Dedication

It is with the utmost gratitude and appreciation that we, the Paseon staff of nineteen sixty-seven, proudly dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Luther Crocker, the advisor of the Paseon for the past twenty-one years.

Mr. Crocker, not only devoted his ideas and advice, but also countless hours of his time, patience, and knowledge to the making of the yearbook. With his counseling the Paseon in the previous years won many honors.

Although Mr. Crocker has relinquished his roll of Paseon advisor, we will endeavor to carry on the high ideals and standards he set for our yearbook.

Paseo gets a face lifting!

Deborah, no one can sit in the pep club section without a uniform.

Where's the R.O.T.C.

Practice may be long but this is ridiculous.

An exchange editor's day may not always run so smoothly.

The chief returns with high hope for the school on the hill.

A Friday pep rally spurs the team on to victory.

The side line waits to see if they're in on the next play.

Well, we're waiting, is the ball ours or not?

This is the way we wash our clothes . . .

At 3:15 everyone goes their own way.

Coach Art Davis

Varsity

Paseo's 1966 Varsity football squad finished with a 3-6-1 record and took seventh place in the Interscholastic League. The hard fighting Pirates were honored to have three first team all-stars and four Honorable Mention all-stars this year. This was the highest number of all-stars ever to be named from a Paseo team. Under the guidance of Coaches Bob Gauldin and Art Davis and Tri-Captains Bob Evans, Don McBride, and Mike McKinney, the team fought hard through every match on the gridiron—win or lose.

Staff learns full process of producing THE PASEO PRESS.

THE PASEO PRESS

Paseo High School, Kansas City, Mo.

Friday, Oct

The PASEO PRESS is published bi-weekly during the school year by the Newswriting class of Paseo High School. The class is composed of 26 juniors and seniors. There are eight editors for each paper published, an advertising manager, a business manager, and the others are reporters. Mrs. Mariam Simon is the Newswriting instructor and Press adviser.

Last year the PASEO PRESS received the Kansas City Star Award of Excellence, a Special Excellent Award from the Missouri Interscholastic Press Association. The PASEO PRESS was also rated All-American by the National Scholastic Press Association.

AND THEY'RE OFF!

The Student Council officers and the Student Council began the year by sponsoring the annual Football Homecoming Dance, and an all school paper sale and Paseo sweatshirt sale to help raise funds for school activities. During the second semester the Student Council sponsored the Basketball Homecoming Dance, the Junior-Senior prom, and a talent show. Under achievements the Student Council and its committees can claim: boosting school spirit, innovating a crime alert program, to keep the newly painted walls and revarnished auditorium chairs in good condition, and enlivening the showcases with interesting displays.

When in doubt, snip it out.

Digesting delightfully delicious dishes.

Frances Gray

What do you say we just start over?

David Stark is representing Paseo for a year in Japan. The family of Dr. Yamamoto is David's appointed guardian. He is residing in Gifu-ken, Japan, and attending Gifukita High School.

Francis Gray represented Paseo last year as an exchange student to Vichy, France. She stayed with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Francois Pacaud.

Paseo is host this year to Karl Wiklund, from Angermanland, Sweden. He is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Englebart.

International A.F.S. started as an offshoot of A.F.S. in the Fall of '66. Its goal is to give its members a more through understanding of foreign neighbors through visitors, lectures, and activities centered around the customs and standards of the various nations. The basic purpose of the club is the continuation of an exchange of students. The financing of such exchanges is aided by various fund-raising activities. Mr. Beamer is the club sponsor.

Row 1: Yvonne Hayes, Karl Herb Day, Sherry Booth, David Rindom, Suzy Nap Doris Coffee, Harold Todd, Jones, Harvey Alexander, Lindsey, Tom Sitton, Willie rah DePriest.

Under the able direction of Mr. M.L. Cater Paseo's band has provided Paseo with music throughout the year.

The band performed in the halftime activities of our football games, the American Royal Parade, Fall Concert, All City Band Festival, the annual ROTC in spection, Spring Concert, and commencement. The band also played at three grade schools in the Paseo district.

The programs were often highlighted by Paseo's twirling Majorettes. The band's new uniforms this year added much to the appearance and meant much to each member. The band officers for this year were President Melvin Porter, Vice-Pres. Larry Saxton, Secretary Susie Napper, Librarian Yvonne Hayes, Drum Major David Rindom.

Mr. Cater, Band Director, gives the downbeat.

This year Paseo High was well represented in the Youth Red Cross Field. Five representatives were sent to the annual Junior Red Cross Convention, held at the Unity Farm. The purpose of this convention was to educate students on the origin, history, and functions of Junior Red Cross in the Greater Kansas City Area. During Christmas, Mike McKinney, Boris Sztorch, Carl Wiklund, Zenobia Downton, Shirley White, Meri Ewing, Diane Bingham, Julie Kass and Kathy Rogers represented all the Kansas City Area High Schools, at Veterans Hospital, delivering the Christmas stockings. Paseo had representatives at all the executive Junior Red Cross Executive Board meetings, held at the downtown headquarters.

The American Association of University Women tries to encourage young women to continue their education through college. One hundred girls, 10 each from area high schools, make up the club. Each year, five juniors are chosen on the basis of scholastic achievement, leadership abilities and participation. It is a life membership.

Every year the girls tour an area college. This year they took a bus trip to Kansas University in Lawrence Kansas February 22, 1967. They spent the whole day touring the campus, dormitories and getting acquainted with some of the actual college students.

Varsity

Paseo's Varsity basketball team had a season's record of 22 wins and 5 losses. Under the coaching of Bill Ross the Pirates finished second in the Interscholastic League, with only one loss. Our boys took first place in the Pem-Day and Heart of America Tournaments; third place was won in the Interscholastic league tournament. It can be said that the '66-'67 basketball team had a winning season.

CLUBS

Pep Club—Spirit

The Pep Club made tremendous changes. There has been a change of officers due to the graduation of the President and the short dayschedule of the Vice-President. The newly elected officers were Cecilia Jackson, President; Norma Duncan, Vice-Pres., Sharolyn Spinner, Secretary; Sharon Thompson who retained her office as treasurer, and Shirley Cannon, Sgt.-at-Arms.

The new activities that Pep Club sponsored were Pirate Playboy, and Candy Apple Sales, Track Meets, that were required by the Pep Club girls to attend, and the main attraction of a new sponsor, Mrs. Ruth Pieters, who is one of the Girls Physical Education Teachers at Paseo.

Last spring Pep Club ordered new uniforms which brought in over 130 girls. The uniforms consisted of jerkens, pert skirts, white long sleeve blouses, red tennis shoes, and white bobby socks.

To end the year Pep Club sponsors a Sadie Hawkins Dance where Miss Peppy is crowned for Highlights of the affair.

It takes vitality, enthusiasm, time, and effort to retain the qualities of a cheerleader. These Pirates spend quite a bit of their time after school practicing to make a better cheerleading squad.

This year's uniforms consisted of red culottes with black inserts and red sweaters. Along with the red crop tops and white blouses for Basketball season, new jump-suits were acquired. These jump-suits were black with red inserts worn with white blouses.

Midtown Youth Council and Court

The Midtown Youth Council had its conception in 1951. As the result of a tragic accident which took the lives of two young people and seriously crippled a third. The accident was obviously the results of reckless teenage driving.

Midtown is only one of many courts set up throughout the city to try and make teenagers aware of the dangers of careless driving.

The idea and success of the Midtown Youth Council & Court is dependent upon the voluntary acceptance by the youth offender of a pledge not to drive for a period of time recommended by a jury. This jury consists entirely of other students, many of whom are drivers themselves.

Judge Ben Newell acquaints the jury with the facts of the violation.

National Honor Society

Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service are the four traits used as a basis for selection of students into the National Honor Society. Being selected for membership is one of the highest tributes that can be paid to a Paseo student. Membership is limited to ten per cent of the seniors who must rank in the upper fourth of their class, and three percent of the juniors, who must have a minimum grade index of 3.6. The National Honor Society is symbolized by the gold membership pin which depicts a torch and keystone. The keystone symbolizes integrity, while the torch stands for purpose.

Bradley Trophy Winner

This Bradley Trophy is the highest award given to a girl participating in the intramural program. Cynthia Ferguson was selected by the girls' physical education teachers because of her outstanding ability and sportsmanship.

Interest in physical education is kept up in class by offering a variety of team and individual sports. Girls learn to handle a hockey stick, swing a ball bat, and the techniques of basketball.

Outside of class, sports-minded girls can take part in intramurals and sportsday teams. The intramural activities are open to girls from all five classes. Eighth graders who meet the necessary requirements earn an Eighth grade shield. The Small Shield, Large Shield, and Paseo P are awarded to freshmen and upperclassmen. Seniors who have taken part in the intramural activities for five years and do extra sports work are presented the Senior Pin.

and effort

In the beginning: "What a year this is going to be!"

Is this music?

For students and... uh... outside dates.

Work, set up type, and PRESS.

Sie this? Now, learn it.

Don't fire till you see the whites of their eyes.

Norma Duncan and Rosetta Nunn, crop pictures for layouts.

Paseon Staff

Mike McKinney and Jimmie Downton check over accounts.

162 Making layouts and writing copy are Marcus Robinson and Rhonda Harris.

Aaron Mermelstein took all of the informal pictures.

Making appointments for pictures are Liz McCarty and Joyce Schaffer.

Checking layout mats and copy is Mr. Hutton, the staff advisor.

As co-editors, Meri Ewing and Phyllis Stevens worked to meet the deadline.

And last, but not least, is the PASEON staff which has endeavored to capture and record the spirit and activities of Paseo with pictures, headlines, and copy.

Amid all the confusion of copy sheets, layout mats, and photographer schedules the staff of seniors whose job it was to produce the 1967 PASEON met their responsibilities head-on. They have tried to produce an interesting yearbook which would stand as a goal for future staffs.

Kathy Rogers, first semester editor, began the task of producing the 1967 PASEON and worked with it until February when Meri Ewing and Phyllis Stevens, second semester co-editors, finished the job. Aaron Mermelstein, junior, took all informal pictures. Joyce Schaffer and Liz McCarty scheduled the picture taking. Teresa Hatfield, Julie Kass, and Rodney Wood typed the copy. Rosetta Nunn, Jimmy Downton, and Mike McKinney produced the Sports sections of the PASEON. Marcus Robinson and Rhonda Harris did the Faculty section and Norma Duncan concentrated her efforts on the Clubs section. Mr. Hutton, advisor, backed the staff and its activities, often helping with layouts and copy.

The deadlines have been met and you are holding the finished product in your hands. We hope this 1967 PASEON will serve as an enjoyable record of 1966-67.

Advisor—Mr. Hutton. First Semester Editor—Kathy Rogers. Second Semester Co-Editors—Meri Ewing, Phyllis Stevens.
