South's Selections

Choose your preference
Raytown South is composed of many different types of people, which accounts for the uniqueness at our school. Groups can make or break a school depending on how they are perceived. At South the many classifications include; "freaks", "jocks", and "preps". All the groups combined at our school gives a special personality that makes Ratown South so diverse.

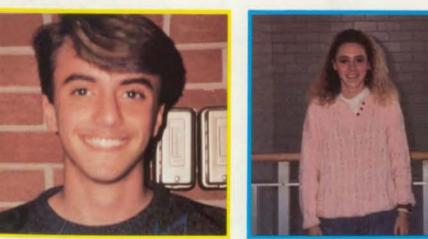

Carrie Lyons , Leslie Knapp , and Kelli Moriondo are happy to be friends.

"I think that it is good that there are many different kinds of people in our school, it gives everyone a chance to belong."-Freshman, Ben Abusaada

"I think groups limit the number of people you get to know for what they are inside."-Sophomore, Tatum Hardinger

"I believe that there is a wide amount of activities for students to participate in. This accounts for a diverse atmosphere and enhances creativity."-Mr. Jones

"Cliques are fine as long as you are content with your position, but they leave so many people out because of some standards."-Senior, Paul Hooper

"I'm glad that there is such a variety of activities for students to become involved in . I believe that it can really enrich your high school years." Junior, Barb Craig

Senior's Preference

This page is dedicated to showing you what the Seniors of 1989 preferred. Many things change from your freshman to your senior year. The way you dress, walk through the halls, think about your future, and just plain wake up in the morning, differs from when you walked in the high school doors for the first time and when you entered for the last time.

Your senior year consist of making many decisions. The biggest of them all is where to spend the next four years of your life. Then there are the less worried about ones like, how many announcements to order or which senior picture to put in the yearbook.

Because your senior year will be an unforgettable one, we've asked the seniors of 1989 questions that relate to their high school years and afterwards.

SENIOR EXTRAS

Senior extras are all those objects which requires you or your parent to reach into your pocket and pull out the big green bills. You can order any where from 1 to 500 or more graduation announcements. Most of the Seniors at South ordered the mini packet or around 35 announcements plus the added extras: memory book, keychains, photoalbums, etc, etc, etc..., which cost them around $75 to $100.

yoichi Toyosaki

is from the southern part of Finland.
During her visit to Raytown South, she stayed with Jennifer Worthington. A few of her favorite things to do are listen to music and downhill snow ski. When she returns to Finland, she will continue her high school education and then go on to the university. She also has plans to tour Europe. She has made many good friends, and was glad to be a Ray South student this year.

Toy

is nineteen years old and from Japan. He lived with Mark Dye's family. When he returns home to Japan, he'd like to study at the university. While in America, he enjoyed the beautiful scenery, numerous parks with recreational facilities, and the fact that things are generally inexpensive.

Thomas

is from Denmark While here at South, he stayed with Pam and Dave Ireland. Thomas describes himself as being happy and an eager learner. He is determined to meet new people and try new ideas. When he returns home, he plans on training in gymnastics.

was an exchange student from Colombia. His host brother was Mike Newsome. Felipe enjoyed living in America, because most everyone was friendly and the schoolwork was easier.
One difference he noted was most teens here have a car and a job, and in Colombia that is rare. When he returns to his country, he plans on studying medicine at the university.

In Spain ...

Stephanie Kirkpatrick

lived in the city of Seville for one month. Some of the historical things she saw were the Plaza de Espana, the Gold Tower, and the Geraldo Tower. She says it was an excellent experience and would recommend it to anyone.

In Greece ...

Tricia Kenworthy

visited Athens, Rafina, Portorafti and Zykathos, a coastal island. Some of the activities she participated in included going to beach bonfires, discotheques and cafes. She also saw the Acropolis, Olympia and Delphi.

In Australia ...

Glory Vaughn

a South senior, lived in Adelaide, South Australia for 6 months. For part of her trip, she attended an allgirls prep school. She visited the Canberra National Territory, Melbourne, Sydney and the London Bridge.

In Australia ...

spent 2 months in Wadonga, Victoria, where he attended a public school and enjoyed snow skiing, playing rugby and eating vegemite. The remainder of his time he was outdoor camping and went backpacking, canoeing and rock climbing.

Homecoming princes and princesses were a new addition that created much controversy. The idea was to involve more students and update our standing traditon. Some believed this goal was accomplished and would like to see it continue. Others felt that it intringed on the privilege and prestige of being a senion. It is up to the student body to decide what is best for our school, a contemporary change involving all students or a lasting tradition that is a senior honor ... choose your prefer-PMCP.

Selections

Spirit at South is something we have strived towards but have not completely obtained until now. Attendance at all sporting events increased greatly this year as did spirited, fan participation. This urged our teams on to victories that they would not have captured without this support, and heightened the fun of going to games.

For the sake of pride in our school it will be important to maintain this attitude in the future.

The choice is up to you!

Raytown South underwent many changes in the administration during the past few years. The most recent and major one being the new principal, Dr. Robert Blaine. Bringing numetious years of experience and high expectations, Dr. Blaine has the capability to lead our school effectively. We're glad you selected South.

The Senior Ballot is by Seniors, for Seniors, and done to represent Seniors. Each year, the person selected to do the Senior Ballot has the opportunity to pick the categories and carry out the nominations for the final election. This year, the Ballot was done a little differently. The Seniors elected had a good time with the idea of an "opposites" layout.

Those elected for each category were: BEST LOOKING-Shawn Johnson and Stacy Elwell. BEST DRESSED-Derrick Alexander and Anita Davis.

MOST ATHLETIC-Scott Ragland and Anna Boecker. MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED-Jason Sneed and Christy Cordes. BEST PERSONALITY-Paul Hooper and Alicia Bustamante. BEST BODY-Bill Tapp and Kim Gardner. MOST TALENTED-Richard Burgess and Suzanne Nigro. CLASS PARTIERS-Keith Ravencamp and Jamie Wise. 'TOGETHER FOREVER'-Tim Brown and Scott Thomason.

Pray For Me

Here is where the road divides Here is where we realize The sculpting of the Father's great design Thru' time you've been a friend to me But time is now the enemy I wish we didn't have to say goodbye But I know the road He chose for me Is not the road He chose for you So as we chase the dreams we're after . . . Painted on our tapestry We see the way it has to be Weaving thru' the laughter and the tears But love will be the tie that binds us To the time we leave behind us Memories will be our souvenirs And I know that thru' it all The hardest part of love is letting go But there's a greater Love that holds us . . . Pray for me and I'll pray for you Pray that we will keep the common ground Won't you pray for me and I'll pray for you And one day love will bring us back around

-Michael W. Smith and Wayne Kirkpatrick

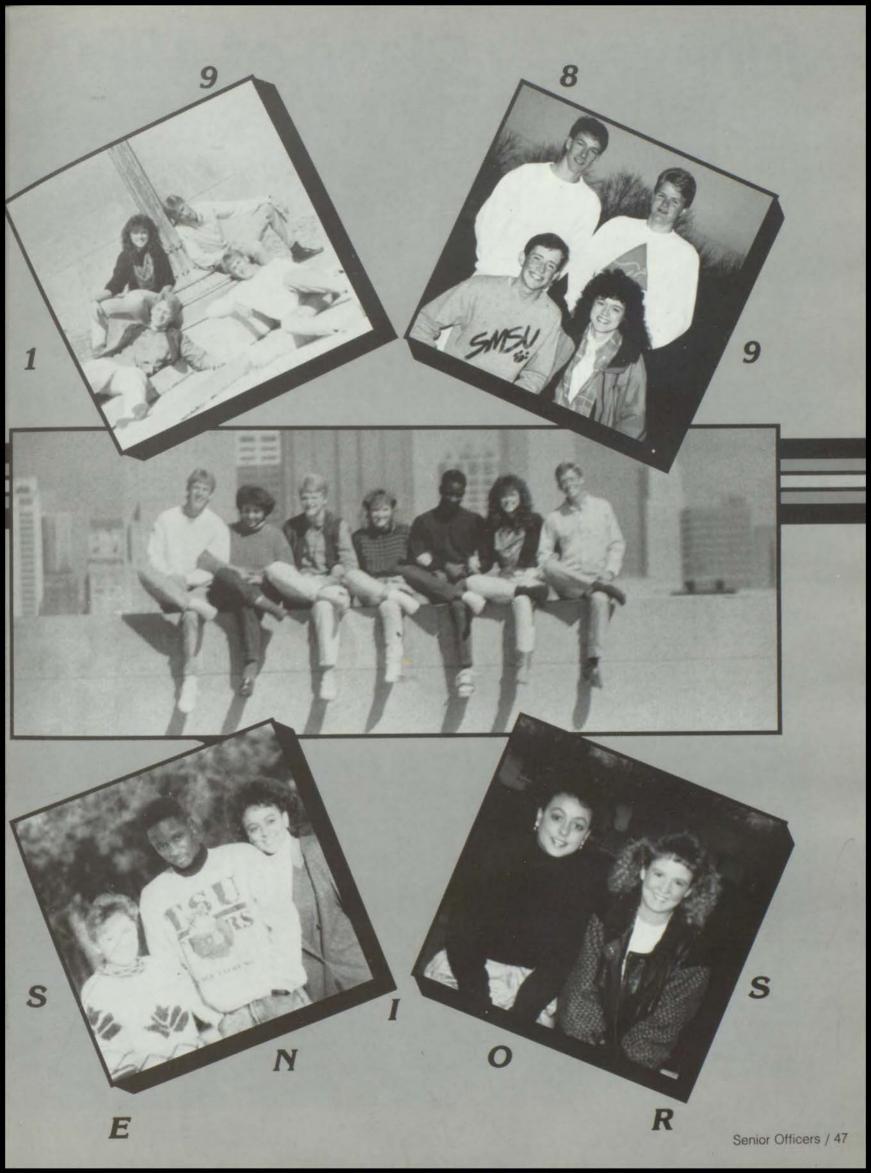

The 1989 Senior Class Officers are Graham Allen-President, Jason Sneed-Vice President, Liz Phillips-Secretary, and Paul Hooper-Treasurer. The Senior class representatives are Dee Dee Davis, Erika Fowler, and Walter Pearson. Plans were made to have a new sound system installed and dedicated as the senior class gift. Senior sweatshirts were sold to raise money for the gift. The officers organized a non school-sponsored ski trip to Colorado. Around forty seniors traveled by bus to Colorado for the weekend of January 13-16 to take a break and to hit the slopes. Copy and layout by Karen Daub. Photography by Nikki Shurack and Christy Allin

Along with selling popcorn on Fridays and working in concession stands, they sponsored an iceskating party at Crown Center on February 16 as the big fundraiser. The 1988-89 Junior Class Officers are Sara Setser-Pres., Doug King-Vice Pres., Kelly Renfrow-Sec., and Bryan Harris-Treas. The Junior Class Representatives are Kelli Moriondo, April Smith, and Jessica Sylvester. Copy and layout by Kelly Renfrow. Photography by Cade Dalton.

JUNIORS SHOW WHY

You're not the youngest or oldest, not beginning or ending; you're just existing as Juniors! As a Junior, you have the prestigous title of an UP-PERCLASSMAN. Does this title entail a new found social circuit that was only fantasized about in previous years, or just simply a brand new title fitting the third year in high school? For some it's definitely a ticket to an improved social life, but for others it's a chance to be oneself. In the end, your Junior year is only what you make it. No matter how you view your Junior year, good or bad, your Senior year still awaits, and without a doubt it will be the best year yet!!! Copy and layout by Kelly Renfrow. Photography by Cade Dalton.

Class Rings

Juniors have the privilege to select a class ring. As upperclassmen, they've survived a lot ... classes and more classes ... tests and exams ... good friends and best friends ... boyfriends and girlfriends ... happy times and those that aren't ... weekdays and weekends ... athletics and clubs. No matter what is done with these class rings after high school graduation, they will be a lasting reminder of the years spent at Raytown South

Melissa Larson kept busy during her summer vacation by going on a mission trip to the island of Curacao. After she was selected for this trip, she was required to participate in many fundraising activities including a Chief's Stadium Clean-up, a huge garage sale, and a Dinner Theater. "It was a lot of work, but well worth it," says Melissa about the preparation for the trip.

On July 26, she arrived in Curacao, which is approximately sixty miles from Venezula. The purpose of the trip was to establish a new church. A typical day involved going door to door in a small group to invite the people to the nightly tent crusades. Free time in the afternoon was usually spent on the beach or shopping, and evenings were spent at the crusades.

Recalls Melissa of the whole experience, "As I look back, it's not the beautiful beaches, clear water, or the great snorkling that I remember most, but rather it's the way our group matured and grew spiritually." Copy and layout by Kelly Renfrow. Photography by Cade Dalton.

Being a Junior, things are looking up. With your class ring on your finger, you now command the respect of underclassmen. This year, school seems to be better since you have more of a selection of courses to take. The five minute passing period between classes is the perfect time to gather with friends and catch up on the latest gossip. Now that you have been driving for a year, your parents trust you enough to give you full access to a car, which gives you the freedom to manage going to after school activities and getting to work on time. Friday is the long awaited light at the end of a tunnel of work. You now have an active social life, so your school day on Friday becomes a mass planning period for the weekend. Whether you go to the football or basketball game, go to a party, go see a movie, go ice skating, spend time with your boyfriend or girlfriend, or just rent a movie and stay home, the weekend offers lots of fun and plenty of time to relax and enjoy life! DEFINITION OF soph*o*more n. (Gk. sophos, wise + Gk. moros, foolish.) 1. A second-year student in an American college or high school. 2. One in the second year of an endeavor.

Everyone knows that a Sophomore is a second-year student in high school, but more importantly, it is someone in the second year of an endeavor. That endeavor is to successfully survive high school.

We all begin this journey as Freshmen. The decisions and choices we have are few. Upon reaching Sophomore status, things begin to change. We have matured to the point where we are entrusted with more choices, greater freedoms, and most of all, the responsibility of driving. What we didn't realize is that we have begun to cross over into the adult world. The joy of the Sophomore celebration has now become the adult world of responsibility. Fourth hour not only marks the half-way point of the school day, but it also signals lunch. Lunch, not only tasty cuisine served in the cafeteria, but lunch, a time to meet with friends. It is a time to break away from the rigorous pressures of school, or a time to catch up on the latest gossip and plan for the weekend. Even though it only last twenty minutes, for most, it is the most productive time of the day.

Being a Freshmen, choices were limited. As teachers have said, "The older you get, the more choices you have." This held true when it came time to make out your schedule. The first thing that came to mind was Driver's Education. As exciting as it is to legally get behind the wheel of a car, you are quickly brought back to reality with a two hour Modern America block which you must face every other day.

Upon turning sixteen most kids receive the keys to the family car, or better yet, a car of their own. With this new found freedom, you finally inherit a social life. You no longer have to worry about whose mom is going to drop the gang off at the game. Nor do you have to make plans to be picked up at Godfather's afterwards. With this new life, you needn't worry about being seen with your parents. Instead, you have to worry about car insurance, gas money, car payments, and curfews. Copy and layout by Todd Feaster. SOPHOMORES EXPLORE

Never before has a Sophomore been given so many opportunities to participate in extra curricular activities. No matter what interests you have, there is surely a club, sport, or organization that is right for you. Whether it is involvement in extra curricular activities, or the classroom, everyone is given the chance to excel. Copy and layout by Todd Feaster. Photography by Tim Eagan.

Most people know Rebecca Behrends for the work she does in school, but few know of her accomplishments in helping the world's needy. In past years, Rebecca and the rest of her family have traveled to Thailand, Honduras, Kenya, Guatemala, and El Salvador. With the LARRY JONES FEED THE CHILDREN program, she has been to some of the poorest areas of the world. This summer she hopes to return to Guatemala and again help the less fortunate.

Adolescence is beginning High School, and finding out how difficult final exams are.

Adolescence is going shopping in the mall, looking for the perfect prom dress.

Adolescence is giggling with your friends, and flirting with the cute guy.

Adolescence is acting like a delinquent.

Adolescence is getting your driver's license, and arguing with your parents, and sitting in detention hall because you were late to class.

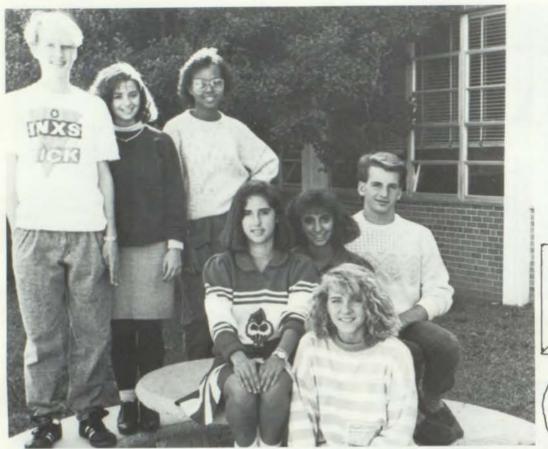

Adolescence is worrying about your looks, and wearing in-style clothes, and going to the school play because you need the extra credit.

Adolescence is starting to make your own decisions, and taking charge of your life.

Jennifer Sneed was crowned Royal Miss America, August 30th, in Las Vegas, Nevada. There were fifty girls competing for the title. Altogether there were four competitions: talent, interviews, sportswear, and eveningwear. Some of the prizes given to her were: a trophy, television, and makeup. She also had a choice of four thousand dollars or a new car. She chose the money, but will not receive it until her reign is completed. There are certain responsibilities to owning the title. They include, going to regional pagents and crowning the winners, performing at Raytown Round-up Days, and next year she will crown the new Royal Miss America. Jason Sneed, her brother, says, "She's pretty hard to live with, but I guess she's a good sister."

he Southern Exposure Staff met every day the entire year and worked hard to produce newspapers that covered the student's activities, opinions, and accomplishments. They published approximately one paper every five weeks. Ms. Harrison, the advisor, stated, "It's nice to have Juniors who repeat the class as Seniors because they know what is expected, and can practically do the paper themselves."

The staff consisted of Senior Editors: Jason Sneed and Brian Spano; Associate Editors: Patrick Finney, Erica Fowler, and Mollie Shubert; Editorial Editors: Leigh Collins and Paul Walker; Sports Editor: Diane Kouba;

Business Manager: Jamal Wilson; Artist: Sara MacLeod; and Reporters: Dale Blair, Nino Casisi, Dennis Cassidy, Mandy Collins, Anita Davis, Debbie Diaz, John Heath, Beth Heidenreich, Chris Lindley, Sara MacLeod, Angie Martin, Shelly Sasher, Sara Setser, and Shawn Williams. Polaris . . . Creating Your Selection

he 1988-89 Polaris yearbook staff has worked very hard to produce a unique yearbook that would express the individuality of Raytown South. The dedication and long hours spent by the three editors and the creativity and effort by the staff members has made the yearbook a lasting rememberance of this school year. This edition is special to the staff because the yearbook was selected to be distributed to sales representatives across the nation for its display. It was chosen on the basis of the layout design, theme, and graphic arts.

The business managers, P.J. Modrell, Mike Albin, and Andrea Ryon, were in charge of selling and ordering the yearbooks, and keeping the funds for the staff. To raise money, the staff sold gift bags and sponsored a WPA dance.

Mr. Redford, the staff advisor for the past twenty-two years, commented about the twenty-seventh edition of Polaris. "This year's staff has worked hard to overcome some obstacles. They have created an outstanding record of this year's events." Copy and layout by Diane Mosier. Photography by Hugh O'Donnell and Eddie Sears.

Wrestling Cheerleaders

Make A Change

he name has changed from Grapplettes to Wrestling Cheerleaders but the responsibility is the same-cheering at wrestling activities. They have practice every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. At these practices they go over cheers, and talk about upcoming events. They sold candy to raise money for their uniforms and the extras they needed. Their sponsor, Mrs. Heigle, attends the practices and meetings. She also takes care of all the paper work.

Crystal Walker, a first year member, says, "Being a wrestling cheerleader was not what I thought it would be, but I still enjoy it. I had a lot of fun and everyone gets along well with each other."

The members are: Varsity Squad; Sandi Ashlock, Amy Cripe, Michelle Denham, Tricia Squire, and Danielle Thompson. Junior Varsity Squad; Rhonda Johnson, Janessa Lyon, Angie Mohn, Crystal Walker, and Cheri Young. Copy and layout by Sherese Johnson. Photography by Tricia Kenworthy.

Club International

ombining Foreign Language Club and Cultural Exchange, the new Club International promotes the culture of foreign countries. The club's activities include visiting ethnic restaurants, holding a Halloween and Christmas party to introduce the foreign exchange students to American traditions, and participating in the fall Homcoming parade where they received first place on their float.

The meetings were held every other Thursday and foreign refreshments were served. The exchange students talked about their countries and the local students who went to other countries told about their experiences. The officers of the club are President-Glory Vaughn, Vice President-Karen Daub, Secretary-Tricia Kenworthy, and Treasurer-Ijeoma Nosiri. he newest club at Raytown South this year deals with the art of mediation. The group of students headed by Ms. Graham, Ms. Shinn, and Mr. Gooden tries to alleviate tension in the building by offering their services as mediators and advisors. The students are selected from the applications which are received at the beginning of each school year. The members of this group are representatives of different types of students attending this school. The group, trained by a federal team of mediators, try to resolve personal conflicts between students at Raytown South. Mediators offer sensible solutions to fights that are agreeable his organization decides on all the activities for the students at Raytown South. In order to be a Student Council officer you must sign up and the students then decide. To be a Student Council Representative a designated hour must decide.

The Student Council participated in many activities this year. They had a back to school dance with Raytown High School, PTSA Open House, Freshman Orientation guides and refreshments. Fall and Winter Homecomings were also among their duties. They were in charge of the assembly, parade, game half-time and the dance after. Stu-Co sponsored Powder Puff football, Ghost Grams, United Way Campaign, Project Warmth, and the District Student Council Meeting. They hosted the annual Christmas dance and room decorating contest, Mr. Ray-South, and Senior Activity Day at the end of the year.

pirit Club cheered on the excellent teams of Raytown South. One of the reasons for this club is to give the girls the opportunity to try out for cheerleader. If you have not been a member, you may not try out the following year. The club's main purpose is to promote school spirit at all athletic activities. The girls showed their spirit by attending basketball and football games. They also sold candy and participated in a Bike-atthon

The club is sponsored by Mrs. Fisher and several appointed teachers as alternate sponsors. Their job is to attend the games to make sure the girls are doing what they are supposed to do. The club also has officers who are picked by the club.

NHS, THE LEADERS

ational Honor Society was established for distinguished students with outstanding academic and community achievements. The requirements for membership are strict, and becoming a member is not easy. Candidates must be at least a sophmore and maintain a 3.0 G.P.A. or better. Petitions must be separately filled out and given to faculty members for recommendation. The applicants are then judged on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Once inducted, members become part of one of Raytown South's most prestigious organizations. Being in National Honor Society is an honor for any student to strive for.

ponsored by Mrs. Pummill, this year's Photography Club opened for new members, new ideas and new projects.

The group met every other Tuesday to discuss fieldtrips, ideas and talk about subjects dealing with contests if extra money was needed. The large framed pictures in the school cafeteria are winners of Photography Club contests. Even though the club was not as big as some of the others, they managed to have fun and learn at the same time. The members of the 1988-89 Photography Club were: Otis Chambliss — President, Jeanine Attaway-Vice President, Shelley Sasher-Secretary, Amy Hoffman-Treasurer, Jenny Cobb-Representative, Joel Fischer, Mike Albin, Beth Heidenreich, Diana Brush, Jerry Nichols, Gillian Hutchin, Tim Eagan, Jamal Wilson, Chris Crum, Pat Mulhearn, James Crawford, Debbie Steele, Michelle Prough, and Jennifer Kault. While recruiting new members, the Business Club invited many speakers from area businesses to share information and experiences about their different jobs. GUYS AND DOLLS ...

The fall play this year was a musical called Guys and Dolls. On November 10 and 11, a crowd gathered in the auditorium to watch a large cast perform a musical that took place in the forties. The play was about a bet between two men, Nathan Detroit and Sky Masterson. Nathan had bet Sky that he couldn't get Sarah Brown to go to Cuba with him for lunch. Sarah Brown was a religious person who led a small worship group. This makes the bet a challenge. Guys and Dolls is a particular favorite of theatergoers and is revived every year throughout the nation. Copy and layout by Andrea Ryon. Photography by Lori Nordlohne and Beth Heidenreich.

WHO'S GOT THE BEST BAND?

Regiment Marching Band had a very successful marching season. They had sixty-seven playing members. seventeen colorguard, and three drum majors. In the Missouri Western State College Marching Competition, they placed first in their division, and also brought home an Outstanding Marching Performance trophy. They placed fifth out of twenty-two bands in the Greater St. Louis Marching Band Festival. The band's toughest competition came when they went to Music Bowl at CMSU. They were informed by Mr. Hartman that the other bands would be the hardest they had faced so far. He said, "We're the littlest duck in a big

It was tough, but they played, marched, and celebrated well this season. It was topped off with a trip to Florida to play in the Citrus Bowl. They flew to Orlando and participated in such events as the Citrus Bowl parade on New Year's Eve day, performed at Disney World, and went to Sea World for a New Year's Eve party. Another fine season for the band was accomplished!

ORCHESTRA ... NO

The 48 member Raytown South Orchestra had a tremendously productive year. Not only did the orchestra perform at its usual concerts, but also at district music contest. The most important performance of the year took place at the Missouri Music Educator's Conven-

Cardinal Choral is a group of 28 juniors and seniors who have taken choir to heart. These vocalists are the most ambitious at Raytown South. The group meets twice a week after school practicing for visits to contests, civic organizations, hospitals, and nursing homes.

"It's a highly selective group," stated Mary Siddens, the director, "We had seven openings this year. Forty-five people tried out for them."

"The quality that sets this particular group apart from previous years is the maturity of each and every one of their voices. With the better solo voices, we are able to blend a sound and make it that much more superb." Copy and layout by P.J. Modrell. Photography by Hugh O'Donnell.

Concert Choir meets fourth hour, and is composed of students in the upper two classes. They performed at fall, Christmas, and spring concerts as well as Baccalaureate and graduation. The level of performance is so high that the choir has received a One rating the past three years at a district contest at Warrensburg. This could be due to having the same director, or to the many talented participants. Those recognized as All District are Kim Fisher, Martin Hanson, Mark McKee, Beth Quackenbush, Jenny Rogers, Gavin Shetler, Stacy Summers, and Maria Washington; and All Metro singers were Chris Fillmore, Mike Makowski, and Brian Tennyson. Choir had the privilege of having two All State vocalists; Kim Fisher and Janice Schuette.

"It's really amazing to see all of the people who devote their time to choir simply because they love to sing."

FRESHMEN-SOPHOMORE CHOIR

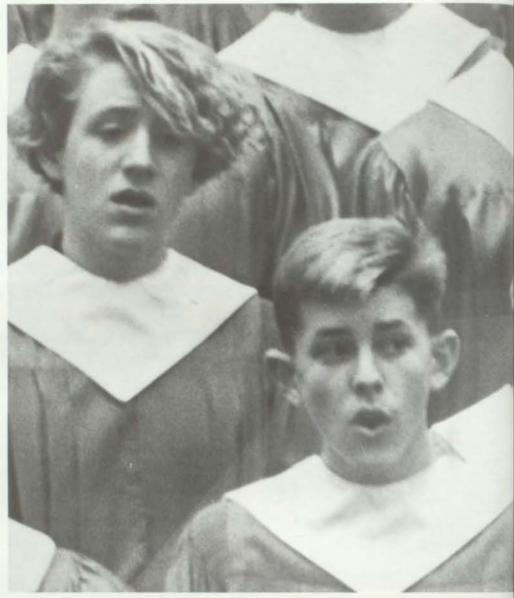

The freshmen-sophomore choir performed this year at the fall, Christmas, and spring concerts. They also sang at Bannister Mall, and in February, hosted a festival at South for other schools to attend. With 150 members, Mrs. Siddens says they are very talented and have lots of enthusiasm. The girls performed at the fall, Christmas, and spring concerts. They also sang at Bannister Mall and the Hyatt Regency Hotel, as well as a Women's Choir Festival. RUNS TOWARD THE FUTURE

This year the Cross Country team took fourth in Conference. We were only six points away from first place. With only two seniors, the young Cross Country team is building their squad up with dedication to training. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday morning they run before school, and practice each afternoon, with the exception of meet days. Even on Sundays, the team gets together and travels somewhere to run such as Unity or Longview Lake.

Coming on Strong.

Hurt this year by the low numbers of players, the 1988 Junior Varsity football team gave many inexperienced sophomores the chance to play and prepare for next year. They began their season against Oak Park and came up on the winning side. The following weeks they were victorious over Hickman Mills, North Kansas City, and Winnetonka, tied William Chrisman, and lost to a tough Ruskin team. The Cards then defeated Fort Osage. Experience Brings More Victories

The Varsity Soccer team has improved by doubling the number of wins from last year's record. They have had some rough games and played hard against tough competition.

The team has a balance of older, more experienced players and new, young talent. Graham Allen, Dale Blair, and Mark Corbin, the team captains, lead them with skill. Varsity Out Eyball

The 1988 Lady Cardinals Varsity Volleyball team consists of four seniors and four juniors, each having little varsity experience last year. They started out their year by defeating O'Hara, a team that had caused them problems in previous years. At the Springfield Tournament, they finished in fifth place, and at the Lawerance Tourney they failed to make it out of the pool after playing some strong teams from that area. Led by Seniors, Christy Allin, Heather Baker, Tracy Rouchka, and Nikki Shurack, they defeated an excellent Lee's Summit team in a hard fought match. They started out in conference by losing to Winnetonka, but came back to beat Raytown, Grandview, and North Kansas City. The Cards then faced undefeated Fort Osage and ended up on the losing side. They then bounced back and won against Winnetonka, Raytown, Grandview, and North Kansas City. With a never give up attitude and a very supportive crowd to cheer them on, the Lady Cards came back in many games. Their overall record in confernce, after losing to Fort Osage once more, was 7-3. J.V. Girls Reach New Goals

With a year of experience and a few new players, the Junior Varsity Girls Basketball team began the 1988-89 season by winning against Center. As the season continued, they balanced their losses with a few wins. On January 26 the J.V. team worked together to beat Raytown, a change from last year. Freshgirls Gain Experience

The Freshmen Girls Basketball team had a rough beginning. In the beginning, they suffered consecutive losses. The second half of the season brought better results: They had three wins. coach Mehlenbacher states: "The number of girls we had this year contributed to our successes. Hopefully it was a year of experience. Some of the girls are getting further experience by playing with J.V. the last half of the year. Winning wasn't stressed, but we did stress getting better as an individual and a team. Hopefully these girls will be out next year." Copy and layout by Steph Schwieterman. Photography by David Goth.

ways in 1988-1989. Hard work, lots Chambliss. of practice, and dedication is what's needed to become a good wrestler. This team, made up of mostly freshmen, has plenty of it.

They started the year with a close loss to a tough Kearney team and then came back with a victory over Hickman Mills. The next challenge was St. Joe Central's Tournament. There was lots of tough competition, as usual, and our wrestlers finished a strong third place. Grandview was the next team to fall, and for the second year in a row, the Cards defeated an always tough Winnetonka squad. The next victory came against Fort Osage. The New Men On The Mat

The 1988-89 Freshman Wrestling team is a new addition to Raytown South. The new team made it possible for all freshmen to participate and gain experience. The boys determination showed at the Oak Park tournament. South had the second highest percentage of pins among the freshman. Shane Zuber commented, "I had fun and plan to wrestle again next year. I think there needs to be more tournaments for freshman, and we will do well next year." Copy, layout, and photography by Heather Baker.

VARSITY SPIRIT

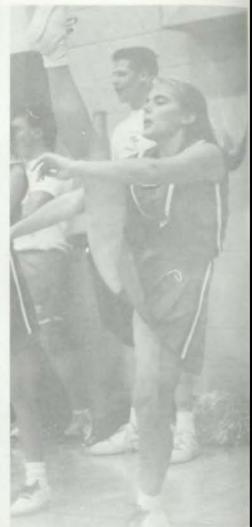

After many changes in the cheeleading squads this year, the Boys' Varsity Cheerleaders have proven to be successful. The squad is composed of five juniors and one senior and is sponsored by Ms. Cyndi Frazier. They cheer for Varsity Soccer and Football and Varstiy Boys' Basketball. The girls attended an NCA cheerleading camp at KU. There they received five blue ribbons and the spirit stick. Sherese Johnson, the squad's only senior states, "I like cheering for the teams and the recognition associated with it. Also, I like the fact that you're involved with the school and having fun at the same time." Artwork by Frank Lugenbeel.

YELL-LEADERS

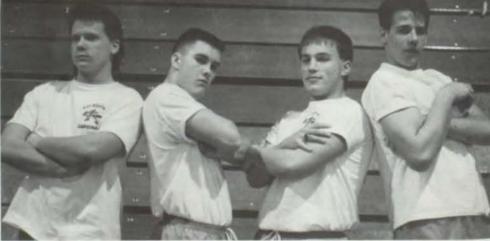

The vell-leaders work hard during the basketball season to keep spirit alive."I never realized how much work is involved in cheering. Yellleading has been a lot of fun, but it took a lot of practice too. I really felt good about supporting the team, and getting into the games free was another plus," says Greg McComas. The boys varsity cheerleaders worked with the yell-leaders teaching them cheers and partner stunts. Mary Biggs and Cindy Frazier, the sponsors, also contributed their cheering expertise. In November, a clinic at K.U. helped improve the yellleaders' cheering skills and them safety techniques. This dedication to promoting spirit produced a strong male cheering force at Ray-South.

Frosh reign at Red and White

The 1988 Red and White football game was held August 25 this year. Halftime is highlighted by the crowning of a new queen. Each football squad nominates a girl from their class to represent them. Determining the winner is based upon which class sells the most tickets to the game. The senior members of the football team chose Anita Davis as their candidate. Kelli Moriondo was picked to represent the Junior class. Sophomore, Rebecca Behrends, was nominated by her class, as well as Sara Rosen for the Freshmen class. The Freshmen class dominated as Sara Rosen was crowned 1988 Red and White queen by Michelle Kinnison, last years queen.

Homecoming — Forever Young

Fall Homecoming was an enjoyable time for everyone. The Homecoming assembly was on Friday, Oct. 7th. The candidates were introduced and the students voted in their 3rd hour classes. The candidates were: Stacy Elwell and Kent Graham (Soccer), Stephanie Schwieterman and Dale Blair (Cardettes), Alicia Bustamante and Jason Sneed (Student Council), Anna Boecker and Derrick Edmondson (Cross Country), Christy Allin and Bill Tapp (Volleyball), and Diane Mosier and Brent Staley (Football).

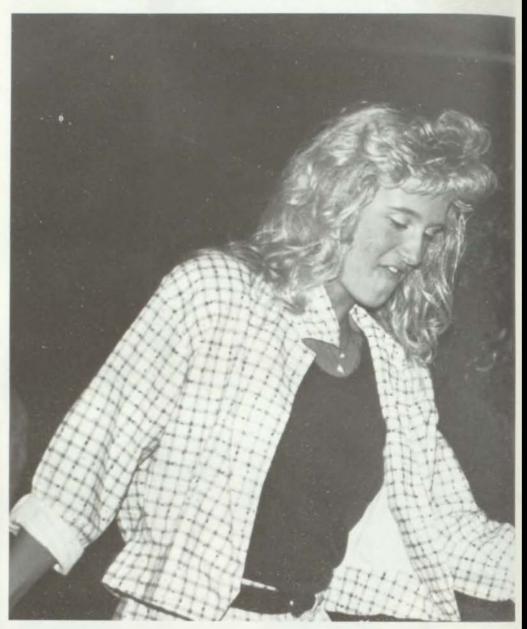

The game was on Saturday, Oct. 8th at 7:30. Pam Emery and Shawn Cobb, the 1987 queen and king, crowned Alicia and Bill the new royalty.

An Out Of This World Homecoming

This year's Winter Homecoming was a festive occasion for all. The activities included an assembly during 2nd hour, the crowning of the King and Queen at halftime of the basketball game, and a dance hosted by KY102. An added feature was the presence of Homecoming Queens from years past. They dated all the way back to the 1967 Queen who crowned the new Queen, Dee Dee Davis. Scott Klossner was crowned King by Brad Andes, the 1988 King. The candidates were: Steve Watson and Erica Fowler — cheerleaders; Bill Hart and Sherese Johnson — boys basketball; James Strickland and Erin West — girls basketball; Kent Graham and Diane Kouba — student council; Mike Newsome and Dee Dee Davis — swimming; and Scott Klossner and Diane Mosier — wrestling. Homecoming Princes & Princesses

Raytown South's Student Council started a tradition by adding a court to the annual homecoming festivities this year. Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors nominated girls and guvs from their class to compete for the title of Prince and Princess. Student Council members limited it to four couples from each grade. Then, a money vote was taken and the girl and guy from each class who had accumulated the most money was the winner. This year's fall homecoming court consisted of Juniors Mandy Collins and Kevin McComas, Sophomores Cathryn Cordes and David McClure, and Freshmen Allison Morris and Barry Elbasani. King is King

The second annual Powder Puff football game was held on November 19, 1988. The game was humorous to watch, but the male Cheerleaders and Cardettes attracted the most attention. At halftime the Powder Puff king candidates were introduced. The Senior team chose Patrick Downton and Matt Harker to represent them, and Juniors chose Darren King and Neal Quackenbush. Each purchased ticket could be cast for the candidate of their choice. Even though the Class of '89 remains the undefeated champs, Junior Darren King was crowned 1988 King. Copy and layout by Diane Kouba. Photography by Tim Eagan.

Resee and Hoop

This years Cardettes, Cheer-leaders, and Wrestling Cheerleaders had the responsibility of choosing the 1989 Spirit Queen and King candidates. The sixteen senior candidates nominated were Graham Allen, Derrick Edmondson, Stacy Elwell, Erica Fowler, Kim Gardner, Kent Graham, Monica Harbit, Bill Hart, Paul Hooper, Sherese Johnson, Kim Knabe, Eddie Owen, Steph

Schwieterman, Jason Sneed, Wendy Sproul, and Paul Walker. After the candidates were chosen, the three clubs then voted on who they thought were the most spirited. From Makes Memories

This years Prom was a very memorable time for everyone. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Polaris King and Queen. In November each club in the school was invited to nominate a girl and a guy for king and gueen. Each club then sent two representatives to vote from the list of nominees to narrow it down to only six couples. With this, an assembly was held for the students to vote on their favorite candidate. The winners remained a secret until May. The candidates were Leigh Collins, Kim Fisher, Sherese Johnson, Tricia Kenworthy, Gretchen McClure, Elizabeth Phillips, Graham Allen, Dale Blair, Richard Burgess, Paul Hooper, Eddie Owen, and Jason Sneed, Richard Burgess and Leigh Collins were crowned king and queen. Tammy, You've come a long way "Baby". I am so proud of the young lady you have become and know that you'll meet every goal you have set for yourself. You are the kind of daughter every parent wishes for each time a child is born to them. You have made Lonnie proud and set quite an example. You have become my best friend over the past four years and I know "we" will grow in years to come. Congratulations, Tammy, and remember that as long as you keep God in you life and goals to reach for, you will be as successful as an adult as you have been as a young girl.

As a grandma, I am especially thankful for the relationship we've developed over the last year that most grandma's ever experience with their grandkids. We are proud to call you our granddaughter.

As an Aunt, I am so proud I have a friend in you that I'll never find with anyone else. I know you will make me just as proud of you in the future as I am right this minute.

We Love You, Mom, Lonnie, Grandma, Grandpa and Aunt Patty

Leigh

You are Special!

We Wish you happiness and love!

We are thankful to God who gives life to all things. In 1971 He gave us you, a bundle of joy and love with many talents. Congratulations for using those talents well and succeeding through this phase of your life. Well done.

We Love You, Dad, Mom and Danny

Thank you, Wendy, for always being a star on our horizon and keeping our smiles wide too.

Congratulations on your graduation, Mom, Dad and Eric Sherese . . . I used to dream of how I would've liked for my childhood to have been.

Sometimes as we grow older we feel we have missed the best part of life, our childhood. But I realized my dreams really have come true, because you are exactly what any mother would dream of having.

I have truly enjoyed living my dreams in watching you grow up. You are everything I would've wanted to be and more. Thanks for the dream you made come true.

Congratulations!!!

I wish for you in your new goals and challenges GOD'S BLESSINGS, PROSPERITY, LOVE and CONTENTMENT. Love you so much . . . Mommie

Dear Heather

It seems only like yesterday that you were sitting in the chair with your doll and I look around and you're a grown woman (sitting in a tree).

Through the years as you've grown up I've watched you go through all the changes from a baby to a mature adult and each minute has made me even prouder to be your Father and Friend. You've always achieved whatever you have set out to do and I know as you go through life you will continue to do so. Heather I love you and may God bless you.

Have a Happy Life Love Dad

Linda Lee, You Are A Shining Star In Our World!

Congratulations, Linda!

Final

From the first all-nighter at Angie's, when we thought we'd turn in our resignation the following day, through all the stress, deadlines, and many non-productive days, we wouldn't trade the experience and friendships gained for anything. We hope you enjoy this year's staff selection.

Selection ...

This year's theme of Choose your Preference has shown to be true herie at Raytown South. The student body was diverse in their activities which they participated in. We have the crazy spirited frans at games ... the tough girls at Powder Puff ... the wild groups at school dances ... the Jocks at State Wrestling, Basketball, Swimming ... iceskating bums ... movie and concert goers ... studious merit winners ... the Bannister mall trend setters ... and the Fast-food fanatics who trequent each — once, twice, on three times in one weekend night. No matter what occupies the student's time, Raytown South had many activities and groups to select from. We left the final selection up to the students.

POLARIS COLOPHON

The twenty-seventh volume of PO-LARIS created by the student oriented staff was led by editors; Angela Martin, Tricia Kenworthy, and Liz Phillips, who conceived the book's theme: "South's Selection — Choose Your Preference". The book, printed by Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas, was overviewed by Taylor Representative, Jan Day, who we would like to thank for all her support, time, and near overkill. We would also like to thank Mr. Gerry Redford who supervised the school staff.

The 9x12, 240 page book, with a 1100 total press run was printed on 80# enamel stock. The first 16 pages are printed in a 4-color process. Division pages and endsheets use spot colors spice red #25 and process blue #9 with black #1. The 4-color lithocote printed cover along with endsheets and division pages were illustrated by Senior Fanklin E. Lugenbeel. Body copy is typeset in 12 pt. Geneva Thin and caption copy is 10 pt. Class tion copy is 10 pt. Class pictures were taken by Rolland Studios.
