Stage Talent Shines

The Rockhurst cuestas recorded another fine season with numerous plays. Late September brought to the stage four plays: "Submerged," "Jimmy Valentine Reforms," "An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge" and "Aesop's Fables."

RHS and Sion students teamed up in early December to present: "The Lady and the Tiger," "Passioella" and "The Apple Tree."

Mr. Jerry Stark said, "The talent level this year has been very high and that is matched by the guys doing it. It's real exciting to work with students that are eager and enthusiastic."

This season boasted many new faces on stage and will be a positive influence for the coming year. Special recognition should go to three seniors who have participated in the drama program at RHS for four years. Tony Marlotte, Mike Carroll, and John Shaughnessy have helped lead the way to another successful year for the drama program at RHS.

The arrival of spring signals the time for the annual spring musical. This year's production presented by the Rockhurst Drama Club was DAMN YANKEES.

Girls from Notre Dame de Sion and St. Teresa's combined with RHS students to make a cast of 40 involved in the musical.

The show, DAMN YANKEES, ran for three nights at Rockhurst College Mabee Theater to nearly packed houses. Special recognition went to seniors: Tony Marlotte, John Shaughnessy, Paul Brown, and Mike Carroll who gave their final dramatic appearance.

CONGRATULATIONS

- to the 201 students who received academic and extracurricular awards at Awards night.
- to senior Mike Lewis, who for the second straight year, has won the Jay Holder Award for being the top player and sportsman in the Kansas City Amateur Hockey League. Mike is the only player to win the award twice.
- to senior Tony Marlotte, who won the title of Best Supporting Actor at the Loyola Anniversary Play Festival held in Chicago. Tony won his award with a cut from "Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge."
- to PREP NEWS, which received an All-Missouri award from the Missouri Interscholastic Press Association-University of Missouri School of Journalism.
- to senior Mark Reintjes who received the RHS football Bukaty Award Trophy.
- to the 1984 RHS football team, Coach Severino, and his staff on winning the 5A Missouri State Football Championship.
- to senior Dan Laughlin who was one of four finalists from the KC area in the American Chemical Society/Curtis Matheson Chemistry Student Contest.
- to sophomore Scott Schudy who won first place in the Lincoln-Douglas debate at the West Central Missouri District MSHAA Debate Tournament. Scott also was awarded second place in the state tournament of the Lincoln-Douglas Debate and was the first sophomore in the state to do so.
- to seniors Paul Angles and Gerald Riani who were both National Merit finalists which places them in the top ½ of 1 percent of students across the nation who took the PSAT test in 1982.

RHS HONORS

- to Chris Hodes, Pete Sierant, Jason Goscha and Tony Cordes who qualified for competition at the Missouri Class 4A State Wrestling Tournament.
- to Mike Scalora and Dan Stoltz who won awards for their pottery at the Regional National Scholastic Art Contest at Crown Center. Mike received the Gold Key Award for several of his pieces and Dan received the Blue Ribbon award. This entitled Dan to send his pottery on to New York for national competition.
- to the 1984 Golf team and their coach Mr. Alton Davis on winning the first place trophy in Missouri State 4A competition.
- to the 64 seniors who received academic & athletic scholarship honors and awards from colleges & universities throughout the nation.
- to all 189 graduates who comprise the Class of 1984 ** Rockhurst High School.

C.A.C.H.E. AUCTION SPARKLES

The 1984 CACHE auction proved to be a big success as over 68,000 was raised. Many items were auctioned to the crowd of 450.

The evening began with a silent auction. These items included Kings, Royals, and Comets tickets. Among the larger items at this year's auction were: a 1984 Corvette, five fur coats, a topaz diamond ring, and a trip to London.

This year Al Markle (Father's Club president) and Harry McLear were the general chairmen and John Massman, Sr. was the Solicitation Chairman.

To add to the generosity of the evening, 50 Rockhurst students waited tables at the dinner which preceded the oral auction.

All told, the alumni returned home to RHS for good times & fond memories.

MISSION POSSIBLE WEEK

For five days during the month of March, the Rockhurst students & faculty combined efforts to raise money for the Jesuit missions in Central America.

Fr. Ray Pease, S.J. a missionary from Honduras joined the RHS community for the week of activities. Fr. Pease conducted the opening Monday prayer service to begin the week and he celebrated the all-school mass the following Friday.

Each of the classes organized activities for a given day. The seniors sponsored the auction which raised 1,954.00 Wednesday of mission week, the girls from Sion and St. Teresa's joined in the volleyball tournaments sponsored by the frosh which collected 845.00. Thursday, the junior class conducted their version of Monopoly with life-size pieces which brought in 576.00 and the sophomore sponsored "best dressed man" mixer on Saturday collected 1,678.00. Along with various collections a total of 5,588.00 was raised for the Jesuit missions in Central America.

SALE-O 104,000 and MORE!

Everything from buttons to bows, curtains to hoes were sold at the 22nd Sale-O-Rama, sponsored by the RHS Mothers' Club.

The four day sale generated over 104,052.42. This was the first time in Sale-O-Rama history that the 100,000 barrier was broken.

Sale-O-Rama along with the other fundraisers at RHS, help to defray tuition costs. Sale-O-Rama is where the mothers donate thousands of hours. Special thanks this year go Mrs. Margo Didier (Chairman), Mrs. Janet Hastings, Mrs. Doris Hoag, and Mrs. Doreen Haughton (Co-Chairmen).

THE WORD & . . .

The Pastoral department took charge of organizing the masses and prayer services for the 1983-84 school year. These masses helped to deepen the faith life of the students and faculty. Whether it be at the start of Freshman year, or the last few weeks of Senior year, the chapel and all-school masses remained the center of life at Rockhurst during the four years and after.

CHRIST'S PRESENCE

The Pastoral department under the direction of Fr. James Knapp, S.J. and Mr. Larry Ruby were responsible for setting the positive tenor of the school's spiritual life. Through their accomplishments of organizing retreats, masses, and prayer services, the Rockhurst community as a whole was led to a more profound understanding of His presence in each of our lives and our interactions with each other.

RETREATS GIVE LIFE

The retreats for 1983-84 consisted of: Freshman Retreat (organized & run by the Seniors); Sophomore Day of Recollection (given by Fr. Nick DiCicco, S.J. at St. John's Seminary); 7 three day Junior retreats (directed by faculty teams & given at Savior of the World, Conception, & White House in St. Louis); Optional Senior retreats. These retreats provided the students an opportunity to learn more about themselves, each other, and their God.

Senior Projects

'MEN FOR OTHERS'

Each year Rockhurst seniors spend the first three weeks of the second semester in a variety of social service & educational sites working with individuals who have special needs.

The 1984 Senior Projects program involved the participation of 189 seniors who worked in a total of 65 different agencies in the K.C. area.

Senior Projects provide a time of personal growth for each senior. He is exposed to new situations which help him to grow into a more caring, giving, loving person.

Some of the goals of Senior Projects are: to increase the senior's awareness & appreciation of the needs of those around him; to develop in the senior a desire & commitment to help those who are especially in need of his love and concern.

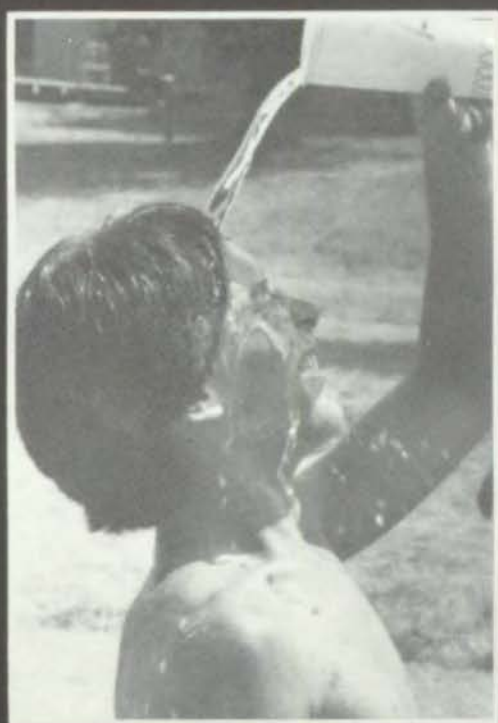

Perhaps the benefits of Senior Projects could be summed up by one of the seniors: "I worked with a 16 year old boy named Mark for over an hour writing 10 simple sentences correctly. His determination & the smile on his face after finishing was reward enough. I am glad I had an opportunity to teach them something. If only they knew what they had taught me . . ."

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ROLLS WITH CHANGES

In years past, the Rockhurst Student Council has been very busy, and this year was certainly no exception. As usual, the Stuco year began very early in the summer. Members met on a weekly basis to plan activities and make important pre-school decisions. In addition to attending summer meetings, many of this year's members attended student council camps.

The year's activities were kicked off by the annual Blue-White Mixer. Next came the magazine sale. Thanks to student support, the sale was able to raise enough money to fund the entire year's activities. Without the traditional Homecoming Parade and float-building, Stuco sponsored a pre-Homecoming field day. Among the activities were chariot races, arm wrestling, field goal kicking, and a tug-of-war.

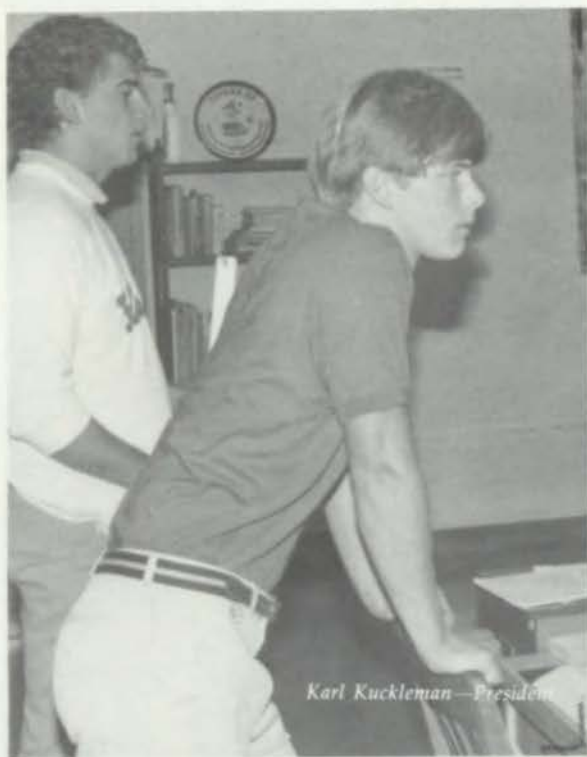

Stuco gave a Christmas present to the student body this year, giving free cokes and candy canes as the Christmas break approached. Stuco also helped with the Back-to-School Night and 8th Grade Visitation Night. As in years past, the Student Council sponsored Mission Possible Week after the return from the Christmas break. Activities included a Monopoly game, an auction, a volleyball game, and the Mission Possible Mixer. Stuco also provided workers and assistance to the Sale-O and Carnival efforts this year. The list of activities came to an end with a Council sponsored Spring Dance and the Blood Mobile.

CHOIR ENRICHES ALL

The liturgical choir for the 1983-1984 school year was responsible for all the music and instrumentals played at any of the all-school masses during the year. Many long hours of practice went into making the liturgies a more prayerful experience for all. The choir chose their own music and often times listened to the original album or score to get an idea of how it was to be performed.

Dave Barry prepares for a solo at all-school liturgy.

The majority of the music this year's choir chose was originally written and sung by "The St. Louis Jesuits." This original group of six jesuits met during their philosophy studies in St. Louis and there started writing and singing their own music. Over a period of time, they became known worldwide, and are now considered the driving force in contemporary liturgical music in the Church.

This year's choir was enriched by many students who were instrumentally talented. Pat Ludwokowski provided piano and vocals; David Lombardo played guitar and sang; Dan Sulit played piano; Jim Koetting played guitar; Jim Caccamo, Bill Hudson, Michael Hennessey, and John Kelley.

Mr. Dennis Kirchoff, S.J. organized and directed the choir, as he has done for the last few years. The Rockhurst community have all benefited from his efforts and enthusiasm in this regard.

SADD HAS PRESENCE & POINT

The Rockhurst chapter of Students Against Driving Drunk (S.A.D.D.) accomplished a great deal in six short months. Sponsored by the National Honor Society, SADD managed to gain support from the student body and the Rockhurst community through a special all-school assembly in April. This support was demonstrated by the collection of over eighty signed student-parent "Contracts for Life," in which students and parents promised each other not to drive drunk. SADD also sponsored many optional after-school programs to educate students about the effects of alcohol on driving and hosted the first annual summer convention for Kansas City area SADD chapters.

PADRE'S POTTERS . . .

This was a bumper crop year for the RHS pottery department. Rockhurst took 25% of the National Scholastic Pottery awards in the four-state area. Dan Stoltz won one gold key and Mike Scalora was awarded with seven. Dan's entry was sent to New York for the national competition.

In all there were about thirty wheel pottery students and thirty more hand builders. All of the senior wheel pottery students made mugs to be sold at the Mission Possible auction. The students raised almost $300 for the missions. The students also took a field trip to the Nelson Art Gallery.

YOUNG DEBATERS FAIR WELL

The 1983-1984 Speech and Debate Squad, under the fine coaching of Don Ramsey, was young considering the fact that there was only one upperclassman. The sophomores and freshmen showed incredible success for their year. The returning debaters were junior Mike Burger and sophomores Jim Daniels, Brian Pendland, Scott Schudy, and Chris Sulzer. In July of 1983, seven sophomores and upcoming freshman Steven Gromowsky traveled to Waco, Texas to attend the Baylor Debate Workshop. The team of Schudy-Sulzer placed fourth in regular debate. The team of Daniels-Pendland did very well in the national competition.

At the first tournament of the year, Schudy and Sulzer continued their success with a fourth place win at Kickapoo High School. Sulzer showed his individual event skills by finishing in second place in extemporaneous speaking. The debate team of Jamie Elmore and Venu Reddy, both first year debaters, took third place at Neosho High School. In February, sophomore Kurt Plumer joined the team by participating in Lincoln-Douglas Debate. Plumer performed exceptionally well by advancing four rounds at District competition. Other sophomores consisted of Jeff Bresette, Bill Hudson, Peter Gromowsky, and Chris Muehlberger. The four main freshmen on the squad were Jeff Beshoner, Shawn Dickey, Martin Fanning, and Frank Tyler. The 1983-1984 year closed with Schudy taking second in the State Lincoln-Douglas Competition.

YELL-LEADERS BRING SPIRIT

The 1983-1984 school year was a great year for the Yell-Leading program at Rockhurst. The program itself was on shaky ground due to the performance of last year's members; yet, Mr. Roscoe Dickison was willing to become the moderator for the program. He was helpful in arranging practices, obtaining equipment, and in obtaining instruction for the Yell-Leaders.

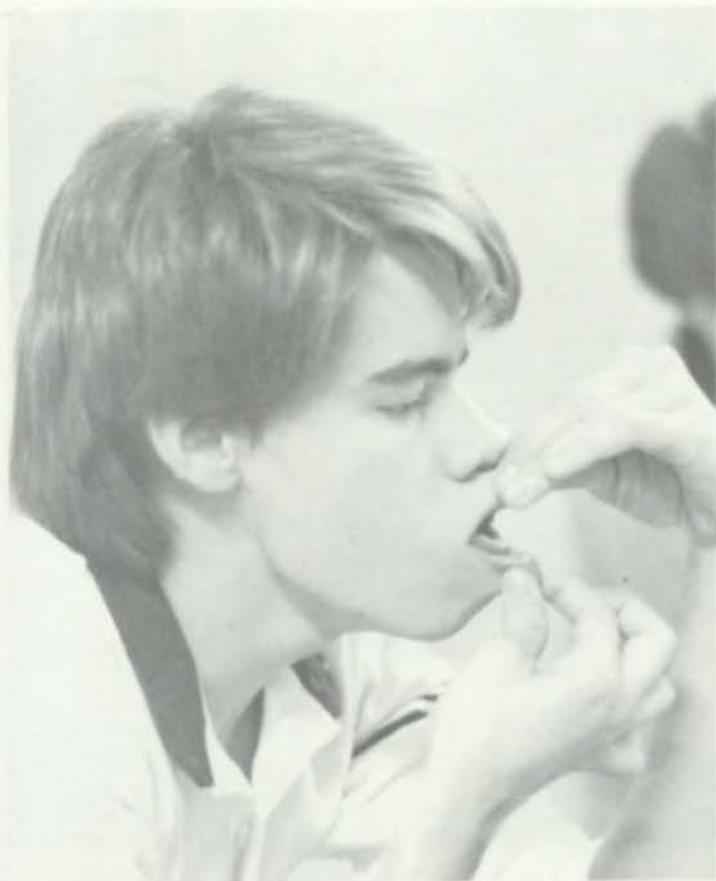

The football Yell-Leading squad consisted of ten original members: captain Peter Collins, co-captain Ed Boyle, Paul Bruening, Aaron Bruns, Chuck Dunlay, Luke Lobb, Mark McGurran, Phil Moreano, John Pfiefauf, and Dan Sulit. Near the end of the season, Karl Kuckelman joined the squad. Most of the Yell-Leaders accompanied the team to St. Louis where the State 5A Championship was won.

When the football season closed, only two of the original members decided to cheer for basketball. They were Aaron Bruns and Dan Sulit. However, Jim Calderon, John Lillis, and Michael J. Hennessey soon signed up. What the basketball team actually needed was any student bodies in the Rockhurst stands, and with the continual, subtle persuasion of Mike Hennessey and Mark Reintjes, the bleachers soon became packed with students. This year turned out to be a very good year for the Yell-Leading program. In danger of being dropped, the program endured and its members proved that the Yell-Leaders are a truly important aspect of Rockhurst athletics.

GOSUB COMPUTER CLUB 83-84: RETURN

The 1984 Computer Club continued to be successful in its second year of existence. This is largely due to the work of Mr. John McEniry who was always there to offer his help to the members both old and new. The club is sure to enjoy further success as computers become an integral part of our modern lives.

Light and Sound Crew

The Light and Sound Crew has survived another year. As always, there were many problems that struck when they were least expected. But, the Crew also pulled off many difficult feats spectacularly. The mass during Freshman Retreat, Cache, the Mass of the Holy Spirit, and the NHS mixer all showed the ability of the Crew to form a reality based on someone's wishful thinking; a task which at times stretched the Crew to its limits and often required the help of many other students.

Much of the year was spent making the systems easier to use. This included rewiring parts of Carnival and Sale-O-Rama and writing a manual to explain the systems. Overall, this year was very productive. Unknown to many people, the Light and Sound Crew was involved in almost every event this year.

ROCK COLLECTION

The work for this year's Rock Collection began in early September when Paul Angles and Peter Collins were named Co-Editors-in-Chief. The staff was busy right away; attending workshops at Universal Press Syndicate and thinking up a new and original cover design. Once this task was accomplished, the staff then began to wade through the hundreds of submissions which began to swamp the Rock Collection office. It was quite a challenge to decide upon the few works which could be published in this year's edition. Through the tasks of creating the dummy and finishing the layout, the staff worked together in order to meet the many deadlines which faced them. Then, on May 9th, the staff's hard work and dedication was rewarded when this year's edition was delivered and distributed to the student body.

PREP NEWS WINS TOP HONORS

The 1983-84 staff of the Prep News was described as obnoxious and argumentative by Mr. Mark Bubalo, journalism teacher and newspaper adviser. Nevertheless, they managed to produce one of the finest papers in the state as indicated by a 97-100 All-Missouri ranking.

Through twelve editions, the Prep News covered everything from the new head football coach to "The Day After" to the U.S. Bishops. As one teacher commented, the Prep News has provided "spicy fare" for its readers. A conservative editorial page which lauded nuclear deterrence and questioned the practices of the U.S. Bishops certainly stirred up some controversy. The editors were content to know that someone out there was reading the paper.

1984 QUARRY

The 1984 Quarry staff attempted to capture the moments of the year that will live in the hearts of Rockhurst students for years to come. From the 1983 Show-Me-Bowl, to Senior Projects to the Mission Possible auction with multi-talented services of Col. Jack Callahan, the staff has tried to keep their finger on the pulse of the school. Under the watchful eye and guidance of Mr. Gregg Grovenburg, S.J. the staff has met deadlines, drawn layouts but most importantly the staff had loads of fun.

Editors-in-Chief were Jim Taylor and Pat Kaine. Section editors were Grant Beck, J.D. McEnroe, Sean Phelan, John Richart, Scott Schudy, Wally Roy and Tom Wandless. Many other people were involved in the yearbook also, and this yearbook couldn't have been done without their help.

RHS Football Reigns #1

State football championships and Rockhurst go hand in hand. For three straight years, the Hawklets have found their way to the Missouri state finals. Determined not to repeat last year's disaster, Rockhurst used a swarming defense to hold Hazelwood Central in check and win its third title, 13-10. The odds were against Rockhurst to be in the state game. Not only had starters graduated but there would be a new coach for the 1983 season. Coach Tony Severino came to Rockhurst from building a very successful program at Shawnee Mission Northwest. Coach Sev set high goals and he built on the pride he found at Rockhurst. In St. Louis after 14 games he stood with his team and let everyone know who was number one. Rockhurst played the toughest schedule in the state. The first six opponents were undefeated at the time of their game with the Hawklets. Not only was Hazelwood ranked No. 1 going into the title game but so were Miege and SM West in Kansas; and Lincoln East in Nebraska. RHS only losses were to SM West, 3-0, and to Columbia Hickman, 12-7. The playoffs were marked by wins over Lee's Summit and Grandview. Then receivers Kendall Smith and Jimmy Griggs led RHS to a dramatic 13-10 semifinal victory over St. Louis U-High in the "Jesuit Bowl," leading up to the ultimate win at state.

JV A THREAT FOR NEXT YEAR

The junior varsity football team played very well during the 1983 season, turning out a record of 6-1. Coached by Phil King and Eric Berg, the JV compiled outstanding offensive and defensive stats. Their opponents scored 20 points and the Hawklets totaled up 132 points in the season.

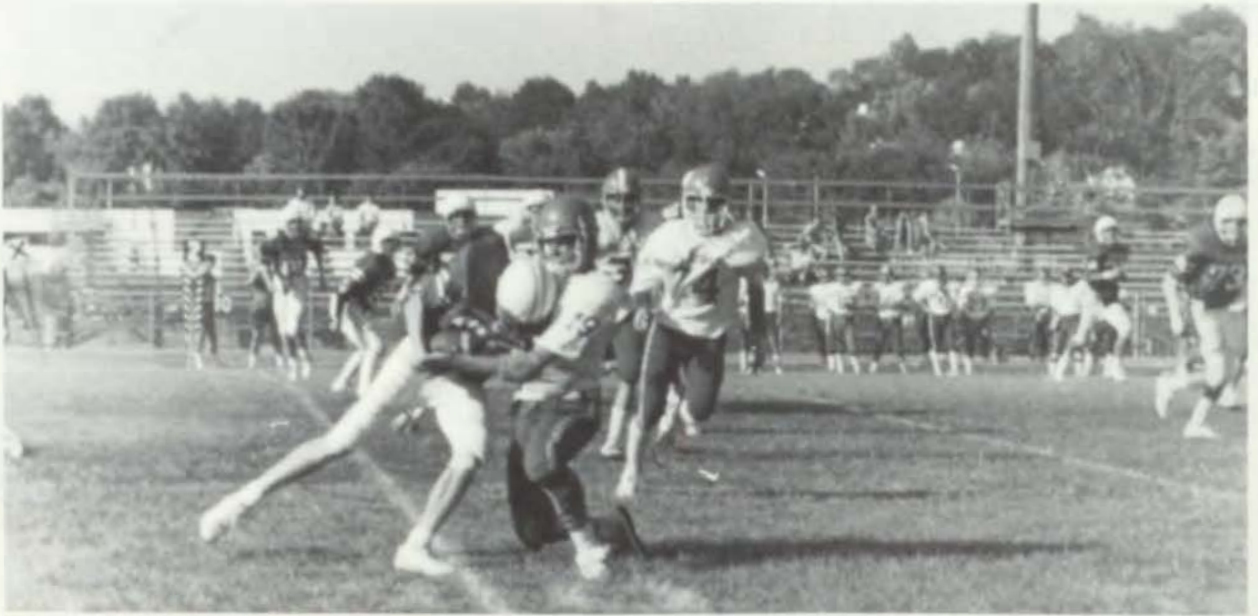

The JV was led this year by a very strong backfield consisting of Mike Holmes, Pat Looney, and Michael Johnson. The JV defense was also a contributing factor to their great success, led by defensive back Vince Long.

The JV won their first three games and only gave up one touchdown. The JV lost its first game in a 37-game winning streak to SM West, losing 14-7. After these losses they won every other game they played.

The sophomore football team posted a 1-7-1 record for the 1983 season. After beating Raytown 14-6 in the opener and tying with Olathe North 0-0, the sophomores lost the rest of their games. Head Coach Steve Ryan sighted that receiver Rich Wilson, fullback Jon Schmidt, and guard Pat Miller all stood out on offense. Safety Tony Totta, Schmidt at defensive back, and Miller as a defensive lineman all stood out on defense. Ryan also mentioned Jay Wright as having a good season. The offense was plagued all year by turnovers, penalties, and other mistakes. Ryan commented, "Our passing game did well, but injuries took their toll. Whoever endures, stays with the program and keeps a good attitude has done well."

FRESHMAN LOOK PROMISING FOR YEARS TO COME

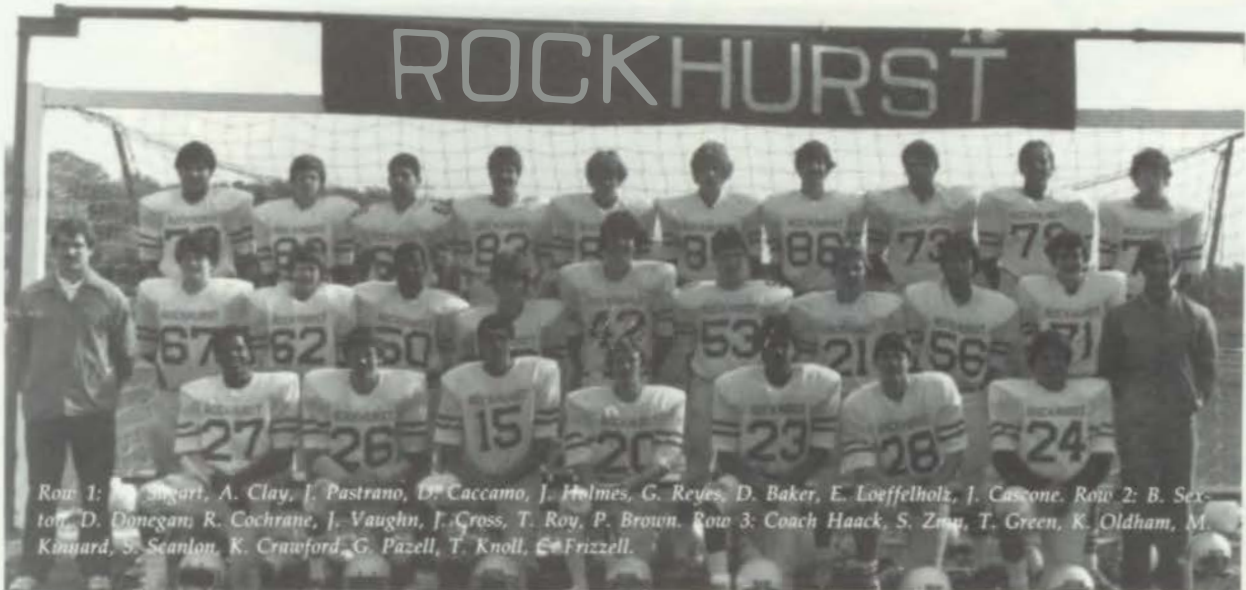

The Freshman football teams had a very impressive season in 1983. With new stars and excellent talent, the A team finished with a 7-0 record. The B team had a record of 4-2.

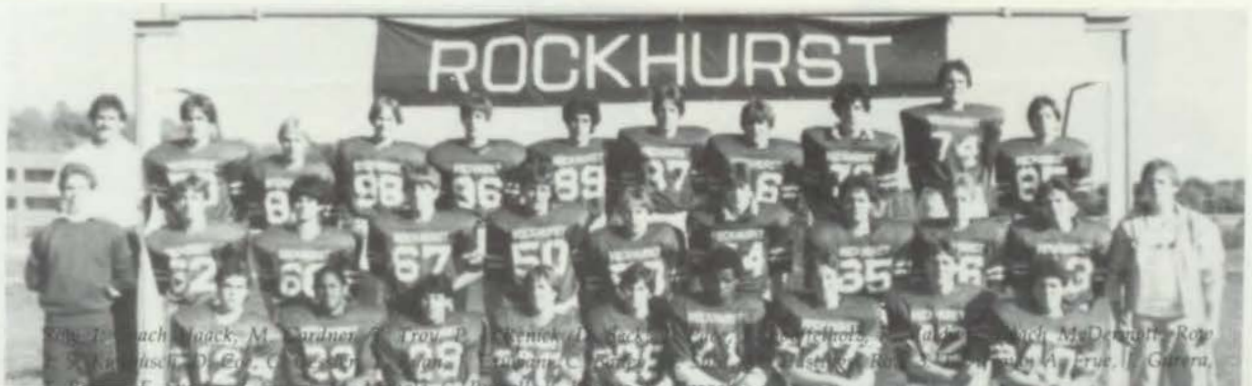

Coaches Pat McDermott and Don Hack guided the teams. McDermott was really impressed with the team.

"Both teams had lots of talent and lots of enthusiasm and worked hard," said Coach McDermott. "They have to continue to improve themselves through participation in other sports and off-season weight training programs."

The A team had a very good season. They opened the season with a 28-2 trouncing of Center. They also beat up a tough Wyandotte team 27-0 towards the end of the season. The B team discouraged Blue Springs by the score of 6-0 and Miego 6-0.

Soccer: RHS Style

This years Varsity soccer team geared up for a successful season but were sadly disappointed with a record of 8-9-4. Although the team was given a chance to capitalize with a win in districts it was a let down. The Hawklets lost to Lee's Summit in the second round of the district tournament. New talent seemed to be the highlight of this years season. The leading scorer on the team was Junior Wally Roy. Sophomore Brian Didier also put in an exceptional season of play. Seniors, David Bortnick, Gus Flores, Joe Runyan, Al Mosqueda, and Ramon Ramos all proved leadership for the rest of the team. But this was not enough to bring a victory at districts.

JV starts slow, finishes strong.

The JV soccer team, led by Coach Mike Larson, had an overall record of 10-1-4 for the 1983 season. Along with Coach Larson, Fr. Jim Knapp, S.J., and Fr. John Apel, S.J., helped in coaching the freshman soccer team.

The JV squad started the season with two consecutive ties. After that came a disappointing loss to Shawnee Mission Northwest. All in all the JV soccer team had a slow start.

The high point of the season, according to Larson, came during the Sedalia Smith-Cotton tournament. The Hawkleys beat Columbia Hickman 2-1 and then went on to defeat Sedalia Smith-Cotton 2-1. These two victories enabled the JV team to earn a first place finish in the tournament.

Freshmen show promise for the future.

The freshmen team played a total of nine games and finished the season with a 6-2-1 record. Four of the freshman's games were played against sophomores. The rest of their five games were played against freshman teams.

There were a total of 34 players on the freshman team, all of whom got a chance to play. The freshman were led by their coaches Fr. Jim Knapp, S.J., and Fr. John Apel, S.J.. The coaches leadership led to a successful season. Fr. Apel commented on the great deal of interest in soccer among Rockhurst freshmen.

Harriers consistent.

The 1983 cross country season was a time of growth for most of the runners on the team. The top four runners on the team were all underclassmen, juniors Matt Blake, Tom Spencer, and sophomore Jim Barthol. These underclassmen were led by senior captain Mike Hennessey.

The highlights of the year were finishing first at both the Ward and Westport Invitationals. Coach Bill Munnighoff stated, "We had an outstanding year; we placed in the top one-third at every meet this year. Matt Blake was probably our most outstanding runner this year as a junior and we are looking forward to him having a banner year as a senior."

PROMISING JV

The JV cross country team can best be described as a "consistent team" as stated by Coach Bill Munninghoff. The squad took first in both the Westport Invitational and the St. Mary's meet. The team also posted second place finishes in the Olathe and Ward meets, and according to Coach Munninghoff his team "challenged for first in quite a few meets."

The team consisted of "solid, consistent runners" according to Munninghoff. The four top runners for the team were jr. Joe Barloon, soph. T.J. Steck and Jeff Bresette, and fr. Sean Rodriguez. Rodriguez managed to place an outstanding second place in the Ward meet. Munninghoff was pleased with his teams performance. He stated that his team "worked hard even toward the end of the year."

Hawks Prove Toughness

The Rockhurst Basketball team finished a rebuilding year to post an improved 13-13 record. The 83 Hawklets were led by seniors Kendall Smith and Jim Vader, as well as leading scorer, sophomore Harold Mitchem. The Hawklets went into the season with high hopes. They were improved, with greater depth, quickness and height. But this was not the year for the Hawklets. The first game of the year epitomized the entire season, as RHS lost in the final seconds on missed freethrows to Paseo, 53-50.

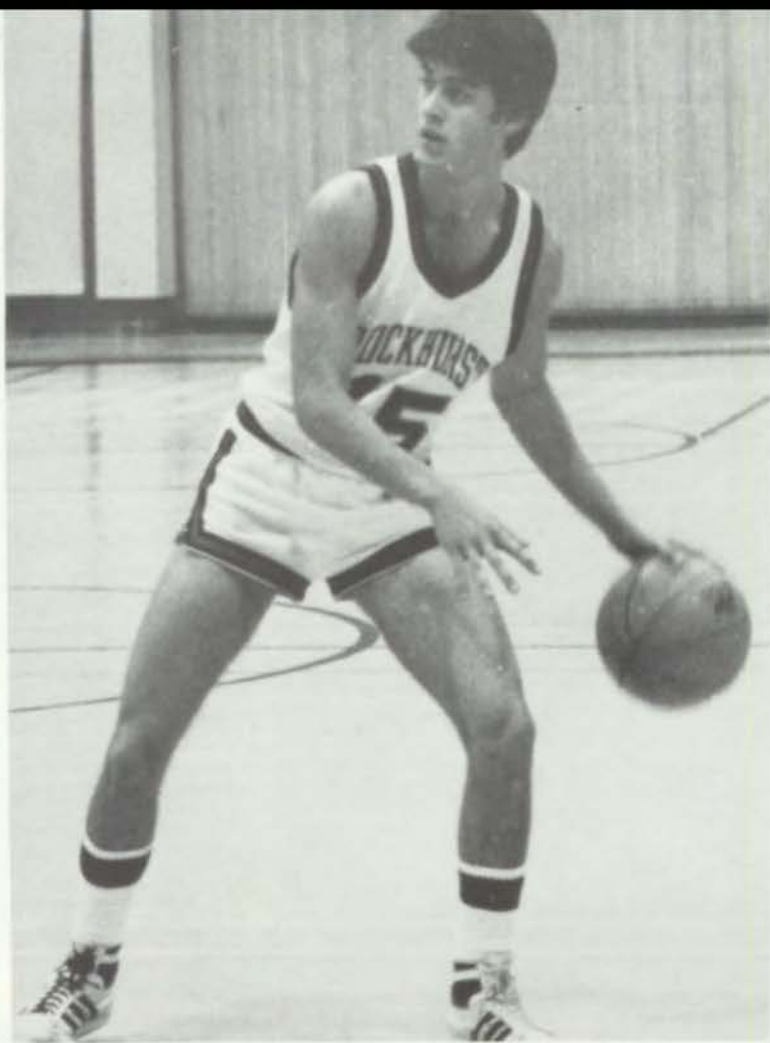

The year would be full of near misses for the cagers, as 13 of their 26 games would be decided by four points or less. The Hawklets competition, as always was some of the toughest in the city, playing such tradition powerhouses as Paseo, Central, Wyandotte and Raytown South, as well as new talent S.M. South and Blue Springs.

The team also traveled to St. Joseph for the La Blond tournament, where they met such teams as Lincoln East and La Blond. The Hawklets also played in two other tournaments, at Blue Springs and North Kansas City. Leading the Hawklets on the statistic sheet was sophomore sensation Harold Mitchem. He lead nearly every offensive category, including points scored and average. But on the court the Hawklets were led by senior guard Jim Vader, who was the sparkplug to the offense leading RHS in steals and running the "Coach Bruce" offense. Also contributing to the cause was another senior, Kendall Smith. Kendall started the season slow on account of his football heroics, but was not far behind Mitchem in the offensive stats, and always causing havoc for the opponent.

Young J.V. Squad Dominates

The 1983-1984 Hawklets basketball season improved from last year. The '84 season proved to be more exciting. The squad started slow, but soon made steady improvements that lasted through the season, and ended in a 500 record.

The Hawklets were very young this year. Two members stand out on the 12-man team: freshman Mike Masucci and John Cooper. Juniors Mike Ertz, team leader in practices and Dave Schwarz, in charge of setting up the offense and ball handling, were key players as the team progressed.

Other outstanding players including Mike Holmes, Dan Keller, Jim Sheedy, Dan Teahan, and Jack Sullivan worked hard together leading the younger players and rounding out the Hawklet forces.

Sophomores Peak, 13-7

The sophomores had a great season this year, and capping it off was a four game winning streak with their last victory coming 68-43 over S.M. East.

"The purpose of sophomore basketball is to stress fundamentals and to do it with a winning attitude. We especially had to stress that with this year's team," said Coach Bill Munninghoff. "Because last year's team as freshman lost, it has been great to see the turn around."

All in all, its been a very exciting season for the sophomores. They came back and beat many opponents that had already defeated them. They lost just over half their games but they are proud to have worked hard. Their season was a rollercoaster ride, but they will be ready for next years season.

Freshman assure support

The Freshman A basketball team completed the year with an impressive 12-4 record. Head Coach Eric Berg stated that, "This team was strong fundamentally and did the little things well. That made a difference."

RHS' schedule, which traditionally plays some of the strong schools in the K.C. area, beat both Raytown and Miego twice this year, and also defeated Wyandotte. Like the A team, the Frosh B-basketball team finished a strong 9-1 record. Their only loss coming at the hands of O'Hara. "I was very pleased about the season," said Coach Mike Larson. "They played very well and turned in some really good games. The best was the 49-48 OT win over Raytown South."

According to Larson, this team could have beaten a lot of A teams.

Four Varsity Grapplers Go To State

The 1984 season was a season of mixed reviews for the Rockhurst Wrestling team. Success came with victories in the Rockhurst Quad and the Ruskin Quad; and success came with four grapplers qualifying for the state tournament. The season, however, had its down side. With no victories in the state tournament and disappointing finishes in other tourneys. The Truman Tournament was no exception.

Rockhurst was rated, for the first time. The 9-2 dual record was good enough to put the Hawklets in the top ten, in the Metro Area Top Teams. The state district did put a damper on the season with Rob Aubin, John Weidmaer and Jim Paolozzi missing the district meet. The chances for the Hawklets winning a trophy there was dimmed. However, Jason Goscha, Tony Cordes, Chris Hodes, Jack Hensel and Pete Sierant all qualified for the sectionals. Cordes, Goscha, Hodes and Sierant went on to compete in the state meet.

Coach Dennis Bullard was extremely pleased with the progress of the Hawklets in 1984. The four qualifiers represented the largest number of people Rockhurst has placed in the state competitions. Tradition is still being developed in the relatively young sport at Rockhurst.

The season was rough and many injuries were weathered, but the Hawklet grapplers proved tough and did their best. Congratulations to the 1984 Wrestling Team for a job well done.

JV Show Strength

The 1983-1984 Junior Varsity wrestling was around 25 members strong and those members totaled up an outstanding record of 8-2. Coached by Pat McDermot and Don Haack, this team was one of the strongest teams in some time. They performed well during their tough season and faired well against Winnetonka and Lee's Summit two strong teams in the area.

Some future Rockhurst wrestlers will come from the JV level. Their fine work is shown by many outstanding wrestlers such as, Mike Ohmes, Tony Hodes, Chris Hodes, Rob Popper, Bill Lonergan, John Schmitz, Dave Stoltz, and Greg Newbauer. These and other JV wrestlers are the backbone for future teams. The JV hopes for a continuing excellence.

Frosh Start

Freshman wrestling team upholds tradition led by Coach Don Haack. Coach Haack said, "The purpose of freshman wrestling is to get the kids interested in wrestling and then teach the basics of the sport."

The "basics" were successful for the team this year. The freshman compiling a 2-1 record demonstrated the basics in winning more than half of their meets. Coach Haack explained that this year the team didn't have as much experience as some other teams, but this is made up for by the enthusiasm of the many interested wrestlers.

In his first year of coaching at RHS, Coach Haack feels that it is not tough to coach here. He states, "The program is really well organized and Mr. Bullard does a good job."

TRACKMEN BEGIN TO BUILD AGAIN

The 1984 RHS track team finished the year with one of the most impressive performances since 1977. The strength of the squad was concentrated mainly in the sprint and relay categories.

Senior Jimmy Griggs qualified for state competition in the 110-meter high hurdles. Senior Lester Ratcliff qualified in the 100 and 200 meter dash, and the 400 meter relay team consisting of Griggs, Ratcliff, and juniors Tim Coppinger and Mike Ertz qualified for state competition.

Some of the toughest competition from around the area and state joined in the Rockhurst relays on April 13. The meet was won by state contender, Raytown H.S.

The overall track squad was helped by individual performances by John Budde (discus & shot), J.D. McEnroe (pole vault), Matt Blake and Tom Spencer (mile and two mile runs).

Next year should prove to be a good year as the underclassmen were given classic performances to match. The 1984 track squad is to be commended for their hard work and performance.

CHAMPS

The 1984 Rockhurst H.S. golf team consisting of: Pat Hanrahan, Mike Ross, Gerry Riani, John Sinovic, Matt Holmes, and coached by Mr. Alton Davis, captured the 1984 Missouri State 4A golf championship. Rockhurst defeated the defending state champions, DeSmet Jesuit H.S. of St. Louis and a host of other teams.

Some highlights of the year consist of the Fort Osage tournament in which RHS finished first out of 17 teams. Also, Rockhurst dominated district play at the Hillcrest Country Club. The hawklets, led by seniors John Sinovic (70), Pat Hanrahan (73), and Matt Holmes (74), totaled 296 as a squad on the par 72 course.

William Jewell held its 26th annual high school golf tournament with 35 schools from across both Missouri and Kansas competing in the event held May 23. Rockhurst was the defending champion after the scores were totaled, the Rockhurst golfers had won their sixth title in past eight years.

This year's golf team is to be commended for their superior play and consistent spirit to play as well as they were capable of playing.

STATE CLASS!

This year's tennis team displayed their tennis prowess and potential to other area contenders. Led by sophomore sensations Pat Looney and Warren McDonald, the RHS tennis team finished the year with another trip to Columbia. Rob Aubin and David Zahorsky provided the balance for a strong tennis season, and J.J. Montanaro was a stabilizing and dynamic fifth man.

After impressive showings at district play, both doubles teams ran in to tough competition from the St. Louis schools in Columbia.

The strong RHS tennis team has bright years to look ahead to in what could be a Rockhurst dominated sport in the years to come.

Freshmen experience the hassel of buying books

From the time we came through the doors at Freshman Orientation to the time we left at the end of the school term, this year will hold a place in our memory. First, there was the Blue-White Scrimmage and mixer where we met our fellow freshmen from Sion and St. Teresa's. In the months following, we grew from an unorganized mass into a unified class. We started forming friendships that will last forever. One event which sped up this process was freshmen rec. night. But the one single event which brought about our unity was the Freshmen Retreat. It was to take up a weekend that no one was really excited about, but the Seniors and Juniors who planned it made it special and fun for us.

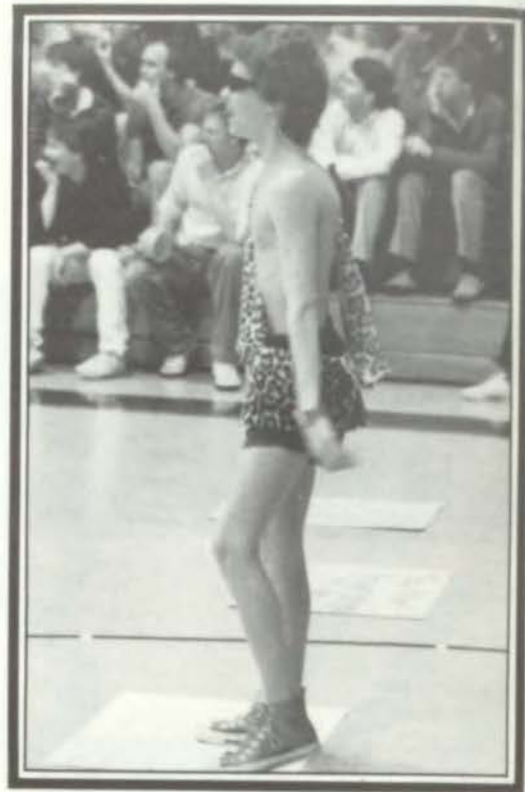

This was the year that we were the newcomers, the ones who had to learn the ways of the Rock. We want to thank the Seniors for helping us adjust so next year we can come back and make our mark as Sophomores.

The Class of '86: A New Beginning, Special, Spirited, Recognized, Unique. The fall of 1983 brought a brand new beginning. The Sophomores were now a full part of the Rockhurst community having completed their Freshman year. However, it was not a usual beginning for the Sophomore class. The Class of '86 surprised everyone by its incredible spirit. The class took an early lead in the Spirit Contest, and it appeared they would have the victory for the first time in twenty years.

Also, the class showed its' excellence in the first semester grades with over fifty percent of the class receiving honors. The year appeared more rewarding the next semester when they did it again. 1983-84 will always be memorable in that it was unique. The year proved that the Class of '86 is a special class in everything they accomplish, and everything they will accomplish.

OUR GANG

LET THE CELEBRATIONS BEGIN

The 1984 Senior Prom of Rockhurst High School was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Adam's Mark Hotel on Friday, May 11.

The evening consisted of dinner and dancing, with music by the "Two-Twenty Band." It was guaranteed to be a memorable night for all.

King Louie West was the sight of the "After-Prom Party." It was sponsored by the Mother's Club and provided a night of bowling, ice skating, pool and video games.

"Fond memory brings the light of other days around me."

—Thomas Moore

"... and then you hit him with the cue stick."

"Oh, my bowling ball and shoes, I knew I forgot something."

"Ooo, who put their gum in here?"

Tai and Randy?

"Ha, ten gutterballs in a row, No problem."

David Dercher, up close and personal

Real good John . . . real good

"I keep telling her to bowl this way."
