Administration

For eighteen years Mrs. Orville C. Green has served as Headmistress of Sunset Hill School. She received her B.A. and M.A. degrees from Northwestern University and did advanced study at the University of Chicago. Before her appointment at Sunset Hill, Mrs. Green was Dean of Girls and teacher of Latin and History at the North Shore Country Day School in Winnetka, Illinois. For two years she served as vice-president of the National Association of Principals of Schools for Girls and as a representative on the Association's council. For four years she was a member of the School and College Committee of that same organization. Mrs. Green is a member of the Headmistresses Association of the Middle West.

Class History

The average member of the Class of 1957 has spent  $7\frac{1}{3}$  years at Sunset Hill School. Among the notable achievements of these average members were the winning of the Field Day cup their junior year, the winning of the class hockey and basketball cups their senior year, and the tranquilizing of the Senior Room from "black and fuchsia" to light gray.

Now, because of the assistance of Mrs. Green and our long-suffering teachers, we are able to leave the gates of Sunset Hill behind us for the colleges of our first, second, or third choice.

Best of luck to the girls in the Class of 1958. May they depart as regretfully as we.

The Sunset Hill Student Council was formed in 1922 to give the students a voice in the school government. Each class, eighth grade through twelfth grade chooses one representative each semester. In the spring the three officers of the Council are elected by the upper school students and teachers to serve for the following year. All Council members must be in Honor Study Hall.

Every other Monday afternoon the officers and representatives meet with Mrs. Green, their sponsor, to carry out the duties of the Council. These include supervising study halls, approving the list of girls for Honor Study Hall, taking roll call and lunch hour duty, and initiating new school projects. The Council sponsors such activities as the Student Council Picnic, Christmas Revels, May Day, and paper sales. Money raised from the paper sales is used to aid needy European children. Evangelos Playagos, a Greek boy, and Lucia Protynick, a Polish refugee child in West Germany, are now receiving this aid. Student Council sends to each of them monthly clothing and food parcels and Christmas packages. The Council members exchange letters with the children.

The Lower School Student Council was founded at approximately the same time as the Upper School Student Council. It has been functioning most of the time since then, and now is an integral part of the lower school. The president and vice-president are elected by the entire lower school from the seventh grade in the spring of one year to serve for the first semester of the following year. In January a new president and vice-president are elected for the second semester. Each class in the lower school elects a representative and a sergeant-at-arms twice a year. From these girls the other officers are chosen by the Student Council. The Student Council meets with its sponsor, Mrs. Gage, the second and fourth Thursday of every month and has a luncheon every third Thursday to which Mrs. Green and the president of the Upper School Student Council are invited.

The Council makes rules for the lower school and appoints committees. Each girl in the lower school brings ten cents a week which is spent for needy organizations such as the Camp for Diabetic Children, March of Dimes, United Funds, and the Junior Red Cross. The profits from their two paper sales go toward the support of Evangelos and Lucia. Every Friday the president presides over an assembly, organized by the assembly chairman.

The Athletic Association is composed of one member from each class of the upper school and the officers elected by the entire upper school in the spring. Mrs. Balmeo serves as faculty sponsor. The Athletic Association this year organized for the students many extracurricular events such as the successful fall and spring dances. It also arranged the hockey and basketball playdays with Barstow and the varsity hockey game with John Burroughs of St. Louis. Field Day included intramural tournaments, races, volley ball games, and tennis, badminton, and ping-pong matches—all of which were organized by the A. A. The presentation of athletic awards occurred at the end of the year at the annual Athletic Association luncheon.

The Social Service Board is composed of two representatives from each upper school class. Its sponsor is Miss Wied. The upper school elects the president of the board each spring from the incoming Senior Class.

During the year the Social Service Board held drives for the United Funds, the March of Dimes, and the Junior Red Cross. At Thanksgiving, under the direction of the Social Service Board, each class adopted a family and took food to it. At Christmastime the classes again took food, clothing and gifts to needy families. The Social Service Board also sponsored the dressing of Salvation Army Dolls by the students and faculty. At Thanksgiving and at Easter, the board representatives made tray favors for hospitals. This fall, clothing was given to the Hungarian Relief. In the spring a picnic was held for a children's center.

Library Board

OFFICERS

President	Diane Wiens
Secretary	Jan Buckingham
Treasurer	Jane Seaver

The members of the Library Board are chosen from the high school and eighth grade classes by the board of the previous year. In the spring the board nominates three members, of at least one year's service, for the presidency. The entire high school then elects the president from the girls nominated. Mrs. Barnes is both chief librarian and Library Board sponsor.

The main functions of the Library Board are to provide librarians, to help choose new books for the library, and to sponsor the annual Book Fair.

Assemblies

Once a week an assembly is given by class or activity groups, outside speakers, or individual students. The Chairman of Assemblies, chosen in the spring by the upper school from the incoming Senior Class, and her assistant, chosen from the Junior Class in the fall, plan and organize the assemblies.

Among the typical assemblies was that given by the second and third year Latin students, portraying several of Cicero's famous orations. Since this was an election year, the senior and eighth grade history classes held a mock campaign and election. The talent assembly was participated in by members of all classes of the upper school. There were also several entertaining French assemblies, ranging from a freshman hat shop to a junior presentation of "La Parure." A spelling bee was supervised by Mrs. Green, Mrs. Thompson, and Miss Manry. The outside speakers who gave assemblies included Mr. Hans Sweiger, the Reverend Oscar Gustafson, Pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Independence, and Miss Nancy Riffe, who had modeled in Paris.

The Sundial

The Sundial is a relatively new enterprise at Sunset Hill. Organized by the graduating class of 1954 and continued under the excellent sponsorship of Mrs. Thompson, it provides the students and faculty with a means of reminiscing over the past years.

The incoming senior class elects the editors from among its members. The following fall, the junior class elects junior assistants to help the editors and to learn how the yearbook is put out.

The advertising staff leaves the school during activity period to solicit ads. The literary staff contributes articles written in the girls' spare time. The snapshots are furnished by members of the photography staff who take pictures at all school affairs.

The Sunsetter

When the Sunsetter was established four years ago, the newspaper was an activity; but in two years it was made a board. However, the staff still meets with its sponsor, Miss Manry, during the regular Thursday afternoon activity period in order to have two full periods for work. Since the Sunsetter is a board, its editor is elected in the spring by the entire upper-school student body and faculty. The assistant editor is elected in the fall by the staff.

Although the first issue of this year's Sunsetter was printed, it was found impossible to afford the cost of printing the paper all year. However, Mr. Cahal offered to multilith the remaining issues.

A Cappella

The A Cappella choir consists of thirty-five girls from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes. The choir takes part in numerous school events. The 1956-1957 A Cappella contributed greatly to the commencement exercises, and to the music for Vespers, helped with the carol singing at Revels, and also caroled for the Christmas music festival on the Plaza.

The annual Student Council Picnic was held September 26 to introduce everyone to the eighth grade, new faculty, and new students. The Bronze and Gold teams opened the hockey season, the Bronze team winning the first game and being tied in the second by the Gold team. Later, when everyone was full of hamburgers and "frosties" served by the Student Council, each class and the new faculty gave a skit.

Book Fair

The annual Book Fair was held early in November in the Mellon Building. Again this year the books were furnished by the Cokesbury Book Store. The school received a commission which went to the upper and lower school library funds. The library committee, headed by Mrs. E. P. Weatherly, Jr., who was assisted by a number of competent mothers, made this a very successful Book Fair.

The 1956 Vespers play, given by the Junior Class, recounted a story of the woodcarvers of Falls. Because God had given them their talent, these woodcarvers refused to carve other than for the churches until they were shown by the Christ Child that it was as important to make toys for children as it was to carve saints for the church.

The lower school chorus opened the Vespers program by singing Christmas carols. The juniors' play was accompanied by the upper school chorus and “A Cappella” under the direction of Mrs. Huneycutt.

Mrs. Scott adapted the play from a Christmas story and directed its production. The art classes, under the direction of Miss Hullsick, painted the scenery for the play. Another presentation of the play was given for the workers of the Salvation Army on the Tuesday following Vespers.

Revels

This year, as every year since 1916, the faculty and students of Sunset Hill celebrated Revels in the Medieval English tradition. The costumed merrymakers gathered first in the main hall, where they were led in carols by the Master of Revels, Susan Foresman. The Yule Log was dragged in by the seventh graders with the littlest first grader, Debby Noah, atop. Miss Young lighted this year's log with a brand from that of the previous year. As the log burned, the revelers were entertained by Christmas stories told by Carol Schwartz and Rise Terney. On their way to the gym, students and teachers dropped their Christmas money for the help into the Wassail Bowls.

During the grand march in the gym, cookies baked by the fifth grade were offered to the merrymakers. Joanne Brown, who found the bean in her cookie, was crowned King of Revels and her partner, Marty McClelland, became Queen of Revels. The King and Queen presided over the games and relays in which all took part. As a climax to the entertainment in the gym, the seniors presented their Christmas skit.

Everyone then went to the dining room for the traditional turkey dinner, the procession of the Boar's Head, and Christmas songs.

The May Queen, Carol Schwartz, and her court, Kay Cromb, Katy Eckels, Sue Hunter, and Sallie Schirmer, presided over the May Day festival on Friday, May 10. This year, May Day was run according to Old English tradition. A jester, Jessie Benton, opened the festivities. After the nursery school presented the queen and her court with May baskets, all the classes from pre-school through high school, directed by Mrs. Mosely, entertained them with dances from many European countries. The Seventh Grade wound the May Pole to end the 1957 May Day festival.

Sunset Hill traveled to St. Louis for the most outstanding event of the 1956 hockey season. Sunset was well represented: approximately ninety girls and parents accompanied the team by train to St. Louis, where each girl on our team spent the night with a Burroughs team member. The game was good, a little too good for Sunset. The Burroughs team made three goals in the first half, while Sunset did not score. In the second half, Sunset made one spectacular goal, but Burroughs came through with two more to win by a score of five to one. After the game, John Burroughs served a delicious luncheon for team members and guests. Then everyone went out to watch Pem Day beat John Burroughs in football.

We hope the Burroughs-Sunset rivalry will continue in the future. However, next year we hope the score will be different.

Spring A. A. Dance
