Mom and Dad—it is only fitting that we should dedicate this record of our senior year to you . . . You stood behind us backing us up in every thing we did, sharing with us our joys and helping us overcome disappointments and failures . . . Chili parties after a game, using the family car on Sunday, the small loan when our allowance didn't quite stretch, these seem like small things, but to us they were important . . . We had our disagreements, but you were always willing to listen to our side of the story. We may have seemed stubborn at times, but we really respected your knowledge and opinions . . . These are the things we remember as we look back on this year, put them all together and they spell that proud look in our eyes as we say to the world, "this is my Mom and Dad."

S E N I O R W I L L

As the old saying goes, "where there's a will, there's a way." Here's the will, you find the way.

President George Satterlee leaves his copy of "How to Win Friends and Influence Voters" to H. R. Wurst. While Jackie Jacobson hands her popularity and personality plus to that up and coming Junior, Barb Haskins.

Tips on personality are being passed on to Ann Follmer and Johnny Kessler by Ginger Ross and Bob Sloan respectfully.

It's up to Harold Ash and Barbara Abrams to fill the spot of those expert feet shufflers, Joyce Battle and Buddy Whiteman at the mixers next year.

"Keep 'em laughing," that's the engraved motto Joyce Day and Bud Kahn are gleefully handing down to Mary Kay Arthur and Don Gilcrest.

Tommy Cook is getting his "All Star Sweater" out of moth balls for that sharp Bill Fessler. Sally Linduar is coaching Phoebe Wolfe on how easy it is to beat the boys at same shot.

Someone has to get the job done—a spot filled this year very nicely by Marjean Phillips and Druery Thorn and I hear they're depending on Nancy Henning and Paul Nelson to carry the whips for next year.

Glenn "Yum Yum" Shaver leaves his textbooks fully equipped with mirrors to Mark Melson and Donna Hoglund presents those "ummmm—good" looks and charm to Gertrude LeRoy.

Joan Weber is the lucky gal designated to fill the fashion spotlight Nancy Niemeyer vacates. Eldon "Man About Town" Smith gives Don Schulenberg the pattern for his fuschia shirt and yellow tie combination in exchange for a nice straight jacket.

The responsibility of carrying on Barbara Davis, ever-pleasant ways will fall upon Barbara Sheffield and Lee Fowler will be heir to Joe Dameron's entertaining antics.

Bob McLeroy has finally consented to show Jim Overton how to wind feminine hearts around his little finger—in six easy lessons. While Louise "Get Your Man" Coleman is busily instructing Angela Konomos to answer the wifem calls for next year.

The Academy Award winners of this year, Ellene Thurman and Bob Arnold pass on acting ability to Donna Withers and Lester Cunningham.

Receiving private tutoring from Donna Wooldridge so she'll know all the answers next year is Shirley North. While Herb Knapp is busily engaged in auctioning off his answer books to Ben Trump.

Ed Moody's niche as the "Good Humor Man" will be occupied by Phil Barker. Nice things come in small packages as proven this year by Anabelle Patterson who thinks Pat Spencly will fill the bill next year.

Ernie Pasley refuses to leave his corny but clever writings behind (lucky Juniors) so his witticisms will be gone but not forgotten.

As for the love light of the school, Willa Dean Ricketson and Don Jones hope that Sue Shepard and W. H. Ricketson keep throwing those fond glances at each other, come next year.

To "Rip" Miller go Don Meyer's pair of Sandler shoes, with the inscription, "little but powerful" hummmmm? The girl with the gleam in her eyes, Evelyn Crockett turns her winning ways over to Eunice Miller.

Tom "That's A Joke Son" Hall insists Alan Wolfe is to be next year's jokester. Sally Richardson will be glad to leave her peppy personality and cheerleading ability to anyone who can get into her uniform.

Seen slyly passing his bottle of henna to Earnest Major was Johnny "Red" Wilhoit. Dolores Dolson's easy going ways and likeable personality are being inherited by sister Lois.

Marilynn "You Sportsman You" Tredway leaves her ability to get along with everybody to Carol Pash. Lee Bradley was last seen auctioning off his muscle building equipment to Jack Davenport.

Betty Crawford's role as "cute and fascinatin'" will go to Beverly Monk. Mary Hoover's sweet and quiet ways are received by Merritt Haskell.

And now last but not least may we pass on to each and everyone of you the thrills, enjoyments, and pleasures of being a Senior—"Good luck Juniors, we're depending on you!"

If Drew Pearson can make predictions of things to come, so can we, of course we can't guarantee they'll come true, but you never can tell . . .

The year is 1958 and Kansas City is booming since Mr. Cannon became Superintendent of Schools and speaking of politics, everyone is wearing the "Vote for Thorn" tags (left over from '48). It seems Druery is running for Dog Catcher, after being Assistant Dog Catcher for eight years, we think he really deserves it. Ray Gould who is head veterinarian at the City Dog Pound is in the dog house most of the time, but let's leave this part of town before we all go to the dogs.

There have been a few changes made in the faculty at Paseo, looking over the situation we find that very capable Mr. Carleton Lindgren as Principal and acting as his efficient Vice-Principal is Mr. Mert Davis. Professor Maynard Westbrook of Yale is currently lecturing to the Math classes on "Psychonumerical Geometry and its Relation to the Oldsmobile Convertible," (it has something to do with the seventh dimension).

Heading the English Department is Miss Joyce Day. Although some of the students consider her prudish—the studious ones appreciate her. The job of running the elevator has been entrusted to Jimmy Rathke who has been taking a post-grad course at Paseo now for five years. Miss Nola Houston is ruling the sewing department with a business like attitude, while Miss Gloria Kruse is doing her share in the foods lab. Coaches Al Mauer and Joe Parker have another championship football team lined up, but Interscholastic League Director Mr. Bud Kahn (All American Center '52) is trying to convince them that winning 234 consecutive games is not really fair to the other schools.

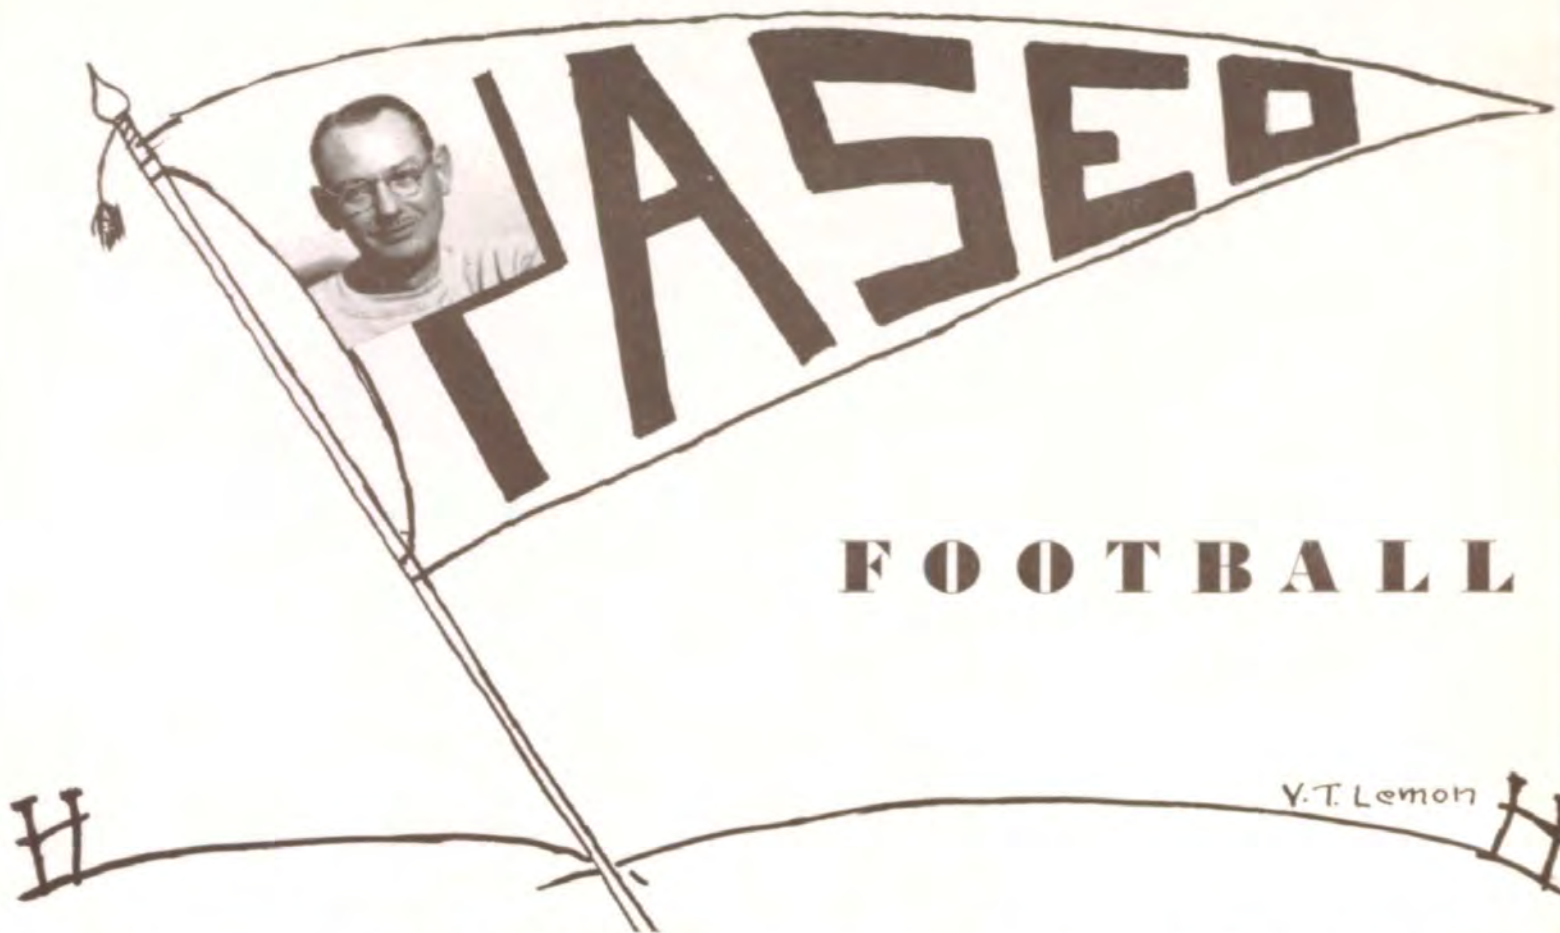

Seeing it's about lunch time we hasten over to the recently built "Kopitnik Drive In," where we find Elizabeth Wolfe, Janice Zitron, and Joan Schindler working as "car hops" fixing our order in the kitchen we spy head waitress Virginia Evans vainly trying to catch chef Carter Hamilton's eye.

After partaking of our Kopitnik Specials we depart for a tour of the city. Jack Judson, re-graveling the Plaza tennis courts, waves gaily to us as we drive by. Dick Lott we see has made a thriving business of his newspaper stand and Tom Hall's fortune telling booth is doing fine. Selling balloons on the corner of 12th and Main we find George Satterlee, vainly trying to make a sale.

Some of the Department Stores have changed hands—Harzfeld's is now owned and operated by Marvin Fremerman and Eldon Smith has changed the Jones' Dept. Store to Smith's Dept. Store, which confuses a number of people. The multi-millionaire is John Rutledge, who has bought the dime stores, because his hobby is collecting dimes.

Leaving the down-town district we enter the industrial section. The Guemple Petroleum Company is by far the largest but the Dubach and Dameron Glue Works, Incorporated is catching up in prestige.

Waiting to collect our tolls as we cross the bridge is Bob Parelman. Seeing the gas tank is about empty and since our journey is about over we take our car back to the "U Drive It" Station where attendant J. C. Bond is putting the finishing touches on a car waxing job. If we don't leave town but soon, Mr. Bond will be putting the finishing touches on us too!

FOOTBALL

In a season packed with thrills, spills, and disappointments, the injury riddled Pirate squad finished seventh in the interscholastic race with one victory, a tie and five defeats. Although Coach Mount Davis was host to a dozen lettermen, eight of them starters from last year's squad, the Pirates were unable to win their share of games on account of an over-crowded injury list.

The Rockhurst Hawks spread their wings to overshadow the Buc eleven 25-6 in the first skirmish of the season on a rain-soaked, mud-packed, Bourke field. The speedy Hawklets displayed a strong ground offensive, which completely overpowered the Pirate forward wall. The lone Buccaneer tally came when Don Jones, full-back, received a Hawk kick-off in the last period and made a brilliant 85 yard run.

The Indians must have held a little pow-wow before the game, as they marched on the field to scalp an under dog Pirate team 13-6. Though the Bucs put up a good defense, the first of the game, they couldn't stop the Red-skin onslaught before they had hit pay-dirt twice. The highlight of the game was Captain Tommy Cook's interception of an enemy pass, which he proceeded to run sixty yards for the Pirates' only marker.

Still looking for their first victory, the Buccaneers met the fighting Tigers of Westport, when the latter proved their superiority. For the first time the Pirate line showed some aggressiveness, but the Tigers took to the air and chalked up 21 points to the Pirates' 13. Tommy Cook was responsible for the two Buc tallies, one of which was a 90 yard kick-off return.

When the half time found both teams scoreless in the East-Paseo game the scrappy East Bears bounced back in the third quarter to slash the Pirate defense to ribbons and emerge on top of a 19-0 score.

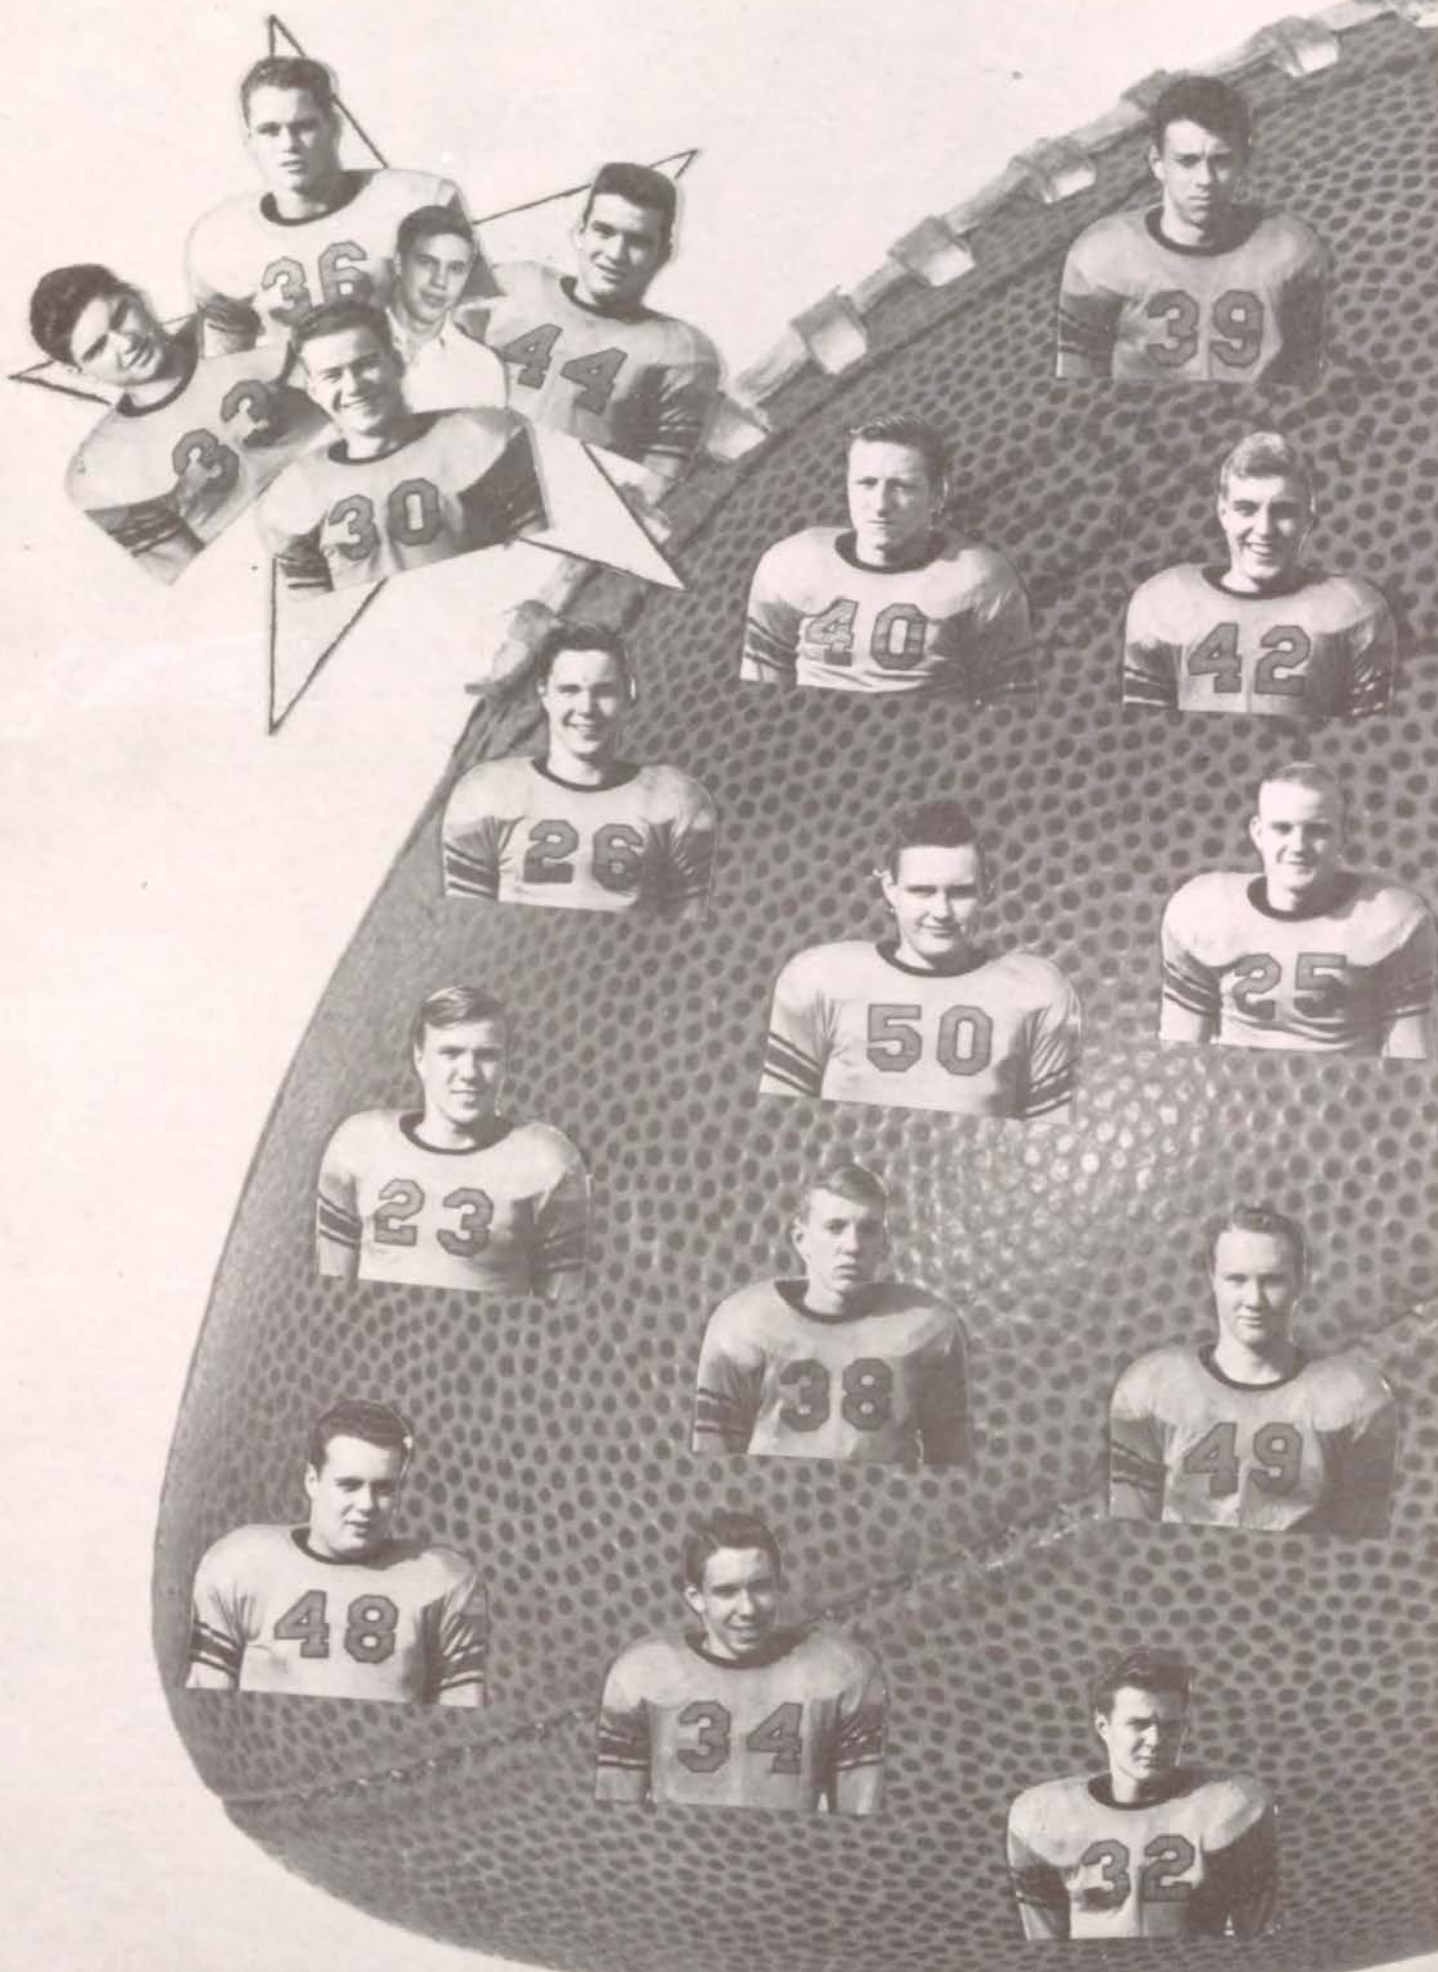

The bitter rivalry between the blue and white of Central and the Paseo Pirates ran true to form, as the two teams fought to a 7-7 deadlock. The Eagles were favored to subdue the Buc eleven, but the Davis men had other ideas and proceeded to display them by holding Coach Harry Slaymaker's aggregation to an even keel.

3,729 chilled fans watched the Southeast Knights scuttle the Pirate crew 20-7 in the last tilt of the season. With excellent blocking, the Knights had little difficulty in downing any Pirate threats. With the aid of Karl Davenport, a long touchdown drive was completed by Tommy Cook, who carried the pigskin into T.D. land for the single Buc tally.

Top honors of the season went to Tommy Cook, triple-threat backfield ace of Paseo, who by a unanimous vote was placed on the interscholastic all-star team. He also received the league scoring crown with a total of 67 points for the season. Lee Bradley, end, received a berth on the second team all-stars and Carl Lindgren, guard; Bob McLeroy, guard, and Jim Overton, center, were given honorable mention.

Scenting a long-sought-for victory, the blood thirsty Pirates romped over the Manual Redbirds 33-6 for their first victory in two seasons. Again it was Cook and a hard charging line that shone, but the former was the outstanding reason for victory, inasmuch as he made five touchdowns and three conversions.

The Pirates were no match for the heavy, powerful grid machine from Northeast, which finished the season with an unblemished record to cop the coveted league crown. Though the Cook-to-Bradley passing combination clicked for two T.D.'s, it wasn't enough to overtake the Viking lead. The gun sounded with the Vikings on the long end of a 27-13 score.

SECOND TEAM FOOTBALL

The Pirate reserves dropped their first league encounter to the Redskins of Southwest as the Indians scored in every quarter except the first and trapped Harold Ash, Pirate back, behind his own goal stripe to put them on the long end of a 10-0 score.

Coach Dwight's hard fighting second team was not to be discouraged though as they tied a strong Northeast eleven 6-6 in their next skirmish and downed a scrappy Bruin aggregation from East 13-6 for their first victory of the season.

The Bucs couldn't keep victory in their grasp for the Westport Tigers eked out a 6-0 win despite the heroic efforts of Royce Roberts and Bill Reeder, who intercepted enemy passes but were unable to turn them into paydirt.

The Corsairs got rolling against a stubborn Manual eleven and proceeded to chalk up a 12-0 victory over the Redbirds. The story wasn't repeated against the Southeast Knights however, as the latter had other ideas which they executed to perfection. The Knights wound up on top as the final gun sounded 18-13.

By defeating Central's seconds 12-6 in the final stanza of an exciting game, the Bucs finished the season with a record of three victories, three defeats, and one tie. The team was hustling all the time with Jack Davenport and Bill Reeder turning in outstanding performances.

This was Coach Dwight's first season with Paseo and he can justly be proud of the record his boys compiled. Besides teaching the fundamentals of the game, playing on the second team enables the boys to gain invaluable experience which they will use to good advantage on next year's first team.

Kenny Dubach, Sally Richardson and Louise Coleman really kept the Pirates in high spirits and encouraged them on to victory. A hand to them!

This year, as in past years, the A Cappella Choir, under the capable direction of Miss Marguerite Zimmerman has again earned high praise for their music.

They sang at various churches throughout the city, at open house, presented a beautiful part in the Christmas and Easter assemblies, took part in the English Assembly, and participated in the Spring Festival at the Music Hall.

Their final contribution to highlight another very successful year was the lovely music they presented at graduation.

Miss Zimmerman is known throughout the city as one of the outstanding public school choir directors.

The Pirate amphibious team got off to a successful start as they splashed their way to victory over the Viking fish of Northeast, 31-26. In the 50 yard free style Jerry McCoy broke the Paseo Pool record and Earl Darlington shaved 5 seconds off the city record in the 100 yard breast stroke. Paseo's 150 yard medley relay team composed of Bontrager, Darlington and McCoy swam to an easy first while breaking the city record by 4.4 seconds.

Scoring first in every event, the Pirates swamped the Manual Redbirds, 45-12. Karl Davenport grabbed a first in the 50 yard free style while Bontrager showed his skills to the Cardinal hopefuls in the 100 yard back stroke. Hall and Walters finished first and second respectively in the 200 yard free style and the 150 yard medley relay team and 200 yard free style relay team were victorious.

The Indians pow-wow must have failed for Southwest as the Bucs retained their scalps for a 30-27 victory. The meet was close all the way and although the Corsairs took an early lead it wasn't until the medley relay team came from behind to win that the tankmen were able to clinch the meet.

In a return engagement the Pirates were unable to cope with a rejuvenated Indian aggregation and ended up on the short end of a 38-19 score. Darlington still retained his undefeated status and the 150 yard medley relay grabbed an easy first. The rest of the points for the Bucs came from seconds and thirds.

The amphibs of Paseo again were unable to repeat victory as they sunk below the Northeast Vikings, 30-27, in their second encounter with the much improved Vikes. The Pirates defeated the victors 31-26 in their first water fight. Firsts were taken by Hall, 200 yard free style; Darlington, 100 yard breast stroke; and the 150 yard medley relay team.

Setting two of three new records in the city swimming meet the Buc tankmen placed second behind Southwest with 34 points. The Indians tallied 62 points for first place and retained the crown for the third consecutive year.

In the preliminaries sixteen Southwest men qualified for the finals; Paseo qualified eight, Northeast five, and Manual one.

Earl Darlington, speedy Pirate breast stroker, clipped 3.1 seconds off the record which he set last year, swimming the 100 yard distance in 1:15.9. The 150 yard medley relay team of Leo Bontrager, Earl Darlington and Jerry McCoy set the other record for Paseo with a time of 1:36.

In the state swimming meet, the Paseo swimmers placed ninth scoring six points. Jerry McCoy took a sixth place in the 100 yard breast stroke and the medley relay team finished fourth. The meet was held in St. Louis and was won by Cleveland high of that city, with 37 points.

This was Coach Dwight's first year at Paseo and has already won the respect and admiration of the students and faculty with his fine work coaching the swimming team and other activities which he has taken part in.

A hustling Paseo quintet eked out a 28 to 27 victory over the Glennon Eagles in their first cage tilt of the season. Trailing at the end of the third quarter 25 to 18, the Eagles put the pressure on and staged a rally that knotted the score at 25 to 25 with two minutes of play remaining. The Pirates stiffened, however, and after trading a field goal apiece, Bob Sloan pulled the game out of the fire by sinking a charity toss.

The Bucs weren't as fortunate against Highland Park of Topeka, being cold at the basket and relying on charity tosses to keep them within reach of the tall, fast Kansans. Though the Pirates cut the lead down to three points they were unable to overtake them before the final gun sounded.

The Rockhurst Hawklets trounced the Paseo quintet, holding the Pirates down to 25 points while chalking up 46 for themselves. With one win and two losses behind them, the Armourmen met the cagers of Ruskin and were edged out by the small margin of two points, the game ending 39 to 37.

Controlling the rebounds and employing an air-tight man-to-man defense the Pirate cagers bowled over their first league opponents, the Manual Redbirds 34 to 23. Bill Fessler was high point man for the Bucs with ten points and team mate Bobby Sloan close behind with nine.

Overcoming a 12 point lead in the fourth quarter and outscoring the Pirates 5 to 3 in an overtime period, the Southwest Indians downed Paseo 32 to 30. Going into the final stanza with a 22 to 11 lead the Bucs were only able to score one field goal while the Indians racked up 14 points. A field goal by Arnold and Cook's charity toss weren't sufficient to top the rampaging Redskins.

Defeating the league leading Bruins of East 34 to 27, the Corsairs scored the upset of the season. Using an airtight zone defense, which the Bears couldn't penetrate the Pirates put on a good show of basketball for the 6,000 spectators.

Trailing 16 to 12 at the half the Pirate five staged a strong comeback and were able to defeat the strong Benton quintet from St. Joseph in two hectic overtime periods 33 to 31. Fessler and Cook were high point men with 7 and 6 points respectively. The Pem-Day Raiders won a heart-breaker from the Pirates 24 to 23 in another non-league tilt.

The Pirates were no match for the Norsemen from Northeast bowing 24 to 34. The first quarter was scoreless until Glenn Shaver dunked one in from the field near the end of the period. The Paseo boys just couldn't find their stride the entire game.

With Bob Arnold leading the way, the Bucs scuttled the Southeast Knights 43 to 35 in a fast, shooting game. Arnold scored 22 points to break the individual scoring record of the season, in the Interscholastic league. Though his record was equaled by Stan Maskowitch of Southwest it was never surpassed.

The Pirates moved into the No. 3 spot of the league when they defeated the Central Eagles 38 to 23. The score in the first half went back and forth like a duck waddling to a pond. In the second half however, the Eagles were unable to keep pace with the hot-shooting boys from the hill.

It was the Bucs' last victory for the season though for they were unable to cope with the tall Tigers of Westport who finished first in the league to win the championship. East and Northeast tied for second and the Pirates retained their number three berth which they occupied most of the season. The Bucs were defeated in the first round of the sub-regional tournament 33 to 28 by the Southeast Knights.

Congratulations go to Bob Arnold who received a berth on the second team All-Stars and was also elected honorary captain of the Paseo team by his team mates. Bill Fessler, Bob Sloan and Tom Cook received honorable mention for their fine ball playing throughout the season. Other boys who did a good job for Paseo are: Jim Miller, Ed Moody, George Satterlee, who was hampered with a trick knee, John Valentine and John Rutledge.

Second Team Basketeers

Pounding the timbers in their first league tilt of the season, the Pirate reserves walloped the Manual seconds 38 to 24, showing superb form underneath the bucket and grabbing rebounds. Morton Spack and Bill Richards paced the fast, tricky offense of the Bucs.

The next to fall before the bloodthirsty Pirates were the Southwest Indians, who were unable to quench a last quarter splurge and were left on the short end of a 28 to 27 score.

The next victim of the speedy, dauntless, Davis men were the Northeast Vikings, who couldn't find the basket and were forced to yield 29 points while the Bucs, with Spack and Richards again paving the way, granted the Vikes only 18 markers.

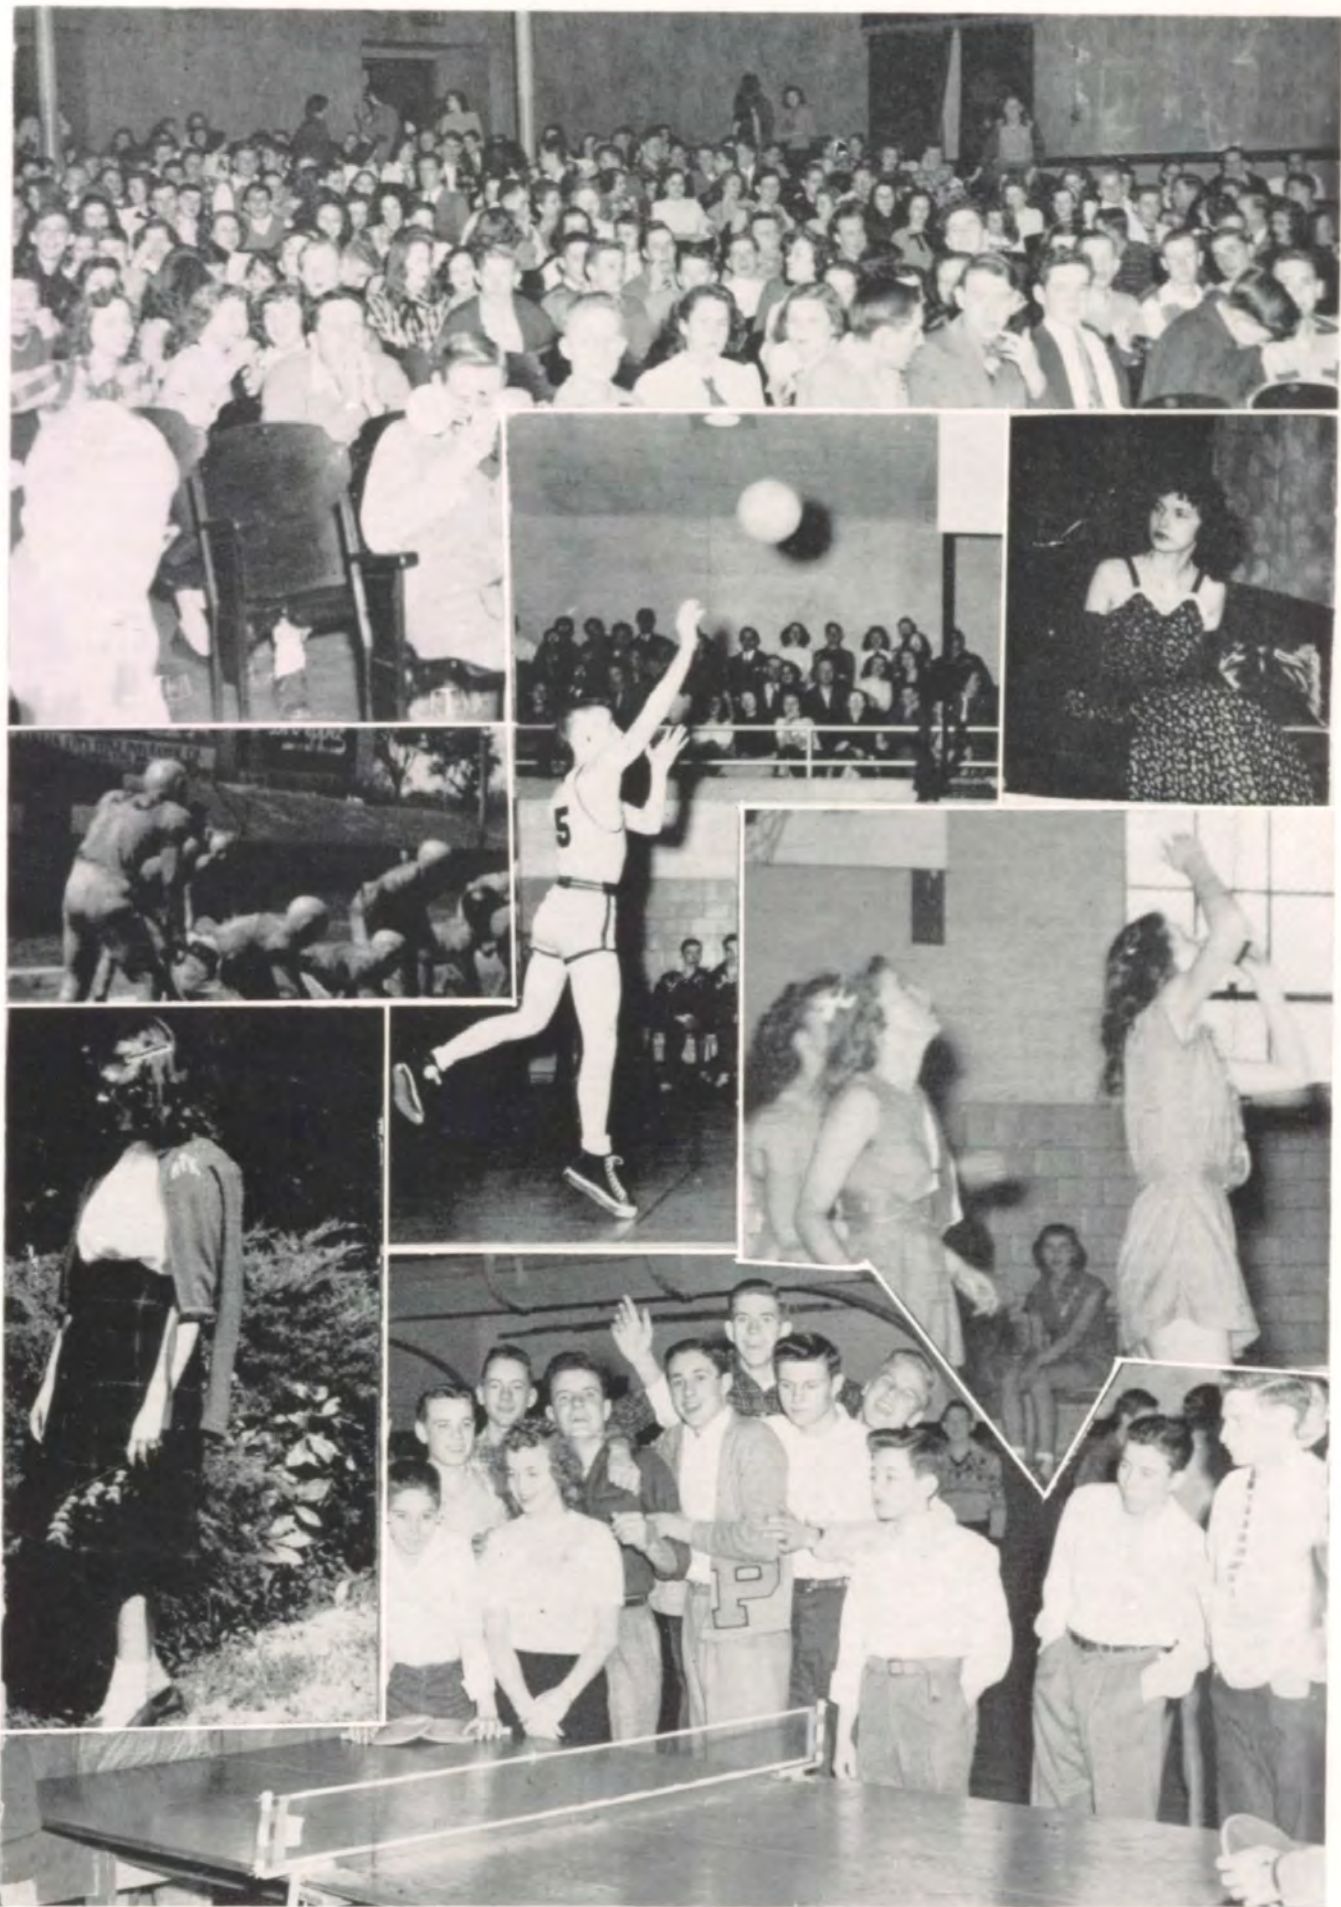

The winning streak was snapped when a hot ball club from East High came over to the Paseo court and in a wild, free shooting contest were able to emerge on top of a 45 to 43 score. It was an exciting, tense game for both players and onlookers and was the first league loss of the Bucklets.

Seemingly discouraged from their last encounter and terrifically cold at the basket, a ragged, rough, Paseo five bowed to a smooth running, hot-shooting Southeast quintet, 44 to 24.

Hitting their old stride again, the Buc quintet humiliated a lowly Central squad by trouncing them 43 to 20. The Pirate defense had the Central seconds completely bottled up, allowing only 11 points the first half and 9 in the second.

Closing the season in the same fashion they opened it, the Corsairs defeated the Tigers of Westport 40 to 36 to climax an eventful season with 5 wins and 2 losses.

Coach Davis deserves a word of praise for his fine work with the squad, and the boys themselves should be congratulated for their fine play and sportsmanship. Boys who will receive letters are: Charles Gillam, Robert Clelland, Jim Hyatt, Dean Larson, Carl McCullough, Bill Richards, Royce Roberts, Dale Schmidt, Don Schulenberg, Bill Shrewsbury, Tom Sims, Morton Spack and Richard Sundeen.

Every other Thursday the results of the hard work of the Newswriting class, under the supervision of Miss Josephine Baity coupled with the efforts of Mr. C. A. Barret and his printing classes, were shown to the public.

With Virginia Evans, editor, Elaine Hock, associate editor, and Donna Withers, first page editor the class began to show its ability to gather and write the news. The class also displayed its capability to write features, which were under the charge of Shirlee Bogdanoff and Phoebe Wolfe, second and third page editors, respectively. John Kessler handled the sport page.

One of the activities of this year's class was to install a new cut for the Charted Course column. Listed below are the people who made this year's Paseo Press possible.

Several new activities have been started in ROTC this year. The most prominent of these was the Drum and Bugle Corps which appeared on several social activities in Kansas City. A firing squad was organized to provide full military honors for veterans of World War II.

The annual ROTC assembly was held February 24 at which time the rifle team letters were presented and the Drum and Bugle Corps made its first appearance before the student body. The crack rifle squad put on a short demonstration in the manual of arms.

The annual ROTC circus was held on April 9 with the Paseo unit presenting a number by the Drum and Bugle Corps and the school band.

The Paseo rifle team made two out-of-town trips. One to the invitational tournament at Omaha, Nebraska, on January 23 in which sixteen teams competed. The other match was against Liberty Memorial high school at Lawrence, Kansas, on February 21. The team also fired in the National Rifle Association match, the Fifth Army match, and the City match. The captain of the team was Cadet Lieutenant Paul Kelly.

DRUM & BUGLE CORPS

This was a new department of ROTC started here by Lieutenant Robert L. Smith this year. It consists of eleven street drums, five bugles, two bass drums, two sets of cymbals, and it was accompanied by two drum majorettes, Jeanette Miller and Joyce Ganow. Cadet Captain James Curtis led the Corps in its numbers throughout the year. The Corps gave numbers at the Kansas City Athenaeum Club, at the ceremony of the Purple Heart Club on George Washington's birthday, at the Sons of the American Legion Rally, in the ROTC Assembly, and at the ROTC Circus.

A U T O C L U B

Enthusiastically many students united to form the new Auto Club as is shown by its membership of over a hundred forty-five students. Moving pictures on driving, a series of speakers, including Bob Davis, a highway patrolman, and valuable driving instruction were supplied by Mr. Lovejoy, the sponsor. A contest was held for a new car tag design; also, an assembly with enlightening pictures and speakers on the traffic situation.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

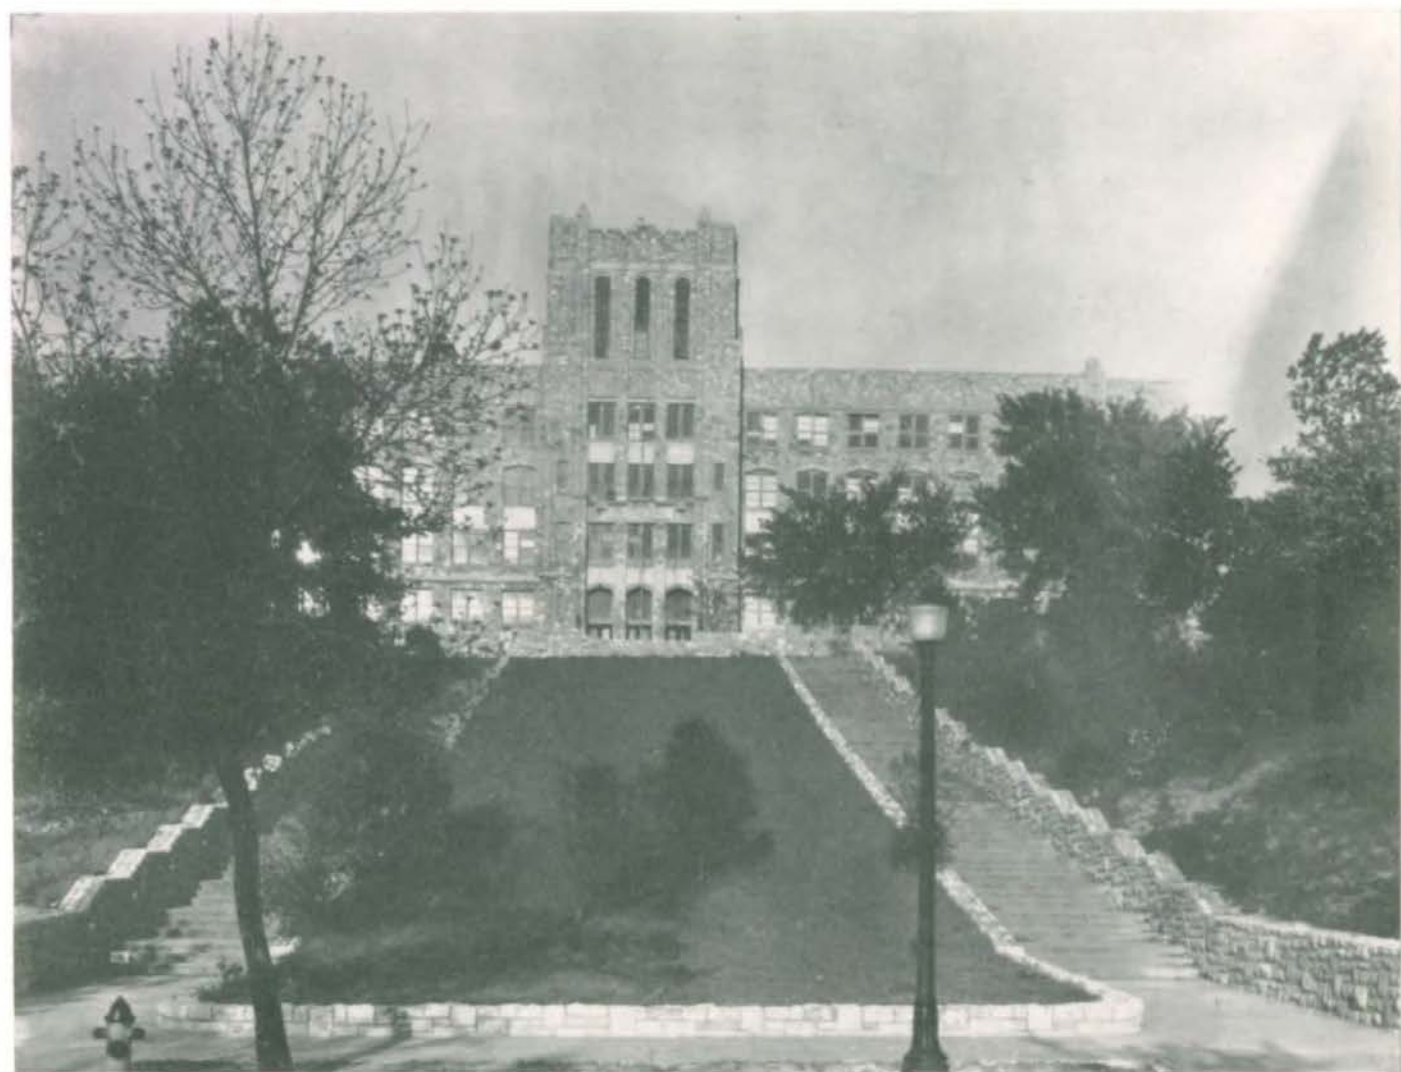

Another new club that was formed and sponsored this year by Mr. Lovejoy is the Photography Club. The members have enjoyed themselves with field trips, enlarging and developing pictures, darkroom work, making pictures of P. T. A. mothers, and color photos. Many of the pictures in our own annual have been taken by the various members. Well-known photographers have supplied much information in these meetings.

KARL DAVENPORT—The junior class picked for their president a very versatile fellow. Karl gained recognition for his participation in sports, winning a letter in football and swimming. Among his many other activities are: sergeant-at-arms for Keats and member of the Traffic Squad, Hi-Y and orchestra.

LEE FOWLER—To this likeable fellow with a smile for all, goes the high office of gift receiver. Lee also was a member of the Keats Literary Society, belonged to Hi-Y, was a Student Council representative and served on the Traffic Squad.

PAUL NELSON—Paul has already shown his ability in the way he has handled his many duties around school; namely, the first semester continuity officer to the All-City Student Council, a member of the mixer committee, Hi-Y, El Ateneo, Juntos, Red Cross Council, and Traffic Squad. To this list of offices he now adds that of vice-president of his class.

BARBARA HASKIN—This cute little brunette now has the job of keeping the minutes for her class. She is publicity chairman of the mixer committee, reporter for El Ateneo, member of the Y-Teen executive board, Discussion Club, Zetas, Drama Workshop, Pep Club, Press Staff, A Cappella, and the fall play cast.

SUE SHEPARD—The financial affairs of the junior class go to this girl who has shown her ability previously by being vice-president of the Junior Y-Teen, reporter for Zetas, Student Council representative, and a member of the Mixer committee.

BEN TRUMP—To take over the office of sergeant-at-arms of his class is Ben Trump. He is a member of the National Honor Society, Hi-Y, Keats, Traffic Squad, and is a photographer for the Press.

ANN FOLLMER—Being reporter of her class just adds another duty to this busy junior. She is a Student Council representative, treasurer of the French Club, interclub council representative for Zetas, and a member of the Pep Club, Mask and Wig, and Y-Teen cabinet.

ON HAND with the BLISTER BRIGADE

With seven lettermen forming the nucleus of Coach Mount Davis' track squad, the Pirates should prove very potent in the city meet this year. As the Paseon goes to press the Bucs had only one dual meet, that with the three year champion cinder squad of Southwest.

The Indians completely outclassed the Pirate aggregation taking eight first places of the twelve events, scoring three clean sweeps, in the 220-yard dash, the 330-yard run, and the broad jump.

Paseo's firsts were by George Satterlee in the shotput, Bob Morris in the pole vault, and Jerry McCoy in both hurdle events. Bill Fessler, high timber man, was unable to get a good start and should be in the point making division—with team mate McCoy in the future.

Being so early in the season it is impossible to tell who will cop the city meet for the championship of the interscholastic league. With steady improvement though, the Pirates should rank high.

George Satterlee, who tossed the pellet to first place last year will be out to break the 32 year old record which is 49 feet. Satterlee's best heave so far this year is 47'4". Don Jones and Tommy Cook hold the Pirates' hopes in the sprints while Bobby Morris will carry the Red and Gold's honor in the pole vault.

In the high jump Bob Sloan and Tom Overman should prove effective while Homer Raymond will be executing the broad jump.

Since the dual meets are merely practice and have no bearing whatsoever on the final standings in the loop, the Bucs have trained their eyes on the city meet. Training, working, and plenty of support from the student body should enable Paseo to win the crown and be the new '48 champions of the cinders.

CITY HALL DAY

Future lawmakers learn tasks confronting local government by active participation for one day.

Smilin' Druery Thorn,
City Manager for a day.

Complaints about government may fly thick and fast, but doing something about it is quite another matter. Again this year the high school youths are taking things in their own hands and "showing the politicians how it should be done." The big day is officially termed High School-Day at the City Hall.

Paseo is taking a big part in the activity by having a big-gun politician Druery Thorn as the city manager.

Sharing the honors and helping to carry the broom (clean government you know) are Ken Dubach, member of the Park board; Elaine Lewis, director of liquor control; Ed Moody, police commissioner; Evelyn Crockett, commissioner of water collections; Martin Davis, chief planning engineer; Nancy Niemeyer, director of health; Sally Richardson, deputy election commissioner; George Satterlee, police commissioner; and Jackie Jacobson, councilman.

ENGLISH ASSEMBLY

Under the direction of Miss Weeks the Senior Literature Department presented the English Assembly on April 2. The winners of their divisions were: Carol Rainy, Lyric; Sally Richardson, Narrative; and Dick Fowler, Dramatic. Prizes were awarded to Dean Ellen Keaton for the Freshman contest, Barbara Davis for winning the song contest, and the poetry cup was presented to Sally Richardson.

The Senior Literature class gave a play, Spreading the News, an Irish tale. The cast included Herb Knapp, Marjean Phillips, Julianne Tainter, and others of the Senior Literature class.

Senior: Just talked to coach.

Senior: God bless you.

Said the man as he was being electrocuted, "Gads what a shocking situation."

Pasley: I play volley ball scientifically.

Hicks: How come?

Pasley: I use my head.

Tredway: Did you hear about Miss Hurricane of 1948?

Edsell: No—what about her?

Tredway: She's a big blow.

Richardson: This ball is all wet.

Kahn: Yeah—it's a gulf ball.

THROUGH THE PORT HOLE
THE EASY WAY OUT

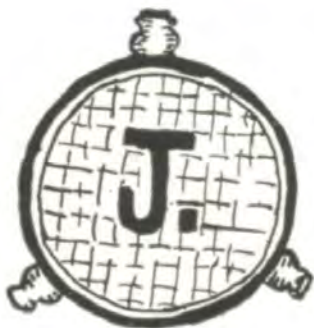

Through the Porthole this week we are going to discuss the question of figurative speech.

Lets analyze the sentence, "The actresses' eyes swept the audience till they caught his." "Her eyes swept the audience," I guess that means when you go to that show you get cleaned plenty.

When our actress friend goes back into the wings they don't ask her how many encores she got, but how many eyes did she catch? Hmmm . . . nice hunting.

While we're on the subject of eyes your reading all the time how the heroine "shyly blushed and dropped her eyes" but come to think about it, I'd blush if I dropped my eyes.

So the next time you read about "her black eyes were snapping" just smile and remember: Even authors have to eat, and as long as we keep swallowing their figurative speech . . . they'll keep on eating.

Eastbrook Pegleg Says:

I was recently asked the question "why are the Communists called Reds?" I shall proceed to answer the question:

Communists are called Reds because they are not blue, they are happy, just the opposite from blue—so they are called Red.

The fact that they are always in the red has nothing to do with it, I'm sure.

JACKOBSON'S JABBER XZDTB?

Well now since we have some extra time and since we just happen to have some extra space, how about accompanying me, Erutaef Rotide (Feature Editor spelled backwards), on a tour around this fine and noble building and see what the latest gossip is.

Let's start where the biggest crowd is gathered, humm that seems to be around the boys' gym. Let's stop a moment and listen. That darling little senior Edwina Moody is speaking. "Oh I wish that brute Sol Richardson would hurry, he knows I hate to be kept waiting." The Petite Gay Palmer remarks "That's why I like to wait for Jerry Cox, he's so prompt and anyway I don't like to walk home (giggle). I'm afraid I'm not the athletic type." Ernestine Pasley just has to get her two cents worth in (that's about all she's got) and says "I just stand here everyday hoping that rugged Patrick White will let me carry his books home." (I have some advise for Ernestine: maybe Patrick likes honest girls and not those who would take his books home.)

I guess that's about all in that group, but wait! Who's that back in the corner trying to memorize "How to be Considered Date Bait?" Why it's none other than tiny, shy Georgia Satterlee. Seeing us, she looks up quickly and a smile breaks across her face. (No permanent damage was done, however.) Maybe if she keeps on reading that book one of the girls will cast a friendly glance her way—you never can tell.

O.K. Enough of these "Lily Whitters." Let's move on to where women are women and men are men. (Gads, what a coincidence!)—the girls' gym. Here we find Earline Darlington, Charlene Fredericks, and Roberta Arnold arguing over who should be captain of the A hour all-star Volleyball team. Suddenly they are interrupted when Charlene Heller tactfully tells them she has been elected captain. At the other end of the gym, we find Norma Ballow insistently telling Elliene Estes that no zoology classes are held in the girls' gym while charming little Elliene keeps insisting that someone told her "this is where the badmitton birdees were kept."

Well let us fly the coop and extract ourselves from the girls' gym. As we enter the well-lighted back hall, we faintly see the girlish figure of Leah Bradley, flying toward us practically hysterical with Joy, (Joy who?). After Leah regains her composure, we find the cause of her excitement to be the fact that she got an E on the angel food cake she made in foods.

This reminds us of the food lab so we wander up there. Here we find Gwendolyn Shaver and Geraldine McCoy mixing up the daintiest batch of les croissants one would ever hope to see. They tell me they would rather bake French Pastry than do anything else. Humm, what have we here—oh yes—it's Cookie Cook proving the "quickest way to a man's heart is through his stomach," but Cookie, it's just figurative speech, so put that butcher knife away.

And speaking about knives let us visit the wood-work shop. Gene Salmon is proudly displaying the Chinese Checker Board he made. When asked why he constructed it he answered "I like to bore things." Elmer Thurman is busily sawing wood held firmly in place with a vice. After a half hour of rather awkward sawing, he discovers his left hand is also held firmly in the vice. Just call him Stubby. May Schaffer just turned on the electric saw and motioned us to come over—so I guess it's time to leave.

Out in the hall we find Davy Crocket and Don Hogleund debating whether the drafting room is the place you go to join the army. At long last, Lou Coleman finally arrives and tells them that any fool knows that enlistments are taken care of in the R.O.T.C. room.

Peeking into the office we see that serious office assistant, Donna Guemple, calmly using the office files to find people's middle names to use in her profitable blackmail business.

And so our story ends. I couldn't think of a real first-class ending, although Mr. Crocker made several suggestions—some of them including the furnace and wastebasket. I didn't take them though—Reconsidering, however, maybe I should have taken the wastebasket—we could use an extra one at home.
