KNIGHT'S SONG

Knights of Chivalry,
Loyal We all shall be,
Steadfast of Purpose,
Our Aims held high;
Honor We bring Thee,
Our Love will never die,
Knights in Red and Blue,
May We to Thee be True,
Fighting with Courage,
Honest, Brave, and Bold,
In our Hearts, Southeast High,
Your Name We hold.

TODAY

ANGELA MORGAN

To be alive in such an age!
With every year a lightning page
Turned in the world's great wonder-book
Whereon the leaning nations look,
When men speak strong for brotherhood
For peace and universal good;
When miracles are everywhere
And every inch of common air
Throbs a tremendous prophecy
Of greater marvels yet to be.
O, Thrilling Age!
O, Willing Age!
When steel and stone and rail and rod
Become the utterance of God
A trump to shout His thunder thru,
Proclaiming all that man may do.

To be alive in such an age!
To live to it!
To give to it!
Rise, soul, from thy despairing knees,
What if thy lips have drunk the lees?
Fling forth thy sorrow to the wind
And link thy hope with humankind:
The passion of a larger claim
Will put thy puny grief to shame.
Breathe the world-thought, do the world-deed,
Think hugely of thy brother's need.
Give thanks with all thy flaming heart,
Crave but to have in it a part—
Give thanks and clasp thy heritage—
To be alive in such an age!

Each member of the staff is consecrated to the belief that a nobler America can be built by the development of human resources. The library, as the center of the school, endeavors to fulfill this function through co-operation with faculty and students. We suggest and supply from the abundant printed and visual material, discussions of the problems confronting Modern Youth.

"To kill one's fellow creatures needs no great genius, but to calm a tempest by prudence and judgment is a worthy achievement indeed."

"Since wars begin in the minds of men, it is in the minds of men that the defenses of peace must be constructed."

Senior Class

47

Quickly the years have passed and now the senior is a full-fledged Knight. Back in the days when he was an eager freshman, when he ran up the wrong side of the stairs, or when he became lost in the Castle, he looked forward to this—his graduation day—so vaguely distant at times. Now that it is here, it frightens him.

Thoughtfully he reviews his four years of high school. They now seem to have been extremely short—all too short and assuming the nature of a wonderful dream. But like all dreams, it ends as suddenly as it began and he is now faced with the reality of the future. The teachings of the class room suddenly loom before him as stepping stones to the future. He cannot turn back, he must go forward.

Congratulations to you, Worthy Knight, and success to you in your quest for future achievement.

Junior Class

The squire, having completed two years of high school, is now beginning to realize the great responsibilities of a full-fledged Knight. For two years he has intermittently worked and played and has advanced step by step. He knows that certain goals must be reached and that he must work harder if he wishes to attain Knighthood.

Both his school work and his extra-curricular activities have increased with each year, and he knows that a good Knight must prepare himself, not only for serious work, but for recreation.

Reminiscently he looks back on his previous years, and although he has thought this year his best, he realizes that this same thought has come with each year. So with great hope (and anxiety) he awaits his final glory—the attainment of Knighthood.

Sophomore Class

Just one year ago the sophomores were bewildered freshmen. Gradually, however, this confusion vanished as the Pages proceeded timidly through the haze of high school and emerged as Heralds. They became familiar with the history, traditions, and regulations of Southeast High. Their fields of interest broadened as they became eligible for sports and participation in various activities of school life. The sophomores became more interested in cultivating new friendships and in establishing and maintaining higher scholastic standing for themselves. They became acquainted with the library (sometimes through desire but often by request). Some have become interested in art, some in speech, others in music, athletics, shop, or languages. The sophomore has begun to find himself.

Freshman Class

No longer will the freshman enter Southeast with a puzzled look on his face and his heart in his mouth, for he will become familiar with the building as an eighth-grader and will feel "at home." Although there are many things he must still learn, the bewildered look on his face has almost disappeared. He has been a Page during the year — observing further the customs of Southeast and learning his duties as a participant in the daily life of the Castle. By assuming his responsibilities, he will prepare himself to become an efficient Herald.

Eighth Grade

At last—someone to whom the freshman can display his knowledge!! Yes, the eighth grade pupil! Teachers and pupils welcomed him and hoped that he would quickly enter into life as we know it in the Castle.

The first of September found each Apprentice-Page eager and anxious to learn what lay in store for him during his stay in our Castle.

During this unusual year, despite eighth hours and other possible "inconveniences," he learned the ideals of Knighthood and the responsibilities that are to be his.

Through a daily program of common learnings, physical education, arithmetic, and two fine arts, the Apprentice-Page became better fitted for the duties in his ever-present goal—Knighthood.

The purpose of the A.A.U.W. is to encourage girls to continue their education after graduation from high school. Four sophomore girls with especially high scholastic attainments are chosen each year and remain members throughout their junior and senior years.

The American Association of University Women holds teas several times a year when lectures on various colleges and universities are given to all A.A.U.W. girls. Miss Minnie Dingee is the sponsor.

Painting the scenery for all the school productions and acting as decoration committee for "Knight Club" are also some of their activities.

A student must have a grade of, at least, an "S" in art, must have shown talent in the work he has done in class, and must receive the majority vote of the club to become a member. Membership in the club is limited because of the scarcity of materials. Miss Martha Abbott is sponsor of the club.

The Southeast Round Table, our student-governing body, has again completed a successful year. The Round Table has not only tried to stress the ideal of good character, but it has also tried to develop leadership among students.

One of the many activities sponsored by the Round Table this year was the flag contest. Different flag designs were presented to the Round Table, and after much discussion, Bill Hayward's design was selected and is now used as our school flag. The Round Table also sponsored various types of mixers.

Suggestions for improvements concerning the school and its activities are submitted to the Round Table through the representatives of the home rooms. The best of these suggestions are considered, voted on, and carried out if they are feasible. Miss Latshaw is sponsor of the Club.

The Penthouse Players, sponsored by Miss Maria Feters, is a group of advanced speech students who are primarily interested in dramatics. The plays produced in the little theatre in room 212 provide additional experience in play production, acting, directing, costuming, stage make-up, stage lighting, and stage scenery. Qualification for membership is based upon public performances in plays, assemblies, radio broadcasting, public speaking, and staff work.

The Penthouse Players develop talent and leadership in the field of dramatics and at the same time build appreciation for better types of plays.

The theme for the 1946-7 season is "Theatre Around the World." The plays that will be produced this year are:

1. Chinese—The Willow Plate.
2. Christmas—Christmas Around the World.
3. French—Doctor in Spite of Himself.
4. Russian—The Feminine Touch.
5. Irish—The Doctor from Dunmore.

Initiation

The Dracones Club, sponsored by Miss Mary Virginia Clarke, is composed of Latin students. The club as a whole is a member of the National Junior Classical League. The second year pupils are members of the National Association for Promotion of the Study of Latin.

The new members are elected and act as Roman slaves to the older members until initiation when they are taken across the River Styx to appear before Pluto, who grants them their freedom after they have performed many deeds of valor. This year, history and mythology were the subjects chosen for special study.

The Spanish Club, the Centinelas, sponsored by Miss Herberta Towner, is composed of students who are enrolled in Spanish. By means of skits, songs, games, and fiestas, opportunity is afforded the members to become better acquainted with the language and to learn more of the customs of Spanish speaking people.

The annual Christmas party is a chili supper.

At the annual Pan-American Day banquet held in the school cafeteria, the student who is the most advanced in the use of the Spanish language receives a medal.

"It Pays to be Smart"

Everyone in Southeast knows "It Pays To Be Smart." During assembly time, December 5, in the Southeast auditorium, six seniors took part in a science radio quiz program sponsored by radio station WHB and the University of Kansas City. The participants were Shirley McDonald, Howard Harrenstein, Paul Walkup, Foster Redding, Martha Ellen Cole, and Billy Booy.

Robert Clark was ready to act as substitute had one of the other six been absent.

As was the custom in an old-fashioned spelling bee, each contestant dropped out of the contest when he missed a question. Foster Redding was presented a twenty-five dollar savings bond for winning first place, and Billy Booy who was a close second received a check for ten dollars.

Knightslites

Church bells, dumbbells, schoolbells—these bells and many more rang out in the 1946 Knightlites, under the direction of Miss Martha Abbott.

The curtain rose on the colorful stage setting designed by Patty Lynn and constructed by Mr. Boyd Johnson and his stage crew. Three large bells, lent by the J. C. Nichols Company, hung from the top of the stage and formed the center attraction.

Perhaps the most fascinating number presented was the Indian bells which portrayed an ancient tribal dance in beautiful feather costumes lent by the Mic-O-Say tribe of the Boy Scouts.

South American music and dancing by the Cuban Belles was definitely a bright spot in the production.

In evening dress, the Beta couples presented a mock wedding.

Round and round we go with the Merry-go-round, the Ink Spots and the song "Carousel".

Light comedy included the dumbbells or "Comic Strip Characters" and the dinner bell or "What Size Grapefruit Do You Wear," by the girl and boy senior lines respectively.

N.B.C. Chimes or "Nothing but Corn" lived up to its name and provoked much laughter from the audience.

The faculty, dressed as young children, sang "Mister, Have You Got an Apple on a Stick?" They followed their song with a dance.

After playing to a full house both nights, November 22 and 23, the final curtain came down on a happy, but tired, group of teachers and students who had worked together successfully to present the sixth production of Knightlites at Southeast.

"Ramshackle Inn", a murder comedy by George Batson, was the excellent choice for the 1947 spring play produced by Miss Feters and the drama class. The dilapidated appearance of the hotel lobby, the rapid and unexpected unfolding of the plot, and the realistic storm sound effects were especially appreciated by the large audience. The acting of JoAnn Swetnam as Miss Pryde and David Smalley as Patton was outstanding.

For years, Miss Belinda Pryde has saved her money in nickels and dimes in order to buy a hotel modeled after Grand Hotel. She purchases "Ye Olde Colonial Inn" and is surprised to find when she arrives that it is a tumble-down place situated near the ocean. Miss Pryde opens the hotel for guests on a wild stormy night when the activities of a gang of racketeers operating along the coast reaches a climax. One by one strange characters arrive at the hotel. Miss Pryde meets many people but not the type that she had expected to meet. Among them are Patton, the local leader of the band of gangsters, and his confederates, Dr. Russell, and his wife, Gail. Miss Pryde is compelled to dispose of several of the gangsters single handed. Even the local constable and a famous FBI agent, Matilda Janeway, are impressed by her ability to cope with her "guests".

Throughout these encounters with murderers, secret agents, and corpses, Belinda is strengthened by the presence of Commodore Towser, a friend for twenty years, who she hopes someday will have the courage to propose to her. She meets Mame Duncan, the original owner of the hotel, Mame's son Bill, and many other guests who appear and disappear very mysteriously. The climax of the play comes when Miss Pryde discovers and captures the real leader of the gang.

"Ramshackle Inn" probably ranks as the best play ever produced at Southeast High School. It was highly entertaining. Congratulations to Miss Feters and every member of the cast.

Southeast is fortunate in having Mr. B. E. Markley and Mrs. Wanda Musgrave as directors of musical activities. Under their able direction, the music department has given many excellent performances. This year Ora L. Sullivan was the accompanist for the vocal classes.

The members of the band played for the football and basketball games, and marched in the American Royal Parade. The band also took part in the Christmas assembly, the R.O.T.C. circus, the All-

City Band Festival, and the Music Festival.

This year the orchestra played for the Eighth Grade Induction ceremony, Open House program, Knightlites, Spring Play, Music assembly, All-City Orchestra Festival, and the Music Festival.

The a cappella choir sang for Open House, Christmas assembly, and various programs, including the Festival of Music. They sang for the "It Pays to be Smart" broadcast on W.H.B. in December, and also recorded a program of Christmas music which was broadcast December 25, on K.M.B.C.

The girls' glee club sang at the Christmas assembly and the Music Festival. Mr. B. E. Markley directed all the above activities.

The mixed chorus and eighth grade classes performed in the Christmas assembly and the Music Festival. They were directed by Mrs. Wanda Musgrave.

The music department held a solo contest in the spring, and both vocal and instrumental students presented solos and were rated by outside judges.

The C. O. E. vocational program was added to the Southeast curriculum this year. Juniors and seniors who can meet the educational requirements and who are over sixteen years of age may enroll. There are now twenty-two seniors in the class. The first three hours of each school day are spent in class work, after which all C. O. E.

members leave Southeast to work at their place of employment for which they receive regular wages. A minimum of fifteen hours of work is required on each job per week. For this "on the job training," full high school credit is allowed by the school. This credit is accepted by most universities.

The C. O. E. is under the direct supervision of the co-ordinator, Mr. Cecil Coombe, who obtains the jobs, visits the C. O. E. members on their jobs, and works with the employers to obtain better working conditions and improved relations between the students and their employers.

Football

The "All-American Sport," football, starts in the fall of each year in the high schools all over the United States. The Southeast team has always proved a worthy contender and always provides its share of thrills. The 1946 Knight team first played a non-league game with the Hornets of North Kansas City High School. The Hornets were stung by a 12-0 set-back. This was the first time in eight years that the Knights were able to beat the Hornets.

The following week Southeast met the Manual High School squad, but the result was a 7-6 score in the Cardinals' favor.

Southeast lost the two following games to Southwest and Central with the scores of 21-6 and 21-7, respectively. This placed the Knights in last position in the league.

The next game was the biggest upset of the year. The Knights defeated the league leading Northeast Vikings 6-0. Filled with confidence, the Knights came back in the next games to defeat Westport 24-7 and East met the same fate 6-0. The Knights tied for third place in the Interscholastic League when they triumphed over the Paseo Pirates.

Individual players were well rewarded for their excellent work. Kenneth Soxman, Southeast's all-round end and a two-year letterman, was the only Knight on the First Team All-Star squad. Leslie Yohn, tackle, Don Baldwin, a two-year letterman at end, and Bud Laughlin, "galloping" fullback and only a junior, all made the Second Team All-Star squad. Bill White and Jim Fister, guards, gained honorable mention for their fine playing.

Southeast wishes to congratulate coaches Cecil Patterson and Charles Huhn, as well as the team, for a most exciting and successful football season.

Southeast won only one basketball game this year, but all the games were thrilling to watch and many were lost by only a few points. The one victory by our school was over the Southwest Indians who placed third in the league.

Hard luck seemed to follow our team during the entire season. Two games were lost by only one point, another by three points, and still another to the undefeated league champions, Northeast, by only four points. In this game the Knights came closer to defeating Northeast than any other team in the league. This score indicated that our team was the "fightingest" team in the league and the team deserves much credit for their "never say die" spirit.

Congratulations to Coach Huhn and Coach Adams for their successful season. This is Coach Huhn's third season as basketball coach.

Medals are also awarded by the Heart of America Legion Post to the three outstanding cadets in the first and second years.

RIFLE TEAM: The Battalion Rifle Team enjoyed a highly successful season, firing the highest score in the Hearst Trophy Match among all high schools in Kansas City. This was also the highest score fired since 1941 by a Kansas City team. The team finished in third place in the City Match. R. G. Ozias fired the highest score of all competitors entered in this match. Appropriate medals and trophies have been awarded to this team and to R. G. Ozias.

Dear Classmates and Teachers:

You have now reached the end of your Crusader, just as we have reached the end of our high school life. Here is the book that we have thought about, dreamed about, and worked on for ten months; the book you have wondered about; and for which you have waited patiently. We have tried to make it interesting—a small facsimile of your high school life, as you know it, and a book that in later years you will read with pride and pleasure. We hope that you will enjoy this book as greatly as we who have made it enjoyed the work that it involved.

Sincerely,

THE 1947 CRUSADER STAFF
