

ROY
1960

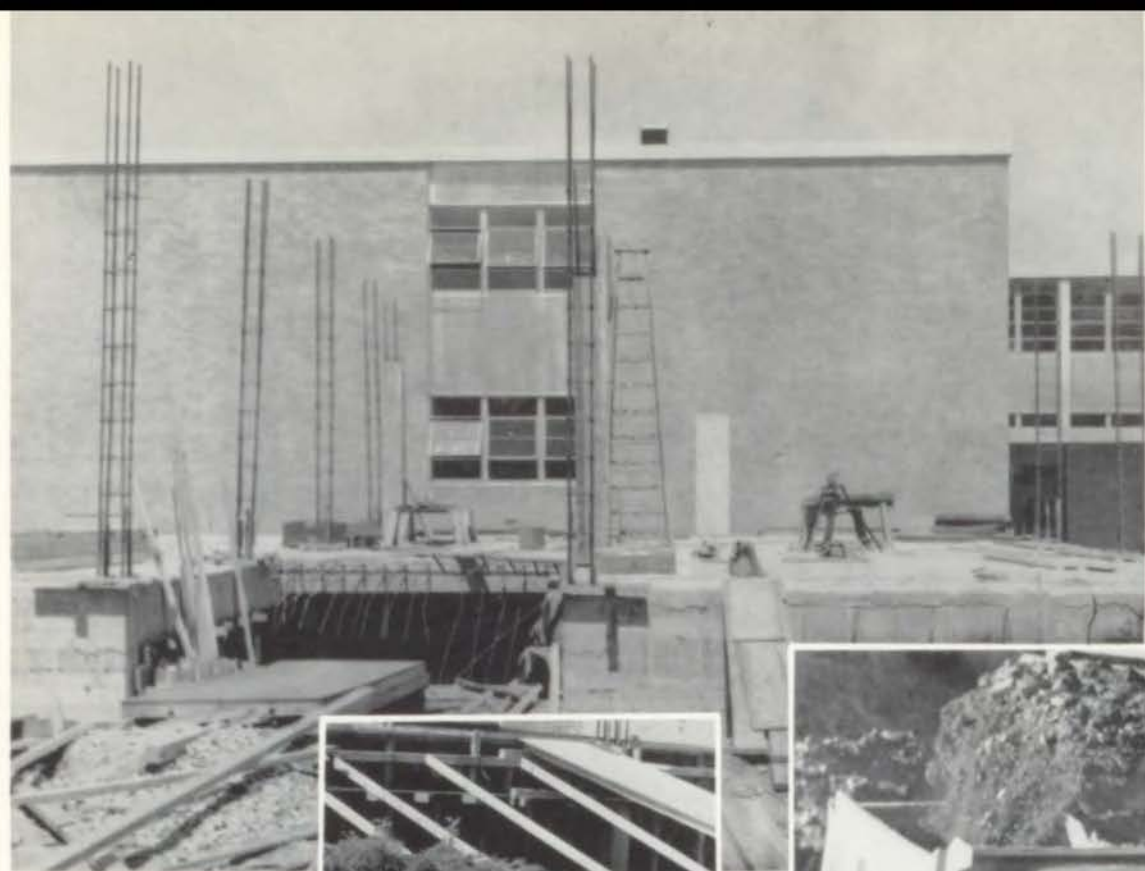

Few of you may recall the cover design of Van Horn's first yearbook five years ago. It showed a small falcon bursting forth from a large egg. This bird, enthusiastic and eager to try its wings, was the new Van Horn High School; the shell from which it came was the hopes and aspirations of the people of this community who had striven so long to see this school built for their children.

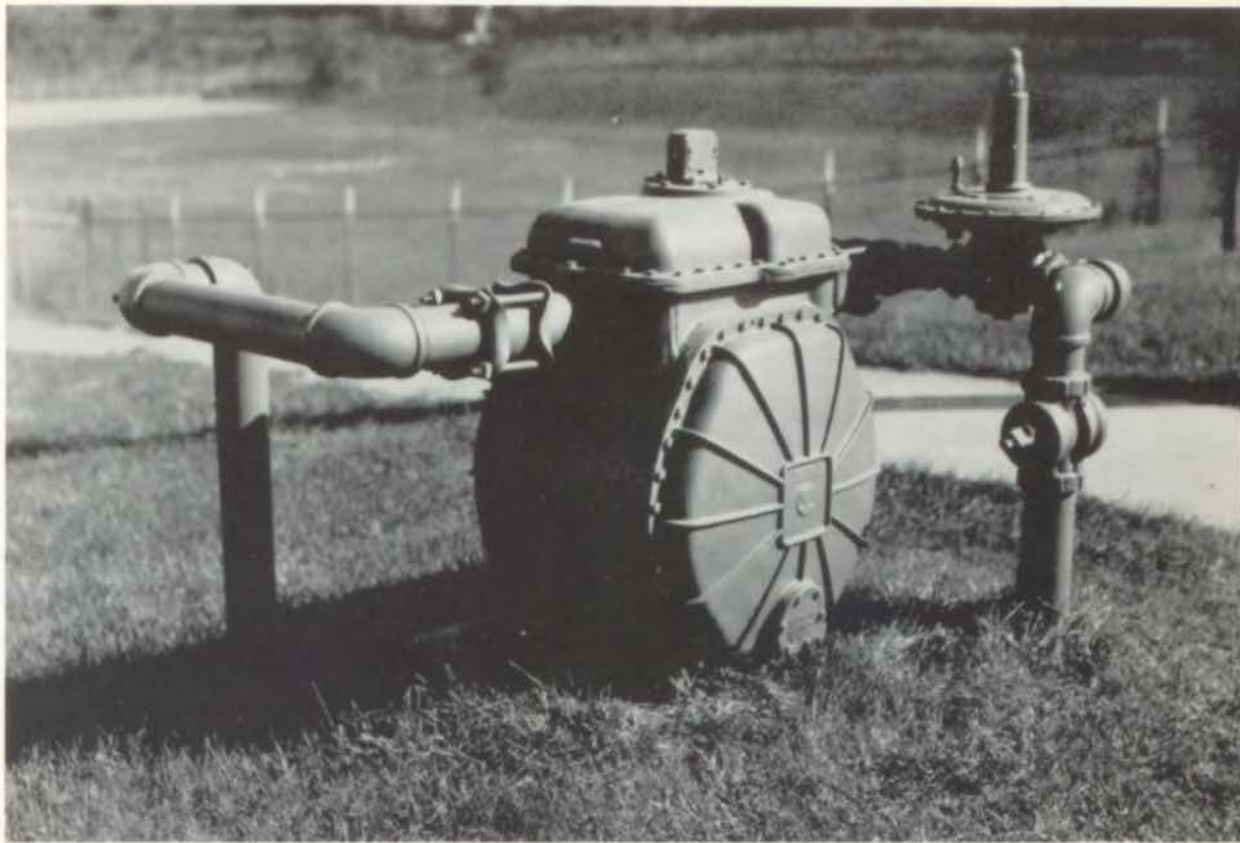

We who have been here the full five years have noted many changes in Van Horn—some sad, others for the better. We heard a lot about establishing traditions and setting an example for those who would come after us, and we have tried our best.

Even more important than what we've done for Van Horn is what Van Horn has done for us. Here we have learned a great deal, not only of what was written in our numerous textbooks, but also of other people and ourselves. We've discovered in what direction our own talents lie and have started on the road to their fullest development.

To learn to think and create ideas of our own is the chief reason that our educational system exists. Because of this, "Creativity" has been chosen by the yearbook staff of 1960 as the theme for the 1960 FALCON.

MORE FALCONS

DIVISIONS

The PIONEER STAFF hard at work on your paper.

PIONEER

In order to have a well-rounded school life, every school must have a newspaper; and Van Horn fulfilled this idea with the PIONEER. Every two weeks the PIONEER came out with its coverage of school activities. A highlight in the news staff's year was winning the Greater Kansas City Publication association's annual newswriting contest.

Sharon Tally and Gib Twyman file records for the PIONEER.

Staff members are Jim Shineman, editor-in-chief; Mary Combs, assistant editor; Donna Holman, advertising manager; Sharon Tally, business manager; Barbara Colcleasure, circulation manager; Jane Hemphill, page one editor; Sue Koch, page two editor; Mary Hahn, page three editor; and Gib Twyman, sports editor.

Mary Hahn, Donna Holman, Jim Shineman, and Mary Combs look over the latest issue of the PIONEER.

Sue Koch, Jane Hemphill, and Barbara Colcleasure work to meet a deadline.

FALCON STAFF: Row One: Julie Choplin, editor; Pat Sterling, business; Robert Healy, copy; R. L. Huffstutter, art; Judy Williams, layout; Sandra Hurst, seniors. Row Two: Pat Whetstone, editor; Kathy Hahn, business; Carole Hughes, classes; Sandra Amermon, seniors; Judy Stearns, clubs; Fred Howland, sports. Row Three: Roger Coldsnow, sports; Larry Kruse, sports; Sondra Hudson, classes; Paul McClain, Divisions; H. M. Dodd, photography.

When the seventeen members of the FALCON staff first met in the fall of 1959 they had no idea of what a tremendous job was facing them. They thought that putting a yearbook together would be easy. Then came the identification of 1300 pictures and the preparation of layout mats which caused them to see what a gargantuan task they had undertaken. They then knuckled down and worked on Saturdays and after school to accomplish the task. It was a big undertaking; but everyone of the staff members had fun; and pride was shown by all when they viewed their finished book.

Five guys and a table.

FALCON STAFF

Your FALCON STAFF hard at work.

Editors Pat Whetstone and Julie Choplin plan '60 FALCON.

WE ARE A PART OF THE BUSINESS WORLD

The purpose of C.O.E. is to acquaint students who are still in high school with the business world. The students enrolled in C.O.E. go to school one half day and work on a supervised job the other half. The activities of the student on the job are supervised by the employer. The school coordinator, J. Farrell Amos, confers with the employer periodically. In this way the student develops a better understanding of the business world.

I SPEAK FOR DEMOCRACY

The reading of a script written by the speaker on the subject "I Speak for Democracy" was the basis for judging the winner of the "I Speak for Democracy Contest."

Larry Dickson, junior, won the contest at Van Horn after having the recording of the script judged by a local radio station. This enabled Larry to represent Van Horn in competition with winners from other schools.

AMERICAN LEGION ORATORICAL CONTEST

Kathy Key, senior, again brought recognition to Van Horn as a participant in the American Legion Oratorical Contest. Last year Kathy went to the state contest held in the state capital at Jefferson City, and she placed third.

This year Kathy won the school, city, district, and zone contests; and, again, she represented Van Horn well in the state contest.

VANTASIA

RAGGEDY ANN AND RAGGEDY ANDY are brought to life by Norma Wilson and Diana Idleman in the "Doll Dance," one of the acts in the 1959 version of VANTASIA.

STUDENT DIRECTORS OF VANTASIA, Karson Morrison and Richard Grove, look over the script before one of the rehearsals.

VAN HORN'S DANCE BAND plays for one of the scenes in VANTASIA.

Again, VANTASIA, the all-school show, was a success. It played to a full house both nights. The theme was "There's No Business Like Show Business." The first act presented vaudeville acts, while the second act presented modern-day show business.

MEMBERS OF THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB sing folk songs as their part in VANTASIA.

KAPPONIAN

These are our Kappa girls. To them belongs the distinction of being the first group at Van Horn to aspire to the finest in literary work and sportsmanship. To them, also, belongs the responsibility of nurturing five-year-old traditions into something as long lasting as Van Horn itself. The fun point of a Kappa's busy year is the summer reunion, high point is Lit Night. To win is her goal, but to take defeat gracefully is her ideal.

Row Two: Mike Fischer, chaplain; John Fields, treasurer; Tom Pickett, secretary; Karson Morrison, vice-president; Louis Bartow, president.

Sigma Tau has dedicated this past year to working for the good of Van Horn. The members of Sigma Tau erected a sixteen-foot sign, designed to build up school spirit and enthusiasm, preceding each football game. Their Christmas party was held at the home of Dr. G. Tice. A new tradition was established with the purchase by members of the black and gold jackets embroidered with the name and letters. Sigma Tau also sponsored a dance after the last basketball game of the season, dedicating the profit toward sending the cheerleaders to a cheerleader camp. Sigmas feel that they have lived up to their name Sigma Tau—Service and Training.

S—is for sincerity the Sigma boys retain.
 I—is for intelligence that each one has or gains.
 G—is for the gracious way they work and strive for Sigma.
 M—is for most boys who dream of Sigma Tau.
 A—is for activities and the feelings of each for all.
 T—is for talent especially displayed at Lit Night.
 A—is for alertness, so shiny and so bright.
 U—is for the utmost work you do and do right.

F. H. A.

The purpose of the Future Homemakers of America is to teach girls the duties and responsibilities with which they should be familiar for later life.

Aiding the community, working for degrees, initiation, and exchanging activities with other chapters have been their goals for this year. Their community project for this year was making toys for Children's Mercy Hospital.

The F.H.A. was under the able leadership of their officers and sponsor, Mrs. Cleo Soapes.

F.H.A. girls made fudge for a project; with the money they received, they carried out their work for Mercy Hospital.

THESPIANS

To create an active and intelligent interest in all forms of dramatic arts, to create an appreciation of the theater, motion pictures, radio, and television, and to try to improve the quality of students' work are the main purposes of the Thespians.

The Thespians helped write the script and helped in producing VANTASIA. They also presented an assembly entitled "The Monkey's Paw." They had an active part in the production of the spring play, "The Diary of Anne Frank."
