Faith in our Creator and work consistent with that Faith will lighten our physical tasks, will ease our spiritual problems, and will lead us into fruitful fields of service. Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

Proverbs 4:7

HARRY R. McMILLAN, Principal

DEAR SENIORS:

Faith in hopes, dreams, and ambitions motivates man and nations to achieve. It is the very foundation of the glorious age in which we live. Prophet of man's achievement and of history that shall be recorded of any nation, faith is an invisible but mighty force. It gives power to overcome, to grow, to achieve. Truly, a nation's greatness is rooted in the faith of her citizens.

As expressed by Lincoln, "Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith, let us to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it."

Sincerely yours,
HARRY R. McMILLAN, Principal

GEORGE R. POWELL, Vice-Principal

DEAR SENIORS:

My faith leads me to believe that with the help of our Creator we do become better human beings. It tells me that each one of us who accepts His help is aware of numerous blessings which, in many cases, are both unexpected and undeserved. Such a faith holds that good can and does overcome evil wherever it occurs in the form of human weakness. It is a faith which leads us to believe in ourselves, in our free American institutions, and in our form of government. Here, each of us is entitled to his own religious faith. We are accustomed to make it the foundation of all our thinking on every problem of life.

In our beloved United States of America, our free American institutions were founded to protect all the good that our combined faiths have fostered. May the graduates of this class grow stronger in their faith and work to spread similar advantages for the benefit of mankind everywhere.

Sincerely,

GEORGE R. POWELL, Vice-Principal

Traditional Shields Record Achievements

We, the seniors of nineteen hundred fifty-six, have realized the value of tradition during our five years at Southeast. One of the rich traditions in our Castle is the hanging of class shields in our Great Hall. By this tradition, a history has been and will be preserved; but more valuable than the chronicle of these shields is the goal that they have set for us. Each graduating class strives to better previous records, and so through this tradition we may be assured that Southeast will always be ranking high. Now, at the end of our years in high school, as we symbolize our achievements, we feel proud of our record. Our pride is based on more than material things that we have won or accomplished. We are proud because we have, in our own way, helped to set a higher goal, thereby adding strength to the preservation of our worthwhile traditions at Southeast.

Knights Realize

The realization of our goal of Knighthood has finally been reached. After five years of diligent service and rewarding experiences, we have been awarded our crown. With this crown, come the responsibilities that lie ahead. True, we leave a small part of ourselves at Southeast; but the treasures we take with us far surpass what we leave behind. We will ever be grateful for the things which we have received from our alma mater, Southeast.

Pages Recognize

As we grow in stature, we clearly recognize our need for growth in knowledge. We are beginning to feel we are an important part of Southeast; we enjoy making contributions to Castle activities. We recognize the value of growing friendships. We not only enjoy our old acquaintances, but we strive to meet new classmates. With these friends, our realization of Knighthood will be more easily attained.

Apprentice Pages Analyze

We have started the climb to our ultimate goal—Knighthood. As we seek this lofty position, we analyze the qualifications of a Knight. We understand that truth, honor, freedom, and fair courtesy are the principal attributes. We shall strive to fulfill these ideals and become a part of the many noble traditions in the ensuing four years.

Beta Rewards Outstanding Records

Achievement, character, and leadership are the principles upon which the Beta Club is organized. Achievement of a grade index of 3.00 or above, a commendable character, and leadership displayed in school activities are the requirements for membership. Juniors and seniors who meet these standards are eligible for membership. This year's Beta Club was the largest in Southeast's history. There were sixty-two senior members. Mr. E. A. Smith sponsors Beta.

The Beta Club held its first Missouri Convention this year at Jefferson City. At the convention, Southeast received the honor of having Ernest Adelman, a junior, elected first state president. Beta's other activities each year include a formal dance, a family picnic, and various service projects.

Honor Cadets Participate in Crossed Rifles

The Crossed Rifles was formed in the spring of 1954 under the name of the Southeast R.O.T.C. Memorial Club.

As a result of the recent reorganization, the club is now an established honor military society through which the honor cadets of Southeast's battalion may take part in various extra-curricular activities. A few of these activities are the annual Queen's Reception, supplying firing squads for military funerals, and representing Southeast in city functions.

A cadet in Crossed Rifles is distinguished from the rest of the battalion by the white citation cord worn on his left shoulder.

The photography staff, headed by Mr. Carter, worked along with the Crusader staff photographing and developing the many pictures that were used. The job of making the book rhetorically and grammatically correct rested on Miss Shouse, the literary adviser. Striving for originality in design was the art adviser, Miss Denny, who worked with the co-art editors.

The Crusader staff hopes this book will serve as a lasting memento of your days at Southeast.

Southeast held an open house Tuesday, Nov. 8. The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Ben E. Miller, presented a program with "The Temptation" and other selections we had never heard of.

Mr. Harry R. Moore, principal of Southeast, and Dr. J. H. Miller, president of the Round Table, welcomed the guests.

The business part of the evening was directed by Mrs. M. J. Miller, first vice-president of the Parent-Teacher Association. She urged the parents to support the organization, and pointed out the many ways in which the school is dependent on membership.

For a school of its size, Southeast has almost everything. The membership of the Southeast High School Parents' Association is succeeding here in a choir, which will sing at the Autumn Evenson. This Lonesome Valley, "Run To My Arms," and "Let's Get Acquainted."

George R. Powell, vice-principal, used to invite the parents to acquaint themselves with the teaching force, equipment and the location of rooms. He also stressed that they should appreciate the more than one-hundred extra curricular activities present at Southeast.

After the program, the parents visited the classrooms. Mr. Krekel's world history class had projects, depicting early civilization, on display. The Latin department and the art room on first floor also had work on display.

In the ROTC rooms the boys had exhibits laid out for the parents to see.

Tower Members

Eight members of the Southeast newswriting staff attended the Missouri Interscholastic Press association conference at Missouri University on Friday, October 28. Those attending were Sandy Barnett, Diana Budd, Jo Fenton, Diane Gerow, Gail Hamel, Roy Mock, Connie Sejnost, Karen Vogt and Mr. Everett Hanan, who went along as adviser for the group.

The opening feature of the conference was a tour through the school of Journalism, where the "Columbia Missourian" is published daily.

Mr. Clarence Hach of Evanston Township high school, Evanston, Illinois lectured in the afternoon on "Representing Your School Program in Your Publications".

Classes on different phases of journalism were given to close the afternoon. The Southeast delegation attended the one on "Feature Material in Your Newspaper" taught by Mrs. Vivian Hansborough, journalism instructor at Stephens College. Other courses offered were "Your School Publication as a Public Relation Media", "Selling Advertising in Your

Dr. A. H. Chapman opened the afternoon session by talking about "Psychological Factors in Illness." He pointed out that the two hardest periods of adjustment are adolescence and middle age. Many evenings of fun were derived from Saturday nights spent at the Southeast Knight Club, popularly called Teen-Town. This year's membership was larger than any year before. The festive Halloween, St. Valentine's, Christmas, St. Patrick's, and Easter Bonnet dances were among the highlights of the 1955-56 program.

Under the able leadership of Mr. Cross, Mr. Tira, Miss Mosman, Mrs. Hunter, and Mrs. Graham, the Teen-Town officers and committees worked to make this one of the most successful Teen-Town seasons.

Knightlites Reveals

When the curtain opened for the eighteenth production of Knightlites, the stage was twinkling with a glittering travel folder. The theme "Happy Holidaze" clearly depicted the glamor of travel in the United States.

Ten travel agents invited the audience to travel on a specially planned trip to the Mardi Gras, the Boardwalk, Hometown, U. S. A., Chinatown, the West, and Winter Wonderland.

Frank Jamison, a diplomat from England, traveled along with the audience to the various high-spots.

The first stop was for the colorful Mardi Gras. The marching band, baton twirlers, senior waltz couples, and various other groups portrayed the festive air of this annual celebration.

Turning the next page of the travel folder, the audience found the setting "On the Boardwalk in Atlantic City." The honeymooners, sailors, trombone quartet, and beauty specialist all helped to depict the gala atmosphere of the Boardwalk.

Main Street, U. S. A., helped to recall the old, familiar scenes of baseball in the summertime, family picnics on the beach, and band concerts in the park.

"Little Red Riding Hood" with an Oriental twang added a foreign note to the production.

Life Out West was rendered by a sketch of ranch activities and a sparkling square dance.

"Winter Wonderland," complete with a ski lodge, skaters, Christmas carolers, and Santa Claus, ended the grand tour on a Christmas note.

Frank Jamison then complimented and thanked America for all that he had seen. The entire cast bade adieu with a song.

Miss Fetters, Miss Canham, Mr. Markley, and many other teachers gave their time and talents to make a successful production of Knightlites of 1956.

*Saturday Night

Hiss-s-s-s! Hooray! Foiled again! My hero! Curse you! “Only An Orphan Girl,” a soul-stirring melodrama of human trials and tribulations, was this year’s exciting spring play.

The setting was a Massachusetts farm owned by the Perkins family. Although the farm was mortgaged, they felt secure because they now had enough money saved to pay off the mortgage.

The plot centered around the orphan girl, Nellie, who was the Perkins’ adopted daughter. Nellie was the unknown heiress to her dead father’s fortune. Her scheming uncle, Arthur Rutherford, traced her to the Perkins’ farm and formed an intricate plot to gain his dead brother’s millions. Arthur’s objective was to get the money, and he intended to do it by fair or foul means.

Arthur stole the farmer’s money and purchased the mortgage from Mrs. Appleby, a local farm woman.

He then proposed to Nellie, but she refused him. To get revenge, he and his equally-villainous wife Ethel attempted to murder Nellie and Dick, the farmer’s son.

Revives Gay Nineties

Their plan was to blow up the barn in which Nellie and Dick were trapped; but Lucy, Mrs. Appleby's daughter, saved the day by quickly disposing of the dynamite just before it exploded.

Christmas Eve, the date of expiration of the mortgage, came and the villain threatened foreclosure. Because of Arthur's wicked scheming, poor Nellie was driven out of the house into the raging blizzard. The family was at the depths of despair when the clock began to strike twelve. Arthur pulled out the mortgage and gave a fiendish laugh. The clock struck eleven, and then, suddenly the door opened and Dick rushed in. He had returned from the city with the money just in time.

Rutherford was foiled again, but he soon plotted his revenge. Everyone went out into the blizzard to search for Nellie. But as fate would have it, Arthur and Ethel found her. They took her to the old saw mill. When Mr. Perkins got there, they tied him up. Dick received the same treatment when he arrived. They put Nellie on the log base and threw the switch. Tense moments mounted as her head moved closer and closer to the blade of the saw. In the ensuing struggle, Mr. Perkins was knocked unconscious and Dick was wounded by a bullet. Mrs. Appleby suddenly burst through the door and, with one well-aimed shot, killed Arthur.

Nellie was saved, the farm was redeemed, and all was well when the curtain fell.

Throughout the play, Sue Harris played theme and mood music on the old-fashioned nickelodeon piano.

Various entre acts, including a barbershop quartet, a flora dora dance line, and community singing, helped to stimulate the gay nineties' spirit.

Student committees assisted with the production which was under the able direction of Miss Maria Fetters.

Music Department Renders Melodious Harmony

The music department is composed of the orchestra, band, a cappella choir, girls' choir, girls' glee club, girls' octette, boys' chorus, and the eighth grade mixed chorus. These groups are under the direction of Mr. Markley and Miss Demand with the aid of Mrs. Backstrom, the accompanist.

The Southeast orchestra furnishes music for many of the school productions, such as Knightlites, the Induction, the Spring Play, and various assemblies. The orchestra offers excellent opportunities for those students who wish to further their ability in music.

The band not only shows ability at parades and assemblies, but adds much to the enjoyment of students at many of the football games.

The a cappella choir, composed of juniors and seniors with exceptional vocal ability, is one of the outstanding groups in the music department. Under the direction of Mr. Markley, the choir has appeared in various assemblies, the Music Festival, Commencement Exercises, and the All-City Choir Festival.

Both the boys' and girls' octettes have provided entertainment, performing at assemblies and several other events during the year. They are among the busiest music groups at Southeast.

The girls' glee, girls' choir, and boys' chorus are under the direction of Miss Demand. They provide entertainment for the student body many times throughout the year at various musical programs and assemblies.

Dear Lord, in the battle that goes through life,
We ask but a field that is fair,
A chance that is equal for all in the strife,
The courage to do and to dare.
And if we should win, let it be by the code,
With our honor held high.
And if we should lose, let us stand by the road,
And cheer as the winners go by.

Knights Practice Sportsmanship

The exciting and long-anticipated athletic events are number one on the list of activities for Southeast's Knights and Ladies. This year there was good attendance at all sports events. Besides providing enjoyment, games build character and promote a sense of sportsmanship among the team members and the participating schools.

In the Interscholastic League football contests, the Knights suffered only one defeat. They achieved the rank of second place in the league standing.

The basketball team showed promise in the pre-season games, but failed to maintain this good record in league competition. The team made a fine showing in the regionals, however, as they earned a trophy for third place in the tournament.

A spectacular victory was attained by Southeast's track team at the Big Seven Indoor Track Meet. This was Southeast's first victory at this annual meet.

In addition to the three major sports, Southeast has outstanding participants in tennis and golf. The tennis team is under the direction of Mr. Maupin; the coach of the golf team is Mr. Becklean.

A great benefit to all the teams is the training and advice given by the coaches. Much credit for the accomplishments of our teams goes to Mr. Patterson, Mr. Chamblee, Mr. Flappan, and Mr. Wolf, football coaches; Mr. Adams, Mr. Wolf, and Mr. Flappan, basketball coaches; and Mr. Cross, track coach.

The main goal of our Knights is to practice good sportsmanship in all their games. The enthusiastic support of the student body helps the teams to attain their goals.

Scrimmage Reviews . . .

The Southeast Knights started their season by playing the expert ball-handling and strong defensive team of North Kansas City which later won the championship in its respective league. The Hornets broke through the line from a play on the one-yard line to score their winning touchdown. The Knights gained valuable experience in this game.

Stephens Gains Five Yards

The fighting Knights lost their second game to the Raytown Blue Jays by a score of 6 to 0. The Knights were only inches from the goal line when the gun sounded, ending the thrilling game.

The Rockhurst Hawklets handed the Knights their third defeat by overpowering them 19 to 6. The Knights displayed only minimum teamwork in this non-league battle. Greer was responsible for the one tally of the Knights. Mehrer sparked the Hawks during the entire game.

The Knights entered the portals of victory for the first time by defeating the Central Eagles. Seeming to hold back their skill for league games, the team showed excellent defensive and offensive play throughout the Central match. Stephens, Cartwright, Snyder, and Lentz crossed the pay-dirt for the Southeast scores.

The Knights registered a victory over Westport's Tigers. The Knights' teamwork was well-developed by this, their second league game. The only Westport threat was blocked on the two-yard line. Cartwright made three touchdowns; Lentz, one; Snyder kicked four extra points.

Cartwright Forges Ahead

Turning a seemingly sure defeat into a spectacular victory, the Knights upset the Vikings in the waning minutes of the game. The Knights tallied thirteen points in the last three minutes on some never-dreamed-of plays. Lentz, Jamieson, and Cartwright shared the touchdown glory while Snyder was credited with the two extra points.

Southeast's first game under foreign lights resulted in a victory for the fighting Knights. The Lincoln Tigers, playing their first season in the Interscholastic League, showed their inexperience and proved to be no match for the skillful Knight team. Cartwright and Snyder each chalked up two touchdowns; Phillips, one; Snyder also made good on three kicks. The Knight reserves saw action in this game.

The Knights, staging a comeback after the Paseo loss, soundly whipped the Southwest Indians. The Knights unleashed their previously-hidden passing talent and completed ten out of sixteen attempts. Lentz and Cartwright each registered twin T. D.'s, while Stephens and Snyder made one apiece. Snyder kicked four conversions.

Southeast's hopes for league championship were shattered by a defeat at the hands of the persistent Pirates. The Knights seemed a bit sluggish, while the Pirates were playing their best of the season. Snyder and Lentz made the two Southeast touchdowns; Snyder kicked two conversions. Time prevented the Knights from scoring a possible tying touchdown.

B Squad

The Southeast B-Squad went down in their opening game of the 1955 season to the North Kansas City Hornets by a score of 13-6.

Making a strong comeback the next week, the team soundly defeated Rockhurst's Hawks to the tune of 24-6.

The following week they scored another victory over Wyandotte, 20-12.

Central High was the first Interscholastic League foe for the Knights. After a lead of six points in the first quarter, Southeast was defeated, 20-12.

Hold That Pigskin

Westport, Northeast, and Wyandotte were the next foes to fall before the Knights. The respective scores were 20-14, 21-0, and 19-7.

Lincoln broke Southeast's victory string by intercepting a pass in the final two minutes of the game making the score 7-0.

Paseo was the next victim in the second team's conquest. The Knights defeated the Pirates by a score of 13-7.

In the final game of the season, the B-Squad was matched with the undefeated Southwest second team. The Knights were the third team to score against the Indians during the season. In the fourth quarter, the second team plunged as far as Southwest's 15-yard line before they were halted by the Indians. The final score was 12-6.

The team's over-all record was six wins and six losses—three wins and three losses in league play.

C Squad

From the opening game, the Knight-Freshman team showed the spirit, determination, and the will to win that carried them to an undefeated season.

With the pony backfield of C. Sikes, R. Phillips, K. Cheves, and L. James churning up yardage and the forward wall of S. White, F. Scott, J. Winningham, F. Pummill, G. Gibson, E. Griesel, and B. Williams opening gaping holes, the offensive unit crushed its opposition. Other standouts were W. Smith and J. Horner at blocking back, R. Miller at guard, J. Todd at center, and P. Hamblin and J. Howes at end.

Defense was a must, and boys like J. Sheffield, R. Skates, W. Fuqua, and J. Church, never let the team down.

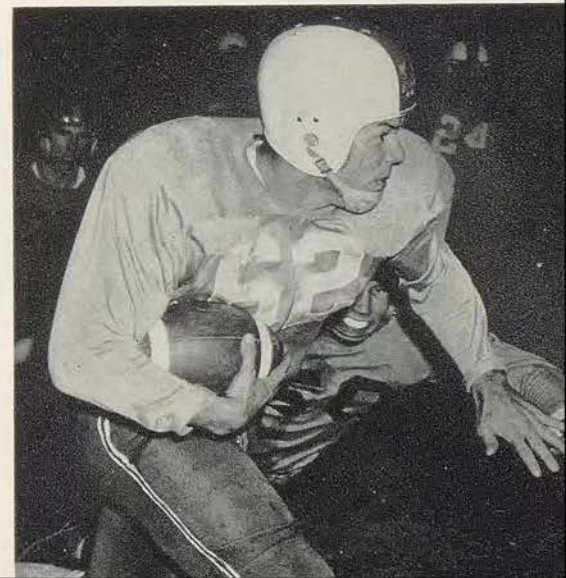

The highlight of the season was the 6 to 6 tie against the Southeast sophomore team.

All in all it was an outstanding season. The boys fought hard, won gracefully, and learned that victory comes only through sweat, toil, and good teamplay.

Breaking Through The Line

Laffoon grabs another rebound. Being high scorer on the team earned Allen honorable mention on the Interscholastic League All-Star Team.

Snyder tallies another point from the charity line. Skip earned his second letter this year. As a senior, he should provide the basis for a fine team.

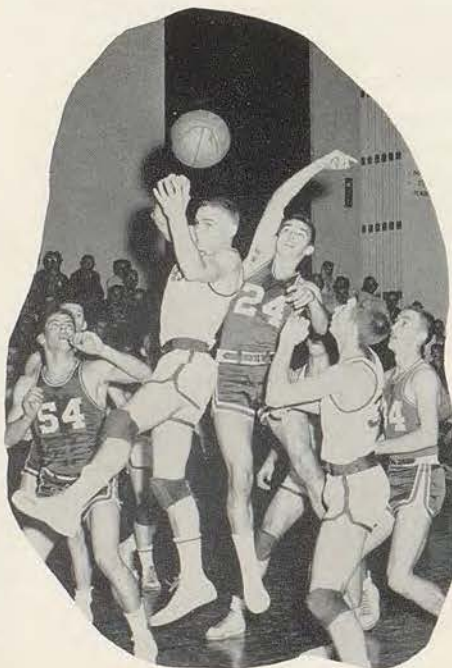

Phillips goes high to hit two. Mike hit consistently from the outside and scored many points for the Knights.

Team In Action

Haines tips in another bucket. Fine play around the basket made Joe a stand-out on offense and defense.

Grab it, Leslie! Consistent rebounding by Jerry made the Knights a threat to any team in the league.

Cartwright sinks another field goal. Fine play and plenty of hustle earned Mike honorable mention on the All-Star Team.

Knights Compete On Court

The Southeast basketball team of 1955-56 were not champions from the standpoint of winning, but they represented their school with a high degree of sportsmanship, co-operation, and many well-played games. The team won eight games and lost twelve.

The Knights opened the season with six lettermen from an average squad of the preceding year. The lettermen were Mike Cartwright, Joe Haines, Allen Laffoon, Jerry Leslie, and Mike Phillips, seniors; and Skip Snyder, junior. Because it was evident that the team would be handicapped without an extra tall player, emphasis was placed on spirit, defense, and ball control. They lost several games by small margins but never became discouraged.

In the regional tournament, Southeast defeated the Catholic League Champions from Lillis. In the second game they lost to Southwest by a small margin. In the third match the Knights overwhelmed Paseo and won the third place trophy.

Other members of the squad helped contribute to the team's success. Those who received varsity letters were Dave Hoff, Jim Wilson, Willis Frazee, seniors; Ronnie Durns, Keith Coates, juniors; Larry Sahn, sophomore; and Jim Blackshire, Lester Helm, managers.

Mike Cartwright and Joe Haines were elected as honorary co-captains at the close of the season.

The Knight B Squad completed a ten-win and seven-loss record in the 1955-56 season. They gained much valuable experience for action on next year's varsity squad.

The team scored five consecutive victories before meeting defeat at the hands of Ward High School.

Larry Sahn, Bruce Hildebrand, and Phil Rollins carried most of the scoring load. Darrell Corwin, Ed Leslie, and Jay Gasper were outstanding clutch performers. Steve Brawner and Bob Hill made strong bids for starting berths.

The team's competitive spirit was stimulated by Paul Nuckolls and Tom Cartwright. Other first raters were Tim Hood, Chuck Ferguson, and Ricky Eichman.

The second team was gallant in defeat and modest in victory. They proved to be true Knights both off and on the court.

The 1956 Knight track squad registered a fine string of victories throughout the season.

The Annual Big Seven Indoor Track Meet was Southeast's opener. For the first time in history, Southeast won first place in this meet.

In the Rosedale, Westport, and Southeast triangular meet, the Knights claimed the heavy end of a lopsided score. Southeast placed in practically every event.

At the State Indoor Meet, the Knights scored in two events. Skip Snyder placed in the pole vault; Don Blalock, Bob Ruff, Dick Herr, and Jim Stephens, in the 880-yard relay.

Central was the next team to fall before the Knight runners. Phillip Jones and Gerald Ganser tied for first place in the 880-yard run. George Harper, Allen Laffoon, and Douglas Lenquist placed in the high jump. Other point

Girls' Gym Department

The girls' physical education department develops sportsmanship, health, and grace through participation in the various sports during class and after school.

The girls now have a gym of their own, making the intramural program bigger and better. Starting in the fall, there is soccer for the underclassmen and hockey for the more advanced students. During mid-winter, volley ball and basketball are played; in the spring, baseball. All of these are considered team sports.

Sports that develop individual skills are table tennis, skating, bowling, and swimming. These sports are also included in the intramural program.

The girls must participate in various individual and team sports to earn their chenille shields and letters.

Girls' Sportsday was organized in 1937. Since then it has enlarged to fulfill the need of athletic competition among girls. Good sportsmanship is the principal objective of sportsday. At every sportsday, each team competes with two other schools.

This year, Southeast chalked up two ties at hockey sportsday. The team lost volley ball sportsday, but made a good showing at the individual sportsday.

Farewell

We, the graduates of 1956, must bid two farewells. One to our alma mater, Southeast, and one to our Swedish exchange student, Anders Edstrom.

We sincerely and earnestly hope that both Southeast and Andy will fare well.

Fellowship with Andy has added just the right, rare touch to our class. The benefits we have derived from his being here are immeasurable. That he will come back to see us someday is our fervent wish. Good-bye and good luck, Andy!

Southeast's inspiring Ode, the familiar Castle activities, the lofty tower against the sky, the valuable knowledge learned, the "K-K-K-n-i," the numerous friends, the many noble traditions, and the hoards of other things that have been an important part of our lives for five years are now over and must endure only in memory. We shall never forget these wonderful memories which will ever live on in reality.

As we face our future opportunities, we feel secure because of our past experiences. To Southeast, we are deeply indebted for these experiences. Our hope is that future graduates will have these same profitable experiences and will recognize their intrinsic worth.

We thank everyone—teachers, parents, and fellow students—for their help and encouragement in the attainment of our goal of graduation. We are also grateful for the fellowship that we have shared.

And now as we depart, we trust that Southeast's high standards will always be upheld. Good luck, Southeast! Farewell!
