JACK DAVENPORT '49

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

The President of the United States in the name of The Congress takes pride in presenting the MEDAL OF HONOR posthumously to

CORPORAL JACK A. DAVENPORT,
UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS,

for service as set forth in the following

CITATION:

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty while serving as a Squad Leader in Company G, Third Battalion, Fifth Marines, First Marine Division (Reinforced), in action against enemy aggressor forces in the vicinity of Songnae-Dong, Korea, early on the morning of 21 September 1951. While expertly directing the defense of his position during a probing attack by hostile forces attempting to infiltrate the area, Corporal Davenport, acting quickly when an enemy grenade fell into the foxhole which he was occupying with another Marine, skillfully located the deadly projectile in the dark and, undeterred by the personal risk involved, heroically threw himself over the live missile, thereby saving his companion from serious injury or possible death. His cool and resourceful leadership were contributing factors in the successful repulse of the enemy attack and his superb courage and admirable spirit of self-sacrifice in the face of almost certain death enhance and sustain the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service. Corporal Davenport gallantly gave his life for his country."

As far as we know the following Paseo boys lost their lives in the Korean struggle.

Swimming, dancing, music, and bridge pretty well take care of her extra time. Next year Sandra will attend M.U. and from there she hopes to become a Home Economist on T.V.

GARY WRIGHT—See class officers.

GRAHAM WRIGHT—It seems that Graham spends most of his time "just running around." He would like to attend San Francisco Jr. College next year, where he will study to be a "$20,000 a year" business man.

JERRY ZITTERMAN—Zit's most important job was being custodian of the Chemistry Club. He was also secretary of Keats, on the Inter-club Council, president of his homeroom, on the Honor Roll, Student Council, and played football. His favorite hobby is singing, a talent he displayed in A Cappella for two years. After attending either Oklahoma or M.U., Jerry would like to be a lawyer or a popular singer.

MAC RODDIS—Mac spent most of his time going from class to class here at Paseo. After graduation he plans to be a mechanic.

WILLIAM STEPHENS—While attending Paseo, dramatics was William's main interest. He appeared in several of the productions put on by the drama department. We wish him luck in the future.

TERRY VAUGHN—Terry occupied his time by going from class to class. His plans for the future are undecided, but we wish him luck in whatever he does.

Alma Mater

On her hill Paseo towers
Fair and strong and high,
Shaken not by wind and tempest,
Pointing to the sky,
Catching on her lofty turrets
Dawn and sunset glow;
Grant that we in all our living
Equal beauty show.

Chorus

Dear Paseo, Alma Mater,
Pledge we now to thee,
Mind and hand, and heart's devotion,
Sworn to loyalty.

Here today we proudly gather
Bringing thee our youth.
Guide our hands in high endeavor,
Stamp our hearts with truth.
Make us ready, hold us steady
Wherever we may go,
That Paseo's noble precepts
All the world may know.

Senior Will

As the pirates of "54" roam Paseo's halls for the last time they leave the treasures they have gathered here to the Junior Class in hope that they will long be remembered.

Ann Taylor and Fred Paulsen have really worked hard for our alma mater and they feel that Charles Hart and Ruthie Palmgren are following close at their heels.

Don Beard and Debbie Shure appear to have very promising futures which they pass on to Eugene Fabes and Carol Ronemous.

Those typical pirates, Mary Ann Taylor and Don Moor, pass on their secret to Bob Trutzel and Cynthia Greb.

Phil Williams and Donna Howard will their bubbling personalities to Dean Moor and Shirley Hand, who, incidentally, already have a head start.

That busy telephone and all those admirers of Kent Crippin and Sherry Nichols are now being transferred to Jim Jepson and Gretchen Wendegatz.

The two who really have scored for Paseo this year, Gary Wright and Jane Davenport, believe that Pat O'Connor and Karen Laws will set new records next year.

That big broad grin of John Gallup and Sophie Stathopoulos is now the property of Debbie Katz and Jim Green.

Norman Friedman and Martha Stephens who are now appearing in their latest stage hit, "Stardom," announced the coming attraction will feature Teddy Shane and Kathy Horridge.

Out there in the middle of the floor, cuttin'-up-the-rug are Jerry Zitterman and Louise Willits. They better move over for here come John Hanna and Sandy Bass with a style all their own.

George Leach and Kay Hanson check their high silk hat and sables with Janet Jackson and Jerrold McPherron who are having a hard time finding room in their overcrowded wardrobe closets.

"Evil Eye" Jegen hands his priceless possession over to Pat Dedrick, while Billie Ross wills that real coy look to Patti French. Use them well, kids.

As Bill Funk and Kathy McAninch gaze into the mirror on the wall, they see none other than Dottie Owens and Dick Turpin. Beware Hollywood, here they come.

Joan Hooper with her size 10 waistline passes it on to none other than Marilyn Martin.

"Muscles" Rodgers leaves his Charles Atlas bar-bells in care of Herb Rubin.

A splotch here and another there turns out to be a real masterpiece when Barbara Morganstein holds the brush. She has been giving private lessons to Georgia Stephens.

Fred Lutz wills his ability to take those crazy pictures to a real "cameraman," Clarence Refer.

Who could be more deserving of Gary Barnards shoulders than Moe Kleinstein. Poor guy — he needs them so badly.

Don Keilhack has so much musical talent that he is passing it on to Rodger Carlson and Norman Ernsting. These fellows show fine promise.

Pat McCullough sings real "purty." Her echo is none other than Judy Volkuwitz.

When you hear a long low whistle down the hall, you can be sure it is Jim Kessler. Who will be taking over his line next year? Could it be Stan Dolginoff? Hm!

Margie Bullock passes down her hair to Sandy Rhonemus. Real, real red.

The Senior Class wills its best known couple to Joanne Christensen and Eric Lengquist.

As the seniors of '54 start out on different pathways of life, they take with them the wonderful years they have spent and the friends they have made here at Paseo. We only hope that all the other students will gain as much knowledge and happiness from her as we have.

Senior Prophecy

All Aboard! All Aboard! Our Atomic powered submarine is about to take off into the year "1964." Want to see what tricks those crazy pirates will be up to then? Just step this way!

What's this I hear? A rocket ship to '64? Man, what an opportunity. Let's see, just enough slugs. — Goodby pinball money — This should be neat.

Last call. Everyone aboard. We're off. Hey Reiff, slide out of that chair and light one of those firecrackers to the bomb. Hop to, boy. Make that engine go. Who's that giving all the orders? That captain's hat is so big it hides his face. Wait, I'll peek. Well, I'll be. It's "Name" Wolf. Boy, he has really gone up in this world. Gee, those faces look familiar — I could swear I've seen this crew before. Why they're Sturges, Saeger, Ample, Pucker, Birnbaum, Spack, Carlson, Dezzani, and Rozann Davis. What a combination? Wow, have times changed. Think I'll meander around. What crazy characters could be sitting around and playing (Cross Over The Bridge) at this tense moment. Who else, you guessed it, they are Janie Carpenter, Thompson, Corder, and Timms. Hi gang! Still at it I see. Uh-oh. From the top of the deck, Nancee. Let's watch that stuff. So long ya'll. See you later. Oh no, that couldn't be, but it is — Wolkey and Gallup messin' around on the flag pole. Feel that cool breeze and that water splashing over the side. Man, those water pistols are real powerful. Whoops! There went another down the hatch.

What a smooth ride — almost like sliding down a banister. Help! Wha happened? We crashed into an island. What a mess. Who are those mangy looking characters? What's this a reception party? Shall we all climb out to the neat music of Barb Miner, Dolores Coyle, Laura Noell, Carol Moon, and Gordon Smith.

Look at this place. This must be the sunken island. Don Mitchell, put away your easel. From the looks of things we'll be here a long while.

If it isn't Phyllis Hancock, official medicine man coming to our rescue with Sandy Hartman as assistant witch-doctor. And here comes "big chief Shouse" with a peace offering. What a measly piece of . . . His chief advisor, Buddy Martin, is whispering something in his ear. What's the good word?

Here comes a congo line. And who's leading the bunny hop but Janice Lettas. The girls with the best hop are Barb Rosenfeld, Delores Brenner, Joyce Nevey, Delores West, Shirley Harrison, Dorothy Fogel, Phyllis Longmore, Sandy Wooldridge, Marybeth Lane, and Connie Sharp. Gad! That line goes clear around the island. So this is what has become of the old gang.

Bill Rinard has been busy repairing the ship and we are ready to rocket back.

Okay, gang, let's go. Everybody aboard? Then sound off, one, two, three, four . . . Blast away, men. It sure has been fun glancing into the future, but now let's zoom back home. Ship ahoy, mates. And so this closes another chapter in Paseo's Log. Who knows what other adventures the future may bring.

I have just compiled my latest edition of the experiences we had on our last voyage. Abramson's Real Gone Scribblings promises to be a best seller. Be sure and get your copy now.

Junior Officers

CHARLES HART — Where ability, popularity, and intelligence end, and Charles begins is impossible to determine. Being president of his Junior Class is just one of Charlie's many honors. He was editor-in-chief of the Press, treasurer of Engineers, reporter of Discussion Club, member of Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society, Debators, Traffic Squad, Student Council executive board, and City Hall Day. When he gained second place in the American Legion district oration contest, it was just another service to Paseo.

RUTH PALMGREN — Ruthie's winning ways have rewarded her by being elected gift receiver of the Juniors. This honor can be added to her others, such as being associate editor of the Press, cheerleader, reporter of A Cappella, treasurer of Y-Teens, member of Zetas, Mask and Wig, Discussion Club, Quill and Scroll, Mixer Committee, and the High Honor Roll.

JIM JEPSON — Jim's pleasing personality and ability have led him many places, and being vice-president of his class was one of the finest. Besides lettering in football and track, he was a member of the Chemistry Club, Keats, Traffic Squad, Letterman's Club, Student Council, and High Honor Roll. Being president of the French Club and appointed to City Hall Day rounded out his junior year.

DOROTHY OWENS — As secretary of her class, Dottie will continue her fine activities at Paseo. Her name graces the rolls of the Pep Club, Zetas, Mask and Wig, and the Mixer Committee. This year she also was secretary of the Interclub Council.

TED SHANE — Counting the money was reliable Ted Shane's responsibility. He is a member of Keats, Letterman's Club, and on the football and track teams. Ted also won the poetry reading cup this year and played one of the leads in the fall play.

DEAN MOOR — Reporting the news for his class was Dean's job. Before he goes to K.U., he hopes to continue his present activities like Keats and Traffic Squad. This year he was the fourth page editor of the Press and next year will serve on the Paseo staff.

DICK TURPIN — Dick, Junior Class sergeant-at-arms is quite a typical Pirate. He plays second team football and basketball, while being a member of Lettermen's Club and Keats. Right now he would like to attend J.C. and then K.U. for a mechanical engineering career.
