In seeking someone to whom to dedicate the 1993 Sachem, there were three criteria for which fulfillment was sought: first, it was felt that the person so honored must have been a graduate of Southwest High School; second, that they had devoted their professional life to education; and third, that they have served as an inspiration to other students who have themselves become educators. Our choice has met all three requirements, and is exemplary of the best aspects of all three.

Margaret Stansell North Hunnacutt graduated from Southwest High School in 1935, where she was a member of the National Honor Society, being invited to return the following year (1936) to help with the presentation and induction of the new members.

After graduation, she attended the University of Kansas City Conservatory of Music on a scholarship, and did additional work at Park College. While attending Park College, she was a soprano soloist with the College A Cappella Chorus, a beauty queen, and Queen of the May, an honor given to the senior girl who earned the greatest number of votes from the senior boys. Among her vocal performances at Park College were the double roles of Eurydice and Diana in Jacque Offenbach's Orpheus in the Underworld, which she performed on alternate nights. Also while in college, she was a member of Mu Phi Epsilon (a music fraternity) and Pi Kappa Lambda (an honorary music fraternity). Among the numerous honors and awards she has earned in competition was the privilege of appearing on Art Linkletter's House party in a national broadcast, placing second in a national competition for Ted Mack, placing in national competitions and singing with Fred Waring and Horace Heidt. She was also a member of the Kansas City Chamber Singers, the first professional choral group to be organized in Kansas City.

She has since become a member of N.A.T.S. (The National Association of Teachers of Singing.) She has been a teacher of private voice at the Conservatory of Music, Both at the Instructor and Assistant Professor levels, participating in a number of faculty recitals during her tenure. Outside the classroom she has maintained a busy performing schedule, serving at various times as a soprano soloist for the First Church of Christ Scientist in Kansas City, Kansas, The Country Club Congregational Church (near Southwest High School), and the Temple B'Nai Jehudah. She still performs actively as a soloist at the Lee's Summit Village Church, and with several ensembles at John Knox Village. She has also sung with the U.M.K.C. Civic Orchestra as a soloist in a performance of Samuel Barber's Knoxville Summer 1914.

Many of her former students have kept in touch and have gone on to professional careers in teaching and performing, encouraged by Margaret's example and guidance. She says that she still finds the satisfactions of teaching equal to those of performing.

All of her children have attended Southwest High School. Jocelyn North starred as Julie in Roger's and Hammerstein's Carousel in her senior year, completed her degree in Music Education at Pittsburgh University in Kansas, and has taught both there and in Tennessee. Carol North was featured as Laurie in Oklahoma, and is now a singer with the Saint Louis Symphony Chorus, and the Artistic Director of the Metro Theatre of Saint Louis. Larry North and Lisa North started at Southwest, and then completed their high school educations across the state line in Kansas.

The thing that she remembers best about Southwest is the hard work and the pride of attending a school that was noted for being one of the best schools in the country at preparing their graduates for advanced education. One additional memory that still comes to mind is receiving an 8th hour from the Vice-Principal (J.G. Bryant) for throwing confetti at a football game.

Her advice to our current students is to decide exactly what you want to do with your life, prepare yourself well academically to meet this goal, and then not hesitate to aim for it, because that is what you will do best.
