COME ON ALONG . . .

... to the place where you want to belong - PASEO HIGH SCHOOL - where the excitement and never-ending learning experiences made this one of the most exciting years ever. From the teachers to the students, the security guards to the office personnel, a thread of excitement ran through each and every one of us. Stemming from the promises of a good year - a victorious Homecoming to an exceptional graduating class - the year became complete. Now the classes of '84, '85, and '86 look forward to their years of reign - their time for educational enrichment and reflection on the 1982-1983 school year!

I ain't got nothin' to lose.

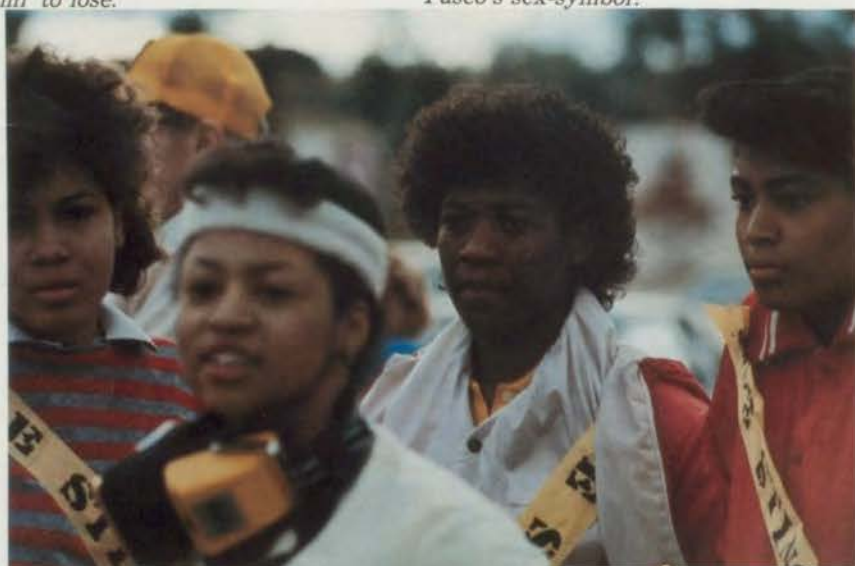

Paseo's sex-symbol?

That's right, we bad!

I used to have a shirt like that- til mom got a job.

Pirates reflect on their friend, Joe.

Dancin' in the streets.

What you talkin' about, Vincent?

Take this food and SHOVE IT, we ain't eatin' here no more!

I say, good fellow, would it be an inconvenience for you to remove your skull from my abdomen?

It's elementary my dear Jackie, elementary.

DEPARTURE OF FRIENDS

*As I sit and reminisce of past days
While thinking of my future and what might have become of yours
So shall God guide the way
Whether we travel the road to advance knowledge or attempt life's many goals
but never once stopping to think that we could enter the gates of the unknown
But here I still sit and reminisce of school days
and the fun we made
And now the time has come that we must travel on taking each step one by one
So if by chance we miss each other on our way
my heart is here to say*

*My love for you will always stay
While giving tribute to you in every way*

The future misfits of America

He only opens his mouth when he has nothing to say.

Weavin' Robbins.

It's easy to see through people who make spectacles of themselves.

Boys, as usual, never know what's happening!

The underclassmen listen attentively in hopes of becoming "SENIORS!"

I never could understand simple American language!

Paseo High- CUTIE PIE?

One day they'll learn- one must work to excell.

STACY- One must not make such threatening expressions!

Inspite of my dull senses, I'm still cool!

Gosh-I wasn't prepared for picture taking today.

These are the best jeans I have.

This year's Ugly Teacher Contest featured sixteen of Paseo's finest. Over $300 was raised by these dedicated, hard-working instructors. Last year's 1st runner-up, Mrs. Ann Hurt, finished on top and was crowned our queen on Valentines Day. Top finalists were: R. Buford, K. Mendenhall, M. Wiggins, W. Bowie, and C. Grace.

The winner, with escort, Jesse Phillips.

The loser, Mr. Hopkins, gets creamed.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1982-83 Paseo Pirate Varsity Football team had a difficult year. Besides being haunted by last year's success, there was the first game tragedy that resulted in the serious injury of one of our best and most popular players, Joe Stinson. However, through it all, the "Pirate Spirit" prevailed and the team finished the season with a 5-5 overall record. We salute them.

We're so hard.

We're gonna win for Joe.

SPIRIT OF THE SPIKE

Volleyball is so exciting.

Hit the ball to me!

Alright, you've got 15 seconds to find the ball!

The 1982-83 Varsity Volleyball Team rallied to a 3-5 overall record this year to complete the season. Many may not be impressed but the Pirates are proud because of the fact that they lost 4 starting players this year. The PA-SEON wishes to give our Varsity Volleyball Team a hand.

It's none of my business why there's an aardvark in the middle of the floor.

CO-CAPTAINS

It is only fair to mention that besides being exclusive members of the class of 83, these talented co-captains were chosen to play on the All-Star Interscholastic Volleyball Team, Dorcas Harvey on the first team, and Deobrah Gardner on the second team. We are PROUD OF THEM!

PIRATE POWER, evident in everything we do. This year, Paseo's Boys Varsity Basketball team rallied in spirit and performance with victory after victory, and a Homecoming that made us proud to be Pirates, inspite of the outcome. In a CLOSE victory by Wyandotte, the Pirates gave the Bulldogs a serious run for their money. We salute our Boys Varsity Basketball Team.

ALL MY CHILDREN'S FAILED GRADES

As mild-mannered Mrs. Wiggins starts a new day full of educational opportunities for some potential cut-throat, there is a knock at the door

Why it's Candy Biggins, Paseo's leading-cheap-floosy-bimbo, with fire in her eyes, and meat between her teeth!

She has received an "F" in personal hygiene, and she's plenty mad about it. "I'll get you for this!"

She exits with meat on her breath.

Just as Mrs. Wiggins recovers from the smell of Candy's breath, there comes yet another knock at the door

It's Buckwheat Campbell, junior, voted most likely to kill his family! (Boy is he dumb.)

He failed English! And is he mad! (Boy is he dumb) I'mo muin you! I'mo muin you tareer! you tan't flunk me, I'm de bes English tudent in de world!"

After slinging her bifocals to the floor, he leaves.

As Mrs. Wiggins struggles to regain her sight, another knock at the door ...

It's Patty Roby, Paseo's biggest cheerleader. She failed her aerobics class and is afraid she won't graduate.

Between bites (of her peanut butter and fish sandwich), she threatens her! (Boy is she fat!)

Then she leaves. (And for some reason the earth quakes at the same time!)

"Oh will my torment never end!?", "Mrs. Wiggins cries. Then, another knock

It's Wilson Forbish III, all decked out in a cute little tennis outfit. But Wilson has never failed a class ever! What could he want?

"I wanted to be a cheerleader! If Janet can make it anybody can! I demand justice, you vamp!" He slaps her with his all leather glove!

"I'll get you for this chile!" He leaves gracefully.

Meanwhile, an interesting sign is being constructed

And placed on the back of Paseo's biggest coach!

Unaware of anything, (and we mean anything) Coach starts down the hall when ... the first kick strikes.

Still in oblivion, he is once again struck by the foul foot of fate.

Will this man never wake up to reality???

The final insult — being kicked by a Forbish!

A Snitch!!!

Missus-A-Wiggins is framed!!

To the unemployment line she goes! She'll be eating cat food and living in Wayne Minor for the rest of her days!

WHO DUNNIT?

Was it Candy?

Candy was questioned but she was able to prove that she spent the entire day picking her teeth.

Was it Buckwheat?

Naw, all he can spell is H-2-O!

Was it Patti?

Nope. She can't eat and think at the same time!

Was it Wilson?

Negative. He had a manicurist swear that he spent the whole day in the chair. (Get it? At a beauty parlor!)
