Dedication

As we leave "Thou Dear" with our hopes and dreams of the future, the Seniors of Northeast High School will always remember the devotion and achievement of one of our outstanding faculty members, Mr. George Calvert, as the senior class advisor. He has given his unselfish efforts to make each year a successful one for the Seniors.

He came to Northeast in 1931 as a teacher of physiography, chemistry, and biology. He has been assistant football coach, chairman of the arrangements committee, executive secretary of the National Honor Society as well as Senior sponsor. Mr. Calvert also served as the photographer for the Nor'easter in 1946. His loyalty and school spirit have been an outstanding example in leadership to the faculty and to the students.

And so to you Mr. Calvert, for your service to us and to our school, we respectfully dedicate this, our Nor'easter of 1961.

Senior Officers

The falling leaves, the added coolness in the air—these things ushered us into the new school year, our senior year. To us it was unbelievable because we didn't feel like seniors at all but 1500 underclassmen seemed to think we were so off we went. Important events were many this year and each of them came so fast that we didn't have time to catch our breath before the next one was here. The football and basketball games, the wonderful school spirit at a new high this year, our responsibilities as officers, the dances, Lit Night, the Senior Prom, and finally graduation—all these things combined to make a wonderful year for us and one which we hate to leave behind. We hope Northeast will always remember us as we'll remember Thou Dear.

We acquire knowledge from life and experience, but the amount of knowledge we obtain depends upon our teachers. Their ability to teach and their perseverance furthers our education and helps to mold our lives.

Not only does their job call for teaching ability and intelligence but it also requires a disciplined hand and an understanding of youth. In a way, a teacher must be a part-time counselor as well as an educator.

But the actual job of counseling is left to our counselors. Through their guidance, we become better students and without their help and understanding we would be faced with many problems.

Although the overall Viking record this year proved to be mediocre in comparison to other years, the strength of the Vikings was shown by the fact that they were successful in never losing a league game by more than one touchdown. The season started with our first opponent, Lincoln, completing the winning touchdown in the last 33 seconds of the game. Thus the Van Horn Falcons fell as our first victims of the season, when they were defeated 14-0. The night Northeast met Manual they met their easiest opponent, winning 48-7. The next game, in turn, was our roughest. The Vikings tied Westport by a score of 7-7. The following week N.E. tied Southwest 7-7, thus dimming the Indian's chance for first place. Southeast's Knights scored 19 points in a terrific offensive play the last quarter, winning by a close 19-16 victory. Our gala homecoming was overshadowed by a disappointing loss to East, final score 7-0. Northeast finished the season in sixth place with a 2-3-2 record.

Viking Courtmen

The 1960-61 edition of the Viking Basketeers was characterized by a great desire and determination to win. Starting the season without a returning regular, the Purple and White were short of experience, but by the start of league play had managed to gain enough poise, confidence and team play to carry them to a three-way tie for the Interscholastic League crown and the number seven spot in the Kansas City Star's "Top Ten" in the metropolitan area.

A busy December found the Vikes holding their own in six tournament games plus wins over St. John's and Westport along with a loss to DeLasalle.

Toughened by this nine game background, Northeast opened league play by defeating East 45-31. After a 53-46 loss to Manual, victories were scored over Van Horn, Southeast, and Lincoln before losing an overtime thriller to Central. Three straight victories over Paseo, Westport, and Southwest gave the hustling Vikes a share in the league championship.

The unusual loss of seniors by graduation tends to darken next years picture. On hand to carry the Northeast colors will be an above average group from this year's sophomore studded Junior Varsity. The Junior Varsity outlook too seems rosy, because of a strong freshman team, the first in Northeast history.

Varsity

The 1960-1961 Northeast cheerleaders, all seniors and second year cheerleaders, added color and enthusiasm to the games with their all-white uniforms contrasted by purple letters and armbands. Our ambitious Viking cheerleaders washed cars, cleaned basements, and did other odd jobs to earn a portion of their expenses needed to attend the National Cheerleaders Clinic held at the Illinois State University in Normal, Illinois this summer.

Cheerleaders

They brought back many new cheers and cheering techniques, to add to the fine tradition of excellent cheerleaders at Northeast. Better school spirit and larger attendance at the games was successfully achieved by these girls; Sally Campbell, Rexine Crawford, Judy Towse, Donna Robning, Christine Cushman, Billie Wilson, and Karen Jones; with the assistance of their sponsor Miss Lou Jean Moyer.

B-Team Cheerleaders

"Everyone come to the B-team games and help cheer our future varsity teams on to victory!!!" This was the cry of the 1960-1961 B-team cheerleaders who were chosen this fall. The girls worked hard to learn new cheers and secure uniforms to cheer at the B-team football and basketball games. Their uniforms consisted of purple sweaters with large white emblems and white armbands. Dyed to match the sweaters, were purple pleated coulottes, with white insets. These girls contributed greatly to raising interest in the B-team games and promoting the school spirit which was displayed at "Thou Dear" this year.

They were: Judi Laughlin: head-cheerleader, Cookie Curtis, Sandra Shores, Rosie Durham, Sandy Manard, Nancy Watts, and Linda Serres. Their sponsor and advisor was "K. O. Hawthorne."

Olympic Club

Hey, look at those flapjacks fly! The Olympians really worked hard this year. Not only did they have a successful Pancake Festival, but a mammoth rummage sale as well. Why the sudden burst of energy? Well, it seems the famous saying heard through the halls of "Thou Dear" around semester time was "Colorado or Bust!" This referred to the grand ski trip the Olympic Club took to Winter Park this year. Earning most of their way, the girls really made use of their week-end. Not only did everyone have a marvelous time but they also became expert skiers??

The 1960-1961 year began for the Seal Club with the flurry and rush of planning a formal initiation banquet, followed by an hilarious informal initiation in the pool room.

The fall event, held at Marguareta's on the Plaza, serving such delights as Taco's and Tortillas has become an annual event and was enjoyed by all. After the semester, preparation began in anticipation of a racing meet held in March, from which six proud winners emerged victorious with small gold trophies.

The girls worked long and hard for the presentation of their annual synchronized swimming show held in the latter part of May. This event, begun last year, was the highlight of the year and required hours of practice to make it a success.

Altogether the year proved to be an exciting one for the Seal Club, under the capable leadership of their new sponsor, Miss Owens.

Of the organizations at Northeast, the most valuable is the Student Council. Composed of a representative from each homeroom plus elected officers from the senior class, it gives the students of the school a voice with the officials. With its goal of improving the school in any possible way, this year's council has certainly done an effective job. One of the major improvements was the revision of the method of electing class officers. The system that had been in use for thirty years was obsolete so the necessary changes were made. The Student Council also did much to make Homecoming and the Homecoming Dance a great success. The half-time parade, the beautiful decorations at the dance, and the white mum corsages added much to the gala event. Under the guidance of the president and the new sponsor, Mr. Nance, the Council has served its function well.

National Honor Society

Throughout the high school years, there are students who, because of their ability and persistence, distinguish themselves. As a reward for their recognized excellence, the faculty of the high school during their junior or senior year selects them to membership in the National Honor Society. The candidates for membership are judged on the basis of four things; scholarship, leadership, character, and service; and after careful considera-

Northeast Youth Court

In 1958, recognizing the need for youth to take part in traffic safety, the students of Northeast and Glennon High Schools banded together to form the Northeast Youth Council and Court. The idea behind the group as effectively stated in the constitution is the betterment of the Northeast area in all ways as regards its youth. Through speakers and study, the Council learns of effective ways to further traffic safety while the Court functions in much the manner of an actual court. Students who commit traffic offenses appear before the Court and voluntarily take the punishment decided upon.

The idea of students punishing themselves for their own traffic violations, thus showing their interest, is excellent; and this organization is a real asset to the community.

Every other Friday shortly after the beginning of fourth hour, a curious quiet settles over school and students are seen with faces buried behind a large paper. The latest issue of the Courier has just been distributed. The quiet doesn't last long though because everyone has to discuss the news in the Courier.

This year the paper reached a new high in quality and the position it holds in the school. As the representative of the opinions of the student body and its activities, and as a ready source of humor, the Courier is an outstanding newspaper. The work of the staff is an excellent example of combining effectively fun, work, and learning.

What will we do with our money? This seemed to be a problem this year as the Sr. Tri-Hi-Y girls had the biggest treasury of any Y group. Besides working on rummage sales, chili suppers and other projects, the girls did a lot to help others. Among these service projects was an Easter party given to the children at Mercy Hospital. Learning about fashion, parties, and the vices of the world, the girls enjoyed a fun-loving, eventful year.

Fall Play

"Arsenic And Old Lace"

"But Mortimer, we've been burying bodies in the cellar for years!" This memorable line brought howls of laughter from the audience of the Fall Play given at "Thou Dear." About 900 people laughed their way through the insane melodrama of two ladies feeding helpless little old men poison Elderberry wine, and then, with a funeral and all the trimmings, burying them in the cellar. A rather unique curtain call was presented at each performance. After the cast had taken a bow, the bodies of twelve dead men marched out of the cellar and also took a bow.

The play was directed by William Bergfeldt, with Sandy De Shaffon helping out as Student Director.

Spring Play

"A Midsummer Night's Dream"

This is the first year that students at Northeast have attempted Shakespeare. The romantic story capitalizes on the lover-triangle theme, which finally ends up in a three-way marriage. The "dream" is one of the first plays to contain "a play within a play" which provides for added interest.

The audience of the Spring Play was surprised during the performance when fairies came flying down from the higher places in the auditorium at "Thou Dear."

In keeping with the spirit of the National Defense Education Act, and in gratitude for our government's large expenditure in fostering better understanding in our world of today and tomorrow, we of the French Club are earnestly endeavoring to develop an optimum proficiency in comprehension of the spoken word, in oral fluency, in reading, and in writing. But, since the understanding of other peoples is far more complex than the mere understanding of the "word," in planning our programs, we concern ourselves with the history of the French speaking peoples, with the development of insight through study of selections from their literature, their music, and their art. To implement this program we have speakers, movies, musical programs, art displays, dramatic readings, and French dining.

Spanish Club

This year, the Spanish Club of Northeast has changed not only in name but in every other aspect of the club. Under the direction and able assistance of its new sponsor, Miss Cody, it has been completely reorganized and has taken a new role in the life of the school.

The purpose of "La Charlita" is that all Spanish students may grow in their ability to use the language and in their understanding of the Spanish-speaking people of the world. Several events have been held to accomplish this purpose, the most important of which was the fiesta. Celebrating "El Dia de Los Reyes Macos," the members and guests enjoyed a delicious Spanish meal in the very authentic atmosphere of Guadalupe Center and afterwards were entertained by Spanish singers and dancers.

Plans are in progress for a Spanish table in the cafeteria during the lunch hour, at which only Spanish will be spoken. A Spanish fiesta will close the year in the spring.

"La Charlita" has enjoyed a very profitable year and is looking forward to even better ones in the future.

Each fall when the homerooms elect their representatives to the various organizations, one of the most important which they select is the Junior Red Cross representative. As the Northeast branch of the Red Cross, this group plays a vital part in many important undertakings. At Christmas time the veterans are well-remembered with the stockings filled by this organization and at other times the members pack chests for the needy overseas and sell candy at school to raise money. These have truly learned of a responsibility to others.

"Say, who's that sharp guy in the blue and gold jacket?" You guessed it, he's a member of the Benton Literary Society! This year, as in the past, the Bentons have done their best to uphold the fine traditions of their society, and they have taken in many fine members to continue the outstanding character of the Bentons. Included among their many activities were a tremendous rush party which succeeded in obtaining the top boys for Benton, an initiation, and the production of a float for Homecoming on which they worked with the Debaters, setting a worthy example for the future and which turned out to be the best float, as the entire school proudly claimed. The Bentons also purchased society pins, the first boys' society to do so.

Second semester was devoted to preparations for the Literary Contest and on Lit Night the Bentons made a fine showing as a result of hard work, ability, and leadership. The Bentons believe in having a good time, and this along with their outstanding qualities of loyalty, scholastic ability, co-operation, and initiative have been combined to make the Benton Literary Society the best at "Thou Dear."

Founded: 1916

Motto: Seek the Beautiful

Symbol: Scroll

Colors: Red and White

Flower: Long-stemmed Red Rose

Song: "A Clio Girl"

The first important event of the year was the "Clio Rush" which was very successful as evidenced by the new Clios. At initiation they were presented with the traditional Clio rose and told of the many high ideals that were associated with every Clio girl. During first semester, the Clios again adopted a Thanksgiving family and gave toys to needy children at Christmas. Not neglecting the brighter side, the Clios were also seen sporting their red and white sweatshirts around the halls. As first semester came to a close, the girls were once again reminded of the great importance of Lit to all Clios.

Second semester began with not one, but two, initiations of new members. The old members were very pleased with the new since they each possessed all the Clio qualities. Drafts again came sailing in with their hard work. The girls felt they had much to uphold since they took first last year. At this time, every move by each society is completely done in secret—dresses, outfits, and songs.

After Lit Night, the last memorable event of the year was the Farewell Banquet. There seemed to be many more tears this year than before as the seniors were given their last long-stemmed red rose and expressed their last feelings to the society. Each Clio girl was filled with many memories of the past year which she will never forget.

Northeast Society Of Debate

Founded: 1913

Song: "Debater Marching Song"

As the 1960-61 school year unfolded, the Northeast Society of Debate was in full swing as usual. The men of the NSD had prepared one of the most eventful rushes presented. The hopeful rushees considered it the best they attended. Then came the hard and wearisome task of electing the new members who will carry on the masterful name upheld by the men of the NSD since 1913. The Debaters were caught unexpectedly in the flurry and rush of Homecoming but the faithful members came through all of this with a prize-winning float. Around Christmas time you probably could have located the Debaters with their Delta sisters on a late Wednesday afternoon, joining together to have an exciting party before the holidays. Decorations, good food, and warm friendships made this a wonderful social event for sisters and brothers alike.

Second semester soon arrived, bringing along many honors to be placed in the Debater Log. The Debaters are proud to have had members who are leaders such as the Senior Class President, the Student Council President, and this year one member became Student Governor of Missouri. The appearance of the Literary Contest which had been awaited since school began arrived and the Debaters in full attendance started and finished in fine style. Then every Senior bade his grudging adieu at the Farewell Banquet to each Junior and Sophomore, placing the idea in their minds to keep the Northeast Society of Debate on top, "never to fall."

This year was as each preceding, an eventful one filled with new, broadening experiences for every Delta. From Rush in the fall through Farewell Banquet in the spring, they were all kept happily busy with activities and obligations. Rush was undoubtedly the best ever held, setting a new and higher standard for the future. The huge, beautiful triangle made each Delta realize anew the honor that comes with being a member of a group whose three guidewords are character, knowledge, and stability. This was emphasized even further at the solemn initiation of the pledges, who have certainly become a vital part of the society. At Thanksgiving and Christmas, the Deltas remembered those less fortunate by doing volunteer work at the Tuberculosis Association and giving toys and candy to an orphanage. Mid-Year Event was an hilarious thing, at least to the old members who really had fun further initiating the frightened pledges. All emerged safe and sound, though.

With second semester came Lit, the high point and goal of the year. Drafts, dresses, and songs kept all in a glorious whirl, and walking down the aisle brought proud tears to the eyes of each girl. Too soon it was over, with the Farewell Banquet speeches of the departing seniors a fitting climax.

Song: "Vienna Dreams"

The Theta Literary Society began the year with a rush party. The newly elected members were then properly initiated, both formally and informally. The first semester was filled with work, both on drafts and on picking declamations. But, along with the work came several coke parties that were held at the regular meetings. As the semester continued, the Thetas began to look for patterns for Lit dresses, and for material and accessories. The first semester went very quickly, and before long final drafts were due. All the Theta typists helped, and finally everyone finished the three copies needed to be typed. Preliminary judges were selected and the drafts turned over to them. At the semester break, many Thetas went to a progressive dinner that served as a Mid-Year Event. The mid-year rush was also held and four more girls became Thetas. After looking over sample materials and patterns, Lit dresses were chosen and the selection of songs began. After Lit Night the Thetas had a party. The next day the Farewell Banquet was held. The seniors were sad because it would be the last time that they would see all the Thetas together.

Junior Officers

As the 1960 fall term began, you, the Juniors, realized the new feeling of being upperclassmen. To begin your year, came the ever so famous football season with its gaiety and excitement. When this seemed to be only beginning, it was over with a climax of the Junior and Senior class elections and the 1960 Homecoming. However before school spirit had a chance to die, it was basketball season, which was promptly followed by the Sno Ball, Sweetheart, and Inter-society Dances. Just as you were getting into the swing of things, it was time for Lit Night, the Junior-Senior Prom and Graduation. You look back on your Junior year with many memories, regretting that it passed so quickly, but as Graduation ends, you find yourself thinking with much anticipation on the many new responsibilities facing you as a Senior.
