 first-team, all-star selection. At quarterback was the capable ball handler, Don Wright. At right tackle was Bill Swearingen, one of the biggest and hardest-hitting tackles in the league.

With six returning lettermen, two efficient student managers, and the best coach ever, Northeast can expect great things from its '47 Viking squad.

This year Northeast welcomed a newcomer to its coaching staff. Coach Kenneth Hawthorne, a '35 graduate of Northeast, made fine use of his abilities in this, his first year of coaching at Northeast.

His football boys won three games, tied one, and lost three. Sparked by small but scrappy speedsters in the backfield, and by a hard-charging forward wall, the little Vikings ran up a total of fifty-one points in the seven games. In contrast with preceding years, Northeast used no reserves from the first team.

As the season progressed, the basketball seconds showed very much improvement, Guy, Simms, Williams, and Slavens leading the attack. Congratulations to the team and to the coach for their excellent showing.

BASKETBALL

Northeast has again fought its way to the top in an undefeated basketball season. Scraping and fighting all the way, the Viking quintet gave Coach Peters his eleventh Interscholastic League Championship and his third in the same number of years.

The Norsemen hit a streak of bad luck in their preseason games, losing them all by very small margins. First was the Wyandotte game, which the Bulldogs won by a score of 28 to 27. This game showed that the Vikings had plenty of speed and skill in making their shots.

Next was the Topeka game, which the Trojans won, 29 to 27. Around the corner came a fast Shawnee-Mission team to defeat the Vikings, 36 to 32. Not to be outdone, the Ward Cyclones defeated Northeast by a 40 to 25 score.

The Norsemen opened the interscholastic league season on January 3 by downing the East Bears, 29 to 20. This was the first victory of the season for the Vikings and came at a very opportune time.

After two weeks of rest, the Vikings met the Westport Tigers, who, boasting the tallest five in the league, were heavy favorites to take the interscholastic league championship. But by using a fast, aggressive offense the Vikings downed the Westport team, 27 to 19.

During the same week the Norsemen defeated the Pirates from Paseo by a 49 to 25 score.

Taking time off from the league games, Northeast went to St. Joseph to play its Central team. The game came out a 27 to 26 victory for the Vikings.

The Southwest game followed. The Vikings were ready to battle this team, for the Indians had kept them from having an undefeated season in '46. The game ended in a 38 to 29 victory for the Vikings.

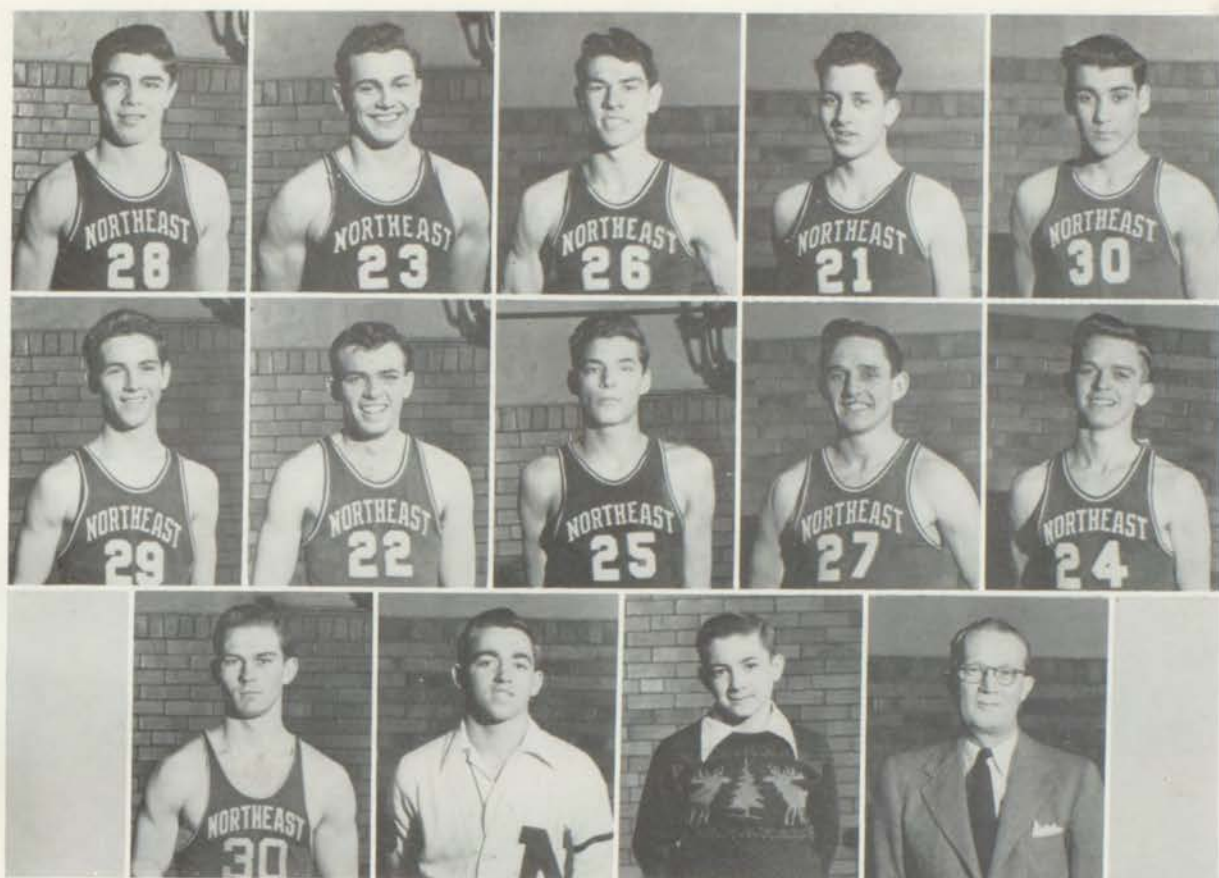

Up to this time, there were two undefeated teams in the league—Northeast and Central. Next came the crucial Central game, which was fast and well played, Northeast winning 35 to 27.

The Southeast five was a team that was full of surprises, for it was coming from seemingly nowhere to be a strong team. But they were also doomed to defeat when they met the Norsemen, as the score came out 29 to 25, in favor of the Vikings.

When the 1947 all-stars were chosen, Northeast placed two men, both on the first team. John Glorioso was selected for his outstanding play and sportsmanship; Bob Darnell, as a colorful setshot artist. Although only these two men received Kansas City all-star berths, the rest of the quintet—Jim Taylor, Sam Donnici, and Don Wright—made the Northeast "all-star team."

Northeast has three returning lettermen to compete in the 1948 interscholastic basketball season.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Dribble, pass, right pivot, drive . . . such are the terms heard throughout the year in the girls' gym classes.

While the weather is still warm during the first fall months, attention turns to HOCKEY. After techniques are mastered sufficiently, intramural teams are organized.

SPEEDBALL, which is another game played at this time, is an odd combination of basketball, hockey, football, and soccer, and is thought to be the most strenuous of girls' sports.

As soon as cold weather sets in, girls resort to the indoor games of VOLLEYBALL and BASKETBALL. Such skills as free shots, screen plays, jumps, set-ups, smashes, passes, goals, serves, and pivots are demonstrated. Perfection follows as a result of practice and round-robin tournaments.

In order to further their physical training, girls are given the chance to enjoy the extra-curricular activities of HORSEBACK RIDING, ICE SKATING, and BOWLING. The latter two are provided at the Pla-Mor, where entire sessions are devoted to high-school classes. The Swope Park Stables provide horses for riding; and, though this sport is new, it is fast becoming popular.

SWIMMING also plays a large part in the gym schedule, since it is here that many girls learn to swim. One-fifth of the student's physical education grade is based upon pool attendance. For more advanced swimmers there is instruction in life saving and water safety, while beginners learn fundamental strokes and simple diving. Throughout the school year classes are held twice a week in the pool.

MODERN DANCING is taught every Tuesday, and all girls are expected to participate. Push ups, arm and leg swings, and graceful falls help to develop better physical balance. Groups are then formed, the members devising their own dances from the principles they have been taught.

In the spring the girls play outdoors. SOFTBALL is enjoyed on the small athletic field, and TENNIS is practiced on the Budd Park courts. This is the second year in which GOLF has been added to the girls' physical education program. The girls develop skills during class; and after school, once a week for a month, they enjoy actual play. For less venturesome souls, BADMINTON, HAND TENNIS, AERIAL DARTS, and TABLE TENNIS are found inside.

This course intends to promote good sportsmanship and to develop body coordination. City-wide standards are set. By participating in extra work, entrants may, if they have average sports ability, work for letters and shields, just as the boys do.

This year's classes have been instructed by Miss Ruth Biggerstaff, Miss Josephine Woodward, and Mrs. Mary Louise O'Donnell. These fine teachers were assisted by student sports managers, who were chosen for their ability and interest in the different sports.

SPORTS DAY

True sportsmanship and ability on the part of girl athletes are tested when Sports Day arrives. This is an interscholastic affair at which each Kansas City school is represented by one team, commonly called an all-star team, and tournaments are played to decide the championship. Each team elects a captain who is responsible for the conduct of her players and relays instructions to them. After the matches it is customary for the home school to serve a luncheon, team members of that particular school acting as hostesses. This year three such events took place.

On November 2 Hockey Sports Day was held at East High School. Northeast won two games and tied one. After the tournament a luncheon was held, the East girls serving.

On Basketball Sports Day, which was held at Manual High School on February 3, Northeast claimed the title of Victorious Team by winning all three of its games. The Manual girls were hostesses for the luncheon after this event.

The last of the Sports Days was the swimming meet held at the Kansas City Athletic pool early in May. Participants were entertained at a tea after the contest. Because of the late schedule, pictures and results could not be included in the Annual.

R. O. T. C.

Sharing the R. O. T. C. work and honors this year have been two capable noncommissioned officers, Sgt. LeRoy Sipes and Sgt. Ernest Kaiser. Though Sgt. Kaiser has been in the Army eleven years and has had overseas duty, the high-school R. O. T. C. course is a new routine for him.

While taking a refresher course at Fort Benning, Georgia, during the summer months, both men became enthusiastic over substituting some classroom work for the extensive drill schedule, and so fell in readily with the Army's new plan to instruct our cadets this year in such classes as map reading, military history, weapon development, squad tactics, scouting, and patrolling.

The most outstanding cadet this year has been Battalion Commander Jack Howard. During his R. O. T. C. service he took third and first place in the American Legion contest, winning a medal for ranking highest in Northeast in military theory.

Closely following him for recognition are the executive officer, Lyle Deniston, and the company commanders, James Harman, David Lewis, and Clay Sincox. These five, with their superior officers, have guided Northeast into a respected position among other schools.

At the post of P. M. S. & T. is Lt. Colonel Bob Edwards, whose duty it is to supervise R. O. T. C. instruction throughout the city. He received his commission in college, where he was top rifle man for four years.

During this school year two important events took place which all cadets greatly enjoyed. The R. O. T. C. circus was held at the Municipithe annual dance held in the school gymnasium.

Thus the cadets this year have had a well-balanced program of work and pleasure. The departing seniors feel confident that the fine R. O. T. C. tradition will continue in Northeast.
