Dedication: In Honor of 65 Years

Sixty-five years ago, the founders of our school had a dream — a dream that Kansas City high school students would have an institution of learning where excellence could be achieved. In his mind's eye, that institution was Southwest Senior High School, potentially the Southwest Math/Science Magnet School. On that fateful day in 1926, his dream became a reality — the cornerstone was placed on the ground and a tradition of greatness had begun. Since then, Southwest has truly stood the test of time. Our school was witness to the very first lighting of the Plaza lights. It survived World War II and the hate-mongers of Adolf Hitler's dreaded Third Reich. Southwest has seen the assassinations of such great leaders as John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The Berlin Wall has risen and fallen, but Southwest has been standing as tall as the day it was completed. In a world of perpetual change, people need something that is constant, something they know they can cling to in case of trouble. For many people, Southwest has been that something. Therefore, due to its ability to shine through the darkness and stand through thick and thin for sixty-five years, the 1990 Schem is being dedicated to our school, the Southwest Math/Science Magnet. Congratulations on your longevity, Southwest, best wishes for the next sixty-five years!

NEW ADMINISTRATION

Ms. Anne Ford came to Southwest Science/Math Magnet this year as the Coordinator of Instruction. Her job entailed helping teachers develop exciting new strategies in teaching, evaluating teachers and their classes, and participating in the school improvement plan.

Prior to Ms. Ford's year at Southwest, she taught history for five years at Central Computers Unlimited and eighteen years in Chicago.

Ms. Ford received her Bachelors and Masters Degrees in History from Chicago State University. Last summer she completed a specialist degree in education administration at the University of Missouri, Kansas City.

This Year Ms. Ford brought many activities to Southwest High School including a string quartet, jazz band, poetry readings, and a ballet group, all to enhance the cultural experience at Southwest Science/Math Magnet.

When Ms. Ford was asked what goals she had for the students of Southwest this past year and for years to come, she replied, "I would like to see test scores rise on the T.A.P. and the M.M.A.T. I would also like to see the Student Council become more active at Southwest and every student participate in at least one extra curricular activity."

TOUCHDOWN TO WIN

Football season has rolled around once again at Southwest, this year with a different twist. The team is headed by two new coaches, Bill Culpepper and Jeff Gourley. Both are science transition teachers at Southwest as well as being football coaches. The new coaches have tried to instill a positive attitude in the team that they hope will be effective.

The Indians got off to a rocky start this season with three consecutive losses, but things are steadily looking up. Southwest finally got on the scoreboard when the Indians scored a touchdown in a 33-6 loss to O'Hara on Sept. 29. On Oct. 6, the Indians were victorious with a 12-0 win over Lincoln Prep. The Southeast Knights were the Indians' next opponent on Oct. 14. SW got a touchdown early in the fourth quarter on a pass from quarterback Brian Hodges to James Robinson. The Knights prevailed, however, and the final score of the game was 12-7 SE. Next up for the Indians was Westport on Oct. 20. Southwest was victorious with a score of 7-0.

The next game for the Indians was the Homecoming game. SW played the Paseo Pirates on Oct. 27 in a torrential rainstorm. The Indians played well, but in the end, the victory went to Paseo. The final score was 8-6.

SW played the Central Eagles in District play on Nov. 4. The first quarter went scoreless for both teams. The second quarter began with SW catching Central's kickoff and running for a touchdown. At the end of the game, the score was tied and play had to go into overtime. Central prevailed and won the game 12-6.

Gourley said the only difficulties the team really has are mental discipline, aggressiveness, and their desire level. All three are attainable with work and cooperation from all the team members, he said. Some of the players said, "The win over Lincoln has helped us with our desire level, and hopefully in upcoming games the team will continue to improve." Both coaches strive for a "total team concept." Of the Indians desire for a winning season, Gourley says, "To this point, the most inspirational player is Chris Murray, who is out for the season with a knee injury."

At the end of each season, League, District, and All-Metro selections are made. This year, nine players from SW were chosen. Dominic Foster, James Robinson, and Ricky Willis were Honorable Mentions for the IL League. Michael Cosby was selected in the League and received positions on the first team District, and second team All-Metro. Richard White, Ivan Griffin, and Maurice West were all chosen for the second team in the IL League. Sam Johnson and Ronnell Eldridge were selected for both the IL League first team and the District second team.

Cross Country

This year's Cross Country team consisted of quite a few talented runners. This year's team accomplished something that hasn't been done in a while, a runner from Southwest qualified for the national meet. The 89-90 team has done exceptionally well. It takes a lot of determination to run cross country, and that just what our team has.

Although the team was small, consisting of sixteen freshmen and ten upperclassmen boys as well as five girls, Coach Samuels said he had about eight really talented runners.

The best meet was the Northeast-Southeast Triangle in which the freshmen boys took the top ten places. The run was a total of two miles. Some of the freshmen boys include: Barry Browning, Sean Bates, Germaine Blackenbaker, Leo Johnson, Sharif Griffin, Carlton Rogers, Marcus Bunn, and Richard Lewis. Coach Samuels stated that Derek Booker, junior, and John Roberts, sophomore, should qualify for state.

Derek Booker said that the main problems with the cross country team early in the season were lack of team morale and consistency with practice. "With more school support and more runners, the team will improve," he said, and they did.

The League Championship Meet was Thursday, Oct. 12, 1989. The freshmen boys won the Interscholastic League Championship. John Roberts was the Johnnie Roberts went on to qualify for nationals. He was the only sophomore to go to the national meet, along with Richard Lewis, a freshman, to represent Southwest. The race was a total of 3.1 miles and Johnnie came in 78 out of 250 runners.

89-90 VOLLEYBALL

BUMPS IT UP

The 1989-90 SW Volleyball team looked at this year's season as not only a time for improvement, but also a time for rebuilding. After winning the the Interscholastic League Tournament last year and losing six talented players, the team had a lot of hard work to look forward to.

The 1989-90 squad was made up of three seniors, setter Stacey Stewart, and hitters Nicole Crowder and Amy Helmkamp, three juniors, setters Christine Jones and Claudia Singelmann, and hitter Tracey Finney. Sophomores included Michelle Smith, Fashion Winfrey, Phaelona Bradley, and Dimika Williams, all hitters. The coaches were Susan Dunham, a health teacher at Westport Middle School and SW alum, and Mary Cook, a physical education teacher at SW.

The season began on Sept. 6 for the Indians with a game against Lincoln Prep. The match was hard fought with each team winning one game. The third and final game was tied throughout, but in the end the Tigers came out on top.

The second game was against the Central Eagles. SW played defensively and was victorious in the Sept. 13 game.

Next on the schedule was a match with Westport on Sept. 19. After three long and grueling games, the Tigers prevailed and defeated SW.

The Paseo Pirates were the Indians next opponent. The Sept. 21 game was yet another blow to the Indians, who were beat in two games.

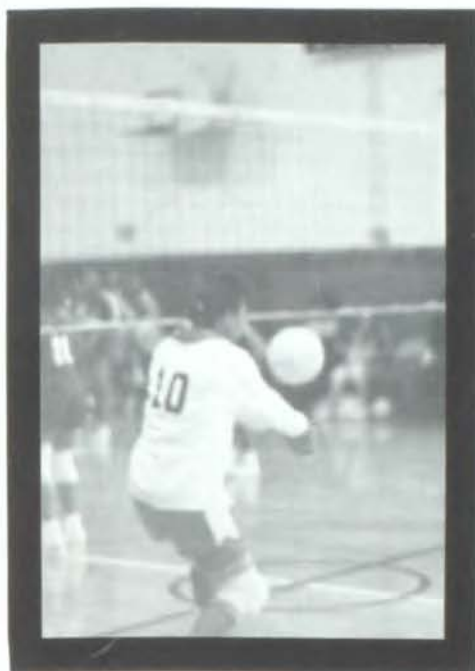

It was a long grueling season for the SW volleyball team ,but they stayed with it.

IN YO FACE!!

-Sports Editors

Basketball is one of the most exciting sports ever created. There is hardly ever a dull moment. Our basketball teams here at SW have proven just that!

Question: What is the most exciting basketball method used to score two points? The answer is without a doubt the 'The Slam Dunk!' Not only has the Varsity boys team used it, but they have almost perfected it. Pili Robinson and Jason Ervin are just two of the many talented players on the team that give meaning to the word 'dunk!' The boys' Varsity team is coached by William Madison. The boys aren't the only ones that can do aerial tactics, as Tranita Bonwell of the girls' Varsity team, coached by Vicki Shelton, can hold her own too! Enough of this, let us get down to the facts!

The last two games were strictly business!

Those games were against Central and Bishop Hogan. Unfortunately, we lost against Bishop Hogan, 89-82, but we clinched the I.L. title by defeating Central 50-49.

Central started out the first half by gaining the lead. Before the half was over however, Southwest had rallied to a 10 point lead over the Eagles. Just as Southwest had come back, so did Central in the second half, however it wasn't good enough to defeat the Indians! The overall record of the boys is 8-8.

On the other side of the court, we have the Varsity girls team. They took first in the Interscholastic League also. Their overall record was 14-8.

Last, but not least, we have the boys' and girls' JV teams, which are coached by Richard Samuels and Marilyn Turley, respectively. They haven't been too successful, but by the time they come out for the Varsity team, they should be fantastic!

Dribble it, pass it, we want a basket!! The 1989-90 Varsity Girls Basketball team did just that. They had a terrific season under the leadership of their coach, Ms. Vicki Shelton. The team finished with a 16-9 record overall and finished second in the Interscholastic League.

This year's team was headed by senior captains Tranita Bonwell and Stacey Stewart. The rest of the team was comprised of senior Kenshasha Ricks, junior Shelia Smith, sophomores Michelle Smith, Phaelona Bradley, and Jessica Love, and freshmen Kim Martin, Nakia Wilson, Erika Moore, LaTonya

The ladies were virtually unstoppable during regular IL play and in tournament and district play, SW held their own against teams like St. Teresa's, Harmon, Sumner, Schlagle and St. Joe Central. SW made it all the way the district sectionals after defeating St. Teresa's Academy, one of the top teams in the city, but were finally beaten by Grandview High School. Congratulation on a great season for the SW girls Varsity.

The 1989-1990 choir had a successful year. The choir was comprised of 69 young ladies and gentlemen with a talent which could be heard even by the untrained ear.

Ms. Rosa Adams assumed the responsibility of being the instructor of the choir this year. In her first year as Southwest Choir Director, she began to see real progress.

There are three groups which form Southwest's Choir. First, Concert Choir people were selected at the beginning of the year through auditions held by Ms. Adams. Second, Vocal Music II people contribute to the group with their strong desire to sing with others. This is also the first year that Southwest has had a Gospel Choir. It consists of young adults with a talent that could be heard even though thier numbers were limited.

The music that was performed by this year's Choir was done so with an air of confidence and excellence.

Orchestra Strings It Up

Conducted by Ms. Rosa Adams, this year's Orchestra may be small, but they proved that it was quality not quantity that counts. Their first concert which was held in the school auditorium, was on November 21, 1989, and the audience agreed that it was a success. In the spring, they prepared for two events; another concert and a performance on the Plaza. Once again, the quality of the SW orchestra made up for its small size.

SW Band Marches Onward To Success

Walking through the halls you may have heard a combination of skill rhythm and musical inclination.

This all leads to the 1989-Marching Tribesmen. This year's marching tribesmen, our honored band, marched their way through many events such as: The Veterans Day Parade, the Brookside Parade, the American Royal Parade and our own Homecoming Parade. At the beginning of the year they had their annual autumn concert. All music classes performed a few selections. This concert was mainly to show Southwest what they had accomplished this year. They had placed second place in the marching competition and are still preparing for the district competitions. They should be commended for their efforts and accomplishments.

The Few & The Proud

Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps is a course offered by almost every school in the Kansas City School District. It is a course designed to build leadership, character, and patriotism. The course is taught by retired officers and enlistees of the United States Army.

Southwest's JROTC has an active role in and outside of school functions. The cadets participate in parades, school assemblies, and school athletic events. They were also invited to post our nation's flag at business meetings and conventions.

Each year, the cadets have a JROTC Ball and an Annual Field Day Inspection where the cadets are tested on their military knowledge. Topics such as who is the Secretary of Defense, Secretary of the Army, Chief of the Military forces, first aid, etc., are covered during the year.

JROTC has been a long running tradition at S.W. Now that S.W. is a Science/Math Magnet High School, JROTC plans to continue in its involvement.

This year's National Honor Society added seventeen new members to the already existing twenty-six members. The former and new members were honored in two ceremonies; one primarily attended by parents and the other by the student body. During both presentations, NHS members gave speeches on criteria for NHS membership. At the close of each ceremony, the new inductees made a pledge to uphold the high standards of the Society and to keep it alive and active during their forthcoming years.

SWNHS has the opportunity to attend the National Convention for Local National Honor Society Chapters to be held this spring. In the past, NHS was unable to attend because of locational difficulties.

Through the service and social committees of the NHS, many plans were made for activities such as ice skating, senior citizens prom, and for the first time ever, a fund raiser that would help them acquire national logo sweatshirts and sweaters.

The NHS has been headed by Martha Arnall since 1979 and has done an excellent job for all of those years. SWNHS has been a productive organization of SW and will remain that way for years to come.

STUCO IN EFFECT

STUDENT POLITICS

Student Council, also known as STUCO, is organized to promote school pride among the student body. This year's Student Council is made up of:

Monica Jones, Pres.
Bert Taylor, Vice-Pres.
Vera Smith, Sgt.-at-Arms
Katrina Mitchell, Tres.
Angela Giger, Sec.

These students are in charge of organizing activities to get the student body involved in the school.

This year's Student Council, inspired by their new sponsor, Mr. Butler, organized many events. Student Council sponsored a Back to School Dance to start the new year. The Student Council formed a Student Issues Task Force to deal with problems students have. For instance, the Student Issues Task Force held an assembly on Brotherhood. Student Council also sold orange and black spirit shakers to promote the spirit of the student body. In the midst of all of the construction, Student council had, over all, a very productive year.

E=Math + Chess²

" $3x^2(dy/dx)+4y^4=7.$ "

Although most people have no clue what this means, there was a group of an elite few who understand this jargon. These people comprise the Math Chess Club. Every Tuesday after school, this band of math and logic wizards met in Room 317 to discuss the latest developments in the math world. Mrs. Katz sponsored this eager group of students.

Aside from just doing math problems and playing chess, the Math and Chess Club also practiced for math competitions around the region. The group participated in many contests this year, representing Southwest credibly.

Science Club isn't a club just for nerds. This club is for those students who enjoy the thrill of competition. This illustrious group is led by Mrs. Kun and Mrs. McCoy. This year's president is Kenshasha Ricks.

This year's club has been very active in some area and national science competitions, such as The Duracell Battery Contests, and spent two days in St. Louis at the Science Symposium. Southwest battled some schools four and five times larger, and faired very well.

This club can benefit any student by helping them realize how intelligent they can be.

STAGE CREW LIGHTS UP SOUTHWEST

Just as Southwest went through an amazing metamorphosis over the summer, the Southwest Stage Crew went through a great deal of change as well. This year the crew acquired a new sponsor, Mrs. Scott. Mrs. Scott found herself working with a fairly new group of students, because only four people carried over from the preceding year.

The Stage Crew got off to a slow start. This delay was caused by construction. The stage was not even accessible for several weeks after school had resumed. When the construction was completed, the Stage Crew realized it was worth the wait. They found that the old, hand-operated light-board was replaced with a modern, computerized lighting system. This left even the experienced members starting from scratch. The old, bulky, awkward lights were replaced by new, easy-to-use lights.

Stage crew is the backbone of any theatrical performance. The crew puts in as much time as the performers to make the performance go smoothly. Despite the delays and inexperience, stage crew assisted the many performances during the year.

Behind the Scenes

This year's Journalism/Publications class was destined to be a hit from the beginning of the school year. All members of the staff were assigned tasks, with a bit of luck completed their articles, then could sit back to bask in the glory of success. Unfortunately, as soon as they made one deadline, another was right around the corner. They were off again to the agonizing pain of choosing the correct words, taking the perfect picture and then rewriting and rewriting until it was approved by one of the editors.

The staff was comprised of twenty-two students under the supervision of Mrs. Patricia Lyons. The editor of the SACHEM was Sarah Still. She combined her talent with that of her fellow students to produce an exciting yearbook. Matt Lewis, editor of TRAIL, showed he could take charge of producing many interesting and exciting newspapers. Amy Markley, editor of the GOWELI SHAMEN, took charge of putting student talent at Southwest into a literary magazine. Photo Editor, Kristie Watson, and the rest of the class, could be found taking pictures at school functions and then frantically getting them developed. Often you could find a few dedicated class members skipping their lunch time to make sure everything was as it should be and ready for the next day's work. There were many deadlines and rewrites but they proved to be necessary for the success of all the publications.

The 1989-1990 Publications class was, in our opinion, a huge success. Many new ideas were brought to the staff due to the diversity in the group. There were many differences and at times arguments, but they were all for the success of the SACHEM, TRAIL and GOWELI SHAMEN.

AFS

Brings the World Home

The International Club was formed to benefit the American Field Service students in the area and to make American students more aware of the cultures of other countries.

Southwest had three AFS'ers this year: Sarah Bernard from Quebec, Canada, Cecile Ancion from Belgium, and Adriana Martinez from Mexico. Adriana stayed with Christine Kuchar, a senior at Southwest. Although they didn't have a student at Southwest, the Gross family was kind enough to host Sarah. Sylvia Farnsworth, the club's sponsor, hosted Cecile.

Meetings were held in one of the teacher prep rooms every other Monday. The club planned events such as the Harvest Ball and AFS Day, and discussed the life-styles of our AFS'ers. The group also entered a float in the Homecoming parade that took third place. In addition to these events, the group also held meetings at members' houses to hear AFS'ers give speeches regarding their homeland.

Distributive Education Clubs of America, DECA, is a co-curricular program that provides students with an opportunity to become future leaders in marketing and management. This program is only available to students enrolled in COE class and/or marketing. This year DECA has been involved with many activities.

The annual talent show, sponsored by DECA, contributes money to various charity groups around the city. Another DECA sponsored fundraiser is the student store. This store supplies students with a variety of candies, pens, and notebooks and is only available during 4th hour lunch and briefly after school.

DECA has also participated in many business type competitions. SW student, Shonda Browning, was elected Vice-President at the District Conference in October. Browning expressed her feelings about DECA: "By being in DECA, it has allowed me to enhance my leadership skills and to participate in many events."

Last year's DECA Chapter had only 35 members. This year's membership has increased to over 50. Under the leadership of Ron Copple and Lois Green, this year's DECA established and achieved many goals.

Pep and Flags

FLAG TEAM

The 1989-90 Flag Team took on a new look this year with their new flags, new black pants, shirts, shoes and new orange vest. The six member squad was headed by juniors Ellen Gibbs and LaTonya Morrow and sponsored by Ms. Rosa Adams. This is only the second year that the team has been a part of the Marching Tribesmen. They practiced every Tuesday and Thursday after school with the band to prepare for the many competitions they participated in during the school year. The Flag Team entertained the Injuns during halftimes at football and basketball games.

Bring Home the Spirit

Anyone who has pride in their school and spirit jumping in their soul can join Pep Club. Whenever there was a sudden out burst of spirit during lunch, in the hall, and definitely at the games, you can be sure that Pep Club members were responsible.

Miss Ruthie R. Pickens is sponsor of Pep Club this year.

She said, "Pep Club to me is students that are involved and have a major concern in academics, extra curricular activities, and having fun." The goals she set this year for the Pep Club were (1) Increase school spirit, (2) Increase school pride, and (3) at least 25% of each class to join Pep Club this year. Pep Club fell short of the third goal, but there were members representing each class and definitely an increase in spirit and pride. The first major event for Miss Pickens and Pep Club was getting prepared for Homecoming at Southwest. Pep Club then goes on to sponsor the Winter Sports dance and the Pep Club banquet.

H-O-N-O-R-N-I-N-E

"We've Got Spirit Yes We Do, We've Got Spirit How 'Bout You?!!" Yes, that's right. This year's Honor-9 squad was full of spirit. Spirit that was noticeable everywhere. In class, in the cafeteria, in the halls and at games. H-9 is that popular group of SENIOR girls licensed to uphold spirit at games and assemblies.

It's tradition for the previous Honor-9 members, along with Coach Hannaman, the sponsor, and also staff and faculty, to select the following year's inductees. On Thursday, May 11, confused and unaware of what was happening, these 13 girls were kidnapped from their 7th hour classes and were blindfolded. They were taken to an unknown room and held hostage for the remainder of the 7th hour period. Threatened with waterguns to obey every command, everyone was assigned to a kidnapper. When the time arrived for the bell to ring, still blindfolded, they were led downstairs and outside, in front of the school building where they were ridiculed and humiliated by all the students in the school. This was just the beginning of a fun-filled day!! Later during the day, the kidnappers dressed the inductees up in weird clothes, teased their hair, and made up their faces. Then they were off for a world of adventure. Hungry and ready to go home, they reached their final destination: the Pep Club Banquet. The new 1989-90 Honor-9 squad was introduced and once again their humiliation was witnessed by a large portion of the school. The best part is that they made it through initiation and this school year. In spite of all they've been through, they feel that it was all worth it. Now they are ready to initiate the new 1990-91 Honor-9 inductees.

Through the year you may have seen this year's Pom-Pon squad walking down the hall or dancing to MC Hammer in their orange and black.

The year started off with a routine called "Shake" at the freshman orientation, just one of the many routines the squad learned at camp.

The Pom-Pon squad, which was sponsored by Ms. Ruthie Pickens, went to camp on July 19, 1989. They left for camp with spirit and returned home on July 22 with a Spirit Stick, which is awarded to the squads with the most spirit.

The 1989-90 Pom-Pon squad consisted of 13 girls led by Co-Captains Tranita Bonwell and LaShawna Bishop, both seniors.

'89-'90 CHEERLEADERS

The 1989-90 SW cheerleaders got off to a busy start this year. They left Kansas City in mid-June to attend the National Cheerleading Association camp at Wichita State University. They spent four hot, exhausting, work-filled days learning new cheers, chants, and jumps. At the end of each day, the squad would be judged on their performance. By week's end, SW had acquired two blue ribbons, two red ribbons, and one white ribbon. They also returned with the spirit stick, one of the most prestigious honors to be awarded to a cheerleading squad.

The team's hard work definitely paid off. They gained new knowledge and skill and applied their talent throughout the school year during sporting events like football and basketball games. They also displayed their spirit at the Homecoming and Winter Sports assemblies. Whether the teams won or lost, the cheerleaders tried to keep the athlete's and student's spirit and pep up.

Under the leadership of captain Christina Conchola and co-captain Alexis Johnson, the Varsity squad consisted of nine other members. They were: sophmores Angela Walker and Marilyn Lambert, juniors Claudia Singelmann, Beth DeFoor, and Catrice McNeely, and seniors Maria Aranda, Yalonda Smith, Alexis Kelso, and Alisa White. Along with the eleven girls on the squad, SW had two yell` leaders. They were senior Dominic Foster and junior Carlos Collins. This is the second year that SW has had yell leaders.

Homecoming '89

the Last Was the Best

The week before Homecoming, you could find Southwest students sharing the joy, spirit, and excitement of working together to have a fun filled week. Spirit week was filled with an assortment of days ranging from Mix-Match Day all the way to Orange and Black, which was exactly that. The theme, "The 90's will reveal the Treks of our Tears," gave students a good variety of choices of designs for floats for the parade. The parade was at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday in the Brookside area. Spirit was affluent during the parade. R.O.T.C. led the parade, displaying the American flag, the Marching Tribesmen followed, playing selections from their fall show.

Behind the floats, Pom-Pon, Cheerleaders, Honor-9, and candidates followed. Floats for the parade were provided by AFS, the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore Classes. The Juniors captured 1st, the Seniors took 2nd, and AFS took 3rd in the float competition.

Despite the 8-6 loss to the Paseo Pirates and the horrible rain that came with it, many Indians showed up the following night, to a nicely decorated cafeteria, ready to dance the night away.

At 12:00, midnight, the final results for the 1989-90, Homecoming Queen and King were in and ready to be announced. Shortly after, Monica Jones and Chris Murray were crowned Queen and King by Pep-Club sponsor, Ms. Ruthie Pickens. The attendants were: 1st-Alexis Kelso and James Robinson and 2nd-LaShawna Bishop and Jamal McKinney. The King, Queen, attendants, and Royal Court, joined together and led the next dance that concluded HOMECOMING 89!!!!!!

Hot Dancing on a Cool Night

The WinterSports activities began with Spirit Week-Twins Day was first, followed by Mix n' Match, Sex Reverse Day, and Orange and Black Day ended it all. Even though many students did not partipate in this spirited week, it did not hurt the spirit of many die-hard Indians.

During 6th and 7th hours, Southwest students gathered in the auditorium to see the Wintersports Royalty walk down the aisle and onto the stage. The candidates were anxious and nervous to be seen by their fellow students. After the Royalty was introduced, the Varsity Cheerleaders continued to pump up the crowd.

The following night was the Wintersports Dance. As Southwest students entered, they voted for King and Queen candidates of their choice. As the night went by students danced and socialized with one another. Finally, at midnight it was time for the coronation.

Dance All That

You Can Dance

This year's ROTC Ball took place at Arrowhead Stadium on February 16, 7:00 to 11:00 pm. ROTC'ers from Southwest, Westport, Lincoln, and Southeast attended. Attendees were served dinner and then set loose to dance the night away to the latest and greatest black contemporary music. Although they weren't actually at the ball, LIFE magazine wrote an article on the event. Each school crowned their respective royalty at 10:00. Southwest Royalty was as follows:

Junior Class President Leads the Way

"This meeting will now come to order," these are the words heard from Jason Warren every other Wednesday. As President of this year's junior class, Jason is further enhancing his leadership qualities. Leadership is not a new experience for Jason. In the past, Jason participated in the "Harmony in a World of Difference" conference at UMKC and is currently preparing to attend a leadership conference in Washington which is only open to three people from each state. Jason will have a chance to meet members of Congress and to broaden his knowledge of our government and enhance future opportunities for himself.

Jason is well respected by his fellow juniors and has served well as the Junior Business Committee President. When asked how he feels about being looked upon as a good leader for the present and the future, Jason commented, "To be a leader you must first be a follower, a follower on the right track because the road to success is on a straight and narrow path and is always under construction."

Seniors
ROCK THE HOUSE!

SBC "In Effect"

As they entered the strange halls of Southwest High School at the beginning of the 1986-87 school year as freshman, they were scared and unsure. They were the class of 1990 and the beginning of a new decade at Southwest. As the years passed, they were faced with the many challenges of high school, but what they didn't realize was that these challenges would mold and shape them into the responsible young adults that they are today. They proved that they were responsible their junior year when they were faced with the huge responsibility of sponsoring prom. This required a lot of careful planning and a lot of fund raising, but in the end, they were successful. As they leave Southwest after the 1989-90 school year, they take with them into the real world, the confidence, pride, responsibility, and leadership that has been instilled in them.

This year Senior Business Committee had to combine all these qualities to make the senior class of 1990 the best class to graduate from Southwest. The senior class elected the officers that would lead SBC this year. They are: President- Daima Laini Scott, Vice President- Monica Lynn Jones, Secretary- Erika Storms, Treasurer- Regina Byas, and Historian- Bert Taylor III. SBC is in charge of all senior activities. They choose graduation announcements, colors for cap and gown, and where and when Baccalaureate and Graduation will take place. This year's senior sponsor was Mrs. Brooks. She was always there when they were having trouble making a decision to to guide with comments and suggestions.

SBC members know that senior year is special, and they are striving to make every senior's dream of what this year at Southwest will be like come true.

To my closest friends, who have helped me survive and thrive these past four years.

Sarah (SPILLA DILLA)-You are one of my best friends and my closest relatives. I love you so much, and at times, I can't stand you just as much, for the same reasons. But of course this is typical behavior for cousins. You are the one who has given me the strength to stand up for what I believe. You have also shown me that I can do anything I set my mind on.

Christine (DING)-We have become extremely close over this past year. You have more love and honesty in you than anyone I know, and you are always willing to share it with others, no matter how much we may torture you. Even though you 'don't try to be stupid,' you have made many a day a happy one, and may there be many more. Remember always, 'laugh Christine.'

Jamie (GENNARY, MY FROG FRIEND WITH NO TOES)-You may have come from a very different place, and acquired unwanted ability to rap and beat-box from us, but you have definitely left your own permanent mark on all of our lives. Who else would have dreamed up 'LBS'? Of course, sometimes your humor has left a little to be desired, such as burping the ABC's, but it has always left us laughing.

Matt (MANN, THE NERD)-Who would have dreamed that such an innocent boy, as yourself, could have matured into the rebel you are today, and with just little peer-pressure. Once we got you to open your big mouth, there was no shutting it, boy were we sorry. We don't have to worry about you going far, because you will do that without even half thinking about it. Thank you for letting us abuse you, we needed it.

Bert (THE FLIRT)-Whenever I needed a hug, you were there for me. Whenever I needed comforting, you gave it to me. And whenever I needed a laugh, you provided it for me. I am so glad you decided to share your love with me. You have shown me that I can always make it through life, and that all I have to do is keep my head held high.

To all of the class of 1990, and a few others, especially:

Robin(HONORARY SENIOR), Monica(MON(I)), Adriana(THAT GIRL FROM MEXICO), LaShawna(SHAWN), Vera(V), Jon(THE STUD), Jeff(THE SLUT), Christlanda(LAN(DA)), Carl(MY BLACK FRIEND), Sean(ROY BOY), Kathy(MY LITTLE FRESHMAN), Wanda(NIKKI), TERESA, HELEN, Daima(PUN(X)), and Ryan(LOWLY SOPHMORE).

And to the special faculty who have made school a place I wanted to come to:

Lyons, Costello, Tuley, Owens, Perry, Stevenson, Denton, Reckewey, Farnsworth, Hayman, Pickens, Stevenin, Moose, Hannaman, Rortert, Morton, and Alter.

I love you all, and I would not have made it without your support. Thank you for accepting me for who I am, and not trying to change me. We are all so different from each other, which has, at times, made it hard to live with one another. But we have always worked things out, and in the end we have always gone home happy. Here's to the good times and the bad times, and most of all to the memories. Good luck, I know you will all go far.

With all of my love,

Christine - Now it's been a long time. Matt - What a guy you've taken me on for four years! Matt All I can time - I love you always. Say is I've watched you go from a boy to a man and wow what a change - TO MY WONDERFUL FRIENDS,

At long last! I am free! I am also leaving behind the greatest years of my life. Ahh - the parties, the B-B-Qs, the fun - I'll never forget it or how great it's been to be a part of the greatest class of all time, the class of 1990! I wouldn't have made it, however, without the help of the following people:

Christlanda Adkins-Thanx for all the candy and for helping to keep me from becoming too corrupt!

Helen Blottman-Thanx for your absolutely unlimited supply of stimulating conversation subjects at lunch, in the hall, etc.

Christine Kuchar-Well, what can I say- you were always the one who was supersensitive to other's emotions. I think our little clique really needed that. Don't change, stay natural- you know, like granola.

Sarah Still-You've stuck with me though thick and thin and shown me that there is really no limit to a person's potential for insanity. That's not all, but I do have limited space so I'll have to leave it at that.

Kristie Watson-The way I figure it, when we finally go our separate ways, you'll probably take a part of me with you - literally. Actually though, your unrelenting bursts of energy have perked me up on many a morning - even though I acted annoyed.

Robin Worthington(Our honorary- well, I won't say it - it's so overdone)-You, Robin, have the prestigious honor of being the first girl I've met who can genuinely make me laugh out loud consistently! Thanx for being a "glimmer of hope," so to speak.

So that's it - the end of high school/the beginning of life. Farewell SW-I wish you all the best in life. Oh, one more thing- Sarah Still, Burrabcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyzzrrp.

So there.

Senior Year....ohh....the fun....of doing what you want.....

Homecoming...the 6-pack...(of DP)...

THE PARTY- Hey you, I won't forget who broke my table... Sean's got a gun!!! THE AFTERMATH- 2-days of cleaning... and then 2 weeks of punishment (but it was worth it). These are probably the best years.... I'd like to thank all the SENIORS for just being AWESOME. Also there were Juniors who made it fun too...

L.D. and B.D. I LOVE YOU BOTH!!!! And one J/S ..R.W. Sorry for the burpps!! BE EXCELLENT TO EACH OTHER AND PARTY ON!!!!

SENIORS
RULE!!

Well, folks, this is it. Certainly it has been an adventure. As I silently sit surveying said SW, I see how much we have grown, learned, discovered, and matured (well, most of us anyway).

Thus, whereas, heretoforth, and therein:

>FROSH

j. joy party, lizard what?; homecoming i got dissed, but made it home; too many: college, park, s. still house, harvest, but ny eve: jump back, s. linnhoff's: sorry about that there table; bbq ii; wintersport: did you paint that on still?; STARSHIP; goodbye a. martinez it was real; m. thiim, heimo; pogos-shall we dance?; on to the ozarks, or was it padre?; thanks, all you great teachers of mine: morton, tuley, stevenson, selvey, owens, lyons, tuley, lyons, rana?; sure got to know you all well: s. bernard-vive la canadienne, k. watson-can i have that back, please?, r. worthington: honorary senior, them three studs with whom i'm pictured.

...and all the rest.

And so it goes; all over, but yet it has just begun. And now as I push forth into the muck and prepare to mount a new philly (sorry tuley) I hope, as someone said to me last year, that you just remember me every now and then.

My Dear Kendra,

Appreciation is only said for a deed well done. Friendship sometimes lasts only a short while, but the love a mother has for her daughter lasts forever. Congratulations on a job well done in school throughout the years. I'm so proud that you did so well.

Good Luck!

With love, Mother, sister, and son

Dearest Kristie,

I look at pictures of you when you were young and I recall a darling, enthusiastic little girl. Although you were helpless and dependent you already had a kind and sensitive nature.

As you grew up we went through many ups and downs together. Little did I know what a treasure you would grow into.

You are still darling, enthusiastic, kind and sensitive. But you are no longer helpless and dependent.

You are blossoming into a fine young woman.

For all that lies ahead of you, for all your dreams and aspirations, for all the times you will stumble and get up to try again, for all your successes and all your failures, I will be there to cheer you on. I BELIEVE IN YOU.

I cherish our journey through the years together past, present and future. I find joy and sadness in letting go and watching you move on into a life of your own. I have been truly blessed to have you for a daughter.

Love, Mom

Dear Christine,

18 years ago your mother and I were learning to live with a new daughter; 18 years later we must prepare to live without her presence, her vivaciousness, her laughter, warmth and being. Your mother and I send you off into a bigger world now with our blessings. It is not the same world your mother and I eagerly began to explore so many years ago. We did not have to face so many choices and dilemmas. The world was stable, people looked forward to doing as their parents did. Getting a job, buying a home, and building a family. Those avenues are not as easy for your generation. We were faced with the communist threat and fallout shelters. You are faced with economic uncertainty. Gone are your days of playing house and Barbies. Ahead are real lives and real peoples. People to love and know and be friends with and cherish. Everyone has something to add to your life. Pick out the good, reject the bad. Thank God every morning for giving you that day to live, wherever it may be. This life is just a speck of eternity and we are strangers passing through. Remember your faith, cherish it and hold it tight as a treasure. There is a rock in life to hold on to. Jesus and Mary are the same, yesterday, today and tomorrow, ever ready to help us through an unstable world, a world just such as you are facing today. Your mother and I send you out with our love, our hopes, our prayers and our dreams to do that which we have not yet finished.

Love and Prayers, Dad and Mom

To all my friends with whom I've shared these days, I will forever cherish our friendship, and will remember it always.

Danika

As we go our separate ways and achieve our highest goals, we will meet many new friends. But the friendship we have is among the best and will last forever. So whatever you do and wherever you go, just remember, 'you can count on me.'

Erika

To the crew, we've had fun clownin' these past years, and as we go our separate ways, always remember the past days.

SENIORS '90
WE OUTTA HERE!!

Iranita

To all of my closest and dearest friends, we have been through a lot and our friendship is still growing. I wish you all the best! I'm gonna miss you guys.

L. Shawna

As we go our separate ways, I hope we all find what we're looking for...whatever it may be!... We've had some really special moments and I hope you will cherish them and our friendship the way that I do. Good luck and keep in touch!!!

Angela

Being friends doesn't mean we have to be together, but as long as we know that we're there, it will last forever.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE....

My Best Friend- Billy McClinton, We were at one time scared of each other. Thanks to Mrs. Stevenson's Biology tests we became good phone study buddies. Then along came The Monte...Then Gyrruss..Then Flames..Then Metro...Then LeSabre...Then school and 4-12am shifts...Moments to remember..awkward but true...Until the end of time I will always love you.

My Buddy- Sheneda Briscoe, We were nerds with good grades during 7th and 8th grade. We were still nerds during 9th and 10 grade...grades so-so. During 11th and 12th grade we found out what true friendship really means. We both found out, the hard way, that just because someone is 'on our side' doesn't mean that they won't stab you in the back!! Our Motto- 'Be Yourself. Be Yourself' IGNORANCE IS BLISS...KNOWLEDGE IS KING.

My love- Michael Bohannon, You predicted in 1987 that 10 years from then you would be living happily with a beautiful wife and a son to teach how to play football. Sweetheart, all of your dreams will someday come true.

BACK TO LIFE!!!

Danika, 'Bon Bon', 'Less go baffoom'/ Johanna, 'Not in the pool!', URAHO/ Christa, 'Austin Boston Action Jackson' Kick The Can/ LaTonya, 'I don't know why they like it like that.'/ Wanda, 'I thank Candy too'/ LaShawna, 'Did you do your french??' Stop poppin' that '*@%# gum!!/ Carl, Crabman/LaShunda, 'Where were you yesterday??/ Sharon Payne, Smelly Stuart's Stuff, Dr. Skill, 'I miss you!'/ Culver, URAHO/ Thanks to Mr. Selvey, Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. Tuley, Mrs. Stevenson, Mr. Morton, Mrs. Scotch, Mrs. Shelton, and especially my mom and dad. Through all the hard times you two were always on my side, always kept my ego down and my spirits high. Thanks also to Joan and Jane for being my 'moms', even when you doubted my sanity. To Jimmy, we're the best brother/sister pair since Greg & Marsha Brady. To David and Herb, my 'BIG Brotha' and my 'NUTTY Brotha', Love Ya'. To Kristie, Precious, Erika, Diama and Monica-We've been through some stupid 'stuff' during the past 6 years. 'Nuff said! Friends-R-4-Ever!! To all the others that made my years at SW glorious 'Thanks dudes.Live long & prosper, Don't be stupid and remember...Bart says'Don't have a cow mann!!', Oowww Quitit!!'

Dear Matt,
 Southwest has provided you with a good education, good friends, and many special opportunities. You have done so well. We hope you will continue to grow fully into the man God meant you to be.

Love,
 Mom, Dad, and Lynley

Dear Jamie,

We are proud of the person you have become and of all your many accomplishments. As you go forth to make your contribution to humankind, we give you these timeless treasures:

There are no problems, only opportunities for growth and creativity.

Thought is the master builder.

The best you can do and be rises out of silence.

You can take your pain as well as your dreams to God.

"Love one another" is a commandment worthy of your attention and dedication.

You are blessed by being a blessing.

Love,
 Mom, Dad, and Ben

It's been fun to know you the past couple of years. It's hard to believe how much we've had in common with friends we've known, guys we've known and plus equal experiences in almost anything. Thanks for being a friend and being there to understand. I Love you Helen and don't forget me next year.

Sincerely,

Love,

To all my friends throughout the years, we've all had fun growing up together. Through the good times and the bad, happy times and sad the class of '90 will forever last. Just to mention a few: Amy, Karen, Monica, Wanda, Erika, Daima, Bert, Chris, Kim R., Snubby, Tranita, LaShelle, Alexis, Dominic, Stacey, Alexis, Larry, Culver, Tyrone, and many, many more.

Toni: My other sister, "What would you say," "Just flabber yourself," "My daddy bleed the ear off," gambling with pennies (the laugh). It seems as though some of the best times I can remember have been spent with you there. Through all the years we've been together, I know our friendship will last forever.

Nika: (all you have to do is laugh) I'll always know what you're talking about.

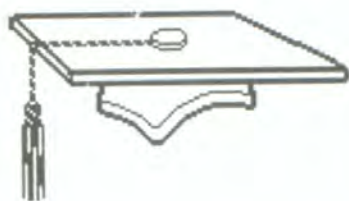

Shawn: "Girl let me tell you what happened."
Angie: "What yall talkin' about." To my "Poo" posse, without you three these years could have never been complete. We've had so much fun being together, times I will never forget; and if ever we part; I want you all to know, you will forever have a place in my heart.

With love, always and forever,

Christa Michele

You have been a good friend to me for a long time. Thanks for being there for me. Well, we are splitting up and going to college next year. I just want to say that I love you and stay out of trouble! And never change!!!

Next year is going to be a hard, nerve racking, upsetting, frustrating long year. You'll love every minute of it! Things next year are going to change drastically, too. But I have one request of you three nuts! Stay together and cherish your friendship through all the good and bad times. Stick together.

I'll always remember our times together. I love all four of you very much.

My Dearest Friends,

Over the past 4 years, we've become very close. We've shared the good and the bad times, the happy and the sad; but we've managed to stay the closest of friends. The skippin' parties, the proms, the get togethers, the barbeques, and all the fun we've encountered will always be remembered. So to each of you I say, "May all your brightest dreams come true and your most desired wishes be fulfilled." It's been real, but now it's time to move on. I love you all!!!

GOOD LUCK!!!

Friends forever,
