THE

FALCON

1957

This is OUR school. It is more than a beautiful and modern structure of classrooms. It is OUR students who put life into this building; it is OUR teachers who pass on knowledge, acquired during their years of study, to these students; it is OUR administration who coordinates the activities of both students and faculty into a smooth functioning high school.

But above all these material ingredients is OUR intangible spirit of pride and school loyalty that touches with invisible fingers each one who enters our portal. We assume OUR responsibility to build traditions which shall be guideposts for those who will follow in OUR footsteps.

We hope this edition of the 1957 Falcon will provide you with many happy memories of this year of OUR life at Van Horn High School and will be both an inspiration and a challenge to strive always toward higher goals.

OUR PROBLEMS ARE THEIRS

Van Horn students are guided, supervised, and improved through the efforts of the administrators. They are confronted with, and solve many problems in order to maintain a smooth functioning high school. They are the liaison between students and faculty.

Mr. Madison Griffith came to Van Horn this year as Principal. Throughout the year he has been here he has shown a deep interest and understanding of every phase of school life, and thus has gained the admiration and respect of both the students and his co-workers.

Mr. Edgar Curtis, our vice-principal has helped to guide our discipline through firmness, kindness, and understanding.

Miss Helen Johnson, our counselor, has assisted students by helping them to better understand their personal problems, their abilities, aptitudes, and interests.

Our faculty has worked hard to teach us those elements of service, scholarship, leadership, and character traits which will help make us successful and happy citizens. Besides regular classes each day, they sponsored clubs, societies, various other organizations, helped us with the school publications, activities and presentations. They emphasized that each student should assume a personal responsibility to help make this school function smoothly and democratically.

Mr. J. L. Laughlin presents our new principal, Mr. Madison Griffith.

OUR CLASSES

SENIORS

To face the future in readiness for what may be ahead and to benefit from experiences which they shared have been the aim of the graduating class of 1957.

OUR seniors received their first glimpse of the adult responsibilities awaiting them through participation in such activities as Business Education Day, College Day, Student City Hall Day, and through other various school functions. They are looking forward to a time when they will be recognized as adults. With faith in their own ability, OUR seniors are now ready to step into the world.

OUR seniors will remember their classmates with whom they have worked and shared years of experience. They will remember class preparations, study hours—early and late—and, of course, grades. The early morning "gab" sessions in the student lounge, mad dashes to the cafeteria, and each thrilling moment of athletic events will never be forgotten. The special events will be the first to come to mind: the eager anticipation of opening nights, the joys and disappointments of "lit night", and the Prom, which has a special place in everyone's memory. Then came the last big events, baccalaureate services and finally—graduation!

OUR seniors have taken their final step into the adult world.

OUR juniors showed outstanding leadership, cooperation, initiative and originality in various activities throughout the year. They won honors in oratory, gained successful achievements in athletics and helped to make Vantasia a success. They also assumed whole responsibility for planning the Junior-Senior Prom, which proved to be a memorable occasion.

Now, only a step away from becoming the leaders of OUR student body, the juniors have made preparation for their final year as Falcons. They look to the past for experience and to the future for the test of their learning.

OUR SONG . . .

*Proudly as the Falcon wings his flight on high
Let our song be swelling upward to the sky.
Sing we of our praises for the school most dear
We will spread the glory of her victories far and near.*

FALCONS ACHIEVE NATIONAL HONOR

COACHES GIVE TIME AND EFFORT

Reaching toward goals, even unattainable ones, is more valuable than actually attaining them. This striving, in a sport, means self-discipline, training of the mind and body, development of individual character, and the realization that team spirit and team play are paramount, even to the point of subjugating one's personal desires.

FIRST YEAR VARSITY DISPLAYS MUCH IMPROVEMENT THROUGHOUT SEASON

Football teams are not built overnight; long, hard practices are necessary. Experience and confidence are realized only through actual playing time. Although the team's record of one win and seven losses has not been outstanding, we have proven ourselves worthy of our opponents. Excellent morale, good sportsmanship, and steady improvement throughout the year has, however, by far overshadowed our losses.

CROSS COUNTRY POPULAR WITH STUDENTS

Of the track events in high school competition, the two mile cross country run is a very grueling trial for contestants. Also the event is popular with audiences. Our cross country team has done very well this year and boasts a five won, five lost, and one tied record. Its final accomplishment was to win fifth place in the city meet over a rugged course in Swope Park.

The cross country team prepares to run at the sound of the gun.
Jim Whipple and Kenneth Dewey are victorious against Manual.

The team. "To your mark, get set, go!"

FALCONS LEAVE

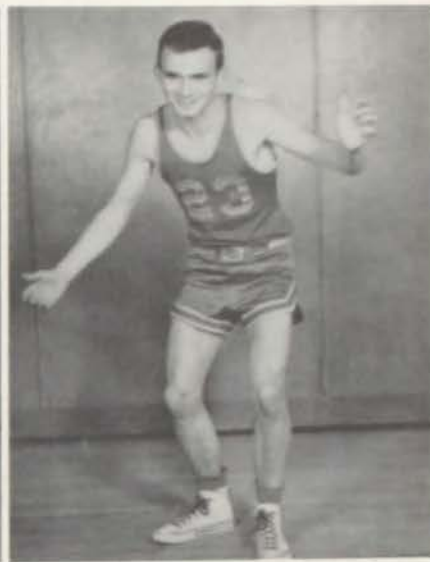

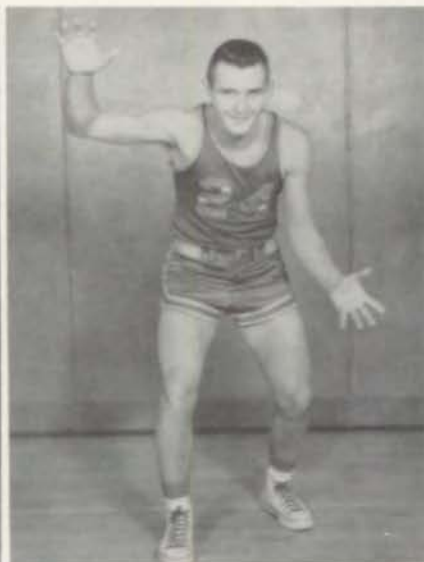

Van Horn cagers proved stiff competition for other league teams. A year's good experience behind them, the team set out to show further skill and improvement on the court. Enthusiasm, desire to win and good support from the stands kept the season at a rousing peak of interest.

TRACKMEN DISPLAY

INDIVIDUALITY AS WELL AS TEAM WORK

Of the three competitive sports at Van Horn, track places more emphasis on individual ability. The same principles of good sportsmanship and greater skill apply; however, the competition is on an individual performance or on a team work basis. Our A-team trackmen have successfully upheld this goal and have shown much improvement in their personal abilities.

Chuck Allen goes on to another victory.

promise in hurdling, dashes, distance running, and relays.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Our girls are fortunate in their opportunity to participate in a well-rounded program. Not only are fundamentals taught, but further advancement of one's skills in sports is encouraged. Good sportsmanship, leadership, and a friendly spirit of competition are also important as agreed by Mrs. Miller, Mrs.

Hensley, Mrs. Morris, and Miss Haize, our four instructors. Our intramural program has proven very popular, with girls reporting in large numbers, for this after school activity. They then have a chance to compare their abilities with girls from all classes and to enjoy wholesome, relaxing recreation.

Miss Helen Haize replaced Mrs. Miller (reserve teacher) at the beginning of the second semester.

FALCON GIRLS GAIN SPORTS DAY HONORS

Van Horn girls participated in hockey, basketball, and softball sportsdays this year. Although Van Horn is the youngest school to enter this annual competition, we have earned a name for our ability and good sportsmanship. The basketball sportsday, which was the first to be held at Van Horn, proved to be a great success.

INTRAMURALS

"Howdy, St. Mary's, howdy."
greeted Jean Potts.

Splits were done on "Two Bits" by Judy O'Dell.

"Hit 'em high, hit 'em low!"
cheered Jane Shafer.

"HAVE THEY GOT THAT SPIRIT?"

Carole Roper was up in the air on
"G-O."

"Hey, Van Horn fight, fight, fight!" yelled Beverly Phillips.

Sue Patton yells, "Victory, victory, that's our cry."

"Hey Falcons, what do we have to do?" said Sandy Pennington.

Here before you is the final proof of Van Horn's success in achieving school spirit and loyalty. The key to our success has proven to be the willingness of the athletes themselves to keep striving toward higher goals.

GREATEST SINGLE ASSET TO SCHOOL

Our Student Council has worked hard to promote student activities, better teacher-student relationships, and a wholesome attitude toward life in OUR school and community.

Organized late in December, the newest of the four societies made many important decisions. Among them was the choosing of the name Athenian, the colors green and white, the election of officers, and the aims of the club. Troop 1313 of the National Thespians was organized at Van Horn early in January of 1957. Thespians get their name from Thespis, the first actor. National Thespians is an honor society for students interested in theatre and public speaking. To be selected, one must acquire a minimum of 10 points to be awarded for activities in speech and dramatic work. Their motto is "Act well your part, there all the honor lies." During the year, Thespians presented assemblies, public speaking contest winners, and an excellent spring play—all of which added to the pleasure of our high school year.

Norman Benson, Sue Patton, Doris Pitt, Bob Dickeson, and Carole Roper watch Gene Brockus take the easy way out in "The Great Bottleneck Diamond."

Nancy Kepner, Janice Chapin, and Martha Johnson look on as Paula Stauffer calmly slaughters grand opera in "Ladies of the Mop."

PIONEER INTO SECOND YEAR

Norma Lowe, Cynthia Spangler, Shirley Rapp, and Carole Robinson revise and set up advertising contracts for the next issue.

Copy reading the Pioneer are Rosalie Spencer, Nancy Harlin, Elaine Lowderman, and Wanda Woodell.

Highlighting the second year of publication of Van Horn's school newspaper, the Pioneer, was Norma Lowe's and Nancy Harlin's winning third place tie with Webster Groves High School in a newswriting contest at the Missouri Interscholastic Press Association convention held at Columbia, Missouri, November 2 and 3.

"This was a good sign for journalism at Van Horn," stated D. R. Smith, adviser, "because it isn't often that a new school can win honors in journalism so early in its career."

Although only twelve staff members edited and published the Pioneer this year, the paper ranked high on a list of Kansas City high school newspapers.

Norma Lowe and Cynthia Spangler, the only two second year students, were editor-in-chief and managing editor, respectively. The ten first semester students acted as reporters.

Pride is shown by Bill Peve, Leona Webb, Judy O'Dell, and Donna Curry following an edition of the Pioneer.

It's finished! The checking, double checking, and the worry is finally over. Together we have finished the 1957 Falcon. Hours and hours of work—memories of deadlines, wastebaskets full of discarded copy have now been mastered. The ready cooperation of the student body and the faculty was sincerely appreciated.

The Van Horn Concert Choir of sixty voices was quite busy in this, its second year. The Christmas Vespers and the Christmas assemblies, Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller," "Fantasy in Sound," and several other programs and assemblies were among the choir's activities.

The acquisition of robes and stoles meant a considerable sacrifice but a larger thrill to choir members. One of the year's chief projects was the financing of this investment.

The boys quartet, the girls trio, and the Choralaires were selected from personnel of the choir. These vocal ensembles were busy to varying degrees as they sang to a variety of audiences.

The spring season found the choir at the peak of its activity: an operetta in March, two programs in April, an all-city festival, and "Fantasy in Sound" in May and the Baccalaureate services in June.

In addition to the programs and hard work in class, there were many lighter moments. The annual fall picnic was adjudged to be a success, especially in light of the fact that none fell into Rock Creek. The party following "The Fortune Teller" and the spring breakfast were equally abundant in fun and food. The choir cabinet was composed of Ronald Batchelor, Kearney Pixler, Donna Myers, and Howard George.

THERE'S FUN AND LEARNING FOR CHOIR MEMBERS

OUR Girls' Choir of forty-five voices once again proved to be a musical match for any comparable group in the city. The girls worked diligently to present programs of high caliber to a variety of audiences. Building a repertoire of both frivolous and serious numbers, the choir sang for assemblies, the Christmas Vespers, the Easter program, "Fantasy in Sound," and the all-city music festival.

THE GIRLS' QUARTET: Evelyn May, Gail Benson, Shirley Maycock and Diana Sullivan.

THE GIRLS' SEXTET: Jane Dougherty, Billie Cary, Joyce Lockhart, Jean Myers, Beverly Phillips and Sally Jo Whisler.

THE GIRLS' TRIO: Carrah Hendrix, Evelyn May, Gail Benson.

Aside from the associations enjoyed by girls through their contact from day to day, there was additional fun and relaxation to be found at several parties that were scheduled. A Hallowe'en party in full regalia, Christmas caroling, and the Senior Farewell were enthusiastically received by all. The spirit of the choir was apparent in everything the girls attempted. Hard work and cooperation accounted for the success the group enjoyed.

The Girls' trio, the sextet, and quartet were among the busiest ensembles to be found. Chosen from Girls' Choir personnel, the groups represented our school well as they appeared before audiences. Participation in "Vantasia," the Vespers, and the music contests rated high among their many accomplishments.

FROM SEPTEMBER TO

Under the able direction of Mr. Wallace Fike, our band and orchestra were busy throughout the year furnishing us with music. During the football season they accompanied us to the games and gave us music which added much to the enthusiasm of the crowd. Their music often set the keynote for our assemblies and other school functions.

JUNE THEY GAVE US MUSIC

We stood just a little taller when they marched by in the gay and colorful American Royal Parade and the Independence Hallowe'en Parade, for they carried OUR Van Horn School Flag! The high spots of the band and orchestra season came in the Spring when they provided the music for the Operetta and the Fantasy in Sound Concert, an annual event which is the finale of the musical season.

INTO FIRST YEAR

Early this year a jazz band was organized under the direction of Mr. Fike. Seven members worked diligently to acquire music that would be entertaining and different to the student of Van Horn. Appearing in Vantasia was the band's first appearance before the public. It played "How Come You Do Me Like You Do?"

Organized for the first time this year, the Boys

Glee Club had an eventful past and there came good indications of a promising future. Practicing twice a week before school, the group readied itself for several programs which included "Vantasia," "The Fortune Teller," and "Fantasy In Sound." Since membership is open to all boys in high school, it is hoped that the group will grow with each passing year.

THEY SAY IT WITH PAINT!

Fifteen students in Van Horn wore a pin in the form of an artist's palette to signify they were members of the Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. Lucile Jenkins. The purpose of the club is to cultivate the appreciation and knowledge of its members regarding their choice and expression of art. They were kept busy throughout the year making posters to advertise various school activities. They were "behind the scenes" of every school show slapping paint on stage scenery.

Christmas was made brighter with Yuletide decorations.

Art Club members worked over time painting scenery for "Vantasia."

PEP CLUB GIRLS HELP CREATE SCHOOL SPIRIT

In their uniforms of red and gray, the Pep Club girls promote good sportsmanship, develop personality traits of sincerity, enthusiasm, and friendliness.

The Van Horn Pep Club has approximately 175 members. The organization is of vital importance in creating school spirit. Their attendance at every game is expected.

"VENDI, VIVI, VICI"

"VENI, VIDI, VICI" (I came, I saw, I conquered). This was our club motto and it embodied the club spirit of Latinus Duces. Our maroon and white banner identified us. We met bi-monthly before school with our sponsor, Mrs. King.

Learning Latin for everyday use was one of our club's main goals. In the year of 1956-57, we made posters, participated in Latin Plays and the language assembly, designed Christmas cards, and filled a basket for a needy family at Christmas.

LEARN SPANISH AND BE A GOOD NEIGHBOR !

Los Halcones, our Spanish Club, has 28 members with Miss Curnutt as their sponsor. They chose green, white, and red as their representative colors. All the members were enthusiastic about the following club activities which were held at various times throughout the year; Initiation, Reception Tea, Christmas-pinata style at Nancy Harlin's house, and the trip to Las Palmas to eat real Mexican food.

Each member is convinced that a knowledge of the Spanish language will bring about a better understanding of our Spanish speaking neighbors. ADIOS! HASTA LUEGO!

THEY SWIM FOR FUN

Sea Maids, organized in 1955 are concerned with acquiring proficiency in swimming. They met bi-monthly with Mrs. Hensley as their sponsor. Two important achievements were learning synchronization by swimming to records and increasing their speed by participating in races. Their favorite activity has been performing in water ballets which they created for themselves.

Through their club activities, members of the Van Horn chapter of the Future Homemakers of America strive to develop poise, skill, better judgment, and a sense of responsibility. Service projects, working for degrees, initiation, and exchanging activities with other chapters have been the main highlights of the year carried on under the able leadership of the F.H.A. officers and their sponsors, Mrs. Soapes and Mrs. Hopkins.

THEY LEARN THROUGH EXPERIENCE

Cooperative Occupational Education is a program provided by the high school in cooperation with business and industrial employers. It affords pupils an opportunity to select the type of work in which they are most interested and, with the aid of a coordinator, secure training employment in that work. Pupils spend approximately half of each day in school pursuing high school courses, the other half day is devoted to on the job training. The work experience training is school supervised and a unit of credit is granted for it in addition to the unit of credit for one hour of satisfactory class work.

DRIVER'S EDUCATION REDUCES ACCIDENTS

Evidence is clear that effective teaching of Driver Education to high school students is needed. The number of accidents among drivers who have taken this course is 50 per cent less than with drivers who have had no special training.

Van Horn students are taught by Mr. Nevin Wasson to develop fundamental and correct skills, self-confidence and poise while at the wheel, a knowledge of road laws and local regulations, and above all, a desire to drive safely.

TEEN TOWN FORMAL

Speakers for open house night were introduced by Mr. Griffith. They were students who represented extra-curricular activities in our school.

Ed Guffey, as a rich Texan, entertained Paula Stauffer, Mistress of Ceremonies.

From early fall to late spring, students found plenty of activities to enter into. School began in a whirl of exciting events—Open House, Assemblies, and Football Games were mixed in with first class assignments. At Van Horn scholastic achievement is not the only phase of education. Extracurricular activities are an important part of OUR educational program. Whether working on the newspaper, yearbook, participating in athletics, school shows, or assemblies we learn to cooperate and learn those elements of leadership which are impossible to learn in a class room. OUR feature shots help us to recall memorable experiences.

Van Horn fought hard and displayed outstanding sportsmanship.

Ronnie Batchlor and George Sullivan began experimenting in Physics class right away.

"Bums," Louise Teller and Donna Wade danced in "Vantasia."

Smiles on the faces of the girls in the chorus line of "Oh, That Hard Hearted Hannah" reminded our parents of the Roaring Twenties.

On December 6 and 7 the curtain rose on "Vantasia," OUR all-school variety show. Both students and directors worked hard to make it a memorable occasion. The show consisted of three acts varying from train scenes to Carnegie Hall.

Bob Dickeson, "I Speak For Democracy" winner, with runners-up: Gene Brockus, Martha Johnson, Delores Smith, Doris Pitt, Sondra Brockus, and W. B. Barnes.

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

"Love Your Neighbor," a three act farce-comedy was presented on April 11 and 12. A cast of twenty enacted the story of a small town family involved in marriage and a business merger. "Love Your Neighbor" played to the largest audience in the history of student productions at Van Horn. Audiences both nights thoroughly enjoyed the play and so did the actors and stage crews. The play was directed by Miss Nanabel Cassell, the dramatics instructor, and was judged a huge success by all who saw it.

"Hah, a Captain of Hussars, ripe for picking. Get busy."

The Royal Opera Ballet is waiting; men, do your duty.

"You'll have gowns, jewels, money, and best of all . . . me."

The Concert Choir and orchestra successfully cooperated once again in their production of Victor Herbert's musical comedy, "The Fortune Teller" on March 14 and 15 in our auditorium. Pictures can only hint at the color and beauty of the show, but the lilting melodies and funny lines will long be remembered.

"And don't forget to smile."

Smiles on the faces of the cast revealed that they enjoyed the show as much as did the audience.

1957 FALCON KING AND QUEEN

Dick Reimer crowned Nancee Kepner queen while George Sullivan received his diadem from Deanna Cary.

Reigning over the 1957 Falcon were Nancee Kepner, queen, and George Sullivan, king, both Seniors. The royal court consisted of Howard George, Pat Gamble, Jane Shafer, and Jim Tucker, all attendants to the king and queen. Nancee and George were crowned at our Record Hop, with Gene Davis from WHB presiding as master of ceremonies. Dick Reimer, editor, crowned the queen and presented her a dozen roses. Assistant editor, Deanna Cary, crowned the king and gave him a scepter. In December students voted on the king and queen by showing their receipts for the Falcon. Having a Falcon king and queen was a new experience for students at Van Horn.

ROYAL COURT, EDITOR, and ASSISTANT EDITOR—Howard George, Pat Gamble, Dick Reimer, Nancee Kepner, George Sullivan, Deanna Cary, Jane Shafer, and Jim Tucker.
