A Notre Dame de Sion

qui a veillé sur notre enfance, nous dédions cet "Annual"

Lui demandant de garder nos annees a venir et de nous reunir toutes aupres d'Elle dans la Sion du ciel.

Message To The Graduates

Dear Graduates,

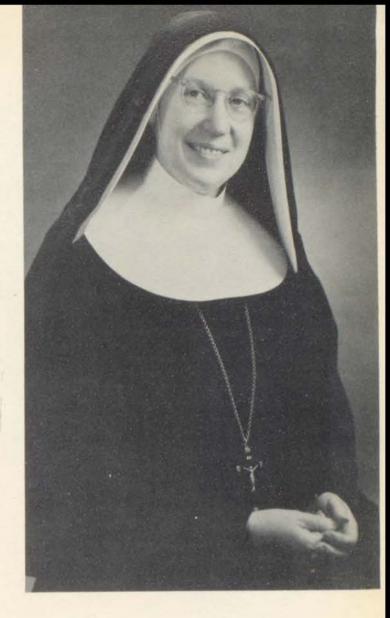

As always, it is with regret that we say "au revoir". Some of you have spent fourteen years at Sion, others only a few; but no matter the time, you are all very dear to us.

Your life is like a tapestry. At Sion, you and we have been the weavers. And now the time has come for us to step from behind the loom and together see what we have accomplished. Is charity clearly woven thereon? Do we find the ideal contained in your motto, "non sibi sed omnibus"?

We know that the tapestry is unfinished but the beginnings are there, so carry on your good work, Graduates. May your efforts always give glory to the Master Weaver and honor to your Alma Mater.

God bless you and guide you!

Notre Mere

The "wise", mature senior can easily remember back to her first explanation of the individual class colors as seen in the cross and belt worn by the students, and in the cordon awarded to each deserving girl by Notre Mere at the Grande Assemblee.

For the Seniors, there are special privileges, like the Senior Stairs and the beloved Senior Room. The Senior ring is, of course, the most cherished possession of all.

There are, too, the understood traditions, as well as the material ones...like that special feeling of belonging", and the spirit of family life, and the love of God and our Blessed Lady which permeates the halls of Sion and binds us forever to the blessed memory of Notre Dame de Sion.

Sion - - - Her History

Sion's history began in a small, obscure church of Rome, Sant' Andrea delle Fratte. Here Our Lady appeared to a young Jewish agnostic, Alphonse Ratisbonne. This powerful event led to his baptism and eventually to Holy Orders. Later Father Marie Alphonse joined his brother, Father Theodore, and together they began a work of prayer and sacrifice, an apostolate for the conversion of their race. Their efforts met with such success that two religious congregations were founded, one of priests and the other of sisters, which have continued the work of the Fathers Ratisbonne and have spread their zeal and teachings all over the world. Now more than a hundred years after her appearance, Our Lady reigns as queen and mother in forty-nine houses of Sion and awaits the day when she can again enter in five sions behind the Iron Curtain.

Although each of the houses of Notre Dame de Sion is impregnated with the same inherited spirit, our school in Kansas City is dearest to us. It originated on Benton Boulevard in 1912 and moved successively to Prospect, Warwick, and Armour Boulevards; now it stands on Sion Hill over looking Gillham Road. As we look up at this stately edifice we see only the expansive, comfortable home we have today. To our Notre Mere and to all those, past and present, who have made it possible for us to enjoy Sion Hill, we say a heartfelt "thank you".

In Memoriam

On January 18th the sisters lost a beloved member of their community in the person of Mother M. Noemi. Mere Noemi was one of the foundresses of Notre Dame de Sion in Kansas City and her former pupils will remember her as an able and enthusiastic teacher. Failing health brought her work in the classroom to an end in 1921. From that time on Mere Noemi's little room became an increasingly active center for the Apostleship of Prayer for Israel. So outstanding were her efforts that in 1956, she received the Edith Stein Guild's first award for her "invaluable work in improving relations between Jews and Catholics".

Requiescant in pace.

Chant Sionien

Sion l'echo joyeux repete
Ton nom si cher a tous nos coeurs.
Sion nous sommes ta conquete
Et nous serons tes defenseurs.
En ce beau jour, nous sommes toutes fieres
De nous proclamer tes enfants,
De nous ranger sous ta noble banniere,
De t'offrir nos coeurs et nos chants.

De Sion, vive l'oriflamme! Faisons partous flotter ses deux couleurs Que dans nos chants passe toute notre ame: Vive Sion! chantons en choeur! Vive Sion et Notre Dame!

Class History

Sister Mary Winifred de Sion was the class mistress of the junior class this year. Pat Loosen and Mary Borserine were the class angels the first and second semesters respectively. One of the fondest memories of the junior year was the senior feast in which the juniors acted as chief hostesses to the upper-classmen.

The outstanding event of the junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom given this year in the Empire Room on the Plaza with George Tidona's Band providing the music, and the junior class once again acting as hostesses to the departing seniors.

Graduation brought to the junior class the long awaited senior room, stairs, and other senior privileges, high-lighted on graduation evening by the receiving of the Sion Senior Ring.

Senior Sodality

Perpetual consecration to Our Lady as an Enfant de Marie de Sion, is the deepest spiritual aspiration of a high school student. At Sion the Sodality has always been considered a school of perfection where the aspirants desire to attain the greatest possible: holiness and possess a life radiating the powers of personal fervor and apostolic zeal.

Junior Sodality

The Junior Sodality of Our Lady was one of the organizations that was renewed on campus this year. The members consist of those freshmen, sophomores, and juniors who are striving toward the great honor of being received as aspirants in the Senior Sodality of the Children of Mary.

The Drama club, under the direction of Miss Lucas, produced one major production this year. The members of this organization not only made up the cast of the all-student production but were responsible for props, lighting, and other stage effects. Its players number forty-two with their executives: Marie Chombart, President; Browny Neal, Vice-President; and Janet Tucker, Secretary.

The Glee club, a high school organization, is under the direction this year of Mrs. Patrick Dennihan. The group sings at many school functions throughout the year and provides much entertainment with programs of varied musical compositions.

Sion Athletic Association and Marlin Club

Journalism Club

A newly organized club on campus this year is the journalism club. The function of this organization is the publishing of "The Purple Pennant", the school paper, and "The Sionian". Students of the junior and senior classes are eligible for membership. Isabel Lewis, Marilyn Roach, and Maddy Zahner served as President, Vicepresident, and Secretary-Treasurer respectively.

On Friday afternoons, a three-hour art class was given for the high school students. The instructor for this class was Mr. Vincent Campanella.

Art And Dancing Classes

Every Wednesday afternoon ballroom dancing, under the direction of Mr. Lanny Alexander, was held in the Grande Salle.

La Fete De Notre Mere

In each house of Sion, all over the world, a day is set aside to observe the feast day of its respective Reverend Mother. In Kansas City, our own Notre Mère's feast occurred on February 11, the date commemorating the apparition of the Blessed Virgin to Saint Bernadette of Lourdes. The day began with High Mass in the chapel celebrated by Reverend James Schlafly.

The day continued with a festive array of various presentations, as each class honored Notre Mere. Highlighting the day was the French play directed by Sr. Marie Lucienne de Sion. This play, which expressed beautifully the Joyous Mysteries of the Rosary, had in its cast members from all the grades both high school and grade school. It was a day of celebration that will be long remembered by all the students of Sion.

The Christmas spirit was running high at the Boarders Christmas Party. All the boarding students enjoyed a real banquet provided by the sisters before the girls left for the holidays.

Music Party

Music students took the afternoon off for this annual party held for them by Sr. M. Eileen de Sion.

Christmas Dance

The annual Sion Christmas Dance for the high school is a gala affair. This year, the grande salle was decorated with festive boughs of greenery and the traditional ceiling-high Christmas tree. Couples danced to music of the Hi-Fi's or munched on delicious refreshments donated by the Mothers' Club. Isabel Lewis was crowned the radiant "Reine de Noel".

Annual Queen

The vivacious Maddy Zahner presided over the Sion Annual Hop as its queen. The records were spun by Johnny Argo a disc-jockey from station K. U. D. L.

The high school students and their escorts danced in a gym brightly lined with the valentine theme of hearts.
