VAN HORN HIGH SCHOOL

TRUMAN ROAD & ARLINGTON

KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

MADISON GRIFFITH, principal, has directed the activities at Van Horn for five years. His ability has been shown daily as he guides the faculty and students. He has the duty of supervising all administrative duties of the school.

MR. GRIFFITH works hard at Van Horn.

MR. GRIFFITH and MR. HEINE work together to direct Van Horn's activities.

FRED HEINE, vice principal, has had the difficult task of handling Van Horn's disciplinary problems. He also takes care of the enrollment of students and the scheduling of classes.

MISS HELEN JOHNSON, counselor, has helped students with their programs since 1955. This year she is the counselor for the eighth, tenth, and twelfth grades.

BEN KING, counselor, also helps the students plan their programs and preparations for future college days. This year he counsels the ninth and eleventh grades.

Thala Phi girls strived diligently for a victory on Lit Nite under the sponsorship of Mrs. Robert Diener. A new project which Thala accomplished during the Christmas holidays was providing a needy family with gifts and food. From this activity each member seemed to have a deeper meaning for Thala. The remaining part of the year was spent in preparation for Lit Nite which included composing praise songs, choosing dresses, and perfecting literary work.

Sigma Tau is unique in that it is the only masculine society at Van Horn. Some of the activities of Sigma during the past year were the preparation of original literary and oratory works to be entered in competition on Lit Night, a Christmas Party held at the home of Dr. G. Tice, and their annual Spring Banquet. Sigma Tau started a new tradition this year by abolishing informal initiation of new members. Instead these new members spent one Saturday afternoon beautifying Van Horn's campus and re-decorating the wastebaskets throughout the building. Mr. Stewart was again sponsor, completing two highly profitable years at the helm of Sigma Tau. Sigma's feel that they have upheld their society's ideals--Service and Training.

Thespian troupe 1313, under the direction of Robert Klamm, has successfully presented for the pleasure of the Van Horn audiences many such plays as "The People vs. Maxine Lowe," "The Diary of Anne Frank," and this year's production of "Outward Bound." The Thespians always strive to live up to their motto, "Act well your part."

During the course of the school year, time was allotted for the presentation of the annual Thespian assembly. This year's presentation included "Still Alarm," a short play by George Kauffman; "Tribune Primer," a group of short poems by Eugene Fields; and an excerpt of the love affair of Pyramus and Thisbe from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by Shakespeare.

"Now Charles, don't be modest."

Thespians also strive to produce plays that are challenging and which contain certain obstacles of some difficulty. For example, this year's play, "Outward Bound", was basically an adult play with such complexities involved that it was not advisable to present before a public of children and adults. Thus, the Thespian troupe set about to rewrite and recast the play in order for it to be suitable for our Van Horn area public.

Despite all their work, the Thespians have had fun making scenery, directing and producing plays, and especially taking in new members. But as new members come in, the seniors must leave. So, at the end of the year, the Thespians hold a traditional banquet in honor of these departing fellow actors.

Spanish Students study Spain and Mexico through posters and charts.

Los Halcones, the Spanish club, promotes further knowledge of the Spanish language and customs for those students enrolled in Spanish classes who desire a better understanding of the subject. This further knowledge is achieved through movies, field trips, visits from Spanish speaking people and participation in the club meetings. Los Halcones, sponsored by Miss Willella Curnutt, is held after school on Thursdays.

During the 60-61 school year several new activities were presented to Van Horn students in the hope that they would become future traditions. Among the new traditions was the crowning of a Basketball Sweetheart. Janet Fields, senior, reigned as Van Horn's first Sweetheart at a ceremony presented at the Sweetheart dance held after the Falcons game with Central. Janet also holds such honors as being the president of the Kapponian Literary Society, president of the varsity pep club, vice president of Sea Maids, secretary of the student council, president of the Latin club, and a member of the FALCON staff,

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The document provides a detailed list of items that should be tracked, such as inventory levels, supplier payments, and customer orders. It also outlines the procedures for reconciling accounts and identifying discrepancies.

The second part of the document focuses on the analysis of the recorded data. It describes various methods for interpreting the information, such as comparing current performance with historical trends and industry benchmarks. The document highlights the significance of identifying patterns and anomalies that may indicate underlying issues or opportunities. It also discusses the role of management in reviewing the data and making informed decisions based on the findings.

The final part of the document addresses the reporting requirements and the communication of the results. It explains how to prepare clear and concise reports that provide a comprehensive overview of the financial situation. The document also discusses the importance of transparency and accountability in the reporting process, and provides guidance on how to present the information in a way that is easy to understand and actionable.
