INSPIRATIONS

HARRY R. McMILLAN, Principal

DEAR SENIORS:

Each senior owes an eternal debt for education received at public expense. The taxpayer is the investor. He cannot be repaid in monetary values. However, evidence can be given that the investment is sound through your being completely loyal to your flag; to democracy and education; to the freedoms of religion, speech, press, and assembly; to free labor and private enterprise; and to all that has made and will keep the United States of America the best place on earth to live. This, then, is your personal responsibility, your service opportunity, your patriotic challenge. Let your loyalty to all that we cherish initiate, direct, and sustain your activities all the days of your life.

Sincerely yours,

HARRY R. McMILLAN, Principal

GEORGE R. POWELL, Vice-Principal

DEAR SENIORS:

The loyalties which men feel are sure to reveal their true character. Here at Southeast our loyalties are well expressed by our love for "Truth, Honor, Freedom, and Fair Courtesy." We also feel a deep loyalty to the ideals of Democracy as they are set forth in our State and Federal Constitutions. These loyalties prompt us to protect the rights of every citizen regardless of race, creed, color, or economic condition. Our success in fostering these ideals has earned for us an enviable reputation among all freedom-loving people of this world.

May we not rightfully expect that our graduates will firmly establish and uphold these "Human Rights" through the United Nations and through international trade so that these rights may be extended to and enjoyed by every human being on earth.

Sincerely yours,

GEORGE R. POWELL, Vice-Principal

Seniors Render Years of Service

Years of service lie behind him;
His Southeast days are past.
But to his chivalrous ideals
The senior Knight holds fast.
And on life's road ahead of him
He'll guard them 'till the last.

We, the senior Knights, will soon mount our steeds and ride forth into the tournament of life. During the last five years, we have striven to improve ourselves and to make an honorable record in the Castle.

A sincere feeling of gratitude fills our hearts—gratitude to our parents and to our teachers who have helped us achieve graduation. We realize that the glory of Knighthood is not ours alone, but it is rightly shared with all our high school friends.

Juniors Prepare for Knighthood

The Squire has long prepared himself
For his senior year ahead.
Leadership and service, too,
He has given cheerfully.
Before him lies the shining road
That only seniors tread.

Our time is fast approaching, and soon we shall be ready to take places of leadership as Knights. Throughout our years at Southeast, we have endeavored to prepare ourselves for this last year.

Athletics, social projects, and scholarship have combined to give us an active part in Castle life. We offer our accomplishments in these fields as proof of our eligibility for Knighthood.

Before us is a shining road. With an eager desire to serve and a firm determination to succeed, we shall travel it well.

Sophomores Participate in Activities

With confidence and poise, the Herald
Emerges from the rest.
He shows interest in activities
Where sports and clubs are stressed.
Thus he learns the ways of the Castle
And how to use his talents best.

Upon the completion of our first two years in the Castle, we understand better the meaning of the principles and traditions of Southeast. No longer do we think of chivalry as a complicated maze, but it has become reality to us.

We have developed a keen interest in extracurricular activities. Through our participation in sports and clubs, we are learning the value of associating and working with our classmates.

Freshmen Explore New Fields of Learning

To explore fields of learning
 The Page is waiting, too,
 To assume more responsibility
 And to pledge himself anew—
 To grow in truth and honor
 'Neath his colors, red and blue.

This year we have become acquainted with the many interesting subjects offered in the Castle. While exploring these fields of learning, we have gained a better appreciation of education; and our desire for learning has been increased.

We realize that the Castle is not built around textbooks alone, but it also presents a code for chivalrous living which challenges every loyal Knight to practice truth and honor so that he may walk proudly beneath his school colors, red and blue.

Eighth Graders Learn Knightly Traditions

The Apprentice Page has learned
 A code of honor to live by,
 And he has crossed the mighty threshold
 Into his years at Southeast High.
 He has built a strong foundation—
 May his Castle reach the sky.

Our first year at Southeast has introduced us to a new world in which we have received guidance and encouragement from the Guild-masters of the Castle.

With a strong foundation of knowledge and ideals, we shall strive to contribute to life in the Castle. Although we do not as yet have a full conception of Southeast's traditions, we shall not tire in our endeavor to achieve our goal of Knighthood.

Through representation from the individual homerooms, the Round Table, sponsored by Mr. Langford, gives each student a voice in its activities and decisions. This year, the Round Table Constitution was amended so that each homeroom is now allowed two representatives rather than only one. A football bonfire and victory dance highlighted their activities for the year.

Outstanding and unusual programs highlighted the 1953-54 Teen-Town season. With a larger membership than ever before, the Southeast Knight Club provided a Saturday evening of fun for many.

The festive Halloween dance, St. Valentine dance, Football Victory dance, and the Senior Farewell were the outstanding events of the season.

Under the leadership of Mr. Cross, Mr. Tira, Miss Mosman, Mrs. Hunter, and Mrs. Graham, the Teen Town officers and committees worked to make this one of the most successful Teen-Town seasons.

“States” Knightlites Enjoyed by All

“States” was the theme for this year’s outstanding production of Knightlites. Large crowds packed the auditorium December 10, 11, and 12, to see the sixteenth annual performance of Southeast’s Variety Show. The combined efforts of Miss Martha Abbot, Miss Dorothy Canham, Mr. Ben Markley, the faculty, and the students presented an enjoyable and successful show.

A painted map of the forty-eight states provided colorful scenery for the stage. Each state was individually lighted when its corresponding act was presented.

“Missouri” was the first state to follow the orchestra’s overture of “Romberg Melodies.” A chorus of eight couples sang Missouri’s praises and formed a train to tour the other states.

“Pecos Bill” was presented by the Betas. Jo Ann Fish and Bob Hooper played guitar melodies while the campers, seated around the bonfire, spun tales of the famous Texan hero. Their square-dance skirts, blue jeans, cowboy hats, and boots made this an especially attractive scene. Twirling her lasso, Florence Newsom completed the Texas number with her clever reading of “I’m Tired of Texas.”

“Once in Love with Amy,” Eddie Steiner was certainly in a “State of Satisfaction.” As Eddie sang, Kay Harkins did a bouncy dance to add to the sparkling number. A quick change to a “State of Flexibility” was given by Yvonne Strode who did another of her amazing acrobatic dances.

Sandra Steele played a Hawaiian group of songs on the marimba to represent Hawaii which is “Almost a State.”

Roars of laughter greeted “Iowa,” the speech skit. The scene was set at a typical Iowa state fair, and the action centered around the booth where home-cooked delicacies were judged. Beth Fowler and Carolyn Stewart, the Frome sisters; Nancy Payne, Mrs. Rollins; and Florence Newsom and Ronald Pine, the judges, gave a hilarious portrayal of the pickle contest.

The South was well represented with numbers from Alabama, North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Florida, Mississippi, and Georgia. Lovely gowns of white net and satin were worn by the ballerinas who danced to “Ebb Tide.” Clark Smith sang this number to represent the state of Mississippi. The senior couples waltzed to “Carolina Moon” in their attractive formals and suits. Earl Crawford, representing a Southern preacher, and speech students, as his congregation, presented an effective revival scene from “Louisiana.” The girls’ octet sang “Sleepy Time Down South” and were followed by Shirley Fenton who did a lively tap dance to “Sweet Georgia Brown.”

Glenna Ellis and Oletha Ludwig blushed a bit in their crisp white ruffled dresses because “People Will Say We’re in Love.” Eddie Steiner and Gary Walton were their partners in this attractive number.

The biggest surprise came when Daniel Raymond, dressed as a girl, sang and danced “Ohio.” He surely had us fooled!

“On the Sidewalks of New York,” we found a large cast of girls in youthful costumes jumping rope, playing “Ring Around a Rosie” and “London Bridge.” Sylvia Flannery sang a lovely version of the familiar old song.

A patriotic tribute to the “State of the Nation” was given by Louis Eckstein and David Morton. The entire cast sang “The Battle Hymn of the Republic” in the finale which lowered the curtain on the 1954 presentation of Knightlites.

"January Thaw," a sparkling family-situation comedy, melted the hearts of the audiences who saw it presented by the speech students under the direction of Miss Fetters on February 26 and 27.

The story involves a city family, the Herbert Gages, who moved to a Connecticut farm to escape the hustle of city life. Mathilda, Matt, and Jonathan Rockwood, the former owners, return to their home after an absence of six years. A hilarious contest, in which both families try to gain possession of the house, follows.

Herbert Gage settles down with his wife and three daughters to write a "best seller." The Gages spent thousands of dollars "modernizing" the house with electricity, inside plumbing, and carpeting. Jonathan and Mathilda frown on such "modern inconveniences" and start putting "their house" into shape.

Herbert protests and calls on Mr. Loomis, his lawyer, to work on the case. The Rockwoods sold their land with the understanding that they would have the right to use it as long as they live. Immediately after the sale, they went in search of their son Matt. The Gages who supposed that the Rockwoods were dead bought the house and moved into it. Mr. Loomis promised to solve the case as soon as possible; but, in the meantime, the Rockwoods have to live in the farmhouse, too.

Barbara, the oldest daughter of the Gages, is in love with George Husted. After some hesitation, George proposes to her; and the two plan to be married as soon as George is graduated from college. Meanwhile, Barbara and Matt leave the farmhouse to give aid to a sick neighbor. The two families suspect Barbara and Matt of eloping.

A violent storm prevents the Gages from going to the store to buy the week's supply of groceries. The electricity fails; and they are left with only olives, corn flakes, and molasses for breakfast. Delicious odors of ham and eggs come from the bedroom where the Rockwoods are eating. The irresistible fragrance of food melts the Gages' pride; and, one by one, they go into the Rockwoods' bedroom to eat. The two families become reconciled, and they enjoy their breakfast together.

Then Barbara and Matt return and announce the birth of the Gorley's baby. They assure their families that they are not married. George and Barbara are then reunited and continue their plans for marriage.

As the Gages plan to remodel the barn so that the two families may live on the farm as close and understanding friends, the curtain falls.

Music Department Enriches School Life

"Old Faithful" might well be used to describe the dependability of our music department. It seems as if there is never a special event at Southeast but that the music department is here adding color and gaiety to the occasion. The work of the various music classes under the direction of Mr. Ben Markley, Mr. Edwin P. Suderman, and Miss Mary Spiegel is enjoyed by students, teachers, and parents alike.

Along with our outstanding record in athletics this year, we can be proud of our band's successful appearances at football and basketball games. An added event for the band was the groundbreaking ceremony when the traditional first scoop of ground was shoveled to start the work on our new addition.

The activities of the orchestra have been very varied this year. Under the direction of Mr. Markley, the orchestra played for Knightlites, the Spring Play, the Eighth Grade Induction, in the Music Festival, and in the All-City-Orchestra Festival.

Outstanding students from the band attended a Band Clinic at Warrensburg on February 6. The String Clinic for orchestra students was held at Columbia on March 16 and 17.

Throughout the year, the a cappella choir presented outstanding work. The choir achieved high standards of balance, quality, and variety when they represented Southeast at the All-City Choir Festival, the Businessmen's Bible Class, and on a radio program of Christmas music on WDAF. Southeast students enjoyed hearing the choir in assemblies, the Music Festival, and commencement exercises.

The girls' octet consists of girls chosen by Mr. Markley for their superior singing ability. They have demonstrated their outstanding talent by singing in Knightlites, for civic groups, and in the Music Festival.

Mr. Suderman directs the boys' chorus, the girls' glee, the eighth grade mixed chorus, and the boys' quartet. These groups had a variety of performances including Music Festival, Businessmen's Bible Class, and other church and civic groups. Southeast students will remember them for the delightful music they presented in assemblies throughout the year.

Parents and visitors had the opportunity of seeing Southeast's entire music department at our annual Music Festival. This event was a vivid demonstration of the industry and fine musical talent of our Southeast students.

INTERSCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONS

Southeast's greatest football team was a combination of a great group of boys and a superb coaching performance by Mr. Patterson, Mr. Chamblee, and Mr. Bates. The Knights of '53 brought City and Interscholastic League championships to Southeast. They were acclaimed the greatest high school football team in Kansas City in the last twenty years.

We knew the Knights had an exceptional potential, and we gloried in their superb accomplishments as the season progressed. These Knights made a wonderful TEAM. Outstanding players were numerous, and they were blended in such a manner as to complement each other to the fullest. The championships were the result of ability and spirit which were reflected in the actions of the football players and the student body.

The courageous loyalty of Knights is truly reflected in the football team of '53. A résumé of the games will best give the criteria of their glorious victories.

North Kansas City was first to fall before the devastating power of our Knights. Taylor wasted little time in showing his heels to the Hornets, twice crossing their goal line in the first quarter. Crowley, Taylor, and Trocosso scored in the second quarter, and the reserves took over in the third and fourth quarters. The Hornets managed to score in the final period and the game ended in a 39-13 Knight victory.

Paseo's Pirates angered the Knights when they blocked a punt in the first quarter to take a 7 point lead. Taylor ran wild behind the terrific blocking of his team mates. He scored five times, ran 239 yards from scrimmage, and set a new league record by traveling 99 yards from scrimmage on one run. Doyle and Carney each added a touchdown, and Pelletier booted four conversions to make the final score 46-7.

East's first running play after the kickoff resulted in a Knight touchdown. Crowley scooped up a Bear fumble and scooted across the goal line. The Bears battled valiantly but were unable to cope with the powerful Knights. Cartwright burst through the Bear defense in the first quarter for a second Knight score. Taylor made a spectacular run in the second quarter to score. Cartwright wasted little time in dashing for a third quarter score, and Campbell pushed over for the final score on a quarterback sneak. Two conversions were made; the final score was 32-0.

Northeast's Vikings met the Knights and had their championship hopes crushed as the Knights rambled to a 33-0 triumph. Cartwright broke things wide open in the first quarter when he dashed through center, broke to the side line, and crossed the Viking goal. Taylor followed with a spectacular 45 yard pass to Trocosso who ran another 19 yards. Gary Fuqua then made a beautiful catch of a pass deflected by a Northeast defender for the second score. The Knight defenders consistently overwhelmed the Vikings while Taylor added two brilliant runs for scores. Campbell added one to the total.

The Knights ran for 303 yards and passed for 95 more to make a grand total of 398 yards from scrimmage.

Raytown's Bluejays presented a real problem for the Knights. Taylor dashed around his right end and ran 26 yards to the first Knight score. Raytown bounced right back on a long run by Pratt and the score stood 7-7 at the half. Taylor's defensive work in this period was sensational. The second half saw the Knights get their blocking assignments lined out, and they really clicked. Taylor scored three times. The Knights thrilled the spectators with their brilliant blocking and tackling in this game. Cartwright added the four extra points in his first conversion assignments of the year.

The Knights were heavy favorites over the Westport Tigers, but the Tigers were ferocious in their attack. Ross kept the Knight fans gasping as he drove through center on crossbucks. They invaded Knight territory several times but could not break through the stubborn Knight defense. Bill Daily broke their greatest threat by intercepting a Tiger pass. Taylor made a zig-zag dash of 45 yards for the first Knight tally. Cartwright laid a beautiful pass into the hands of Fuqua for the second Knight score. The Tigers continued to claw at the Knights, but Taylor managed to evade them for the final touchdown. Cartwright made his only conversion and the score was 19-0 when the gun sounded.

The Eagles of Central were not expected to give the Knights much of a test. Cartwright slashed through center on the first Knight play, cut to the side line as his blockers got into position and then followed them over the goal line standing up. Taylor broke loose for the second tally, then took a pass from Cartwright, and scampered across the goal for the third score. The final touchdown was set up on a spectacular charge by Taylor who carried to the 2 yard line; from there Campbell carried it across on a quarterback sneak. Pelletier converted for the only extra point of the game. Southeast 25—Central 0.

The Knights went forth and scalped Southwest's Indians 40-0. The first half was quite a battle and the Knights fought desperately to build a 14-0 lead. Cartwright crashed over for the first Knight score. Later he passed to Carney for 32 yards, and Taylor carried it over the remaining yardage on the next play. The second half saw the Knights taking complete charge. Sykes recovered an Indian fumble to give the Knights possession. On the next play Taylor scampered 49 yards to score. Taylor intercepted an Indian pass a few minutes later, and Carney followed this with a brilliant scoring run. Cartwright went 30 yards for a score on the Knights next possession of the ball. With ten seconds left to play and Roger Taylor needing a touchdown to tie brother Corky's record, Linck tossed him a pass out in the flat, and he made a spectacular dash down the side line for the final score. Roger tried for the extra point but his kick was blocked. The gun sounded ending the game, and the Knight spectators rose and sang the Southeast Ode as our champions stood silently on the field.

City champion honors were won by trouncing Rockhurst's Hawklets 48-13 on Bourke field. Taylor sprinted around left end on the Knights first possession for a 60 yard touchdown run. Cartwright crashed the center of the Hawklets' line for the second touchdown. The valiant Hawks came back for a couple of touchdowns, but Sykes, aided by excellent blocking returned the kickoff for another Knight tally. The second half was all Southeast's with Cartwright romping 58 yards and Carney raced 35, 53, and 72 yards on three scoring dashes. Cartwright made 6 of his 7 conversion attempts to add to the total. Certainly this was a fitting climax to a wonderful season.

Nice teamwork, boys.

B Squad Trains for Next Season

The Knight reserves enjoyed a rather successful season since they had 8 wins and only 4 losses. If any of next year's opponents think that next year's varsity will be easy, we feel they will have a surprise.

In League play the reserves won three and lost three. The offensive load was shared by ends Jim Shankland and Norman Baldwin; tackles Jerry Leslie, Bob Reeder, and Joe Ventimiglia; guards Tom McGhee and Grant Hilburn; centers Phil Loncar and Kirk Weidemann; backs Karl Keen, Dan Stanley, Mike Phillips, Don Jamieson, Bob Jamieson, Mike Cartwright, and Don Blaylock. On defense, the load was borne by ends Larry Willis and Art Allen; tackles Jerry Leslie, Jim Stephens, and Mike Lentz; guards Grant Hilburn and George Wilkerson; backs Phil Loncar, Bob Hadden, Bob Fuqua, Kenny Johnson, and Chet Carter.

C Squad

The Knight-freshman team had an unsteady season because of the lack of practice. They finished the season with 3 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. Carrying the offensive load were: triple threater Skip Snyder, fullback; Dick Unruh, wingback; and Dick Herr, tailback, until he was sidelined by an injury. Guards K. D. Jackson and John Phillips, along with half-back Gary Thompson, were the blocking leaders. Ends Gene Wood and Ronnie Durns and center Ronnie Nolen turned in good performances in playing both offensive and defensive. Seeing heavy duty were guards Ritchie Woods and Ed Cash; tackles Dave Dawson, "Chuck" Powers, Charles Luthy, and Gerald Richards; ends Harry Knecht and Ronnie Ravenscraft; and back Ed Leslie.

We want a basket

Sharing the spotlight with the championship football team was the greatest basketball team Southeast has ever had. Coached by Mr. Adams and Mr. Bates, the able-bodied Knights went through an excellent season, winning 20 out of 22 games.

Not only did the tall Knights win a tie with Westport and Northeast for the Interscholastic League Title, but they won the State Regional Tourney and also went to the State Basketball Tournament. They became the first basketball team from Southeast to win a Regional Tournament and to play in a State Tourney. They were the second team to win the Interscholastic Title; our first was the 1949 team.

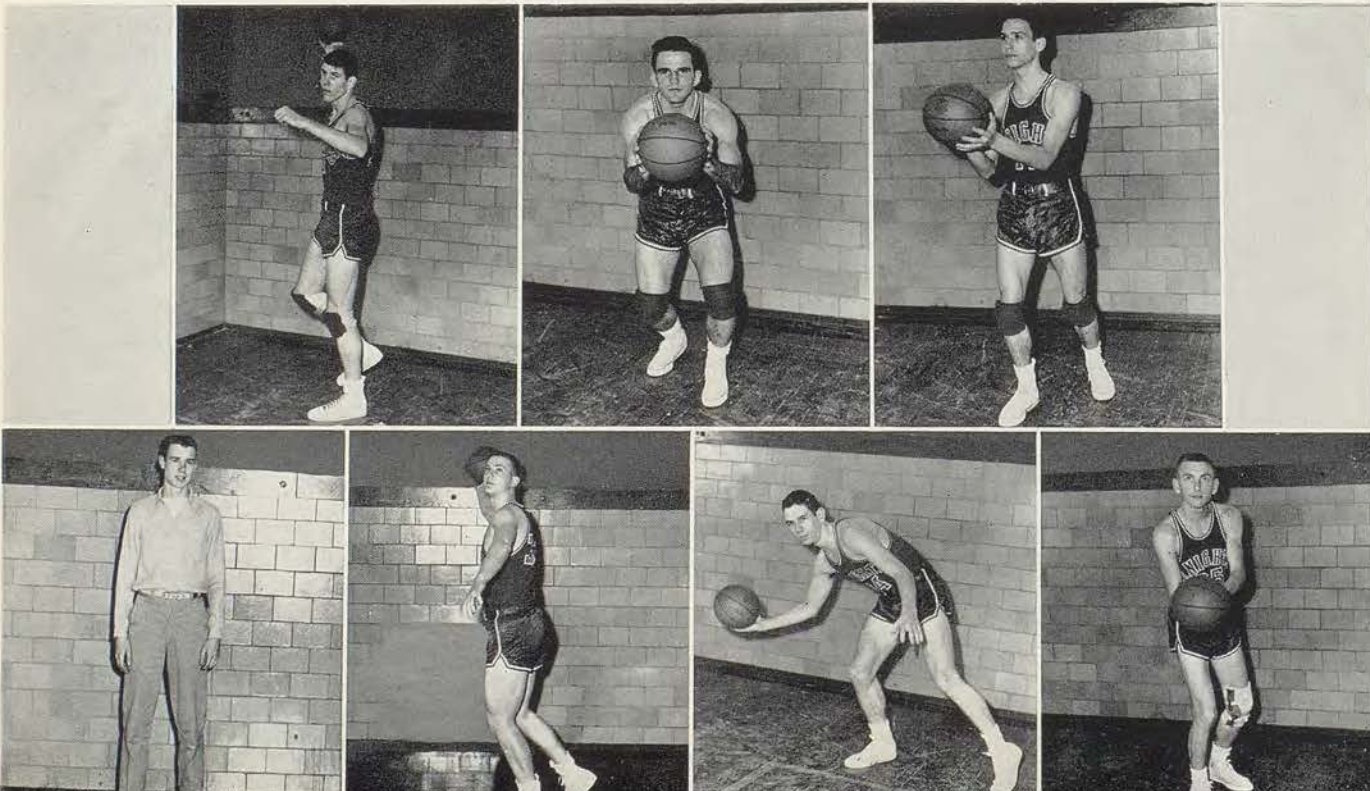

As with all championship teams, every one on the team contributed to its success. This year's team was composed of eight seniors: Kent Bryan, Pat Cartwright, Don Long, Harry Hutton, Roger Taylor, Gene Hampton, Bob Jones, and Ronnie Hildebrand; three juniors: Bob Davis, Don Hymer, and Dan Stanley; and one sophomore: Mike Phillips.

To show the great teamwork of this year's players, here is an account of the games this year:

Right from the start our boys showed their superb ability by running over their first eight non-conference opponents. Entering the League with eight victories and no defeats, the Knights defeated Manual, 67-37, Central, 70-48, and Westport, 71-40. Pat Cartwright was the floor general and defensive star for the Knights, as he solved Westport's famed all-court press by bringing the ball up court successfully time after time. In this game as in many others, he held down the leading scorers and was always a threat at his guard position.

Northeast stopped the Knights' streak at twelve in a row. After recovering from their first defeat, the Knights rolled past Southwest, Paseo, North Kansas City, and East. The North Kansas City contest was one of the most thrilling games of the year. With two seconds left in the game and the score tied at 63-63, Kent Bryan, the Knights' All-Star center, found the range with a hook shot; and the Knights came out on top, 65-63. In this game Bryan scored thirty-eight points.

Entering the Regional Tourney at North Kansas City, the Knights had a fifteen-one record, the best in the Kansas City region. They defeated Hogan, 66-46, and Central, 49-31. In the championship game, the Knights led by Kent Bryan's phenomenal fifty points, defeated the North Kansas City Hornets, 80-69. With this victory, the Knights gained the right to represent the Kansas City district in the State Basketball Tournament at Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

Phillips-Forward Hymer-Forward Stanley-Guard Long-Forward Taylor-Guard Jones-Guard O'Byrne-Manager

The Knights' first opponent in the tourney was Crystal City, who had compiled a record of 27 victories and no losses, the longest winning streak in the state. Don Long, another of our outstanding players, contributed 15 points and grabbed many important rebounds. His fine shooting and his teamwork throughout the year gained him a berth on the Inter-scholastic League Second All-Star team. The Knights, adept at breaking records, showed no mercy for the Hornets and defeated them 69-58. With this victory, the Knights advanced to the quarter finals where they met Cape Girardeau Central High School.

This game proved disastrous for the Knights as they lost 80-64. The boys played a close game with the Tigers throughout the first three quarters, but then Kent Bryan, who was the Knights' main threat on offense and defense, fouled out. From there on, Cape kept control of the lead they had gained. Bob Davis, an outstanding player and returning letterman next year, seemed to spark the Knights in this contest. Southeast missed the brilliant playing of Harry Hutton, who was injured during the season. He was a fine shot, clever in passing, and an excellent rebounder, and his absence was very noticeable in the remaining games.

The 1953-54 team had the best record of any team in the history of Southeast. They were a wonderful group with a desire to cooperate, train, and win.

Next November the seniors will be missed, but the underclassmen, Hymer, Stanley, Phillips, and Davis will be the nucleus to build another great team.

The Southeast B team had one of the most successful seasons in second team history with 12 wins and only 5 losses. Seven sophomores and one junior were largely responsible for winning second place in League play. Al Laffoon, forward and a most consistent performer, played fine defensive ball and was the number 3 scorer. Mike Phillips, rugged forward, set a hot scoring pace in the League with a 15 point average. Harvey Greer, a spectacular guard and a fine hustler, was a tough defensive player and a good playmaker. Jerry Leslie, big center, was leading scorer and stood out in rebounding department. Mike Cartwright, "southpaw" guard and a good left-handed jump shooter, moved the ball rapidly and helped set up offense. Bob Butler, slender forward and lone junior, sparked the squad in scoring and rebounding during non-league play. Joe Haines, dependable handy-man, filled in relief role at all three positions, played best ball on the post where he used a good jump shot and defended in good shape. Dave Hoff, diminutive guard, short in size but long in spirit and hustle, sparked the club into the League by driving and moving the ball well and by "ball-hawking." Rounding out the squad were sophomores Jim Wilson, Phil Jones, and Skip Snyder, guards; and Jim Shankland, forward.

On April 2, the varsity team finished fifth in the state indoor meet. Dwight Darr won third place in both high and low hurdles; Bob Davis won second place in the broad jump and tied for third place in the pole vault.

Our boys gave a good account of their ability in the Shawnee-Mission Relays. Pat Cartwright won first place in the broad jump; Robert Butler tied for second place in the broad jump; Bob Davis won second place in the pole vault; Tom Keefe tied for fourth place in the high jump; and Dwight Darr won third place in the high hurdles and second place in the low hurdles. A team composed of Don Carney, Jim Lyle, Roger Taylor, and Karl Keen placed third in the 880 yard relay.

All-star teams are organized in each gymnasium hour. The all-star teams compete against each other. Teams winning class championships are awarded a shield and given two points; also, teams winning school championships are awarded K's and given five points.

At the end of the year, the boy accumulating the most points is awarded a large chenille shield, and the runner-up is given a smaller chenille shield.

We have the two letter systems in the boys' Physical Education Department—one for the eighth grade and one for the upper classmen with the same system of awards for both groups.

Southeast's Dreams Come True

An audience of parents, teachers, and students gathered on the northeast lawn of the campus to witness the long-awaited ground-breaking ceremony on Tuesday, November 10.

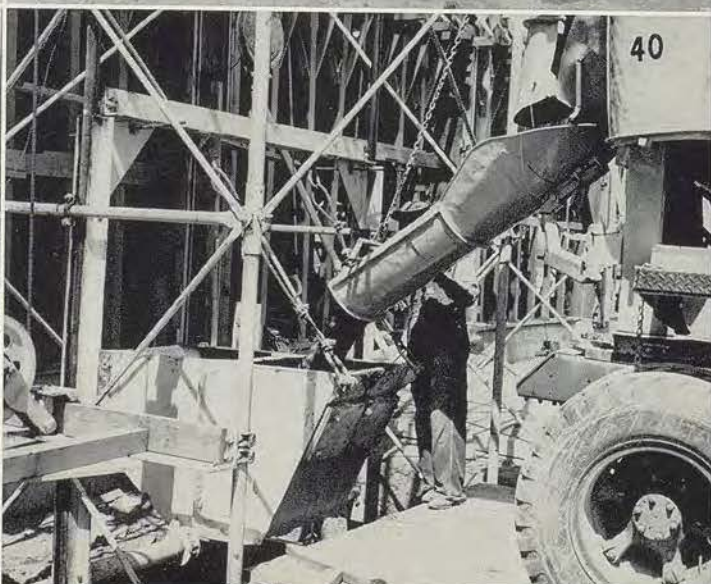

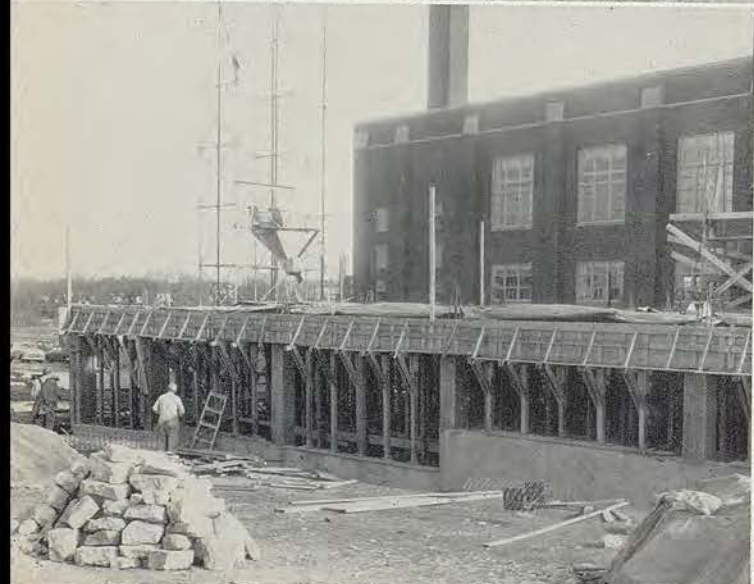

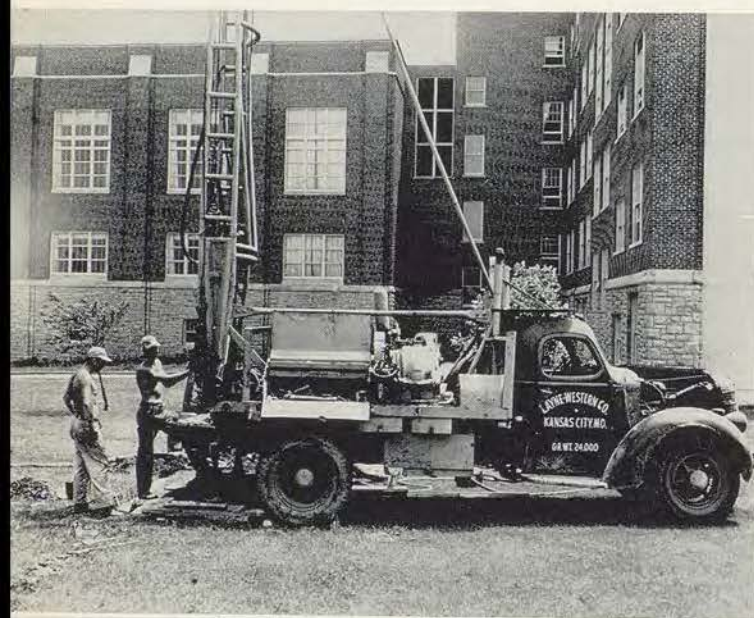

After the invocation by Dr. W. Ross Edwards, Mr. Ray O. Joslin, president of the Board of Education, delivered the address. Then he turned the traditional first shovel of dirt which is symbolic of the beginning of construction, although actual construction began on October 29.

The work is being done by the Winn-Senter Construction Company, the Plaza Electric Company, and the A. D. Jacobson Plumbing Company. The total cost of the construction will be $811,128. The addition will include an art room, a science laboratory, a drafting room, a large study hall, six rooms for English and social studies, two girls' rooms, storage space, lockers, dressing rooms, a swimming pool, and a balcony for the auditorium.

The addition will be built to conform to the present Southeast style of architecture. The classrooms, however, will be modern in style with a varied color scheme for the walls.

In the northeast wing, our new gymnasium will be built to meet the needs of our growing school and make it possible for sports events to be held here at Southeast. The outside area of the gymnasium will be 104 feet by 86½ feet which will include the actual playing area and room for 1228 spectators to sit. The actual playing area will measure 84 feet by 45 feet. A movable partition will divide the gymnasium in half. Thus it will be possible to have two areas for physical education classes and one large area for sports events.

With Long Awaited Addition

Underneath the gymnasium will be a boys' locker room, a drafting room, and the woodshop extension. The girls will use the boys' present dressing room and their own present one as well. Also, the northeast section of the ground floor will provide a new drafting room. The old drafting room will become a vocal music room. The wood shop will be enlarged to the north of the present room.

The inside area of the swimming pool will be 60 feet by 21 feet which is the standard size for the establishment of contest records. The pool will be surfaced with blue-green ceramic tile, and it will be equipped with a diving board. A girls' new locker room with shower facilities and electric hair dryer will be built for use with the pool.

There will be a balcony added in the auditorium which will seat approximately 500 people, thus making the total seating capacity of the auditorium 1592. Fire doors and an extra exit from the cafeteria will be built to conform with fire regulations.

We of Southeast are very grateful to everyone who has made this addition possible. We realize the tremendous effort and expense involved in it, and we will do our best to prove worthy of our fine building.

Farewell

The Crusader Staff has finished its work. All year we have worked to make this Crusader the best one Southeast has ever had. We hope we have reached this goal. We would like to thank Mr. Tira, Miss Abbott, Miss Shouse, and Mr. Carter for their help in management, art, literary material, and photography, respectively. Without their assistance, the staff could never have given you this 1954 Crusader.

We know that all seniors join us in closing with this farewell:

Five eventful years have past,
And now the day has come at last
To don our caps and gowns in preparation
For that long awaited moment—graduation.
Some of us are sad and try to hide
The mixed emotions deep inside:
Regret that we must say good-bye
To all our friends at Southeast High.
Knightlites, Crusader—all are o'er
We'll walk these Castle halls no more.
Hope that you will carry on
All fine traditions when we are gone;
That in your zest, you'll never stop
Until Southeast has reached the top.
Gratitude to friends, teachers, parents, everyone—
Who helped us in the work we've done,
Who encouraged us to strive ahead
And walk the winding road that led

To our fondest goal, our expectation
That we attain at graduation.
Happiness to find the golden door
That leads to the world we've waited for;
Opportunities spring before our eyes
Priceless in value, mammoth in size.
We face the future unafraid—
Confident in the record we've made.
Humility—for through little merit of our own
Did we enjoy the friendships that we've known.
The good times and the bad ones, too,
The fellowship we have shared with you
Are not just memories dead and gone—
But in reality they will live on.
Through the halls our echoing voices ring
"On, Southeast Knights!" and the Chant we sing
As slowly through the open door
We pass—the Senior Knights of '54.
